Besides the manifold and continual benefits which Almighty God bestoweth vpon vs, both corporall and spiritual, we are especially bounde (deare brethren) to giue him thanks without ceasing for his great grace and unspeakable mercies, in that it hath pleased him to call vs vnto this marueilous light of his Gospel, and mercifully to guard vs alter so horrible backsliding & falling away from Christ to Antichrist, from light to darknes, from the liuing God to dumme and dead idoles, and that after so cruell murder of Gods Saints, as alas, bene among vs, we are not altogether cast off, as were the Israelites, & many others for the like, or not so manifest wickednes, but receiued againe to grace with most euident signes and tokens of Gods especiall loue and fauour.
To the intent therefore that wee may not bee vaine of these great mercies, but seeke by all meanes (according to our Aetic) to be thankfull for the same, it beloueth vs so to walke in his feare and loue, that all the dayes of our life wee may procure the glory of his holy Name. Now forasmuch as this thing chiefly is attained by the knowledge and practising of the worde of God, (which is the light to our pathes, the key of the kingdome of heauen, our comfort in affliction, our shield and sword against Satan, the schoole of all wisdom, the glasse wherein we beholde Gods face, the testimonie of his faueur, and the onely foode and nourishment of our soules) we thought that we could bestowe our labours and studie in nothing which could bee more acceptable to God and comfortable to his Church, then in the translating of the holy Scriptures into our native tongue: the which thing, albeit that diuers heretofore haue indeuoured to achieve: yet considring the infancie of those times and imperfect knowledge of the tongues, in respect of this ripe age and cleare light which God hath now reueiled, the translations required greatly to be perused and reformed. Not that we vendicate any thing to our selues about the least of our brethren (for God knoweth with what feare & trembling we haue bene for the space of two yeeres and more, day and night occupied herein) but being earnestly desired, and by diuers, whose learning and godlines wee reuerence, exhorted, and also incouraged by the ready willes of such, whose hearts God likewise touched, not to spare any charges for the furtherance of such a benefit & fauor of God toward his Church (though the time then was most dangerous, and the persecution sharpe & furious) we submitted our selues at length to their godly iudgements, and seeing the great opportunities and occasions, which God presented vnto vs in his Church, by reason of so many godly and learned men, and such diuersities of translations in diuers tongues: we vnderooke this great & wonderful worke (with all reuerence, as in the presence of God, as intreating the word of God, whereunto we thinke our selues vn sufficient) which now God, according to his diuine prouidence & mercy, hath directed to a most prosperous end. And this we may with good conscience protest, that we haue in every point & word, according to the measure of that knowledge which it pleased Almighty God to giue vs, faithfully rended the text, and in all hard places most sincerely expounded the same. For God is our witnesse, that wee haue by all meanes endeouored to set forth the puritie of the word and right sense of the holy Ghost, for the edifying of the brethren in faith and charitie.

Now as we haue chiefly obserued the sense, and laboured alwayes to restore it to all integritie: so haue we most reuerent-ly kept the propriety of the words, considering that the Apostles who spake and wrote to the Gentiles in the Greeke tongue, rather constrained them to the liuely phrase of the Ebrewe, then enterprised farre by mollifying their language to speake as the Gentiles did. And for this & other causes we haue in many places reserued the Ebrew phrases, notwithstanding that they may seeme somewhat hard in their eares that are not well practised, and also delight in the sweet sounding phrases of the holy Scriptures. Yet lest either the simple (should be discouraged, or the malicious haue any occasion of iust cauilla-tion, seeing the translations read after one sort, and some after another, whereas all may serue to good purpose & edification, we haue in the margin noted that diuersitie of speech or reading which may also seeme agreeable to the minde of the holy Ghost, as proper for our language with this marke ||. Again, whereas the Ebrewe speech seemed hardly to agree with ours, wee noted it in the margin after this sort ¶, vsing that which was more intelligible. And albeit that many of the Ebrewe may be altered from the old text, and restored to the true writing & first originall, whereof they haue their sig-nification, yet the vsual names little is changed for feare of troubling the simple readers. Moreouer, whereas the necessitie of the sentence required any thing to be added (for such is the grace and propriety of the Ebrewe and Greeke tongues that it cannot but cleare by circumlocution, or by adding the verbe or some word, be vnderstood of them that are not well practised therein) we haue put it in the text with an other kinde of letter, that it may easily bee discerned from the common letter. As touch the diuision of the verses, we haue folowed the Ebrew examples, which haue so euen from the beginning distinguished the. Which thing as it is most profitable for memorie, so doth it agree with the best translations, and is most easie to finde out both by the best Concordances, and also by the quotations which we haue diligently herein perused and set forth by this ¶. Besides this, the principall matters are noted and distinguished by this marke ¶. Yea and the arguments both for the booke and for the chapters with the number of the verse are added, that by all meanes the reader might be holpen. For which cause also wee haue set ouer the head of euery page some notable worde or sentence which may greatly further alse for memorie, as for the chiefe point of the page. And considering how hard a thing it is to vnderstand the holy Scripture, and what errors, sects and heresies grow dayly for lacke of the true knowledge thereof, and how many are discouraged (as they pretend) because they cannot attaine to the true and simple meaning of the same, we haue also indeuoured both by the diligent reading of the best commentaries, and also by the conference with the godly and learned brethren, to gather briefe annotations vpon all the hard places, aswel for the vnderstanding of such words as are obscure, and for the declaration of the text for the application of the same, as may most appertaine to Gods glory & the edification of his Church.

Furthermore where certain places in the bookes of Moses, of the Kings, & Ezeiel seemed so darke, that by no description they could be made cleare to the simple reader, we haue set them forth with figures and notes for the full declaration thereof, that they who cannot by iudgement, being holpen by the annotations noted by y letters a. b. c. & c. attaine there-unto, yet by the perspicue, and as it were by the eye, may sufficiently know the true meaning of all such places. Whereunto also we haue added certaine Maps of Cosmographie, which necessarily serue for the perfect vnderstanding and memory of diuers places and countries partly described, and partly by occasion touched, both in the old and new Testament.

Finally, that nothing might lacke which might be bought by labours, for the increase of knowledge and furtherance of the glory, there are added two most profitable Tables, the one seruing for the interpretation of the Ebrewe names: and the other the chiefe and principall matters of the whole Bible: so that nothing (as we trust) that any man should iustly desire, as brethren that are partakers of the same hope and saluation with vs, we beseech you, that this labour may not be counted in vaine, but as sent from God to the people of God, for the increase of his Church, and discharge of ones conscience, whom it hath pleased him to raise up for this purpose to receive the worde of God, earnestly studie it, and in all your life practise it, that yee may now be the people of God, not walking any more according to this world, but in the fruits of the Spirit, that glorify through Christ Iesus our Lord, who liueth and reigneth for euer. Amen.

was in the earth, and every herbe of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to raine upon the earth, neither was there a man to till the ground,

6 But a myst went vp from the earth, and watered all the earth.

7 ¶ The Lord God also made the man of the dust of the ground, and breathed in his face breath of life, and the man was a living soule.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whome he had made.

9 (For out of the ground made the Lorde God to grow every tree pleasant to the sight, and good for meate: the tree of life also in the middle of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and of euill.)

10 And out of Eden went a riuer to water the garden, and from thence it was diuided, and became into foure heads.

11 The name of one is Pishon: the same compasseth the whole land of Hauilah, where is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is Bdelium, and the Onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second riuer is Gihon: the same compasseth the whole land of Cush:

14 The name also of the third riuer is Hiddekel: this goeth toward the East side of Assyria: and the fourth riuer is Perath)

15 ¶ Then the Lord God tooke the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might dress it and keepe it.

16 And the Lord God commanded the man saying, ¶ Thou shalt eate freely of every tree of the garden.

17 But of the tree of knowledge of good and euill, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt die the death.

18 Also the Lorde God sayde, It is not good that the man should be himself alone: I wil make him an helpe meete for him.

19 So the Lorde God formed of the earth every beast of the field, and every fowle of the heaven, and brought them vnto the man to see how he would call them: for howsoever the man named the liuing creature, so was the name thereof.

20 The man therefore gaue names vnto all cattell, and to the fowle of the heaven, and to eu-ery beast of the field: but for Adam found he not an helpe meete for him.

21 ¶ Therefore the Lord God caused an heauie sleepe to fall upon the man, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed vp the flesh in stead thereof.

22 And the rib which the Lord God had taken from the man, made hee a woman, and brought her to the man.

23 Then the man sayd, ¶ This now is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called woman, because she was taken out of man.

24 ¶ Therefore shall man leaue his father and his mother, and shall cleaue to his wife, and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

THE SITUATION OF THE GARDEN OF EDEN.

Because mention is made in the tenth verse of this Chapter, of the river that watered the garden, we must note that Euphrates and Tigris, called in Hebrew, Perath & Hiddekel, were called but one river where they joined together, as they had some heads: that is, two at their springs, and two where they fell into the Persian sea. In this country and most plentiful land Adam dwelt, and this was called Paradise, that is, a garden of pleasure, because of the fruitfulness and abundance thereof. And whereas it is said that Pishon compasseth the land of Havilah, it is meant of Tigris, which in some countries, as it is, called by divers places was called by sundry names, as some time Diglito, in other places Pashigra, and of some Phasin or Pishon. Likewise Euphrates toward the country of Cush or Ethiopia, or Arabia, was called Gihon. So that Tigris and Euphrates, which were but two rivers, and sometime when they joined together, were called after one name, were according to divers places called by these four names, so that they might seem to have borne four different rivers.

CHAP. III.

3 The woman seduced by the serpent, & enticeth her husband to sinne. 8 They both sinned from the tree. 14 They three are punished. 15 Christ is promised: 18 Man is cast out of Paradise.

Now the serpent was more subtil then any beast of the field, which the Lord God had made: and he said to the woman, Yea, hath God indeed said, Yee shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said vnto the serpent, We eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden.

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the mids of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 Then the serpent said to the woman, Ye shall not die at all.

5 But God doth know that when ye shall eat thereof, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and euill.

6 So the woman (seeing that the tree was good for meat, & that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired, to get knowledge) tooke of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gaue also to her husband with her, and he did eat.

7 Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed figge tree leaues together, and made themselves breeches.

8 Afterward they heard the voyce of the Lord God walking in the garden in the coole of the day, and the man & his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

9 But the Lord God called to the man, and said vnto him, Where art thou?

10 Who said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and was afraid: because I was naked, therefore I hid my selfe.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree wherof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eate.

12 Then the man said, The woman which thou gavest to mee with mee, shee gaue mee of the tree, and I did eate.

13 And the Lord God saide to the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eate.

14 Then the Lord God layd to the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattel, and above every beast of the field: vpon thy belly shalt thou goe, and dust shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy life.

15 Hee asked the reason of Adam and his wife, because he would bring them to repentance, but he asketh not the serpent, because hee would shew him no mercy.

THE FIRST BOOKE OF MOSES, CALLED *GENESIS.

THE ARGUMENT.

Moses in effect declareth three things, which are in this booke chiefly to be considered: First, that the world, and all things therein were created by God; and that man being placed in this great Tabernacle of the world to behold Gods wonderfull workes, and to praise his Name for the infinite graces, wherewith he had endued him, fell willingly from God through disobedience, who yet for his own mercies sake restored him to life, and confirmed him in the same by his promise of Christ to come, by whom he should overcome Satan, death, and hell. Secondly, that the wicked unthankfull of Gods most excellent benefites, varnished still in their wickednesse, and falling most horribly from sinne to sinne, provoked God (who by his preachers called them continually to repentance) at length to destroy the whole world. Thirdly, hee assureth us by the examples of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and the rest of the Patriarches, that his mercies neuer faile them, in whom hee thought to bee his Church, and to professe his Name in earth, but in all their afflictions and persecutions he ever assisted them, sendeth comfort, and deliuereth them. And because the beginning, increase, preservation and successe thereof might be onely attributed to God, Moses sheweth by the example of Cain, Ishmael, Esau and others, which were notable in mans judgement, that this Church dependeth not on the estimation and nobilitie of the world: and also by the friendshipp of them, which haue at all times worshipped him purely according to his word, that it standeth not in the multitude, but in the poore and despised, in the small flocks and little number, that man in his wisdoms might be confounded, and the Name of God evermore praised.

* This word signifieth the beginning and generation of the creatures.

CHAP. I.

1 God created the heauen and the earth. 2 The light and the darkness. 3 The firmament. 4 He separated the waters from the earth. 5 He created the sunne, the moone, and the starres. 6 He created the fowles, beasts, and creeping things. 7 He created man in his own image, and gave him rule over all creatures. 8 And pronounced blessing for man and beast.

In the beginning God created the heauen & the earth.

2 And the earth was without forme and void, and darkness was vpon the face, and the Spirit of God mooued vpon the waters.

3 Then God sayd, * Let there be light: And there was light.

4 And God saw the light that it was good, and God separated the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light, Day, and the darkness, he called Night: So the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 * Againe God said, * Let there be a firmament in the mids of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.

7 Then God made the firmament, and separated the waters, which were vnder the firmament, from the waters which were aboue the firmament, and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament, * Heauen. So the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 * God said againe, * Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appeare, and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land, Earth, and hee called the gathering together of the waters, Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, * Let the earth bud forth the bud of the herbe, that seedeth seede, the fruitfull tree, which beareth fruit according to his kinde, which hath his seede in it selfe vpon the earth, and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth the bud of the herbe, that seedeth seede according to his kind, also the tree that beareth fruit, which hath his seede in it selfe according to his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 * So the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 * And God said, * Let there be lights in the firmament of the heauen, to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signes, and for seasons, and for dayes, and yeeres.

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heauen to giue light vpon the earth, and it was so.

16 God then made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesse light to rule the night: he made also the starres.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to giue light vpon the earth,

18 And to rule in the day, and in the night, and to separate the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 * So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 Afterward God said, Let the waters bring forth living creatures, as camels, oxen, and beasts of the field, and the fowles of the heauen, and the fishes of the sea, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and it was so.

21 And God said, Let man be in our image, after our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fishes of the sea, and over the fowles of the heauen, and over the beasts of the field, and over all the creeping things that creep upon the earth, and over every beast that is upon the earth, and it was so.

k So that we find it is the only power of Gods word that maketh the earth fruitful which also may be in heaven. This sentence is so interpreted as if it signified that God made all creatures in his own image, and to his glory, and to the praise of his name, but for that they were created by his word, and are preserved by his word, and are subject to his word, and are to be used for his glory, and to the praise of his name. This is the true sense of the text, and it is so interpreted in all the best translations of the Bible.

THE SITUATION OF THE GARDEN OF EDEN.

Though mention is made in the sixth verse of this Chapter of the river that watered the garden, we must note that Euphrates and Tigris, called in Hebrew, Perath and Hiddekel, were called but one river when they joined together, which had four heads that were at their springs, and where they fell into the Persian Sea. 22 ¶ And the Lord God said, Beholde, the man is become as one of vs, to know good and euill. Now left hee put forth his hand, and y take also of the tree of life, and eat, and liue for euer.

23 Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the earth, whence he was taken.

24 Thus he sent out man, and at the East side of the garden of Eden he set the Cherubims, and the blade of a sword shakyn, to keepe the way of the tree of life.

25 Adam depriued of life, left also the signe thereof.

20re; also vnto thee his desire shall be, & thou shalt rule over him.

23 ¶ Then Kain spake vnto Habel his brother: And when they were in the field, Kain roled vp against Habel his brother, and slew him.

24 ¶ Then the Lord sayde vnto Kain, Where is Habel thy brother? Who answered, I cannot tell.

25 Am I my brothers keeper?

26 Again he said, What hast thou done? the voyce of thy brothers blood crieth vnto mee from the earth.

27 Now therefore thou art cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brothers blood from thine hand.

28 When thou shalt till the ground, it shall not henceforth yeeld vnto thee her strength: a vagabonde and a runnagate shalt thou be in the earth.

29 ¶ Then Kain said to the Lord, My punishment is greater then I can beare.

30 Beholde, thou hast cast mee out this day from the earth, and from thy face shall I be hid, and shall be a vagabond, and a runnagate in the earth, and whosoever findeth me shall slay mee.

31 Then the Lord sayd vnto him, Doubtlesse whosoever slayeth Kain, her shall bee punished seven fold. And the Lord set a mark vpon Kain, lest any man finding him, should kill him.

32 Then Kain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod toward the East side of Eden.

33 Kain also knew his wife, which conceived and bare Henoch: and he built a citie, and called the name of the citie by the name of his sonne, Henoch.

34 And to Henoch was borne Irad, and Irad begate Mehuliel, and Mehuliel begate Methushael, and Methushael begate Lamech.

35 ¶ And Lamech tooke to him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

36 And Adah bare Iabal, who was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as keep cattell.

37 And his brothers name was Iubal, who was the father of all that play on the sharpe and || organs.

38 And Zillah also bare Tubal-kain, who wrought cunningly euery craft of bras and of yron: and the sister of Tubal-kain was Naamah.

39 ¶ Then Lamech sayde vnto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Heare my voyce, ye wives of Lamech: hearken vnto my speech: for I would slay a man in my wound, & a young man in mine hurt.

40 If Kain shall be avenged seven fold, truly Lamech seventy times seven fold.

41 ¶ And Adam knew his wife againe, and she bare a sonne, and then called his name Sheth for God said, Behold, he hath appointed me another seed for Habel because Kain is dead.

42 And to the same Sheth also there was borne a sonne, and hee called his name Enosh. Then began men to call vpon the Name of the Lord.

¶ He mocked at Gods sufferance in Kain, telling another that God would punish him, and yet sheweth howe in another place he began to moue the hearts of the godly to other religions, which a long time by the wicked had bene suppressed.

e 1 Chron. 1. 1.

This is the ll books of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created Adam, in the likenesse of God made he him.

2 Male and female created he them, and blef-sed them, and called their name Adam in the day that they were created.

3 ¶ Now Adam liued an hundred and thirtie yeeres, and begate a childe in his owne likenesse after his image, and called his name Sheth.

4 ¶ And the dayes of Adam, after he had begotten Sheth, were eight hundred yeeres, and he begate sonnes and daughters.

5 So all the dayes that Adam liued, were nine hundred and thirtie yeeres, and he died.

6 And Sheth liued an hundred and fife yeeres, and begate Enosh.

7 And Sheth liued after he begate Enosh, eight hundred and seven yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

8 So all the dayes of Sheth were nine hun- dred and twelue yeeres: and he died.

9 ¶ Also Enosh liued ninety yeeres, and begate Kenan.

10 And Enosh liued, after he begate Kenan, eight hundred and sixtine yeeres, and begate
sonnes and daughters.

11 So all the dayes of Enosh were nine hundred and fife yeeres: and he died.

12 ¶ Likewise Kenan liued seuentie yeres, and begate Mahalaleel.

13 And Kenan liued, after hee begate Maha- laleel, eight hundred and fourtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

14 So all the dayes of Kenan were nine hundred and ten yeeres: and he died.

15 ¶ Mahalaleel also liued sixtie and fife yeeres, and begate Iered.

16 Also Mahalaleel liued, after he begate Ie- red, eight hundred and thirtie yeeres, and begate
sonnes and daughters.

17 So all the dayes of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and fife yeeres: and he died.

18 ¶ And Iered liued an hundred sixtie and two yeeres, and begate Enoch.

19 Then Iered liued, after he begate Enoch, eight hundred yeeres, and begate sonnes and
daughters.

20 So all the dayes of Iered were nine hundred sixtie and two yeeres: and he died.

21 ¶ Also Enoch liued sixtie and fife yeres, and begate Methuselah.

22 And Enoch walked with God, after he begate Methuselah, three hundred yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

23 So all the daies of Enoch were three hundred sixtie and fife yeeres.

24 And Enoch walked with God, & he was no more seene: for God tooke him away.

25 Methuselah also liued an hundred eight-tie and seven yeeres, and begate Lamech.

26 And Methuselah liued, after hee begate Lamech, seven hundred eighty and two yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

27 So all the dayes of Methuselah were nine hundred sixtie and nine yeeres, and hee died.

28 ¶ Then Lamech liued an hundred eighty and two yeeres, and begate a sonne,

29 And called his name, Noah, saying, This same shall comfort vs concerning our worke and sorrow of our hands, as touching the earth, which the Lord hath cursed.

30 And Lamech liued after he begate Noah, five hundred ninety and fife yeeres, and begate
sonnes and daughters.

31 So all the dayes of Lamech were seven hundred seuentie and seven yeeres: and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred yeere olde.
And Noah begate Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAP. VI.

3 God threatneth to bring the flood. 5 Man is altogether corrupte.
6 God repenteth that he made him. 18 Noah and his wife prepared in the Arke, which he was commanded to make.

So when men began to bee multiplied vpon the earth, and there were daughters borne vnto them,

2 Then the sonnes of God sawe the daughters of men that they were faire, and they took them wiues of all that they liked.

3 Therefore the Lord sayde, My spirit shall not alway strive with man, because hee is but flesh, and his dayes shall bee an hundred and twentie yeeres.

4 There were giants in the earth in those dayes: yea, and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and they had borne them children, these were mightie men, which in old time were men of renoume.

5 ¶ When the Lord saw that the wickednesse of man was great in the earth, and all the imaginations of the thoughts of his heart were onely quill continually,

6 Then it repented the Lorde, that hee had made man in the earth, and hee was sorry in his heart.

7 Therefore the Lord sayde, I will destroy from the earth the man, whome I haue created, from man to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the foule of the heauen: for I repent that I haue made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a iust and vpright man in his time: and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sonnes, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God for the earth was filled with crueltie.

12 Then God looked vpon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupt his way vpon the earth.

13 And God sayd vnto Noah, An end of all flesh is come before me: for the earth is filled with crueltie: I through them: and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an Arke of pinetrees: thou shalt make cabinies in the Arke, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And thus shalt thou make it: The length of the Arke shall bee three hundred cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, and the height of it three hundred cubites. 10 Or, 1000. 11 Meaning that all were of one kinde, and therefore they were all destroyed together. 12 Or,

5 And the waters were going and decreasing vntill the tenth moneth: in the tenth moneth, and in the first day of the moneth, were the tops of the mountaines seene.

6 ¶ So after fourtie dayes, Noah opened the windowes of the Arke which he had made,

7 And sent forth a rauen, which went out, going forth and returning, vntill the waters were dried vp vpon the earth.

8 Again he sent a dove from him, that he might see if the waters were diminished from off the earth.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot: therefore shee returned vnto him into the Arke (for the waters were vpon the whole earth) and he put forth his hand, and received her, and tooke her to him into the Arke.

10 And he abode yet other seven dayes, and againe he sent forth the dove out of the Arke.

11 And the dove came to him in the evening, and lo, in her mouth was an olive leafe that she had pluckt: whereby Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 Notwithstanding, he waited yet other seven dayes, and sent forth the dove, which returned not againe vnto him any more.

13 ¶ And in the first hundred, and one yeere, in the first day of the first moneth, the waters were dried vp from off the earth: and Noah removed the couering of the Arke, and looked, and behold, the vpper part of the ground was drie.

14 And in the second moneth, in the seven and twentieth day of the moneth, was the earth drie.

15 ¶ Then God spake to Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of the Arke, thou, & thy wife, and thy sonnes, and thy sonnes wiues with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every beast that is with thee, of all flesh, both foule and cattell, and every thing that creepeth and mooueth vpon the earth, that they may breede abundantly in the earth, and bring forth fruit and increase vpon the earth.

18 So Noah came forth, and his sonnes, and his wife and his sonnes wiues with him.

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every foule, all that mooueth vpon the earth after their kindes, went out of the Arke.

20 ¶ Then Noah built an altar to the Lord, and tooke of every cleane beast, and of every cleane foule, and offered burnt offerings vpon the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a sweet savour of rest, and the Lord said in his heart, I will henceforth curse the ground no more for mans cause: for the imagination of man's heart is evil, when from his youth: neither will I smite any more all things liuing, as I haue done.

22 Hereafter seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and Summer and Winter, and day and night shall not cease, so long as the earth remaineth.

And God blessed Noah and his sonnes, and said to them, Bring forth fruit, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

¶ Chap. 1. 28 and 8. 17.

2 Also the feare of you, and the dread of you shall be vpon every beast of the earth, and vpon every foule of the heauen, vpon all that mooueth on the earth, and vpon all the fishes of the sea: into your hand are they deliuered.

3 Every thing that moueth and liueth, shall be meat for you: as the Greene herbe, haue I giuen you all things.

4 But flesh with the life thereof, I mean, with the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

5 For surely I will require your blood, wherein your liues are: at the hande of every beast will I require it: and at the hand of man, even at the hand of a mans brother will I require the life of man.

6 Who so sheddeth mans blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God hath he made man.

7 But bring ye forth fruit & multiply: grow plentifully in the earth, and increase therein.

8 ¶ God spake also to Noah and to his sons with him, saying,

9 Beholde, I, euen I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you.

10 And with every liuing creature that is with you, with the foule, with the cattell, and with every beast of the earth with you, from all that go out of the Arke, vnto every beast of the earth.

11 And my covenant will I establish with you, that from hencefoorth all flesh shall not be rooted out by the waters of the flood, neither shall there be a flood to destroy the earth any more.

12 Then God saide, This is the token of the covenant which I make betweene mee and you, and betweene every liuing thing that is with you vnto perpetuall generations.

13 I haue set my bowe in the cloude, and it shall be for a signe of the covenant betweene me and the earth.

14 And when I shall couer the earth with a cloud, and the bow shall be seene in the cloud,

15 Then will I remember my covenant which is betweene me and you, and betweene every liuing thing in all flesh, and there shall be no more waters of a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 Therefore the bow shall be in the cloude, that I may see it, and remember the everlasting covenant betweene God and every liuing thing, in all flesh that is vpon the earth.

17 God said yet to Noah, This is the signe of the covenant, which I haue established betweene me and all flesh that is vpon the earth.

18 ¶ Now the sonnes of Noah going forth of the Arke, were Shem and Ham and Iapheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sonnes of Noah, and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 ¶ Noah also began to be an husbandman, and planted a vineyard.

21 And hee drunke of the wine, and was drunken, and was vncovered in the middle of his tent.

22 And when Ham the father of Canaan saw the nakednesse of his father, hee tolde his two brethren without.

23 Then tooke Shem and Iapheth a garment, and put it vpon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakednesse of their father.

CHAP. IX.

1 The increase of mankind by Noah and his sonnes, 10 The sogunning of Cities, Jewes, and nations.

NOW these are the generations of the sonnes of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Iapheth: vnto whom sonnes were borne after the flood.

2 The sonnes of Iapheth were Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Iauan, and Tubal, and Melchec and Tiras.

3 And the sonnes of Gomer, Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 Also the sonnes of Iauan, Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanini.

5 Of these were the $\|$ yles of the Gentiles diuiden in their lands, every man after his tongue, and after their families in their nations.

6 Moreover the sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan.

7 And the sonnes of Cush, Seba, and Hauilah, and Sabtah, and Razmah, and Sabrocha: also the sonnes of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

8 And Cush begate Nimrod, who began to be a mighty in the earth.

9 He was a mightie hunter before the Lord, Wherefore it is said, As Nimrod the mightie hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land came Assur, and builded
Nineueh, and the $\|$ cities Rehoboth, and Calah:

12 Resin also betwene Nineueh and Calah:
this is a great citie.

13 And Mizraim begate Ludim, and Ana-nim, and Lechaim, and Naphthim.

14 Phut also, and Canaan (out of whom came the Philistims) and $\|$ Caphthims.

15 Also Canaan begate Zidon his first borne, and Heth.

16 And Iebusi, and Emori, and Oirgassi, 17 And Hiti, and Arki, and Sini,

18 And Aruach, and Zamari, and Hamathi: and afterward were the families of the Cananites spread abroad.

19 Then the border of the Chanaanites was from Zidon, as thou goest toward Gerar vnto Az-zah, and as thou goest vnto Sodoma and Gomorah, and Admah, and Zeboiim, vnto Laish.

20 These are the sonnes of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues in their countreys, and in their nations.

21 Vnto Shem also the father of all the sonnes of Eber, and elder brother of Iapheth were children borne.

22 The sonnes of Shem were Elam, and Althur, and Arpachshad, and Laid, and Aram.

23 And the sonnes of Aram, Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 Also Arpachshad begate Shelah, and Shelah begate Eber.

25 Vnto Eber also were borne two sonnes:
the name of the one was Peleg: for in his dayes was the earth diuided: and his brother was Joktan.

26 Then Joktan begate Almodad, and She-leph, and Hazarmauth, and Terah.

27 And Hadoram, and Vzai, and Diklah,
28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Hauilah, and Jobab: all these were the sonnes of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest vnto Sephar, a mount of the East.

31 These are the sonnes of Shem, according to their families, according to their tongues in their countreys and nations.

32 These are the families of the sonnes of Noah, after their generations among their people:
and out of these were the nations diuided in the earth after the flood.

CHAP. XI.

1 The building of Babel was the cause of the confusion of tongues.
2 The age & generation of Shem vnto Abram, 11 Abram departeth from Ur, with his father Terah, Sarai, and Lot. 12
The age and death of Terah.

THEN the whole earth was of one language, and one speech.

2 And as they went from the East, they found a plains in the land of Shinar, and there they abode.

3 And they said one to another, Come, let vs make bricke, and burne as in the fire, for they had bricke for stone, and flume had: they in heart were one.

4 Also they said, Goe to, let vs build a citie and a tower: whose top may reach vnto the heauen, that we may get vs a name, lest we be scattered vpon the whole earth.

5 But the Lord came downe, to see the citie and tower, which the sonnes of men builded.

6 And the Lord said, Behold, the people are one, and they all haue one language, and this they begin to doe, neither can they now be stopped from whatsoeuer they haue imagined to doe.

7 Come on, let vs come downe, and there confound their language, that they one perceiue not anothers speech.

8 So the Lord scattered them from thence vpon all the earth, and they left off to build the citie.

9 Therefore the name of it was called $\|$ Babel, because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: from thence then did the Lord scatter them vpon all the earth.

10 These are the generations of Shem:
Shem was an hundred yeere olde, and begate Arpachshad two yeere after the flood.

11 And Shear had after her begate Arpach-had five hundred yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
 12 Also Arpach had liued six & thirty yeres, and begate Shelah.
 13 And Arpach had liued after he begate Shelah, four hundred and three yeres, and begate
 sonnes and daughters.
 14 And Shelah liued thirtie yeres, and begate Eber.
 15 So Shelah liued after he begate Eber four hundred and three yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
 16 Likewise Eber liued four and thirty yeres;
 and begate Peleg.
 17 So Eber liued after he begate Peleg four hundred and thirty yeres; and begate sonnes and daughters.
 18 And Peleg liued thirtie yeres, and begate Reu.
 19 And Peleg liued after he begate Reu two hundred and nine yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
 20 Also Reu liued two and thirtie yeres, and begate Serug.
 21 So Reu liued after hee begate Serug two hundred and seven yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
 22 Moreover Serug liued thirty yeres, and begate Nahor.
 23 And Serug liued after he begate Nahor two hundred yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
 24 And Nahor liued nine and twentie yeres, and begate Terah.
 25 So Nahor liued after he begate Terah, an hundred and nineteene yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
 26 So Terah liued seventy yeres, and begate Abram, Nahor, and Haran.
 27 Now these are the generations of Terah:
 Terah begate Abram, Nahor, & Haran: and Ha-ran begate Lot.
 28 Then Haran died before Terah his father in the land of his nativity, in Vr of the Caldees.
 29 So Abram and Nahor tooke them wiues:
 The name of Abrams wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahors wife Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Isaac.
 30 But Sarai was barren, and had no child.
 31 Then Terah tooke Abram his sonne, and Lot the sonne of Haran his sonnes sonne, and Sarai his daughter in law, his sonne Abrams wife:
 and they departed together from Vr of the Caldees, to goe into the land of Canaan, and they came to Haran, and dwelt there.
 32 So the dayes of Terah were two hundredth and five yeres, and Terah died in Haran.

C H A P. XII.

1 Abram by Gods commandment goeth to Canaan. 2. Shrieth against the Chaldees. 3. He buildeth an altar for exercise and adoration of his faith among the infidels. 4. Because of the dearth he goeth into Egypt. 5. Pharaohs wife is seduced, and is punished.
 6. The Lord had sayde vnto Abram, 7. Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kinned, and from thy fathers house vnto the land that I will shew thee.
 8. From the hood to this time were four hundredth twenty and three yeres. 9. In appoyning him no other place, hee proueth so much more his faith and obedience.

1 And I will make of thee a great nation: & will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.
 2 I will also bless them that curse thee, and curse them that curse thee, and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
 3 So Abram departed, when as the Lord spake vnto him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seuenie and five yeres old, when he departed out of Haran.
 4 Then Abram tooke Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's sonne, and all their substance that they possessed, and the foules that they had gotten in Haran, and they departed to goe to the land of Canaan, and to the land of Canaan they came.
 5 So Abram passed through the land vnto the place of Shechem, & vnto the plaine of Mo-reh (and the Canaanite was then in the land).
 6 And the Lord appeared vnto Abram, and said, Vnto thy feede will I giue this land. And there builded he an altar vnto the Lord, which appeared vnto him.
 7 Afterward removing thence vnto a moun-taine Eastward from Beth-el, he pitched his tent hauing Beth-el on the West side, and Hai on the East, and there he built an altar vnto the Lord, and called on the Name of the Lord.
 8 Againe Abram went forth going and journeying toward the South.
 9 Then there came a famine in the land:
 therefore Abram went down into Egypt to so-iourne there: for there was a great famine in the land.
 10 And when he drewe nere to enter into Egypt, he saide to Sarai his wife, Beholde now,
 I knowe that thou art a faire woman: to look upon:
 11 Therefore it will come to passe that when the Egyptians see thee, they will say, Shee is his wife: so will they kill me: but they will keepe thee aliuie.
 12 Say, I pray thee, that thou art my sister:
 that I may fare well for thy sake, and that my life may be preserved by thee.
 13 Now when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman: for shee was very faire.
 14 And the Princes of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her vnto Pharaoh: so the woman was taken into Pharaohs house.
 15 Who intrusted Abram well for her sake, and he had sheepe, and beemes, and hee asses, and men seruants, and maide seruants, and shee asses, and camels.
 16 But the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wife.
 17 Then Pharaoh called Abram, and saide, Why hast thou done this vnto mee? Wherefore diddest thou not tell me, that she was thy wife?
 18 Why saidst thou, Shee is my sister, that I should take her to bee my wife? Now therefore behold thy wife take her, and goe thy way.
 19 And Pharaoh gaue him a commandment concerning him, and they conueyed him forth and his wife, and all that he had.
 20 So the intent that Pharaoh had, hee kept him in his person, or person.

2 And Abram saide, O Lord God, what wilt thou giue mee, seeing I gee childlesse, and the steward of mine house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

3 Againe Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast giuen no seed: wherefore loe, a seruant of mine house shall be mine heire.

4 Then behold, the word of the Lord came vnto him saying, This man shall not bee thine heire, but one that shall come out of thine owne bowels, he shall be thine heire.

5 Moreover he brought him forth and said, I looke vp now vnto heauen, and tell the starres if thou be able to number them: and he said vnto him, so shall thy seed be.

6 And Abram beleued the Lord, and hee counted that to him for righteousness.

7 Againe hee said vnto him, I am the Lord, that brought thee out of Vr of the Caldees, to giue thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, O Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 Then he said vnto him, Take me an heifer of three yeeres old, and a shee goat of three yeeres olde, and a ram of three yeeres olde, a turtle doue also and a pigeon.

10 So he took all these vnto him, and diuided them in the midst, and layd every piece one against another: but the birds diuided he not.

11 Then foules fell on the carcases, & Abram drone them away.

12 And when the sunne went downe, there fell an heauy sleepe vpon Abram: and loe, a very fearful darkness fell vpon him.

13 Then he said to Abram, Know for a surety, that thy sonne shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, & serue hundred yeeres, and shall serue them: and they shall intreat them euill.

14 Notwithstanding, the nation whom they shall serue, will I iudge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

15 But thou shalt go vnto thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buried in a good age.

16 And in thy fourth generation they shall come hither againe: for the wickednesse of the Amorites is not yet full.

17 Also when the sunne went downe, there was a darkness: & behold, a smoking furnace, and a firebrand, which went betweene those pieces.

18 In that same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Vnto thy seed haue I giuen this land: from the river of Egypt vnto the great river, the river Euphrates.

19 The Kenites, and the Kenezites, and the Kadmonites, 20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims,

Now Sarai Abrams wife bare him no children, and she had a maid an Egyptian, Hagar by name.

2 And Sarai said vnto Abram, Behold now, the Lord hath restrained mee from childe-bearing. I pray thee goe in vnto my maid: it may be that I shall receiue a childe by her. And Abram obeyed the voyce of Sarai.

3 Then Sarai Abrams wifetooke Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelled ten yeere in the land of Canaan, and gaue her to her husband Abram for his wife.

4 And he went in vnto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that shee had conceived, her dame was despised in her eyes.

5 Then Sarai said to Abram, Thou dost me wrong. I haue giuen my maid into thy bosome, and the seed that shee hath conceived, and I am despised in her eyes: the Lord iudge betweene me and thee.

6 Then Abram said to Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thine hand: doe with her as it pleaseth thee. Then Sarai dealt roughly with her: wherefore she fled from her.

7 But the Angel of the Lord found her beside a fountaine of water in the wilderness by the fountaine in the way to Shur,

8 And hee said, Hagar Sarais maid, whence comest thou? and whither wilt thou goe? And she said, I flee from my dame Sarai.

9 Then the Angel of the Lorde sayd to her, Returne to thy dame, and humble thy selfe vnder her hands.

10 Againe the Angel of the Lorde sayd vnto her, I will so greatly increase thy seed, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 Also the Angel of the Lord sayd vnto her, See, thou art with child, and shalt beare a sonne, and shalt call his name Ishmael: for the Lorde hath heard thy tribulation.

12 And he shall be a wilde man: his hand shall be against every man, and every mans hand against him: and he shall dwell in the presence of all his breshren.

13 Then she called the name of the Lord that spake vnto her, Thou God lookest on me: for she said, Haue I not also here looked after him that seeth me?

15 But Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not: for shee was afraide. And hee said, † It is not so: for thou laughedst.

16 ¶ Afterward, the men did rise vp from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I doe,

18 Seeing that Abraham shall be in deed a great and a mighty nation, and *all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him: that he wil command his sonnes & his houshold after him, that they keepe the way of the Lord to do righteousness & iudge-ment, that the Lord may bring vpon Abraham, that he hath spoken vnto him.

20 Then the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is exceeding grievous,

21 I will *goe downe now, and see whether they haue done altogether according to that cry, which is come vnto mee: and if not, that I may know.

22 And the men turned thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord.

23 Then Abraham drewe neere, and sayd, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 If there be fiftie righteous within the city, wilt thou destroy and not spare the place for the fiftie righteous that are therein?

25 Be it farre from thee from doing this thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be euen as the wicked, be it farre from thee. Shall not the Iudge of all the world † doe right?

26 And the Lord answered, If I shall finde in Sodom = fiftie righteous within the citie, then will I spare all the place for their sakes.

27 Then Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I haue begun to speake vnto my Lord, and I am *but dust and ashes.

28 If there shall lacke fise of fiftie righteous, wilt thou destroy all the citie for fise? And hee said, If I finde there fise and fourtie, I will not destroy it.

29 And he yet spake to him againe, and sayd, What if there shall be found fortie there? Then he answered, I will not doe it for forties sake.

30 Again he sayd, Let not my Lord now bee angry that I speake. What if thirty bee found there? Then he said, I wil not doe it, if I finde thirty there.

31 Moreover he said, Behold now, I haue begun to speake vnto my Lord, What if twenty be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for twentys sake.

32 Then he said, Let not my Lord be now angry, and I will speake but this *once, What if ten be found there? And hee answered, I will not destroy it for tens sake.

33 ¶ And the Lord went his way, when hee ham returned vnto his place.

CHAP. XIX.

3 Lot receiveth two Angels into his house. 4 The fiftie iustes of the Sodomites. 16 Lot is deliuered. 24 Sodom is destroyed.
26 Lots wife is made a pillar of salt. 33 Lots daughters lie with their fis, of whom come Moab and Ammon.

And in the euening there came two * Angels to Sodom: and Lot sate at the gate of Sodom, and Lot sawe them, and rose vp to meete them, and he bowed himselfe with his face to the ground.

2 And he said, See my lords, I pray you turne in now into your seruants house, and tarie all night, and * wash your feet, and yee shall rise vp early and goe your wayes. Who said, Nay, but we will abide in the streete all night.

3 Then he pressed vpon them earnestly, and they turned in to him, and came to his house, and hee made them a feast, and did bake vneleuened bread, and they * did eate.

4 But before they went to bed, the men of the citie, euen the men of Sodom compassed the house round about, from the yong euen to the old, & all the people from all quarters.

5 Who crying vnto Lot said to him, Where are the men, which came to thee this night? bring them out vnto vs, that we may know them.

6 Then Lot went out at the doore vnto them, and shut the doore after him,

7 And said, I pray you, my brethren, doe not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, I haue two * daughters, which haue not knowen man: them will I bring out now vnto you, and doe to them as seemeth you good: onely vnto these men doe nothing: † for wherefore are they come vnder the shadow of my roofe.

9 Then they sayde, Away hence: and they sayd, Hee is come alone as a stranger, and shall hee iudge and rule? wee will nowe deale worse with thee then with them. So they pressed sore vpon Lot * himselfe, and came to breake the doore.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the doore:

11 * Then they smote the men that were at the doore of the house, with blindness, both small and great, so that they were wearie in † seeking the doore.

12 ¶ Then the men sayde vnto Lot, Whom hast thou yet here? either sonne in lawe, or thy sonnes or thy daughters, or whatsoever thou hast in the citie, bringe out of this place.

13 For we will destroy this place, because the crye of them is great before the Lord, and the Lord hath sent vs to destroye it.

14 Then Lot went out and spake vnto his sonnes in law, which he married his daughters, and said, Arise, get you out of this place: for the Lord will destroy the citie, but hee is come to his sonnes in law, as though he had mocked.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, the Angels hasted Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife & thy two daughters: which are here, lest thou be destroyed in the punishment of the citie.

ters by the hands (the Lord being mercifull vnto him) and they brought him forth, and set him without the citie.

1 He willed him to flee from Gods iudgements, and not to be fery to depart from that rich country, and full of vaine pleasures.

17 ¶ And when they had brought him out, the Angel said, Escape for thy life: I looke not behinde thee, neither carie thou in all the plaine: escape into the mountaine, lest thou bee destroyed.

18 And Lot sayde vnto them, Not so, I pray thee, my Lord.

19 Behold now, thy seruant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed vnto mee in saving my life: and I cannot escape in the mountains, lest some euill take me, and I die.

20 See nowe this citie heereby to flee vnto, which is a little one: Oh let me escape thither: is it not a little one, and my soule shall liue?

21 Then he said vnto him, Behold, I haue receiued it thy request also concerning this thing, that I wil not ouerthrow this citie, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Hasten thee, save thee there: for I can doe nothing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the citie was called ^m Zoar.

23 ¶ The sunne did rise vpon the earth, when Lot entred into Zoar.

24 ¶ Then the Lord ^rained vpon Sodom and vpon Gomorah, brimstone & fire from the Lord out of heauen,

25 And ouerthrewe those cities, and all the plaine, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that that grew vpon the earth.

26 ¶ Now his wife behind him looked backe, and she became a ^p pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham rising vp early in the morning went to the place, where he had stood before the Lord.

28 And looking toward Sodom & Gomorah, and toward all the land of the plaine, behold, hee sawe the smoke of the land mounting vp as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ But yet when God destroyed the cities of the plaine, God thought vpon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the middes of the destruction, when hee ouerthrewe the cities wherein Lot dwelled.

30 ¶ Then Lot went vp from Zoar, and dwelt in the mountaine with his two daughters: for he feared to tarie in Zoar, but dwelt in a caue, hee and his two daughters.

31 And the elder said vnto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the ^r earth to come in vnto vs: after the manner of all the earth.

32 Come, wee will make our father ^r drinke wine, and lie with him, that we may preferue seed of our father.

33 So they made their father drinke wine that night, and the elder went and lay with her father: but he perceived not, neither when she lay downe, neither when she rose vp.

34 And on the morrow the elder said to the younger, Behold, yesternight lay I with my father: let vs make him drinke wine this night also, and go thou and lie with him, that we may ^r preferue seed of our father.

35 So they made their father drinke wine that night also, & the younger arose, and lay with him: but he perceived not, when she lay downe, neither when she rose vp.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the elder bare a sonne, and she called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites vnto this day.

38 And the younger bare a sonne also, and shee called his name Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the Ammonites vnto this day.

cest, so were they and their posteritie vile and wicked. ¶ That is, sonne of my people: signifying that they rather reioyced in their sin, then repented for the same.

CHAP. XX.

1 Abraham dwelleth as a stranger in the land of Gerar. 2 Abimelech taketh away his wife. 3 God reproveth the king. 4 And the king Abraham. 11 Sarah is restored with great gifts. 17 Abraham prayeth, and the king and his are healed.

Afterward Abraham departed thence toward the South-countrey, and dwelled betwene Cadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. Then Abimelech king of Gerar sent and tooke Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dreame by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but dead, because of the woman, which thou hast taken: for she is a mans wife.

4 (Notwithstanding Abimelech had not yet come neere her) And he said, Lord, wilt thou lay euen ^d the righteous nation?

5 Said he not vnto mee, She is my sister? yea, and she her selfe said, He is my brother: with an vpright minde, and innocent handes haue I done this.

6 And God sayd vnto him by a dreame, I knowe that thou diddest this euen with an vpright minde, and I kept thee also, that thou shouldest not sinne against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now then deliuer the man his wife againe: for he is a ^p Prophet, and hee shall pray for thee, that thou mayest liue: but if thou deliuer her not againe, be sure that thou shalt die the death, thou, and all that thou hast.

8 Then Abimelech rising vp early in the morning, called all his seruants, and tolde all these things ^r vnto them, and the men were sore afraid.

9 Afterward Abimelech called Abraham, and said vnto him, What hast thou done vnto vs? and what haue I offended thee, that thou hast brought on mee, and on my ^k kingdome this great sinne? thou hast done things vnto me that ought not to be done.

10 So Abimelech said vnto Abraham, What sawest thou that thou hast done this thing?

11 Then Abraham answered, Because I thought thus, Surely the feare of God is not in this place, and they will slay me for my wifes sake.

12 Yet in very deed thee is my ^r sister: for shee is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she is my wife.

13 Now when God caused mee to wonder out of my fathers house, I said then to her, This is thy kindest that thou shalt shew vnto me in all places where we come. ¶ Say thou of mee, He is my brother.

14 Then tooke Abimelech sheepe and beeues, and men seruants, and women seruants, and gave them vnto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Beholde, my land is before thee, dwell where it pleaseth thee.

¶ Then the third day Abraham lift vp his eyes, and saw the place a farre off,

¶ And said vnto his seruants, Abide you here with the asse: for I and the child will goe yonder and worship, and come againe vnto you.

¶ Then Abraham tooke the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it vpon Izhak his sonne; and hee cooke the fire in his hand, and the knife: and they went both together.

¶ Then spake Izhak vnto Abraham his father, and said, My father. And he answered Here am I, my sonne. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood, but where is the lambe for the burnt offering?

¶ Then Abraham answered, My sonne, God will provide him a lambe for a burnt offering: so they went both together.

¶ And when they came to the place which God had shewed him, Abraham builded an altar there, and couched the wood, and bound Izhak his sonne, and laid him on the altar vpon the wood.

¶ But the Angel of the Lord called vnto him from heauen, saying, Abraham, Abraham, And he answered, Here am I.

¶ Then he said, Lay not thine hand vpon the child, neither doe any thing vnto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing for my sake thou hast not spared thine only sonne.

¶ And Abraham lifting vp his eyes, looked, and behold, there was a ram behinde him caught by the hornes in a bush: then Abraham went and tooke the ram, and offered him for a burnt offering in the stead of his sonne.

¶ And Abraham called the name of that place, Iehovah lirez: as it is said this day, In the mount will the Lord be seene.

¶ And the Angel of the Lord cryed vnto Abraham from heauen the second time,

¶ And sayd, By my selfe haue I sworne (saith the Lord) because thou hast done this thing, and hast not spared thine only sonne,

¶ Therefore will I surely blesse thee, and will greatly multiply thy feede, as the starres of the heauen, and as the sand which is vpon the sea shore, and thy feede shall possesse the gate of his enemies.

¶ Then turned Abraham againe vnto his seruants, and they rose vp, and went together to Beer-sheba: and Abraham dwelt in Beer-sheba.

¶ And after these things one told Abraham, saying, Behold Milcah, she hath also borne children vnto thy brother Nahor:

¶ To wit, Vz his eldest sonne, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram.

¶ And Chesed, and Hizo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

¶ And Bethuel begate Rebekah: these eight did Milcah beare to Nahor, Abrahams brother.

¶ And his concubine called Reumah, shee bare also Tebah, and Gahan, and Thahash, and Maachah.

CHAP. XXIII.

¶ Abraham lamented the death of Sarah, & hee bought a field to be a burying place, of the Hittites. ¶ The equate of Abraham. ¶ Sarah was buried in Machpelah.

¶ When Sarah was an hundredth twentie and seven yeeres old (so long liued shee)

¶ Then Sarah died in Kiriath-arba: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan, And Abraham came to mourne for Sarah and to weepe for her.

¶ Then Abraham rose vp from the sight of his corps, & talked with the Hittites, saying,

¶ I am a stranger, and a forreiner among you: giue me a possession of buriall with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

¶ Then the Hittites answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

¶ Heare vs, my lord: thou art a prince of God among vs: in the chiefest of our sepulchres burie the dead: none of vs shall forbid thee his sepulchre, but thou maiest bury thy dead therein.

¶ Then Abraham stood vp, and bowed himselfe before the people of the land of the Hittites.

¶ And he communed with them, saying, If it be your minde, that I shal bury my dead out of my sight, heare me, and intreat for mee to Ephron the sonne of Zohar.

¶ That he would giue me the caue of Machpelah, which he hath in the end of his helde: that he would giue it me for as much money as it is worth for a possession to bury in among you.

¶ (For Ephron dwelt among the Hittites.) Then Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of all the Hittites that went in at the gates of his city saying,

¶ No, my lord, heare me: the field giue I thee, and the caue that therein is, I giue it thee: even in the presence of the sonnes of thy people giue I it thee to bury thy dead.

¶ Then Abraham bowed himselfe before the people of the land,

¶ And spake vnto Ephron in the audience of the people of the countrey, saying, Seeing thou wilt giue it, I pray thee, heare me, I will giue the price of the field: receiue it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

¶ Ephron then answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

¶ My lord, hearken vnto me: the land is worth five hundred shekels of siluer: what is that betwene mee and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

¶ So Abraham hearkened vnto Ephron, and Abrahā weied to Ephron the siluer, which he had named in the audience of the Hittites, even foure hundred siluer shekels of currant money among marchants.

¶ So the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, and ouer against Mamre, even the field and the caue that was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, which were in all the borders round about, was made sure.

¶ Vnto Abraham for a possession, in the sight of the Hittites, even of all that went in at the gates of his cite.

Now Abraham was old, and stricken in yeres, and the Lorde had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 Therefore Abraham said vnto his eldest seruant of his house, which had the rule ouer al that he had, ^a Put now thine hand vnder my thigh, ³ And I will make thee ^b sweare by the Lord God of the heauen, and God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife vnto my sonne of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell.

4 But thou shalt go vnto my ^c country, & to my kinned, and take a wife vnto my sonne Izhak.

5 And the seruant said to him, What if the woman wil not come with me to this land? shall I bring thy sonne againe vnto the lande from whence thou camest?

6 To whom Abraham answered, Beware that thou bring not my sonne ^d thither againe.

7 ¶ The Lord God of heauen, who tooke me from my fathers house, and from the land where I was borne, and that spake vnto mee, and that sware vnto me, saying, ^a Vnto thy seede wil I giue this land, he shall fend his Angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife vnto my son from thence.

8 Neuertheless if the woman wil not follow thee, then shalt thou be [†] discharged of this mine othe: onely bring not my sonne thither againe.

9 Then the seruant put his hand vnder the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him for this matter.

10 ¶ So the seruant tooke tenne camels of the camels of his master, and departed: (for hee had all his masters goods in his hand:) and so hee arose, and went to ¶ Aram Naharaim, vnto the ^e citie of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels [†] to lie down without the city by a well of water, at euentide about the time that the women come out to draw water.

12 And he said, O ^f Lord God of my master Abraham, I beseech thee, ¶ send me good speed this day, and shew mercy vnto my master Abraham.

13 Loe, I stand by the well of water whiles the mens daughters of this city come out to draw water.

14 ¶ Grant therefore that the maid, to whom I say, Bow downe thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drinke: if shee say, Drinke, and I will giue thy camels drinke also: may bee shee that thou hast ordeined for thy seruant Izhak: and thereby shal I know that thou hast shewed mercy on my master.

15 ¶ And now yer hee had left speaking, behold, ^h Rebekah came out, the daughter of Bethuel, sonne of Milcah the wife of Nahor Abrahams brother, and her pitcher vpon her shoulder.

16 (And the mayde was very faine to looke vpon a virgine and vnknewen of man) and she went downe to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came vp.

17 Then the seruant ranne to meete her, and said, Let me drinke, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drinke [†] fir: and she hastned, and let downe her pitcher vpon her hand, and gaue him drinke.

19 And when shee had giuen him drinke, shee said, I will draw water for thy camels also: vntill they [†] haue drunken enough.

20 And shee powred out her pitcher into the trough speedily, and ranne againe vnto the well to draw water, and she drew for all his camels.

21 So the man wondred at her, and held his peace, to know whether the Lord had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And when the camels had left drinking, the man tooke a golden [¶] ^k abillment of ^l halfe a ^{shekel} weight, and two bracelets for her hands, of ten shekels weight of gold:

23 And he said, Whose daughter art thou? tell mee, I pray thee, Is there rouse in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in?

24 Then she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcah whom she bare vnto Nahor.

25 Moreover she said vnto him, We haue litter also and prouender enough, & rouse to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed himselfe and worshipped the Lord.

27 And said, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hath not withdrawn his mercy ^m and his truth from my master: for when I was in the way, the Lord brought mee to my masters brethrens house.

28 And the maide ran and tolde them of her mothers house according to these words.

29 ¶ Now Rebekah had a brother called Laban, and Laban ranne vnto the man to the well.

30 For when he had seene the eareings & the bracelets in his sisters hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man vnto mee, then he went to the man, and loe, ⁿ he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he sayd, Come in thou blessed of the Lord: wherefore standest thou without, seeing I haue prepared the house, & rouse for the camels?

32 ¶ Then the man came into the house, and ^o he vnshaddled the ^p camels, and brought litter and prouender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the mens feet that were with him.

33 Afterward the meate was set before him: but he said, I ^q will not eate, vntill I haue sayd my message. And he said, Speake on.

34 Then he said, I am Abrahams seruant.

35 And the Lorde hath ^r blessed my master wonderfully, that he is become great: for he hath giuen him sheepe, and beeuies, and siluer, & golde, and men seruants, and maid seruants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah my masters wife hath borne a sonne to my master, when she was olde, and vnto him hath he giuen all that he hath.

37 Now my master made mee sweare, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne of the daughters of the ^s Canaanites, in whose land I dwell.

38 But thou shalt goe vnto my ^t fathers house and to my kinned, & take a wife vnto my sonne.

39 Then I sayd vnto my master, What if the woman will not follow me?

40 Who answered mee, The Lorde, before whom I walke, wil fend his Angel with thee, and prosper thy journey, and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinned and my fathers house.

41 Then shalt thou bee discharged of ^u mine othe, when thou comest to my kinned: and if they giue thee not one, thou shalt bee free from mine othe.

42 So I came this day to the well, and sayd, O Lord, ¶ Abraham made an end of drinking.

O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, if thou now prosper my journey which I goe,

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water: when a virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give mee, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drinke,

44 And she say to me, Drinkethou, and I will also draw for thy camels, let her bee the wife, which the Lorde hath prepared for my masters sonne.

45 And before I had made an end of speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth, and her pitcher on her shoulder, and shee went downe vnto the well, and drew water. Then I said vnto her, Give me drinke I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and tooke downe her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drinke, and I will giue thy camels drinke also. So I dranke, and she gaue the camels drinke also.

47 Then I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she answered, The daughter of Bethuel Nahors sonne, whom Milcah bare vnto him. Then I put the abillment vpon her face, and the bracelets vpon her hands:

48 And I bowed downe and worshipped the Lorde, and blessed the Lorde God of my master Abraham, which had brought mee the right way to take my masters brothers daughter vnto his sonne.

49 Now therefore, if ye wil deale mercifully and truly with my master, tell mee: and if not, tell mee, that I may turne me to the right hand or to the left.

50 Then answered Laban and Bethuel, and said, This thing is proceeded of the Lord: wee cannot therefore lay vnto thee, neither euill nor good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her and goe: that she may be thy masters sonnes wife, even as the Lord hath said.

52 And when Abrahams servant heard their words, he bowed himselfe toward the earth vnto
the Lord.

53 Then the servant tooke forth iewels of silver, and iewels of golde, and rayment, and gaue to Rebekah also vnto her brother, and to her mother her gaue gifts.

54 Afterward they did eat and drinke, both he,
and the men that were with him, and taried all night, and when they rose vp in the morning, hee said, Let me depart vnto my master.

55 Then her brother and her mother answered, Let the maid abide with vs, at the least ten dayes: then shall she goe.

56 But he said vnto them, Hinder you me not, seeing the Lord hath prospered my journey: send me away, that I may goe to my master.

57 Then they said, We wil call the maid, and aske her consent.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said vnto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she answered, I will goe.

59 So they let Rebekah their sister goe, and her nurse, with Abrahams servant and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said vnto her, Thou art our sister, growe into thousand thousands, and thy seede possesse the gate of his enemies.

61 Then Rebekah arose, and her maids, and rode vpon the camels, and followed the man, and the servant tooke Rebekah, and departed.

62 Now Izhak came from the way of Beerlahai-roi, (for he dwelt in the South countrey)

63 And Izhak went out to pray in the field toward the euening: who lift vp his eyes and looked, and behold, the camels came:

64 Also Rebekah lift vp her eyes, and when shee saw Izhak, shee lighted downe from the camel.

65 (For shee had sayd to the seruant, Who is yonder man, that commeth in the field to mee vs? and the seruant had said, It is my master) So shee tooke a vaile, and couered her.

66 And the seruant told Izhak all things, that he had done.

67 Afterward Izhak brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother, and he tooke Rebekah, and she was his wife, and he loued her: So Izhak was comforted after his mothers death.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Abraham taketh Keturah to wife, and getteth many children.
2 Abraham giueth all his goods to Izhak. 3 Hee dwelt in the countrey of Ishmael. 4 The birth of Izhak and Esau.
5 Esau selleth his birthright for a mess of pottage.

NOW Abraham had taken him another wife called Keturah,

2 Which bare him Zimran and Iokhan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Iokhan begate Sheba, and Dedan:
And the sonnes of Dedan were Ailhurita, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 Also the sonnes of Midian were Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoeh, and Abida, and Eldaah: all these were the sonnes of Keturah.

5 And Abraham gaue all his goods to Izhak,

6 But vnto the sonnes of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gaue gifts, and sent them away from Izhak, his sonne (while he yet liued) Eastward to the East countrey.

7 And this is the age of Abrahams life, which he liued, an hundredth seuentie and five yeeres.

8 Then Abraham yeelded the spirit, and died in a good age, an olde man, and of great yeeres, and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sonnes Izhak and Ishmael buried him in the caue of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron sonne of Zoar the Hittite, before Mamre.

10 Which felds Abraham bought of the Hittites, where Abraham was buried with Sarah his wife.

11 And after the death of Abraham God blessed Izhak his sonne, and Izhak dwelt by Beer-lahai-roi.

12 Now these are the generations of Ishmael Abrahams sonne, whom Hagar the Egyptian Sarahs handmaid bare vnto Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sonnes of Ishmael, name by name, according to their kin-reds, the eldest sonne of Ishmael was Nebaioth, then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa, 15 Hadar, and Tema, Ietur, Naphish and Kedemah.

16 These are the sonnes of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their townes and by their cables: to wit, twelue princes of their nations.

17 And these are the yeeres of the life of Ishmael, an hundredth thirty and seven yeeres, and he yeelded the spirit, and died, and was gathered vnto his people.

18 And they dwelt from Haurah vnto Shur, that is toward Egypt, as thou goest to Asshur. Ishmael dwelt in the presence of all his brethren.

19 Likewise these are the generations of Izhak Abrahams sonne. Abraham begate Izhak.

20 And Izhak was fourtie yeeres old when he tooke Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramite of Padan Aram, and sister to Laban the Aramite.

21 And Izhak prayed vnto the Lord for his wife, because shee was barren: and the Lord was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 But the children strove together within her: therefore shee sayd, Seeing it is so, why am I thus? wherefore she went to aske the Lord.

23 And the Lord said to her, Two nations are in thy wombe, and two manner of people shall be diuided out of thy bowels, & the one people shall be mightier then the other, and the elder shall serue the yonger.

24 Therefore when her time of deliuerance was fulfilled, behold, twins were in her wombe.

25 So he that came out first, was red, and hee was all ouer as a rough garment, and they called his name Esau.

26 And afterward came his brother out, and his hand helde Esau by the heele: therefore his name was called Iakob. Now Izhak was threescore yeeres olde when Rebekah bare them.

27 And the boyes grewe, and Esau was a cunning hunter, and lived in the fields: but Iakob was a plain man, and dwelt in tents.

28 And Izhak loued Esau, for he venisoned his meate, but Rebekah loued Iakob.

29 Now Iakob sod pottage, and Esau came from the field and was wearie.

30 Then Esau said to Iakob, Let mee eate, I pray thee, of that pottage so red, for I am wearie. Therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Iakob said, Sell mee euen now thy birthright.

32 And Esau said, Lo, I am almost dead, what then is this birthright to me?

33 Iakob then said, Swear to mee euen now. And hee sware to him, and sold his birthright vnto Iakob.

34 Then Iakob gaue Esau bread and pottage of lentiles: and he did eate and drinke, and rose vp and went his way: So Esau contemned his birthright.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 God provideth for Izhak in the famine. 2 Hee reneweth his promise. 3 The king blameth him for desiring his wife. 4 The Philistims hate him for his riches. 5 Esau stoppeth him, and drinke him away. 6 God comforteth him. 7 He maketh alliance with Abimelech.

And there was a famine in the land beside the first famine that was in the dayes of Abraham. Wherefore Izhak went to Abimelech king of the Philistims vnto Gerar.

2 For the Lord appeared vnto him, and said, Goe not downe into Egypt, but abide in the land which I shall shew vnto thee.

3 Dwell in this land, and I will be with thee, and will blesse thee: for to thee, and to thy seede, I will giue all these countreyes: and I will performe the oath which I sware vnto Abraham thy father.

4 Also I will cause thy seed to multiply as the starres of heauen, and will giue vnto thy seed all these countreyes, and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.

5 Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept mine ordinance, my commandments, my statutes, and my lawes.

6 So Izhak dwelt in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife, and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife, lest, said hee, the men of the place should kill me, because of Rebekah: for shee was beautifull to the eie.

8 So after hee had bene there long time, Abimelech king of the Philistims looked out at a window, and loe, he sawe Izhak sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 Then Abimelech called Izhak, and said, Loe, shee is of a suretie thy wife, and why sayest thou, Shee is my sister? To whom Izhak answered, Because I thought thus, It may be that I shall die for her.

10 Then Abimelech said, Why hast thou done this vnto vs? one of the people had almost lien by thy wife, so shouldest thou haue brought sinne vpon vs.

11 Then Abimelech charged all his people, saying, Hee that toucheth this man, or his wife, shall die the death.

12 Afterward Izhak sowed in that land, and found in the same yeere an hundred fold by estimation: and so the Lord blessed him.

13 And the man waxed mightie, and still increased, till he was exceeding great.

14 For he had flocks of sheepe, and herds of cattell, and a mightie housholde: therefore the Philistims had enuie at him.

15 Insomuch that the Philistims stopped and filled vp with earth all the wells, which his fathers seruants digged in his father Abrahams time.

16 Then Abimelech sayd vnto Izhak, Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier then wee a great deale.

17 Therefore Izhak departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, & dwelt there.

18 And Izhak returning, digged the welles of water, which they had digged in the dayes of Abraham his father: for the Philistims had stopped them after the death of Abraham, and he gaue them the same names, which his father gaue them.

19 Izhaks seruants then digged in the valley, and found there a well of liuing water.

20 But the herdmen of Gerar did strue with Izhaks herdmen, saying, The water is ours: therefore called he the name of the well Essek, because they were at strife with him.

21 Afterward they digged another well, and strue for that also, and hee called the name of it Sitnah.

22 Then he remooued thence, & digged another well, for the which they strove not: therefore called he the name of it, Rehoboth, and said, Because the Lord hath now made vs roome, wee shall increase vpon the earth.

23 So he went vp thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the Lord appeared vnto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: feare not, for I am with thee, and will blesse thee, and multiply thy seede for my seruants Abrahams sake.

 Chap. 12. 3. & 15. 18. & 18. 18. & 22. 18. and 28. 14.*

c He commendeth Abrahams obedience, because Izhak should be the more ready to follow the like, for as God made this promise of his free mercie, so doth the confirmation thereof proceede of the same fontaine.

25 Then hee built an altar there and called vpon the name of the Lord, and there spread his tent: where also Izhaks seruants digged a well.

26 ¶ Then came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the captaine of his armie.

27 To whom Izhak said, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me and haue put mee away from you?

28 Who answered, Wee sawe certainly that the Lord was with thee, and wee thought thus, Let there bee now an oath betweene vs, euen betweene vs and thee, and let vs make a couenant with thee.

29 ¶ If thou shalt doe vs no hurt, as wee haue not touched thee, and as we haue done vnto thee nothing but good, and sent thee away in peace:
thou now, the blessed of the Lord, doe this.

30 Then hee made them a feast, and they did eate and drinke.

31 And they rose vp betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: then Izhak let them
goe, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And that same day Izhaks seruants came and tolde him of a well which they had digged, and said vnto him, We haue found water.

33 So hee called it Shubah: therefore the name of the cite is called Beer-sheba vnto this day.

34 ¶ Now when Esau was fourtie yeere olde, hee tooke to wife Iudith, the daughter of Beeri an Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon, an Hittite also.

35 And they were of a grieue of minde to Izhak and to Rebekah.

CHAP. XXVII.

¶ Izhak gathered the blessing from Esau by his mothers counsel.
Esau was weeping because his father had blessed him. 41 Esau hated Izhak and threatened to kill him. 43 Rebekah feared Izhak's anger.

And when Izhak was olde, and his eyes were dim, (so that he could not see) he called Esau his eldest son, and said vnto him, My sonne. And he answered him, I am here.

¶ Then he said, Behold, I am now olde and know not the day of my death:

¶ Wherefore now, I pray thee, take thine instruments, thy quier and thy bowe, and get thee to the fildes, that thou maiest take me some venison.

¶ Then make mee fauourie meate, such as I loue, and bring it me, that I may eate, and that my soule may blesse thee, before I die.

¶ (Now Rebekah heard, when Izhak spake to Esau his sonne) and Esau went into the fildes to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

¶ Then Rebekah spake vnto Izhak her sonne, saying, Behold, I haue heard thy father talking with Esau thy brother, saying,

Bring mee venison, and make mee fauourie meate, that I may eate and blesse thee before the Lord, afore my death.

¶ Now therefore, my sonne, heare my voice in that which I command thee.

¶ Get thee now to the flocks, and bring me thence two good kids of the goates, that I may make pleasant meate of them for thy father, such as he loueth.

¶ Then thou shalt bring it to thy father, and he shall eat, to the intent that hee may blesse thee before his death.

¶ But Iakob said to Rebekah his mother, Beholde, Esau my brother is rough, and I am smooth,

¶ My father may possibly feele me, and I shall seeme to him to be a mocker: so shal I bring a curse vpon me, and not a blessing.

¶ But his mother said vnto him, ¶ Vpon me be thy curse, my sonne: onely heare my voyce, and goe and bring me them.

¶ So he went and fet them, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made pleasant meate, such as his father loued:

¶ And Rebekah tooke faire clothes of her elder sonne Esau, which were in her house, and clothed Iakob her younger sonne:

¶ And she covered his hands and the smooth of his necke with the skinned of the kiddes of the goats.

¶ Afterward she put the pleasant meate and bread, which she had prepared, in the hand of her sonne Iakob.

¶ And when he came to his father he said,
My father. Who answered, I am here: who art thou, my sonne?

¶ And Iakob said to his father, ¶ I am Esau thy first borne, I haue done as thou badest me arise, I pray thee: sit vp and eat of my venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

¶ Then Izhak said vnto his sonne, How hast thou found it so quickly, my sonne? Who said, Because the Lord thy God brought it to mine hand.

¶ Again said Izhak vnto Iakob, Come neere now that I may feele thee, my sonne, whether thou be that my sonne Esau or not.

¶ Then Iakob came neere to Izhak his father, and he felt him, and said, The voice is Iaa-kobs voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

¶ (For he knew him not, because his hands were rough as his brother Esaus hands: wherefore he blessed him.)

¶ Again he said, Art thou that my sonne Esau? Who answered, Yea.

¶ Then said he, Bring it me hither, and I will eat of my sonnes venison, that my soule may blesse thee. And he brought it to him, and he ate also he brought him wine, and he dranke.

¶ Afterward, his father Izhak said vnto him,
Come neere now, and kisse me, my sonne.

¶ And he came neere and kissed him. Then he smelled the fauour of his garments, and blessed him, and said, Behold, the smell of my sonne is as the smell of a fildes, which the Lord hath blessed.

¶ God giue thee therefore of the dewe of heauen, and the fannesse of the earth, and plentie of wheate and wine.

¶ Let people bee thy seruants, and nations bow vnto thee: be lord ouer thy brethren, and let thy mothers children honour thee. Cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blasseth thee.

¶ And when Izhak had made an ende of blessing Iakob, and Iakob was scarce gone out from the presence of Izhak his father, then came Esau his brother from his hunting.

¶ And he also prepared fauourie meate, and brought it to his father, and said vnto his father, Let my father arise and eat of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

33 But his father Izhak said vnto him, Who art thou? And he answered, I am chy sonne, even thy first borne Esau.

1 In perceiving his error by appointing his beere against Gods sentence pronounced before.

10 Or, sufficiently.

33 Then Izhak was stricken with a marvellous great feare, and sayd, Who, and where is hee that hunted venison, and brought it mee, and I haue eate of all before thou camest? and I haue blessed him, therefore he shall be blessed.

34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cryed out with a great cry and bitter, out of measure, and sayd vnto his father, Bless me, even me also, my father.

35 Who answered, Thy brother came with subtiltie, and hath taken away thy blessing.

11 In the Chap. 25. he was so called because he held his brother by the heele, as though he would ouerthrow him: and therefore he is here called an ouerthrower, or deceiver.

12 For Izhak did this as he was the minister and Prophet of God.

13 Or, I am also (thy sonne)

14 Heb. 12. 17.

36 Then hee sayde, Was he not iustly called I Iakob? for hee hath deceiued mee these two times: he tooke my birthright, and loe, now hath he taken my blessing. Also he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 Then Izhak answered, and said vnto Esau, Behold, I haue made him thy lord, and all his brethren haue I made his seruants: also with wheate and wine haue I furnished him, and vnto thee now what shall I doe, my sonne?

38 Then Esau sayd vnto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? besse mee, || even me also, my father: and Esau lifted vp his voyce, and wept.

39 Then Izhak his father answered, and said vnto him, Behold, the fatnesse of the earth shall be thy dwelling place, and thou shalt haue of the dew of heauen from aboue.

15 Because thine enemies shall be round about thee.

16 Which was fulfilled in his posteritie the Idumeans: who were tributaries for a time to Israel, and after came to liberty.

17 Obadi. 1. 10.

18 Hypocrites onely abstaine from doing euill for feare of men.

19 He hath good hope to recouer his birthright by killing thee.

40 And by thy sword shalt thou liue, and shalt be thy brothers seruant. But it shall come to passe, when thou shalt get the mastery, that thou shalt breake his yoke from thy necke.

41 Therefore Esau hated Iakob, because of the blessing, wherewith his father blessed him. And Esau thought in his minde, *The dayes of mourning for my father will come shortly, then I will slay my brother Iakob.

42 And it was told to Rebekah of the words of Esau her elder sonne, and shee sent and called Iakob her yonger sonne, and said vnto him, Behold, thy brother Esau is comforted against thee, meaning to kill thee:

43 Now therefore my sonne, heare my voyce: arise, and flee thou to Haran to my brother Laban.

44 And tary with him a while vntill thy brothers fiercenesse be swaged, 45 And till thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and hee forget the things, which thou hast done to him: then will I send, and take thee from thence: Why should I be 2 deprived of you both in one day?

20 For the wicked sonne will kill the godly: and the plague of God will afterward light on the wicked sonne.

21 Chap. 26. 35.

22 Which were Esaus wines.

23 Hereby shee perswaded Izhak to agree to Iakobs departing.

46 Also Rebekah said to Izhak, *I am weary of my life for the daughters of Heth. If Iakob take a wife of the daughters of Heth like these of the daughters of the land, what auaileth it me to liue?

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Izhak for hiddest Iakob to take a wife of the Canaanites. 2 Iakob taketh a wife of the daughters of Ishmael against his fathers will. 3 Iakob in the way to Haran seeth a ladder reaching to heauen. 4 Christ is promised. 5 Iakob maketh of God onely meate and clothing.

Then Izhak called Iakob and blessed him, and charged him, and sayd vnto him, Take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

24 This second blessing was to confirme Iakobs faith. I left hee should thinke that his father had given it without Gods motion.

1 Arise, *get thee to Padan Aram to the house of Bethuel thy mothers father, and thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

25 Heb. 12. 17.

26 Chap. 24. 10.

2 And God || all sufficient blese thee, and make thee to increase, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people.

27 Or, almighty.

3 And giue thee the blessing of Abraham, even to thee and to thy seede with thee, that thou mayest inherite the lande (wherein thou art a stranger) which God gaue vnto Abraham.

4 Thus Izhak sent forth Iakob, and he went to Padan Aram vnto Laban sonne of Bethuel the Aramite, brother to Rebekah, Iakobs and Esaus mother.

5 When Esau saw that Izhak had blessed Iakob, and sent him to Padan Aram, to set him a wife thence, and giuen him a charge when hee blessed him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,

28 The godly fathers were put in mind continually, that they were but strangers in this world: to the intent they should lift vp their eyes to the heauens, where they should haue a sure dwelling.

6 And that Iakob had obeyed his father and his mother and was gone to Padan Aram:

7 Also Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan displeased Izhak his father,

8 Then went Esau to Ishmael and tooke Iyn to the wiues, which he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nabath, to be his wife.

31 Thinking hereby to haue reconciled himselfe to his father, but all in vaine: for he taketh not away the cause of the enuill.

9 Now Iakob departed from Beer-sheba, and went to Haran,

10 And hee came vnto a certaine place, and taried there all night, because the sunne was downe, and tooke of the stones of the place, and layde vnder his heade, and slept in the same place.

11 Then he dreamed, and beholde, there stood a ladder vpon the earth, & the top of it reached vp to heauen: and loe, the Angels of God went vp and downe by it.

12 And beholde, the Lord stood aboue it, and sayde, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Izhak: the land, vpon the which thou sleepest, *will I giue thee and thy seede.

32 Christ is the ladder whereby God and man are ioyned together, and by whom the Angels minister vnto vs: all graces by him are giuen vnto vs, and we by him ascend into heauen.

13 And thy seede shall bee as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad *to the West, and to the East, and to the North, & to the South, and in thee and in thy seede shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

14 And loe, I am with thee, and will keepe thee whithersoever thou goest, and wil bring thee againe into this land: for I will not forsake thee vntill I haue performed that that I haue promised thee.

15 Then Iakob awoke out of his sleepe, and said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware.

16 And he was afraid, and said, How feareful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heauen.

33 He felt the force of this promise only by faith: for all his life time he was but a stranger in this land.

18 And he called the name of that place Beth-el: notwithstanding the name of the citie was at the first called Luz.

19 Then Iakob vowed a vowe, saying, If God will be with me, and will keepe me in this journey which I goe, and will giue mee bread to eate, and clothes to put on:

CHAP. XXIX.

23 Laakob conceiued in Laban & serued seven yeeres for Rahel. 24 Leah brought to birth in stead of Rahel. 25 He serued seven yeeres for Rahel 26 Leah conceiued & beareth foure sonnes.

Then Laakob lift vp his fete and came into the East country.

2 And as he looked about, behold, there was a well in the feld, and loe, three flockes of sheepe lay thereby (for at that wel were the flocks watered), and there was a great stone vpon the welles mouth.

3 And thither were all the flockes gathered, and they rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the sheepe, and put the stone againe vpon the welles mouth in his place.

4 And Laakob sayde vnto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they answered, We are of Haran.

5 Then he said vnto them, Know yee Laban the sonne of Nahor? Who sayd, Wee know him.

6 Again he sayd vnto them, Is he in good health? And they answered, He is in good health, and behold, his daughter Rahel commeth with the sheepe.

7 Then he said, Loe, it is yet his day, neither is it time that the cattell should bee gathered together: water ye the sheepe and goe feede them.

8 But they sayd, Wee may not vntill all the flockes be brought together, and will we roll the stone from the welles mouth, that wee may water the sheepe.

9 While he talked with them, Rahel also came with her fathers sheepe, for she kept them.

10 And as soone as Laakob sawe Rahel the daughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother, then came Laakob neere, & rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the flocke of Laban his mothers brother.

11 And Laakob kissed Rahel, and lift vp his voyce and wept.

12 (For Laakob tolde Rahel that he was her fathers brother, and that hee was Rebekahs sonne) then she ran and told her father.

13 And when Laban heard tell of Laakob his sisters sonne, hee ran to meete him, and embraced him, and kissed him, & brought him to his house: and he told Laban all these things.

14 To whom Laban sayd, Well, thou art my bone, and my flesh, and hee abode with him the space of a moneth.

15 For Laban said vnto Laakob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therefore serue me for nought? tell me, what shall be thy wages?

16 Now Laban had two daughters, the elder called Leah, and the younger called Rahel.

17 And Leah was tender eyed, but Rahel was beauefull and faire.

18 And Laakob loued Rahel, and said, I will serue thee seven yeeres for Rahel thy younger daughter.

19 Then Laban answered, It is better that I giue her thee, then that I should giue her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Laakob serued seven yeeres for Rahel, and they seemed vnto him but a fewe dayes, because he loued her.

21 Then Laakob said to Laban, Giue me my wife, that I may goe in to her, for my terme is ended.

22 Wherefore Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 But when the evening was come, he tooke Leah his daughter, and brought her to him, and he went in vnto her.

24 And Laban gaue his maide Bilhah to his daughter Leah, to be her seruant.

25 But when the morning was come, behold, it was Leah. Then said he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou done thus to mee? did not I serue thee for Rahel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban answered, It is not the manner of this place to giue the younger before the elder.

27 Fulfil seven yeeres for her, and we will also giue thee this for the sernice, which thou shalt serue me yet seven yeeres more.

28 Then Laakob did so, and fulfilled her seven yeeres, so he gaue him Rahel his daughter to be his wife.

29 Laban also gaue to Rahel his daughter, Bilhah his maide to be her seruant.

30 So entred he in to Rahel also, and loued also Rahel more then Leah, and serued him yet seven yeeres more.

31 When the Lord saw that Leah was despised, hee made her fruitful: but Rahel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bare a sonne, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Because the Lord hath looked vpon my tribulation, now therefore mine husband will loue me.

33 And she conceived againe & bare a sonne, and said, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, he hath therefore giuen me this sonne also, and she called his name Simeon.

34 And she conceived againe & bare a sonne, and said, Now at this time will my husband keepe mee company, because I haue borne him three sonnes: therefore was his name called Leui.

35 Moreover she conceived againe and bare a sonne, saying, Now will I praye the Lord: therefore she called his name Iudah, and there bearing.

CHAP. XXX.

40 Rahel and Leah bring both barres, give their maidens vnto their husbands, and they beare him children. 41 Leah giueth mandrakes to Rahel that Laakob might lie with her. 42 Laban is enriched for Laakobs sake. 43 Laakob is made very rich.

And when Rahel saw that shee bare Laakob no children, Rahel enuied her sister, and said vnto Laakob, Giue me children, or els I die.

2 Then Laakobs anger was kindled against Rahel, & he said, Am I in Gods stead, which hath withholden from thee the fruit of the wombe?

3 And she said, Behold my maide Bilhah goe into her, and shee shall beare vpon my knees, and I shall haue children also by her.

4 Then shee gaue him Bilhah her maide to wife, and Laakob went in to her.

5 So Bilhah conceived & bare Laakob a son.

6 Then said Rahel, God hath giuen sentence on my side, and hath also heard my voyce, and hath giuen me a sonne: therefore called shee his name Dan.

7 And Bilhah Rahels maide conceived againe, and bare Laakob the second sonne.

8 Then Rahel said, With thee excellent wrestlings

1. The cause why Laakob was deceived was, that in old time the wife was couered with a vail, when she was brought to her husband, in signe of chastitie and hamefastnesse.

1. Hee esteemed more the promise that he had of Laakobs sernice, then either his promise or the manner of the country, though he alleged some for his excuse.

9 And when Leah saw that she had left bearing, she tooke Zilpah her maid, & gaue her Iakob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leahs maid bare Iakob a son.

11 Then sayd Leah, ^d A company commeth: and shee called his name Gad.

12 Againe, Zilpah Leahs maide bare Iakob another sonne.

13 Then sayd Leah, Ah, blessed am I, for the daughters will blesse me: and shee called his name Asher.

14 ¶ Now Reuben went in the dayes of the wheate haruest, and found ^e mandrakes in the field, and brought them vnto his mother Leah. Then sayd Rahel to Leah, Giue me, I pray thee, of thy sonnes mandrakes.

15 But she answered her, Is it a small matter for thee to take mine husband, except thou take my sonnes mandrakes also? Then sayd Rahel, Therefore he shall sleepe with thee this night for thy sonnes mandrakes.

16 And Iakob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meete him, and said, Come in to me, for I haue ^f bought and paid for thee with my sonnes mandrakes: and he slept with her that might.

17 And God heard Leah, and shee conceived, and bare vnto Iakob the fift sonne.

18 Then sayd Leah, God hath giuen me my reward, because I gaue my ^g maid to my husband: and shee called his name Issachar.

19 After Leah conceived againe, and bare Iakob the sixt sonne.

20 Then Leah sayd, God hath endowed mee with a good dowrie: now will mine husband dwell with mee, because I haue borne him fixe sonnes: and shee called his name Zebulun.

21 After that, she bare a daughter, and shee called her name Dinah.

22 ¶ And God remembred Rahel, and God heard her, and ^h opened her wombe.

23 So shee conceived and bare a soune, and sayd, God hath taken away my ⁱ rebuke.

24 And shee called his name Ioseph, saying, The Lord will giue mee yet another sonne.

25 ¶ And alsoone as Rahel had borne Ioseph, Iakob sayd to Laban, Send me away, that I may go vnto my place and to my country.

26 Giue mee my wiues and my children, for whom I haue serued thee and let me go: for thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee.

27 To whom Laban answered, If I haue now found fauour in thy sight, ^j say: I haue ^k perceiued that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 Also he sayd, Appoint vnto me thy wages, and I will giue it thee.

29 But he said vnto him, Thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee, and in what taking thy cattell hath bene ^l vnder me.

30 For the litle that thou hadst before I came, is increased into a multitude: and the Lord hath blessed thee ^m by my coming: but now when shall ⁿ I trauell for mine owne house also?

31 Then he sayd, What shall I giue thee? And Iakob answered, Thou shalt giue me nothing at all: if thou wilt doe this thing for mee, I will returne, feed, and keepe thy sheepe.

32 I will passe thorow all thy flocks this day, and ^o separate from them all the sheepe with litle spots and great spots, and all ^p blacke lambes among the sheepe, and the great spotted, and litle spotted among the goats: and it shall bee my wages.

33 So shall my ^q righteousnes answere for me hereafter, when it shall come for my reward before thy face, and every one that hath not litle or great spots among the goats, and blacke among the sheepe, the same shall be ^r theft with me.

34 Then Laban said, Goe to, would God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore ^s he tooke out the same day the hee goats that were particoloured and with great spots, and all the shee goats with litle and great spots, and all that had white in them, and all the ^t blacke among the sheepe, and put them in the keeping of his sonnes.

36 And hee set three dayes iourney betweene himselfe and Iakob. And Iakob kept the rest of Labans sheepe.

37 ¶ Then Iakob ^u tooke rods of greene poplar, and of hafell, and of the chefnut tree, and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appeare in the rods.

38 Then he put the rods, which he had pilled, in the gutters and waterings troughes, when the sheepe came to drie. ^v ke, before the sheepe: (for they were in heat when they came to drinke)

39 And the sheepe ^w were in heat before the rods, and ^x afterward brought forth yong of particolour, and with small and great spots.

40 And Iakob parted these lambes, and turned the faces of the flocke towards ^y these lambes particoloured, and all maner of blacke, among the sheepe of Laban: so hee put his owne flockes by themselves, and put them not with Labans flocke.

41 And in every ramming time of the ^z stronger sheepe, Iakob layed the rods before the eyes of the sheepe in the gutters, that they might conceive before the rods.

42 But when the sheepe were feeble, hee put them not in: and so the feeble were Labans, and the stronger Iakobs.

43 So the man increased exceedingly, and had many flockes, and maid seruants, & men seruants, and camels, and asses.

• I have from you.

• He was in the forest, and there he would not acknowledge the God of his fathers.

7 But your father hath deceived me, & changed my wages || ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he thus sayd, The spotted shall be thy wages, then all the sheepe bare spotted: and if he said thus, The particoloured shall be thy reward, then bare all the sheepe particoloured.

9 Thus hath God taken away your fathers || substance, and given it me.

10 ¶ For in raiming time I lifted vp mine eyes, and saw in a dreame, & behold, the hee goats leaped vpon the shee goats: that were particoloured with little and great spots spotted.

11 And the Angel of God sayd to me in a dreame, Iakob. And I answered, Lo, I am here.

12 And he sayd, Lift vp now thine eyes, and see all the hee goates leaping vpon the shee goates that are particoloured, spotted with little & great spots: for I haue sent all that Laban doeth vnto thee.

13 ¶ I am the God of Beth-el, where thou * anoyntedst the pillar, where thou vowedst a vow vnto me. Now arise, get thee out of this countrey, and return vnto the land where thou wast borne.

14 Then answered Rahel and Leah, and sayd vnto him, Haue we any more portion and inheritance in our fathers house?

15 Doeth he not count vs as strangers? for he hath sold vs, and hath eaten vp and consumed our money.

16 Therefore all the riches which God hath taken from our father, is ours and our childrens: now then, whatsoever God hath sayd vnto thee, doe it.

17 ¶ Then Iakob rose vp, and set his sonnes and his wives vpon camels.

18 And hee caried away all his flockes, and all his substance, which he had gotten, to wit, his riches, which he had gotten in Padan Aram, to goe to Izhak his father vnto the land of Canaan.

19 When Laban was gone to shere his sheepe, then Rahel stole her fathers * idoles.

20 Thus Iakob || stole away the heart of Laban the Aramite: for he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had, and he rose vp, and passed the || river, and set his face toward mount Gilead.

22 And the third day after was it told Laban that Iakob fled.

23 Then hee tooke his || brethren with him, and followed after him seven dayes journey, and tooke him at mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Aramite in a dreame by night, & said vnto him, Take heed that thou speake not to Iakob: for I ought saue good.

25 ¶ Then Laban tooke Iakob, and Iakob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban also with his brethren pitched vpon mount Gilead.

26 Then Laban said to Iakob, What hast thou done? || thou hast euen stolen away mine heart, and caried away my daughters: as though they had bene taken captiues with the sword.

27 Wherefore didst thou flee so secretly, and steale away from me, and diddest not tell me, that I might haue sent thee forth with mirth and with songs, with timbrel and with harpe?

28 But thou hast not suffered mee to kisse my sonnes, and my daughters: now thou hast done foolishly in doing so.

29 I am || able to doe you euil: but the God of your father spake vnto me yesternight, saying, Take heed that thou speake not to Iakob: for I ought saue good.

30 Now though thou wentest thy way, because thou greatly longedst after thy fathers house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?

31 Then Iakob answered, and said to Laban, Because I was afraid, & thought that thou wouldest haue taken thy daughters from me.

32 But with whom thou findest thy gods, || let him not lue. Search thou before our brethren what I haue of thine, and take it to thee, but Iakob wist not that Rahel had stolen them.

33 Then came Laban into Iakobs tent, and into Leahs tent, and into the two maids tents, but found them not. So he went out of Leahs tent, and entered into Rahels tent.

34 (Now Rahel had taken the idols, and put them in the camels || litter, and sate downe vpon them) and Laban searched all the tents, but found them not.

35 Then said shee to her father, ¶ My lord, be not angry that I cannot rise vp before thee: for the custome of women is vpon me: so he searched, but found not the idoles.

36 ¶ Then Iakob was wroth, and chode with Laban: Iakob also answered, and sayd to Laban, What haue I trespassed? what haue I offended, that thou hast pursued after me?

37 Seeing thou hast searched all my stuffe, what hast thou found of all thine household stuffe? put it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may iudge betweene vs both.

38 This twenty yeere haue I bene with thee: thine ewes & thy goats haue not cast their yong, and the rams of thy flocke haue I not eaten.

39 ¶ Whatsoeuer was torne of beasts, I brought it not vnto thee, but made it good myselfe: of mine hand diddest thou require it, whether it was stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 I was in the day continued with heat, and with frost in the night, and my || sleepe departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus haue I bene twentie yeeres in thine house, and serued thee fourescore yeeres for thy two daughters, and sixe yeeres for thy sheepe, and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

44 Now therefore come and let vs make a couenant, I and thou, which may bee a witness betweene me and thee.

45 Then tooke Iakob a stone, and sent vp as a pillar.

46 And Iakob sayd vnto his brethren, Gather stones: who brought stones, and made an heape, and they did eate there vpon the heape.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 God comforteth Iakob by his Angels. 9. 10. Hee prayeth vnto God confessing his vniuersal sinne. 13. Hee sendeth presents vnto Esau. 24. 25. He wrestled with the Angel who nameth him Israel.

NOW Iakob went forth on his journey, and the Angels of God met him.

2 And when Iakob saw them, he said, This is Gods hoste, and called the name of the place Mahanaim.

3 Then Iakob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, vnto the land of Seir into the country of Edom:

4 To whom he gaue commandement, saying, Thus shall ye speake to my lord Esau: Thy seruant Iakob sayeth thus, I haue bene a stranger with Laban, and taried vnto this time.

5 I haue beeuves also and asses, sheepe, and men seruants, and women seruants, and haue sent to shew my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 So the messengers came againe to Iakob, saying, We came vnto thy brother Esau, and he also cometh against thee and foure hundred men with him.

7 Then Iakob was greatly afraid, and was fore troubled, and diuided the people that was with him, and the sheepe, and the beeuves, and the camels into two companies.

8 For he said, If Esau come to the one company and smite it, the other company shall escape.

9 Moreover Iakob said, O God of my father Abraham, & God of my father Izhak, Lord which hast faidest vnto me, Returne vnto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will do thee good.

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and all the truth, which thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant: for with my staffe came I ouer this Iorden, and now haue I gotten two bands.

11 I pray thee deliuer mee from the hande of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I feare him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother vpon the children.

12 For thou saydest, I will surely doe thee good, and make thy seede as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 And he taried there the same night, and tooke of that which came to hand, a present, for Esau his brother:

14 Two hundred shee goats, and twentie hee goates, two hundred ewes and twentie rammes:

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bullockes, twentie she asses and ten foales.

16 So he deliuered them into the hand of his seruants euery droue by themselves, and said vnto his seruants, Passe before me, and put a space betwene droue and droue.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, If Esau my brother meete thee, and aske thee, saying, Whose seruants art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy seruants Iakobs: it is a present sent vnto my lord Esau: and behold, he himselfe also is behind vs.

19 So likewise commanded he the second, and the third, & all that followed the droues, saying, After this maner ye shall speake vnto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And ye shall say moreover, Behold, thy seruant Iakob cometh after vs (for he thought, I will appease his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face: it may be that he will accept me.)

21 So went the present before him: but he taried that night with the companie.

22 And he rose vp the same night, and tooke his two wives and his two maids, and his eleuen children, and went ouer the foord Iabbok.

23 And he tooke them and sent them ouer the riuier, and sent ouer that he had.

24 Now when Iakob was left himselfe alone, there wrestled a man with him vnto the breaking of the day.

25 And he sawe that he could not preuaile against him: therefore hee touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Iakobs thigh was loosed, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me goe, for the morning appeareth: Who answered, I will not let thee goe except thou bleste me.

27 Then said he vnto him, What is thy name? And he said, Iakob.

28 Then sayd hee, Thy name shall be called Iakob no more, but Israel: because thou hast had power with God, thou shalt also preuaile with men.

29 Then Iakob demanded, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore now dost thou aske my name? and hee blessed him there.

30 And Iakob called the name of the place, Peniel: for he said he, I haue sene God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And hee laye sofe to him as he passed Peniel, and he halted vpon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel ate not of the sinewe that shynke in the hollow of the thigh, vnto this day: because hee touched the sinewe that shynke in the hollow of Iakobs thigh.

i Or, Iacob was so much in love with Dinah, that he called the thing which it signified, broken that God had graciously delivered him.

k This explication is not to be given to youth.

And as Iacob lift vp his eyes, and looked behold, Esau came, and with him foure hundred men: and he a divided the children to Leah, and to Rachel, and to the two maids.

2 And he put the maides, and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Ioseph hindermost.

3 So he went before them and b bowed himselfe to the ground seven times, vntill hee came neere to his brother.

4 Then Esau ranne to meete him, and imbraced him, and fell on his necke, and kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lift vp his eyes and saw the women, and the children, and saide, Who are these with thee? And hee answered, They are the children whom God of his grace hath giuen thy seruant.

6 Then came the maids neere, they and their children, and c bowed themselves.

7 Leah also with her children came neere and made obeisance: and after Ioseph and Rachel drew neere, and did reuerence.

8 Then he said, What meanest thou by al this droug, which I met? Who answered, I haue sent it, that I may find fauour in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I haue enough, my brother: keepe that thou hast to thy selfe.

10 But Iacob answered, Nay, I pray thee, if I haue found grace now in thy sight, then receiue my present at mine hand: for d I haue seene thy face, as though I had seene the face of God, because thou hast accepted me.

11 I pray thee take my blessing, that is brought thee: for God hath had mercie on me, and therefore I haue all things: so he e compelled him, and he tooke it.

12 And he saide, Let vs take our iourney and goe, and I will go before thee.

13 Then he answered him, My lord knoweth, that the children are tender, and the ewes & kine with yong vnder mine hand: and if they should overdriue them one day, all the flocke would die.

14 Let now my lord go before his seruant, & I will driue softly, according to the pace of the cattell, which is before me, & as the children be able to endure, vntill f I come to my lord vnto Seir.

15 Then Esau said, I will leave then some of my folke with thee. And he answered, What needest this? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned, and went his way that same day vnto Seir.

17 And Iacob went forward toward Succoth, and built him an house, and made bootches for his cattell: therefore he called the name of the place h Succoth.

18 ¶ Afterward Iacob came safe to Shechem a city, which is in the land of Canaan, whē he came from i Padan Aram, and pitched before the city.

19 And there he bought a parcell of ground, where he pitched his tent at the hand of the sons of Hamor Shechems father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he set vp there an altar, and called sir, The mightie God of Israel.

T Hen Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare vnto Iacob, a went out to see the daughters of that country.

2 Whom when Shechem the sonne of Hamor the Hiuite, lord of that country saw, he took her, and lay with her, and † defiled her.

3 So his heart claue vnto Dinah the daughter of Iacob: and he loued the maide, and † spake kindly vnto the maide.

4 Then saide Shechem to his father Hamor, saying, b Get me this maid to wife.

5 (Now Iacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, and his sonnes were with his cattell in the field: therefore Iacob helde his peace, vntill they were come.)

6 ¶ Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out vnto Iacob to commune with him.

7 And when the sonnes of Iacob were come out of the field and heard it, it grieved the men, and they were very angry, because hee had wrought villenie in Israel, in that he had lien with Iacob's daughter: † which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Shechem longeth for your daughter: giue her him to wife, I pray you.

9 So make i affinitie with vs: giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you.

10 And ye shal dwell with vs, and the land shal be before you: dwell and doe your businesse in it, and haue your possessions therein.

11 Shechem also said vnto her father, and vnto her brethren, ¶ Let me finde fauour in your eyes, and I will giue whatsoever you shall appoint me.

12 † Aske of me abundantly both dowrie and gifts, and I will giue as ye appoynt me, so that yee giue me the maid to wife.

13 Then the sonnes of Iacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, talking deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister,

14 And they said vnto them, c We cannot doe this thing, to giue our sister to an vncircumcised man: for that were d a reproofe vnto vs.

15 But in this will we consent vnto you, if ye will be as we are, that every man child among you be e circumcised:

16 Then wee will giue our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to vs, and will dwell with you, and be one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then will we take our daughter & depart.

18 Now their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamors sonne.

19 And the yong man deferred not to doe the thing, because he loued Iacob's daughter: he was also the † most set by of all his fathers house.

20 ¶ Then Hamor and Shechem his son went vnto the f gate of their citie and communed with the men of their citie, saying,

21 These men are g peaceable with vs: and that they may dwell in the land, and doe their affaires therein (for behold, the land hath roome enough for them) let vs take their daughters to wiues, and giue them our daughters.

22 Onely herein will the men consent vnto vs for to dwell with vs, and to be one people, if all the men children among vs be circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not h their flocks and their substance and all their cattell be ours? onely let vs consent brein vnto them, and they will dwell with vs.

24 And vnto Hamor and Shechem his sonne hearkened all that went out of the gate of his citie:

25 And on the third day (when they were fore) two of the sonnes of Iaakob, ⁱ Simeon and Leui, Dinahs brethren tooke either of them his sword, and went into the citie boldly, and ^k slew ^l euery male.

26 They slewe also Hamor and Shechem his sonne with the ^j edge of the sword, and tooke Dinah out of Shechems house, and went their way.

27 Again, the other sonnes of Iaakob came vpon the dead, and spoiled the citie, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They tooke their sheepe and their beeces, and their asses, and whatsoever was in the citie, and in the fields.

29 Also they caried away captiue and spoiled all their goods, and all their children, and their wiues, and all that was in the houses.

30 Then Iaakob said to Simeon and Leui, Yee haue troubled mee, and made mee ^h stinke among the inhabitants of the land, ⁱ for the Canaanites, as the Perizzites, and I being fewe in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay mee, and so shall I and my house bee destroyed.

Then ^a God said to Iaakob, Arise, goe vp to Beth-el, and dwell there, and make there an Altar vnto God, that appeared vnto thee, ^b when thou fleddest from Esau thy brother.

2 Then said Iaakob vnto his household and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and ^c cleanse your selues, and change your garments.

3 For we will rise and goe vp to Beth-el, and I will make an altar there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my tribulation, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Iaakob all the strange gods, which were in their hands, & all their earrings which were in their eares, and Iaakob hid them vnder an oke, which was by Shechem.

5 Then they went on their journey, and the ^d feare of God was vpon the cities that were round about them: so that they did not follow after the sonnes of Iaakob.

6 ^e So came Iaakob to Iux, which is in the land of Canaan: (the same is Beth-el) he and all the people that was with him.

7 And he built there an Altar, and ^f had called the place, The God of Beth-el, because that God appeared vnto him there, when he fled from his brother.

8 Then Deborah Rebekahs nurse died, and was buried beneath Beth-el vnder an oke: and he called the name of it, ^g Allon Bachuth.

9 ^h Again, the God appeared vnto Iaakob, after he came out of Padan Aram, and blessed him.

10 Moreover God said vnto him, Thy name is Iaakob: thy name shall be no more called Iaakob, but ⁱ Israel shall be thy name: and hee called his name Israel.

11 Again, the God said vnto him, I am God: all sufficient. Growe, and multiply: a nation and a multitude of nations shall spring of thee, and Kings shall come out of thy loynes.

12 Also I will giue the land, which I gaue to Abraham and Izhak, vnto thee: and vnto thy seede after thee, will I giue that land.

13 So God ^j ascended from him in the place where he had talked with him.

14 And Iaakob set vp a pillar in the place where hee talked with him, a pillar of stone, and powred drinke offering thereon: also hee powred oyle thereon.

15 And Iaakob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 ^k Then they departed from Beth-el, and when there was ^l about halfe a dayes journey of ground to come to Ephrath, Rachel trauiled, and in trauiailing, she was in perill.

17 And when shee was in paines of her labour, the midwife sayd vnto her, Feare not, for thou ^m shalt haue this sonne also.

18 Then as shee was about to yeelde vp: the ghost (for she died) she called his name Ben-oni, but his father called him Benjamin.

19 Thus ⁿ died Rachel and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem.

20 And Iaakob set a ^o pillar vpon her graue: This is the pillar of Rahels graue vnto this day.

21 ^p Then Israel went forward, and pitched his tent beyond Migdal-eder.

22 Now, when Israel dwelt in that land, Reuben went, and ^q lay ^r with Bilhah his fathers concubine, and it came to Israels eare. And Iaakob had twelue sonnes.

23 The sonnes of Leah: Reuben Iaakobs eldest sonne, and Simeon, and Leui, and Iudah, and Issachar, and Zebulun.

24 The sonnes of Rachel: Ioseph and Benjamin.

25 And the sonnes of Bilhah Rahels maid: Dan and Naphtali.

26 And the sonnes of Zilpah Leahs maid: Gad and Asher. These are the sonnes of Iaakob, which were borne him in Padan Aram.

27 ^s Then Iaakob came vnto Izhak his father to Mamre a citie of Arbah: This is Hebron, where Abraham and Izhak were strangers.

28 And the dayes of Izhak were an hundred and fourescore yeeres.

29 And Izhak gaue vp the ghost and died, and was ^t gathered vnto his people, being olde and full of dayes: and his sonnes Esau and Iaakob buried him.

uered him out of their hands, and said, ¶ Let vs not kill him.

22 Alse Reuben did vnto them, Shedd not blood: And cast him into the pit that is in the wildernes, & lay no hand vpon him. ¶ Then said Reuben, I will be bound for him, if he be not found: for he might deliuer himself out of their hand, and returne him to his father againe.

23 ¶ Nowe when Joseph was come vnto his brethren, they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his particoloured coat that was vpon him.

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit, and the pit was empty, without water in it.

25 Then they saw him downe to eate bread:
and they lift vp their eyes, & looked, and behold, there came a company of Ishmaelites from Gilead, and their camels laden with spicery & balmes, and myrrhe, and were going to cary it downe into Egypt.

26 ¶ Then said Reuben vnto his brethren, What shall we doe? for he is our brother, though we keep his blood steeled.

27 Come, and let vs sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hands be vpon him: for he is our brother, and our flesh: and his brethren obeyed.

28 ¶ Then the Midianites merchant men passed by, and they drew forth and lift Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph vnto the Ishmaelites for twenty pices of silver: who brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ Afterward Reuben returned to the pit, and behold Joseph was not in the pit: then he rent his clothes.

30 And returned to his brethren and said, The child is not yonder, and I, whether shall I goe?
31 And they took Josephs coat, and killed a kid of the goats, & dipped the coat in the blood.

32 So they sent that particoloured coat, and they brought it vnto their father, and said, This haue we found: see now whether it be thy sonnes coat, or no.

33 Then he knew it, and said, Is my sonnes coat: a wicked beast hath deuoured him: Ioseph is surely torne in pieces.

34 And Iacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth about his loines, and forrowed for his sonne a long season.

35 ¶ Then all his sonnes, and all his daughters rose vp to comfort him, but hee would not bee comforted, but said, ¶ Surely I will goe downe into the grave vnto my sonne mourning: so his father wept for him.

36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt vnto Potiphar, an Eunuch of Pharaoh, and he

CHAP. XXXVII

1 The marriage of Iudah. 2 The traffick of Er and Onan, and the vengeance of God that comes thereupon. 3 Iudahs wife his daughter in law Tamar. 4 Tamar is lodged in his house for her wantonnesse. 5 The birth of Pharez and Zarah.

¶ Nd at that time Iudah went down from his brother, and turned in to a man called Hirah an Adullamite.

2 And Iudah saw there the daughter of a man called Shuah a Canaanite: and he took her to wife, and went in vnto her.

3 So she conceived and bare a sonne, and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived againe, & bare a sonne, and she called his name Onan.

5 Moreover, she bare yet a sonne, whom shee called Shelah: and Iudah was at Cherub when she bare him.

6 Then Iudah took a wife to Er, his first borne sonne, whose name was Tamar.

7 ¶ Now Er the first borne of Iudah was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord slew him.

8 ¶ Then Iudah said vnto Onan, Goe in vnto thy brothers wife, & doe the office of a kinsman vnto her, and raise vp seed vnto thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: therefore when hee went in vnto his brothers wife, hee spilled it on the ground, lest hee should giue seed vnto his brother.

10 And it was wicked in the eyes of the Lord, which hee did: wherefore he slew him also.

11 ¶ Then said Iudah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remaine a widow in thy fathers house, till Shelah my sonne growe vp (for he thought thus, Lest hee die as well as thy brethren.) So Tamar remained in her fathers house.

12 ¶ And in processe of time after the daughter of Shuah Iudahs wife died. Then Iudah when he had left mourning, went vp to his shee-pers to Timnah, hee and his neighbour Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father in law is gone vp to Timnah, to sheere his sheepe.

14 Then shee put her widows garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped her selfe, and late downe in the way to Timnah, which is by the way to Adullam, because she saw that Shelah was grown, and shee was not giuen vnto him to wife.

Pharaohs dreames are one. God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to doe.

26 The seven good kine are seven yeeres, and the seven good eares are seven yeeres: this is one dream.

27 Likewise the seven thinne and euill fauoured kine that came out after them, are seven yeeres:
and the seven emptic eares blasted with the East

29 Behold, there come seven yeeres of great plentie in all the land of Egypt.

yeeres of famine: & that all the plentie shall bee forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land.

is established by God: and God hath tolde to per-

44 Againe Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift vp his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Iosephs name Iaphnath-paneah: and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah, prince of On: asien went Ioseph abroad in the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Ioseph was thirtie yeeres old when he stood before Pharaoh King of Egypt: and Iose-ph departing from the presence of Pharaoh, went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plentious yeeres the earth brought forth store.

48 And he gathered vp all the food of the seuen plentious yeeres, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid vp food in the cities: the food of the field, that was round about euery cite, laid he vp in the same.

49 So Ioseph gathered wheat, like vnto the sand of the sea in multitude out of measure, until he left nothing left in the land without measure.

50 Now vnto Ioseph were borne two sonnes
(before the yeeres of famine came) which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah, prince of On bare vnto him.

51 And Ioseph called the name of the first borne Manasse: for God said he had made me forget all my labour and all my sorrows: he hath holden me in his right hand.

52 Also he called the name of the second sonne Ephraim: for God said he had made me fruitfull in the land of mine affliction.

53 ¶ So the seven yeeres of the plentie that was in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 Then began the seven yeeres of famine to come, according as Ioseph had said: and the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt was bread.

55 At the length all the land of Egypt was af-famed: and the people cryed to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said vnto all the Egyptians, Go to Ioseph: what he saith to you do ye.

56 When the famine was vpon all the land,
Ioseph opened all the store wherein he had wheat, and sold vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countreys came to Egypt to buy corne of Ioseph, because the famine was sore in all lands.

Iosephs brethren came into Egypt to buy corne, & they stood before Ioseph, and he said vnto them, What do ye returne to their father to see him?

¶ Hen Iacob saw that there was food in Egypt, and Iacob said vnto his sonnes, Why gaze ye one vpon another?

¶ And hee said, Behold, I haue heard that there is food in Egypt: ¶ Oe you downe thither, and buy vs foode of the land, that wee may liue and not die.

¶ So went Iosephs ten brethren downe to buy corne of the Egyptians.

¶ But Benjamin Iosephs brother would not Iacob send with his brethren: for hee said, Left death should befall him.

¶ And the sonnes of Israel came to buy food among them that came: for there was famine in the land of Canaan.

6 Now Ioseph was gouernour of the land, who solde to all the people of the land: then Iosephs brethren came, and bowed their face to the ground before him.

7 And when Ioseph saw his brethren, hee knew them, and made himselfe strange toward them, and spake to them roughly, and said vnto them, Whence come yee? Who answered, Out of the land of Canaan, to buy vitaille.

8 (Now Ioseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.)

9 And Ioseph remembered the dreames, which he dreamed of them, & he said vnto them, Ye are spies, and are come to see the weakenesse of the land.

10 But they said vnto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy vitaille thy seruants are come.

11 Wee are all one mans sonnes: wee meane truly, and thy seruants are not spies.

12 But he said vnto them, Nay, but ye are come to see the weakenesse of the land.

13 And they sayd, We thy seruants are twelue brethren, the sonnes of one man in the land of Canaan: and behold, the yongest is this day with our father, and one is not.

14 Againe Ioseph sayd vnto them, This is it that I spake vnto you, saying, Ye are spies.

15 Hereby yee shall be proued: by the life of Pharaoh, yee shall not goe hence, except your yongest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you which may set your brother, and yee shall bee kept in prison, that your words may be proued, whether there be truth in you: or els by the life of Pharaoh ye are but spies.

17 So he put them in ward three dayes.

18 Then Ioseph said vnto them the third day, This doe, and lue: for I feare God.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in your prison house, and goe yee, cary foode for the famine of your houses:

20 But bring your yonger brother vnto me, that your wordes may be tried, and that yee die not: and they did so.

21 And they said one to another, We haue verily sinned against our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soule, when hee besought vs, and wee would not heare him: therefore is this trouble come vpon vs.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Warned I not you, saying, Sinne not against the child, and ye would not heare? and lo, his blood is now required.

23 (And they were not aware that Ioseph vnderstood them: for he spake vnto them by an interpreter.)

24 Then he turned from them, and wept, and turned to them againe, & communed with them, and tooke Simeon from among them, and bound him before their eyes.

25 So Ioseph commanded that they should fill their sackes with wheate, and put every mans money againe in his sacke, and giue them vitaille for the iourney: and thus did he vnto them.

26 And they layd their vitaille vpon their asses, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sacke for to giue his asse prouender in the Inne, hee spied his money: for lo, it was in his sacks mouth.

28 Then he sayd vnto his brethren, My money is restored: for lo, it is euen in my sacke. And their heart failed them, and they were astonished, and sayd one to another, What is this, that God hath done vnto vs?

29 And they came vnto Iacob their father vnto the land of Canaan, and tolde him all that had befallen them, saying,

30 The man, who is lord of the land, spake roughly to vs, and put vs in prison as spies of the countrey.

31 And we sayd vnto him, Wee are true men, and are no spies.

32 We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father: one is not, and the yongest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 Then the lord of the countrey sayd vnto vs, Hereby shall I know if ye be true men: Leau one of your brethren with me, and take foode for the famine of your houses, and depart,

34 And bring your yongest brother vnto me, that I may know that yee are no spies, but true men: so will I deliuer you your brother, and yee shall occupie in the land.

35 And as they emptied their sackes, beholde, every mans bundle of money was in his sacke: and when they and their father saw the bundels of their money, they were afraid.

36 Then Iacob their father said to them, Ye haue robbed mee of my children: Ioseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye wil take Benjamin: all these things are against me.

37 Then Reuben answered his father, saying, Slay my two sonnes, if I bring him not to thee againe: deliuer him to mine hand, and I wil bring him to thee againe.

38 But he said, My sonne shall not goe downe with you: for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if death come vnto him by the way which ye goe, then ye shal bring my gray head with sorrow vnto the graue.

CHAP. XLIII.

13 Iacob suffereth Benjamin to depart with his children. 13 Simeon is delivered out of prison. 30 Ioseph goeth aside and weepeth. 32 They feast together.

Now great a famine was in the land. 2 And when they had eaten vp the vitaille which they had brought from Egypt, their father said vnto them, Turne againe, and buy vs a little foode.

3 And Iudah answered him, saying, The man charged vs by an oath, saying, Neuer see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with vs, wee will goe downe, and buy thee foode:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not goe downe: for the man said vnto vs, I looke not in the face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt you so euill with me, as to tell the man, whether yee had yet a brother or no?

7 And they answered, The man asked straitly of our selues and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alieue? haue ye any brother? And we told him according to these words: could we know certainly, that he would say, Bring your brother downe?

8 Then sayd Iudah to Israel his father, Send the boy with me, that we may rise and goe, and that we may lue, and not die, both we, and thou, and our children.

9 I will bee suretie for him: of mine hand shall thou require him. If I bring him not to thee, and set him before thee, then let me beare the the blame for ever.

10 For except we had made this taryng, doublelesse by this we had returned the second time.

11 Then their father Israel said vnto them, If it must needs be so now, doe thus: take of the best frutes of the land in your vessels, and bring the man a present, a litle rosen, and a litle hony, spices and myrrhe, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand, and the money that was brought againe in your sacks mouthes: cary it againe in your hand, lest it were some oversight.

13 Take also your brother and arise, and goe againe to the man.

14 And God Almightye giue you mercy in the sight of the man, that hee may deliuer you your other brother, and Benjamin: for I shall be robbed of my child, as I haue bene.

15 ¶ Thus the men tooke this present, & tooke twice so much money in their hand with Beniamin, and rose vp, and went downe to Egypt and stood before Ioseph.

16 And when Ioseph sawe Benjamin with them, he said || to his steward, Bring these men home and kill meate, and make ready: for the men shall eat with me at noone.

17 And the man did as Ioseph bade, and brought the men vnto Iosephs house.

18 Now when the men were brought into Iosephs house, they were afraid, and said, Because of the money that came in our sacks mouthes at the first time, are we brought, that he may picke a quartell against vs, and lay some thing to our charge, and bring vs in bondage and our asses.

19 Therefore came they to Iosephs steward, and communed with him at the doore of the house.

20 And said, Oh sir, we came in deed downe under at the first time to buy food.

21 And as wee came to an Inne and opened our sacks, behold euery mans money was in his sacks mouth, even our money in full weight, but we haue brought it againe in our hands.

22 Also other money haue we brought in our hands to buy food, but we cannot tell, who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace be vnto you, feare not your God, and the God of your father hath gi-uen you that treasure in your sacks, I had your money: and he brought forth Simeon to them.

24 So the man led them into Iosephs house, and gaue them water to wash their feet, and gaue their asses provender.

25 And they made ready their present against Ioseph came at noone: (for they heard say, that they should eate bread there.)

26 When Ioseph came home, they brought the present into the house to him, which was in their hands, and bowed downe to the ground before him.

27 And he asked them of their prosperitie, and said, Is your father the old man, of whom ye told me, in good health? is he yet alieue?

28 Who answered, Thy seruant our father is in good health, he is yet alieue: and they bowed downe, and made obeysance.

29 And he lifting vp his eyes, beheld his brother Benjamin, his mothers sonne, and sayd, Is this your younger brother of whom ye told me?

30 And he said, God be mercifull vnto thee my son.
31 And Ioseph made haste (for his brethren was inflamed toward his brother, and fought where to wepe) and entred into his chamber, and wept there.

32 Afterward he washed his face, & came out, and refrained himselfe, and said, See on my meate.

33 And they prepared for him by himselfe and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians which did eate with him, by themselves, because the Egyptians might not eate bread with the Ebrewes: for that was an abomination vnto the Egyptians.

34 So they sat before him: the eldest according to his age, and the yongest according vnto his youth: & the men marueiled among themselves.

35 And they tooke meales from before him, and sent to them: but Beniamins meale was fise times so much as any of theirs: and they dranke, and had of the best drinke with him.

CHAP. XLIIII.

1 Ioseph accuseth his brethren of theft. 22 Judah offereth himselfe to be seruant for Benjamin.

¶ Forward hee commanded his steward, saying, Fill the mens sacks with food, as much as they can cary, and put euery mans money in his sacks mouth.

2 And put my cup, I meane, the silver cup, in the sacks mouth of the yongest, and his come money. And he did according to the commandement that Ioseph gaue him.

3 And in the morning the men were sent away, they, and their asses.

4 And when they went out of the city, not fare off Ioseph sayd to his steward, Vp, follow after the men: and when thou dost ouertake them, say vnto them, Wherefore haue ye rewarded euill for good?

5 Is that not the cup, wherein my lord drinketh? and in the which hee doeth diuine and prophesie? ye haue done euill in so doing.

6 ¶ And when hee ouertooke them, hee sayd those words vnto them.

7 And they answered him, Wherefore sayth my lord such wordes? God forbid that thy ser-uants should doe such a thing.

8 Behold, the money which we found in our sacks mouthes, we brought againe to thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we liale out of thy lords house silver or gold?

9 With whosoever of thy seruants it be found, let him die, & we also will be my lords bondmen.

10 And he said, Now then let it be according vnto your words: he with whom it is found, shall be my seruant, and ye shall be blamelesse.

11 Then at once euery man tooke downe his sack to the ground, & euery one opened his sack.

12 And hee searched, and began at the eldest and left at the yongests: and the cup was found in Beniamins sack.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded euery man his asse, & went againe into the cite.

14 ¶ So Judah and his brethren came to Iosephs house: (for he was yet there.) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 Then Ioseph sayd vnto them, What age is this, which ye haue done? know ye not that such a man as I, can diuine and prophesie?

16 Then said Judah, What shall we say vnto my lord? what shall we speake? & how can we iustifie ourselues? God hath found out the wickednes of thy seruants: behold, wee are seruants to my lord, both we, & he, with whom the cup is found:

sheth vs iustly for

17 But he answered, God forbid, that I should doe so, but the man, with whom the cup is found, he shall be my seruant, and goe yee in peace vnto your father.

18 ¶ Then Iudah drew neere vnto him, and said, O my lord, let thy seruant now speake a word in my lords eares, and let not thy wrath be kindled against thy seruant: for thou art euen as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his seruants, saying, *Haue ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we answered my lord, We haue a father that is old, and a yong^r childe, which hee begate in his age: and his brother is dead, and hee alone is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

21 Now thou saidest vnto thy seruants, Bring him vnto mee, that I may set mine eye vpon him.

22 And we answered my lord, The child can not depart from his father: for if he leaue his father, his father would die.

23 Then saidest thou vnto thy seruants, *Except your yonger brother come downe with you, looke in my face no more.

24 So when we came vnto thy seruant our father, and shewed him what my lord had said,

25 And our father said vnto vs, Goe againe, buy vs a little food,

26 Then wee answered, We cannot go downe, but if our yongest brother go with vs, then will we go downe: for we may not see the mans face, except our yongest brother be with vs.

27 Then thy seruant my father said vnto vs, Ye know that my wife bare me two sonnes,

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Of a suretie he is torne in *pieces, and I saw him not since.

29 Now yee take this also away from mee: if death take him, then yee shall bring my gray head in sorow to the graue.

30 Now therefore, when I come to thy seruant my father, and the childe be not with vs, (seeing that his life dependeth on the childes life)

31 Then when hee shall see that the childe is not come, he will die: so shall thy seruants bring the gray head of thy seruant our father with sorow to the graue.

32 Doublesse thy seruant became suretie for the childe, to my father and said, *If I bring him not vnto thee againe, then I will beare the blame vnto my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let me thy seruant abide for the childe, as a seruant to my lord, and let the childe goe vp with his brethren.

34 For how can I goe vp to my father, if the childe be not with mee, vnlesse I would see the euill that shall come on my father?

CHAP. XLV.

1 Ioseph maketh himself knowne to his brethren. 2 He sheweth that all was done by Gods providence. 3 Pharaoh commaundeth him to stand for his father. 4 Ioseph exhorteth his brethren to concord. 5 Iacob reioiceth.

¶ Then Ioseph could not refraine himselfe before al that stood by him, but he cried, *Haue forth every man from me. And there carried not one with him, while Ioseph uttered himselfe vnto his brethren.

2 And he wept, and cried, so that the Egyptians heard: the house of Pharaoh heard also.

3 Then Ioseph said to his brethren, I am Io-seph: doeth my father yet liue? But his brethren could not answer him, for they were astonished at his presence.

4 Again, Ioseph said to his brethren, Come neere, I pray you, to mee. And they came neere. And hee said, *I am Ioseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not sad, neither grieved with your selues, that ye sold me hither: For God did send me before you for your preferuation.

6 For now two yeeres of famine haue bene thorow the land, and fise yeeres are behinde, wherein neither shall bee earing nor harvest.

7 Wherefore God sent me before you to preserve your posteritie in this land, and to saue you aliue by a great deliuerance.

8 Now then you sent not mee hither, but God, who hath made mee a father vnto Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and ruler thorowout all the land of Egypt.

9 Hesse you and goe vp to my father, and tell him, Thus sayth thy sonne Ioseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come downe to mee, tarie not.

10 And thou shalt dwel in the land of Goshen, and shalt be neere me, thou and thy children, and thy childrens children, and thy sheepe; and thy beasts, and all that thou hast.

11 Also I will nourish thee there (for yet remaine fise yeeres of famine) least thou perish through pouertie, thou and thy household, and all that thou hast.

12 And behold, your eyes doe see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that my mouth speaketh to you.

13 Therefore tel my father of all mine honour in Egypt, and of all that ye haue seene, and make haste, and bring my father hither.

14 Then hee fell on his brother Beniamins necke, & wept, and Benjamin wept on his necke.

15 Moreover, hee kissed all his brethren, and wept vpon them: and afterward his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the tidings came vnto Pharaohs house, so that they said, Iosephs brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his seruants.

17 Then Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, Say to thy brethren, This do ye, lade your beasts and depart, goe to the land of Canaan.

18 And take your father, and your households, and come to me, and I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eate of the fat of the land.

19 And I commaunded thee, This do ye. Take you charrets out of the land of Egypt for your children, and for your wiues, and bring your father and come.

20 Also regard not your stulle for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Ioseph gaue them charrets according to the commaundement of Pharaoh: hee gaue them victuall also for the iourney.

22 Hee gaue them all, noue except attires of raiment: but vnto Benjamin hee gaue three hundred pieces of siluer, and fise asses of raiment.

23 And vnto his father I likewise hee took on hee asses laden with the best things of Egypt, and ten shee asses laden with wheate, and bread, and meat for his familie.

24 So hee sent his brethren away, and they departed.

¶ Then Israel tooke his journey with all that he night, saying, Iakob, Iakob. Who answered, I shall put his hand vpon thine eyes.

6 Then Iakob rose vp from Beer-sheba: and the sonnes of Israel caried Iakob their father, and their children, and their wies, in the charers, which Pharaoh had sent to carie him.

7 And they tooke their catel & their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Iakob & Iakob and all his red with him.

8 His sonnes and his sonnes sonnes with him, his daughters and his sonnes daughters, and all his feed brought hee with him into Egypt.

9 ¶ And these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, vnto Iakob and his sonnes: Reuben Iakobs first borne.

10 And the sonnes of Reuben: Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hetron, and Carmi.

11 ¶ And the sonnes of Simeon: Iemuel, and Iamud, and Ohad, and Iachin, and Zohar, & Shaul the sonne of a Canaanitish woman.

12 ¶ Also the sonnes of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

13 ¶ Also the sonnes of Iudah: Er, & Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zerah: (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan) and the sonnes of Pharez were Hetron and Hamul.

14 ¶ Also the sonnes of Issachar: Tola, and Phuiah, and Job, and Shimron.

15 ¶ Also the sonnes of Zebulun: Sered, and Eliu, and Ishuel.

16 These be the sonnes of Leah, which shee bare vnto Iakob in Padan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the bulers of his sonnes and his daughters were thare and three.

17 ¶ Also the sonnes of Gad: Zephion, & Hagi, Shun, and Ieshon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

18 ¶ Also the sonnes of Asher: Imnah, and Isachar, and Iudith, and Berish, and Serah their sister, and the sonnes of Naphtali: Guni, and Ishmael, and the sonnes of Dan: Hushim.

Leban sent to Leah his daughter: and these three bare vnto Iakob, vnto sixtene soules.

19 The sonnes of Rahel Iakobs wife, were Ioseph and Benjamin.

20 ¶ And vnto Ioseph in the land of Egypt, were borne Manasseh, and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah prince of On bare vnto him.

21 ¶ Also the sonnes of Benjamin: Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Mippim, and Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sonnes of Rahel, which were borne vnto Iakob, fouretee soules in all.

23 ¶ Also the sonnes of Dan: Hushim.

24 ¶ Also the sonnes of Naphtali: Iahzeel, and Guni, and Iezer, and Shilleu.

25 These are the sonnes of Bilhah, which Laban gave vnto Rahel his daughter, and shee bare these to Iakob, in all, seuen soules.

26 All the soules that came with Iakob into Egypt, which came out of his loines (beside Iakobs sonnes wies) were in the whole, three-score and sixe soules.

27 ¶ Also the sonnes of Ioseph, which were borne him in Egypt, were two soules: so that all the soules of the house of Iakob, which came into Egypt, are seuentie.

28 ¶ Then he sent Iudah before him vnto Ioseph, to direct his way vnto Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 Then Ioseph made ready his charer, and went vp to Goshen to meete Israel his father, and presented himselfe vnto him, and fel on his necke, and wept vpon his necke a good while.

30 And Israel said vnto Ioseph, Now let mee die, since I haue seene thy face, and that thou art yet aliue.

31 Then Ioseph said to his brethren, and to his fathers house, I will goe vp and shew Pharaoh, and tell him, My brethren and my fathers hoofe, which were in the lande of Canaan, are come vnto me.

32 And the men are shepherds, and because they are shepherds, they haue brought their sheep and their cattell, and all that they haue.

33 And if Pharaoh call you, and aske you,
What is your trade?

34 Then yee shall say, Thy seruants are men occupied about cattell, from our childhood euen vnto this time, both we and our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen: for every sheepe keeper is an abomination vnto the Egyptians.

CHAP. XLVII.

ment. 11 The land of Goshen is giuen him. 20 The children of Israel said, My father, and my brethren, and their sheepe, and their cattell, and all that they haue, are come out of the land of Canaan, and behold,

they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And Ioseph tooke part of his brethren, euen five men, and presented them vnto Pharaoh.

3 Then Pharaoh said vnto his brethren, What is your trade? And they answered Pharaoh, Thy seruants are shepherds, both we and our fathers.

4 They said moreover vnto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come for thy seruants nauaine land of Canaan. Now therefore we pray

5 Then spake Pharaoh to Ioseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come vnto thee.

6 The land of Egypt is before thee: in the best place of the land make thy father and thy brethren dwell: let them dwell in the land of Goshen: and if thou knowest that there bee men of skill among them, make them rulers over my cattell.

7 Ioseph also brought Iakob his father, and set him before Pharaoh. And Iakob saluted Pharaoh.

8 Then Pharaoh sayde vnto Iakob, How olde art thou?

9 And Iakob said vnto Pharaoh, The whole time of my pilgrimage is an hundred and thirty yeeres: fewe and euill haue the dayes of my life bene, and I haue not attained vnto the yeeres of the life of my fathers, in the dayes of their pilgrimages.

10 And Iakob tooke leaue of Pharaoh, and departed from the presence of Pharaoh:

11 And Ioseph placed his father & his brethren, and gave them possession in the land of Egypt in the best of the land, vnto in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Ioseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his fathers household with bread, vnto the yong children.

13 Now there was no bread in all the land: for the famine was exceeding sore: so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan were famished by reason of the famine.

14 And Ioseph gathered all the money, that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought, and Ioseph laid vp the money in Pharaohs house.

15 So when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, then all the Egyptians came vnto Ioseph, and sayde, Giue vs bread: for why should we die before thee? for our money is spent.

16 Then sayd Ioseph, Bring your cattell, and I will giue you for your cattell, if your money bee spent.

17 So they brought their cattell vnto Ioseph, and Ioseph gaue them bread for the horses, and for the flocks of sheepe, and for the herds of cattell, and for the asses: so hee fed them with bread for all their cattell that yeere.

18 But when the yeere was ended, they came vnto him the next yeere, and sayd vnto him, Wee will not hide from my lord, that since our money is spent, and my lord hath the herds of the cattell, there is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our ground.

19 Why shall we perish in thy sight, both we, and our land? buy vs and our land for bread, and we and our land will be bond to Pharaoh: therefore giue vs seed, that wee may liue and not die, and that the land goe not to waste.

20 So Ioseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians sold euery man his ground, because the famine was sore vpon them: so the land became Pharaohs.

21 And he remooued the people vnto the cities, from one side of Egypt euery to the other.

22 Only the land of the Priests bought he not: for the Priests had an ordinarie of Pharaoh, and they did eat their ordinarie, which Pharaoh gaue them: wherefore they sold not their ground.

23 Then Ioseph said vnto the people, Behold, I haue bought you this day, & your land for Pharaoh: loe, I haue sseed for you: lowe therefore the ground.

24 And of the increase yee shall giue the fifth part vnto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be yours for the sseed of the fildes, and for your meate, and for them of your households, and for your children to eate.

25 Then they answered, Thou hast saued our liues: let vs finde grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaohs seruants.

26 Then Ioseph made it a lawe ouer the land of Egypt vnto this day, that Pharaoh should haue the fifth part, except the land of the Priests only, which was not Pharaohs.

27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the countrey of Goshen: and they had their possessions therein, and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

28 Moreover, Iakob liued in the lande of Egypt seuentene yeeres, so that the whole age of Iakob was an hundred fourtie and seven yeeres.

29 Now when the time drew nere that Israel must die, he called his sonne Ioseph, and sayd vnto him, If I haue now found grace in thy sight, put thy hand vnder my thigh, and deale mercifully and truly with me, bury me not: I pray thee, in Egypt.

30 But when I shall sleepe with my fathers, thou shalt cary me out of Egypt, and bury me in their buriall. And he answered, I will do as thou hast sayd.

31 Then hee sayde, Swear vnto mee. And he sware vnto him. And Israel worshipped towards the beds head.

2 Also one told Iakob, and said, Behold, thy sonne Ioseph is come to thee, and Israel tooke his strength vnto him and saie vpon the bed.

3 Then Iakob sayde vnto Ioseph, God Almighty appeared vnto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me.

4 And he sayd vnto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitfull, and will multiply thee, and will make a great number of people of thee, and will giue this land vnto thy sseed after thee for an everlasting possession.

5 And now thy two sonnes Manasseh and Ephraim, which are borne vnto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came to thee into Egypt, shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

6 But thy lineage, which thou hast begotten after them shall be thine: they shall be called after the names of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 Nowe when I came from Padan, I died vpon mine hand in the land of Canaan, by the way when I was but halfe a dayes iourney of ground to come to Ephraim: and I buried her there in the way to Ephraim, the land of Bethlehem.

lah beside Mamre, in the land of Canaan: which caue Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession to bury in.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife: there they buried Izhak and Rebekah his wife: and there I buried Leah.

32 The purchase of the field and the caue that is therein, was bought of the children of Heth.

33 Thus Iakob made an ende of giuing charge to his sonnes, and *plucked vp his feet into the bed, and gaue vp the ghost, and was gathered to his people.

CHAP. L.

13 Iakob is buried. 19 Ioseph forgiveth his brethren. 23 Re-surrexeth his childrens children. 25 He dieth.

Then Ioseph fell vpon his fathers face, & wept vpon him, and kissed him.

2 And Ioseph commaunded his seruants the physicians to embaume his father, and the physicians embaumed Israel.

3 So fourtie dayes were accomplished (for so long did the dayes of them that were embaumed last) and the Egyptians bewailed him ^{seuentie} dayes.

4 And when the dayes of his mourning were past, Ioseph spake to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If I haue now found fauour in your eyes,

5 I pray you, in the eares of Pharaoh, & say,
My father made me *swear, saying, Let I die, burie me in my grave, which I haue made me in the land of Canaan: now therefore let me goe,
I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 Then Pharaoh sayd, Goe vp and bury thy father, as he made thee to sweare.

7 ¶ So Ioseph went vp to bury his father, and with him went all the seruantes of Pharaoh, both the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt.

8 Likewise all the house of Ioseph, and his brethren, and his fathers house: onely their children, and their sheepe, and their cattel, left they in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went vp with him both charets and horsemen: and they were an exceeding great company.

10 And they came to Goren Atad, which is beyond Iorden, and there they made a great and exceeding sore lamentation: and he mourned for his father seuen dayes.

11 And when the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land, sawe the mourning in Goren Atad, they sayd, This is a great mourning vnto the Egyptians: wherefore the name thereof was called ¶ Abel Mizraim, which is beyond Iorden.

12 So his sonnes did vnto him, according as he had commaunded them:

13 ¶ For his sonnes caried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the caue of the field of Machpelah, which caue * Abraham bought with the field, to be ¶ a place to burie in, of Ephron the Hittite besides Mamre.

14 ¶ Then Ioseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, and al that went vp with him to burie his father, after that he had buried his father.

15 And when Iosephs brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, ¶ It may be that Ioseph will hate vs, and will pay vs againe all the euill which we did vnto him.

16 Therefore they sent vnto Ioseph, saying, Thy father commaunded before his death, saying,

17 Thus shal ye say vnto Ioseph, Forgiue now,
I pray thee, the trespasse of thy brethren, and their sinne: for they rewarded thee euill. And now, we pray thee, forgieue the trespasse of the seruants of thy fathers * God. And Ioseph wept when ¶ they spake vnto him.

18 Also his brethren came vnto him, and fell downe before his face, and said, Behold, we be thy seruants.

19 To whom Ioseph said, Feare not for ¶ I am not I vnder ¶ God?

20 When yee thought euill against mee, God disposed it to good, that he might bring to passe, as it is this day, and saue much people alieue.

21 Feare not now therefore, I will nourish you and your children: and he comforted them, and spake ¶ kindly vnto them.

22 ¶ So Ioseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his fathers house: and Ioseph liued an hundred and ten yeeres.

23 ¶ And Ioseph saw Ephraims children, euen vnto the third generation: also the sonnes of Ma-chir the sonne of Manasse were brought vp on Iosephs knees.

24 And Ioseph said vnto his brethren, ¶ I am readie to die, and God will surely visite you, and bring you out of this land, vnto the land which he sware vnto Abraham, vnto Izhak, and vnto Iakob.

25 And Ioseph tooke an othe of the children of Israel, saying, ¶ God wil surely visit you, and ye shall carry my bones hence.

26 So Ioseph died, when hee was an hundred and ten yeeres old: and they embaumed him and put him in a chest in Egypt.

THE SECOND BOOKE OF Moses, called Exodus.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that Iakob by Gods commandement, Gen. 46. 3. had brought his familie into Egypt, where they remained for the space of four hundred yeeres, and of seuentie persons grew to an infinite number, so that the King and the Countrey grudged, and endeavored both by crueltie and cruell slaues rie to suppress them: the Lord according to his promise, Gen. 15. 14. had compassion of his Church and delivered them, but plagued their enemies in most strange and sundry sorts. And it was thus the tyrannie of the wicked increased against his Church, the more did his mercie increase against them: till Pharaoh and his armie were drowned in the same Sea, which gave an euerlasting passage to the children of God. But as the ingratitude of man is great, so did they immediately forget Gods

Gods wonderful benefites: and albeit he had giuen them the Passouer to be a signe and memoriall of the same, yet they fell to distrust, and tempted God with sundry murmuring, and grudging against him and his ministers: sometimes moued with ambition, sometimes for lacke of drinke or meate to content their lusts, sometimes by idolatry, or such like. Wherefore God visited them with scourges, rodde and plagues, that by his corrections they might seeke him for remedie against his scourges, and earnestly repent them for their rebellions and wickednesse. And because God leaue them to the ende, whom he hath once begun to loose he punisheth them not according to their desires, but dealt with them in great mercie, and euer with new benefites laboured to ouercome their malice: for he still gouerned them, and gaue them his word and Law, both suffering the manner of seruing him, and also the forme of Iudgements and ciuill policie, to the intent that they should not serue God after their own inuention, but according to that order which his eternall wisdome had appointed.

CHAP. I

1 The children of Iacob that came into Egypt. 2 The new Pharaoh opposed them. 3 The promise of God to Iacob. 4 The first commandment to the midwives. 5 The first of the Hebrews are commended to be cast into the river.

NOW these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt (every man & his household came thither with Iacob) Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, Dan and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

So all the soules that came out of the loynes of Iacob, were seuentie soules: Ioseph was in Egypt already.

Now Ioseph died and all his brethren, and that whole generation.

And the children of Israel brought forth fruit, and increased in abundance, and were multiplied, and were exceeding mighty, so that the land was full of them.

Then there rose vp a new king in Egypt, who knew not Ioseph.

And he said vnto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are greater and mightier then we.

Come, let vs worke wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to passe, that if there bee warre, they ioyne themselves also vnto our enemies, and fight against vs, and get them out of the land.

Therefore did they set taskmasters ouer them, to keepe them vnder with burdens: & they built the cities Pithom & Raames for the treasures of Pharaoh.

But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied and grew: therefore they were more grieved against the children of Israel.

Wherefore the Egyptians by crueltie caused the children of Israel to serue.

Thus they made them weary of their liues by sore labour in clay and in bricke, and in all worke in the fildes, with all manner of bondage, which they layd vpon them most cruelly.

Moreover, the king of Egypt commanded the midwives of the Hebrew women (of which the ones name was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah)

And said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the women of the Ebrewes, and see them on their stooles, if it be a sonne, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then let her liue.

Notwithstanding, the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but preferred aliuie the men children.

Then the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said vnto them, Why haue ye yet done thus, and haue preferred aliuie the men children?

And they answered Pharaoh, saying, cause the Ebrew women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are liuely, and are deliuered yer the midwife come to them.

God therefore prospered the midwives, and the people multiplied, and were very mighty.

And because the midwives feared God, therefore he made them houses.

Then Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every man-child that is borne, cast ye into the riuer, but reserve euery maid-child aliuie.

CHAP. II

1 Moses is borne, and cast into the river. 2 He is taken up of Pharaohs daughter, and kept. 3 His sister Miriam. 4 He is nursed by his mother. 5 The first of the Hebrews are commended to be cast into the river.

THEN there went a man of the house of Levi, and tooke to wife a daughter of Levi.

And the woman conceived and bare a sonne: and when she saw that he was faire, she hid him three moneths.

But when she could no longer hide him, she tooke for him an arke made of reede, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and layd the child therein, and put it among the bulrushes by the riuers brinke.

Now his sister stood afarre off, to wat what would come of him.

Then the daughter of Pharaoh came downe to wash her in the riuer, and her maidens walked by the riuers side: and when she saw the arke among the bulrushes, shee sent her maide to fetch it.

Then she opened it, and saw it was a child: and behold the babe wept, so she had compassion on it, and said, This one of the Ebrewes children.

Then said his sister vnto Pharaohs daughter, Shall I goe and call vnto thee a nurse of the Ebrew women to nurse thee the child?

And Pharaohs daughter said vnto her, Go. So the maide went and called the childes mother.

To whom Pharaohs daughter layd, Take this child away, and nurse for me, and I will reward thee. Then the woman tooke the child, and nursed him.

Now the child grew, and she brought him vnto Pharaohs daughter, & he was as her sonne, and she called his name Moses, because she drew him out of the water.

And in those dayes, when Moses was a growethie went forth vnto his brethren, and looked on their hardens: also he saw an Egyptian smiting an Ebrew one of his brethren.

And he looked round about, and when he saw no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

Again he came forth the second day, and beheld two Ebrewes strouing, and he said vnto him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

g Their disobedience herein was lawfull, but their dissembling euill. h That is, God increased the families of the Israelites by their means.

2 And the Lord said vnto him, What is that in thine hand? And he answered, A rod.

3 Then sayd hee, Cast it on the ground. So he cast it on the ground, and it was turned into a serpent: and Moses fled from it.

4 Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the taile. Then he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it was turned into a rod in his hand.

5 Doe this, that they may beleue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, and the God of Iaakob hath appeared vnto thee.

6 And the Lord said furthermore vnto him, Thrust now thine hand into thy bosome. And he thrust his hand into his bosome, and when heeooke it out againe, behold, his hand was leproous as snow.

7 Moreouer he sayd, Put thine hand into thy bosome againe. So he put his hand into his bosome againe, and plucked it out of his bosome, and behold, it was turned againe as his other flesh.

8 So shall it bee, if they will not beleue thee, neither obey the voice of the first signe, yet shall they beleue for the voice of the second signe.

9 But if they will not yet beleue these two signes, neither obey vnto thy voyce, then shalt thou take of the water of the riuer, and powre it vpon the drie land: so the water which thou shalt take out of the riuer, shall be turned to blood vpon the drie land.

10 But Moses sayde vnto the Lord, Oh my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither at any time have beene, nor yet since thou hast spoken vnto thy servant: but I am slowe of speech and slowe of tongue.

11 Then the Lord sayd vnto him, Who hath giuen the mouth to man? or who hath made the dumbe, or the deafe, or him that seeth, or the blind? haue not I the Lord?

12 Therefore goe now, and I will bee with thy mouth, and will teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 But he said, Oh my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him, whome thou shouldst send.

14 Then the Lord was angry with Moses and sayd, Doe not I know Aaron thy brother the Leuite, that he himselfe shall speake for loe, he cometh also forth to meete thee, and when hee seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto him, and put the wordes in his mouth, and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye ought to doe.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman vnto the people: and he shall be, euen he shall be as thy mouth, and thou shalt be to him as God.

17 Moreouer thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt doe miracles.

18 Therefore Moses went and returned to Iethro his father in law, and said vnto him, I pray thee let mee goe, and retorne to my brethren, which are in Egypt, and see whether they bee yet aliue. Then Iethro said to Moses, Goe in peace.

19 For the Lord had sayd vnto Moses in Midian, Goe, retorne to Egypt: for they are all dead which I wene about to kill thee.)

20 Then Moses tooke his wife and his sonnes, and I put them on an asse, and returned toward the land of Egypt, and Moses tooke the rod of God in his hand.

21 And the Lord said vnto Moses, When thou art entred and come into Egypt, see that thou doe all the wonders before Pharaoh, which I haue put in thine hand: but I will harden his heart, and he shall not let the people goe.

22 Then thou shalt say to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Irael is my sonne, euen my first borne.

23 Wherefore I say to thee, Let my sonne goe, that hee may serue mee: if thou refuse to let him goe, behold, I will slay thy sonne, euen thy first borne.

24 And as hee was by the way in the Inne, the Lord met him, and would haue killed him.

25 Then Zipporah tooke a sharpe knife, and cut away the foreskin of her sonne, and cast it at his feete, and sayd, Thou art indeed a bloody husband vnto me.

26 So he departed from him. Then she sayd, O bloody husband (because of the circumcision).

27 Then the Lord said vnto Aaron, Go meet Moses in the wilderness. And he went and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 Then Moses tolde Aaron all the words of the Lord, who had sent him, and all the signes wherewith he had charged him.

29 So went Moses and Aaron, and gathered all the Elders of the children of Irael.

30 And Aaron tolde all the words which the Lord had spoken vnto Moses, and he did the miracles in the sight of the people.

31 And the people beleueed, and when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Irael, and had looked vpon their tribulation, they bowed downe, and worshipped.

CHAP. V.

Moses and Aaron doe their misdeeds vnto Pharaoh, who letteth not the people of Irael depart, but oppresseth them more and more. 20 They cry out vpon Moyses and Aaron therefore, and Moyses complaineth vnto God.

Then afterward Moses and Aaron went and said to Pharaoh, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Irael, Let my people go, that they may celebrate a feast vnto me in the wilderness.

And Pharaoh sayd, Who is the Lord, that I should heare his voyce, and let Irael go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Irael goe.

3 And they sayd, Wee worship the God of the Ebrewes: wee pray thee let vs go three dayes journey in the desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, lest hee bring vpon vs the pestilence or sword.

4 Then sayde the king of Egypt vnto them, Moses & Aaron, why caule ye the people to cease from their works? get you to your burdens.

5 Pharaoh sayd furthermore, Behold, much people is now in the land, and yee make them leaue their burdens: what doe you thinke?

6 Therefore Pharaoh gaue commandement the same day vnto the taskemasters of the people, and to their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall giue the people no more straw to make bricke (as in time past) but let them goe and gather them straw themselves.

8 Notwithstanding lay vpon them the number of bricke, which they made in time past, diminish nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore they cry, saying, Let vs goe to offer sacrifice vnto our God.

11 Goe your selues, get you strawe where yee can find it, yet shal nothing of your labour be diminished.

12 Then were the people scattered abroade throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather stubble in stead of strawe.

13 And the taskemasters hastened them, saying, Finish your dayes worke ¶ every dayes taske, as ye did when ye had strawe.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaohs taskemasters had set ouer them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore haue ye not fulfilled your taske in making bricke yesterday and to day, as in times past?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came, and cried vnto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy seruants?

16 There is no straw giuen to thy seruants, and they say vnto vs, Make bricke: and loe, thy seruants are beaten, and ¶ thy people is blamed.

17 But he sayd, ¶ Ye are too much idle: therefore yel say, Let vs go to offer sacrifice to the Lord.

18 Goe therefore now and worke: for there shall no straw be giuen you, yet shall yee deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 Then the officers of the children of Israel saw themselves in an euill case, because it was said, Ye shal diminish nothing of your bricke, nor of euery dayes taske.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, which stood in their way as they came out fro Pharaoh, 21 To whom they said, The Lord looke vpon you and iudge: for yee haue made our sauour to ¶ sinke before Pharaoh & before his seruants, in that ye haue put a sword in their hand to slay vs.

22 Wherefore Moses returned to the Lord, and said, Lord, why hast thou afflicted this people? wherefore hast thou thus sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speake in thy Name, he hath vexed this people, & yet thou hast not deliuered thy people.

4 Furthermore as I made my Couenant with them to giue them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers:

5 So I haue also heard the groning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keepe in bondage, and haue remembered my Couenant.

6 Wherefore say thou vnto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and will deliuer you out of their bondage, and will redeeme you in a stretched out arme, and in great ¶ iudgements.

7 Also I will ¶ take you for my people, and will be your God: then ye shall know that I the Lord your God bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I wil bring you into the land which I ¶ sware that I would giue to Abraham, to Izhak, and to Iaakob, and I will giue it vnto you for a possession: I am the Lord.

9 ¶ So Moses told the children of Israel thus: but they hearkened not vnto Moses, for anguish of spirit, and for cruell bondage.

10 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

11 Goe speake to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that hee let the children of Israel goe out of his land.

12 But Moses spake before the Lorde, saying, Behold, the children of Israel hearken not vnto me, how then shall Pharaoh heare me, which am of ¶ vncircumcised lips?

13 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses and vnto Aaron, and charged them to goe to the children of Israel & to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

18 And at that time when the Lord spake vnto Moyses in the land of Egypt,

19 When the Lord, I say, spake vnto Moyses, saying, I am the Lord, speake thou vnto Pharaoh the king of Egypt all that I say vnto thee, 20 Then Moyses said before the Lord, Behold, I am of vncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh heare me?

CHAP. VII.

1 God hardeneth Pharaohs heart. 10 Moyses and Aaron do the miracles of the serpent, and the blood: and Pharaohs forcerers do the like.

Then the Lord said to Moyses, Behold, I haue made thee || Pharaohs God, and Aaron thy brother shall be thy Prophet.

2 Thou shalt speake all that I commaunded thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speake vnto Pharaoh, that hee suffer the children of Israel to goe out of his land.

3 But I will harden Pharaohs heart, and multiplie my miracles and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharaoh shall not hearken vnto you, that I may lay mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out mine armies, even my people, the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great iudgements.

5 Then the Egyptians shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 So Moyses and Aaron did as the Lord commaunded them, even so did they.

7 (Nowe Moyses was fourescore yeere olde, and Aaron fourescore and three, when they spake vnto Pharaoh)

8 And the Lord had spoken vnto Moyses and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharaoh speake vnto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you, then shalt thou say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall be turned into a serpent.

10 Then went Moyses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, & did euen as the Lord had commaunded: and Aaron cast forth his rod before Pharaoh and before his seruants, and it was turned into a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh called also for the wise men and forcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like maner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down euery man his rod, and they were turned into serpents: but Aarons rod deuoured their rods.

13 So Pharaohs heart was hardened, and hee hearkened not to them, as the Lord had sayd.

14 The Lord then sayd vnto Moyses, Pharaohs heart is || obstinate, he refuseth to let the people goe.

15 Goe vnto Pharaoh in the morning, (loe, hee will come forth vnto the water) and thou shalt stand and meet him by the riuers brinke, and the rod, which was turned into a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say vnto him, The Lord God of the Ebrewes hath sent me vnto thee, saying, Let my people goe, that they may serue me in the wilderness: and behold, hitherto thou wouldest not heare.

17 Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand vpon the water that is in the riuer, and it shall be turned to blood,

18 And the fish that is in the riuer shall die, and the riuer shall stinke, and it shall grieve the Egyptians to drinke of the water of the riuer.

19 The Lord then spake to Moyses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers, and ouer their ponds, and ouer all pooles of their waters, and they shall be blood, and there shall bee blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and of stone.

20 So Moyses and Aaron did euen as the Lord commaunded: and hee lift vp the rod, and smote the water that was in the riuer in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his seruants: and all the water that was in the riuer, was turned into blood.

21 And the fish that was in the riuer died, and the riuer stanke: so that the Egyptians could not drinke of the water of the riuer: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the enchanters of Egypt did likewise with their forcerers: and the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: so that hee did not hearken vnto them, as the Lord had sayd.

23 Then Pharaoh returned and went againe into his house, neither did this yet enter into his heart.

24 Al the Egyptians then digged round about the riuer for waters to drinke: for they could not drinke of the water of the riuer.

25 And this || continued fully seven dayes after the Lord had smitten the riuer.

CHAP. VIII.

6 Frogs are sent. 13 Moyses prayeth, and they die. 17 Lice are sent, whereby the forcerers acknowledge Gods power. 24 Egypt is plagued with wasps. 30 Moyses prayeth againe. 32 But Pharaohs heart is hardened.

Afterward the Lord sayd vnto Moyses, Goe vnto Pharaoh, and tel him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

2 And if thou wilt not let them goe, behold, I will smite all thy countrey with frogs:

3 And the riuer shall full of frogs, which shall goe vp and come into thine house, and into thy chamber, where thou sleepest, and vpon thy bed: and into the house of thy seruants, and vpon thy people, and into thy ouens, and || into thy kneading troughes.

4 Yea, the frogges shall climbe vp vpon thee, and on thy people, and vpon all thy seruants.

5 Also the Lord sayd vnto Moyses, Say thou vnto Aaron, Stretch out thine hand with thy rod vpon the streames, vpon the riuers, and vpon the ponds, and cause frogs to come vp vpon the land of Egypt.

6 Then Aaron stretched out his hand vpon the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came vp, and couered the land of Egypt.

7 And the forcerers did likewise with their forceries, and brought frogs vp vpon the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moyses and Aaron, and said, Pray ye vnto the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people, and I will let the people goe, that they may doe sacrifice vnto the Lord.

9 And Moyses sayd vnto Pharaoh, Concerning me euen || commaund when I shall pray for thee, and for thy seruants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee, and from thine houses,

1 Or they shall be worrie, and all barres to drinke.

16 ¶ Again the Lord said vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the earth, that it may be ^{turned} to [¶] lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

26 But Moses answered, It is not meet to doe so: for ^{then} wee should offer vnto the Lord our God ^{that}, which is an [¶] abomination vnto the Egyptians. Lo, can we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and they not stone vs?

27 Let vs go three dayes journey in the desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, ^{*} as he hath commanded vs.

17 Yet thou exaltest thy selfe against my people, and lettest them not goe.

18 Behold, to morow this time I will cause to raine a mighty great haile, such as was not in Egypt since the foundation thereof was laid, vnto this time.

19 Send therefore now, and e gather thy cattell, and all that thou hast in the helde: for vpon all the men, and the beasts, which are found in the fildes, and not brought home, the haile shall fall vpon them, and they shall die.

20 Such then as feared the word of the Lord, among the seruants of Pharaoh, made his seruants and his cattell flee into the houses:

21 But such as regarded not the word of the Lord, left his seruants and his cattell in the field.

22 ¶ And the Lord said to Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may bee haile in all the land of Egypt, vpon man and vpon beast, and vpon all the herbes of the fildes in the land of Egypt.

23 Then Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven, and the Lord sent thunder and haile, and lightning vpon the ground: and the Lord caused haile to raine vpon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was haile, and fire mingled with the haile, so grievous, as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt, since it was a nation.

25 And the haile smote throughout all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field, both man and beast: also the haile smote all the herbes of the fildes, and brake to pieces all the trees of the field.

26 Onely in the land of Goshen (where the children of Israel were) was no haile.

27 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said vnto them, I haue now sinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

28 Pray yee vnto the Lord (for it is enough) that there bee no more mighty thunders, and haile, and I will let you goe, and ye shall tarie no longer.

29 Then Moses sayd vnto him, As soone as I am out of the citie, I will spread mine hands vnto the Lord, and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there bee any more haile, that thou mayest know that the earth is the Lords.

30 As for thee and thy seruants, I know before I pray, yee will feare before the face of the Lord God.

31 (And the flaxe, and the barley were smitten: for the barley was eared, and the flaxe was balled.)

32 But the wheate and the rie were not smitten: for they were hid in the ground)

33 Then Moses went out of the citie from Pharaoh, and spread his hands to the Lord, and the thunder and the haile ceased, neither rained vpon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the raine and the haile and the thunder were ceased, hee sinned againe and hardened his heart, both hee and his seruants.

35 So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the Lord had said by Moses.

CHAP. X.

¶ Pharaohs seruants counsel him to let the Israelites depart. 13 Grasshoppers destroy the country. 16 Pharaoh confesseth his fault. 22 Darknesse is sent. 28 Pharaoh forbiddeth Moses to come any more in his presence.

Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Go to Pharaoh for * I haue hardened his heart, and the heart of his seruants, that I might worke these my miracles in the mids of his realme,

2 And that thou mayest declare in the eares of thy sonne, & of thy sonnes sonne, what things I haue done in Egypt, and my miracles, which I haue done among them: that ye may know that I am the Lord.

3 Then came Moses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and they said vnto him, Thus sayeth the Lord God of the Ebrewes, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thy selfe before mee? Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

4 But if thou refuse to let my people goe, behold, to morow will I bring in grasshoppers into thy coasts.

5 And they shall couer the face of the earth, that a man cannot see the earth: and they shall eate the residue which remaineth vnto you, and hath escaped from the haile: and they shall eate all your trees that bud in the field.

6 And they shall fill thine houses, and all thy seruants houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue seene, since the time they were vpon the earth vnto this day. So he returned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 Then Pharaohs seruants said vnto him, How long shal he be an offence vnto vs? let the men goe, that they may serue the Lord their God: wilt thou first know that Egypt is destroyed?

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought againe vnto Pharaoh, and hee said vnto them, Goe serue the Lord your God, but who are they that shall goe?

9 And Moses answered, We wil goe with our yong, and with our old, with our sonnes, & with our daughters, with our sheepe and with our cattell will we goe: for we must celebrate a feast vnto the Lord.

10 And he said vnto them, Let the Lord be with you, as I will let you goe and your children: behold, for euill is before your face.

11 It shall not bee so: now goe yee that are men, and serue the Lord: for that was your desire. Then they were thrust out from Pharaohs presence.

12 ¶ After, the Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand vpon the lande of Egypt for the Grasshoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eate all the herbes of the land, euen all that the haile hath left.

13 Then Moses stretched forth his rod vpon the land of Egypt: and the Lord brought an East winde vpon the lande all that day, and all that night: and in the morning the East wind brought the Grasshoppers.

14 So the Grasshoppers went vp vpon all the land land of Egypt, and remained in all quarters of Egypt: so grievous grasshoppers, like to these were neuer before, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered all the face of the earth, so that the land was darke: and they did eate all the hearbes of the land, and all the fruites of the trees, which the haile had left: so that there was no greene thing left vpon the trees, nor among the hearbes of the fildes throughout all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharaoh called for Moses & Aaron in haste, and said, I haue sinned against the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And now forgive me my sinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that hee may take away from me this death onely.

18 Moses then went out from Pharaoh, and prayed vnto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mightie strong West wind, and tooke away the grasshoppers, and violently cast them into the Red Sea, so that there remained not one grasshopper in all the coast of Egypt.

20 But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, & he did not let the children of Israel goe.

21 ¶ Again the Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heauen, that there may be vpon the land of Egypt darknesse, euen darknesse that may be felt.

22 Then Moses stretched forth his hand toward heauen, and there was all blacke darknesse in all the land of Egypt three dayes.

23 No man saw another, neither rose vp from the place where he was for three dayes: but all the children of Israel had light where they dwelt.

24 Then Pharaoh called for Moses, & said, Go, serue the Lord: only your sheepe and your cattell shall abide, and your children shall goe with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must giue vs also sacrifices, and burnt offerings that we may do sacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

26 Therefore our cattell also shall go with vs: there shall not an hoofe be left, for thereof must we take to serue the Lord our God: neither doe we know how we shall serue the Lord, vntill we come thither.

27 (But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he would not let them goe.)

28 And Pharaoh said vnto him, Get thee from mee: looke thou see my face no more: for whensoever thou comest in my sight, thou shalt die.

29 Then Moses said, Thou hast said well: from henceforth will I see thy face no more.

CHAP. XI.

1 God promisseth their departure. 2 He willett them to borrow their neighbours iewels. 3 Moses was esteemed of al Iane Pharaoh. 4 He signifieth the death of the first borne.

Now the Lord had said vnto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more vpon Pharaoh, & vpon Egypt: after that, he willet you goe hence: when he letteth you goe, he shall at once chase you hence.

2 Speake thou now to the people, that every man require of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, iewels of silver, and iewels of gold.

3 And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians: also Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaohs servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 Also Moses said, Thus saith the Lord, About midnigh will I goe out into the middes of Egypt.

5 And all the first borne in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first borne of Pharaoh that sitteth on his throne, vnto the first borne of the maide seruant, that is at the mill, and al the first borne of beastes.

6 Then there shall be a great crie throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was neuer none like, nor shall be.

7 But against none of the children of Israel shall a dogge moue his tongue, neither against man nor beast, that yee may know that the Lord putteth a difference betweene the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these thy seruants shall come downe vnto me, and fall before me, saying, Get thee our, and all the people that are at thy feete, and after this will I depart. So he went out from Pharaoh very angry.

9 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Pharaoh shall not heare you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: but the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he suffered not the children of Israel to goe out of his land.

3 Speake ye vnto all the Congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this moneth let every man take vnto him a lambe, according to the house of the fathers, a lambe for an house.

4 And if the household be too little for the lambe, he shall take his neighbour, which is next vnto his house, according to the number of the persons: every one of you according to his eating shall make you count for the lambe.

5 Your lambe shall be without blemish, a male of a yeere olde: yee shall take it of the lambes, or of the kids.

6 And yee shall keepe it vntill the fourteenth day of this moneth: then at the multitude of the Congregation of Israel shall kill it at euen.

7 After, they shall take of the blood, & strike it on the two postes, and on the vpper doore post of the houses where they shall eate it.

borne in the land of Egypt, both man and beast, and I will execute judgement vpon all the gods of Egypt, I am the Lord.

13 And the blood shall be a token for you vpon the houses where ye are: so when I see the blood, I will passe ouer you, and the plague shall not be vpon you to destruction, when I limate the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be vnto you a remembrance: and yee shall keepe it as a holy feast vnto the Lord, throughout your generations: ye shall keepe it holy by an ordinance for euer.

15 Seven dayes shall ye eat vnleavened bread, and in any case yee shall put away leauen the first day out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leauend bread from the first day, vntill the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day shall be an holy assembly: also in the seventh day shall be an holy assembly vnto you: no worke shall be done in them, save about that which every man must eate: that onely may yee doe.

17 Ye shall keepe also the feast of vnleavened bread: for that same day I will bring your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore yee shall obserue this day, throughout your posteritie, by an ordinance for euer.

18 ¶ In the first month and the fourteenth day of the month at euen, yee shall eate vnleavened bread vnto the one and twentieth day of the month at euen.

19 Seven dayes shall no leauen be found in your houses: for whosoever eateth leauend bread, that person shall be cut off from the Congregation of Israel: whether he be a stranger, or borne in the land.

20 Ye shall eate no leauend bread: but in all your habitations shall ye eate vnleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and said vnto them, Chuse out and take you for euery of your households a lambe, and kill the Pascheouer.

22 And take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintell, and the doore cheekes with the blood that is in the basin, and let none of you goe out at the doore of his house, vntill the morning.

23 For the Lord will passe by, to smite the Egyptians: and when hee seeth the blood vpon the lintell, and on the two doore cheekes, the Lord will passe ouer the doore, and will not suffer the destroyer to come into your houses to plague you.

24 Therefore shall ye obserue this thing as an ordinance, both for thee and thy sonnes for euer.

25 And when yee shall come into the land, which the Lord will giue you, as hee hath promised, then ye shall keepe this seruice.

26 ¶ And when your children aske you, What seruice is this ye keepe?

27 Then ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lords Pascheouer, which passed ouer the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when hee smote the Egyptians, & preserved our houses. Then the people bowed themselves and worshipped.

28 So the children of Israel went, and did as the Lord had commaunded Moses and Aaron so did they.

29 ¶ Now at midnight, the Lord smote all the first borne in the land of Egypt from the first borne of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, vnto the first borne of the captiue that was in prison, and all the first borne of beasts.

30 And Pharaoh rose vp in the night, he, and all his seruants and all the Egyptians: and there was a great crie in Egypt: for there was no house where there was not one dead.

31 And hee called to Moses and to Aaron by night, and said, Rise vp, get you out from among my people, both yee, and the children of Israel, and goe serue the Lord as ye haue said.

32 Take also your sheepe and your cattell as ye haue said, and depart, and blesse me also.

33 And the Egyptians did force the people, because they would send them out of the land in haste: for they sayd, We die all.

34 Therefore the people tooke their dough before it was leauened, euen their dough bound in clothes vpon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses, and they asked of the Egyptians iewels of siluer, and iewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the Lord gaue the people fauor in the sight of the Egyptians: and they granted their request: so they spoyled the Egyptians.

37 Then the children of Israel tooke their journey from Rameses to Succoth about fixe hundred thousand men of foot, beside children.

38 And a great multitude of sundry sorts of people went out with them, and sheepe and beeuies, and cattell in great abundance.

39 And they baked the dough which they brought out of Egypt, & made vnleavened cakes: for it was not leauened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, neither could they tary, nor yet prepare themselves vitales.

40 ¶ So the dwelling of the children of Israel, while they dwelled in Egypt, was foure hundred and thirtie yeeres.

41 And when the foure hundred and thirtie yeeres were expired, euen the selfe same day departed all the hostes of the Lord out of the lande of Egypt.

42 It is a night to bee kept holy to the Lord, because hee brought them out of the land of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord, which all the children of Israel must keepe throughout their generations.

43 Also the Lord said vnto Moses and Aaron, This is the Law of the Pascheouer: no stranger shall eate thereof.

44 But euery seruant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eate thereof.

45 A stranger, or an hired seruant shall not eate thereof.

46 ¶ In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt carry none of the flesh out of the house, neither shall ye breake a bone thereof.

47 All the Congregation of Israel shall obserue it.

48 But if a stranger dwell with thee, and will obserue the Pascheouer of the Lord, let him circumcise all the males, that belong vnto him, and then let him come and obserue it, and he shall be as one that is borne in the land: for none vncircumcised person shall eate thereof.

49 One law shall bee to him that is borne in the lande, and to the stranger that dwelleth among you.

50 Then all the children of Israel did as the Lord

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
3 Sanctifie vnto me all the first borne: that is, euery one that first openeth the wombe among the children of Israel, as well of man as of beast: for it is mine.

3 ¶ Then Moses sayd vnto the people, * Remember this day in the which ye came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage: for by a mightie hand the Lord brought you out from thence: therefore no leavened bread shall bee eaten.

4 This day come yee out in the moneth of Abib.

5 ¶ Now when the Lord hath brought thee into the land of the Canaanites, and Hittites, and Amorites, and Hiuities, and Iebusites (which hee sware vnto thy fathers, that hee would giue thee, a land flowing with milke and hony) then thou shalt keepe this seruice in this moneth.

6 Seuen dayes shalt thou eate vnleavened bread, and the seventh-day shall be the feast of the Lord.

7 Vnleavened bread shall bee eaten seuen dayes, and there shall no leavened bread be seene with thee, nor yet leauen be seene with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt shew thy sonne in that day, saying, This is done, because of that which the Lord did vnto me, when I came out of Egypt.

9 And it shall bee a signe vnto thee: vpon thine hand, and for a remembrance betweene thine eyes, that the Law of the Lord may bee in thy mouth: for by a strong hand the Lorde brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Keepe therefore this ordinance in his season appointed from yeere to yeere.

11 ¶ And when the Lord shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware vnto thee and to thy fathers, and shall giue it thee,

12 ¶ Then shalt thou set apart vnto the Lord all that first openeth the wombe: also euery thing that first doeth open the wombe, and cometh forth of thy beast: the males shall be the Lords.

13 But euery first foale of an asse, thou shalt redeeme with a lambe: and if thou redeeme him not, then thou shalt breake his necke: likewise also the first borne of man among thy sons shalt thou buy out.

14 ¶ And when thy sonne shall aske thee // to morrow, saying, What is this? thou shalt then say vnto him, With a mightie hand the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

15 For when Pharaoh was hard hearted against our departing, the Lord then slew all the first borne in the lande of Egypt, from the first borne of man euen to the first borne of beast: therefore I sacrifice vnto the Lord all the males that first open the wombe, but all the first borne of my sonnes I redeeme.

16 And it shall bee as a token vpon thine hand, and as // frontlets betweene thine eyes, that the Lord brought vs out of Egypt by a mightie hand.

17 ¶ Now when Pharaoh had let the people goe, God caried them not by the way of the Philistims countrey, // though it were neerer: (for God said, Lest the people repent when they see warre, and turne againe to Egypt)

18 But God made the people to goe about by the way of the wilderness of the red sea: and the children of Israel went vp armed out of the land of Egypt.

19 (And Moses tooke the bones of Ioseph with him: for he had made the children of Israel sweare, saying, * God will surely visite you, and ye shall take my bones away hence with you)

20 ¶ So they tooke their iourney from Succoth, and camped in Etham in the edge of the wilderness.

21 ¶ And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud to leade them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to giue them light, that they might goe both by day and by night.

22 ¶ He tooke not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

2 Speake to the children of Israel, that they returne and campe before Pi-hahiroth, betweene Migdol and the Sea, ouer against Baalzephon: about it shall ye campe by the Sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are tangled in the land: the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaohs heart that he shall follow after you: so I will get me honour vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his hoste: the Egyptians also shall know that I am the Lorde: and they did so.

5 ¶ Then it was told the king of Egypt, that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his seruants was turned against the people, and they said, Why haue we this done, and haue let Israel goe out of our seruice?

6 And he made ready his charrets, and tooke his people with him, adversaries: as the Israelites were now in the hope of their lives, then when they were in Egypt. The fourth point is, that when the dangers are most great, then Gods help is most ready to succour: for the Israelites had on either side them, huge rocks and mountains before the sea, behind them most cruel enemies, so that there was no way to escape to them save by the Sea.

In these tentati-ons, faith fighteth

to the Lord.

The cloud sheweth light to the Israelites, but to the Egyptians it was darkness, so that their two hostes could not see each other.

11 And they layde vnto Moses, Hast thou brought vs to die in the wilderness, because there were no graues in Egypt? wherefore hast thou brought vs thus, to cary vs out of Egypt?

12 Did not wee tell thee this thing in Egypt, saying, Let vs be in rest, that wee may serue the Egyptians? for it had bene better for vs to serue the Egyptians, then that wee should die in the wildernesse.

13 Then Moses said to the people, Feare yee not, stand still, and behold the saluation of the Lord which he will shew to you this day. For the Egyptians whom ye haue seene this day, yee shall never see them againe.

14 The Lord shall fight for you: therefore be still, your peace.

15 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Wherefore cryest thou vnto me? speake vnto the children of Israel, that they goe forward:

16 And lift thou vp thy rod, and stretch out thine hand vpon the Sea, and diuide it, and let the children of Israel goe on dry ground thorow the mids of the Sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, that they may follow them, and I will get me honour vpon Pharaoh, & vpon all his hoste, vpon his charrets, and vpon his horsemen.

18 Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharaoh, vpon his charrets, and vpon his horsemen.

19 (And the Angel of God, which went before the hoste of Israel, remooued & went behind them: also the pillar of the cloud went from before them, and stood behind them.)

20 And came betweene the campe of the Egyptians and the campe of Israel: it was both a cloud and darkness, yet gave it light by night, so that all the night long the one came not at the other.)

21 And Moses stretched forth his hand vpon the Sea, and the Lord caused the Sea to run backe by a strong East wind all the night, and made the Sea dry land: for the waters were diuided.

22 Then the children of Israel went through the mids of the Sea vpon the drie ground, and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hand, and on their left hand.

23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the mids of the Sea, ~~then~~ all Pharaohs hofes, his charrets, and his horsemen.

24 Now in the morning watch, when the Lord looked vnto the hoste of the Egyptians, out of the fierie and cloudy pillar, he strooke the hoste of the Egyptians with leare.

25 For he tooke off their charet wheeles, and they draue them with // much adoe: so that the Egyptians ~~every~~ one said, I will flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ Then the Lord sayd to Moses, Stretch thine hand vpon the Sea, that the waters may returne vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charrets and vpon their horsemen.

27 Then Moses stretched forth his hand vpon the Sea, and the Sea returned to his force early in the morning, and the Egyptians fled against it:
but the Lord ^m ouerthrew the Egyptians in the mids of the Sea.

28 So the water returned & couered the charets and the horsemen, ~~even~~ all the hoste of Pharaoh that came into the Sea after them: there remained not one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked vpon dry land thorow the mids of the Sea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the Lord saved Israel the same day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead vpon the Sea banks.

31 And Israel saw the mighty // power, which the Lord shewed vpon the Egyptians: so the people feared the Lord, and beleueed the Lord, and his // seruant Moses.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Israelites come to the desert of Sin, and murmure against Moses and Aaron. 12 The Lord sendeth Quayles and Manna. 23 The Sabbath is justified vnto the Lord. 27 The seventh day Manna could not be found. 32 It is kept for a remembrance to the posterity.

Afterward all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from Elim, and came to the wilderness of ^a Sin, (which is between Elim and Sinai) the fifteenth day of the second moneth after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron in the wilderness.

3 For the children of Israel said to them, Oh that wee had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when wee sate by the flesh ^b pots, when wee ate bread ^c our bellies full: for yee haue brought vs out into this wilderness, to kill this whole company with famine.

4 ¶ Then sayde the Lord vnto Moses, Beholde, I will cause bread to raine from heauen to you, and the people shall goe out, and gather ^d that that is sufficient for euery ^e day, that I may proue them, whether they will walke in my law or no.

5 But the sixth day they shall prepare that, which they shall bring home, and it shall be twise as much as they gather daily.

6 Then Moses and Aaron sayd vnto all the children of Israel, At euen ye shall know, that the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning yee shall see the glorie of the Lord: ^f for he hath heard your grudgings against the Lord: and what are wee that yee haue murmured against vs?

8 Again, Moses sayd, At euen shall the Lord giue you flesh to eat, and in the morning your fill of bread: for the Lord hath heard your murmurings, which yee murmure against him: for what are we? your murmurings ^g are not against vs, but against the ^h Lord.

9 ¶ And Moses cryd to Aaron, Say vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, Draw neere before the Lord: for hee hath heard your murmurings.

10 Now as Aaron spake vnto the whole Congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared ⁱ in a cloud.

11 (For the Lord had spoken vnto Moses, saying,

12 I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: tell them therefore, and say, ¶ At euen ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread, and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God)

13 And so at euen the ^j quayles came and covered the campe: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

14 ¶ And when the dew that was fallen was ascended, beholde, a small round thing was vpon the face of the wilderness, ^k final as the hoare frost vpon the earth.

15 And when the children of Israel sawe it, they sayd one to another, It is ^l Manna, for they wist not what it was. And Moses sayd vnto them, ¶ This is the bread which the Lord hath giuen you to eat.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded:

a This is the right place wherein they had camped: there is another place called Zin, which was the 23 place wherein they camped: and is also called Kadesh, Num. 33. 36.

b So hard a thing it is to the flesh not to murmure against God when the belly is pinched.

19 For Pharaohs horses went with his charrets and horsemen into the sea, and the Lord brought the waters of the sea vpon them: but the children of Israel went on drie land in the mids of the sea.

20 ¶ And Miriam the Prophetesse, sister of Aaron, tooke a tymbrel in her hand, and all the women came out after her with tymbrels and ^t dances.

21 And Miriam answered the men, Sing yee vnto the Lord: for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath hee ouerthrowen in the sea.

22 Then Moses brought Israel from the red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of ^u Shur: and they went three dayes in the wilderness, and found no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drinke of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of the place was called ^v Marah.

24 Then the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drinke?

25 And he cryed vnto the Lord, and the Lord shewed him a ^w tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were sweet: where he made them an ordinance and a law, & there ^x he proued them.

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken, O Israel, vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is ^y right in his sight, and wilt giue eare vnto his commandements, and keepe all his ordinances, then wil I put none of these diseases vpon thee, which I brought vpon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

commanded: gather of it every man according to his eating, & an omer for a man according to the number of your persons: every man shall take for them which are in his tent.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some lesse.

18 And when they did measure it with an omer, he that had gathered much, had nothing ouer, & he that had gathered litle, had no lacke:
so every man gathered according to his eating.

19 Moses then said vnto them, Let no man re-ferue thereof till morning.

20 Notwithstanding, they obeyed not Moses:
but some of them referued of it till morning, and it was full of wormes, and it stank: therefore Moses was angrie with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, eue-ri man according to his eating: for when the heat of the sunne came, it was melted.

22 ¶ And the sixth day they gathered it twice so much bread, two omers for one man: then all the rulers of the Congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he answered them, This is that which the Lord hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath vnto the Lord: bake that day which ye will bake, and seeke that which ye will seeke, and all that remaineth, lay it vp to be kept till the morning for you.

24 And they layd it vp till the morning, as Moses bade, and it stank not, neither was there any worme therein.

25 Then Moses said, Eat that to day: for to day is the Sabbath vnto the Lord: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six dayes shall ye gather it, but in the seuenth day is the Sabbath: in it there shall be none.

27 ¶ Notwithstanding, there went out some of the people in the seuenth day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the Lord said vnto Moses, How long refuse yee to keepe my commandements, and my lawes?

29 Behold, how the Lord hath giuen you the Sabbath: therefore hee giueth you the sixth day bread for two daies: eate therefore every man in his place: let no man goe out of his place the seuenth day.

30 So the people rested the seuenth day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name of it M A N, and it was like to coriander seede, but white: and the taste of it was like vnto wafers made with honie.

32 And Moses said, This is that which the Lord had commanded, Fil an omer of it, to keepe it for your posteritie: that they may see the bread wherewith I haue fed you in wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

33 Moses also said to Aaron, Take a pot and put an omerful of M A N therein, and set it before the Lord to be kept for your posteritie.

34 As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron laide it vp before the Testimonie to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eat M A N bited: they did eat M A N vntill they came to the

And all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeyes at the commandement of the Lord, and camped in Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drinke.

2 Wherefore the people contended with Moses, & said, Giue vs water, that we may drinke.
An d Moses said vnto them, Why contend ye with me? wherefore doe ye tempt the Lord?

3 So the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and sayd, Wherefore hast thou thus brought vs out of Egypt, to kill vs, and our children, and our cattell with thirst?

4 And Moses cryed vnto the Lord, saying,
What shall I doe to this people? for they bee almost ready to stone me.

5 And the Lord answered to Moses, Goe before the people, and take with thee of the Elders of Israel: and thy rod wherewith thou smotest
the riuier, take in thine hand, and goe:

6 Behold, I will stand there before thee vp-on the rocke in Horeb, and thou shalt smite on the rocke, and water shall come out of it, that the people may drinke. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel.

7 And hee called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they had tempted the Lord, saying, Is the Lord among vs, or no?

8 ¶ Then came Amalek and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said to Ioshua, Chuse vs out men, and goe fight with Amalek: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Ioshua did as Moses bade him, & fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went vp to the top of the hill.

11 And when Moses held vp his hand, Israel preuailed: but when he let his hand downe, A-malek preuailed.

12 Now Moses hands were heauie: therefore they tooke a stone and put it vnder him, and hee satte vpon it: and Aaron and Hur stayed vp his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: so his hands were steadie vntill the going downe of the sunne.

13 And Ioshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 ¶ And the Lord said to Moses, Write this for a remembrance in the booke, and rehearse it to Ioshua: for I will vterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from vnder heauen.

15 (And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Iehovah-nissi)

16 Also he said, The Lord hath sworne, that he will haue warre with Amalek from generation to generation.

for Moses, and for Israel his people, and how the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt,

2 Then Iethro the father in law of Moses, tooke Zipporah Moses wife, (after he had sent her away)

3 And her two sonnes, (whereof the one was called Gerthom: for he said, I have bene an aliant in a strange land:

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father, said he, was mine helpe, and deliuered me from the sword of Pharaoh)

5 And Iethro Moses father in law came with his two sonnes, and his wife vnto Moses into the wilderness, where he camped by the mount of God.

6 And he said to Moses, I thy father in law Iethro am come to thee, and thy wife & her two sonnes with her.

7 ¶ And Moses went out to meete his father in law, and did obeysance, and kissed him, and ech asked other of his welfare: and they came into the tent.

8 Then Moses told his father in law all that the Lord had done vnto Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the traualle that had come vnto them by the way, and how the Lord deliuered them.

9 And Iethro reioyced at all the goodnesse, which the Lord had shewed to Israel, and because hee had deliuered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 Therefore Iethro said, Blessed be the Lord who hath deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh: who hath also deliuered the people from vnder the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the Lord is greater then all the gods: for as they haue dealt proudly with them, so are they recompensed.

12 Then Iethro Moses father in law tooke burnt offerings and sacrifices to offer vnto God. And Aaron & all the Elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses father in law before God.

13 ¶ Now on the morrow, when Moses sate to iudge the people, the people stood about Moses from morning vnto euen.

14 And when Moses father in law saw all that hee did to the people, he said, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sitest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stand about thee from morning vnto euen?

15 And Moses said vnto his father in law, Because the people come vnto me to seeke God.

16 When they haue a matter, they come vnto mee, and I iudge betwene one and another, and declare the ordinances of God, and his lawes.

17 But Moses father in law said vnto him, The thing which thou doest, is not well.

18 Thou both weariest thy selfe greatly, and this people that is with thee: for the thing is too heauie for thee: thou art not able to doe it thy selfe alone.

19 Heare now my voice, (I will giue thee counsell, and God shall be with thee) be thou for the people to Godward, and report thou the causes vnto God.

20 And admonish them of the ordinances, and of the lawes, & shew them the way, wherein they must walke, and the worke that they must doe.

21 Moreover, prouide thou among all the people, men of courage, fearing God, men dealing truely, hazing couetousnesse: and appoint such ouer them to be rulers ouer thousands, rulers ouer hundredths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tennes.

22 And let them iudge the people at all seasons: but euery great matter let them bring vnto thee, and let them iudge all small causes: so shall it be easier for thee, when they shall beare the burden with thee.

23 If thou doe this thing, (and God so commaund thee) both thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also goe quietly to their place.

24 So Moses obeyed the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said:

25 And Moses chose men of courage out of all Israel, and made them heads ouer the people, rulers ouer thousands, rulers ouer hundredths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tennes.

26 And they iudged the people at all seasons, but they brought the hard causes to Moses: for they iudged all small matters themselves.

27 Afterward Moses let his father in law depart, and he went into his countrey.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The Israelites come to Sinai. 5 Israel is chosen from among all other nations. 8 The people promise to obey God. 12 The Lord toucheth the hill, & sheweth himselfe vnto Moses upon the mount in thunder and lightning.

IN the third moneth, after the children of Israel were gone out of the land of Egypt, the an^e day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they departed from Rephidim, and came to the desert of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness: euen there Israel camped before the mount.

3 ¶ But Moses went vp vnto God, for the Lord had called out of the mount vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Isaacob, and tell the children of Israel.

4 ¶ Yee haue seene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and how I caried you vpon eagles wings, and haue brought you vnto me.

5 Now therefore if yee will heare my voice in deede, and keepe my couenant, then ye shall be my chiefe treasure aboue all people, though all the earth be mine.

6 Yee shall bee vnto mee also a kingdome of Priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ Moses then came and called for the Elders of the people, and proposed vnto them all these things, which the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people answered all together, and said; All that the Lord hath commanded, wee will doe. And Moses reported the wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

9 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Lo, I came vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare whiles I talke with thee, and that they may also beleue thee for euer. (for Moses had tolde the wordes of the people vnto the Lord)

10 Moreover the Lord said vnto Moses, Goe to the people, and sanctifie them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes.

11 And let them be ready on the third day: for the third day the Lord will come downe in the sight of all the people vpon mount Sinai:

12 And thou shalt set markes vnto the people round about, saying, Take heede to your selues

3 If he be come himselfe alone, he shall goe out himselfe alone: if he were married, then his wife shall goe out with him.

4 If his master hath given him a wife and she hath borne him sonnes or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her matters, but he shall goe out himselfe alone.

5 But if the servant say thus, I love my master, my wife and my children, I will not goe out free.

6 Then his master shall bring him vnto the Iudges, and set him to the doore, or to the poste, and his master shall boare his eare through with an awle, and he shall serve him for ever.

7 Likewise if a man sell his daughter to bee a servant, shee shall not goe out as the men servants doe.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himselfe, then shall hee cause to buy her thee: shall have no power to sell her to a strange people, seeing hee despised her.

9 But if he hath betrothed her vnto his sonne, he shall deale with her according to the custome of the daughters.

10 If he take him another wife, hee shall not diminish her foode, her rayment, and recompence of her virginity.

11 And if hee doe not these three vnto her, then shall she goe out free, paying no money.

12 If he that smiteth a man, and he die, shall die the death.

13 And if a man hath not layed waite, but God hath offered him into his hand, then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come presumptuously vpon his neighbour to slay him with guile, thou shalt take him from mine altar that he may die.

15 Also hee that smiteth his father or his mother shall die the death.

16 And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, if it be found with him shall die the death.

17 And hee that curseth his father or his mother shall die the death.

20 And if a man smite his servant, or his maide with a rodde, and he die vnder his hand, he shall be surely punished.

21 But if he continue a day or two dayes, hee shall not be punished: for he is his money.

22 Also if men strue and hurt a woman with childe, so that her childe depart from her, and death followe not, hee shall be surely punished according as the womans husband shall appoint him, or hee shall pay as the Iudges determine.

23 But if death follow, then thou shalt pay life for life.

24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foote for foote,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And if a man smite his servant in the eye, or his mayde in the eye, and hath perished it, he shall let him goe free for his eye.

27 Also if he smite out his servants tooth, or his maides tooth, he shall let him goe out free for his tooth.

28 If an ox gore a man or woman that he die, the ox shall be stoned to death, and his flesh shall not be eaten, but the owner of the ox shall goe quit.

Noche had said unto Moses, Come vp to the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the Elders of Israel, and ye shall worship afors off.

2 And Moses himselfe alone shall come neere to the Lord, but they shall not come neere, neither shall the people come with him.

Afterward Moles came and tolde the people all the wordes of the Lord, and all the Lawes: and all the people answered with one voyce, and said, All the things which the Lord

And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord, and rose vp early, and set vp an altar || vnder the mountaine, and twelue pillars according to the twelue tribes of Israel.

And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings of beevies, and sacrificed peace offerings vnto the Lord.

6 Then Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 After, hee tooke the II booke of the constant, and read it in the audience of the people:

who said, All that the Lord hath said, we will doe, and be obedient.

8 Then Moses took the ^a blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the ^c blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these things.

9 ¶ Then went vp Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seuentie of the Elders of Israel.

And they saw the God of Israel, and vnder his feet was as it were a † worke of a Saphir stone, and as the very heauen when it is cleare.

11 And vpon the nobles of the children of Israel he ſaid not his hand: alſo they ſaw God, and ſo did eat and drinke.

12. ¶ And the Lord ¹ said vnto Moses, Come vp to me into the mountaine, and be there, and I will giue thee ¹ tables of stone, and the Law, and the Commandement, which I haue written, for to teach ² them.

13 Then Moles rose vp, and his minister Io-huua, and Moles went vp into the mountaine of God.

14 And said vnto the Elders, Tarie vs here vntill we come againe vnto you: and behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: whosoeuer hath any matters, let him come to them.

15 Then Moſes went vp to the mount, and the cloud covered the mountaine,

16 And the glory of the Lord abode vpon
Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six dayes:
and the seventh day hee called vnto Moses out of the middle of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the Lord was like ¹ consuming fire on the toppe of the mountaine in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moſes entred into the midde of the cloud, and went vp to the mountaine: and Moſes was in the * mount fourtie dayes and fourtie nights.

CHAPTER XXV.

The voluntary gifts for the making of the Tabernacle. 10 The fourms of the Ark. 17 The Merisestate. 23 The Table. 31 The Candelsicks. 40 All must be done according to the pattern.

Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
 3. Speake vnto the children of Israel that they receiue an offering for mee: of euery man, whose heart giueth it freely, yee shall take the offering for me.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them, gold and filuer, and brasse,

4 And blue filke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linnen, and goats haire, skins of badgers, and the wood of Shittim,

6 Oyle for the light, spices for anointing yle, and for the perfume of sweet savour,

7 Onix stones, and stones to be set in the *E-bod, and in the *breastplate.

8 Also they shall make me a Sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.

9 According to all that I shew thee, even so shall ye make the forme of the Tabernacle, and the fashion of all the instruments thereof.

10 ¶ They shall make also an *Arke of Shittim wood, two cubites and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and an halfe high.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within & without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make

1. That is, of molten copper or fine
gold.

31. Also thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold of work beaten out with the hammer: (that the candlesticks be made, his shaft, and his branches, his bowles, his knobs and his flowers shall be of the same.)

32. Six branches also shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the candlestick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side of it.

33. Three bowles like unto almonds, one knob and six flowers in one branch: and three bowles like almonds in the other branch, one knob and six flowers: so throughout the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

34. And in the shaft of the candlestick shall be four bowles like unto almonds, his knobs and his flowers.

35. And there shall be a knob under two branches made thereof: and a knob under two branches made thereof: and a knob under two branches made thereof, according to the six branches coming out of the candlestick.

36. Their knobs and their branches shall be thereof: all this shall be one beaten worke of pure gold.

37. And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and the lamps thereof shall thou put thereon, to give light toward that that is before it.

38. Also the snuffers and snuffedishes thereof shall be of pure gold.

39. Of a talent of fine gold shalt thou make it with all these instruments.

40. Locke therefore that thou make them after their fashion: that was shewed thee in the mountaine.

CHAP. XXVI.

1. The form of the Tabernacle and the appurtenances, 33. The place of the Arke, of the Mercuri stone, of the Table, and of the candlestick.

Afterward thou shalt make the Tabernacle with tenn curtains of finetwined linnen and blew filke, and purple, and skarlett and in them thou shalt make Cherubims of broyered worke.

THE FIRST COVERING OF THE TABERNACLE.

NORTH.

SOUTH.

2. The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubites, and the breadth of one curtain, four cubites: every one of the curtains shall have one measure,

3. Five curtains shall be coupled one to another: and the other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4. And thou shalt make strings of blew filke upon the edge of the one curtain, which is in the selvedge of the coupling: and likewise shalt thou make in the edge of the other curtain in the selvedge, in the second coupling.

5. Fiftie strings shalt thou make in one curtain, & fiftie strings shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain, which is in the second coupling: the strings shall be one right against another.

6. Thou shalt make also fiftie taches of gold, and couple the curtains one to another with the taches, and it shall be one Tabernacle.

b On the side that the curtains might be yedled together.

c In tying together both the sides.

d For partition.

THE CURTAINES OF GOATS HAIRE.

NORTH.

SOUTH.

These eleven curtains of goats haires were put above the other ten, and were also hung before the entry of the Tabernacle, looke D. These also were eleven cubites long, and the other had eight and a halfe, and therefore on the South side they were a cubite longer than the other looke E. And also another on the North side, so as the boards might be covered. F.

7. Also thou shalt make curtains of goats haires, to be a covering upon the Tabernacle: thou shalt make them to the number of eleven curtains.

8. The length of a curtain shall be thirtie cubites, and the breadth of a curtain four cubites: the eleven curtains shall be of one measure.

9. And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and the six curtains by themselves: but thou shalt double the sixth curtain upon the forefront of the covering.

10. And thou shalt make fiftie strings in the edge of one curtain in the selvedge of the coupling, and fifty strings in the edge of the other curtain in the second coupling.

11. Likewise thou shalt make fiftie taches of brass, and fasten them on the strings, and shalt couple the covering together that it may be one.

12. And the remnant that resteth in the curtains of the covering, turn the halfe curtain that resteth, shall be left at the backside of the Tabernacle.

13. That the cubite on the one side and the cubite on the other side of that which is left in the length of the curtains of covering may remain on either side of the Tabernacle to cover it.

14. Moreover, for that covering thou shalt make a covering of rammes skinner dyed red, and a covering of badgers skinner above.

15. Also thou shalt make boards for the Tabernacle of Shittim wood to stand up.

d Let the curtains be coupled together.

e That is fine on the one side, and fine on the other, and the bar should hang over the doore of the Tabernacle.

f For these curtains were two cubites longer, then the curtains of the Tabernacle, so that they were wider by a cubite on both sides.

g To be put upon the covering that was made of goats haires.

h This was the third covering for the Tabernacle.

16. Then

16 Then cubites shall be the length of the board, and a cubite and an half cubits the breadth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall be in one board for a pin, as the fore of a Ladder, one against another, thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the Tabernacle.

THE TABERNACLE

18 Then thou shalt make boards for the Tabernacle, even twelve boards on the Southside, even full South.

19 And thou shalt make for the same twelve sockets of silver under the twelve boards, two sockets under one board for his two tenons, & two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 In like manner on the other side of the Tabernacle towards the North side shalt thou make twelve boards.

21 And their four sockets of silver, two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

22 And on the side of the Tabernacle toward the West shalt thou make five boards.

23 Also two boards shalt thou make in the corners of the Tabernacle in the two sides.

24 Also they shall be joyned beneath, & likewise they shall be joyned above to a ring thus shall it be for the two which shall be for the two corners.

25 So they shall be eight boards having sockets of silver, even sixteen sockets, that is, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 Then thou shalt make five bars of Shittim wood for the boards of one side of the Tabernacle.

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the Tabernacle, also five bars for the boards of the side of the Tabernacle toward the West side.

1 The Hebrew word signifies corners, denoting that they should be square and well joined, as was said.

28 And the middle bar shall go through the middle of the boards from end to end.

29 And thou shalt cover the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold, for places for the bars, & thou shalt cover the bars with gold.

30 So thou shalt make up the Tabernacle, according to the fashion thereof, which was shewed thee in the Mount.

31 Moreover, thou shalt make a rail of blow filke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen, thou shalt make it of brocade work with Cherubims.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of Shittim wood covered with gold, (whose sockets shall be of gold) standing upon four sockets of silver.

33 Afterward thou shalt hang the vail on the hooks, that thou shalt bring within the vail, the Ark of the Testimonies, and the vail shall make you a separation between the Holy place and the most holy place.

34 Also thou shalt put the Mercieseat upon the Ark of the Testimonies in the most Holy place.

35 And thou shalt set the Table without the vail, & the Candlestick over against the Table on the Southside of the Tabernacle, & thou shalt set the Table on the Northside.

36 Also thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the Tabernacle of blow filke, & purple, & skarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of Shittim, & cover them with gold, their bases shall be of gold, and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The Altar of the burnt offering. 2 The court of the Tabernacle. 3 The laver continually burning.

Moreover thou shalt make the Altar of Shittim wood, five cubites long and five cubites broad, and four cubites high, upon the four corners shall be four horns.

8 Thou shalt make the altar hollow betweene the boards: as God shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

21 In the Tabernacle of the Congregation without the vaile, which is before the Testimony, shall Aaron and his sonnes dresse them from euening to morning before the Lord, for a statute for euer vnto their generations, to bee observed by the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The Lord calleth Aaron and his sonnes to the Priesthood. 4 Their garments. 12. 19 Aaron enueth into the Sanctuary in the name of the children of Israel. 30 Urim and Thummim. 38 Aaron beareth the iniquities of the Israelites offerings.

And cause thou thy brother Aaron to come vnto thee and his sonnes with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may serue me in the Priests office: I mean, Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar Aarons sonnes.

2 Also thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, a glorious and beautifull.

3 Therefore thou shalt spake vnto all cunning men, whom I haue filled with the spirit of wisdome, that they make Aarons garments to consecrate him, that hee may serue mee in the Priests office.

a Whereby his office may be knowne to be glorious and excellent.
b Ebr. wife in bears, which is to separate him from the rest.

THE GARMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST.

A. The Ephod or ypmoss mass which was like cloth of gold and was girded vnto him, wherein was the breastplate with the 12 stones, which was tied about with 7 chains, to two Onix stones, and beneath with two laces.

B. The robe which was next vnder the ephod, wherein were ioynted the pomegranates and bells of gold.

C. The tunicle or broidered coat which was vnder the robe and longer then it, and was also without sleeves.

4 Now these shall bee the garments, which they shall make, a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, and a girdle: so these holy garments shall they make for Aaron thy brother, and for his sonnes, that he may serue me in the Priests office.

5 Therefore they shall take golde, and blue silke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linnen.

6 ¶ And they shall make the Ephod of gold, blue silke, and purple, scarlet, and fine twined linnen of broidered worke.

7 The two shoulders thereof shall bee ioyned together by their two edges: so shal it be closed.

8 And the imbroidered gird of the same Ephod, which shalbe vpon him, shall be of the selfe same worke and stuffe, even of gold, blue silke and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen.

c A short and strait come without sleeves, put vpon most vpon his garments to keepe them close vnto him.

d Which went about his ypmoss coat.

9 And thou shalt take two Onix stones, and graue vpon them the names of the children of Israel.

10 Sixe names of them vpon the one stone, and the sixe names that remain vpon the second stone, according to their generations.

11 Thou shalt cause to graue the two stones according to the names of the children of Israel, by a grauer of signets that worketh in stone, and shalt make them to bee set in gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones of remembrance of the children of Israel: for Aaron shall beare their names before the Lord vpon his two shoulders for a remembrance.

13 So thou shalt make bosses of gold,

14 ¶ And two chaines of fine golde: at the end, of wretched work shalt thou make them, and shalt fasten the wretched chaines vpon the bosses.

15 ¶ Also thou shalt make the breastplate of iudgement with broidered work: like the work of the Ephod shalt thou make it: of golde, blue filke, and purple, and scarlet, & fine twined linnen shalt thou make it.

16 ¶ Fouresquare it shall bee and double, an hand breeth long and an hand breeth broad.

17 Then thou shalt set it full of places for stones, even foure rowes of stones: the order shall be this, 1 ¶ rubie, a topaze, and a ¶ carbuncle in the first rowe.

18 And in the second rowe thou shalt set an ¶ emerald, a sapir, and a ¶ diamond.

19 And in the third rowe a turkeis, an achate, and an Hematite.

20 And in the fourth rowe † a chrysolite, an onix, and a iasper: and they shall be set in gold in their embossments.

21 And the stones shall bee according to the names of the children of Israel, twelue, according to their names, grauen as signets, euery one after his name, and they shall bee for the twelue tribes.

22 ¶ Then thou shalt make vpon the breastplate two chaines at the ends, of wretched worke of pure gold.

23 Thou shalt make also vpon the breastplate two rings of gold, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And thou shalt put the two wretched chaines of golde in the two rings in the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wretched chaines, thou shalt fasten in the two embossments, and shalt put them vpon the shoulders of the Ephod vpon the foreside of it.

26 ¶ Also thou shalt make two rings of gold, which thou shalt put in the two other ends of the breastplate, vpon the border thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod.

27 And two other rings of golde thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath in the forefront of it ouer against the coupling of it vpon the broidered gard of the Ephod.

28 Thus shall they bind the breastplate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blue filke, that it may bee fast vpon the broidered gard of the Ephod, and that the breastplate bee not loosed from the Ephod.

29 So Aaron shall beare the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of iudgement vpon his heart, when hee goeth into the holy place for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

30 ¶ Also thou shalt put in the breastplate of iudgement, the ¶ Vrim and the Thumaim, which shall be vpon Aarons heart, when hee goeth in before the Lord, and Aaron shall beare the iudgement of the children of Israel vpon his heart before the Lord continually.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the Ephod altogether of blue filke.

32 And the hole for his head shall bee in the middle of it, hauing an edge of wouen worke round about the collar of it: so shall it bee as the collar of an habergeon, that it rent not.

33 ¶ And beneath vpon the skirts thereof, thou shalt make pomegranates of blue filke, and purple, and scarlet round about the skirts thereof, and bells of gold betweene them round about:

34 That is, ¶ a golden bell and a pomegranate,  Eccles. 45.9.* a golden bell and a pomegranate round about vpon the skirts of the robe.

35 So shall it be vpon Aaron, when hee ministereth, and his sound shall be heard when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he commeth out, and he shall not die.

36 ¶ Also thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and graue thereon, as signets are grauen,  HOLINES TO THE LORD.*

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue filke lace, and it shall be vpon the miter, even vpon the forefront of the miter shall it be.

38 So shall it be vpon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may beare the iniquitie of the offerings, which the children of Israel shall offer in all their holy offerings: and it shall bee alwayes vpon his forehead, to make them acceptable before the Lord.

39 Likewise thou shalt imbroider the fine linnen coat, and thou shalt make a miter of fine linnen, but thou shalt make a girdle of needle work.

40 Also thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes coats, and thou shalt make them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make them for glory and comeliness.

41 And thou shalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, and on his sonnes with him, and shalt anoint them, and fill their hands, and sanctifie them, that they may minister vnto mee in the Priests office.

42 Thou shalt also make them linnen breeches to couer their priuities: from the loynes vnto the thighs shall they reach.

43 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die. Thou shalt bee a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

13 * Also thou shalt take all the fat that couereth the inwards, and the kail, that is on the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and shalt burne them vpon the Altar.

14 But the flesh of the calfe, and his skin, and his dung shalt thou burne with fire without the holle: it is a † sinne offering.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the ramme.

16 Then shalt thou kill the ramme, & take his blood, & sprinkle it round about vpon the Altar,

17 And thou shalt cut the ramme in pieces, & wash the inwards of him and his legs, & shalt put them vpon the pieces thereof, and vpon his head.

18 So thou shalt burne the whole ramme vpon the Altar: for it is a burnt offering vnto the Lord: for a sweete savour: it is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

19 And thou shalt take the other ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the ramme.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ramme, and take of his blood, and put it vpon the lappe of Aarons eare, and vpon the lappe of the right eare of his sonnes, and vpon the thumbe of their right hand, and vpon the great toe of their right foote, and shalt sprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is vpon the Altar, and of the anoynting oyle, and shalt sprinkle it vpon Aaron, and vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and vpon the garments of his sonnes with him: so he shall be hallowed, and his clothes, & his sonnes, and the garments of his sonnes with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the rammes the fat and the rumpe, even the fat that couereth the inwards, and the kail of the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon them, and the right shoulder, (for it is the ‡ ramme of consecration)

23 And one loafe of bread, and one cake of bread tempered with oyle, and one wafer, out of the basket of vneleavened bread that is before the Lord.

24 And thou shalt put all this in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sonnes, and shalt shake them to and fro before the Lord.

25 Againe, thou shalt receiue them of their hands, and burne them vpon the altar besides the burnt offering for a sweet savour before the Lord: for this is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

26 Likewise thou shalt take the brest of the ramme of the consecration, which is for Aaron, and shalt shake it to and fro before the Lord, & it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctifie the brest of the shaken offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which was shaken to and fro, and which was heaved vp of the ramme of the consecration, which was for Aaron, and which was for his sonnes.

28 And Aaron and his sonnes shall haue it by a statute for ever, of the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering, and it shall be an heave offering of the children of Israel, of their peace offerings, even their heave offering to the Lord.

29 ¶ And the holy garments, which appertaine to Aaron, shall be his sonnes after him, to be anoynted therein, and to be consecrated therein.

30 That sonne that shall be Priest in his stead, shall put them on seven dayes, when he commeth into the Tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ So thou shalt take the ramme of the consecration, and see the his flesh in the holy place.

32 * And Aaron and his sonnes shall eat the flesh of the ramme, & the bread that is in the basket, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

33 So they shall eat these things, where by their atonement was made, to consecrate them, and to sanctifie them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy things.

34 Now if ought of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread remayne vnto the morning, then thou shalt burn the rest with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is an holy thing.

35 Therefore shalt thou doe thus vnto Aaron & vnto his sonnes, according to all things which I haue commanded thee: seven dayes shalt thou † consecrate them.

36 And shalt offer every day a calfe for a sinne offering, for reconciliation: & thou shalt cleanse the Altar, when thou hast offered vpon it for reconciliation, and shalt anoint it to sanctifie it.

bossed in gold.

13 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the Ephod, stones of remembrance of the children of Israel: for Aaron shall beare their names before the Lord upon his two shoulders for a remembrance.

14 So thou shalt make bosses of gold,

15 And two chaines of fine golde: at the end of wretchen work shalt thou make them, and shalt fasten the wretchen chaines vpon the bosses.

16 Also thou shalt make the breastplate of iudgement with broidered work like the work of the Ephod: thou shalt make it of golde, blue silke, and purple, and scarlet, & fine twined linnen shalt thou make it.

17 Four square it shall be, and double, an hand breadth long and an hand breadth broad.

18 Then thou shalt set it full of places for stones, four rows of stones: the order shall be this, a rubie, a topaze, and a carbuncle in the first rowe.

19 And in the second rowe thou shalt set an emerald, a saphir, and a diamond.

20 And in the third rowe a turkeis, an achate, and an Hematite.

21 And in the fourth rowe a chrysolite, an onix, and a iasper: and they shall be set in gold in their embossments.

22 And the stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, written as signets, every one with his name, and they shall be for the twelve tribes.

23 Then thou shalt make vpon the breastplate two chaines at the ends, of wretchen worke of pure gold.

24 Thou shalt make also vpon the breastplate two rings of gold, and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

25 And thou shalt put the two wretchen chaines, and shalt fasten them vpon the shoulders of the Ephod vpon the forefille of it.

26 Also thou shalt make two rings of gold, which thou shalt put in the two other ends of the breastplate, vpon the border thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod.

27 And two other rings of golde thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath in the forefront of it, one against the coupling of it vpon the broidered gird of the Ephod.

28 Thus shall they bind the breastplate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blue silke, that it may be fast vpon the broidered gird of the Ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the Ephod.

29 So Aaron shall beare the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of iudgement vpon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

30 Also thou shalt put in the breastplate of iudgement the Ysrah and the Thummim, which shall be vpon Aarons heart, when he goeth in before the Lord, and Aaron shall beare the iudgement of the children of Israel vpon his heart before the Lord continually.

31 And thou shalt make the robe of the Ephod together of blue silke.

32 And the hole for his head shall be in the middle of it, having an edge of wretchen worke round about the collar of it: so shall it be as the collar of an habergeon, that it rent not.

33 And beneath vpon the skirts thereof, thou shalt make pomegranates of blue silke, and purple and scarlet round about the skirts thereof, and bells of gold betwene them round about:

34 That is, a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate round about vpon the skirts of the robe.

35 So shall it be vpon Aaron, when he ministereth, and his sound shall be heard when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he cometh out, and he shall not die.

36 Also thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and graue thereon, as signets are grauen, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue silke lace, and it shall be vpon the miter, vpon the forehead of the miter shall be.

38 So shall it be vpon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may beare the iniquities of the offerings, which the children of Israel shall offer in all their holy offerings: and it shall be alwayes vpon his forehead, to make them acceptable before the Lord.

39 Likewise thou shalt imbroider the fine linnen coat, and thou shalt make a miter of fine linnen, but thou shalt make a girdle of needle work.

40 Also thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes coats, and thou shalt make them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make them for glory and comeliness.

41 And thou shalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, and on his sonnes with him, and shalt anoint them, and fill their hands, and sanctifie them, that they may minister vnto mee in the Priests office.

42 Thou shalt also make them linnen breeches to cover their priuities: from the loynes vnto the thighs shall they reach.

43 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

44 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

45 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

46 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

47 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

48 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

49 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

50 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

51 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

52 And they shall be for Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come vnto the altar, to minister in the holy place, that they commit not iniquitie and so die: thou shalt be a law for euer vnto him, and to his seed after him.

height thereof two cubites: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

And thou shalt overlay it with fine golde, both the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and his horns: also thou shalt make vnto it a crowne of gold round about.

Besides this thou shalt make vnder this crowne two golden rings on either side: men on euery side shalt thou make shew, that they may be

After thou shalt set it before the vaille, that will appear with thee.

And Aaron shall burne incense sweete incense euery morning: when he dresseth the lamps thereof, shall he burne it.

Likewise at euen, when Aaron lynch vp the lamps thereof, he shall burne incense sweete incense: as he doeth in the morning, before the Lord through-

To burne incense sweete incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor offering, neither powe

10 And Aaron shall make reconciliation vpon the horns of it once in a yere with the blood of the sinne offering in the day of reconciliation:
once in the yere shall hee make reconciliation vpon it throughout your generations: this is most holy vnto the Lord.

11 Afterward the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying,

When thou takest the summe of the children of Israel after their number, then they shall giue euery man a redemption of his life vnto the Lord, when thou tellest them, that there be no plagus among them when thou countest them.

13 This shall euery man giue, that goeth into the number, halfe a shekel, after the shekel of the Sanctuary: (a shekel is twentie gerahs) the halfe shekel halfe and offering to the Lord.

14 All that are numbered from twentie yeeres

15 The rich shall not passe, and the poore shall not diminish from halfe a shekel, when yee shall giue an offering vnto the Lord, for the redemption of your liues.

16 So thou shalt take the money of the redemption of the children of Israel, & shalt put it vnto the vse of the Tabernacle of the Congrega-of Israel before the Lorde, for the redemption of your liues.

18 Thou shalt also make a Lauen of brasse, his foot of brasse to wash, & shall put it betweene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands, and their feet thereat.

20 When they goe into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they goe vnto the Altar to minister, & to make the perfume of the burnt offering to the Lorde, they shall wash themselves with water, lest they die.

21 So they shall wash their hands & their feet thereat, & this shall be to them an ordinance for euer, both vnto him and to his seede throughout their generations.

22 Also the Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying,
23 Take thou also vnto thee principall spices:

CHAP. XXXI.

1 God maketh Bezaleel and Aholiab merite for his works. 13 The Sabbath day is the signe of our justification. 18 The Tables written by the finger of God.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, Behold, I * haue called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iudah,

3 Whom I haue filled with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in vnderstanding and in knowledge, and in all * workmanship:

4 To finde out curious workes to worke in gold, and in silver, and in brasse,

5 Also in the arte to set stones, & to carue in timber, & to worke in al manner of workmanship.

6 And behold, I haue ioyned with him Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, and in the hearts of all that are * wise hearted, haue I put wisdom to make all that I haue commanded thee:

7 This is, the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Arke of the Testimony, and the Mercieseat that shall be thereupon, with all instruments of the Tabernacle:

8 Also the Table & the instruments thereof, and the * pure Candlesticks with all his instru-

9 Likewise the altar of burnt offering with all his instruments, and the Laue with his foote.

10 Also the garments of the ministration, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sonnes, to minister in the Priests office, 11 And the * anoynting oyle, and sweete perfume for the sanctuary: according to all that I haue commanded thee shall they doe.

12 ¶ Afterward the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

13 Speake thou also vnto the children of Israel, and say, Notwithstanding keepe ye my Sabbaths: for it is a signe betwene mee and you in your generations, that ye may know that I the Lord doe sanctifie you.

14 * Yee shall therefore keepe the * Sabbath: for it is holy vnto you: he that defileth it, shall die the death: therefore whosoever workech therein, the same person shall be euen cut off from among his people.

15 Sixe dayes shall men worke, but in the seuenth day is the Sabbath of the holy rest to the Lord, whosoever doth any worke in the Sabbath day, shall die the death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keepe the Sabbath, that they may obserue the || rest throughout their generations for an everlasting Couenant.

17 It is a signe betwene mee and the children of Israel for euer: * for in sixe dayes the Lorde made the heauen & the earth, and in the seuenth day he ceased, and rested.

18 Thus (when the Lord had made an end of communing with Moses vpon mount Sinai) * he gaue him two Tables of the Testimony, euen tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

4 The Israelites impute their delinquance to the calf. 14 God is appeased by Moses prayer. 19 Moses breaketh the Tables. 27 He flegeth the idolaters. 32 Moses saile for the people.

But when the people saw, that Moses taried long, or he came downe from the mountaine, the people gathered themselves together against Aaron, and said vnto him, Vp, * make vs gods to goe before vs: for of this Moses (the man that brought vs out of the land of Egypt) we know not what is become of him.

1 And Aaron said vnto them, * Plucke off the golden eareerings, which are in the eares of your wiues, of your sonnes, and of your daughters, and bring them vnto me.

6 So they rose vp the next day in the morning, & offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings: also * the people sate them downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp to play.

9 And as soone as Moses was entred into the Tabernacle, the clouidie pillar defended & stode at the doore of the Tabernacle, and the Lord talked with Moses.

10 Now when all the people sawe the clouidie pillar stand at the Tabernacle doore, all the people rose vp, and worshipped every man in his tent doore.

11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses ^d face to face, as a man speaketh vnto his friend. After hee turned againe into the hoste, but his seruant Joshua the sonne of Nun a yong man, departed not out of the Tabernacle.

12 ¶ Then Moses said vnto the Lord, See, thou saiest vnto mee, Leade this people forth, and thou hast not shewed mee whom thou wilt send with mee: thou hast said moreouer, I know thee by ^e name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

16 And wherein now shall it be knowne, that I and thy people haue found fauour in thy sight? shall it not be when thou goest with vs? so I, and thy people shall haue preheminece before all the people that are vpon the earth.

17 And the Lord said vnto Moses, I will doe this also that thou hast said: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 Again he said, I beseech thee, shewe mee thy glorie.

19 And hee answered, I will make all my ^h good goe before thee, and I will ⁱ proclaime the Name of the Lord before thee: ^j for I will shew ^k mercie to whom I will shew mercie, and will haue compassion on whom I will haue compassion.

20 Furthermore he said, Thou canst not see my face, for there shall no man see me, and ^l live.

21 Also the Lord said, Behold, ^m there is a place by ⁿ me, and thou shalt stand vpon the rocke:

22 And while my glorie passeth by I will put thee in a cleft of the rocke, and will couer thee with mine hand while I passe by.

4 ¶ Then Moses ^j hewed two Tables of stone like vnto the first, and rose vp early in the morning, and went vp vnto the mount of Sinai, as the Lord had commaunded him, & tooke in his hand two Tables of stone.

5 And the Lord descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord:

6 So the Lord passed before his face, and ^k cried, The Lord, The Lord, strong, mercifull, & gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in goodnesse and trueth,

Moses, how the skin of Moses face shone bright:
therefore Moses put the covering vpon his face,

CHAP. XXXVI.

¶ The great readiness of the people, in so much that he commaunded them to cease. 8 The curtaines made, 19 The couerings, 20 The boards, 31 The barres, 35 and the vails.

¶ Then wrought Bezaleel, and Aholiab, and all cunning men, to whome the Lorde gaue wisdom, and vnderstanding, to knowe howe to worke all maner of worke for the seruice of the Sanctuary, according to all that the Lord had commaunded.

1 For Moses had called Bezaleel, and Aholiab, and all the wise hearted men, in whose hearts the Lord had giuen wisdom, even as many as their hearts encouraged to come vnto the worke to worke it.

2 And they receiued of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the worke of the seruice of the Sanctuary, to make it: also they brought still vnto him free gifts euery morning.

3 So all the wise men that wrought all the holy worke, came euery man from his worke which they wrought;

4 And spake to Moses, saying, The people bring too much, and more then enough for the vse of the worke, which the Lord hath commaunded to be made.

5 Then Moses gaue a commaundement, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the host, saying, Let neither man nor woman prepare any more worke for the oblation of the Sanctuary. So the people were stayed from offering.

6 For the stuffe they had, was sufficient for all the worke to make it, and too much.

7 ¶ All the cunning men therefore among the workmen, made for the Tabernacle ten curtaines of fine twined linnen, and of blew silke, and purple, and skarlet: 8 Cherubims of broiured worke made they upon them.

9 The length of one curtaine was twenty and eight cubits, & the breadth of one curtaine foure cubits: and the curtaines were all of one fise.

10 And hee coupled fise curtaines together, and other fise coupled he together.

11 And he made strings of blewe silke by the edge of one curtaine, in the selvedge of the coupling: likewise he made on the side of the other curtaine in the selvedge in the second coupling.

12 ¶ Fiftie strings made he in the one curtaine, and fiftie strings made he in the edge of the other curtaine, which was in the second coupling: the strings were set one against another.

13 After, he made fiftie taches of gold, and coupled the curtaines one to another with the taches: so was it one Tabernacle.

14 ¶ Also hee made curtaines of goates haire for the ¶ couering vpon the Tabernacle: he made them to the number of eleuen curtaines.

15 The length of one curtaine had thirty cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: the eleuen curtaines were of one fise.

16 And hee coupled fise curtaines by themselves, and fixe curtaines by themselves:

17 Also hee made fiftie strings vpon the edge of one curtaine in the selvedge in the coupling, & fiftie strings made hee vpon the edge of the other curtaine in the second coupling.

18 He made also fiftie taches of brasse to couple the couering that it might be one.

19 And he made a ¶ couering vpon the pavilion of rammes skins dyed red, and a couering of badgers skins aboute.

20 ¶ Likewise he made the boards for the Tabernacle of Shittim wood to stand vp.

21 The length of a board was ten cubites, and the bredth of a board was a cubite, and an halfe.

22 One board had two tenons, set in order as the fete of a ladder, one against another: thus made he for all the boards of the Tabernacle.

23 So he made twentie boardes for the South side of the Tabernacle, even full South.

24 And fourtie sockets of siluer made hee vnder the twentie boardes, two sockets vnder one board for his two tenons, and two sockets vnder another board for his two tenons.

25 Also for the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North, he made twentie boards,

26 And their fourty sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one board, and two sockets vnder another board.

27 Likewise toward the Westside of the Tabernacle he made fixe boards.

28 And two boards made hee in the corners of the Tabernacle, for either side,

29 And they were ioyned beneath, and likewise were made sure aboute with a ring: thus hee did to both in both corners.

30 So there were eight boards, & their sixteen sockets of siluer, vnder euery board two sockets.

31 ¶ After, he made barres of Shittim wood, fise for the boardes in the one side of the Tabernacle, 32 And fise barres for the boardes in the other side of the Tabernacle, & fise barres for the boardes of the Tabernacle on the side toward the West.

33 And he made the middle barre to shoote through the boardes, from the one end to the other.

34 He overlaid also the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold for places for the barres.

with Cherubims of brodered worke made be it:
36 And made thereunto foure pillars of Shittim, and overlaid them with gold: whose hooks were all of gold, and he cast for them foure sockets of silver.
37 And he made an hanging for the Tabernacle doore of blew silk, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linnen, and needle worke.

and overlaid their chapiters and their fillets with golde, but their five sockets were of brasle.

1 The Altar. 2 The Mercifear. 3 The Table. 4 The Candelstick. 5 The Altar of incense.

After this, Bezaleel made the Arke of Shittim wood, two cubits and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and an halfe hie.

2 And overlaid it with fine gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And cast for it foure rings of gold for the four corners of it: that is two rings for the one side of it, and two rings for the other side thereof.

4 Also he made barres of Shittim wood, and covered them with golde.

5 And put the barres in the rings by the sides of the Arke, to beare the Arke.

6 And hee made the Mercifear of pure golde: two cubites and an halfe was the length thereof, and one cubite and an halfe the breadth thereof.

7 And hee made two Cherubims of golde, vpon the two ends of the Mercifear: even of worke beaten with the hammer made he them.

8 One Cherub on the one ende, and another Cherub on the other ende: of the Mercifear made he the Cherubims at the two ends thereof.

9 And the Cherubims spread out their wings on his, and covered the Mercifear with their wings, and their faces were one towards another:
toward the Mercifear were the faces of the Che-rubims.

10 Also he made the Table of Shittim wood:
two cubites was the length thereof, and a cubite the breadth thereof, and a cubite and an halfe the height of it.

11 And he overlaid it with fine golde, and made thereto a crowne of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereto a border of an hand breadth round about, and made vpon the border a crowne of gold round about.

13 And he cast for it foure rings of gold, and put therings in the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Against the border were the rings, as places for the barres to beare the Table.

15 And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and covered them with gold to beare the Table.

16 Also he made the instruments for the Table of pure golde: dishes for it, and incense cups for it, and goblets for it, and coverings for it, wherewith it should be covered.

17 Like wise hee made the Candlestick of pure golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer made he the candlestick, and his shaft, and his branch, his bolles, his knops, and his floures were of one piece.

18 And six branches came out of the sides thereof: three branches of the Candlesticks out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candlesticks out of the other side of it.

19 In one branch three bolles made like almonds: a knop & a floure: and in another branch three bolles made like almonds, a knop and a floure: and so throughout the six branches that proceeded out of the Candlestick.

20 And vpon the Candlestick were foure bolles after the fashion of almonds, the knoppes thereof, and the floures thereof.

21 That is, vnder every two branches a knop made thereof: & a knop vnder the second branch therof, and a knop vnder the third branch thereof, according to the six branches coming out of it.

22 Their knops & their branches were of the same: it was all one beaten worke of pure gold.

23 And he made for it such lampes with the snuffers, and snuffdishes thereof of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it with all the instruments thereof.

25 Furthermore he made the perfume altar of Shittim wood: the length of it was a cubite, and the breadth of it a cubite (it was square) and two cubites hie, and the hornes thereof were of the same.

26 And he covered it with pure gold, both the toppe and the sides thereof round about, and the hornes of it, and made vnto it a crowne of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it, vnder the crowne thereof in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put barres in for to beare it therewith.

28 Also he made the barres of Shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 And he made the holy anointing oile, and the sweet pure incense after the apothecaries arte.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 The altar of burnt offerings. 2 The brazen Laver. 3 The Court.
4 The furniture of the people offered.

Also hee made the altar of burnt offering of Shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubites the breadth thereof: it was square, and three cubits hie.

2 And he made vnto it hornes in the four corners thereof: the hornes thereof were of the same, and he overlaid it with brasle.

3 Also he made all the instruments of the altar: the Ashpens, and the becoms, and the basins, the fleshhookes, and the censers: all the instruments thereof made he of brasle.

4 Moreover he made a brazen grate wrought like a net to the Altar, vnder the compasse of it beneath in the middles of it.

5 And cast foure rings of brasle for the four ends of the grate to put barres in.

6 And hee made the barres of Shittim wood, and covered them with brasle.

7 The which barres he put into the rings on the sides of the altar to beare it withall, and made it hollow within the boards.

8 Also he made the laver of brasle, and the foote of it of brasle of the glasses of the women that did assemble: and came together at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

9 Finally he made the court on the South side full South: the hangings of the court were of fine twined linnen, having an hundred cubites.

20 Their pillars were twentie, and their brasen sockets twenty: the hooks of the pillars, and their filets were of siluer.

21 And on the North side the hangings were an hundred cubits: their pillars twenty, and their sockets of brasie twenty, the hooks of the pillars and their filets of siluer.

22 On the West side also were hangings of fiftie cubits, their ten pillars with their ten sockets: the hooks of the pillars and their filets of siluer.

23 And toward the East side, full East were hangings of fiftie cubits.

24 The hangings of the one side were fiftene cubits, their three pillars and their three sockets:

25 And of the other side of the court gate on both sides were hangings of fiftene cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

26 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twinned linnen:

27 But the sockets of the pillars were of brasie: the hooks of the pillars and their filets of siluer, and the covering of their chapiters of siluer: and all the pillars of the court were hooped about with siluer.

28 Hee made also the hanging of the gate of the court of needle worke, blew silke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen, euen twentie cubits long, and five cubits in height and breadth, like the hangings of the court.

29 And their pillars were foure, with their foure sockets of brasie: their hooks of siluer, and the covering of their chapiters, and their filets of siluer.

30 But all the pinnes of the Tabernacle and of the court round about were of brasie.

31 These are the parts of the Tabernacle, I mean, of the Tabernacle of the Testimony, which was appointed by the commandement of Moses for the office of the Levites by the hand of Ithamar sonne to Aaron the Priest.

32 So Bezaleel the sonne of Uri the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses.

33 And with him Aholiab sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan a cunning workeman, and an embroiderer, & a worker of needle worke in blew silke, and in purple, and in scarlet, and in fine linnen.

34 All the gold that was occupied in all the work wrought for the holy place (which was the gold of the offering) was nine and twenty talents, and seven hundred and thirtie shekels, according to the shekel of the Sanctuary.

35 But the siluer of them that were numbred in the Congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

36 A portion for a man, that is, halfe a shekel after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for all them that were numbred from twenty yeere old and aboue, among fix hundred thousand, and three thousand and five hundred and fiftie men.

37 Moreover, there were an hundred talents of siluer, to cast the sockets of the Sanctuary, and the sockets of the vaille: an hundred sockets of an hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

38 But he made the hooks for the pillars of a thousand seven hundred and seventy and five shekels, and overlaid their chapiters, and made filets about them.

29 Also the brasie of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand, and foure hundred shekels.

30 Whereof he made the sockets to the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate which was for it, with all the instruments of the Altar,

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets for the court gate, and all the pins of the Tabernacle, and all the pinnes of the court round about.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 The apparel of Aaron and his sonnes. 32 All that the Lord commanded, was made and finished. 43 Moses blessed the people.

Moreover, they made garments of ministration to minister in the Sanctuary, of blew silke, and purple, and scarlet: they made also the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

2 So he made the Ephod of gold, blew silke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wiers, to worke it in the blew silke and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linnen, with broidered worke.

4 For the which they made shoulders to couple together: for it was closed by the two edges thereof.

5 And the broidered gird of his Ephod that was vpon him, was of the same stuffe, and of like work: even of golde, of blew silke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

6 And they wrought two Onyx stones closed in ouches of golde, and graued as signets are grauen, with the names of the children of Israel,

7 And put them on the shoulders of the Ephod stones for a remembrance of the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

8 Also hee made the brestplate of broidered worke like the worke of the Ephod: of gold, blew silke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen.

9 They made the brestplate double, and it was square, an handbreadth long, and an handbreadth broad: it was also double.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of stones. The order was thus, a Rubie, a Topaze, and a Carbuncle, in the first row:

11 And in the second row, an Emeraude, a Saphir, and a Diamond:

12 Also in the third row, a Turkeis, an Achate, and an Hematie:

13 Likewise in the fourth row, a Chrysolite, an Onyx, and a Iasper, closed and set in ouches of gold.

14 So the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve after their names grauen like signets, every one after his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 After, they made vpon the brestplate chaines at the ends, of wrethen worke and pure gold.

16 They made also two bosses of gold, & two gold rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the brestplate.

17 And they put the two wrethen chaines of gold in the two rings, in the corners of the brestplate.

d That is, every tribe had his name written in a stone.

18 Also the two other ends of the two wrethen chains they fastened in the two bosses, and put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, upon the forefront of it.

19 Likewise they made two rings of gold, and put them in the two other corners of the breastplate upon the edge of it, which was on the inside of the Ephod.

20 They made also two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod beneath on the fore side of it, and over against his coupling about the broidered gird of the Ephod.

21 Then they fastened the breastplate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blew silke, that it might be fast upon the broidered gird of the Ephod; and that the breastplate should not be loosed from the Ephod, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 Moreover, he made the robe of the Ephod of woven worke, altogether of blew silke.

23 And the hole of the robe was in the midst of it, as the collar of an habergeon, with an edge about the collar, that it should not rent.

24 And they made vpon the skirts of the robe pomegranates of blew silke and purple, and scarlet, and fine linnen twined.

25 They made also belles of pure golde, and put the belles betwene the pomegranates vpon the skirts of the robe round about betwene the pomegranates.

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate round about the skirts of the robe to minister in, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

27 After they made coats of fine linnen, of woven worke for Aaron and for his sonnes.

28 And the miter of fine linnen, and goodly bunnets of fine linnen, and linnen breeches of fine twined linnen.

29 And the girdle of fine twined linnen, and of blew silke, and purple, and scarlet, work of needle worke, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 Finally, they made the plate for the holy crowne of fine gold, and wrote vpon it a superscription like to the graving of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied vnto it a lace of blew silke, to fasten it on high vpon the miter, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 Thus was all the worke of the Tabernacle, even of the Tabernacle of the Congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.

33 Afterward they brought the Tabernacle vnto Moses, the Tabernacle and all his instruments, his taches, his boards, his barres, and his pillars, and his sockets.

34 And the covering of rammes skinner, dyed red, and the coverings of badgers skinner, and the covering of vaile.

35 The Arke of the Testimony, and the barres thereof, and the Mercy seat.

36 The Table, with all the instruments thereof, and the shew bread.

37 The pure Candlestick, the lamps thereof, and the Lamp stand in order, and all the instruments thereof, and the oyle for light.

38 Also the golden Altar, and the anoynting oyle, and the sweet incense, and the hanging of the Tabernacle doore.

39 The brasen altar with his grate of brasie, his barres and all his instruments, the laver and his foot.

40 The curtaines of the court with his pillars, and his sockets, & the hanging to the court gate, and his boards, and his pinnes, and all the instruments of the seruice of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

41 Finally, the ministering garments to seruice in the Sanctuary, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and his sonnes garments to minister in the Priests office.

42 According to every point that the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the worke.

43 And Moses behelde all the worke, and behelde, they had done it as the Lord had commanded: so had they done: And Moses blessed them.

CHAP. XL

The Tabernacle with the appurtenances is reared up. 34 The glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud covering the Tabernacle.

Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, In the first day of the first moneth, in the very first of the first moneth shalt thou set vp the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation:

And thou shalt put therein the Arke of the Testimony, and cover the Arke with the vaile:

Also thou shalt bring in the Table, and set it in order as it doth require: thou shalt also bring in the Candlestick, and light his lamps.

And thou shalt set the incense Altar of gold before the Arke of the Testimony, and put the hanging at the doore of the Tabernacle.

Moreover thou shalt set the burnt offering Altar before the doore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

And thou shalt set the Laver betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and put water therein.

Then thou shalt appoint the court round about, and hang vp the hanging at the court gate.

After, thou shalt take the anoynting oyle, and anoynt the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and hallow it with all the instruments thereof, that it may be holy.

And thou shalt anoynt the Altar of the burnt offering, and all his instruments, and shalt sanctifie the Altar, that it may be as an Altar most holy.

Also thou shalt anoynt the Laver and his foot, and shalt sanctifie it.

Then thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.

And thou shalt put vpon Aaron the holy garments, and shalt anoynt him, and sanctifie him, that he may minister vnto me in the Priests office.

Then shalt also bring his sons, and clothe them with garments.

And shalt anoint them as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister vnto me in the Priests office: for their anoynting shall be a sign, that the Priesthood shall be theirs lasting vnto them throughout their generations.

So Moses did according to all that the Lord had commanded him: so did he.

CHAP. II.

1 The meate offering is after these sortes: of fine flour, of oil, of bread baked, and of new wine.

¶ And when any wil offer a meate offering vnto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour, and he shall powre oyle vpon it, and put incense thereon.

2 And shall bring it vnto Aarons sonnes the Priests, and he shall take thence his handfull of the flour, and of the oyle with all the incense, and the Priest shall burne it for a memorial vpon the altar: for it is an offering made by fire for a sweete savour vnto the Lord.

3 But the remnant of the meate offering shall be Aarons and his sonnes: for it is a most holy of the Lords offerings made by fire.

4 ¶ If thou bring also a meate offering baken in the oven, it shall be an unleavened cake of fine flour mingled with oyle, or an unleavened wafer anointed with oyle.

5 But if thy meate offering be an oblation of the living pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened mingled with oyle.

6 And thou shalt part it in pieces, and powre oyle thereon: for it is a meate offering.

¶ And if thy meate offering be an oblation made in the caldron, it shall be made of fine flour with oyle.

7 After thou shalt bring the meate offering (that is made of these things) vnto the Lord, and shalt present it vnto the Priest, and he shall bring it to the altar.

8 And the Priest shall take from the meate offering a memorial of it, and shall burne it vpon the altar: for it is an oblation made by fire for a sweete savour vnto the Lord.

9 But that which is left of the meate offering, shall be Aarons and his sonnes: for it is a most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire.

10 All the meate offerings which ye shall offer vnto the Lord, shall be made without leaven: for ye shall neither burne leaven nor hony in any offering of the Lord made by fire.

11 ¶ In the oblation of the first fruits ye shall offer them vnto the Lord, but they shall not be burnt vpon the altar for a sweete savour.

12 (All the meate offerings also shall thou set on with salt, neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meate offering: for vpon all chine oblations thou shalt offer salt.)

13 If then thou offer a meate offering of thy first fruits vnto the Lord, thou shalt offer for thy meate offering of thy first fruits: eares of corne dried by the fire, and wheate beaten out of the green eares.

14 After thou shalt put oyle vpon it, and lay incense thereon: for it is a meate offering.

15 And the Priest shall burne the memorial of it, even of that that is beaten, and of the oyle of it with all the incense thereof: for it is an offering vnto the Lord made by fire.

¶ Also if his oblation be a peace offering, if hee wil offer of the droue (whether it be male or female) he shall offer such as is without blemish, before the Lord.

2 And shall put his hand vpon the head of his offering, and kill it at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and Aarons sonnes the Priests shall sprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

3 So hee shall offer part of the peace offerings as a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord: even the fat that connecth the inward, and all the fat that is vpon the inward.

4 He shall also take away the two kidnies, and the fat that is on them, & vpon the flanks, and the kail on the liver with the kidnies.

5 And Aarons sonnes shall burne it on the altar, with the burnt offering, which is vpon the wood that is on the fire: this is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete savour vnto the Lord.

6 ¶ Also if his oblation be a peace offering vnto the Lord out of the flocke, whether it be male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

7 If hee offer a lambe for his oblation, then he shall bring it before the Lord.

8 And lay his hand vpon the head of his offering, and shall kill it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and Aarons sonnes shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about vpon the altar.

m The peace offering was wholly consumed, and of the offering made by fire only the inwards, &c. were burnt: the shoulder and greave with the two kidneys and the marrow were the Priests' and the rest his that offered.

9 After, of the peace offerings he shall offer an offering made by fire vnto the Lord: he shall take away the fat thereof, & the rumpe altogether, hard by the backe bone, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is vpon the inwards.

10 Also he shall take away the two kidnies, with the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flanks, and the kail vpon the liner with the kidnies.

11 Then the Priest shall burne it vpon the altar, as the meate of an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

12 Also if his offering be a goate, then shall he offer it before the Lord,

13 And shall put his hand vpon the head of it, and kil it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the soanes of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof vpon the altar round about.

14 Then he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire vnto the Lord, the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is vpon the inwards.

15 Also hee shall take away the two kidnies, and the fat that is vpon them, & vpon the flanks, and the kail vpon the liner with the kidnies.

16 So the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar, as the meate of an offering made by fire for a sweete savour: all the fat is the Lords.

17 This shall be a perperuall ordinance for your generations, throughout all your dwellings: so shall ye shall eat neither fat nor blood.

CHAP. III.

Moreover, the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 18 Speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If any shall sinne through ignorance, in any of the Commandements of the Lord, (which ought not to be done) but shall doe contrary to any of them,

19 If the Priest that is appointed do sinne (according to the sinne of the people), then shall hee offer, for his sinne which he hath sinned, a young bullocke without blemish vnto the Lord, for a sinne offering,

20 And hee shall bring the bullocke vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord, and shall put his hand vpon the bullockes head, and kill the bullock before the Lord.

21 And the Priest that is anointed, shall take of the bullocks blood, and bring it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

22 Then the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the Lord, before the vaile of the Sanctuary.

23 The Priest also shall put some of the blood before the Lord, vpon the hornes of the Altar of sweete incense, which is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, then shall he powre all the rest of the blood of the bullocke at the foote of the Altar of burnt offering, which is at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

24 And hee shall take away all the fat of the bullocke for the sinne offering: so will the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is about the inwards.

25 Hee shall take away also the two kidnies and the fat that is vpon them, & vpon the flanks, and the kail vpon the liner with the kidnies.

26 As it was taken away from the bullocke of the peace offerings, and the Priest shall burne them vpon the Altar of burnt offering.

27 But the skinn of the bullocke, and all his flesh, with his head, and his legges, and his inwards, and his dung shall hee beare out.

28 So he shall cary the whole bullocke out of the hoste vnto a cleane place, where the ashes are powred, and shall burne him on the wood in the fire: where the ashes are cast out, shall hee be burne.

29 And if the whole Congregation of Israel shall sinne through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the multitude, and haue done against any of the Commandements of the Lord which should not be done, and haue offended:

30 When the sinne which they haue committed shall be knowne, then the Congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sinne, and bring him before the Tabernacle of the Congregation,

31 And the Elders of the Congregation shall put their hands vpon the head of the bullock before the Lord, and he shall kil the bullocke before the Lord.

32 Then the Priest that is anointed, shall bring of the bullocks blood into the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

33 And the Priest shall dippe his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the Lord, even before the vaile.

34 Also hee shall put some of the blood vpon the hornes of the Altar, which is before the Lord, that is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then shall he powre all the rest of the blood at the foot of the Altar of burnt offering, which is at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

35 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burne it vpon the Altar.

36 And the Priest shall do with this bullocke, as he did with the bullocke for his sinne: so shall he do with this: so the Priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

37 For he shall cary the bullocke without the holte, and burne him as he burned the first bullocke: for it is an offering for the sinne of the Congregation.

38 When a ruler shall sinne, and doe through ignorance against any of the Commandements of the Lord his God, which should not be done, and shall offend,

39 If one shew vnto him his sinne, which hee hath committed, then shall hee bring for his offering an hee goate without blemish,

40 And shall lay his hand vpon the head of the hee goate, & kil it in the place where he should kil the burnt offering before the Lord: for it is a sinne offering.

41 Then the Priest shall take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offering Altar, and shall powre the rest of his blood at the foote of the burnt offering Altar,

42 And shall burne all his fat vpon the Altar, as the fat of the peace offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him, concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

43 Likewise if any of the people of the land shall sinne through ignorance in doing against any of the Commandements of the Lord, which should not be done, and shall offend,

6 Also he shall bring for his trespass vnto the Lord, a ram without blemish out of the ^a flocke, in thy estimation ^a worth two shekels for a trespass offering vnto the Priest.

7 And the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, and it shall be forgiven him, whatsoever thing hee hath done, and trespassed therein.

8 ¶ Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sonnes, saying, This is the ^a Law of the burnt offering, (it is the burnt offering, because it burneth vpon the altar, all the night vnto the morning, and the fire burneth on the altar)

10 And the Priest shall put on his linnen garment, and shall put on his linnen breeches vpon ^a his flesh, and take away the ashes when the fire hath consumed the burnt offering vpon the altar, and he shall put them beside the ^a altar.

11 After he shall put off his garments, and put on other raiment, and carie the ashes forth with- out the holie vnto a cleane place.

12 But the fire vpon the altar shall burn thereon and neuer be put out: wherefore the Priest shall burne wood on it euery morning, and lay the burnt offering in order vpon it, and he shall burne thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

13 The fire shall euer burne vpon the altar, and neuer goe out.

14 ¶ Also this is the Law of the meate offering, which Aarons sonnes shall offer in the presence of the Lord before the altar.

15 Hee shall euen take thence his handfull of fine flour of the meate offering, and of the oyle, and all the incense which is vpon the meate offering, and shall burne it vpon the altar for a sweet sauour, ^a as a memoriall thereof vnto the Lord.

16 But the rest thereof shall Aaron and his sonnes eat, it shall be eaten without leauen in the holie place: in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be ^a baken with leauen: I haue giuen it for their portion of mine offerings made by fire: for it is as the sinne offering, and as the trespass offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eate of it: ^a It shall be a statute for euer in your generations, concerning the offerings of the Lord, made by fire: ^a whatsoever toucheth them, shall be holie.

19 ¶ Again the Lord spake vnto Moses, say- ing,

20 This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they shall offer vnto the Lord in the day when hee is anointed: the tenth part of an ^a Ephah of fine flour, for a meate offering ^a perpetual: halfe of it in the morning, and halfe thereof at night.

21 In the frying panne it shall be made with oyle: thou shalt bring it fried, and shalt offer the ^a baken pieces of the meate offering for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

22 And the Priest that is ^a anointed in his steade among his sonnes shall offer it: ^a it is the Lords ordinance for euer, it shall be burnt altogether.

23 For euery meate offering of the Priest shall be burnt altogether, it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ Furthermore, the Lord spake vnto Mo- ses, saying,

25 Speake vnto Aaron, and vnto his sonnes, and say, This is the Law of the sinne offering, In the place where the burnt offering is killed, shall the sinne offering be killed before the Lord, for it is most holie.

26 The Priest that offereth the sinne offering, shall eate it: in the holie place shall it be eaten, in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof, shall be holie: & when there droppeth of the blood thereof vpon a ^a garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it droppeth, in the holie place.

28 Also the earthen pot that it is sodden in, shall be broken, but if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall both be scowred and washed with water.

29 All the males among the Priests shall eate thereof, for it is most holie.

30 ¶ But no sinne offering, whose blood is brought into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to make reconciliation in the holie place, shall be eaten, ^a but shall be burnt in the ^a fire.

CHAP. VII.

1 The law of the trespass offering, 2 All of the peace offering.

3 The fat and the blood may not be eaten. Likewise this is the Law of the ^a trespass offer- ing, it is most holie.

2 In the place ^a where they kill the burnt offer- ing, shall they kill the trespass offering, and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about vpon the altar.

3 All the fat thereof also shall ^a hee offer, the rumpe, and the fat that couereth the inwards.

4 After, he shall take away the two kidnies, with the fat that is on them and vpon the flanks, and the kail on the liuer with the kidnies.

5 Then the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar, for an offering made by fire vnto the Lord: this is a trespass offering.

6 All the males among the Priests shall eate thereof, it shall be eaten in the holie place, for it is most holie.

7 As the sinne offering is, so is the trespass offer- ing, one ^a law serueth for both: ^a that where- with the Priest shall make atonement, shall be his.

8 Also the Priest that offereth any mans burnt offering, shall haue the skinned of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meate offering that is baken in the oven, and that is dressed in the pan, and in the frying pan, shall be the Priests that offereth it.

10 And euery meate offering mingled with oyle, and that is ^a dry, shall pertaine vnto all the sonnes of Aaron, to all alike.

11 Furthermore, this is the Law of the peace offerings, which he shall offer vnto the Lord.

12 If he offer it to ^a giue thanks, then he shall offer for his thanks offering, vnleavened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleavened wafers anointed with oyle and fine flour fried with the cakes mingled with oyle.

13 Hee shall offer also his offering with cakes of leavened bread, for his peace offerings to giue thanks.

14 And of all the sacrifice hee shall offer one cake for an heave offering vnto the Lord, and 14 Also the flesh of his peace offerings, for chankering, shall be eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall leave nothing thereof vntill the morning.

15 But the sacrifice of his offering is a vow, or a free offering, it shall be eaten the same day that hee offereth his sacrifice: and so in the morning the residue thereof shall be eaten.

16 But as much of the offered flesh as remaineth vnto the third day, shall be burnt with fire.

17 For if any of the flesh of his peace offerings be eaten in the third day, he shall not be accepted that offereth it, neither shall it be reckoned vnto him, but shall be an abomination, therefore the person that eateth of it, shall beare his iniquitie.

18 The flesh also that toucheth any vncleane thing shall not be eaten, but burnt with fire: but of this flesh all that be cleane shall eat thereof.

19 But if any eate of the flesh of the peace offerings that pertaineth to the Lord, hauing his vncleanness vpon him, euen the same person shall be cut off from his people.

20 Moreover, when any toucheth any vncleane thing, as the vncleanness of man, or of an vncleane beast, or of any filthy abomination, & eate of the flesh of the peace offerings, which pertaineth vnto the Lord, euen that person shall be cut off from his people.

21 ¶ Again the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

22 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, ¶ Ye shall eat no fat of beasts, nor of sheepe, nor of goats.

23 For the fat of the dead beast, and the fat of that which is borne with teale, shall be occupied to any use, but ye shall not eate of it.

24 For whosoever eatech the fat of the beast, of the which hee shall offer an offering made by fire to the Lord, euen the person that eateth, shall be cut off from his people.

25 Neither shall ye eat any blood, either of foule, or of beast, in all your dwellings.

26 Every person that eateth any blood, euen the same person shall be cut off from his people.

27 ¶ And the Lord talked with Moses, saying,

28 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, He that offereth his peace offerings vnto the Lord, shall bring his gift vnto the Lord of his peace offerings:

29 His hands shall bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire: the fat with the breast shall be bring, that the breast may be taken to and fro before the Lord.

30 Then the Priest shall burne the fat vpon the altar, and the breast shall be Aarons and his sonnes.

31 And the right shoulder shall ye give vnto the Priest for an heave offering, of your peace offerings.

32 The same that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat among the sonnes of Aaron, shall haue the right shoulder for his part.

33 For the breast taken to and fro, and the shoulder lifted vp, haue I taken of the children of Israel, euen of their peace offerings, and haue given them vnto Aaron the Priest, and vnto his sonnes by a statute for euer from among the children of Israel.

34 ¶ This is the anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sonnes, concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire, in the day when he presented them to serue in the Priests office vnto the Lord.

35 The which portions the Lord commanded to give them in the day that hee anointed them from among the children of Israel, by a statute for euer in their generations.

36 This is also the law of the burnt offering, of the meate offering, and of the sinne offering, and of the trespass offering, & of the consecrations, and of the peace offerings.

37 Which the Lord commanded Moses in the mount Sinai, when hee commanded the children of Israel to offer their gifts vnto the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAP. VIII

The anointing of Aaron and his sonnes, with the sacrifice concerning the same.

¶ Forward the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, ¶ Take Aaron and his sonnes with him, and the garments, and the anointing oyle, and a bullocke for the sinne offering, and two rammes, and a basket of vneleavened bread.

¶ So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, & the company was assembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

¶ Then Moses said vnto the company, ¶ This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded to doe.

¶ And Moses brought Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them with water,

¶ And put vpon him the coate, and girded him with a girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the Ephod on him, which hee girded with the brodered gird of the Ephod, and bound it vnto him therewith.

¶ After, hee put the breastplate thereon, and put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim.

¶ Also hee put the miter vpon his head, and put vpon the miter on the forehead the golden plate, and the holy crowne, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

¶ (Now Moses had taken the anointing oyle, and anointed the Tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them,

¶ And sprinkled thereof vpon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his instruments, and the laver, and his foot, to sanctifie them)

¶ And hee powred of the anointing oyle vpon Aarons head, and anointed him to sanctifie him.

¶ After, Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coates vpon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bones vpon their heads, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

¶ Then hee brought the bullocke for the sinne offering, and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke for the sinne offering.

¶ And Moses slew him, and tooke the blood, which hee put vpon the hornes of the altar, round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and powred thereof the blood at the foot of the altar, to sanctifie it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

16 Then he tooke all the fat that was vpon the inwards, and the kail of the liuer, and the two kidneis, with their fat, which Moses burned vpon the Altar.

17 But the bullocke and his hide, and his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the holte, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

18 ¶ Also hee brought the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron & his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the ramme.

19 So Moses killed it, and sprinkled the blood vpon the Altar round about.

20 And Moses cut the ramme in peeces, and burnt the head with the peeces, and the fat,

21 And washed the inwards and the legges in water: so Moses burnt the ram every whit vpon the altar: for it was a burnt offering for a sweete savour, which was made by fire vnto the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ After, he brought the other ramme, the ramme of consecrations, and Aaron & his sonnes laid their hands vpon the head of the ramme,

23 Which Moses slew, and tooke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the lappe of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.

24 Then Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the blood on the lap of their right eares, and vpon the thumbe of their right hands, and vpon the great toes of their right feete, and Moses sprinkled the rest of the blood vpon the Altar round about.

25 And he tooke the fat and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inwards, and the kail of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, and the right shoulder.

26 Also he tooke of the basket of the vneleuened bread that was before the Lord, one vneleuened cake and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, & vpon the right shoulder.

27 So he put all in Aarons hands, and in his sonnes hands, and shooke it to and fro before the Lord.

28 After, Moses tooke them out of their hands and burnt them vpon the Altar for a burnt offering: for these were consecrations for a sweete savour which were made by fire vnto the Lord.

29 Likewise Moses tooke the breast of the ramme of consecrations, and shooke it to and fro before the Lord: for it was Moses portion, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 Also Moses tooke of the annoynting oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the Altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aaron, vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, & on his sonnes garments with him: so he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him.

31 ¶ Afterward Moses said vnto Aaron and his sonnes, See the flesh at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shall eat it.

32 But that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread, shall ye burne with fire.

33 And ye shall not depart from the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven daies, vntill the dayes of your consecrations bee at an ende: for seven daies, said the Lord, shall hee consecrate you.

34 As hee hath done this day: so the Lorde hath commanded to doe, to make an attonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation day and night, seven daies, and shall keep the watch of the Lord, that ye die not, for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sonnes did all things which the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses.

h By commission given to Moses.

CHAP. IX.

8 The first offering of Aaron. 12 Aaron blesseth the people. 23 The glory of the Lord is shewed. 24 The first communion from the Lord.

And in the eight day Moses called Aaron & his sonnes, and the Elders of Israel:

2 ¶ Then hee said vnto Aaron, Take thee a yong calfe for a sinne offering, and a ramme for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before the Lord.

3 And vnto the children of Israel thou shalt speake, saying, Take yee an hee goate for a sinne offering, and a calfe, and a lambe, both of a yeere old, without blemish, for a burnt offering.

4 Also a bullocke, and a ramme for peace offerings, to offer before the Lord, & a meate offering mingled with oyle, for to day the Lord will appeare vnto you.

5 ¶ Then they brought that which Moses commanded, before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the assembly drew neere and stood before the Lord.

6 (For Moses had saide, This is the thing, which the Lorde commanded that yee should doe, and the glory of the Lord shall appeare vnto you.)

7 Then Moses saide vnto Aaron, Draw neere to the Altar, and offer thy sinne offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an attonement for thee and for the people: offer also the offering of the people, and make an attonement for them, as the Lord hath commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went vnto the Altar, and killed the calfe of the sinne offering, which was for himselfe.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood vnto him, and he dipt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon the hornes of the Altar, and powred the rest of the blood at the foot of the Altar.

10 But the fat and the kindneis and the kail of the liuer of the sinne offering, he burnt vpon the Altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

11 The flesh also and the hide hee burnt with fire without the holte.

12 After, he slew the burnt offering, and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about vpon the Altar.

13 Also they brought the burnt offering vnto him with the peeces thereof, and the head, and he burnt them vpon the Altar.

14 Likewise he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them vpon the burnt offering on the Altar.

15 ¶ Then he offered the peoples offering and tooke a goate, which was the sinne offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sinne, as the first:

16 So hee offered the burnt offering, and prepared it, according to the maner.

17 He presented also the meate offering, and filled his hand thereof, and beside the burnt sacrifice

b Aaron offered into the position of the Priesthood and offered foure principal sacrifices: the burnt offering, the sinne offering, the peace offerings, and the meate offering.

At the morning he burnt it upon the Altar.
 18 He slew also the bullocks, and the rams for the peace offerings, that was for the people, and Aaron himself brought unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the Altar round about.
 19 With the fat of the bullocks, and of the rams, the rumpe, and that which couereth the inward, and the kidneys, and the kail of the liver.
 20 So they layd the fat upon the beasts, and he burnt the fat upon the Altar.

21 But the breasts and the right shoulder
 Aaron shooke to and fro before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 So Aaron lift vp his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering of the sinne offering and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

23 After Moses and Aaron went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and came out, and blessed the people, and the glory of the Lord appeared to all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from the Lord, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they gave thanks, and fell on their faces.

CHAP. X.

Nadab and Abihu are slain, who offered strange fire before the Lord, which he had not commanded them.
 1 Therefore a fire went out from the Lords, and deuoured them: so they died before the Lord.

2 Then Moses said vnto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come neere me, and before all the people I will be glorified: but Aaron held his peace.

3 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan the sonnes of Uzziel, the vncles of Aaron, and said vnto them, Come nere, carry yone brethren from before the Sanctuary out of the hoste.

4 Then they went, and caried them in their coats out of the hoste, as Moses had commanded.

5 After, Moses said vnto Aaron and vnto Elleazar and Ithamar his sons, Vncouer not your heads, neither rent your clothes, lest ye die, and lest wrath come vpon all the people: but let your brethren all the house of Israel bewaile the burning which the Lord hath kindled.

6 And goe not ye out from the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest ye die: for the anointing oyle of the Lords vpon you, and they did according to Moses commandement.

7 And the Lord spake vnto Aaron, saying, Thou shalt not drinke wine nor strong drinke, thou nor thy sonnes with thee, when ye come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest ye die: this an ordinance for euer thorowout your generations.

8 That ye may put difference betweene the holy and the vnholy, and betweene the cleane and the vncleane.

9 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath commanded them by the hand of Moses.

10 Then Moses said vnto Aaron and vnto
 Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes that were left,
 Take the meat offering that remaineth of the oblation of the Lord, made by fire, and eat it without leuen beside the altar: for it is most holy.

11 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sonnes due, of the offerings of the Lord made by fire: for so I am commanded.

12 Also the shaken breast and the heauy shoulder shall ye eat in a cleane place: thou, and thy son, and thy daughters with thee: for they are given as thy due, and thy sonnes due,
 of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.

13 The heauy shoulder, and the shaken breast that they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat to shake to and fro before the Lord, and it shall be thine and thy sonns with thee by a lawe for euer, as the Lord hath commanded.

14 And Moses sought the goats that was offered for sinne, and lo, it was burnt: therefore he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar the sonnes of Aaron, which were left alive, saying,

15 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the sinne offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy? and God hath giuen it you, to beare the iniquity of the Congregation, to make an attonement for them before the Lord.

16 Beholde, the blood of it was not brought within the holy place: ye should haue eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded.

17 And Aaron said vnto Moses, Behold, this day I haue offered their sinne offering, and their burnt offering before the Lords, and such things as thou knowest are come vnto me. If I had eaten the sinne offering to day, should it haue bene accepted in the sight of the Lord?

18 So when Moses heard it, he was content.

CHAP. XI.

Of beasts, fowles and fishes, which be cleane, and which be vnclane.
 1 After, the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying vnto them,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say,
 These are the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoeuer parteth the hoofe, and is clo-uen footed, and cheweth the cudde among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

4 But of them that chew the cudde, or diuide the hoofe only, of them ye shall not eat: as the camell, because he cheweth the cud, and diuideth not the hoofe, he shall be vnclane vnto you.

5 Likewise the cony, because he cheweth the cudde, and diuideth not the hoofe, he shall be vncleane vnto you.

6 Also the hare, because he cheweth the cud, and diuideth not the hoofe, he shall be vnclane to you.

7 And the swine, because he parteth the hoofe and is cloven footed, but cheweth not the cud, he shall be vnclane to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carkeise shall ye not touch: for they shall be vncleane to you.

9 These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoeuer hath finnes and scales in the waters, in the seas, or in the riuers, them shall ye eat.

10 But all that haue not finnes nor scales in the waters, & of all liuing things that are in the waters, they shall be an abomination vnto you.

11 They, I say, shall be an abomination to you:

13 These shall ye haue also in abomination among the foules, they shall not be eaten, for they are an abomination, the eagle, and the hawk, and the osprey:

14 Also the vultur, and the kite after his kind,

15 And all rauen after their kinde.

16 The ostrich also, and the night-crow, and the seamew, and the hawke after his kinde:

17 The little owle also, and the stormorant, and the great owle:

18 Also the red-thanke, and the pelicane, and the swan:

19 The stork also, the heron after his kinde, and the lapwing, and the bakke:

20 Also euery foule that creepeth and goeth vpon all foure, such shall be an abomination vnto you.

21 Yet these shall ye eate: of euery foule that creepeth, and goeth vpon all foure which haue their feet and legs all of one to leape withall vpon the earth,

22 Of them ye shall eate these, the grasshopper after his kind, and the sole after his kind, the hargol after his kind, & the hargol after his kind.

23 But all other foules that creepe and haue foure feet, they shall be abomination vnto you.

24 For by such ye shall be polluted: whosoever toucheth their carkeis, shall be vnclane vnto the evening.

25 Whosoever also beareth of their carkeis, shall wash his clothes, & be vnclane vntill euen.

26 Euery beast that hath clawes diuided, and is not cloven footed, not chaweth the cud, such shall be vnclane vnto you: euery one that toucheth them, shall be vnclane.

27 And whatsoever goeth vpon his pawes among all manner beasts that goeth on all foure, such shall be vnclane vnto you: who so doth touch their carkeis, shall be vnclane vntill the euen.

28 And hee that beareth their carkeis, shall wash his clothes, and be vnclane vntill the euen: for such shall be vnclane vnto you.

29 Also these shall be vnclane to you among the things that creepe and moue vpon the earth, the weasell, and the mouse, and the frog, after his kinde:

30 Also the rat, and the lizard, and the chameleon, and the stellio, and the melle.

31 These shall be vnclane to you among all that creepe: whosoever doeth touch them when they be dead, shall be vnclane vntill the euen.

32 Also whatsoever any of the dead carkeises of them doth fall vpon, shall be vnclane, whether it be vessell of wood, or rayment, or skinne, or sacke: whosoever vessell it be that is occupied, it shall be put in the water as vnclane vntill the euen, and it shall be purified.

33 But euery earthen vessell, wherein any of them falleth, whatsoever is within it shall be vnclane, and ye shall breake it.

34 All meate also that shall be eaten, if any such vassel come vpon it, shall be vnclane: and all drinke that shall be drunke in all such vessells shall be vnclane.

35 And euery thing that their carkeis fall vpon, shall be vnclane: the forme or the pot shall be broken: for they are vnclane, and shall be vnclane vnto you.

36 Yet the fontaines and welles where there is plentie of water shall be cleane: but that which toucheth their carkeises, shall be vnclane.

37 And if there fall of their dead carkeis vpon any feede, which vnto be sown, it shall be vnclane.

38 But if any water be powred vpon the feede, and there fall of their dead carkeis thereon, it shall be vnclane vnto you.

39 If also any beast, whereof ye may eate, die, hee that toucheth the carkeis thereof, shall be vnclane vntill the euen.

40 And he that eateth of the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vnclane vntill the euen: hee also that beareth the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vnclane vntill the euen.

41 Euery creeping thing therefore that creepeth vpon the earth, shall be an abomination, and not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth vpon the breast, and whatsoever goeth vpon all foure, or that hath many feet among all creeping things that creepe vpon the earth, ye shall not eate of them, for they shall be abomination.

43 Ye shall not pollute your selues with any thing that creepeth, neither make your selues vnclane with them, neither defile your selues thereby: ye shall not, I say, be defiled by them:

44 For I am the Lord your God: be sanctified therefore, and be holy, for I am holy, and defile not your selues with any creeping thing that creepeth vpon the earth.

45 For I am the Lord that brought you out of the land of Egypt, to bee your God, and that you should be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of beasts, and of foules, and of euery living thing that moueth in the waters, and of euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth:

47 That there may bee a difference betweene the vnclane and cleane, and betweene the beast that may bee eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

CHAP. XII.

1 A law how women should be purged after their deliuerance.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, When a woman hath brought fourth feede, and borne a man childe, she shall be vnclane seven dayes, like as she is vnclane when she is put apart for her disease.

3 And in the eighth day the foreskin of the child shall be circumcised.

4 And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty dayes: she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the Sanctuary, vntill the time of her purifying be out.

5 But if she beare a maid child, then she shall be vnclane two weekes, as when she hath her disease: and shee shall continue in the blood of her purifying threecore and sixe dayes.

6 Now when the dayes of her purifying are out (whether it be for a sonne or for a daughter) she shall bring to the Priest a lambe of one yeere olde for a burnt offering, and a yong pigeon or a turtle dowe for a sinne offering, vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation,

7 Who shall offer it before the Lorde, and make an atonement for her: so she shall be purged of the blood of her blood: this is the law for her that hath borne a male or female.

spot is healed, he is cleane, and the Priest shall declare him to be cleane.

38 ¶ Furthermore if there bee many white spots in the skinned of the flesh of man or woman,

39 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat darke and white withall, it is but a white spot broken out in the skinned: therefore he is cleane.

40 And the man whose haire is fallen off his head, and is balde, is cleane.

41 And if his head lose the haire on the forehead, and be balde before, he is cleane.

42 But if there be in the balde head, or in the balde forehead a white reddish fore it is a leprosie springing in his bald head, or in his bald forehead,

43 Therefore the Priest shall looke vpon it, & if the rising of the fore be white reddish in his balde head, or in his balde forehead, appearing like leprosie in the skinned of the flesh,

44 Hee is a leper and vnclane: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him altogether vnclane: for the foresaid in his head.

45 The leper also in whom the plague is, shall haue his clothes rent, and his head bare and shall put a covering vpon his lips, and shall crie, I am vnclane, I am vnclane.

46 As long as the disease shall be vpon him, he shall be polluted, for he is vnclane: he shall dwell alone, without the campe shall his habitation be.

47 ¶ Also the garment that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a woollen garment or a linnen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warpe or in the woofe of linnen or of wollen, either in a skin, or in any thing made of skinned,

49 And if the fore be greene or somewhat reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing that is made of skin, it is a plague of leprosie and shall be shewed vnto the Priest.

50 Then the Priest shall see the plague, and shut vpon it as hath the plague, seven dayes.

51 And shall looke on the plague the seventh day: if the plague grow in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in the skinned, or in any thing that is made of skinned, that plague is a fretting leprosie and vnclane.

52 And hee shall burne the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, whether it be wollen or linnen, or any thing that is made of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie, therefore it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest yet see that the plague grow not in the garment, or in the woofe, or in whatsoever thing of skinned it be,

54 Then the Priest shall commaund them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it vp seven dayes more.

55 Against the Priest shall looke on the plague, after it is washed: and if the plague haue not changed his colour, though the plague spread no further, it is vnclane: thou shalt burne it in the fire, for it is a fret inward, whether the spot be in the bare place of the whole, or in part thereof.

56 And if the Priest see that the plague bee darker, so that it is washed, hee shall cut it out of the garment, or out of the skinned, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appear still in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing made of skin, it is a spreading leprosie: thou shalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

58 If thou hast washed the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, or whatsoever thing of skinned it be, if the plague be departed therefrom, then shall it be washed the second time, and bee cleane.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosie in a garment of wollen or linnen, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing of skinned, to make it cleane or vnclane.

CHAP. XIII.

The cleansing of the leper, 34. And of the house that he is in.

¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, This is the lawe of the leper in the day of his cleansing: that is, hee shall be brought vnto the Priest;

¶ And the Priest shall goe out of the campe, and the Priest shall consider him: and if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper,

¶ Then shall the Priest commaund to take for him that is cleansed, two sparrows alie & cleane, and cedar wood and a skarlet lace, and hyssope;

¶ And the Priest shall commaund to kill one of the birds ouer pure water in an earthen vessel:

¶ After, hee shall take the liue sparrow with the cedar wood, and the skarlet lace, and the hyssope, and shall dip them and the liue sparrow in the blood of the sparrow slaine, ouer the pure water.

¶ And he shall sprinkle vpon him, that must be cleansed of his leprosie, seven times, and cleanse him, and shall let goe the liue sparrow into the broad field.

¶ Then he that shall be cleansed, shall wash his clothes, and shau off all his haire, and wash himselfe in water: so he shall be cleane: after that shall he come into the host, but shall tarie without his tent seven dayes.

¶ So in the seventh day hee shall shau off all his haire both his head and his beard, and his eye browes: euen all his haire shall he shau, and shall wash his clothes and shall wash his flesh in water: so he shall be cleane.

¶ Then in the eighth day he shall take two he lambs without blemish, and an ewe lambe of a yeere old without blemish, and three tenth deales of fine flowre for a meate offering, mingled with oyle, and a pinte of oyle.

¶ And the Priest that maketh him cleane shall bring the man which is to be made cleane, and those things, before the Lord, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

¶ Then the Priest shall take one lambe, and offer him for a trespass offering, and the pinte of oyle, and shall shake them to and fro before the Lord.

¶ And hee shall kill the lambe in the place where the sinne offering and the burnt offering are slaine: euen in the holy place: for as the sinne offering is the priests, so is the trespass offering: for it is most holy.

¶ So the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it vpon the lappe of the right eare of him that shall be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.

¶ The Priest shall also take of the pinte of oyle,

And of the rest of the oyle that is in his hand, shall the Priest put upon the lap of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, & where the blood of the trespass offering was put, shall he follow to sprinkle.
But the remnant of the oyle that is in the Priest's hand, he shall powre upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord.
And the Priest shall offer the same offering, & make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed of his uncleanness, then after shall he kill the burnt offering.
So the Priest shall offer the burnt offering, and the meat offering upon the altar, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him: so he shall be cleane.
But if he be poore, and not able, then he shall bring one lamb for a trespass offering, to be shaken for his reconciliation, and a handful of fine flour mingled with oyle, for a meat offering, which he shall offer.
Also two turtle doves, or two young pigeons, as he is able, whereof the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.
And he shall bring them the eighth day for his cleansing, unto the Priest at the doors of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.
Then the Priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the pigeon, and the oyle, and the Priest shall shake them, so shall he be before the Lord.
And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the lap of his right ear, that is to be cleansed, & upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.
Also the Priest shall pour of the oyle into the palm of his own left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oyle that is in his left hand, seven times before the Lord.
Then the Priest shall put of the oyle that is in his hand, upon the lap of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, & upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering.
But the rest of the oyle that is in the Priest's hand, he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.
Also he shall present one of the turtle doves, or of the young pigeons, as he is able, or one such as he is able, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering, & the Priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the Lord.
This is the law of him which hath the plague of leprosy, who is not able in his cleansing to offer the sacrifice.
The Lord also spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,
When ye be come into the land of Canaan, in which I give you in possession, if I send the plague of leprosy in an house of the land of your possession,

Then he that owneth the house, shall come and tell the Priest, saying, Me thinketh there is like a plague of leprosy in the house.
Then the Priest shall command them to empty the house before the Priest goe into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean, and then shall the Priest goe in to see the house.
And he shall mark the plague: and if the plague be in the walls of the house, and that there be deep spots, greenish or reddish, which seeme to be lower then the wall,
Then the Priest shall goe out of the house to the doors of the house, and shall cause to shute up the house seven dayes.
So the Priest shall come againe the seventh day, and if he see that the plague is increased in the walls of the house,
Then the Priest shall command them to take away the stones wherein the plague is, and they shall cast them into a foule place without the citie.
Also hee shall cause to scrape the house within round about, and powre the dust that they have scraped off, without the citie in an unclean place.
And they shall take other stones, and put them in the places of those stones, and shall take other mortar to plaster the house with.
But if the plague come againe, and breake out in the house, after that hee hath taken away the stones, and after that hee hath scraped and plastered the house,
Then the Priest shall come and see, and if the plague grow in the house, it is a frustrating plague in the house, it is the most unclean place.
And hee shall breake downe the house, with the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house, and hee shall carie them out of the citie unto an unclean place.
Moreover hee shall goe into the house all the while that it is shut up, hee shall be unclean until the evening.
He also that slepeeth in the house shall wash his clothes: hee likewise that eateth in the house, shall wash his clothes.
But if the Priest shall come and see that the plague hath spread no further in the house, after the house be plastered, the Priest shall pronounce that house cleane, for the plague is healed.
Then shall he take to purifie the house two sparrows, and cedar wood, and skarie lace, and hyssope.
And hee shall kill one sparrow over pure water in an earthen vessel, and he shall take the cedar wood, and the skarie lace, and the hyssope, and dip them in the blood of the slain sparrow, and in the pure water, and sprinkle the house seven times.
So shall hee cleanse the house with the blood of the sparrow, and with the pure water, and with the live sparrow, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssope, and with the skarie lace.
Afterward he shall let goe the live sparrow out of the town into the broad fieldes: so shall hee make atonement for the house, and it shall be cleane.

This declareth that no plague nor punishment cometh to man without God's providence and his sending.

CHAP. XV.

1. The manner of purging the vncleane issues both of men and women. 2. The children of Israel must bee separate from all vncleane things.

Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2. Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whosoever hath an issue from his flesh, is vncleane, because of his issue.

3. And this shall be his vncleannesse in his issue, when his flesh annoyeth his issue, or if his flesh be stopped from his issue, this is his vncleannesse.

4. Every bed whereon hee lyeth that hath the issue, shall be vncleane, and every thing whereon he sitteth, shall be vncleane.

5. Whosoever also toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, & wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

6. And he that sitteth on any thing, whereon he hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

7. Also he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

8. If he also, that hath the issue, spit vpon him that is cleane, he shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

9. And what a saddle soeuer he rideth vpon, that hath the issue, shall be vncleane,

10. And whosoever toucheth any thing that was vnder him, shall be vncleane vntill the euen:
and he that beareth those things, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

11. Likewise whomsoever hee toucheth that hath the issue (and hath not washed his hands in water) shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

12. And the vessel of earth that he toucheth, which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13. But if he that hath an issue, be cleansed of his issue, then shall hee count him seven dayes for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in pure water: so shall he be cleane.

14. Then the eighth day he shall take vnto him two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons, and come before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall giue them
vnto the Priest,

15. And the Priest shall make of the one of them a sinne offering, & of the other a burnt offering:
so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord for his issue.

16. Also if any mans issue of seed depart from him, he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.

17. And every garment & every skinne wherupon shall be issue of seede, shall be euen washed with water, and be vncleane vnto the euen.

18. If he that hath an issue of seed, doe lie with a woman, they shall both wash themselves with water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.

19. ¶ Also when a woman shall haue an issue, and her issue in her flesh shall be blood, she shall be put apart seven dayes: and whosoever toucheth her, shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

20. And whatsoever she lieth vpon in her separation, shall be vncleane, and every thing that she sitteth vpon, shall be vncleane.

21. Whosoever also toucheth her bed, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe with water, and shall be vncleane vnto the euen,

22. And whosoever toucheth anything that she sate vpon, shall wash his clothes, & wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vnto the euen:

23. So that whether hee touch her bed, or any thing whereon she hath sit, he shall be vncleane vnto the euen.

24. And if a man lie with her, and the floures of her separation touch him, he shall be vncleane seven dayes, and all the whole bed whereon he li-eth, shall be vncleane.

25. Also when a womans issue of blood runneth long time besides time of her floures, or when she hath an issue, longer then her floures, all the dayes of the issue of her vncleannesse she shall be vncleane, as in the time of her floures.

26. Every bed whereon shee lyeth (as long as her issue lasteth) shall be to her as her bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth vpon, shall be vncleane, as her vncleannesse when she is put apart.

27. And whosoever toucheth these things, shall be vncleane, & shall wash his clothes, & wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vnto the euen.

28. But if she be cleansed of her issue, then shee shall count her seven dayes, and after, she shall be cleane.

29. And in the eighth day shee shall take vnto her two Turtles, or two yong pigeons, and bring them vnto the Priest at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

30. And the Priest shall make of the one a sinne offring, and of the other a burnt offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for her before the Lord, for the issue of her vncleannesse.

31. Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their vncleannesse, that they die not in their vncleannesse, if they defile my Tabernacle that is among them.

32. This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him from whome goeth an issue of seede whereby he is defiled.

33. Also of her that is sicke of her floures, and of him that hath a running issue, whether it be man or woman, and of him that lyeth with her which is vncleane.

4 And bringeth it not vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer an offering vnto the Lord before the Tabernacle of the Lord: blood shalbe imputed vnto that man: he hath shed blood, wherefore that man shall be cut off from among his people.

5 Therefore the children of Israel shal bring their offerings, which they would offer abroad in the field, and present them vnto the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation by the Priest, and offer them for peace offerings vnto the Lord.

6 Then the Priest shall sprinkle the blood vpon the Altar of the Lord before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and burne the fat for a sweet sauour vnto the Lord.

7 And they shall no more offer their offerings vnto devils, after whom they haue gone a whoring: this shalbe an ordinance for ever vnto them in their generations.

8 Also thou shalt say vnto them, Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among them, that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice,

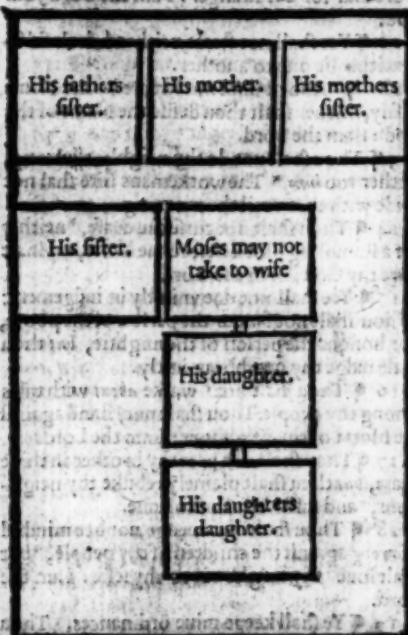

9 And bringeth it not vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer it vnto the Lord, euen that man shalbe cut off from his people.

10 Likewise whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, that eateth any blood, I will euen set my face against that person that eateth blood, & will cut him off from among his people:

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I haue giuen it vnto you to offer vpon the altar, to make an atonement for your soules: for this blood shall make an atonement for the soule.

12 Therefore I said vnto the children of Israel, None of you shal eat blood: neither the stranger

13 Moreover whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, which by hunting taketh any beast or foule that may be eaten, he shall powre out the blood thereof, and couer it with dust:

14 For the life of all flesh is his blood, it is seyned with his life: therefore I said vnto the children of Israel, Yee shall eat the blood of no flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it, shalbe cut off.

15 And euery person that eateth it which dieth alone, or that which is torne with beastes, whether it be one of the same countrey or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen: after he shalbe cleane.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, I am the Lord your God.

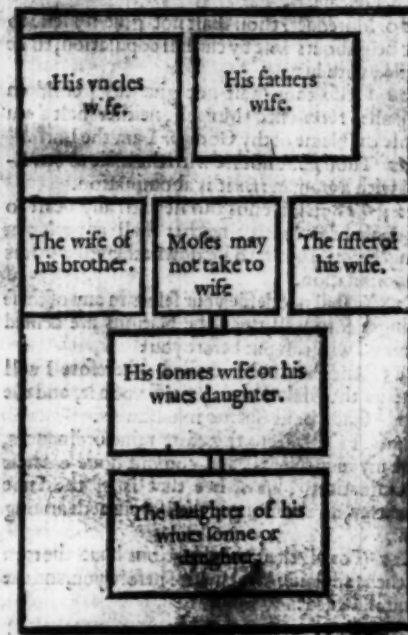

3 After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye now doe: and after the manner of the land of Canaan, whither I will bring you, shall ye not doe, neither walke in their ordinances.

4 But doe after my iudgements, and keepe mine ordinances, to walke therein: I am the Lord your God.

5 Ye shall keepe therefore my statutes, & my iudgements, which if a man doe, he shall then liue in them: I am the Lord.

6 None shall come neere to any of the kindred of his flesh to vncouer her shame: I am the Lord.

7 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy not discover: for it is thy fathers shame.

9 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy father, the daughter of thy father, or the daughter of thy mother, whether she be borne at home, or borne without: thou shalt not discover their shame.

10 The shame of thy sonnes daughter, or of thy daughters daughter, thou shalt not discover:
their shame: for it is thy shame.

11 The shame of thy fathers wives daughter, begotten of thy father (for she is thy sister) thou shalt not discover: her shame.

12 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy fathers sister: for she is thy fathers kinsewo-

13 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy

14 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy

15 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy

16 Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy

17 Thou shalt not discover the shame of the wife and of her daughter, neither shalt thou take her sonnes daughter, nor her daughters daughter, to discover her shame: for they are thy kinsfolks,
and it were wickedness.

18 Also thou shalt not take a wife with her sister, during her life: for it is an uncovering her shame upon her.

19 Thou shalt not also goe unto a woman to uncover her shame, as long as she is put apart for her defilement.

20 Moreover, thou shalt not give thy wife to thy neighbours wife by carnall copulation, to be defiled with her.

21 Also thou shalt not give thy children to offer them unto Molech, neither shalt thou dile the Name of thy God: for I am the Lord.

22 Thou shalt not lie with the male to use it with a woman: for it is abomination.

23 Thou shalt not also lie with any beast to be defiled therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: for it is abomination.

24 Ye shall not defile your selves in any of these things: for in all these the Nations are defiled which I will cast out before you:

25 And the land is defiled: therefore I will visit the wickedness thereof upon it, and the land shall vomit out her inhabitants.

26 Ye shall keep therefore mine ordinances, and my judgements, and commit none of these abominations, as I have said that is of the same kindred, as the things that I have said among you.

27 For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled.

28 And shall not ye thus say you see if ye defile it, as it is said, and the people that were before you?

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, the persons that do so, shall be cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinances, that ye do not any of the abominable customs, which have been done before you, and that ye defile not your selves therein: for I am the Lord your God.

CHAP. XIX.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy: for I the Lord your God am holy.

3 Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father, and shall keep my Sabbaths: for I am the Lord your God.

4 Ye shall not make unto you idols, nor make you molten gods: I am the Lord your God.

5 And when ye shall offer a peace offering unto the Lord, ye shall offer it freely.

6 It shall be even the day ye offer it, or on the morrow: and that which remaineth until the third day, shall be burnt in the fire.

7 For if it be eaten the third day, it shall be vile: for it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore he that eateth it, shall bear his iniquity, because he hath defiled the hallowed thing of the Lord, and that person shall be cut off from his people.

9 When ye reap the harvest of your land, ye shall not reap every corner of your field, neither shall thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 Thou shalt not gather the grapes of thy vineyard, neither gather every grape of thy vineyard, but thou shalt leave them for the poore and for the stranger: I am the Lord your God.

11 Ye shall not steal, neither shall ye deal falsely, neither lie one to another.

12 Also ye shall not swear by my Name falsely, neither shall thou defile the Name of thy God: I am the Lord.

13 Thou shalt not do thy neighbour wrong, neither rob him: the workmans hire shall not abide with thee until the morning.

14 Thou shalt not curse the deafe, neither put a stumbling block before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the Lord.

15 Ye shall not do unrightly in judgement:
Thou shalt not favour the person of the poore, nor honour the person of the mighty, but thou shalt iudge thy neighbour justly.

16 Thou shalt not walk about with tales among thy people, Thou shalt not stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the Lord.

17 Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, but thou shalt plainly rebuke thy neighbour, and suffer him not to sinne.

18 Thou shalt not avenge, nor be minded of wrong against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy selfe: I am the Lord.

19 Ye shall keep mine ordinances. Thou shalt not let thy cattell gender with a heifer of divers kinds, Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed, neither shall a garment of divers things,

7 But when the Sunne is downe, hee shall bee cleane, and shal afterward eat of the holy things: for it is his food.

8 Of a beast that dieth, or is rent with beasts, whereby he may be defiled, he shall not eat: I am the Lord.

9 Let them keepe therefore mine ordinance, lest they beare their iniquitie for it, and die for it, if they defile it: I the Lord sanctifie them.

10 There shall no stranger also eate of the holy thing, neither the guest of the Priest, neither shall an hired seruauent eate of the holy thing:

11 But if the Priest buy any with money, hee shall eate of it; also he that is borne in his house: they shall eate of his meate.

12 If the Priests daughter also be married vnto a stranger, she may not eate of the holy offerings.

13 Notwithstanding if the Priestes daughter be a widow, or diuorced, and haue no child, but is returned vnto her fathers house, she shall eate of her fathers bread, as shee did in her youth: but there shall no stranger eate thereof.

14 If a man eate of the holy thing vniawittingly, hee shall put the sixth part thereunto, and giue it vnto the Priest with the halowed thing.

15 So they shall not defile the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer vnto the Lord.

16 Neither cause the people to beare the iniquitie of their trespass, while they eate their holy thing: for I the Lord doe halow them.

17 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
18 Speake vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his sacrifice for all their vowes, and for all their free offerings, which they vse to offer vnto the Lord for a burnt offering,

19 He shall offer of your free minde a male without blemish of the beemes, of the sheepe, or of the goates.

20 Ye shall not offer any thing that hath a blemish: for that shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whosoever bringeth a peace offering vnto the Lord to accomplish his vow, or for a free offering of the beemes, or of the sheepe, his free offering shall be perfect; no blemish shall be in it.

22 If it be blind, or broken, or maimed, or hauing a wenne, or skirue, or skabbed: these shall ye not offer vnto the Lord, nor make an offering by fire of these vpon the Altar of the Lord.

23 Yet a bullocke, or a sheepe that hath any member superfluous, or lacking: such mayst thou present for a free offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer vnto the Lord that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut away, neither shall ye make an offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither of the hand of a stranger shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these, because their corruption is in them, there is a blemish in them: therefore shall they not be accepted for you.

26 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
27 When a bullocke, or a sheepe, or a goate shall be brought forth, it shall be euen seven daies vnder his damme: and from the eighth day forth it shall be accepted for a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

28 As for the cow or the ewe, ye shall not kill her; and her yong both in one day.

29 So when ye will offer a thanke offering vnto the Lord, ye shall offer willingly.

30 The same day shall it be eaten, ye shall leave none of it to the morow: I am the Lord.

31 Therefore shall ye keepe my Commandments and doe them: for I am the Lord.

32 Neither shall ye pollute my holy Name, but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel. I the Lord sanctifie you, 33 Which haue brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord.

1 The feasts of the Lord. 2 The Sabbath. 3 The Passouer. 4 The feast of vnleavened bread. 5 The feast of first fruits. 6 Whitsouide. 7 The feast of blowing trumpets. 8 The feast of Tabernacles.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel and say vnto them, The feast of the Lord which ye shall call the holy assemblies, euen these are my feasts.

3 Sixe dayes shall worke be done, but in the seventh day shall be the Sabbath of rest; an holy conuocation: ye shall doe no worke therein, it is the Sabbath of the Lord, in all your dwellings.

4 These are the feasts of the Lord, and holy conuocations, which ye shall proclaime in their seasons.

5 In the first moneth, and in the fourteenth day of the moneth at euening shall be the Passouer of the Lord.

6 Add on the fifteenth day of this moneth shall be the feast of vnleavened bread vnto the Lord: seven dayes ye shall eate vnleavened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall haue an holy conuocation: ye shall doe no seruile worke therein.

8 Also ye shall offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord seven dayes, and in the seventh day shall be an holy conuocation: ye shall doe no seruile worke therein.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye be come into the land which I giue vnto you, and reape the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheafe of the first fruits of your harvest vnto the Priest.

11 And hee shall shake the sheafe before the Lord, that it may be acceptable for you: the morrow after the Sabbath, the Priest shall shake it.

12 And that day when ye shake the sheafe, shall ye prepare a lambe without blemish of a yeere olde, for a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

13 And the meate offering thereof shall be two tenth deales of fine flour mingled with oyle, for a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord of sweet sauour: and the drinke offering thereof the fourth part of an Hin of wine.

14 And ye shall eate neither bread nor parched corne, nor greene eares vntill the selfe same day that ye haue brought an offering vnto your God: this shall be a Law for euer in your generations and in all your dwellings.

15 Ye shall count also to you from the morrow after the Sabbath, euen from the day that ye shall bring the sheafe of the shake offering, seven Sabbaths, they shall be complete.

16 Vnto the morrow after the seventh Sabbath shall ye number fiftie dayes: then ye shall bring a new

13 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

14 Bring the blasphemer without the hoste, and let all that heard him, put their handes vpon his head, and let all the Congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God, shall beare his sinne.

16 And hee that blasphemeth the Name of the Lord, shall be put to death: all the Congregation shall stone him to death: aswell the stranger, as he that is borne in the land: when hee blasphemeth the Name of the Lord, let him be slaine.

17 ¶ He also that killeth any man, he shall be put to death.

18 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it, þ beast for beast.

19 Also if a man cause any blemish in his neighbour: as hee hath done, so shall it bee done to him.

20 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: such a blemish as thee hath made in any, such shall be done to him.

21 ¶ And he that killeth a beast, shall restore it: but he that killeth a man, shall be slaine.

22 Ye shall haue one law: it shall be aswell for the stranger as for one borne in the countrey, for I am the Lord your God.

23 ¶ Then Moses told the children of Israel, and they brought the blasphemer out of the hoste, and stoned him with stones: so the children of Israel did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

CHAP. XXV.

The Sabbath of the seventh yeere, 8 The Iubile in the fiftieth yeere, 14 Not to oppress their brethermen, 23 The sale and redemption of lands, houses and persons.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

24 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When yee shall come into the land which I giue you, the land shall keepe Sabbath vnto the Lord.

25 Sixe yeeres thou shalt sowe thy field, and sixe yeeres thou shalt cut thy vineyard, and gather the fruit thereof.

26 But the seventh yeere shall bee a Sabbath of rest vnto the land: it shall bee the Lords Sabbath: thou shalt neither sow thy field nor cut thy vineyard.

27 That which groweth of it owne accord of thy haruest, thou shalt not reape; neither gather the grapes that thou hast left vnlaboured: for it shall be a yeere of rest vnto the land.

28 And the rest of the land shall be meat for you, euen for thee and for thy seruante, and for thy maid, and for thy hired seruante, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee:

29 And for thy cattell, and for the beasts that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof bee meate.

30 ¶ Also thou shalt number seuen Sabbaths of yeeres vnto thee, euen seuen times seuen yeere: and the space of the seuen Sabbaths of yeeres will be vnto thee nine and fourtie yeere.

9 ¶ Then thou shalt cause to blow the trumpet of the Iubile in the tenth day of the seventh moneth: euen in the day of the reconciliation shall ye make the trumpet blowes throughout all your land.

10 And yee shall halow that yeere, euen the fiftieth yeere, and proclaime libertie in the land to all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be the Iubile vnto you, and ye shall returne every man vnto his possession, and every man shall returne vnto his family.

11 This fiftieth yeere shall be a yeere of Iubile vnto you: yee shall not sowe, neither reape that which groweth of it selfe, neither gather the grapes thereof that are left vnlaboured.

12 For it is the Iubile, it shall bee holy vnto you: yee shall eate of the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the yeere of this Iubile, yee shall returne every man vnto his possession.

14 And when thou sellest ought to thy neighbour, or buyest at thy neighbours hand, yee shall not oppress one another:

15 But according to the number of yeeres after the Iubile, thou shalt buy of thy neighbour: also according to the number of the yeeres of the reuennue, he shall sell vnto thee.

16 According to the multitude of yeeres, thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewnesse of yeeres thou shalt abate the price of it: for the number of fruits doth he sell vnto thee.

17 Oppresse not yee therefore any man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore yee shall obey mine ordinances, and keepe my lawes, and doe them, and ye shall dwell in the land in safetie.

19 And the land shall giue her fruit, and yee shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safetie.

20 And if yee shall say, What shall we eat the seventh yeere, for we shall not sowe, nor gather in our increase?

21 I will send my blessing vpon you in the sixth yeere, and it shall bring forth fruit for three yeeres.

22 And ye shall sowe the eighth yeere, and eate of the old fruit vntill the ninth yeere: vntill the fruit thereof come, ye shall eat the old.

23 ¶ Also the land shall not be sold to be cut off from the family: for the land is mine, and yee be but strangers and sojourners with me.

24 Therefore in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 ¶ If thy brother be impouershed, and sell his possession, then his redeemer shall come, euen his neere kinsleman, and buy out that which his brother sold.

26 And if hee haue no redeemer, but hath gotten and found to buy it out,

27 Then shall he count the yeeres of his sale, and restore the ouerplus to the man to whom he sold it: so shall he returne to his possession.

28 But if hee cannot get sufficient to restore to him, then that which is sold, shall remaine in the hande of him that hath bought it, vntill the yeere of the Iubile: and in the Iubile it shall come out, and hee shall returne vnto his possession.

29 Likewise if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled citie, he may buy it out againe within a whole

30 But if it be not bought out within the space of a full yeere, then the house that is in the walled cite, shall be established, as cut off from the family: to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not goe out in the Iubile.

31 But the houses of villages which have no walles round about them, shall be esteemed as the field of the countrey: they may be bought out againe, and shall goe out in the Iubile.

32 Notwithstanding the cities of the Leuites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Leuites redeeme at all seasons.

33 And if a man purchase of the Leuites, the house that was sold, and the cite of their possession shall goe out in the Iubile: for the houses of the cities of the Leuites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the fields of the suburbs of their cities shall not be sold: for it is their perpetual possession.

35 Moreover, if thy brother bee impoverished, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt relieve him, and as a stranger and sojourner, so shall he live with thee.

36 Thou shalt take no vray of him, nor vengeance, but thou shalt feare thy God: that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not begin him thy money to vsure, nor lend him thy vitales for increase.

38 I am the Lord your God, which have brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 If thy brother also that dwelleth by thee bee impoverished, and bee blinde vnto thee, thou shalt not compell him to serue as a bond seruant.

40 But as an hired seruant, and as a sojourner he shall be with thee: he shall serue thee vnto the yeere of Iubile.

41 Then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall returne vnto his family, and vnto the possession of his fathers shall he returne.

42 For they are my seruants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen are sold.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him cruelly, but thou shalt feare thy God.

44 Thy bondseruant also, and thy bondmaid, which thou shalt haue, shall be of the heathen that are round about you: of them shall ye buy seruants and maids.

45 And moreover, of the children of the strangers that are sojourners among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begate in your land: these shall be your possession.

46 So ye shall take them, as inheritance for your children after you to possesse them by inheritance: ye shall vse their labours for euer: but ouer your brethren, the children of Israel ye shall not rule one ouer another with cruelty.

47 If a sojourner or a stranger dwelling by thee get rich, and thy brother by him bee impoverished, and sell himselfe vnto the stranger or sojourner dwelling by thee, or to the stocke of the strangers family,

48 After that he is sold, he may be bought out: one of his brethren may buy him out.

49 Or his vncle, or his vncles sonne may buy him out, or any of the kindred of his flesh among his familie, may redeeme him: either if hee can get so much, he may buy himselfe out.

50 Then he shall reckon with his buyer from the yeere that he was sold to him, vnto the yeere of Iubile: and the money of his sale shall be according to the number of yeeres: according to the time of an hired seruant shall he be with him.

51 If there be many yeeres behind, according to them shall hee giue againe for his deliuerance, of the money that he was bought for.

52 If there remaine but fewe yeeres vnto the yeere of Iubile, then he shall count with him, and according to his yeeres giue againe for his redemption.

53 Hee shall bee with him yeere by yeere as an hired seruant: hee shall not rule cruelly ouer him in thy sight.

54 And if hee bee not redeemed thus, hee shall goe out in the yeere of Iubile, he and his children with him.

55 For vnto me the children of Israel are seruants: they are my seruants whom I haue brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

34 Then shall the land enioy her ^{*} Sabbaths, as long as it lieth void, and ye shall bee in your enemies land: then shall the land rest, and inioy her Sabbaths.

40 Then they shal confesse their iniquitie, and the wickednes of their fathers for their trespass, which they haue trespassed against me, & also because they haue walked stubbornly against me.

8 But if he be poorer then thou hast offered him, then shall he prefer himself before the Priest, and the Priest shall value him according to the ability of him that vowed, so shall the Priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof man bring an offering unto the Lord, all that one giveth of such unto the Lord, shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, nor a bad for a good: and if he change beast for beast, then both this and that, which was changed for it, shall be holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which men doe not offer a sacrifice unto the Lord, hee shall then present the beast before the Priest.

12 And the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad, as thou shalt value it, which is the Priest, so shall it be.

13 But if he will buy it againe, then hee shall give the fifth part of it more above thy valuation.

14 ¶ Also when a man shall dedicate his house to be holy unto the Lord, then the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad, and as the Priest shall price it, so shall the value be.

15 But if he that sanctified it, will redeeme his house, then hee shall give thereunto the fifth part of money more then thy estimation, so it shall be his.

16 If also a man dedicate to the Lord any ground of his inheritance, the shalt thou estimate it according to the seeds thereof, an Homer of barley seede shall be fiftie shekels of silver.

17 If he dedicate his field immediately from the year of Jubile, it shall be worth as thou dost estimate it.

18 But if he dedicate his field after the Jubile, then the Priest shall reckon him the money according to the years that remaine unto the year of Jubile, and it shall be abated by thy estimation.

19 And if hee that dedicated it, will redeeme the field, then hee shall put the fifth part of the price, that thou shalt estimate it at, thereunto, and it shall remaine his.

20 And if hee will not redeeme the field, but the Priest shall sell the field to another man, it shall be redeemed no more.

21 But the field shall be holy to the Lord, when it goeth out in the Jubile, as a field that separates from common use, the possession thereof shall be the Priest.

22 If a man also dedicate unto the Lord a field which has hath bought, which is not of the ground of his inheritance,

23 Then the Priest shall set the price to him, as thou shalt estimate it, unto the year of Jubile, and he shall give the price the same day, as a thing holy unto the Lord.

24 But in the year of Jubile, the field shall returne unto him, of whom it was bought: to him it is, whose inheritance the land was.

25 And all thy valuation shall be according to the shekel of the Sanctuary: a shekel cometh twentieth gerahs.

26 ¶ Notwithstanding the first borne of the beasts because it is the Lords first borne, none shall dedicate such, be it bullocke, or sheepe, for it is the Lords.

27 But if it be an unclean beast, then hee shall redeeme it by thy valuation, and give the fifth part more thereto: and if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 Notwithstanding, nothing separates from the common use that a man doth separate unto the Lord of all that he hath (whether it be man or beast, or land of his inheritance) may be sold nor redeemed: for every thing separate from the common use is most holy unto the Lord.

29 Nothing separate from the common use, which shall be separate from man, shall be redeemed, but die the death.

30 Also all the tyne of the land, both of the seed of the ground, and of the fruite of the trees, is the Lords, in a holy to the Lord.

31 But if a man will redeeme any of his tithes, he shall add the fifth part thereto.

32 And every tithes of bullocke, and of sheepe, and of all that goeth under the trod, the tenth shall be holy unto the Lord.

33 Hee shall not looke if it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: if he change it, both it, and that it was changed withall, shall be holy, and it shall not be redeemed.

THE FOURTH BOOKE of Moses, called * Numbers.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as God hath appointed that his Church in this world shall be under the crosse, both because they should learne not to put their trust in worldly things, and also feele his comfort, when all other helps faileth, he did not straightway bring his people after their departure out of Egypt, into the land which he had promised them: but ledde them to and fro for the space of fourtie yeeres, and kept them in continuall exercise before they enjoyed it, to trie their faith, and so teach them to forget the world, and to depend on him. Which triall did greatly profite to discerne the wicked and the hypocrites, from the faithfull and true servants of God, who served him with pure heart, whereas the other, preferring their carnall affections to Gods glory, and making Religion to serve their purpose, murmured when they lacked to content their lusts, and despised them whom God had appointed rulers over them. By reason whereof they provoked Gods terrible indignation against them, and are set forth as a most notable example for all ages, to beware how they abuse Gods word, professe their owne lusts to his will, or despise his misersers. Notwithstanding, God is ever true to his promise, and governeth his by his holy Spirit, that either they fall not to such iniquities, or else returne to him quickly by true repentance: and therefore hee continueth his grace toward them, hee giveth them ordinances and instructions, as well for Religion, as for civill policie.

he prepereth them against all craft and conspiracie, and giueth them manifolde victories against their enemies. And to auerayd all controuersies that might arise, he taketh away the occasions, by diuiding among all the tribes, both the land which they had wonne, and that also which he had promised, as firmed best to his godly wisdoms.

CHAP. I.

2 Moses and Aaron with the twelve princes of the tribes are com-

3 The Levites are exempted for the service of the Lord.

In this place there were some pillars of silver, which were with the rest, where the curtains were hung to inclose the Court in the West end. The covering in was of the South end right at it there hangings, and a hanging of twelve cubits long, fastened to four pillars. In the hanging of the hanging there were two rows of five cubits in length, which were fastened to the side of the hanging to three pillars, and on the other side to as many in the figure thereof.

39 The number of them also of the tribe of Dan was threescore and two thousand, and seven hundred.

44 These are the summes which Moses, and Aaron numbered, and the Princes of Israel, the twelve men which were every one for the house of their fathers.

46 And all they were in number five hundred and three thousand five hundred and fiftie.

47 But the Levites, after the tribes of their fathers were not numbered among them.

48 For the Lord had spoken vnto Moses, and sayd,

49 Onely thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the summe of them among the children of Israel:

50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the testimony, and over all the instruments thereof, and over all things that belong so it: they shall beare the Tabernacle, and all the instruments thereof, and shall minister in it, and shall dwell round about the Tabernacle.

51 And when the Tabernacle goeth forth, the Levites shall take it downe: and when the Tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: for the stranger that cometh neere, shall be slaine.

54 So the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.

31 All the number of the hoste of Dan was an hundred and seven and fiftie thousand and fixe hundred: they shall go hindmost with their standers.

32 ¶ These are the summes of the children of Israel by the houses of their fathers, all the number of the hoste, according to their armies, fixe hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fiftie.

33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

34 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so they pitched according to their standers, and so they journeyed every one with his families, according to the houses of their fathers.

CHAP. III.

6 The charge and office of the Levites. 35-47 Why the Lord separated the Levites for himselfe. 36 Their number, families, and captaines. 40 The first borne of Israel is redeemed by the Levites. 47 The overplus is redeemed by money.

These also were the generations of Aaron & Moses, in the day that the Lord spake with Moses in mount Sinai.

1 So these are the names of the sonnes of Aaron, Nadab the first borne, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 These are the names of the sonnes of Aaron the appointed Priests, whom Moses did consecrate to minister in the Priests office.

3 And Nadab and Abihu died before the Lord, when they offered strange fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai, and had no children: but Eleazar and Ithamar served in the Priests office in the sight of Aaron their father.

4 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

5 Bring the tribe of Levi, and set them before Aaron the Priest that they may serve him,

6 And take the charge with him, even the charge of the whole Congregation, before the Tabernacle of the Congregation to doe the service of the Tabernacle.

7 They shall also keepe all the instruments of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & have the charge of the children of Israel to doe the service of the Tabernacle.

8 And thou shalt give the Levites vnto Aaron and to his sonnes: for they are given him freely from among the children of Israel.

9 And thou shalt appoint Aaron & his sons to execute their Priests office: and the stranger that cometh neere, shall be slaine.

10 ¶ Also the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

11 Behold, I have even taken the Levites from among the children of Israel: for all the first borne that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine,

12 Because all the first borne are mine: for the same day, that I smote all the first borne in the land of Egypt, I sanctified vnto mee all the first borne in Israel, both man and beast: mine shall they be: I am the Lord.

13 Moreover, the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

14 Number the children of Levi after the houses of their fathers, in their families: every male from a moneth olde and above shalt thou number.

15 Then Moses numbered them according to the word of the Lord, as he was commanded.

16 And these were the sonnes of Levi by their names, Gerson, and Kohath, and Merari.

17 Also these are the names of the sonnes of Gerson by their families: Libni and Shimei.

41 And thou shalt take the Leuites to mee for all the first borne of the children of Israel (I am the Lord) and the cattell of the Leuites for all the first borne of the cattell of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbred, as the Lord commanded him, all the first borne of the children of Israel.

43 And all the first borne males rehearsed by name (from a moneth old and aboue) according to their number were two and twentie thousand, two hundred seuentie and three.

44 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

45 Take the Leuites for all the first borne of the children of Israel, and the cattell of the Leuites for their cattell, and the Leuites shall be mine, (I am the Lord)

46 And for the redeeming of the two hundred seuentie and three, (which are more then the Leuites) of the first borne of the children of Israel,

47 Thou shalt also take five shekels for every person: after the weight of the Sanctuary shalt thou take it: the shekel containeth twenty gerahs.

48 And thou shalt giue the money, wherewith the odde number of them is redeemed, vnto Aaron and to his sonnes.

49 Thus Moses tooke the redemption of them that were redeemed, being more then the Leuites:

50 Of the first borne of the children of Israel tooke he the money: even a thousand three hundred threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

51 And Moses gaue the money of them that were redeemed, vnto Aaron and to his sonnes according to the word of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

19 Then they shall take a cloth of blew silke, and couer the candlestick of light with his lampes and his sinners, and his sinners, and all the oyle vessels thereof, which they occupie about it.

20 So they shall put it, and all the instruments thereof in a couering of badgers skinned, and put it vpon the barres.

21 Also vpon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blew silke, and couer it with a couering of badgers skins, and put to the barres thereof.

22 And they shall take all the instruments of the ministry wherewith they minister in the Sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blew silke, and couer them with a couering of badgers skinned, and put them on the barres.

23 Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth vpon it.

24 And shall put vpon it all the instruments thereof, which they occupie about it, the censers, the flesh hooks, and the besomes, and the basins, turn all the instruments of the altar: and they shall spread vpon it a couering of badgers skins, and put to the barres of it.

25 And when Aaron and his sonnes haue made an ende of couering the Sanctuary, and all the instruments of the Sanctuary, at the removing of the host, afterward the sonnes of Kohath shall come to beare it, but they shall not touch any holy thing lest they die. This is the charge of the sonnes of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

26 And to the office of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest pertaineth the oyle for the light, and the sabbath sabbath, and the dayly meate offering, and the sin offering, and the oversight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is, both in the Sanctuary, and in all the instruments thereof.

27 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

28 Ye shall not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Leuites:

29 But thus do vnto them that they may liue and not die, when they come neere to the most holy things: let Aaron and his sonnes come and appoynt them, euery one to his office, and to his charge.

30 But let them not goe in, to see when the Sanctuary is folden vp, lest they die.

31 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

32 Take also the summe of the sonnes of Gershon, euery one by the houses of their fathers, throughout all their families:

33 From thirtie yeere old and above, vntil fiftie yeere old shalt thou number them, all that enter into the assembly for to do seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

34 This shall be the seruice of the families of the Gershonites to serue and to beare.

35 They shall beare the curtains of the Tabernacle, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, his couering, and the couering of badgers skinned, that is on high vpon it, and the vail of the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

36 The curtains also of the court, & the vail of the entring in of the gate of the court, which is neere the Tabernacle and neere the altar round about, with their cords, and all the instruments for their seruice, and all that is made for them, shall they serue.

37 At the commandement of Aaron and his sonnes shall all the seruice of the sonnes of the Gershonites be done in all their charges, and in all their seruice, and ye shall appoynt them to keep all their charges.

38 This is the seruice of the families of the sonnes of the Gershonites in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and their watch shall be vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.

39 Thou shalt number the sonnes of Merari by their families, and by the houses of their fathers.

40 From thirtie yeere old and above, even vnto fiftie yeere old shalt thou number them, all that enter into the assembly, to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

41 And this is their office, and charge according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: the boards of the Tabernacle with the barres thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets,

42 And the pillars round about the court, with their sockets and their pinnes, and their cords with all their instruments, even for all their seruice: & by name ye shall reckon the instruments of their office and charge.

43 This is the seruice of the families of the sonnes of Merari, according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.

44 Then Moses and Aaron and the Princes of the Congregation numbred the sonnes of the Kohathites, by their families and by the houses of their fathers, 45 From thirtie yeere olde and above, even vnto fiftie yeere old, all that enter into the assembly for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

46 So the numbers of them throughout their families were two thousand, seven hundred and fiftie.

47 These are the numbers of the families of the Kohathites, all that serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

1. Then shall the man bring his wife to the Priest, and bring her offering with her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal, as he shall appoint, and lay it upon it, nor put incense thereon, for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering for a remembrance, calling the sinne to a mind.

4. After the Priest shall set the woman before the Lord, and uncover the womans head, and put the offering of the memoriall in her handes, it is the jealousie offering, and the Priest shall have bitter and cursed water in his hand.

5. And the Priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lien with thee, neither thou hast turned to uncleanness from thine husband, and be free from this bitter and cursed water.

6. But if thou hast turned from thine husband, and so are defiled, and some man hath lien with thee besides thine husband,

7. Then the Priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the Priest shall say unto the woman, The Lord maketh thee to be accursed, and miserable, for thou hast turned to uncleanness from thine husband, and thy belly shall swell, and thy thigh shall rot, and thy belly to swell.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
 2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When a man or a woman doth separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate himself vnto the Lord,

3 Hee shall abstaine from wine and strong drinke, and shall drinke no fowre wine nor fowre drinke, nor shall drinke any licour of grapes, neither shall eat flesh grapes nor dried.

4 As long as his abstinence endureth, shall he eat nothing that is made of the wine of the vine, neither the kernels nor the huske.

5 While he is separated by his vow, the razor shall not come vpon his head, vntill the dayes be out, in the which he separateth himself vnto the Lord, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the haire of his head grow.

6 During the time that he separateth himself vnto the Lord, he shall come as no dead body.

7 He shall not make himself vnleane at the death of his father or mother, brother, or sister: for the consecration of his God is vpon his head.

8 All the dayes of his separation hee shall be holy to the Lord.

9 And if any die suddenly by him, or he be ware, then the head of his consecration shall be defiled, and he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing: in the seventh day he shall shawe it.

10 And in the eighth day hee shall bring two turtles, or two yong pigeons to the Priest, at the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation.

11 Then the Priest shall prepare the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and shall make an atonement for him, because he sinned by the dead: so shall he hallow his head the same day.

12 And he shall consecrate vnto the Lord the dayes of his separation, and shall bring a lambe of a yeere olde for a trespass offering, and the first dayes shall be void: for his consecration was defiled.

13 ¶ This then is the lawe of the Nazarite: When the time of his consecration is out, he shall come to the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation,

14 And hee shall bring his offering vnto the Lord, an hee lambe of a yeere old without blemish, for a burnt offering, and a shee lambe of a yeere old without blemish for a sinne offering, and a ram without blemish, for peace offerings,

15 And a basket of vnleavened bread, of cakes of fine floure, mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleavened bread anointed with oyle, with their meat offering, and their drinke offerings:

16 The which the Priest shall bring before the Lord, and make his sin offering and his burnt offering.

17 Hee shall prepare also the ram for a peace offering vnto the Lord, with the basket of vnleavened bread, and the Priest shall make his meat offering, and his drinke offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall shawe the head of his consecration at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & shall take the haire of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire which is vnder the peace offering.

19 Then the Priest shall take the shoulder of the ramme, and an vnleavened cake of the basket, and a wafer vnleavened.

upon the hands of the Nazarite, after hee hath shaven his consecration.

20 And the Priest shall shake them to and fro before the Lord: this is an holy thing for the Priest // beside the shaken breast, and besides the heave shoulder: so afterward the Nazarite may drinke wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite, which he hath vowed, and of his offering vnto the Lord for his consecration, besides that that he is able to bring: according to the vow which he vowed, so shall he do after the law of his consecration.

22 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Speake vnto Aaron and to his sonnes, saying, Thus shall ye blesse the children of Israel, and say vnto them,

24 The Lord blesse thee, and keepe thee,

25 The Lord make his face shine vpon thee, and be mercifull vnto thee, 26 The Lord lift vp his countenance vpon thee, and giue thee peace.

27 So they shall put my Name vpon the children of Israel, and I will blesse them.

¶ The heads or princes of Israel offer at the setting up of the Tabernacle, 20 And at the dedication of the Altar. By God speake vnto Moses from the Mercies seat.

NOW when Moses had finished the setting up of the Tabernacle, and anointed it and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, and the altar with all the instruments thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them,

2 Then the princes of Israel, heads ouer the houses of their fathers, (they were the princes of the tribes, who were ouer them that were numbered) offered,

3 And brought their offering before the Lord, six covered charrets, and twelue oxen: one charret for two princes, and for every one an ox, and they offered them before the Tabernacle.

4 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

5 Take these of them, that they may be to doe the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt giue them vnto the Leuites, to euery man according vnto his office.

6 So Moses tooke the charrets and the oxen, and gaue them vnto the Leuites:

7 Two charrets and foure oxen he gaue to the sonnes of Gershon according vnto their office.

8 And foure charrets, and eight oxen he gaue to the sonnes of Merari, according vnto their office, vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.

9 But to the sonnes of Kohath he gaue none, because the charge of the Sanctuary belonged to them, which they did beare vpon their shoulders.

10 ¶ The princes also offered in the dedication for the altar in the day that it was anointed: then the princes offered their offering before the altar.

11 And the Lord said vnto Moses, One prince one day, and another prince another day, shall offer their offering, for the dedication of the altar.

12 ¶ So then the first day did Nabshon the sonne of Aminadab of the tribe of Iudah offer his offering.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The order of the lamps. 2 The purifying and offering of the Leuites. 3 The age of the Leuites when they are received to service, and when they are dismissed.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 Speake vnto Aaron, and say vnto him, When thou lightest the lampes, the seven lampes shal giue light toward the forefront of the Candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so, lighting the lampes thereof toward the forefront of the Candlestick, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

4 And this was the worke of the Candlestick, even of gold beaten out with the hammer, both the shaft, and the flower thereof was beaten out with the hammer: according to the paterne which the Lord had shewed Moses, so made hee the Candlestick.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

6 Take the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and purifie them.

7 And thus shalt thou doe vnto them, when thou purifiest them, Sprinkle water of purification vpon them, & let them shauē all the flesh, and wash their clothes: so they shall be cleane.

8 Then they shall take a young bullock with his meate offering of fine flowre, mingled with oyle, and another yong bullocke shalt thou take for a sinne offering.

9 Then thou shalt bring the Leuites before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and assemble all the Congregation of the children of Israel.

10 Thou shalt bring the Leuites also before the Lorde, and the children of Israel shall put their hands vpon the Leuites.

11 And Aaron shall offer the Leuites before the Lord, as a shake offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the seruice of the Lord.

12 And the Leuites shal put their hands vpon the heads of the bullocks, and make thou the one a sinne offering, and the other a burnt offering vnto the Lorde, that thou mayest make an attonement for the Leuites.

13 And thou shalt set the Leuites before Aaron and before his sonnes, and offer them as a shake offering to the Lord.

14 Thus thou shalt separate the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and the Leuites shal be mine.

15 And afterward shall the Leuites go in, to serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt purifie them & offer them, as a shake offering.

16 For they are freely giuen vnto me from among the children of Israel, for such as open any wombe: for all the first borne of the children of Israel haue I taken them vnto me.

17 ¶ For all the first borne of the children of Israel are mine, both of man and beast: since the day that I smote every first borne in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for my selfe.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the first borne of the children of Israel,

19 And have given the Levites as a gift vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes from among the children of Israel to doe the seruice of the children of Israel in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel, that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come neere vnto the Sanctuary.

20 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and all the Congregation of the children of Israel did with the Levites, according vnto all that the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Levites: so did the children of Israel vnto them.

21 So the Levites were purified, and washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a shake offering before the Lord, and Aaron made an atonement for them, to purifie them.

22 And after that, when the Levites in 20 doe their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before Aaron and before his sonnes: as the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did vnto them.

23 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 This also amongst the Levites: from five and twentie yeere old and vpward, they shall goe in, to execute their office in the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

25 And after the age of fiftie yeeres, they shall cease from executing the office, and shall serue no more.

26 But they shall minister with their brethren in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to keepe things committed to their charge, but they shall doe no seruice: thus shalt thou doe vnto the Levites touching their charge.

CHAP. IX.

¶ The Passouer is commanded againe. 13. The punishment of him that keepeth not the Passouer. 15. The cloud conducteth the Israelites through the wilderness.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first moneth of the second yere, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

1 The children of Israel shall also celebrate the Passouer at the time appointed thereunto.

2 In the fourteenth day of this moneth at even ye shall keepe it in his due season: according to all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall ye keepe it.

3 Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, to celebrate the Passouer.

4 And they kept the Passouer in the fourteenth day of the first moneth at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 ¶ And certain men were defiled by a dead man, that they might not keepe the Passouer the same day: and they came before Moses before Aaron the same day.

6 And those men said vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept backe that we may not offer an offering vnto the Lord in the time: whereunto appointed among the children of Israel?

7 ¶ Then Moses said vnto them, Stand still, and I will heare what the Lord will command concerning you.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If any among you, or of your posteritie shall be vnclene by the reason of a corpse, or be in a long journey, he shall keepe the Passouer vnto the Lord.

11 In the fourteenth day of the second moneth at even they shall keepe it: with vnleavened bread, and sowe hearbes shall they eate it.

12 They shall leaue none of it vnto the morning, nor breake any bone of it: according to all the ordinance of the Passouer shall they keepe it.

13 But the man that is cleane and is not in a journey, & is negligent to keepe the Passouer, the same person shall be cut off from his people: because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his due season, that man shall beare his sinne.

14 And if a stranger dwell among you, & will keepe the Passouer vnto the Lord, as the ordinance of the Passouer, and as the manner thereof is, so shall he doe: ye shall haue one law both for the stranger, and for him that was borne in the same land.

15 ¶ And when the Tabernacle was reared vp, a cloud covered the Tabernacle, namely, the Tabernacle of the Testimony: and at even there was vpon the Tabernacle, as the appearance of fire vntill morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken vp from the Tabernacle, then afterward the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandement of the Lord the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandement of the Lord they pitched: as long as the cloud abode vpon the Tabernacle, they lay still.

19 And when the cloud taried still vpon the Tabernacle a long time, the children of Israel kept the watch of the Lord, and journeyed not.

20 So when the cloud abode a few dayes vpon the Tabernacle, they abode in their tents according to the commandement of the Lord: for they journeyed at the commandement of the Lord.

21 And though the cloud abode vpon the Tabernacle from even vnto the morning, yet if the cloud was taken vp in the morning, then they journeyed: whether by day or by night the cloud was taken vp, then they journeyed.

22 Or if the cloud taried two dayes, or a moneth, or a yere vpon the Tabernacle abiding thereon, the children of Israel abode still, and journeyed not: but when it was taken vp, they journeyed.

23 At the commandement of the Lord they pitched, and at the commandement of the Lord they journeyed, keeping the watch of the Lord at the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

11 And in the second yeere, in the second moneth, and in the twentieth day of the moneth, the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle of the Testimonie.

12 And the children of Israel departed on their journeys out of the desert of Sinai, and the cloude rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 So they first tooke their journey at the commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

14 ¶ Itt the first place went the standard of the hoste of the children of Iudah according to their armies: and Nahshon the sonne of Amminadab was ouer his band.

15 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the sonne of Zuar.

16 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the sonne of Helon.

17 When the Tabernacle was taken downe, then the sonnes of Gershon and the sons of Merari went forward bearing the Tabernacle.

18 ¶ After, departed the standard of the hoste of Reuben, according to their armies, and ouer his band was Eliazur the sonne of Shedeur.

19 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the sonne of Zurishaddai.

20 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the sonne of Deuel.

21 The Kohathites also went forward and bare the Sanctuary, and the former did set vp the Tabernacle against they came.

22 ¶ Then the standard of the hoste of the children of Ephraim went forward according to their armies, and ouer his band was Elishama the sonne of Ammiud.

23 And ouer the band of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh was Gamliel the sonne of Pedazur.

24 And ouer the band of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin was Abidan the sonne of Gideoni.

25 ¶ Last, the standard of the hoste of the children of Dan marched, gathering all the hostes according to their armies: and ouer his band was Ahiezer the sonne of Ammishaddai.

26 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the sonne of Ocran.

27 And ouer the band of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the sonne of Enan.

28 ¶ These were the remoouings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they marched.

29 ¶ After, Moses saide vnto Hobab the sonne of Reuel the Midianite, the father in law of Moses, We goe into the place, of which the Lord said, I will giue it you. Come thou with vs, and we will doe thee good: for the Lord hath promised good vnto Israel.

30 And he answered him, I will not goe: but I will depart to mine owne countrey, and to my kindred.

31 Then he said, I pray thee, leane vs: not: for thou knowest our camping places in the wilderness: therefore thou mayest be our guide.

32 And if thou goe with vs, what goodnesse the Lord shall shew vnto vs, the same will we shewe vnto thee.

33 ¶ So they departed from the mount of the Lord, three dayes journey: and the Arke of the covenant of the Lord went before them in the three dayes journey, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloude of the Lord was vpon them by day, when they went out of the campe.

35 And when the Arke went forward, Moses said, Rise vp Lord, & let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he sayd, Resume, O Lord, to the many thousands of Israel.

CHAP. XI.

When the people became murmurers, it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it, therefore his wrath was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed the vtmost part of the hoste.

2 Then the people cryed vnto Moses: and when Moses prayed vnto the Lord, the fire was quenched.

3 And he called the name of that place Taberah, because the fire of the Lord burnt among the.

4 ¶ And a number of people that was among them, fell a lusting, and turned away, and the children of Israel also wept and sayd, Who shall giue vs flesh to eat?

6 But now our soule is dried away, we can see nothing but this Manna.

8 The people went about and gathered, and ground it in milles, or beat it in morters, and baked it in a cauldron, & made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like vnto the taste of fresh oyle.

9 And when the dew fell downe vpon the hoste in the night, the Manna fell with it.

grievously kindled: also Moses was grieved.

11 And Moses said vnto the Lord, Wherefore hast thou vexed thy servant? and why haue I not found fauour in thy sight, seeing thou hast put the charge of all this people vpon me?

12 Haue I conceived all this people? or haue I begotten them, that thou shouldst say vnto me, Carry them in thy bosome (as a nurse beareth the sucking childe) vnto the land, for the which thou swearst vnto their fathers?

13 Where should I haue flesh to giue vnto all this people? for they weepe vnto me, saying, Giue vs flesh that we may eat.

14 I am not able to beare all this people alone, for it is too heauie for me.

15 Therefore if thou deale thus with mee, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, kill mee, that I behold not my miserie.

16 Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Gather vnto mee seuentie men of the Elders of Israel, whom thou knowest, that they are the Elders of the people, and gouernours ouer them, and bring them vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and let them stand there with thee.

17 And I will come downe, and talke with thee there, and take of the Spirit, which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shall beare the burthen of the people with thee: so thou shalt not beare it alone.

18 Furthermore thou shalt say vnto the people, I Re sanctified against to morow, and ye shall eat flesh: for you haue wept in the eares of the Lord, saying, Who shall giue vs flesh to eat? for we were better in Egypt: therefore the Lord will giue you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day nor two dayes, nor five dayes, neither ten dayes, nor twenty dayes,

20 But a whole moneth, vntill it come out at your nostrils, and be loathsome vnto you, because ye haue contemned the Lord, which is among you, and haue wept before him, saying, Why came we hither out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, Sixe hundred thousand footmen are there of the people, among whom I am: and thou sayest, I will giue them flesh, that they may eat a moneth long.

22 Shall the sheepe and the beeces bee slaine for them to finde them? either shall all the fish of the sea bee gathered together for them to suffice them?

23 And the Lord sayde vnto Moses, Is the Lords hand shortened? thou shalt see now whether my worde shall come to passe vnto thee, or no.

24 So Moses went out, and told the people the words of the Lord, and gathered seuentie men of the Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle.

25 Then the Lord came downe in a cloud, and spake vnto him, and tooke of the Spirit that was vpon him, and put it vpon the seuentie Ancient men: and when the Spirit rested vpon them, then they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the hoste; the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit rested vpon them, (for they were of them that were written, and went not out vnto the Tabernacle) and they prophesied in the hoste.

27 Then there ranne a yong man, and tolde Moses, and sayd, Eldad and Medad doe prophesie in the hoste.

28 And Ishaar the sonne of Nun the seruant of Moses one of his yong men answered & said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

29 But Moses sayd vnto him, Enuieest thou for my sake? yea, would God that all the Lords people were Prophets; and that the Lord would put his Spirit vpon them.

30 And Moses returned into the hoste, he and the Elders of Israel.

31 Then there went forth a winde from the Lord, and brought quailles from the Sea, and let them fall vpon the campe, a dayes journey on this side, and a dayes journey on the other side, round about the hoste, and they were about two cubites about the earth.

32 Then the people arose, all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quailles: he that gathered the least, gathered ten Homers full, and they spread them abroad for their yle round about the hoste.

33 While the flesh was yet betwene their teeth, before it was chewed, even the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with an exceeding great plague.

34 So the name of the place was called, Kibroth-hattaanah: for there they buried the people that fell a lusting.

35 From Kibroth-hattaanah the people tooke their iourney to Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth.

CHAP. XII.

1 Aaron and Miriam gaue against Moses: so Miriam is stricken with leprosie, and healed at the prayer of Moses.

Afterward Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses, because of the woman of Ethiopia whom he had married (for he had married a woman of Ethiopia)

2 And they said, What hath the Lord spoken but onely by Moses? hath he not spoken also by vs? and the Lord heard this.

3 (But Moses was a very meeke man aboue all the men that were vpon the earth)

4 And by and by the Lord said vnto Moses, and vnto Aaron, and vnto Miriam, Come out ye three vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and they three came forth.

5 Then the Lord came downe in the pillar of the cloude, and stood in the doore of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forth.

6 And hee sayd, Heare now my wordes, If there be a Prophet of the Lord among you, I will be knowne to him by a vision, and will speake vnto him by dreame.

7 My seruant Moses is not so, who is faithfull in all mine house.

8 Vnto him will I speake mouth to mouth, and by vision, and not in darke words, but hee shall see the similitude of the Lord. Wherefore then were ye not afraid to speake against my seruant, even against Moses?

9 Thus the Lord was very angry with them, and departed.

10 Also the cloud departed from the Tabernacle, and behold, Miriam was leprous like snow, and Aaron looked vpon Miriam, and beheld, she was leprous.

11 Then Aaron sayd vnto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sinne vpon vs, which

CHAP. XIII.

^a Certaine men are sent to search the land of Canaan. ²⁴ They bring of the fruit of the land. ³¹ Caleb comforteth the people against the discouraging of the other spies.

Then afterward the people remooued from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

2 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

3 Send thou men out to search the land of Canaan which I giue vnto the children of Israel: of euery tribe of their fathers shal ye send a man, such as are all rulers among them.

4 Then Moses sent them out of the wilderness of Paran at the commandement of the Lord: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

5 Also their names are these: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the sonne of Zaccur:

6 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the sonne of Hori:

7 Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh:

8 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the sonne of Ioseph:

9 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oseha the sonne of Nun:

10 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the sonne of Raphu:

11 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the sonne of Sodi:

12 Of the tribe of Ioseph, Manasseh, Gaddi the sonne of Sufi:

13 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the sonne of Gemalli:

14 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the sonne of Michael:

15 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the sonne of Vophsi:

16 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the sonne of Machi.

17 These are the names of the men, which Moses sent to spie out the lande: and Moses called the name of Oseha the sonne of Nun, Iehoshua.

18 So Moses sent them to spie out the land of Canaan, and said to them, Go vp this way toward the South, and goe vp into the mountaines,

19 And consider the land what it is, and the people that dwel therein, whether they be strong or weake, either few or many.

20 Also what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad: and what cities they be, that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tents, or in walled townes:

21 And what the land is: whether it be fat or lean, whether there bee trees therein, or not.

And bee of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land (for then was the time of the first ripe grapes.)

22 So they went vp, and searched out the land, from the wilderness of Zin vnto Rehob, to goe to Hamath,

23 And they ascended toward the South, and came vnto Hebron, where were Ahiman, Shephai, and Talmai, the sonnes of Anak. And Hebron was built seuen yeere before Zoan in Egypt.

24 Then they came to the river of Eshcol, and cut downe thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it vpon a barre between two, and brought of the pomegranates and of the figges.

25 That place was called the river Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes, which the children of Israel cut downe thence.

26 Then after foure dayes they turned again from searching of the land.

27 And they went and came to Moses and to Aaron, and vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, in the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh, and brought to them, and to all the Congregation tidings, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

28 And they told him, and said, We came vnto the land whither thou hast sent vs, and surely it floweth with milke and hony: and here is of the fruit of it.

29 Neuerthelesse the people bee strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled and exceeding great: and moreover, wee sawe the sonnes of Anak there.

30 The Amalekites dwell in the South country, and the Hittites, and the Iebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountaines, and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coasts of Iordan.

31 Then Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let vs goe vp at once, and possesse it: for vndoubtedly we shall ouercome it.

32 But the men that went vp with him, sayd, We be not able to goe vp against the people: for they are stronger then we.

33 So they brought vp an euill report of the land which they had searched for the children of Israel, saying, The land which we haue gone thorow to search it out, is a land that eateth vp the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that wee saw in it, are men of great stature.

34 For there we saw giants, the sonnes of Anak, which come of the giants, so that we seemed in our sight like grasshoppers: and so we were in their sight.

9 But rebell not yee against the Lord, neither feare yee the people of the land: for they are but * bread for vs: their shield is departed from them, and the Lord is with vs, feare them not.

10 And all the multitude sayd, f Stone them with stones: but the glory of the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before all the children of Israel.

12 I will smite them with the pestilence and destroy them, and wil make thee a greater nation and mightier then they.

13 But Moses said vnto the Lord, * When the Egyptians shal heare it, (for thou broughtest this people by thy power from among them)

14 Then they shall say to the inhabitants of the land, (for they haue heard, that thou Lorde, art among this people, and that thou, Lord, art seene f face to face, and that thy cloud standeth ouer them, and that thou * goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloude, and in a pillar of fire by night)

16 Because the Lord was not * able to bring this people into the land which hee sware vnto them, therefore hath hee slaine them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The Lord is * slow to anger, and of great mercy, and *forgiuing iniquity and sinne, but not making the wicked innocent, & *visiting the wickednesse of the fathers vpon the children, in the third and fourth generation:

20 And the Lord said, I haue forgiven h it, according to thy request.

21 Notwithstanding, as liue, all the earth shal be filled with the glory of the Lord.

22 For all those men which haue seene my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wilderness, and haue tempted mee this i ten times, and haue not obeyed my voyce,

23 Certainly they shal not see the land, whereof I sware vnto their fathers: neither shall any that prouoke me, see it.

24 But my seruant * Caleb, because hee had

25 Nowe the Amalekites and the Canaanites remaine in the valley: wherefore turne backe to morow, and get you into the m wilderness, by the way of the red sea.

26 ¶ After, the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

27 * How long shall I suffer this wicked multitude to murmure against me? I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmure against me.

28 Tel them, As I * liue (saith the Lord) I will surely doe vnto you, euen as yee haue spoken in mine eares.

29 Your carkeises shall fall in this wilderness, and all you that were * counted through all your numbers, from twenty yere old and aboue, which haue murmured against me,

30 Ye shal not doubtlesse come into the land, for the which I * lifted vp mine hand, to make you dwell therein, saue Caleb the son of Iephunneh, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun.

31 But your children, (which ye sayd should be a pray) them will I bring in, & they shal know the land which ye haue refused:

32 But euen your carkeises shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall * wander in the wilderness fouentie yeeeres, and shall beare your * whoredomes, vntill your carkeises be wasted in the wilderness.

35 I the Lord haue said, Certainly I wil doe so to all this wicked company that are gathered together against mee: for in this wilderness they shalbe consumed, and there they shall die.

a The offerings which the Israelites should offer when they come into the land of Canaan. 33 The punishment of him that brake the Sabbath.

5 Also thou shalt prepare the fourth part of an Hin of wine to be powred on a lambe appointed for the burnt offering or any offering.

6 And for a ramme, thou shalt for a meate offering, prepare two tenth deales of fine floure, mingled with the third part of an Hin of oyle.

7 And for a drinke offering thou shalt offer the third part of an Hin of wine, for a sweete saour vnto the Lord.

8 And when thou preparest a bullocke for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice to fulfill a vow or a peace offering to the Lord,

9 Then let him offer with the bullock a meate offering of || three tenth deales of fine floure, mingled with halfe an Hin of oyle.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drinke offering halfe an Hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a sweete saour vnto the Lord.

12 According to the number^d that yee prepare to offer, so shall yee doe to every one according to their number.

13 All that are borne of the countrey, shall do these things thus, to offer an offering made by fire of sweete saour vnto the Lord.

14 And if a stranger sojourneth with you, or whosoever bee among you in your generations, & will make an offering by fire of a sweete saour vnto the Lord, as yee doe, so he shall doe.

15 * One ordinance shall be both for you of the Congregation, & also for the stranger that dwelleth with you, euen an ordinance for euer in your generations: as you are, so shall the stranger bee before the Lord.

16 One law and one manner shall serue both for you and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say vnto them,* When yee be come into the land, to the which I bring you,

19 And when yee shall eat of the bread of the land, yee shall offer an heauie offering vnto the Lord.

20 Yee shall offer vp a cake of the first of your dough for an heauie offering: * as the heauie offering of the barne, so ye shall lift it vp.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall giue vnto the Lord an heauie offering in your generations.

22 And if yee^f haue erred, and not obserued all these commandements, which the Lord hath spoken vnto Moses,

23 Euen all that the Lord hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the first day that the Lord commanded Moses, and hence forward among your generations:

25 And the Priest shall make an atonement for all the Congregation of the children of Israel, & it shall be forgiven them: for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering for an offering made by fire vnto the Lord, and their sinne offering before the Lord for their ignorance.

26 Then it shall bee forgiven all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among them: for all the people were in ignorance.

27 ¶ But if any one person sinne through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goate of a yere old for a sinne offering.

28 And the Priest shall make an atonement for the ignorant person, when he sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to make reconciliation for him: and it shall be forgiven him.

29 Hee that is borne among the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among the, shall haue both one lawe, who so doeth sinne by ignorance.

30 ¶ But the person that doeth ought presumptuously, whether he be borne in the land, or a stranger, the same blasphemeth the Lord: therefore that person shall be cut off from among his people,

35 Then the Lord sayd vnto Moses, This man shall die the death: and let all the multitude stone him with stones without the hofte.

36 And all the Congregation brought him without the hofte, and stoned him with stones, and he dyed, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

37 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

The rebellion of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. 31 Korah and his company perisheth. 41 The people the next day murmure.

NOW Korah the sonne of Izhar, the sonne of Kohath, the sonne of Leui || went apart with Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab, and On the sonne of Peleth, the sonnes of Reuben:

2 And they rose vp || against Moses, with certaine of the children of Israel, two hundredth and fiftie captains of the assembly, * famous in the Congregation, and men of renoume,

3 Who gathered themselves together against Moses, and against Aaron, and said vnto them, Take too much vpon you, seeing all the Congregation is holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye your felues about the Congregation of the Lord?

4 But when Moses heard it, hee fell vpon his face,

5 And spake to Korah and vnto al his company, saying, To morow the Lord will shew who is his, & who is holy, and who ought to approch neere vnto him: and whom he hath chosen, he will cause to come neere to him.

6 This doe therefore, Take you censers, both Korah, and all his company,

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lorde: to morowe: and the man whome the Lord doeth chuse, the same shall bee holy: Take too much vpon you, ye sonnes of Leui

8 Againe Moses said vnto Korah, Heare, I pray you, ye sonnes of Leui.

9 Seemeth it a small thing vnto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, to take you neere to himselfe, to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the Congregation, and to minister vnto them?

10 Hee hath also taken thee to * him, and al thy brethren, the sonnes of Leui with thee, and seeke wee the office of the Priest also?

11 For which cause, thou, and al thy company are gathered together against the Lord: and what is Aaron, that ye murmure against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: who answered, We will not come vp.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought vs out of a land that floweth with milke and hony, to kil vs in the wilderness, except thou make thy selfe lord and ruler ouer vs also?

14 Also thou hast not brought vs vnto a land that floweth with milke and hony, neither giuen vs inheritance of fieldes and vineyardes: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come vp.

15 Then Moses waxed verie angrie, and said vnto the Lord, * Look not vnto their offering: I haue not taken so much as an asse from them, neither haue I hurt any of them.

16 And Moses said vnto Korah, Bee thou and al thy company before the Lord: both thou, they, and Aaron to morrow.

17 And take euery man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring yee euery man his censer before the Lord, two hundredth and fiftie censers: thou also and Aaron, euery one his censer.

18 So they tooke euery man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the multitude against them vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then the glory of the Lord appeared vnto all the Congregation.

20 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

21 Separate your selues from among this Congregation, that I may consume them at once.

22 And they fell vpon their faces and said, O God the God of the spirits || of all flesh, hath not one man only sinned, and wilt thou bee wroth with all the Congregation?

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 Speake vnto the Congregation, and say, Get you away from about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 Then Moses rose vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram, and the Elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake vnto the Congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest yee perish in all their finnes.

27 So they gat them away from the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram on euery side: and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood in the doore of their tents, with their wiues, and their sonnes, and their little children.

28 And Moses sayd, Hereby shall yee knowe that the Lord hath sent me to do all these works: for I haue not done them of mine owne mind.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men, the Lord hath not sent me.

30 But if the Lord make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallowe them vp with al that they haue, & they go down quick into || the pit: then ye shall vnderstand that these men haue prouoked the Lord.

31 ¶ And as soone as he had made an ende of speaking al these words, euen the ground claue asunder that was vnder them,

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them vp with their families, and all the men that were with Korah, and all their goods

33 So they and all that they had, went downe aliue into the pit, and the earth couered them: so they perished from among the Congregation.

34 And all Israel that were about them, fled at the crie of them: for they sayd, Let vs flee, lest the earth swallow vs vp.

35 But there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundredth and fiftie men that offered the incense

36 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

37 Speake vnto Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest, that hee take vp the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire beyond the altar: for they are hallowed.

39 Then Eleazar the Priest tooke the brazen censers, which they, that were burnt had offered, and made broad plates of them for a cowering of the Altar.

40 It is a remembrance vnto the children of Israel, that no stranger which is not of the seede of Aaron, come neere to offer incense before the Lord, that hee be not like Korah and his company, as the Lorde sayd to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the morrow all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Yee haue killed the people of the Lord.

42 And when the Congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, then they turned their faces toward the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and behold, the cloud couered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared.

43 Then Moses and Aaron were come before the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

44 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 45 Get you vp from among this Congregation: for I will consume them quickly: then they fell vpon their faces.

46 And Moses said vnto Aaron, Take the censer and put fire therein of the Altar, and put therein incense, and goe quickly vnto the Congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lorde: the plague is begun.

47 Then Aaron tooke as Moses commanded him, and ran into the middes of the Congregation, and behold, the plague was begun among the people, and hee put in incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And when hee stood betweene the dead, and them that were alieue, the plague was staid. 49 So they died of this plague fourteene thousand and seuen hundred, beside them that died in the conspiracy of Korah.

50 And Aaron went againe vnto Moses before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the plague was staid.

2 The twelve rodde of the twelve princes of the tribes of Israel. 3 Aarons rod buddeth, and beareth blossoms, 10 For a testimony against the rebellious people.

¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and take of euery one of them a rod, after the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the family of their fathers, euery twelve rodde: and thou shalt write euery mans name vpon his rodde.

3 And write Aarons name vpon the rod of Leui: for euery rodde shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt put them in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before the Arke of the Testimony, where I will declare my selfe to you.

5 And the mans rod, whom I chuse, shall blossom: and I will make cease from mee the grudging of the childre of Israel, which grudge against you.

6 ¶ Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, and all their princes gaue him a rodde, one rodde for euery prince, according to the houses of their fathers, euery twelve rodde, and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses layd the rods before the Lord in the Tabernacle of the Testimonie.

8 And when Moses on the morow went into the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Leui was budded, and brought forth buds, and brought forth blossomes, and bare ripe almonds.

9 Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the Lorde vnto all the children of Israel: and they looked vpon them, and tooke euery man his rod.

10 After, the Lord said vnto Moses, *Bring Aarons rod againe before the Testimonie to bee kept for a token to the rebellious children, and thou shalt cause their murmuring to cease from me, that they die not.

11 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him: so did hee.

12 ¶ And the children of Israel spake vnto Moses, saying, Behold, we are dead, we perish, we are all loit:

13 Whosoeuer commeth neere, or approacheth to the Tabernacle of the Lord, shall die: shall we be consumed and die?

1 The office of Aaron and his sonnes. 2 With the Leuites. 3 The Priests part of the offerings. 4 Gods ear portion. 5 The Leuites haue their ribbes, and offer the tentles thereof to the Lord.

¶ And the Lord said vnto Aaron, Thou, and thy sonnes and thy fathers house with thee, shall beare the iniquitie of the Sanctuary: both thou and thy sonnes with thee shall beare the iniquity of your Priests office.

2 And bring also with thee thy brethren of the tribe of Leui of thy family of thy father which shall be ioyned with thee, and minister vnto thee: but thou, and thy sonnes with thee shall minister before the Tabernacle of the Testimonie:

3 And they shall keepe thy charge, euery charge of all the Tabernacle: but they shall not come neere the instruments of the Sanctuary, nor to the altar, lest they die, both they and you.

4 And they shall be ioyned with thee, & keepe the charge of the Tabernacle of the Congregation for all the seruice of the Tabernacle: and no stranger shall come neere vnto you:

5 Therefore shall ye keepe the charge of the Sanctuary, and the charge of the Altar: so there shall fall no more wrath vpon the children of Israel.

6 For loe, I haue *taken your brethren the Leuites from among the children of Israel, which as a gift of yours, are giuen vnto the Lord, to doe the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

7 But thou, and thy sonnes with thee shall keepe your Priests office for all things of the Altar, and within the vaile: therefore shall ye serue: for I haue made your Priests office || an office of seruice: therefore the stranger that commeth neere shall be slaine.

8 ¶ Again the Lord spake vnto Aaron, Behold, I haue giuen thee the keeping of mine offerings, of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel: vnto thee I haue giuen them for the anoyntings sake, and to thy sonnes, for a perpetuall ordinance.

their meate offering, and of all their sinne offering, and of all their trespass offering, which they bring vnto me, that shall be most holy vnto thee, and to thy sonnes.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eat it: every male shall eat of it: it is holy vnto thee.

11 This also shall be thine: the heave offering of thy gift, with all the shake offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them vnto thee and to thy sonnes and to thy daughters with thee to be a duty for euer: all the cleane in thine house shall eat of it.

12 All the fat of the oyle, and all the fat of the wine, and of the wheate, which they shall offer vnto the Lord for their first frutes, I have given them vnto thee.

13 And the first ripe of all that is in their land, which they shall bring vnto the Lord shall be thine: all the cleane in thine house shall eat of it.

14 Every thing separate from the common use in Israel, shall be thine.

15 All that first openeth the matrix of any flesh, which they shall offer vnto the Lord of man or beast, shall be thine: but the first borne of man shalt thou redeeme, and the first borne of the vncleane beast shalt thou redeeme.

16 And those that are to be redeemed, shalt thou redeeme from the age of a moneth, according to thy estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17 But the first borne of a kow, or the first borne of a sheepe, or the first borne of a goat, shalt thou not redeeme: for they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood at the altar, and thou shalt burne their fat: it is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the shake brest, and as the right shoulder shall be thine.

19 All the heave offerings of the holy things which the children of Israel shall offer vnto the Lord, haue I given thee, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee to be a duty for euer: it is a perpetual covenant of salt before the Lord, to thee, and to thy feede with thee.

20 ¶ And the Lord sayd vnto Aaron, Thou shalt haue none inheritance in their land: neither shalt thou haue any part among them: I am thy part, and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 For behold, I haue given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their seruice, which they serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

22 Neither shall the children of Israel any more come neere the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest they sustaine sinne, and die.

23 But the Levites shall doe the seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and they shall beare their sinne: it is a law for euer in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possess none inheritance.

24 For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they shall offer as an offering vnto the Lord, I haue given the Levites for an inheritance, therefore I haue sayd vnto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possess none inheritance.

25 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses saying,

26 Speake also vnto the Levites, and say vnto them, When ye shall take of the children of Israel the tithes, which I haue given you of them for your inheritance, then shall ye take an heave offering of that tithes for the Lord, even the tenth part of the tithes.

27 And your heave offering shall be reckened vnto you, as the come of the barne, or as the abundance of the winepresse.

28 So ye shall also offer an heave offering vnto the Lord of all your tithes, which ye shall receiue of the children of Israel, and ye shall giue thereof the Lordes heave offering to Aaron the Priest.

29 Ye shall offer of all your gifts all the Lordes heave offerings: of all the fat of the same shall ye offer the holy things thereof.

30 Therefore thou shalt say vnto them, When ye haue offered the fat thereof, then it shall be counted vnto the Levites, as the increase of the come floore, or as the increase of the wine presse.

31 And ye shall eat it in all places, ye, and your households: for it is your wages for your seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

32 And ye shall beare no sinne by the reason of it, when ye haue offered the fat of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

1 The sacrifice of the red kow. 2 The sprinkling water. 3 The sacrifice of the dead. 4 The man that dieth in a tent.

And the Lord spake to Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

3 This is the ordinance of the Law, which the Lord hath commanded, saying, Speake vnto the children of Israel that they bring thee a red kow without blemish, wherein is no spot, vpon the which neuer came yoke.

4 And ye shall giue her vnto Eleazar the Priest, that he may bring her without the hoste, and cause her to be slaine before his face.

5 Then shall Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation seuen times.

6 And cause the kow to be burnt in his sight, with her skinn, and her flesh, and her blood, and her doung shall he burne her.

7 Then shall the Priest take cedar wood, and hyssope, & scarlet lace, and cast them in the mids of the fire where the kow burneth.

8 Then shall the Priest wash his clothes, and hee shall wash his flesh in water, and then come into the hoste, and the Priest shall be vncleane vnto the euen.

9 Also hee that burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and wash his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntill euen.

10 And a man, that is cleane, shall take vp the ashes of the kow, and put them without the hoste in a cleane place: and it shall be kept for the Congregation of the children of Israel for a sprinkling water: it is a sinne offering.

11 Therefore hee that gathereth the ashes of the kow, shall wash his clothes, and remaine vncleane vntill euen: and it shall be vnto the children of Israel, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among them, a statute for euer.

CHAP. XX.

1 Miriam dieth. 2 The people murmure. 3 They haue water out of the rocke. 4 Edom denieth the Israelites passage. 5. 28 The death of Aaron, in whose room Eleazar succedeth.

Then the children of Israel came with the whole Congregation to the desert of Zin in the first moneth, and the people abode at Cadesh: where Miriam died, and was buried there.

2 But there was no water for the Congregation, and they assembled themselves against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake saying, Would God we had perished when our brethren died before the Lord.

4 Why haue yee thus brought the Congregation of the Lord vnto this wilderness, that both we and our cattell should die here?

5 Wherefore now haue yee made vs to come vp from Egypt, to bring vs into this miserable place, which is no place of seede, nor figges, nor vines, nor pomegranats? neither is there any water to drinke.

6 Then Moses and Aaron went from the assembly vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and fell vpon their faces: and the glory of the Lord appeared vnto them.

7 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

8 Take the rodde, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the Congregation together, and speake ye vnto the rocke before their eyes, and it shall giue forth his water, and thou shalt bring them water out of the rocke: so thou shalt giue the Congregation and their beastes drinke.

9 Then Moses tooke the rod from before the Lord, as he had commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the Congregation together before the rocke: and Moses said vnto them, Heare now ye rebels: shall wee bring you water out of this rocke?

11 Then Moses lift vp his hand, and with his rod he smote the rocke twice, and the water came out abundantly: so the Congregation, and their beastes dranke.

12 Again, the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, Because yee beleeued mee not, to sanctifie mee in the presence of the children of Israel, therefore yee shall not bring this Congregation into the lande which I haue giuen them.

13 This is the water of Meribah, because the children of Israel stroue with the Lord, and hee was sanctified in them.

14 Then Moses sent messengers from Cadesh vnto the king of Edom, saying, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trauell that we haue had,

15 How our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, where the Egyptians handled vs euill and our fithers.

16 But when we cried vnto the Lord, he heard our voice, and sent an Angel, and hath brought vs out of Egypt, and beholde, wee are in the city Cadesh, in thine vtmost border.

17 I pray thee that we may passe thorow thy countrey, wee will not go thorow the fields nor the vineyards, neither will we drinke of the water of the wellles: we will goe by the kings way, and neither turne vnto the right hand nor to the left, vntill we be past thy borders.

18 And Edom answered him, Thou shalt not passe by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 Then the children of Israel sayd vnto him, We will goe vp by the hie way: and if I and my cattell drinke of thy water, I will then pay for it: I will onely (without any harme) go thorow on my feete:

20 Hee answered againe, Thou shalt not goe thorow. Then Edom came out against him with much people, and with a mightie power.

21 Thus Edom denied to giue Israel passage thorow his countrey: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

22 And when the children of Israel with all the Congregation departed from Cadesh, they came vnto mount Hor.

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron in the mount Hor neere the coast of the land of Edom, saying,

24 Aaron shall be gathered vnto his people: for he shall not enter iuto the land, which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel, because ye disobeyed my commandement at the water of Meribah.

2 So Israel vowed a vow vnto the Lord, and said, If thou wilt deliuer and giue this people into mine hand, then will I vtterly destroy their cities.

3 And the Lord heard the voice of Israel, and deliuered them the Canaanites: and they vtterly destroyed them, and their cities, and called the name of the place || * Hormah.

4 ¶ After they departed from the mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to ^b compass the land of Edom: & the people were sore grieved because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, saying, wherefore haue yee brought vs out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness? for here is neither bread nor water, and our soules loatheth this light bread.

6 Wherefore the Lord sent ^d fierie serpents among the people, which stung the people: so that many of the people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We haue sinned: for we haue spoken against the Lord, and against thee: pray to the Lord, that hee take away the serpents from vs: and Moses prayed for the people.

8 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Make thee a fierie serpent, and set it vp for a signe, that as many as are bitten, may looke vpon it, and liue.

9 So Moses made a serpent of brass, and set it vp for a signe: and when a serpent had bitten a man, then he looked to the serpent of brass, and liued.

10 And the children of Israel departed thence, and pitched in Oboth.

11 ¶ And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Iie-abarim, in the wilderness, which is before Moab on the East side.

12 ¶ They remoued thence, and pitched vpon the river of Zared.

13 ¶ Thence they departed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness, and commeth out of the coasts of the Amorites: (for Arnon is the border of Moab, betwene the Moabites and the Amorites.)

20 ¶ And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the plaine of Moab, to the top of Pigah, that looketh toward Ieshimon.

21 ¶ Then Israel sent messengers vnto Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying,

22 Let me go thorow thy land: we will not turne aside into the fieldes, nor into the vineyards, neither drinke of the waters of the wellles: we will go by the kings way, yntill we be past thy country.

23 But Sihon gave Israel no license to passe thorow his country, but Sihon assembled all his people, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Iabor, and fought against Israel.

24 But Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and conquered his land from Arnon vnto Iakob, ^e vnto the children of Ammon, for the border of the children of Ammon.

25 And Israel tooke all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the cite of Sihon, the king of the Amorites, which had fought beforetime against the king of the Moabites, and had taken all his land out of his hand, ^f vnto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that spake in prouers say, Come to Heshbon, let the cite of Sihon be built and repaired:

28 For a fire is gone out of Heshbon, and a flame from the cite of Sihon, and hath consumed Ar of the Moabites, and the lords of Bamoth in Arnon.

29 Wo be to thee, Moab: O people of Chemosh, thou art vndone: he hath suffered his sonnes to be pursued, and his daughters to be in captiuitie to Sihon the king of the Amorites.

30 Their empire also is lost from Heshbon vnto Dibon, and wee haue destroyed them vnto Nophah, which reacheth vnto Medeba.

31 ¶ Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to search out Iazer, and they tooke the townes belonging thereto, and rooted out the Amoritians that were there.

33 ¶ And they turned, and went vp toward Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against them, hee, and all his people, to fight at Edrei.

34 Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Feare him not: for I haue deliuered him into thine hand, and all his people, and his land: * and thou shalt do to him as thou didst vnto Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 They smote him therefore, and his sonnes, and all his people, yntill there was none left him: so they conquered his land.

19 Now, I pray you, tary here this night, that I may wit, what the Lorde will say vnto me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and sayde vnto him, If che men come to call thee, rise vp, and goe with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou doe.

21 So Balaam rose vp early, and failed his affe, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he went: and the Angel of the Lord stood in the way to be against him, as he rode vpon his affe, and his two seruants were with him.

23 And when the affe sawe the Angel of the Lord stand in the way, and his sworde drawn in his hand, the affe turned out of the way, and went into the field, but Balaam smote the affe, to turne her into the way.

24 Again the Angell of the Lord stood in a path of the vineyardes, dening a wall on the one side, and a wall on the other.

25 And when the affe sawe the Angell of the Lord, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and dashed Balaams foote against the wall: wherefore hee smote her againe.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turne, either to the right hand, or to the left.

27 And when the affe sawe the Angell of the Lorde, she lay downe vnder Balaam: therefore Balaam was very wroth, and smote the affe with a staffe.

28 Then the Lorde opened the mouth of the affe, and she said vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee? that thou hast smitten mee now three times?

29 And Balaam sayde vnto the affe, Because thou hast mocked me: I woulde there were a sworde in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the affe saide vnto Balaam, Am not I thine affe, which thou hast ridden vpon? since thy first time vnto this day? haue I vsed as any time to doe thus vnto thee? Who sayd, Nay.

31 And the Lorde opened the eyes of Balaam, and he sawe the Angel of the Lorde standing in the way with his sworde drawn in his hand: then he bowed himselfe, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine affe three times? beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because thy way is not straight before me.

33 But the affe saue mee, and turned fro me now three times: for els, if she had not turned fro me, surely I had euén now slaine thee, and saved her this day.

34 Then Balaam saide vnto the Angell of the Lorde, I haue sinned: for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore if it displease thee, I will turne home againe.

35 But the Angel sayd vnto Balaam, Goe with the men: but what I say vnto thee, shalt thou keepe. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam came, he went out to meete him vnto a cite of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, euen in the vtmost coast.

37 Then Balak saide vnto Balaam, Did not I sende for thee to call thee? Wherefore camest thou not vnto mee? am I not able in deepe to promote thee vnto honour?

19 But now, I pray you, tary here this night, that I may wit, what the Lorde will say vnto me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and sayde vnto him, If che men come to call thee, rise vp, and goe with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou doe.

28 Then the Lorde opened the mouth of the affe, and she said vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee? that thou hast smitten mee now three times?

1 Because he sought God to requite him contrary to his commandement, his petition was granted, but it came to his owne condemnation.

families were of Israel: the families of the Ishachars: of Guni, the familie of the Gunites:

49 Of Isser, the familie of the Izris: of Shilem, the familie of the Shillemites.

50 These are the families of Naphtali according to their households, and their number, five and fourtiethousand and four hundredth.

51 These are the numbers of the children of Israel: five hundredth and one thousand: seven hundredth and thirtieth.

52 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, Vnto these the land shall be diuided for an inheritance, according to the number of names.

54 ¶ To many thou shalt giue the more inheritance, and to few thou shalt giue lesse inheritance: to euery one according to his number shall be giuen his inheritance.

55 Nowwithstanding, the land shall be diuided by lot according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherite:

56 According to the lot shall the possession thereof be diuided between many and few.

57 ¶ These also are the numbers of the Leuites, after their families: of Gershon came the familie of the Gershonites: of Kohath, the familie of the Kohathites, of Merari, the familie of the Merarites.

58 These are the families of Leui, the familie of the Labnites: the familie of the Hebronites: the familie of the Mashites: the familie of the Mushites: the familie of the Korhites: and Kohath begat Amram.

59 And Amrams wife was called: Iochebed the daughter of Leui, which was borne vnto Leui in Egypt: and she bare vnto Amram Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

60 And vnto Aaron were borne Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ichamar.

61 And Nadab and Abihu died, because they offered strange fire before the Lord.

62 And their numbers were threes and twenty thousand, a males from a month old & above, for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was none inheritance giuen them among the children of Israel.

63 ¶ These are the numbers of Moses and Eleazar the Priest, which numbered the children of Israel in the plaine of Moab, nere Iorden, toward Iericho.

64 And among these there was not a man of them, whom Moses and Aaron the Priest numbered, when they told the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the Lord said vnto them, ¶ They shall die in the wilderness: there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The Law of the beritage of the daughters of Zelophehad, 15 The land of promise is shewed vnto Moses. 16 Moses prayeth for a successor vnto the people. 18 Ioshua is appointed in his stead.

¶ Then came the daughters of Zelophehad, the sonne of Eleazar, the son of Oziel, the sonne of Manasse, the sonne of Manasse, of the familie of Manasse, the sonne of Ioseph (and the names of his daughters were these, Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milkah, and Tirzah.)

2 And shooke before Moses, and before Eleazar the Priest, and before the Princes, and all the assembly, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the assembly of them that were assembled against the Lords in the company of Korah, but dyed in his time, and had no sonne.

4 Wherefore should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he hath no sonne? giue vs a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 Then Moses brought their cause before the Lord.

6 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: thou shalt giue them a possession to inherite among their fathers brethren, and shalt turne the inheritance of their father vnto them.

8 Also thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die and haue no sonne, then yee shall turne his inheritance vnto his daughter.

9 And if he haue no daughter, yee shall giue his inheritance vnto his brethren.

10 And if he haue no brethren, yee shall giue his inheritance vnto his fathers brethren.

11 And if his father haue no brethren, yee shall giue his inheritance vnto his next kinsman of his familie, and he shall possesse it: and this shall be vnto the children of Israel a law of iudgement, as the Lord hath commanded Moses.

12 ¶ Again the Lord sayd vnto Moses, ¶ Go vp into this mount of Abarim, & behold the land which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel.

13 And when thou hast seene it, thou shalt be gathered vnto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

14 For ye were disobedient vnto my worde in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the assembly to sanctifie mee in the waters before their eyes: ¶ That is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 ¶ Then Moses spake vnto the Lord, saying,

16 Let the Lord God of the spirits of all flesh appoint a man ouer the Congregation, 17 Who may goe out and in before them and lead them out and in, that the Congregation of the Lord bee not as sheepe, which haue not a shepheard.

18 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Take thee Ioshua the sonne of Nun, in whom is the Spirit, and put thine hands vpon him, 19 And set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the the Congregation, and giue him a charge in their sight.

20 And I giue him of thy glory, that all the Congregation of the children of Israel may obey.

21 And hee shall stand before Eleazar the Priest, who shall aske counsel for him by the iudgements of Vrim before the Lord: at his worde they shall go out, and at his worde they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, and all the Congregation.

22 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and he tooke Ioshua, and set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation.

23 Then he put his hands vpon him, and gaue him a charge, as the Lord had spoken by the hand of Moses.

CHAP. XXX.

3 Concerning vowes. 4 The vowes of the maide, 7 Of the wife, 10 Of the widow or divorced.

Then Moyses spake vnto the children of Israel according to all that the Lord had commanded him.

1 Moyses also spake vnto the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded,

2 Whosoever voweth a vow vnto the Lord, or sweareth an oth to bind him selfe by a bond, hee shall not breake his promise, but shall doe according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow vnto the Lord, and bind her selfe by a bond, being in her fathers house, in the time of her youth,

4 And her father heare her vow and bonde, wherewith she hath bound herselfe, and her father hold his peace concerning her, then all her vowes shall stand, and every bond, wherewith she hath bound herselfe, shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her the same day that he heareth all her vowes and bondes, wherewith she hath bound her selfe, they shall not bee of value, and the Lord will forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she haue an husband when she voweth or pronounceth ought with her lips, wherewith she bindeth herselfe,

7 If her husband heare it, & holdeth his peace concerning her, the same day he heareth it, then her vow shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bindeth her selfe shall stand in effect.

8 But if her husband disallow her the same day that he heareth it, then shall hee make her vow which she hath made, and that that she hath pronounced with her lips, wherewith she bound her selfe, of none effect, and the Lord will forgive her.

13 Of every vow, and every oath or bond, made to humble the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may break it.

16 These are the ordinances which the Lord commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between the father and his daughter, being young in their father's house.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The Kings of Midian and Balaam are slain. 2 Only the women are referred alive. 3 The prize is equally divided. 4 A portion given of Israel.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 Behold, the children of Israel of the Midianites, and afterward thou shalt be gathered vnto thy people.

3 And Moses spake to the people, saying, Harken unto me, ye men of Israel, and let them goe against Midian, to execute the vengeance of the Lord against Midian.

4 A thousand of every tribe throughout all the tribes of Israel shall yee send to warre.

5 For they were taken one of the thousand of Israel, twelve thousand prepared vnto warre, of every tribe a thousand.

6 And Moses sent them to the warre, such a thousand of every tribe, and sent them with Phineas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest to the warre: for he bore the instruments that is the trumpet to blow war in his hand.

7 And they warred against Midian, as the Lord had commanded Moses, and slew all the males.

8 They slew also the kings of Midian among them that were slaine: Balaam the sonne of Beor with the sword.

9 But the children of Israel took the women of Midian prisoner, and their children, and spoyled all their cattell, and all their riches, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities, wherein they dwell, and all their villages with fire.

11 And they took all the spoyle and all the prey, both of man and beasts.

12 And they brought the captiues and the spoyle which they had taken, and the spoyle vnto Moses & to Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the Congregation of the children of Israel, into the campe in the plaine of Moab, which was by Iordan.

13 And the princes of the congregation went out of the campe to meet them.

14 And Moses was angry with the captiues of the bulle, with the captiues over thousands, and captiues over hundreds, which came from the warre and battell.

15 And Moses said vnto them, What haue ye done all the women?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel through the counsel of Balaam to commit a trespass against the Lord, as concerning Peor, and there came a plague among the Congregation of the Lord.

17 Now therefore, slay all the males among these children, and kill all the women that haue known man by carnall copulation.

18 But all the women children that haue not known carnall copulation, keepe alive for your selves.

19 And ye shall remaine without the hoste seuen daies, all that haue killed any person, and all that haue touched any dead, and purge both your selues and your prisoners the third day and the seuenth.

20 Also ye shall purge every garment, and all that is made of skinnes, and all worke of goates haire, and all things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the Priest said vnto the men of warre, which went to the battell, This is the ordinance of the law which the Lord commanded Moses.

22 As for gold, and silver, brasse, iron, tinne, and lead:

23 Euen all that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be cleane: yet it shall be purified with the water of purification, and all that suffereth not the fire, ye shall cause to passe by the water.

24 Ye shall wash also your clothes the seventh day, and ye shall be cleane, and afterward ye shall come into the hoste.

25 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Take possession of the pray that was taken, both of persons and of cattell, thou and Eleazar the Priest, for the fathers of the Congregation.

27 And Moses & Eleazar came, and they divided the pray equally between the soldiers that went to the warre, and all the Congregation.

28 And thou shalt take tribute vnto the Lord of the men of warre, which went out to battell: one person of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beues, and of the asses, and of the sheepe.

29 Ye shall take of their halfe, and give it vnto Eleazar the Priest, as an heave offering of the Lord.

30 But of the halfe of the children of Israel thou shalt take one, taken out of little, both of the persons, of the beues, of the asses, and of the sheepe, and of all the cattell, and thou shalt give them vnto the Leuites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 And the spoyle, which was the pray, which the men of warre had spoyled, was six hundred forty and five thousand sheepe,

33 And four hundred and two thousand beues,

50 ¶ We haue therefore brought a present vnto the Lord, what euery man found of Iewels of gold, bracelets, and chaines, rings, earings, and ornaments of the legs, to make an atonement for our soules before the Lord.

C H A P. XXXII.

The request of the Reubenites and Gadites, 16 and their promise vnto Moses. 20 Moses granteth their request. 33 The Gadites, Reubenites, and halfe the tribe of Manasse, conquer and build cities on 160 side Iorden.

N Owe the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad had an exceeding great multitude of cattell: and they sawe the lande of Iazer, and the land of b Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattell.

2 Then the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben came, and spake vnto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the Princes of the Congregation, saying,

3 The land of Astaroth, and Dibon, and Iazer, and Nimrah, and Heshton, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 Which countrey the Lord smote before the Congregation of Israel, is a land meet for cattell, and thy seruants haue cattell:

5 Wherefore, sayd they, If wee haue found grace in thy sight, let this land be giuen vnto thy seruants for a possession, and bring vs not ouer Iorden.

6 And Moses sayd vnto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren goe to warre, and yetary here?

7 Wherefore now 7 discourage you the heart of the children of Israel to go ouer into the land, which the Lord hath giuen them? † He that is born of the seed of man.

8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

9 For 7 when they went vp euen vnto the 7 river of Euphrat, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they would not goe into the land, which the Lord had giuen them. * Chap. 13. 24. 107. valley.

10 And the Lords wrath was kindled the same day, and he did sweare, saying,

11 ¶ None of the men that came out of Egypt, * from twenty yeare olde and about, shall see the land for the which I swaue vnto Abraham, to Izhak, and to Iakob, because they haue not 7 wholly followed me: † He that is born of the seed of man. * Chap. 14. 28. 29.

12 Except Caleb the sonne of Iephunnah the Kenesite, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun: for they haue constantly followed the Lord. † He that is born of the seed of man.

13 And the Lord was very angry with Israel, and made him wander in the wilderness fourtie yeres, vntill all the generation that had done 7 eul in the sight of the Lord, was consumed. † He that is born of the seed of man.

14 And behold, ye are risen vp in your fathers stead as an increase of sinfull men, still to augment the fierce wrath of the Lord toward Israel. † He that is born of the seed of man.

15 For if ye turne away from following him, hee will yet againe leaue the people in the wilderness, and 4 ye shall destroy all this folke. † He that is born of the seed of man.

16 And they went neere to him, and said, We will build sheepfolds heere for our sheepe, and for our cattell, and cities for our children.

17 But wee our selues will bee ready armed: 7 goe before the children of Israel, vntill wee haue brought them vnto their place: but our children shall dwell in the defended cities, because of the inhabitants of the land. † He that is born of the seed of man.

18 Wee will not returne vnto our houses, vntill the children of Israel haue inherited, euery man his inheritance.

19 Neither wil we inherite with them beyond Iorden and on that side, because our inheritance is fallen to vs on this side Iorden Eastward.

20 ¶ And Moses sayd vnto them, If ye will doe this thing, and goe 7 armed before the Lord to warre:

21 And will goe euery one of you in harnessse ouer Iorden before the Lord, vntill hee haue cast out his enemies from his sight:

22 And vntill the land be subdued before the Lord, then yee shall returne and bee innocent toward the Lord, and toward Israel: and this land shall be your possession 7 before the Lord. † He that is born of the seed of man.

23 But if yee will not doe so, behold, yee haue sinned sinned against the Lord, and bee sure, that your sinne will find you out.

24 Build you then cities for your children, and folds for your sheepe, and doe that ye have spoken.

25 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake vnto Moses, saying, Thy seruants will doe as my lord commandeth.

26 Our children, our wives, our sheepe, & all our cattel shall remaine there in the cities of Gilead.

27 But thy seruants will goe every one armed to warre before the Lord for to fight, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them, Moses commanded Eliazar the Priest, and Iothua the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

29 And Moses said vnto them, If the children of Gad, the children of Reuben will goe with you ouer Iordan, all armed to fight before the Lord, then when the land is subdued before you, ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession.

30 But if they will not goe ouer with you armed, then they shall haue their possession among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the Lord hath said vnto thy seruants, so will we doe.

32 We will goe armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan: for the possession of our inheritance may be to vs on this side Iordan.

33 So Moses gaue law vnto them, as to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, the kingdome of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan,
the land with the cities thereof, and coasts, euen
the cities of the countrey round about.

34 ¶ Then the children of Gad built Dibon, and Aroch, and Arer, and Atroch, Shophan, and Iazer, and Logbehan.

35 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, defenced cities: also sheepfolds.

36 And the children of Reuben built Hashbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriatshaim,

37 And Nebo, and Baalmeon, and turned their names, and Sibmah: and gaue other names vnto the cities which they built.

38 And the children of Machir the sonne of Manasse went to Gilead, and tooke it, and put out the Amorites that dwelt therein.

39 Then Moses gaue Gilead vnto Machir the sonne of Manasse, and he dwelt therein.

40 And Jair the sonne of Manasse went and tooke the small townes thereof, and called them Hanoth Jair.

41 Also Nobah went and tooke Kenath, with the villages thereof, and called it Nobah after his owne name.

This Mappe declared the way which the Israelites went for the space of forty years from Egypt thorow the wilderness of Arabia, until they entered into the Land of Canaan, as it is mentioned in Exodus, Numbers, & Deuteronomie. It containeth also the two and fourtie places, where they pitched their tents, which are named, Numb. 33. with the abatement of the degrees, concerning the length and the breadth, and the places of their abode, by way of numbers.

31 And they removed from Bene-iaakan, & lay in Hor-hagidgad.

33 And they went from Hor-hagidgad, and pitched in Iotbathah.

34 And they remooued from Ior bathah, and lay in Ebronah.

35 And they departed from Ebronah, and lay in Ezion-gaber.

36 And they removed from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the *wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.

37 And they removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.

38 (* And Aaron the Priest went vp into mount Hor, at the commandement of the Lord, and died there, in the fortieth yeere after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the 5th month.

36 And Aaron was an hundreth and three and twenty yeere olde, when hee died in mount Hor.

40 And King Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the South of the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.)

41 And they departed from mount *Hor, and pitched in Zalmonah.

43. And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Punon.

43 And they departed from Punon, and pitched in Oboth.

44 * And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Lie-abarim, in the borders of Moab.

45 And they departed from Lim, and pitched in Dibon gad.

46 And they removed from Dibon-gad, and lay in Almon-diblathaim.

47 And they removed from Almon-diblahaim, & pitched in the mountaines of Abarim, before Nebo.

48 And they departed from the mountaines of Abarim, and pitched in the || plaine of Moab, | Or feld.

49 And they pitched by Iorden, from Bethnimoth vnto *Abel-shittim, in the plaine of ^a The coasts and borders of the land of Canaan. 17 Certaine men are assigned to diuide the land.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses saying,
Command the children of Israel, and saye vnto them, When yee come into the land of Canaan, this is the ^a land that shall fall vnto your inheritance: ^b the land of Canaan with the coasts thereof.

1 And your South quarter shall be from the wildernesse of Zin to the borders of Edom: so that your South quarter shall be from the salt Sea coast Eastward.

2 And the border shall compasse you from the South to ^a Maaleh-akrabbim, and reach to Zin, and goe out from the South to Kadesh-barnea: thence it shall stretch to Hazar-addar, and goe along to Azmon.

3 And the border shall compasse from Az-mon vnto the ^b siner of Egypt, and shall goe out to the sea.

4 And your West quarter shall bee the great sea: ^c then that border shall be your West coast.

5 And this shall be your North quarter, yee shall marke out your border from the great Sea vnto mount ^d Hor.

6 From mount Hor yee shall point out till it come vnto Hamath, and the end of the coast shall be at Zedad.

7 And the coast shall reach out to Ziphron, and goe out at Hazar-enan, this shall be your North quarter.

8 And yee shall marke out your East quarter from Hazar-enan to Shepham.

9 And the coast shall goe downe from She-pham to Riblah, and from the East side of Am:
and the same border shall defend and goe out at the side of the sea of ^e Chinnereth Eastward.

10 Also that border shall goe downe to Ior-den, and leaue at the salt sea this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about.

11 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel saying, This is the land which ye shall inherite by lot, which the Lord commanded to giue vnto nine tribes, and halfe the tribe.

12 For the tribe of the children of Reuben, according to the households of their fathers, and the tribe of the childre of Gad, according to their fathers households, and halfe the tribe of Manaf-seh haue receiued their inheritance.

13 Two tribes and an halfe tribe haue recei-ued their inheritance on this side of Iorden toward Iericho full East.

14 Again the Lord spake to Moses saying,
These are the names of the men which shall diuide the land vnto you: ^a Eleazar the Priest, &
Iothua the sonne of Nun.

15 And yee shall take also a ^b prince of every tribe to diuide the land.

16 The names also of the men are these: Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh.

17 And of the tribe of the sonnes of Simeon, Shemuel the sonne of Ammihud.

18 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the sonne of Chislon.

19 Also of the tribe of the sonnes of Dan, the prince Bukki, the sonne of Iogli.

20 Of the sonnes of Ioseph: of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasseh, the prince Hanniel the sonne of Ephod.

21 And of the tribe of the sonnes of Ephraim, the prince Kemuel, the sonne of Shiptan.

22 Of the tribe also of the sonnes of Zebulun, the prince Elizaphan, the sonne of Parnach.

23 So of the tribe of the sonnes of Issachar, the prince Paltiel, the sonne of Azzan.

24 Of the tribe also of the sonnes of Asher, the prince Ahiah, the sonne of Shelomi.

25 And of the tribe of the sonnes of Naphtali, the prince Pedahel, the sonne of Ammihud.

26 These are they, whom the Lord commanded to diuide the inheritance vnto the children of Israel, in the land of Canaan.

CHAP. XXXV.

^a Unto the Levites are giuen cities and suburbs. 11 The cities of refuge. 16 The law of murder. 30 For what mans sinners shall be condemned.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses in the plaine of Moab by Iorden, toward Iericho, saying,

1 Command the children of Israel, that they giue vnto the ^a Levites of the inheritance of their possession, ^b cities to dwell in: ye shall giue also vnto the Levites the suburbs of the cities round about them.

2 So they shall haue the cities to dwell in, and their suburbs shall be for their cattell, and for their substance, and for all their beasts.

3 And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall giue vnto the Levites, from the wall of the city outwards shall be a thousand cubites round about.

4 And yee shall measure without the citie of the East side, ^c two thousand cubites: and of the South side, two thousand cubites: and of the West side, two thousand cubites: and of the North side, two thousand cubites: and the citie shall be in the mids: this shall be the measure of the suburbs of their cities.

5 And of the cities which ye shall giue vnto
the Levites, ^d there shall be fixe cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint, that he which killeth, may flee thither: and to them yee shall adde two and fourtie cities moe.

6 All the cities which ye shall giue to the Le-uites, shall be eight and fourtie cities: them shall ye giue with their suburbs.

7 And concerning the cities which yee shall giue of the possession of the children of Israel: of many ye shall take moe, and of few ye shall take lesse: every one shall giue of his cities vnto the Levites according to his inheritance, which hee inheriteth.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses saying,
10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, * When ye be come ouer Iorden into the land of Canaan,

11 Yee shall appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you, that the slayer, which slayeth any person vnwares, may flee thither.

12 And these cities shall be for you a refuge fro the * murderer, that he which killeth, die not, vntill he stand before the Congregation in iudgement.

13 And of the cities which yee shall giue, fixe cities shall ye haue for refuge.

14 Ye shall appoint three * on this side Iorden, and yee shall appoint three cities in the land of Canaan which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for him that dwelleth among you, that enery one which killeth any person vnwares, may flee thither.

16 * And if one smite another with an instrument of yron that hee die, hee is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

17 Also if hee smite him by casting a stone, wherewith he may be slaine, & he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may be slaine, if he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

19 The reuenger of the blood himselfe shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, hee shall slay him.

20 But if hee thrust him * of hate, or hurle at him by laying of wait, that he die,

21 Or smite him through enmitie with his hand, that he die, he that smote him shall die the death: for he is a murderer: the reuenger of the blood shall slay the murderer when hee meeteth him.

22 But if hee pushed him vnadvisedly, and * not of hatred, or cast vpon him any thing, without laying of wait,

23 Or any stone (whereby he might be slaine) and saw him not, nor called it to fall vpon him, and hee die, and was not his enemy, neither sought him any harme,

24 Then the Congregation shall iudge betweene the slayer and the * murderer of blood according to these lawes.

25 And the Congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the reuenger of blood, and the Congregation shall restore him vnto the cite of his refuge, whither hee was fled: and hee shall abide there vnto the death of the hie Priest, which is annoynted with the holy oyle.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled,

27 And the reuenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, & the reuenger of blood slay him, he shall be guiltles,

28 Because he should haue remained in the cite of his refuge, vntill the death of the hie Priest: and after the death of the hie Priest, the slayer shall returne vnto the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be a law of iudgement vnto you, throught your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whosoever killeth any person, the iudge shall slay the murderer through * witnesses: but * one witness shall not raise against a person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover ye shall take no recompense for the life of the murderer, which is * worthy to die: but he shall be put to death.

32 Also yee shall take no recompense for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come againe, and dwell in the land, before the death of the hie Priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye shall dwell: for blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be * cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not therefore the land which yee shall inhabite, for I dwell in the mids thereof: for I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXXVI.

An order for the marriage of the daughters of Zelophehad. 7 The inheritance should not be giuen from one tribe to another.

Then * the chiefe fathers of the family of the sonnes of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sonnes of Joseph, came, and spake before Moses, & before the princes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel,

2 And sayd, * The Lord commanded * my lord to giue the land to inherit by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to giue the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother vnto his daughters.

3 If they bee married to any of the sonnes of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, & shall be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shall be: so shall it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 Also when the * Iubile of the children of Israel commeth, then shall their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shall be: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the word of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Joseph haue said well.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hath commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, They shall bee wiues to whom they thinke best, onely to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry:

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe, for euery one of the children of Israel shall ioyne himselfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euery daughter that possesseth any inheritance of the tribes of the children of Israel, shall bee wife vnto one of the family of the tribe of her father: that the children of Israel may enjoy euery man the inheritance of their fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but euery one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall sticke to his owne inheritance.

10 As the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 For * Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah the daughters of Zelophehad were married vnto their fathers brothers sonnes:

12 They were wiues to certain of the families of the sonnes of Manasseh the sonne of Joseph: so their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the * commandments & lawes which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, vnto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab, by Iorden toward Iericho.

Which purpose hath committed murder.

For murder. n So God is minded full of the blood wrongfully shed, that he maketh his dumbe creatures to demand vengeance thereof.

a It seemeth that the tribes contented who might marry these daughters to haue their inheritance: and therefore the sons of Joseph proposed the matter to Moses. Chap. 37. 1. info. 175. b Meaning, Moses,

c Signifying that at no time it could returne, for in the Iubile all things returned to their owne tribes.

d For the tribe could not haue continued, if the inheritance which was the maintenance thereof, should haue beene alienated to others.

THE ARGUMENT.

CHAP. I.

the land, and to bring vs word againe, what way we must goe vp by, and vnto what cities wee shall come.

23 So the saying pleased me well, and I tooke twelue men of you, of euery tribe one.

24 Who departed, and went vp into the mountaine, and came vnto the || river Eshcol, and searched out the land.

25 And tooke of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it vnto vs, and brought vs word againe, and said, It is a good land, which the Lord our God doeth giue vs.

26 Notwithstanding, ye would not go vp, but were disobedient vnto the commandement of the Lord your God,

27 And murmured in your tents, and said, Because the Lord hated vs, therefore hath hee brought vs out of the land of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs.

28 Whither shal we go vp? our brethren haue discouraged our hearts, saying, The people is greater, and taller then wee: the cities are great, and walled vp to heauen: and moreover, we haue seene the sonnes of the Anakims there.

29 But I said vnto you, Dread not, nor be a fraide of them.

30 The Lord your God, who goeth before you, he shal fight for you, according to all that he did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes.

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seene how the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doth beare his sonne, in al the way which ye haue gone, vntill ye came vnto this place.

32 Yet for all this ye did not beleue the Lord your God,

33 Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, that yee might see what way to go, and in a cloud by day.

34 Then the Lord heard the voyce of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying,

35 Surely there shall not one of these men of this froward generation see that good land which I sware to giue vnto your fathers,

36 Save Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh: hee shall see it, and to him will I giue the land that he hath troden vpon, and to his children, because he hath constantly followed the Lord.

37 Also the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither,

38 But Ioshua the sonne of Nun which standeth before thee, he shall goe in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover your children, which yee saide should be a pray, and your sonnes, which in that day had no knowledge betweene good and euill, they shall goe in thither, and vnto them will I giue it, and they shall possesse it.

40 But as for you, turne backe, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the red sea.

41 Then yee answered and said vnto me, Wee haue sinned against the Lord, we wil go vp, and fight, according to all that the Lord our God hath commanded vs: and yee armed you euery man to the warre, and were ready to goe vp into the mountaine.

42 But the Lord said vnto me, Say vnto them, Goe not vp, neither fight, (for I am y not among you) lest ye fall before your enemies.

43 And when I told you, ye would not heare, but rebelled against the commandement of the Lord, and were presumptuous, and went vp into the mountaine.

44 Then the Amorites which dwell in that mountaine came vp against you, and chased you (as bees vse to do) and destroyed you in Seir, euen vnto Hormah.

45 And when ye came againe, yee wept before the Lord, but the Lord would not heare your voice, nor incline his eares vnto you.

46 So ye abode in Kadesh a long time, according to the time that ye had remained before.

CHAP. II.

4 Israel is forbidden to fight with the Edomites, 9 Moabites, 19 and Ammonites, 33 Sibon king of Heshbon is discomfited.

Then we turned, and tooke our journey into the wilderness by the way of the red Sea, as the Lord spake vnto me: & we compassed mount Seir a long time.

2 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying,

3 Yee haue compassed this mountaine long enough: turne you Northward.

4 And warne thou the people, saying, Yee shall goe thorow the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shall be afraid of you: take yee good heed therefore.

5 Yee shall not prouoke them: for I will not giue you of their land so much as a foote breadth, because I haue giuen mount Seir vnto Esau for a possession.

6 Yee shall buy meate of them for money to eate, and yee shall also procure water of them for money to drinke.

7 For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thine hand: he knoweth thy walking thorow this great wilderness, and the Lord thy God hath been with thee this forty yere, and thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when wee were departed from our brethren the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, thorow the way of the plaine, from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, wee turned and went by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 Then the Lord said vnto mee, Thou shalt not vex Moab, neither prouoke them to battle: for I will not giue thee of their land for a possession, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 The Emims dwell therein in times past, a people great and many, and call as the Anakims.

11 They also were taken for giants as the Anakims: whom the Moabites call Emims.

12 The Horims also dwell in Seir before time, whom the children of Esau chased out and destroyed them before them, and dwell in their stead: as Israel shall doe vnto the land of his possession, which the Lord hath giuen them.

13 Now rise vp, said I, and get you ouer the river Zered: and we went ouer the river Zered.

14 The space also wherein wee came from Kadesh-barnea, vntill wee were come ouer the river Zered, was eight and thirty yeres, vntill all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hosts, as the Lord sware vnto them.

15 For indeede the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the host till they were consumed.

2 Because ye rather shewed your hypocrisie, then true repentance: rather lamenting the losse of your brethren, then repenting for your sinnes.

3 They obeyed after that God chastised them.

9 Numb. 13. 24. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50.

9 To wit, Caleb, and Ioshua, Moses preferred the better part to the greater share, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50.

9 Such was the lawes vnto the Israelites, that they feared Gods discipline, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50.

1 Declaring that to reuenge our owne force, and constantly to follow our vocation, and depend on the Lord, is the true boldnesse, and agreeable to God.

9 This declares the nature, who will do what which God forbid, and will not doe that which hee commandeth. 10 Signifying that we haue no strength, but when God is with us to help him.

16 Then the Lord spake vnto me, saying, 17 Then shalt thou goe thorow Ar the coast of Moab this day. 18 And thou shalt come nere oter against the children of Ammon: but shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: for I will not giue thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession: for I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot for a possession. 19 That also was taken for a land of gyants: for gyants dwelt therein aforetime, whom the Ammonites called Zanzumims: 20 A people that was great and many, & tall, as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their stead. 21 As hee did so the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, when hee destroyed the Horims before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their stead vnto this day. 22 And the Avims which dwell in Hazarim vnto Azzah, the Caphtorims which came out of Caphtor destroyed them, & dwell in their stead. 23 Rise vp therefore, said the Lord, take your journey, and passe over the river Arnon: beholde, I haue giuen into thy hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and pronounce him to be a banell. 24 This day will I begin to fend thy fere, and thy dread vpon all people vnder the whole heauen, which shall heare thy fame, and shall tremble and quake before thee. 25 Then I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth vnto Sihon king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying, 26 Let mee passe thorow thy land: I will goe by the high way: I will neither turne vnto the right hand nor to the left. 27 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, for to eate: and shalt giue me water for money, for to drinke: only I will goe thorow on my footes. 28 (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did vnto me) until I bee come ouer Iordan, into the land which the Lord our God giue vs. 29 But Sihon the king of Heshbon would not let vs passe by him: for the Lord thy God had hardened his spirit, & made his heart obstinate, because he would deliuer him into thine hand, as appeareth this day. 30 And the Lord said vnto me, Behold, I haue begun to giue Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess it, and inherite his land. 31 Then came on Sihon to meet vs, him selfe with all his people to fight at Heshbon. 32 But the Lord our God deliuered him into our power, and we smote him, and his sonnes, and all his people. 33 And we tooke all his cities the same time, and destroyed every citie, men, and women, and children: wile nothing remaine. 34 Only the cattell we tooke to our selues, and the spoile of the citie which we tooke. 35 From Aroer, which is by the banke of the river of Arnon, & from the citie that is vpon the river, even vnto Gilead there was not one citie that escaped vs: for the Lord our God deliuered vs all before vs.

17 Only vnto the land of the children of Ammon thou camst not, nor vnto any place of the river Iabbok, nor vnto the cities in the mountaynes: nor vnto wharsoeuer the Lord our God forbadays.

Pisgah Eastward.

18 ¶ And I commanded you the same time, saying, The Lord your God hath given you this land to possess it: yee shall goe ouer armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all men of warre.

19 Your wives onely, and your children, and your cattell (for I know that ye haue much cattell) shall abide in your cities, which I haue given you,

20 Vntill the Lord haue giuen rest vnto your brethren as vnto you, and that they also possess the lande, which the Lord your God hath giuen them beyond Iorden: then shall ye returne every man vnto his possession, which I haue giuen you.

21 ¶ And I charged Ioshua the same time, saying, Thine eyes haue seene all that the Lord your God hath done vnto these two kings: so shall the Lord doe vnto all the kingdomes whither thou goest.

22 Ye shall not feare them: for the Lord your God, he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the Lord the same time, saying,

24 O Lord God, thou hast begun to shew thy seruant thy greatnesse and thy mighty hand: for where is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can doe like thy works, and like thy power?

25 I pray thee let me go ouer and see the good land that is beyond Iorden, that goodly mountaine and Lebanon.

26 But the Lord was angry with mee for your sakes, and would not heare mee: and the Lord said vnto me, Let it suffice thee, speake no more vnto me of this matter.

27 Get thee vp into the top of Pisgah, & lift vp thine eyes Westward, and Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, & behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not goe ouer this Iorden.

28 But charge Ioshua, and encourage him, and bolden him: for he shall goe before this people and he shall diuide for inheritance vnto them the land which thou shalt see.

29 So wee abode in the valley ouer against Beth-Peor.

CHAP. III.

1 ¶ An exhortation to observe the law, without adding thereto or diminishing. 2 Therein sheweth out with danger, 3 Wee must hearken to our children. 4 No images to be made to worship. 5 The warning against them that forsake the Law of God. 6 God cheseth the first because he loved their fathers. 7 The three estates of refuge.

Now therefore hearken, O Israel, vnto the Nordinances and to the lawes which I teach you to doe that ye may liue and goe in, and possess the land, which the Lord God of your fathers giveth you.

2 Ye shall put nothing vnto the word which I command you, neither shall yee take ought therefrom, that ye may keep the commandements of the Lord your God, which I command you.

3 Your eyes haue seene what the Lord did because of Baal-Peor: for all the men that followed Baal-Peor, the Lord thy God hath destroyed euery one from among you.

4 But yee that did cleaue vnto the Lord your God, are aliuely euery one of you this day.

5 Behold, I haue taught you ordinances, and lawes, as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should doe euen so within the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keepe them therefore, and doe them: for that is your wisdom, & your vnderstanding in the sight of the people, which shall heare all these ordinances, and shall say, ¶ Onely this people is wise, and of vnderstanding, and a great nation.

7 For what nation is so great, vnto whome the gods come so neere vnto them, as the Lord our God is so neere vnto vs, in all that we call vnto him for?

8 And what nation is so great that hath ordinances and lawes so righteous, as all this Lawe, which I set before you this day?

9 But take heede to thy selfe, and keepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thine heart all the daies of thy life: but teach them thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes.

10 Forget not the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I will cause them heare my words, that they may learne to feare me all the daies that they shall liue vpon the earth, and that they may teach their children:

11 Then came you neere and stood vnder the mountaine, and the mountaine burnt with fire vnto the mids of heauen, and there was darkness, clouds and mist.

12 And the Lord spake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, and yee heard the voyce of the words, but saw no similitude, saw a voyce.

13 Then hee declared vnto you his couenant which he commanded you to doe, euen the ten commandements, and wrote them vpon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And the Lord commanded me that same time that I should teach you ordinances & lawes which you should obserue in the land, whether ye goe to possess it.

15 Take therefore good heede vnto your selues, for ye saw no image in the day that the Lord spake vnto you in Horeb out of the middes of the fire:

16 That ye corrupt not your selues, and make you a grauen image or representation of any figure: whether it be the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on earth, or the likeness of any feathered foule that flieth in the aire:

18 Or the likeness of any thing that creepeth on the earth, or the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth.

19 And lest thou lift vp thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne and the moone and the starres with all the host of heauen, shouldest be driuen to worship them and serue them, which the Lord thy God hath distributed to all people vnder the whole heauen.

20 But the Lord hath taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt to be vnto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day.

21 And the Lord was angry with me for your words, and sware that I should not goe ouer Iorden, and that I should not goe in vnto that good land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance.

22 For I must die in this land, and shall not goe ouer Iorden: but ye shall goe ouer, and possess that good land.

23 Take heede vnto your selues, lest ye forget

Because all men naturally desire wisdom, he sheweth how to attaine vnto it.

For, first,

Helping vs, and deliuering vs out of all dangers, as 2 Sam. 7. 29.

He addeth all these words, to shew that we can neuer be carefull enough to keepe the Law of God, and to teach it to our posterity.

Exod. 19. 8.

The Law was given with seasonall miracles to declare both that God was the author thereof, and also that no flesh was able to abide the rigours of the same.

God loyeth this condition to his couenant, 4 Or, words.

The Jews' destruction is prepared for all them that make any image to represent God.

He hath appointed them for a fierce man.

He hath deliuered you out of most miserable slavery, and freely chosen you for his children.

Moses good affection appereth to that that he doth deprecate of such an excellent creature, though he enuie them that must obey it.

...the covenant of the Lord thy God which he made with you, and he will make you any graven image, like unto all things, as the Lord thy God hath charged thee.

24 For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, and a jealous God.

25 When thou shalt beget children & children's children, and shalt have remained long in the land, if thou corruptest thyself, and make any graven image, like unto all things, & workest evil in the sight of the Lord thy God, to provoke him to anger.

26 I will call heaven and earth to record against you this day, that ye shall shortly perish from the land, wherunto ye goe out of Jordan to possess it: ye shall not prolong your dayes therein, but shall verily be destroyed.

27 And the Lord shall scatter you among the people, and ye shall be left few in number among the nations, whither the Lord shall bring you.

28 And there yet shall serve gods, even the worke of mans hand, wood, and stone, which neither see nor heare, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seeke him with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things come upon thee, for the length if thou returne to the Lord thy God, and be obedient unto his voyce.

31 For the Lord thy God is a merciful God, he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he saith unto thee.

32 For enquire now of the dayes that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one end of heaven unto the other, if athis came to pass, such a great thing, whether any such like thing hath bene heard of.

33 Did ever people heare the voyce of God speaking out of the middes of a fire, as thou hast heard, and lived?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from among nations, by tentations, by signes, and by wonders, and by warre, and by a mightie hand, and by a stretched out arme, & by great feare, according unto all that the Lord your God did unto you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest knowe that the Lord he is God; and that there is none but he alone.

36 Out of heaven hee made thee heare his voyce to instruct thee, and upon earth hee shewed thee his greatness, and thou heardest his voyce out of the middes of a fire.

37 And because hee loved thy fathers, therefore hee chose thee, after thou hadst brought thee out of Egypt in his fight by his mighty power.

38 To thrust out nations greater and mightier then thou, before thee, to bring thee in, and to give thee their land for inheritance, as appeareth this day.

39 Understand therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none other.

40 Thou shalt keepe therefore his ordinances, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy dayes upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for ever.

¶ Then Moles separated three cities on this side of Jordan toward the sunne rising:

32 That the slayer should flee thither, which had killed his neighbour at unawares, and hated him not in time past, might flee, I say, unto one of these cities, and live.

33 That is, Bezor in the wilderness, in the plaine country of the Reubenites: and Ramoth in Gilead among the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan among them of Manassah.

34 So this is the lawe which Moles set before the children of Israel.

35 These are the witnesses, and the ordinances, and the lawes which Moles declared to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt.

36 On this side Jordan, in the valley oust against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites which dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moles and the children of Israel smote, after they were come out of Egypt.

37 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites which were on this side Jordan toward the sunne rising.

38 From Aroer, which is by the banke of the river Arnon, even unto Mount Sion, which is Hammad.

39 And all the plaine by Jordan pastwarde, even unto the Sea of the plaine, under the springs of Pilgah.

¶ Then Moles called all Israel, and saide unto them, Hear, O Israel, the ordinances and the lawes which I propose unto you this day: that ye may learne them, and take heed to observe them.

1 The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

2 The Lord said unto this covenant with our fathers, and with us, even with you, at this time.

3 The Lord talked with you face to face in the Mount, out of the middes of the fire.

4 (At that time I stood betweene the Lord and you, to declare unto you the word of the Lord, for ye were afraid at the sight of the fire, and went not up into the mount) and he said unto me, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

5 Thou shalt have none other gods before my face.

6 Thou shalt make thee no graven image, any thing like unto that is in heaven above, or which is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters under the earth.

7 Thou shalt neither bow thy selfe unto them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquities of the fathers upon the children, even unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

8 And thou shalt observe these things, that thou shalt not do:

God promised reward for our merits, but to encourage us, and to shew that our labour shall not be lost.

11 Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord will not hold him guiltlesse that taketh his Name in vaine.

12 Keepe the Sabbath day to sanctifie it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee.

13 Sixe dayes thou shalt labour, and shalt do all thy worke:

14 But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: thou shalt not doe any worke therein, thou nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy man seruant, nor thy maide, nor thine oxe, nor thine asse, neither any of thy cattell, nor the stranger that is within thy gates: that thy man seruant and thy maide may rest as well as thou.

15 For, remember that thou wast a seruant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord thy God brought thee out thence by a mightie hand and a stretched out arme: therefore the Lord thy God commanded thee to obserue the Sabbath day.

16 ¶ Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, that thy dayes may be prolonged, and that it may goe well with thee vpon the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

17 Thou shalt not kill.

18 Neither shalt thou commit adulterie.

19 Neither shalt thou steale.

20 Neither shalt thou beare false witnesse against thy neighbour.

21 Neither shalt thou couet thy neighbors wife, neither shalt thou desire thy neighbours house, his field, nor his man seruant, nor his maide, his oxe, nor his asse, nor ought that thy neighbour hath.

22 ¶ These wordes the Lorde spake vnto all your multitude in the mount out of the mids of the fire, the cloud and the darkenesse, with a great voyce, and added no more thereto: & wrote them vpon two tables of stone, and deliuered them yn-to me.

23 And when yee heard the voyce out of the middles of the darkenesse, (for the mountaine did burne with fire) then came ye to me all the chiefe of your tribes, and your Elders:

24 And yee saide, Beholde, the Lorde our God hath shewed vs his glory and his greatness, and we haue heard his voyce out of the mids of the fire: we haue seene this day that God doeth talke with man, and hee is heere.

25 Nowe therefore, why should wee die? for this great fire will consume vs: if wee heare the voyce of the Lord our God any more, we shall die.

26 For what shall we there euer, that heard the voyce of the liuing God speaking out of the mids of the fire as we haue, and liued?

27 Goe thou neere, and heare all that the Lord our God saith: and declare thou vnto vs all that the Lord our God saith vnto thee, * and wee will heare it, and doe it.

28 Then the Lorde heard the voyce of your wordes, when yee spake vnto mee: and the Lorde sayde vnto mee, I haue heard the voyce of this people, which they haue spoken vnto thee: they haue well sayde all that they haue spoken.

29 Oh that there were such an heart in them to feare me, and to keepe all my commandements alway: that it might goe well with them, & with their children for euer.

30 ¶ Nowe these wordes the Lorde spake vnto mee, and hee saide, I will be a Father to the fatherlesse, and a Father to the weake.

30 Goe, say vnto them, Returne you into your tents.

31 But stand thou here with me, and I will tell thee all the commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which thou shalt teach them: that they may do them in the land which I giue them to possesse it.

32 Take heede therefore, that yee doe as the Lord your God hath commanded you: I turne not aside to the right hand nor to the left.

33 But walke in all the wayes which the Lord your God hath commaunded you, that yee may liue, and that it may goe well with you: & that yee may prolong your dayes in the land which ye shall possesse.

CHAP. VI.
An exhortation to feare God, and keepe his commandements, which is, to feare him with all thine heart, 7 The same must be taught to the people. 18. Now to sanctify God. 25. Right iustitie is contained in the Law.

These now are the commandements, ordinaces, and lawes, which the Lorde your God commanded me to teach you, that yee might doe them in the land whether ye goe to possesse it:

1 That thou mightest feare the Lord thy God, and keepe all his ordinances, and his commandements which I commaund thee, thou, & thy son, and thy sonnes sonne, all the dayes of thy life, euen that thy dayes may be prolonged.

2 Heare therefore, O Israel, and take heed to do it, that it may goe well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily in the land that floweth with milke and hony, as the Lorde God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

3 Heare, O Israel, The Lorde our God is Lord only.

4 And thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy might.

5 And these wordes which I commaund thee this day, shall be in thine heart.

6 And thou shalt rehearse them continually vnto thy children, and shalt talke of them vhen thou tarrest in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest downe, & when thou risset vp.

7 And thou shalt binde them for a signe vpon thine hand, & they shall be as frontlets betwene thine eyes.

8 Also thou shalt write them vpon the posts of thine house, and vpon thy gates.

9 And when the Lord thy God hath brought thee into the land which hee sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, & Iaakob, to giue to thee, with great & goodly cities which thou buildedst not.

10 And houses full of all manner of goods which thou filledst not, and wells digged vvhich thou diggedst not, vineyards & oliue trees which thou plantest not, and when thou hast eaten and art full.

11 Beware lest thou forget the Lorde, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

12 Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God, and serue him, and shalt sweare by his Name.

13 Yee shall not walke after ocher gods, after bout you.

CHAP. VIII.

^a God brought the Israelites to the place where they were to be circumcised. ^b God chastised them as his children. ^c The Israelites ought not to be proud for God's benefits. ^d The forgetfulness of God brings on his people destruction.

Ye shall keepe all the commandments which I command thee this day, for^a to doe them: that ye may liue, and be multiplied, and go in, and possesse the land which the Lord swaue vnto your fathers.

^a And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee this fortie yeere in the wilderness for to humble thee, and to^b proue thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keepe his commandments or no.

^c Therefore he humbled thee, and made thee hungry, and fed thee with MANN, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know it, that hee might teach thee that man liueth not by bread onely, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord, doth a man liue.

^d Thy raiment waxed not old vpon thee, neither did thy foote swell those fourtie yeeres.

^e Know therefore in thine heart, that as a man nourieth his sonne, so the Lord thy God nourieth thee.

^f Therefore shalt thou keepe the commandments of the Lord thy God, that thou mayest walke in his wayes, and feare him.

^g For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land in the which are riuers of water and fountaines, and depths that spring out of vallies and mountaines:

^h A land of wheat and barley, and of vineyards and fig-trees, and pomegranates: a land of oile olue, and hony:

ⁱ A land wherein thou shalt eate bread without scarcitie, neither shalt thou lacke any thing therein: a land^j whose stones are yron, and out of whose mountaines thou shalt dig brasie.

^k And when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, thou shalt^l blesse the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

^m Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, not keeping his commandments and his lawes, and his ordinances, which I command thee this day:

ⁿ Lest when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, and hast built goodly houses and dwelt therein,

^o And thy beasts, and thy sheepe, are increased, and thy silver and gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is increased,

^p Then thine heart^q be lifted vp, and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

^r Who was thy guide in the great & terrible wilderness (wherein were fire serpents & scorpions, and drought, where was no water, who brought forth water for thee out of the rocke of flint:

^s Who fed thee in the wilderness with^t MANN, which thy fathers knew not) to humble thee, and to proue thee, that he might doe thee good at thy latter end.

^u But remember lest thou say in thine heart, My power, and the strength of mine owne hand hath increased me this abundance.

^v But remember the Lord thy God: for it is he which^w giueth thee power to get substance, to establish his couenant which hee swaue vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

^x And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walke after other gods, and serue them, and worship them, I^y testify vnto you this day, that yee shall surely perish.

^z As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before you, so shall ye perish, because yee would not be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God.

CHAP. IX.

^a God doeth them not good for their own righteousnesse, but for his own sake. ^b Moses proueth them in remembrance of their sinnes. ^c The two tables are broken. ^d Moyses prayeth for the people.

Hear^e O Israel, thou shalt passe ouer Iordan this day to goe in and to possesse nations greater and mightier then thy selfe, & cities great and walled vp to heauen.

^f A people great and tall, euen the children of the Anakims, who thou knowest, and of whom thou hast^g heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak?

^h Vnderstand therefore that day this day the Lord thy God is hee whichⁱ goeth ouer before thee as a consuming fire: hee shall destroy them, and hee shall bring them downe before thy face: so thou shalt cast them out and destroy them suddenly, as the Lord hath said vnto thee.

^j Speake not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee) saying, For my^k righteousnesse the Lord hath brought me in, to possesse this land: but for the wickednesse of these nations the Lord hath cast them out before thee.

^l For thou entrest not to inherit their lands for thy righteousnesse, or for thy vpright heart: but for the wickednesse of those nations, the Lord thy God doeth cast them out before thee, and that he might performe the word which the Lord thy God swaue vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob.

^m Vnderstand therefore, that the Lord thy God giueth thee not this good land to possesse it for thy righteousnesse: for thou art aⁿ stiffnecked people.

^o Remember and forget not how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to anger in the wilderness: since the day that thou diddest depart out of the land of Egypt, vntill yee came vnto this place, ye haue rebelled against the Lord.

^p Also in Horeb ye provoked the Lord to anger, so that the Lord was wroth with you, euen to destroy you.

^q When I was gone vp into the mount to receiue the tables of stone, the tables of the couenant which the Lord made with you: and I abode in the mount forty dayes and forty nightes, and I neither ate bread nor yet dranke water:

^r Then the Lord deliuered mee two tables of stone, written with the finger of God, and in them was contained according to all the wordes which the Lord had said vnto you in the mount out of the middes of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

^s And when the fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes were ended, the Lord gaue me the two tables of stone, the tables of the couenant.

^t And the Lord said vnto me, Arise get thee downe quickly from hence for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, have a curse their way: they are loone turned out of the way which I commanded them, they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore the Lord spake vnto me, saying, I have sene this people, and beholde, it is a stiffnecked people.

14 Let mee alone, that I may destroy them, and put out their name from vnder heauen, and I will make of thee a mightie nation and greater then they be.

15 So I returned, and came downe from the Mount (and the mount burnt with fire, & the two Tables of the covenant were in my two hands)

16 Then I looked, and beholde, yee had sinned against the Lord your God: for yee had made you a molten calfe, and had turned quickly out of the way which the Lord had commanded you.

17 Therefore I tooke the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell downe before the Lord, fourtie dayes, and fourtie nights, as before: I neither ate bread nor dranke water, because of al your sinnes which yee had committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, in that yee provoked him vnto wrath.

19 (For I was afraid of the wrath and indignation, wherewith the Lord was moued against you, when to destroy you) yet the Lord heard mee at that time also.

20 Likewise the Lord was very angry with Aaron, even to destroy him: but at that time I prayed also for Aaron.

21 And I tooke your sinne, I sawe the calfe which ye had made, and burnt him with fire, and stamped him and ground him small, even vnto very dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the river, that it should not be remembered.

22 Also in Taberah, & in Massah, and in Ki-broth-hattanah, ye provoked the Lord to anger.

23 Likewise when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go ye, and possesse the land which I have given you, then ye rebelled against the commandement of the Lord your God, and believed him not, nor hearkened vnto his voice.

24 Ye have bene rebellious vnto the Lord since the day that I knew you.

25 Then I fell downe before the Lord, fourty dayes and fourty nights, as I fell downe before, because the Lord had said, that he would destroy you.

26 And I prayed vnto the Lord, and saide, O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy great power, when thou hast broughte out of Egypt by a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy seruants Abraham, Izhak, and Iakob: looke not to the iniquities of this people, nor to their wickednes, nor to their sinne.

28 Left the countrey, whence thou broughtest them, say, because the Lord was not able to bring them into the land, which he promised them; or because he hated them, he turned them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yee they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mightie power, and by thy stretched out arme.

CHAP. X.

3 The second tables put in the Arke. 3 The tribes of Iudah declate to the service of the Tabernacle. 23 What the Lord requireth of him. 24 The circumcision of the heart. 25 God requireth the heart, 26 The Lord is the spirit of Israel.

1 Nether same time the Lord said vnto me, Howe the two tables of stone like vnto the first, and come ye vnto me into the Mount, and make thee an Arke of wood.

2 And I will write vpon the tables the words that were vpon the first Tables, which thou bra-kest, and thou shalt put them in the Arke.

3 And I made an Arke of Shittim wood, & hewed two Tables of stone like vnto the first, and went ye into the Mountaine, and the two Tables in mine hand.

4 Then he wrote vpon the Tables according to the first writing, (the tenne commandements, which the Lord spake vnto you in the Mount out of the middes of the fire, in the day of the assembly) and the Lord gave them vnto me.

5 And I departed and came downe from the Mount, and put the Tables in the Arke which I had made: and there they bee, as the Lord commanded me.

6 And the children of Israel tooke their Iourney from Beeroh of the children of Isakari, to Mosera, where Aaron died, and was buried,
and Eleazar his sonne became Priest in his stead.

7 From thence they departed vnto Gud-godah, and from Gudgodah to Iotbah a land of running waters.

8 The same time the Lord separated the tribe of Levi to beare the Arke of the covenant of the Lord, and to stand before the Lord, to minister vnto him, and to blesse in his Name vnto
this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: for the Lord is his inheritance, as the Lord thy God hath promised him.

10 And I taried in the Mount, as at the first time, fourtie dayes and fourtie nights, and the Lord heard me at that time also, and the Lords would not destroy thee.

11 But the Lord said vnto me, Arise go forth in the Iourney before the people, that they may goe in and possesse the land, which I sware vnto their fathers to give vnto them.

12 And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, to walke in all his waies, & to loue him, and to serue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule?

13 That thou looue the commandements of the Lord and his ordinances, which I command thee this day, for thy wealth?

14 Behold, heauen, and the heauen of heauens the Lords thy God, and the earth, with all that therein is.

15 Notwithstanding, the Lord for his delight in thy fathers to loue them, and did chuse their seed after them, even you about all people, as ap-peareth this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and harden your necks no more.

17 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, mightie and terrible, which accepteth no persons, nor taketh reward.

CHAP. XI.

2. An exhortation to love God, and keep his Law, 10 The praises of Canaan, 18 To meditate continually the word of God, 19 To teach it vnto the children, 26 Blessing and cursing.

¶ Therefore thou shalt loue the Lord thy God, and shalt keepe that, which he commandeth to be kept: that is his Ordinances, and his Lawes and his Commandements alway.

3. And * consider this day (for I speake not to your children, which haue neither known nor seene) the chastisement of the Lord your God, his greatnesse, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arme,

4. And his signes and his acts, which he did in the middes of Egypt vnto Pharaoh the king of Egypt and vnto all his land:

5. And what he did vnto the hoste of the Egyptians, vnto their horses, and to their charets, when he caused the waters of the red Sea to overflow them, as they pursued after you, and the Lord destroyed them vnto this day:

6. And what he did vnto you in the wilderness, vntill yee came vnto this place:

7. And what he did vnto Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab the sonne of Reuben, when the earth opened her mouth, & swallowed them with their households and their tents, and all their substance that they had in the middes of all Israel.

8. For your eyes haue seene all the great actes of the Lord which he did.

9. Therefore shall ye keepe all the Commandements, which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and goe in and possesse the land, whither ye goe to possesse it:

10. Also that ye may prolong your dayes in the land, which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, to giue vnto them and to their seed, euen a land that floweth with milke and hony.

11. ¶ For the land whither thou goest to possesse it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came, where thou sowedst thy seed, and watered it with thy || * fette as a garden of herbes:

12. But the land whither ye goe to possesse it, is a land of mountaines and valleyes, and drinketh water of the raine of heauen.

13. This land doeth the Lord thy God care for: the eyes of the Lord thy God are alwayes vpon it, from the beginning of the yeere, euen vnto the end of the yeere.

14. ¶ If yee shall hearken therefore vnto my Commandementes, which I command you this day, that yee loue the Lord your God and serue him with all your heart, and with all your soule,

15. I also will giue raine vnto your land in due time, the first raine & the latter, that thou maest gather in thy wheate, & thy wine, and thine oyle.

16. Also I will send grasse in thy fieldes for thy cattell, that thou mayest eate, and haue ynough.

17. But beware lest your heart deceiue you, and lest ye turne aside, and serue other gods, and worship them.

18. And so the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and he shut vp the heauen, that there be no raine, and that your land yeelde not her fruite, and ye perish quickly from the good land, which the Lord giueth you.

19. ¶ Therefore shall ye lay vp these my words in your heart, and in your soule, and * binde them for a signe vpon your hand, that they may bee as a frontlet betwene your eyes,

20. And yee shall * teach them your children, speaking of the when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, & when thou liest downe, and when thou risest vp.

21. And thou shalt write them vpon the posts of thine house, and vpon thy gates,

22. That your dayes may be multiplied, & the dayes of your children, in the land which the Lorde sware vnto your fathers to giue them, as long as the heauens are aboue the earth.

23. ¶ For if ye keepe diligently all these Commandementes, which I command you to doe; that is, to loue the Lorde your God, to walke in all his wayes, and to cleaue vnto him,

24. Then will the Lord cast out all these nations before you, and ye shall possesse great nations and mightier then you.

25. ¶ All the places whereon the soles of your feete shall treade, shall bee yours: you coast shall bee from the wilderness and from Lebanon, and from the Riuer, euen the riuer Perath, vnto the vttermoost Sea.

26. No man shall stande against you: for the Lorde your God shall cast the dread and feare of you vpon all the land that ye shall tread vpon, as he hath said vnto you.

27. Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

28. ¶ The blessing if yee obey the Commandements of the Lorde your God, which I command you this day:

29. And the * curse, if ye wil not obey the Commandementes of the Lord your God, but turne out of the way, which I command you this day, to goe after other gods, which ye haue not * knowne.

30. ¶ When the Lorde thy God therefore hath brought thee into the land, whither thou goest to possesse it, then thou shalt put the * blessing vpon mount Gerizim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal.

31. Are they not beyond Iorden on that part, where the Sunne goeth downe in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the plaine ouer against Gilgal, beside the || grove of Moreh?

32. For ye shall passe ouer Iorden, to goe in to possesse the land, which the Lord your God giueth you, and ye shall possesse it, and dwell therein.

33. Take heede therefore that yee * doe all the Commandementes and the Lawes, which I set before you this day.

speciall vows, which ye vow unto the Lord.
11. And ye shall rejoice before the Lord your God, ye and your sonnes and your daughters, and your servants, and your maydens, and the Levite, that is within your gates: for he hath no part nor inheritance with you.
12. Take heede that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou fallest:
13. But in the place which the Lord shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there shalt thou do all that I command thee.
14. Notwithstanding thou mayest kill & eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thine heart de-sireth, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath given thee: both the incense and the cleane may eat thereof, as of the roe bucke, and of the hart.
15. Only ye shall not eat the blood, but poure it upon the earth as water.
16. Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithes of thy corn, nor of thy wine, nor of thine oyle, nor the first borne of thy kine, nor of thy sheepe, neither any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy free offerings, nor the offering of thine hands.
17. But thou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, thou, thy son and thy daughter, and thy servant, and thy maid, and the Levite that is within thy gates: & thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God in all that thou puttest thine hand to.
18. Beware that thou forsake not the Lawe, as long as thou livest upon the earth.
19. When the Lord thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, (because thine heart longeth to eat flesh,) thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thine heart desireth.
20. If the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen for thee, be three furlonges from thee, thou shalt kill thy bullockes, and of thy sheepe which the Lord hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desireth.

21. Even as the roe bucke, and the hart is essen, so shalt thou eat them: both the vncleane and the cleane shall eat of them alike.
22. Only be sure that thou eat not the blood:
for the blood is the life, and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.
23. Therefore thou shalt not eat it, but poure it upon the earth as water.
24. Thou shalt not eat it, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Lord.
25. But thine holy things which thou hast and thy vows thou shalt take up, and come unto the place which the Lord shall chuse.
26. And thou shalt make thy burnt offerings of the flesh, and of the blood upon the Altar of the Lord thy God, & the blood of thine offerings shall be poured upon the Altar of the Lord thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.
27. Take heed, and heare all these words which I command thee, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the Lord thy God.
28. When the Lord thy God shall destroy the nations before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou shalt possess them and dwell in their land.
29. Beware, lest thou be taken in a snare after them, after that they be destroyed before thee, and lest thou aske after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods, that I may do so likewise?
30. Thou shalt not do so unto the Lord thy God: for all abomination which the Lord hateth, have they done unto their gods: for they have burned both their sonnes and their daughters with fire to their gods.
31. Therefore whatsoever I command you, take heede you do it: thou shalt put nothing thereto, nor take ought from it.

for they chew the cud, but diuide not the hoofe:
therefore they shall be vnclane vnto you:

8 Also the swine, because hee diuideth the but thou shalt giue it vnto the stranger that is 13 ¶ Thou shalt observe the feast of the Tabernacles seven dayes, when thou shalt gathered in thy corne, and thy wine.

14 And thou shalt reioyce in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, & thy servant, and thy maid, and the Leuite, and the stranger, and the fatherlesse, and the widow, are within thy gates.

17 Every man shall giue according to the gift of his hand, & according to the blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath giuen thee.

18 ¶ Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy cities, which the Lord thy God giueth thee throughout thy tribes: and they shall iudge the people with righteous iudgement.

19 Wilt thou not thou the Law, nor respect any person, neither take reward: for the reward blindeth the eyes of the wise, & peruerth the words of the iust.

¶ Thou shalt offer vnto the Lord thy God no bullocke nor sheepe wherein is a blemish, or any still fauoured thing: for that is an abomination vnto the Lord thy God.

2 ¶ If there be found among you in any of thy cities, which the Lord thy God giueth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his couenant,

3 And hath gone and serued other gods, and worshipped them, as the Sunne, or the Moone, or any of the hostes of heaven, which I haue not commanded,

4 And it be told vnto thee, and thou hast heard it, then shalt thou inquire diligently, and if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel,

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man, or that woman (which hath committed that wicked thing) vnto thy gates, whether it be man or woman: and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

6 ¶ At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall he that is worthy of death, die: but at the mouth of one witness he shall not die.

7 The hands of the witnesses shall bee first vpon him, to kill him: and afterward the hands of all the people: so shalt thou take the wicked away from among you.

8 ¶ If there rise a matter too hard for thee in iudgement betwene blood and blood, betwene plea and plea, betwene plague and plague, in the matters of controuersie within thy gates, then shalt thou arise, and go vp vnto the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse,

9 And thou shalt come vnto the Priests of the Leuites, and vnto the Judge that shall be in those dayes, and aske, and they shall shew thee the sentence of iudgement.

10 And thou shalt do according to that thing which they of that place (which the Lord hath chosen) shew thee, and thou shalt observe to doe according to all that they informe thee.

11 According to the Law, which they shall teach thee, & according to the iudgement which they shall tell thee, shalt thou do: thou shalt not decline fro the thing which they shall shew thee, neither to the right hand, nor the left.

12 And that man that wil do presumptuously, not hearkening vnto the Priest (that standeth before the Lord thy God to minister there), or vnto the Iudge, that man shall die, and thou shalt take away euil from Israel.

13 So all the people shall heare and feare, and do no more presumptuously.

14 ¶ When thou shalt come vnto the lande which the Lord thy God giueth thee, and shalt possesse it, and dwell therein, if thou say, I wil set a King ouer me, like as all the nations that are about me,

15 Then thou shalt make him King ouer thee, whom the Lord thy God shall chuse from among thy brethren shalt thou make a King ouer thee: thou shalt not set a stranger ouer thee, which is not thy brother.

16 In any wise he shall not prepare him many horses, nor bring the people againe to Egypt, for to increase the number of horses, seeing the Lord hath sayd vnto you, Ye shall henceforth geue no more againe that way.

17 Neither shall he take him many wiues, lest his heart turne away, neither shall he gather him much silver and gold.

18 And when he shall sit vpon the throne of his kingdome, then shall he write him this Law repeated in a booke, by the Priests of the Leuites,

19 And it shall be with him, and he shall reade therein all dayes of his life, that he may learne to feare the Lord his God, and to keepe al the words of this Law, and these ordinances for to do them:

20 That his heart bee not lifted vp above his brethren, and that he turne not from the Commandement to the right hand or to the left, but that he may prolong his dayes in his kingdome, he, and his sonnes in the mids of Israel.

When thou shalt goe forth to warre against thine enemies, and shalt see horses and chariots, and people more then thou, be not afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

2 And when ye are come neere vnto the battell, then the Priest shall come forth to speake vnto the people,

3 And shall say vnto them, Heare, O Israel, ye are come this day vnto battell against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, neither feare, nor be amazed, nor adread of them.

4 For the Lord your God goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, and to save you.

5 And let the officers speake vnto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it, let him go and returne to his house, lest he die in the battell, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is there that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not eaten of the fruit? let him go and returne againe vnto his house, lest he die in the battell, and another eat the fruit.

7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him goe and returne againe vnto his house, lest hee die in battell, and another man take her.

8 And let the officers speake further vnto the people, and say, Whosoever is afraid and faint hearted, let him goe and returne vnto his house, lest his bretherens heart faint like his heart.

9 And after that the officers haue made an end of speaking vnto the people, they shall make captaines of the armie to gouerne the people.

10 When thou comest neere vnto a citie to fight against it, thou shalt offer it peace.

11 And if it answer thee againe peaceably, and open vnto thee, then let all the people that is found therein, be tributaries vnto thee, and serue thee.

12 But if it will make no peace with thee, but make war against thee, then shalt thou besiege it.

13 And the Lord thy God shall deliuer it into thine hands, and thou shalt smite all the males thereof with the edge of the sword.

14 Onely the women, and the children, and the cattell, and all that is in the city, except all the spoile thereof shalt thou take vnto thy selfe, and shalt eate the spoile of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee.

15 Thus shalt thou doe vnto all the cities, which are a great way off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations here.

16 But of the cities of these people, which the Lord thy God shall giue thee to inherit, thou shalt slay no person aloue.

17 But shalt utterly destroy them, as with the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Jebusites: as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee.

18 That they teach you not to doe after all their abominations, which they haue done vnto their gods: and ye should fume against the Lord your God.

19 When thou hast besieged a citie long time, and made warre against it to take it, destroy not the trees thereof, by cutting an axe into them: for thou mayest eat of them: therefore thou shalt not cut them downe to further thee in the siege, (for the tree of the field is mans life)

20 Onely those trees which thou knowest are not for meate, those shalt thou destroy and cut downe, and make fortres against the city that maketh warre with thee vntill thou subdue it.

5 Also the Priests the sonnes of Levi (whom the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister, and to blesse in the Name of the Lord) shall come forth, & by their word shall strife & plague be tried.

6 And all the Elders of that citie that came neere to the slaine man, shall wash their hands ouer the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And shall testifie, and say, Our hands haue not shed this blood, neither haue our eyes seen it.

8 O Lord, bee mercifull vnto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay no innocent blood to the charge of thy people Israel, and the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 So shalt thou take away the cry of innocent blood from thee, when thou shalt doe that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

lied with her, have her,

14 And lay slanderous things vnto her charge, and bring vp an euill name vpon her, and say, I took this wife, and when I came to her, I found her not a mayd,

15 Then shall the father of the mayde and her mother take and bring eue figures of the maydes

Elders, I gave my daughter vnto this man to wife, and he hath her.

17 And loe, he layeth slanderous things vnto her charge, saying, I found not thy daughter a man and chastise him.

22 If a man be found lying with a woman married to a man, then they shall die both her, man that lay with her shall die alone.

3 And thou shalt answer and say before the Lord thy God, A Syrian was my father, who being ready to perish for hunger, went downe into Egypt, and sojourned there with a small company, and grew there vnto a nation great, mighty, and full of people.

6 And the Egyptians vexed vs, and troubled vs, and laded vs with cruell bondage.

7 But when we cried vnto the Lord God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voice, and looked on our aduersitie, and on our labour, and on our oppression.

8 And the Lord brought vs out of Egypt in a mighty hand, & stretched out arme, with great terriblest, both in signes and wonders.

9 And he hath brought vs into this place, and hath giuen vs this land, even a land that floweth with milke and hony.

10 And now, I see, I have brought the first fruits of the land, which thou, O Lord, hast giuen me, and thou shalt setie before the Lord thy God, and worship before the Lord thy God:

11 And thou shalt reioyce in all the good things which the Lord thy God hath giuen vnto thee, and to thine household, thou and the Leuite, and the stranger that is among you.

14 I haue not earen thereof in my mourning, nor suffered ought to perish through vncleanesse, nor giuen ought thereof for the dead, but haue hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lord my God: I haue done after all that thou hast commanded me.

15 Look downe from thine holy habitation, even from heauen, and blesse thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast giuen vs (as thou swarest vnto our fathers) the land that floweth with milke and hony.

16 ¶ This day the Lord thy God doeth command thee to doe these ordinances and lawes: keepe them therefore, and doe them with all thine heart, and with all thy soule.

17 Thou hast set vp the Lord this day to bee thy God, and to walke in his wayes, and to keepe his ordinances, and his commandements, and his lawes, and to hearken vnto his voyce.

18 ¶ And the Lord hath set thee vp this day, to bee a precious people vnto him (as he hath promised thee) and that thou shouldst keepe all his commandements.

19 And to make thee high above all nations (which he hath made) in praise, and in name and in glory, and that thou shouldst bee an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, as he hath said.

8 And thou shalt write vpon the stones all the words of this Law, well and plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses and the Priests of the Leuites spake vnto all Israel, saying, Take heed and heare O Israel: this day thou art become the people of the Lord thy God.

10 Thou shalt hearken therefore vnto the voice of the Lord thy God, and doe his commandements and his ordinances, which I command thee this day.

11 ¶ And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand vpon mount Gerizzim, to blesse the people when ye shall passe ouer Iorden: Simeon and Levi, and Iudah, and Issachar, and Ioseph, and Benjamin.

13 And these shall stand vpon mount Ebal, to curse: Reuben, Gad, and Aser, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 And the Leuites shall answer, and say vnto all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

15 ¶ Cursed be the man that shall make any carved or molten image, which is an abomination vnto the Lord, the worke of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place: And all the people shall answer and say: So be it.

16 Cursed bee he that curseth his father and his mother: and all the people shall say: So be it.

17 Cursed be he that remoueth his neighbours mark: And all the people shall say: So be it.

18 Cursed be he that maketh the blind go out of the way: And all the people shall say: So be it.

19 Cursed be he that hindreth the right of the stranger, the fatherlesse, and the widow: And all the people shall say: So be it.

20 Cursed bee he that lieth with his fathers wife: for hee hath vncouered his fathers skirt: And all the people shall say: So be it.

21 Cursed be he that lieth with any beast: And all the people shall say: So be it.

22 Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: and all the people shall say: So be it.

CHAP. XXVIII.

17 If thou shalt obey diligently the voice of the Lord thy God, and observe and do all his commandments, which I command thee this day, then the Lord thy God will set thee on high above all the nations of the earth.

18 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt obey the voice of the Lord thy God.

19 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed also in the field.

20 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy carrell, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheepe.

21 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy dough.

22 Blessed shalt thou be, when thou comest in,
and blessed also when thou goest out.

23 The Lord shall cause thine enemies that rise against thee, to fall before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and shall flee before thee seven ways.

24 The Lord shall command the blessing to be with thee in thy store houses, and in all that thou settest thine hand to, and will bless thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

25 The Lord shall make thee an holy people vnto himselfe, as he hath sworn vnto thee, if thou shalt keepe the commandments of the Lord thy God, and walke in his wayes.

26 Then all people of the earth shall see that the Name of the Lord is called upon thee, and they shall be afraid of thee.

27 And the Lord shall make thee plentiful in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy carrell, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the Lord sworne vnto thy fathers, to give thee.

28 The Lord shall open vnto thee his good treasure, and shall send thee rain vnto thy land in due season, and to bless all the works of thine hands: and thou shalt lend vnto many nations, but shalt not borrow thy selfe.

29 And the Lord shall make thee the head, and not the taile, and thou shalt be above many, and shall not be beneath, if thou obey the commandments of the Lord thy God which I command thee this day, to keepe and to do them.

30 But thou shalt not decline from any of the wordes, which I command you this day, either to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

31 For if thou wilt not obey the voice of the Lord thy God, to keepe and to do all his commandments, and his ordinances, which I command thee this day, then all these curses shall come vpon thee, and overtake thee.

32 Cursed shalt thou be in the towne, and cursed also in the field.

33 Cursed shall thy basket be, and thy dough.

34 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheepe.

35 Cursed shalt thou be, when thou comest in,
and cursed also when thou goest out.

36 The Lord shall send vpon thee cursing, trouble, and shame, in all that which thou shalt set thine hand to do, vntill thou be destroyed, and perish quickly, because of the wickedness of thy works, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

37 The Lord shall make the pestilence cleave vnto thee, vntill he have consumed thee from this land, whither thou goest to possesse it.

38 The Lord shall smite thee with a consumption, and with the fever, and with a burning ague, and with severe heat, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with the mildew, and they shall pursue thee vntill thou perish.

39 And thine heaven that is over thine head, shall be brass, and the earth that is vnder thee, yron.

40 The Lord shall give thee for the rain of thy land, dust and ashes: from heaven shall it come downe vpon thee, vntill thou be destroyed.

41 And the Lord shall cause thee to fall before thine enemies: thou shalt come out one way against them, and shalt flee seven wayes before them, & shalt be scattered through all the king-domes of the earth.

42 And thy carkeis shall be meat vnto all fowles of the aire, and vnto the beasts of the earth, and none shall fray them away.

43 The Lord will smite thee with the boche of Egypt, and with the emeroids, and with the ska-les, and with the inch, that thou canst not be healed.

44 And the Lord shall smite thee with madnesse, and with blindness, and with a stomping of heart.

45 Thou shalt also grope at noone dayes, as the blinde gropeth in darkness, and shalt not prosper in thy wayes: thou shalt neuer be ap-pressed with wrong, and be poynted out more,
and no man shall rescue thee.

46 Thou shalt betrooth a wife, & another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not eat the fruit.

47 Thine ox shall be slaine before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away before thy face, and shalt not be restored to thee: thy sheepe shall be giuen vnto thine enemies, and no man shall rescue thee for thee.

48 Thy sonnes and thy daughters shall be giuen vnto another people, and thine eyes shall still look for them, euen till they fall out, and there shall be no power in thine hand.

49 The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours shall a people which thou knowest not, eat, and thou shalt neuer see, suffer wrong, and violence alway.

50 So that thou shalt be made for the sight which thine eyes shall see.

51 The Lord shall smite thee in the knees, and in the thighes, with a sore botch, that thou canst not be healed: euen from the sole of the foot vnto the top of thine head.

52 The Lord shall bring thee and thy King which neither thou nor thy fathers have know-en, and there thou shalt serve other gods, wood and stone.

18 Thou shalt carie out much seede into the field, & shalt gather but little in: for the grasshoppers shall destroy it.

19 Thou shalt plant a vineyard, and dresse it, but shalt neither drinke of the wine, nor gather the grapes: for the wormes shall eat it.

20 Thou shalt haue Olive trees in all thy coasts, but shalt not anoynt thy selfe with the oyle: for thine oliues shall fall.

21 Thou shalt beget sonnes and daughters, but shalt not haue them: for they shall goe into captiuitie.

22 All thy trees and fruite of thy land shall the grasshopper consume.

23 The stranger that is among you, shall climbe about thee vp on hie, and thou shalt come downe beneath alow.

24 He shall lend thee, and thou shalt not lend him: he shall bee the head, and thou shalt bee the taile.

25 Moreover, all these curses shall come vpon thee, and shall pursue thee and ouertake thee till thou be destroyed, because thou obeydest not the voice of the Lord thy God, to keepe his commandement, and his ordinances, which he commanded thee:

26 And they shall bee vpon thee for signes and wonders, and vpon thy seed for euer.

27 Because thou seruedst not the Lord thy God with ioyfulness, and with a good heart, for the abundance of all things.

28 Therefore thou shalt serue thine enemies which the Lord shall send vpon thee, in hunger and in thirst, and in nakednesse, and in need of all things: and he shall put a yoke of yron vpon thy necke vntill he haue destroyed thee.

29 The Lord shall bring a nation vpon thee from farre, from the end of the world, flying swift as an eagle: a nation whose tongue thou shalt not vnderstand:

30 A nation of a fierce countenance, which will not regard the person of the olde, nor haue compassion of the yong.

31 The same shall eate the fruit of thy cattell, and the fruit of thy land, vntill thou be destroyed, and he shall leave thee neither wheate, wine, nor oyle, neither the increase of thy kine, nor the flocks of thy sheepe, vntill he haue brought thee to nought.

32 And he shall besiege thee in all thy cities, vntill thine high and strong walles fall downe, wherein thou trustedst in all the lande: and hee shall besiege thee in all thy cities thotowour al thy lande, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee.

33 And thou shalt eate the fruit of thy body, even the flesh of thy sonnes and thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee, during the siege and straitnesse which thine enemy shall inclose thee:

34 So that the man that is tender and exceeding daintie among you, shall be grieved at his brother, and at his wife that lieth in his bosome, and at the remnant of his children, which hee had yet left.

35 For feare of going vnto any of them of the flesh of his children, whom he shall eate, because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and straitnesse, wherewith thine enemy shall besiege thee in all thy cities.

36 The tender and daintie woman among you, which neuer would venture to set the sole of her foot vpon the ground (for her softnesse and tendernes) shall be grieved at her husband that lieth in her bosome, and at her sonne, and at her daughter,

37 And at her afterbirth (that shall come out from betweene her feete) and at her children, which she shall beare: for when all things lacke, she shall eate them secretly, during the siege and straitnesse wherewith thine enemies shall besiege thee in thy cities.

38 If thou wilt not keepe and doe all the words of this Law (that are written in this booke) and feare this glorious and fearefull Name, THE LORD THY GOD,

39 Then the Lord will make thy plagues wonderfull, and the plagues of thy seede, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and fore diseases, and of long durance.

40 Moreover, he will bring vpon thee all the diseases of Egypt, whereof thou wast affayd, and they shall cleaue vnto thee.

41 And every sickenesse, and every plague, which is not written in the booke of this Law, will the Lord heape vpon thee, vntill thou be destroyed.

42 And yee shall be left few in number, where ye were as the starres of heauen in multitude, because thou wouldest not obey the voyce of the Lord thy God.

43 And as the Lord hath reioyced ouer you, to doe you good, and to multiply you, so he will reioyce ouer you, to destroy you, and bring you to nought, and ye shall be rooted out of the land, whither thou goest to possesse it.

44 And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people from the one end of the world vnto the other, & there thou shalt serue other gods, which thou hast not knowen, nor thy fathers, in wood and stone.

45 Also among these nations thou shalt finde no rest, neither shall the sole of thy foot haue rest: for the Lorde shall giue thee there a trembling heart, and looking to returns till thine eyes fall out, and a sorrowfull mind.

46 And thy life shall hang before thee, and thou shalt feare both night and day, and shalt haue none assurance of thy life.

47 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were evening, and at evening thou shalt say, Would God it were morning, for the feare of thine heart, which thou shalt feare, and for the sight of thine eyes, which thou shalt see.

48 And the Lord shall bring thee into Egypt againe with ships by the way, whereof I layde vnto thee, Thou shalt see it no more againe: and there yee shall sell your selues vnto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and there shall be no buyer.

them in Horeb.

2 And Moses called all Israel, and said vnto them, Yee haue seene all that the Lord did before your eyes in the land of Egypt vnto Phara-on and vnto all his seruants, and vnto all his land.

3 The great tentations which thine eyes haue seene, those great miracles and wonders.

4 Yet the Lord hath not giuen you an heart to perceiue, and eyes to see, and eares to heare, vnto this day.

5 And I haue led you forty yeres in the wil-dernes: your clothes are not waxed old vpon you neither is thy shoe waxed old vpon thy foot.

out against vs vnto battell, and we slew them.

8 And tooke their land, and gave it for an inheritance vnto the Rubenites, and to the Ga-dites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh.

9 Keepe therefore the wordes of this couenant and do them, that yee may prosper in all that ye shall doe.

10 Yee stand this day every one of you before the Lord your God: your heads of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, euen all the men of Israel.

11 Your children, your wiues, and thy stranger that is in thy campe, from the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawers of thy water.

12 That thou shouldst a passe into the couenant of the Lord thy God, and with his oath which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day.

13 For as it is said, this day a people vnto himselfe, and that he may bee vnto thee a God, as he hath sayd vnto thee, and as he hath performed vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahak, and Iacob.

14 Neither make I this conuene, and this oath with you easily.

15 But thou shalt with him that standeth here with vs this day before the Lord our God, as I wish him: that is not here with vs this day.

16 For ye know, how we haue dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we were puffed thence the mids of the nations, which ye called by.

17 And ye haue seene their abominations and their idoles (wood and stone, silver and golde) which were among them.

18 That thou shouldst not become as you man:
nor woman, nor female, nor male, which should turne his heart away this day from the Lord our God, to go and serue the gods of these nations, and that these should not bee among you: any root that bringeth forth gall and wormewood.

19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curse, hee shall blesse himselfe in his heart, saying, I shall haue peace, although I walke according to the stubbornnesse of mine owne heart, thus adding a curse to himselfe to thinke.

20 The Lord will not be mercifull vnto him, but then the curse of the Lord and his iudgements shall come upon him, and shall be as a curse that is written in this booke, shall come vpon him, and the Lord shall curse him, and shall bring him downe vnder heauen.

21 And the Lord shall separate him vnto all out of all the tribes of Israel, according vnto all the curses of the conuene, that is written in the booke of this Law.

22 So that the generation to come shall see your children, that shall rise vp after you, and the stranger that shall come from a farre land, shall say, when they shall see the plagues of this land, and the diseases thereof, wherewith the Lord shall smite it:

23 (For all that land shall burne with brimstone and salt: it shall not be sowne, nor bring forth nor any grasse shall grow therein, like as in the ouerthrowing of Sodom and Gomorah, Ad-mah, and Zeboim, which the Lord ouerthrew in his wrath and in his anger.)

24 Then shall all nations say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus vnto this land? how fierce is this great wrath?

25 And they shall answer, Because they haue forsaken the conuene of the Lord God of their fathers, which he hath made with them, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

26 And went and serued other gods, and worshipped them: euen gods which they knew not,
and which had giuen them nothing.

27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against this land, to bring vpon it every curse that is written in this booke.

28 And the Lord hath rooted them out of their land in anger and in wrath, and in great indignation, and hath cast them into another land, as appeareth this day.

29 The secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things reuealed belong vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may doe all the wordes of this Law.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Moses shewed vnto the people, & the Lord said vnto Moses, I haue made a conuene with thee, & thou shalt be a people vnto the Lord thy God, as I haue sayd vnto thee, and as I haue performed vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahak, and Iacob.

2 Now when all these things shall come vpon thee, either the blessing or the curse which I haue set before thee, and thou shalt come into this heart, among all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath driuen thee.

3 And thou shalt remember vnto the Lord thy God, and obey his voyce in all that I command thee this day: thou, and thy children with all thine heart and with all thy soule.

4 Then the Lord thy God will cause thy captivity to returne, and haue compassion vpon thee, and will returne to gather thee out of all the people wherethe Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

God gather thee, and from thence will he take thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattell, and in the fruit of the land for thy wealth: for the Lord will turne againe, and reioyce over thee to doe thee

Lord thy God, in keeping his commandments and his ordinances, which are written in the bookes of this Law, when thou shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soule.

11. For this commandment which I command thee this day, is not hid from thee, neither is it farre off.

12. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldst say,
Who shall goe vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may doe it?

13. Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldst say, Who shall goe over the sea for vs, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may doe it?

14. But the word is very nere vnto thee: own in thy mouth, and in thine heart, for so I doe it.

15. Behold, I have set before thee this day life and good death, and euill.

16. In that I command thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, and to keepe his commandments, and his ordinances, and his lawes, that thou mayest flourish, and be multified, and that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in the land, whither thou goest to possesse it.

17. But if thine heart turne away, so that thou wilt not obey, but shalt be seduced and worship other gods, and serue them,

18. I pronounce vnto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, ye shall not prolong your dayes in the land, whither thou passest over Iordens to pos-seesse it.

19. I call heauen and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may liue.

his voyce, and by cleauing vnto him: for hee is thy life, and the length of thy dayes: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord swore vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, to give thee.

CHAP. XXXI.

21. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have said vnto the Lord, I will not see the face of the Lord, for I am a man of flesh, and I will not see the face of the Lord: for I am a man of flesh, and I will not see the face of the Lord.

22. Then Moses went and spake these words vnto
the Lord.

23. And the Lord said vnto him, I am an hundred and twenty yeere old this day: I can no more go out, and in: also the Lord hath said vnto me, Thou shalt not goe out of this Iorden.

24. The Lord thy God he will goe out before thee: hee will destroy them, and ouerthrow them, and thou shalt possesse them: I will be with thee,
and thou shalt possesse them.

25. I will be with thee, and thou shalt possesse them:
I will be with thee, and thou shalt possesse them.

26. And the Lord shall doe vnto thee, as hee did to Sihon king of the Amorites, and to Og king of the Bashan, whom hee destroyed.

27. And the Lord shall giue them vnto thee, as hee did to Sihon king of the Amorites, and to Og king of the Bashan, whom hee destroyed.

that ye may doe vnto them according vnto every commandment which I haue commanded you.

28. Plucke vp your hearts therefore, and bee strong: dread not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God himselfe doeth goe with thee: hee will not faile thee, nor forsake thee.

29. And Moses called Ioshua, and said vnto him in the sight of all Israel, Be of a good courage and strong: for thou shalt goe with this people vnto the land which the Lord hath sworn vnto thy fathers, to giue them, and thou shalt giue it them to inherite.

30. And the Lord himselfe doeth goe before thee: hee will be with thee: hee will not faile thee, neither forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor bee discomforted.

31. And Moses wrote this Law, and deli-uered it vnto the Priestes the sonnes of Lew (which bare the Arke of the covenant of the Lord) and vnto all the Elders of Israel.

32. And Moses commanded them, saying, Every seventh yeere, when the yeere of freedome shall be in the feast of the Tabernacles:

33. When all Israel shall come to appeare before the Lord thy God, in the place which hee shall choose, thou shalt reade this Law before all Israel that they may heare it.

34. Gather the people together: men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and that they may learne, and feare the Lord your God, and keepe and obserue all the words of this Law.

35. And that their children which haue not known it, may heare it, and learne to feare the Lord your God, as long as ye lye in the land, whi-cher ye goe out Iordens to possesse it.

36. Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Behold, thy dayes are come, that thou must die: Call Ioshua, and stand ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, that I may giue him all charge. So Moses and Ioshua went, and stood in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

37. And the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle, in the pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the doore of the Tabernacle.

38. And the Lord said vnto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and this people will rise vp, and goe a whoring after the gods of a strange land (whither they goe to dwell therein), and will forsake mee, and breake my covenant which I haue made with them.

39. Wherefore my wrath will I waite against them at that day, and I will forsake them, & will hide my face from them: then they shall be consumed, and many aduersities and tribulations shall come vpon them: so that they will say, Are not these troubles come vpon me, because God is not with mee?

40. But I will surely hide my face in that day, because of all the euill which they shall commit,
in that they are turned vnto other gods.

41. Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it to the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may bee my witness against the children of Israel.

42. For I will bring them into the land (which I swore vnto their fathers) that floweth with milk and honey: and they shall eat and fill themselves, and waste it: then shall they turne vnto other gods, and serue them, and concerning me, they shall breake.

And then when many adventures & tribulations shall come upon them, this long shall answer them to their faces as a witness for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their posterity for I know their imagination which they goe about even now before I have brought them into the land which I swore.

And God gave Joshua the sonne of Nun a charge and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore unto them, and I will be with thee.

And when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this Law in a booke until he had finished them,

Then Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the Arke of the covenant of the Lord, saying,

Take the booke of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Arke of the covenant of the Lord your God: that it may be there for a witness against thee.

For I know thy rebellion & thy stiff neck: behold, I being yet alive with you this day, ye are rebellious against the Lord how much more after my death?

And when all the Elders of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak these words in their audience, and call heaven & earth to record against them.

For I am sure that after my death ye will surely be corrupt and turne from the way which I have commanded you: therefore will I come upon you at the length, because ye will commit sin in the sight of the Lord, by provoking him to anger through the works of your hands.

Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the Congregation of Israel the words of this song, which he had ended them.

CHAP. XXXII.

Blessed be ye heavens, and I will praise: and I will praise the earth, because the words of my mouth shall drop as the rain, and my speech shall flourish as the dew, as the shower upon the herbes, and as the graine upon the sower.

For I will publish the Name of the Lord: give ye glory unto our God.

Perfect is the worke of the Almighty God: for all his wayes are judgement, Gold is true, and without wickedness: just and righteous is his.

They have corrupted themselves toward him by their vice, not being his children, but a froward and crooked generation.

Do ye so reward the Lord, O foolish people, and vanitie is not he thy father, that hath brought thee forth, and made thee, and proportioned thee?

Remember the dayes of old, consider the yeres of many generations: awake thy father, and he will shew thee: thine Elders, and they will tell thee.

When the most high God shall visit them, and take their inheritance, when he shall visit them.

And when he appeared the borders of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

For the Lords portion is his people: Iacob is the lot of his inheritance.

He found him in the land of the wilderness, in a waste and roaring wilderness: he led him about, he taught him, and kept him as the apple of his eye.

As an eagle stretcheth up her nest, fluttereth over her birds, stretcheth out her wings, taketh them, and beareth them on her wings.

So the Lord alone led him, and there was no strange god with him.

He carried him up to the high places of the earth, that he might see the fringes of the fields, and he caused him to flie thence out of the flower, and oyle out of the hard rocks.

Butter of kine, and milke of sheepe with fat of the lambs, and rams fed in Bashan, and goats with the fat of the graines of wheate: and the red plicious of the grape hath thou drunk.

But he should have been upright, when he was fat, spurred with his heels: thou art fat, thou art grosse, thou art laden with fumes: therefore hee forsooke God that made him, and regarded not the strong God of his salvation.

They provoked him with a strange god: they provoked him to anger with abominations, of which they offered unto devils, not to God, but to gods whom they knew not: new gods that came newly up, whom their fathers feared not.

Thou hast forgotten the mighty God, that begat thee, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

The Lord then saw, and was angry, for the provocation of his corner, and of his daughters.

And hee said, I will hide my face from them: I will see what their end shall be: for they are a froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

They have moved me to jealousy with their which is not God: they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are no people: I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

For fire is kindled in my wrath, and shall burne unto the bottom of hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and shall set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

I will spend plagues upon them: I will beflow mine arrows upon them.

They shall be burnt with hunger, and consumed with heere, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the venime of serpents creeping in the dust.

The sword shall kill them without, and in the chambers feare: both the young man and the young woman, the suckling with the man of gray haire.

I have said, I would scatter them abroad: I would make their remembrance to cease from among men.

But I feared the furie of the enemies: lest their adversaries should waxe proud, and lest they should say, Our high hand, and not the Lord hath done all this.

For they are a nation void of counsell, and there is no understanding in them.

That they were as they would understand.

desist in this: they would consider their latter end.

How should one chase a thousand, & two put ten thousand to flight, except their strong God had sold them, and the Lord had shut them vp?

For their God is not as our God, euen our enemies being iudges.

For their wine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the vines of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters bitter.

Their wine is the poyson of dragons, and the cruell gall of aspes.

Is not this laid in store with me, and sealed vp among my treasures?

Vengeance and recompence are mine: their foote shall slide in due time: for the day of their destruction is at hand, and the things that shall come vpon them, make haste.

For the Lord shall iudge his people, and repent toward his seruants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and none shut vp in hold nor left abroad.

When men shall say, Where are their gods, their mighty God, in whom they trusted,

Which did eate the fat of their sacrifices, and did drinke the wine of their drinke offering? let them rise vp, and helpe you: let him bee your refuge.

Behold now for I I am he, and there is no gods with me: I kill, and gaue life: I wound, and I make whole: neither is there any that can deliuer out of mine hand.

For I lift vp mine hand to heauen, & say, I liue for euer.

If I when my glittering sworde, and mine hand take holde on iudgement, I will execute vengeance on mine enemies, and wil reward them that hate me.

I will make mine arrowes drunke with blood, (and my sword shall eate flesh) for the blood of the blameles, and of the captiues, when I begin to take vengeance of the enemy.

Ye nations, praise his people: for hee will auenge the blood of his seruants, & will execute vengeance vpon his aduersaries, and will be mercifull vnto his land, and to his people.

Then Moses came & spake all the words of this long in the audience of the people, he and Hoshea the sonne of Nun.

When Moses had made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel,

Then he said vnto them, Set your hearts vnto all the wordes which I testifie against you this day, that yee may command them vnto your children, that they may obserue and doe all the wordes of this Law.

For it is no vaine word concerning you, but it is your life, and by this word ye shall prolong your dayes in the land, whither yee goe ouer Iorden to possesse it.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses the selfe same day, saying,

Go vp into this mountaine of Abarim, vnto the mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is ouer against Iericho: and behold the land of Canaan, which I giue vnto the children of Israel for a possession,

And die in the mount which thou goest vp vnto, and thou shalt bee gathered vnto thy people, as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered vnto his people,

Because yee trespassed against me among the children of Israel, at the waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin: for ye sanctified me not among the children of Israel.

Thou shalt therefore see the lande before thee, but shalt not goe thither, I meane, into the land which I giue the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXXIII.

Moses before his death blessed all the tribes of Israel.

Now this is the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death, and sayd,

The Lord came from Sinai, and rose vp from Seir vnto them, and appeared clearly from mount Paran, & he came with ten thousands of Saints, and at his right hand a fierie Law for them.

Though hee loue the people, yet all thy Saints are in thine hands, and they are humbled at thy feet, to receiue thy words.

Moses commanded vs a Law for an inheritance of the Congregation of Iaakob.

Then he was among the righteous people, as King, when the heads of the people, and the tribes of Israel were assembled.

Let Reuben liue, and not die, though his men be a small number.

And thus he blessed Iudah, and said, Hear, O Lord, the voyce of Iudah, and bring him vnto his people: his hands shall be sufficient for him, if thou helpe him against his enemies.

And of Levi he said, Let thy Thummim and thine Urim bee with thine Holy one, whom thou diddest proue in Massah, and didst cause him to strite at the waters of Meribah.

Who said vnto his father & to his mother, I haue not seene him, neither knew hee his brethren, nor knew his owne children: for they obserued thy word, and kept thy Couenant.

They shall teach Iaakob thy iudgements, and Israel thy Lawe: they shall put incense before thy face, and the burnt offering vpon thine Altar.

Blesse, O Lord, his substance, and accept the worke of his hands: smiteth away the loynes of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not againe.

Of Benjamin he said, The beloued of the Lord shall dwell in safetie by him: the Lord shall couer him all the day long, and dwell betwene his shoulders.

And of Ioseph hee sayd, Blessed of the Lord is his land for the sweetnesse of heauen, for the dew, and for the depth lying beneath.

And for the sweete increase of the Sunne, and for the sweete increase of the Moone,

And for the sweetnesse of the top of the ancient mountaines, and for the sweetnesse of the old hilles,

And for the sweetnesse of the earth, and abundance thereof: and the good will of him that dwelt in the bush, shall come vpon the head of Ioseph, and vpon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren.

His beautie shall be like his first borne bullocke, and his hornes as the hornes of an unicorn: with them he shall smite the people together, euen the endes of the worlde: there are also the ten thousands of Ephraim, and these are the thousands of Manasseh.

12 ¶ And vnto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to halfe the tribe of Manasse spake Joshua saying,

2 Then report was made to the king of Jericho, saying; Beholde, there came men hither to night, of the children of Israel, to spie out the countrey.

3 And the king of Iericho sent vnto Rahab, saying, ^b Bring forth the men that are come to thee, ^c and which are entred into thine house: for they be come to search out all the land.

4 (But the woman had taken the two men, & hid them) Therefore said shee thus, There came men vnto me, but I wist not whence they were.

23 And when they shut the gate in the darke, the men went out, whiche the men went, I wote

CHAPTER 117

7 The Lord prohibiteth carnality before the people. 2

The LeFains sold very early, and they came out from Shiloh, and came to Jordan, his and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they came on.

3. And after three days, the officers were throughout the office.

And commanded the people saying, When ye see the Arke of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the Priests of the Levites bearing it, ye shall depart from your place, and go on.

4. Yet shall it be a place between you and it, show it a thousand cubits by measure; yet shall not come near unto it, that yet may know the way by the which ye shall go: for yet have not ye done this way in times past.

8 Thus shall therefore command the Priests that beare the Ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brinke of the waters of Ior-

9 ¶ Then Iosias said vnto the children of Israel, Come hither, and heare the wordes of the Lord your God.

10 And Joshua said, 'Hereby ye shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will certainly call out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

CHAP. V.

1 The Canaanites are afraid of the Israelites. 2 Circumcised the second time. 10 The Passover kept. 11 Gilgal was called. 12 The Angel appeared unto Ioshua.

Now when all the Kings of the Amorites, which were beyond Iorden Westward, and all the Kings of the Canaanites which were by the Sea, heard that the Lord had dried vp the waters of Iorden before the children of Israel vntill they were gone ouer, their heart fainted: and there was no courage in them any more because of the children of Israel.

¶ That same time the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Make thee sharpe kniues, and returne, and circumcise the sonnes of Israel the second time.

Then Ioshua made him sharpe kniues, and circumcised the sonnes of Israel in the hil of the fores kinnes.

And this is the cause why Ioshua circumcised al the people, ^{even} the males that came out of Egypt, because all the men of warre were dead in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt.

For all the people that came out, were circumcised: but all the people that were borne in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt, were not circumcised.

For the children of Israel walked fourtie yeeres in the wilderness, till all the people of the men of war that came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voyce of the Lord: vnto whom the Lord sware that he would not shewe them the lande, which the Lord had sworne vnto their fathers, that he would giue vs, ^{even} a land that floweth with milke and hony.

So their sonnes whom he raised vp in their steade, Ioshua circumcised: for they were vncircumcised, because they circumcised them not by the way.

And when they had made an end of circumcising all the people, they abode in the places in the campe till they were whole.

After the Lord said vnto Ioshua, This day I haue taken away the shame of Egypt from you: wherefore he called the name of that place, Gilgal, vnto this day.

So the children of Israel abode in Gilgal, and kept the feast of the Passouer the fourteenth day of the moneth at euen in the plain of Iericho.

And they did eat of the corne of the land, on the morow after the Passouer, vnleavened bread, and parched come in the same day.

And the MAN ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the corne of the lande, neither had the children of Israel MAN any more, but did eat of the fruite of the lande of Canaan the yeete.

¶ And when Ioshua was by Iericho, he lift vp his eyes and looked: and beholde, there stood a man against him, hauing a sworde drawn in his hand: and Ioshua went vnto him, & said vnto him, Art thou on our side, or on our aduersaries?

And he said, Nay, but as a Captaine of the hoste of the Lorde am I now come: then Ioshua fel on his face to the earth, and did worship, and saide vnto him, What sayeth my Lorde vnto his seruant?

And the Captaine of the Lorde hoste saide vnto Ioshua, Loose thy shoe off thy foote: for the place whereon thou standest, is holy: and Ioshua did so.

a The Amorites were on both sides Iorden, where two kings were: these already on the side toward Moab.

b ad. 4. 35. b For now they had left it off about 40 yeeres. c Gilgal was so called, because they were there circumcised.

d For they looked daily to remove of the Lords commandment, which thing they that were now circumcised should not doe without great danger. e Num. 14. 33.

e For their fore was so rigorous, that they were not able to remove. f By bringing you into this promised land contrary to the wicked opinion of the Egyptians, or the Iuskin, whereby you were like to the Egyptians.

g In that chapp. Ioshua weeping, he acknowledged him to be God: and in this chapp. he called him the Lorde, because he directed him: he directed him to himselfe as his Captaine. h Exod. 3. 5. rub 4. 7. alt 7. 33.

And Ioshua said vnto them, Go ouer before the Arke of the Lord your God, euen through the middes of Iorden, and take vp euery man of you a stone vpon his shoulder according vnto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel,

¶ That this may be a signe among you, that when your children shal aske their fathers in time to come, saying, What ^{means} you by these stones?

Then yet may answer them, That the waters of Iorden were cut off before the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord, for whē it passed through Iorden, the waters of Iorden were cut off: therefore these stones are a memoriall vnto the children of Israel for euer.

Then the children of Israel did euen so as Ioshua had commanded, and tooke vp twelue stones out of the mids of Iorden as the Lord had said vnto Ioshua, according vnto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and caried them away with them vnto the lodging, and laid them down there.

And Ioshua set vp ^{twelue} stones in the mids of Iorden, in the place where the secte of the Priestes, which bare the Arke of the Covenant, stood, & there haue they continued vnto this day.

¶ So the Priestes, which bare the Arke, stood in the mids of Iorden, vntill query thing was finished that the Lord had commanded Ioshua to say vnto the people, according to al that Moses charged Ioshua: then the people hasted & went ouer.

When all the people were cleane passed ouer, the Arke of the Lord went ouer altho, and the Priestes before the people.

¶ And the sonnes of Reuben, and the sonnes of Gad, & halfe the tribe of Manasseh went ouer before the children of Israel armed, as Moses had charged them.

Euen forty thousand prepared for warre, went before the Lord vnto battel, into the plain of Iericho.

That day the Lord magnified Ioshua in the sight of all Israel, and they feared him, as they feared Moses all the dayes of his life.

And the Lord spake vnto Ioshua, saying,

¶ Command the Priestes that beare the Arke of the testimonie, to come vp out of Iorden.

Ioshua therefore commanded the Priestes, saying, Come ye vp out of Iorden.

And when the Priestes that bare the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord, were come vp out of the mids of Iorden, and alsoone as the soles of the Priestes feete were set on the drie land, the waters of Iorden returned vnto their place, and flowed ouer all the bankes thereof, as they did before.

¶ So the people came vp out of Iorden the tenth day of the first moneth, and pitched in Gilgal, in the Eastside of Iericho.

Also the twelue stones, which they tooke out of Iorden, did Ioshua pitch in Gilgal.

And hee spake vnto the children of Israel, saying, Whē your children shal aske their fathers in time to come, & say, What ^{means} these stones?

Then ye shal shew your children, and say, Israel came ouer this Iorden on drie land.

¶ For the Lord your God dried vp the waters of Iorden before you, vntill ye were gone ouer as the Lord your God did the red Sea, which hee dried vp before vs, till we were gone ouer.

That al the people of the world may know that the hand of the Lord is mightie, that yee might feare the Lord your God continually.

God commanded that not only we our selves profit by his wonders, but that our posterity may know the cause thereof, and praise his Name.

19 All ye therefore that be men of warre, shall compass the city, in going round about the city once: thus shall you doe five dayes;

20 And on the sixth day shall seven trumpets of rams horns be blown before the Arke: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and on the seventh day shall they blow with the trumpets.

21 And when they make a long blast with the rams horns, and ye shall see the cloud of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout: then shall the wall of the city fall downe flat, and the people shall ascend vp, every man straight before him.

22 Then Joshua the sonne of Nun called the priests, and said vnto them, Take vp the Arke of the Covenant, and let seven priests beare seven trumpets of rams horns before the Arke of the Lord.

23 And he said vnto the people, Go and compass the city: and let him that is armed go forth before the Arke of the Lord.

24 And when Joshua had spoken vnto the people, the seven priests bare the seven trumpets of rams horns, and went forth before the Arke of the Lord, and blew with the trumpets, and the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord followed them.

26 Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout neither make any noise with your voice, neither shall a word proceed out of your mouth, vntill the day that I say vnto you, Shout, then shall ye shout.

27 So the Arke of the Lord compassed the citie, and went about it once: then they returned into the host, and lodged in the campe.

28 And to this rose early in the morning, & the Priests bare the Arke of the Lord.

29 Also seven Priests bare seven trumpets of rams horns, and went before the Arke of the Lord, and going blew with the trumpets: and the men of armes went before them, but the s gathered together came after the Arke of the Lord, as they went and blew the trumpets.

31 And when the seventh day came, they rose early, even with the dawning of the day, and compassed the citie after the same manner: seven times onely that day they compassed the citie: seven times.

32 And when the priests had blown the trumpets the seventh time, Joshua said vnto the people, Shout, for the Lord hath given you the citie.

22 And they utterly destroyed all that was in the citie, both man and woman, yong, and olde, and ox, and sheepe, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

23 But Joshua had said vnto the two men that had spied out the countrey, Go into the harlots house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye sware to her.

24 So the yong men that were spies, went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: so they brought out all her family, and put them without the host of Israel.

25 After they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: onely the filter and the golde, and the vessels of brasse and iron, they put vnto the treasure of the house of the Lord.

26 So Joshua took Rahab the harlot, and her fathers household, and all that she had, and she dwelt in Israel, men vnto this day, because she had hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

27 And Joshua sware at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord that riseth vp, and buildeth the citie Jericho: for he shall lay the foundation thereof in his eldest soone, and in his yongest sonne shall he set vp the gates of it.

28 So the Lord was with Joshua: and he was famous through all the world.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Lord is angry with Achish, a King of the Philistines, because he had persecuted the Lord, and because he had persecuted the Lord, and because he had persecuted the Lord.

2 But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the excommunication thing: for Achish the sonne of Carai, the sonne of Zabdai, the sonne of Zerach of the tribe of Iudah, took of the excommunication thing, wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the children of Israel.

3 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Bethauen, on the Eastside of Bethel, and spake vnto them, saying, Go vp, and view the countrey. And the men went vp and viewed Ai.

4 And he returned to Joshua, and told vnto him, Let not all the people go vp, for as it were two or three thousand men go vp, and smite Ai, and make noal the people to labour thither, for they are few.

5 So there went vp thither of the people about three thousand men, and they fled before the men of Ai.

6 And the men of Ai smote of them vpon a thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate vnto Shebatim, & smote them in the going downe: wherefore the hearts of the people melted away like water.

7 And Joshua rebuked the people, and said vnto them, Ye have not kept the commandment which the Lord your God commanded you, saying, I have commanded you, saying, Ye shall not go vp thither, for ye are few.

8 Therefore shall ye be smitten before the enemy, for ye have disobeyed the voice of the Lord your God, and have not kept his commandment which he commanded you.

6 ¶ Then Ioshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth vpon his face before the Atke of the Lord, vntill the euentide, hee, and the Elders of Israel, and put dust vpon their heads.

7 And Ioshua said, Alas, O Lord God, wherefore hast thou brought this people ouer Iorden, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs? would God we had bene content to dwell on the other side Iorden.

8 Oh Lord, what shal I say, when Israel turne their backs before their enemies?

9 For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land shal heare of it, and shal compass vs, and destroy our name out of the earth: and what wilt thou doe vnto thy mighty Name?

10 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Get thee vp: wherefore liest thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, and they haue transgressed my couenant, which I commanded them: for they haue not taken of the excommunicate thing, and haue also stolen, and dissembled also, and haue put it euen with their owne stuffe.

12 Therefore the children of Israel cannot stand before their enemies, for haue turned their backs before their enemies, because they be execrable: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the excommunicate from among you.

13 Vp therefore, sanctifie the people, and say, Sanctifie your selues against to morrow: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an execrable thing among you, O Israel, therefore yee cannot stand against your enemies, vntill ye haue put the execrable thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shal come according to your tribes, and the tribe which the Lord taketh, shall come according to the families: & the family which the Lord shal take, shall come by the households: and the household which the Lord shal take, shall come man by man.

15 And he that is taken with the excommunicate thing, shall be burnt with fire, hee, and all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the couenant of the Lord, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.

16 ¶ So Ioshua rose vp early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes: and the tribe of Iudah was taken.

17 And he brought the families of Iudah, and tooke the family of the Zarahites, and he brought the family of the Zarahites man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

18 And hee brought his household, man by man, and Achan the sonne of Carmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zerah of the tribe of Iudah was taken.

19 Then Ioshua said vnto Achan, My sonne, I beseech thee giue glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession vnto him, and shew me now what thou hast done: hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Ioshua, and said, In deepe I haue sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus haue I done.

21 I saw among the spoile a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of sicke shekels weight, and I couered them, and tooke them: and behold, they lie hid in the earth in the mids of my tent, and the silver vnder it.

22 ¶ Then Ioshua sent messengers, which ran vnto the tent, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver vnder it.

23 Therefore they rooke them out of the tent, and brought them vnto Ioshua, and vnto all the children of Israel, and laid them before the Lord.

24 Then Ioshua tooke Achan the sonne of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sonnes, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that hee had: and all Israel with him, brought them ynto the valley of Achor.

25 And Ioshua said, In as much as thou hast troubled vs, the Lord shal trouble thee this day: and all Israel threw stones at him, and burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones.

26 And they cast vpon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: and so the Lord turned from his fierce wrath: therefore hee called the name of that place, The valley of Achor, vnto this day.

11 Also all the men of warre that were with him went vp and drew neere, and came against the city, and pitched on the North side of Ai: and there was a valley betweene them and Ai.

waite on the Wall, against the city: and Iosua went the same night into the mids of the valley.

14 And when the king of Ai saw it then the men of the city hasted and rose vp early, and went out against Israel to battell, he and all his people, at the time appointed, before the plains: for hee knew not that any lay in wait against him on the backside of the city.

15 Then Iosua, and all Israel, as beaten before them fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people of the city were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Iosua, and were drawn away out of the cite.

17 So that there was not a man left in Ai, nor in Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 Then the Lord said vnto Iosua, Stretch out the speare that is in thine hand, toward Ai: for I will give it into thine hand: and Iosua stretched out the speare that hee had in his hand, toward the city.

19 And they that lay in wait, arose quickly out of their place, and ranne as soone as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered into the cite, and took it, and balled, and set the city on fire.

20 And the men of Ai looked behinde them, and saw it: for loe, the smoke of the city ascended vp // to heaven, & they had no power to flee this way or that way: for the people that fled to the wilderness, turned backe vpon the pursuers.

21 When Iosua and all Israel saw that they that lay in waite, had taken the cite, and that the smoke of the cite mounted vp, then they turned againe and slew the men of Ai.

22 Also the other issued out of the cite against them: so were they in the middes of Israel, the one lying on the one side, and the rest on the other side, and they slew them, so that they let none of them remaine nor escape.

23 And the King of Ai they tooke alive, and brought him to Iosua.

24 And when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, that is, in the wilderness where they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, vntill they were consumed, all the Israelites returned vnto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelus thousand, even all the men of Ai.

26 For Iosua drew not his hand backe again which he had stretched out with the speare, vntill he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 Onely the cattell and the poyle of this city, Israel tooke for a pray vnto themselves, according vnto the worde of the Lord, which hee commanded Iosua.

28 And Iosua burnt Ai, and made it an heape for Iener, and a wilderness vnto this day.

29 And the king of Ai hee hanged on a tree, vnto the evening: And as soone as the sunne was downe, Iosua commanded that they should take his carkeis downe from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the cite, and lay thereon a great heape of stones, that remayne vnto this day.

30 Then Iosua built an altar vnto the Lord God of Israel, in mount Ebal, 31 As Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the booke of the Law of Moses, an altar of whole stone; ouer which no man had lilt an yron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings vnto the Lord, and sacrificed peace offerings.

32 Also he wrote there vpon the stones, a rehearfall of the Law of Moses, which hee wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel (and their Elders, and officers, and their Iudges stood on this side of the Arke, and on that side, before the Priests of the Leuites, which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord) as well the stranger, as hee that is borne in the country: halfe of them were ouer against mount Gerizim, and halfe of them ouer against mount Ebal, as Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded before, that they should bless the children of Israel.

34 Then afterward hee read all the wordes of the Law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the booke of the Law.

35 There was not a worde of all that Moses had commanded, which Iosua read not before all the Congregation of Israel, as well before the women and the children, as the stranger that was conuerst among them.

CHAP. IX.

1 Divers Kings opposed themselves against Iosua. 2 The craft of the Gibeonites. 3 Iosua maketh a league with them. 4 For their craft they are condemned to perpetual slavery.

And when all the Kings that were beyond Iorden, in the mountains and in the valleys, and by all the coastes of the great Sea ouer against Lebanon (as the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites) heard thereof,

2 They gathered themselves together to fight against Iosua, and against Israel with one y accord.

3 But the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Iosua had done vnto Iericho, and to Ai.

4 And therefore they wrought craftily: for they went, and sained themselves ambassadors, and tooke olde sackes vpon their asses, and olde bottels for wine, both rent and bound vp,

5 And olde shooes and cloured vpon their feete: also theirament vpon them was old, and all their prouision of bread was dried, and moulded.

6 So they came vnto Iosua into the hoste to Gilgal, and saide vnto him, and vnto the men of Israel, We be come from a farre country: now therefore make a league with vs.

7 Then the men of Israel said vnto the Hittites, It may be that thou dwellest among vs, how then can I make a league with thee?

8 And they said vnto Iosua, We are thy seruants. Then Iosua said vnto them, Who are ye? and whence come ye?

9 And they answered him, From a very farre country thy seruants are come for the Name of the Lord thy God: for we haue heard his fame, and all that he hath done in Egypt.

10 And all that he hath done to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Iorden, to Sihon king of Hesbbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which were at Ashtaroth.

12 This our bread we tooke it hote with vs for victuals out of our houses, the day we departed to come vnto you but now behold, it is dried, and it is moulded.

13 Also these bottles of wine which we filled, were new, and loe, they be rent, and these our garments and our shoes are old, by reason of the exceeding great iourney.

14 And the men accepted their tale concerning their victuals, and counsell'd not with the mouth of the Lord.

15 So Ioshua made peace with them, & made a league with them, that he would suffer them to liue: also the Princes of the Congregation sware vnto them.

16 But at the end of three daies, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israel took their iourney, and came vnto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kiriath-arzim.

18 And the children of Israel slew them not, because the Princes of the Congregation had sworne vnto them by the Lorde God of Israel: wherefore all the Congregation murmured against the Princes.

19 Then all the Princes said vnto all the Congregation, Wee haue sworne vnto them by the Lorde God of Israel: now therefore wee may not touch them.

20 But this we will doe to them, and let them liue, lest the wrath bee vpon vs, because of the oath which we sware vnto them.

21 And the Princes said vnto them againe, Let them liue, but they shal hew wood, and draw water vnto all the Congregation, as the Princes appoint them.

22 Ioshua then called them, and talked with them, and said, Wherefore haue yee beguiled vs, saying, Wee are very farre from you, when yee dwell among vs?

23 Now therefore yee are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bond men, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Ioshua, and said, Because it was told thy seruants, that the Lord thy God had commanded his seruant Moses to giue you all the land, & to destroy all the inhabitants of the land out of your sight, therefore wee were exceeding sore afraid for our liues at the presence of you, and haue done this thing:

25 And behold now, we are in thine hand: do as it seemeth good and right in thine eyes to doe vnto vs.

26 Euen so did hee vnto them, and deliuered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Ioshua appointed them that same day to be hewers of wood, & drawers of water for the Congregation, and for the altar of the Lord vnto this day, in the place which he should chuse.

CHAP. X.

1. Plus they make warre against Gibeon whom Ioshua distroyed. 2. The Lord raised hail stones and flew downe. 3. The sunne standeth as Ioshua prayd. 4. The five kings are hanged. 5. Many more cities and kings are destroyed.

NOW when Adoni-zedek king of Ierusalem had heard how Ioshua had taken Ai and had destroyed it, (for as he had done to Iericho and to the king thereof, so he had done to Ai and to the king thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, & went among them,

2 Then they feared exceedingly: for Gibeon was a great citie, as one of the royall cities: for it was greater then Ai, and all the men thereof were mightie.

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Ierusalem sent vnto Hoham king of Hebron, and vnto Piram king of Iarmuth, and vnto Iapia king of Lachish, and vnto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come vp vnto mee, and helpe mee, that we may smite Gibeon: for they haue made peace with Ioshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Ierusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Iarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went vp, they with all their hostes, and beleaged Gibeon, and made warre against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent vnto Ioshua, and to the host to Gilgal, saying, Withdraw not thine hand from thy seruants: come vp to vs quickly, and saue vs, and helpe vs: for all the kings of the Amorites, which dwell in the mountaines, are gathered together against vs.

7 So Ioshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

8 And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Feare them not: for I haue giuen them into thine hands: none of them shall stand against thee.

9 Ioshua therefore came vnto them suddenly: for he went vp from Gilgal all the night.

10 And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and to Makkedah.

11 And as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, the Lord cast downe great stones from heauen vpon them, vntill Azekah, and they died: they were more that died with the hailstones, then they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 Then spake Ioshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gaue the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sunne stay thou in Gibeon, and thou moone, in the valley of Aialon.

13 And the Sunne abode, & the moone stood still, vntill the people auenged themselves vpon their enemies: (is not this written in the booke of Iasher?) so the Sunne abode in the middes of the heauen, and halted not to goe downe for a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel.

15 After Ioshua returned, and all Israel with him vnto the campe to Gilgal:

16 But the five kings fled and were hid in a caue at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Ioshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a caue at Makkedah.

18 Then Ioshua said, Roulle great stones vpon

b So enions the wicked are, when any depart from their hand.

c Left Ioshua should haue thought that God had sent this great power against him, for his vnlawfull league with the Gibeonites, the Lord here strengtheneth him.

20 And when Ioshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with an exceeding great slaughter till they were consumed, and therest that remained of them were entered into walled cities,

21 Then all the people returned to the campe, to Ioshua at Makkedah in speace: no man moved his tongue against the children of Israel.

22 After, Ioshua said, Open the mouth of the cane, & bring out these five kings vnto mee forth of the cane.

23 And they did so, & brought out those five kings vnto him forth of the cane, euen the king of Ierusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Iarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

10:23. Signifying what should become of the rest of Gods enemies, seeing that kings themselves were not spared.

24 And when they had brought out those kings vnto Ioshua, Ioshua called for all the men of Israel, and said vnto the chiefe of the men of warre, which went with him, Come neere, set your feet vpon the neckes of these kings, and they came neere, and set their feet vpon their neckes.

25 And Ioshua said vnto them, Feare not, nor be faint hearted, for be strong, and of a good courage: for thus will the Lord doe to all your enemies, against whom ye fight.

26 So then Ioshua smote them, & slew them, and hanged them on five trees, and they hanged still vpon the trees vntill the evening.

10:26. And Ioshua said vnto the chiefe of the men of warre, which went with him, Come neere, set your feet vpon the neckes of these kings, and they came neere, and set their feet vpon their neckes.

27 And at the going downe of the sunne, Ioshua gaue commandement, that they should take them downe off the trees, and cast them into the cane (wherein they had bene hid) and they laid great stones vpon the canes mouth, which remaine vntill this day.

10:27. Ioshua takes Makkedah.

28 And that same day Ioshua tooke Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof destroyed he with them, and all the soules that were therein: he let none remaine: for he did to the king of Makkedah, as he had done vnto the king of Iericho.

10:28. Ioshua takes Makkedah.

29 Then Ioshua went from Makkedah, and all Israel with him vnto Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

10:29. Ioshua takes Libnah.

30 And the Lord gaue it also and the king thereof into the hand of Israel: and hee smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein: hee let none remaine in it: for he did vnto the king thereof, as he had done vnto the king of Iericho.

10:30. Ioshua takes Libnah.

31 And Ioshua departed from Libnah, and all Israel with him vnto Lachish, and besieged it, and assaulted it.

10:31. Ioshua takes Lachish.

32 And the Lord gaue Lachish into the hand of Israel, which tooke it the second day, & smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein, according to all as he had done to Libnah.

10:32. Ioshua takes Lachish.

33 Then Horam king of Gazer came vp to helpe Lachish: but Ioshua smote him and his people, vntill none of his remained.

10:33. Ioshua takes Gazer.

34 And from Lachish Ioshua departed vnto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged it, and assaulted it.

10:34. Ioshua takes Eglon.

35 And they tooke it the same day, and smote

it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein hee vnterly destroyed the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Ioshua went vp from Eglon, and all Israel with him vnto Hebron, and they fought against it.

Hebron is taken.

37 And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the soules that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all as he had done to Eglon: for he destroyed it vnterly, and all the soules that were therein.

38 So Ioshua returned, and all Israel with him to Debir, and fought against it.

Debir is taken.

39 And when he had taken it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sword, and vnterly destroyed all the soules that were therein: he let none remaine: as he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof, as he had also done to Libnah, and to the king thereof.

40 So Ioshua smote all the hill countreys, and the South countreys, and the valleys, and the hill sides, and all their kings, and let none remaine, but vnterly destroyed every soule, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded.

Some read A. Hedoch, which signifieth the descents of the hills.

41 And Ioshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea euen vnto Azzah, and all the countrey of Goshen, euen vnto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings, and their kind did Ioshua take at one time: because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel.

In one battell.

43 Afterward, Ioshua and all Israel with him returned vnto the campe in Gilgal.

Where the arke was, there to give thanks for their victories.

44 And when Iabin king of Hazor had heard this, then he sent to Iobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achishaph,

45 And vnto the kings that were by the North in the mountaines and plaines toward the South side of Cinneroth, and in the valleys, and in the borders of Dor Westward,

46 And vnto the Canaanites, which by East and by West, and vnto the Amorites, and Hittites, and Perizzites, and Iebusites in the mountaines, and vnto the Hittites vnder Hebron in the land of Mizpeh.

47 And they came out, and all their hosts with them, many people, as the sand that is on the sea shore, for multitude, with horses and charres exceeding many.

Which was mount Sion, as Deut. 4.48.

48 So all these kings met together, and came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

49 Then the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Be not afraid for them: for to morrow about this time will I deliuer them all thine before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burne their charres with fire.

That neither they should serue to the use of war, nor the Israelites should put their trust in them.

50 Then came Ioshua & all the men of warre with him, against them, by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell vpon them.

51 And the Lord gaue them into the hand of Israel: and they smote them, & chased them vnto great Zidon, and vnto Misrephothaim, and vnto the valley of Mizpeh Eastward, and smote them vntill they had none remaining of them.

Which signifieth hot waters, according to some brine pits.

9 And Ioshua did vnto them as the Lorde bade him: hee houghed their horses, and burnt their charrets with fire.

10 ¶ At that time also Ioshua turned backe, and tooke Hazor, and smote the King thereof with the sword: for Hazor before time was the head of all those kingdomes.

11 Moreover they smote all the persons that were therein with the edge of the sword, vterly destroying all, leauing none aliue, and hee burnt Hazor with fire.

12 So all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them did Ioshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and vterly destroyed them, * as Moses the seruant of the Lorde had commanded.

13 But Israel burnt none of the cities that stood still in their strength, saue Hazor onely, that Ioshua burnt.

14 And all the spoyle of these cities and the cattel the children of Israel tooke for their praye, but they smote euery man with the edge of the sword vntil they had destroyed them, not leauing one aliue.

15 ¶ As the Lord * had commaunded Moses his seruant, so did Moses * commaund Ioshua, and so did Ioshua: he left nothing vndone of all that the Lord had commaunded Moses.

16 So Ioshua tooke all this land of the mountaines, and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the low countrey, and the plaine, and the mountaine of Israel, and the low countrey of the same,

17 From the mount * Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, euen vnto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon, vnder mount Hermon: and all their Kings he tooke, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Ioshua made war long time with all those Kings,

19 Neither was there any city that made peace with the children of Israel, * saue those Hiuites that inhabited Gibeon: all other they tooke by battell.

20 For it came of the Lord, to * harden their hearts that they should come against Israel in battell, to the intent that they should destroy them vterly, and shew them no mercy, but that they should bring them to nought, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And that same season came Ioshua, and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines: out of Hebron, out of Debir, out of Anab, and out of all the mountaines of Iudah, and out of all the mountaines of Israel: Ioshua destroyed them vterly with their cities.

22 There was no Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel, onely in Azzah, in Gath, and in Ashdod were they left.

23 So Ioshua tooke the whole land, according to all that the Lord had said vnto Moses, and Ioshua gaue it for an inheritance vnto Israel, * according to their portions through their tribes: then the land was at rest without warre.

Now when Balaam was old, and broken in years, the Lord said unto him, Thou art old and grown in age, and there remaineth exceeding much land to be possessed:
This is the land that remaineth, all the regions of the Philistines, and all Geshuri.
From Nilus which is in Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron Northward: this is counted of the Canaanites, even five Lordships of the Philistines, the Azekites, and the Ashdodites, the Ekkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites, and the Asites:
From the South, all the land of the Cananites, and the case that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, and to the borders of the Amorites:
And the land of the Gibriths, and all Lebanon toward the sunne rising from Bahal-gad under mount Hermon, until one come to Hamath.
All the inhabitants of the mountaines from Lebanon unto Misrephothaim, and all the Sidonians, I will cast them out first before the children of Israel: only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites, to inherit, as I have commanded thee.
Now therefore divide this land to inherite, unto the nine tribes, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh.
For with halfe thereof the Reubenites & the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them beyond Iorden Eastward, even as Moses the servant of the Lord had given them.
From Aroer that is on the brinke of the river Arnon, and from the citie that is in the mids of the river, and all the plaine of Medeba unto Dibon,
And all the cities of Sihon king of the A-morites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the borders of the children of Ammon,
And Gilead, and the borders of the Gesu-rites and of the Maachathites, and al mount Hermon with all Bashan unto Saleh:
All the kingdome of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, (who remained of the rest of the giants) for these did Moses slay, and cast them out.
But the children of Israel expelled not the Gesurites nor the Maachathites, but the Gesurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites even unto this day.
Ongely unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance, but the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel are his inheritance, as he said unto him.
Moses then gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families.
And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the brinke of the river Arnon, and from the citie that is in the mids of the river, and all the plaine which is by Medeba:
Heshbon with all the cities thereof, that are in the plaine: Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon.
And Jahazah, & Kedemoth, & Mephaath:
Kiriathaim also, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar in the mount of Emek:
And Beth-poor, and Ashdoth-pisgab, and Beth-ieshmoth:
And all the cities of the plaine, and all the kingdome of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the Princes of Midian, Eui, and Bekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the sakes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

And Balaam the sonne of Beor the soothsayer did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among them that were slain.
And the border of the children of Reuben was Iorden with the coasts. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, with the cities and their villages.
Also Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, unto the children of Gad according to their families.
And their coasts were Iazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and halfe the land of the children of Ammon unto Aroer, which is before Rabbah:
And from Heshbon unto Ramoth, Mizpeh, and Betonim, and from Mahanaim unto the borders of Dibon:
And in the valley of Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdome of Sihon king of Heshbon, unto Ior-den and the borders, even unto the sea coast of Cinnereth, beyond Iorden Eastward.
This is the inheritance of the children of Gad, after their families, with the cities, and their villages.
Also Moses gave inheritance unto the halfe tribe of Manasseh: and this belonged to the halfe tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families.
And their border was from Mahanaim, & all Bashan, & all the kingdome of Og king of Bashan, & all the townes of Iair which are in Bashan, & all the cities,
And halfe Gilead, and Ashtaroth, & Edrei, cities of the kingdome of Og in Bashan, & gave unto the children of Machir the sonne of Manasseh halfe of the children of Machir after their families.
These are the heritages, which Moses did distribute in the plaine of Moab beyond Iorden reward Jericho Eastward.
But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave none inheritance: for the Lord God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said unto them.
CHAP. XIII.
The land of Canaan was divided among the nine tribes and the halfe. Caleb requirith the heritage that was promised him.
Moses was given him.
These also are the places which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed to them,
By the lot of their inheritance, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses, to give to the nine tribes, and the halfe tribe.
For Moses had given inheritance unto two tribes and an halfe tribe, beyond Iorden:
but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.
For the children of Ioseph were two tribes,
Manasseh and Ephraim, therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of the same for their beasts and their substance.
As the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did when they divided the land.
Then the children of Iudah came unto Ioshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the sonne of Iephun-neh the Kenzite said unto him, Thou knowest what the Lord said unto Moses the man of God, concerning

7 Fourtie years old was I, when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to espie the land; and I brought him word again, as I thought in mine heart.

8 But my brethren that went vp with mee, discouraged the heart of the people: yet I followed still the Lord my God.

concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

9 Wherefore Moses sware the same day, saying, Certainly the land whereon thy feet have troden, shall bee thine inheritance, and thy childrens for ever, because thou hast followed constantly the Lord my God.

10 Therefore behold now, the Lord hath kept me alive, as he promised: this is the forty and fift yeere since the Lord spake this thing vnto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wil-dernesse: and now loe, I am this day fourescore and fise yeere old:

11 And yet am I strong at this time, as I was when Moses sent me: strong as I was then, so strong am I now, either for warre, or for go-uernment.

12 Now therefore giue mee this mountaine whereof the Lord spake in that day (for thou heardst in that day, how the Anakims were there, and the cities great and walled) if so bee the Lord will be with mee that I may drine them out, as the Lord said.

13 Then Ioshua blessed him, and gaue vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenazite, vnto this day: because hee followed constantly the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron was before-time, Kiriath-arba: which Arba was a great man among the Anakims: thus the lande ceased from warre.

1 The lot of the children of Iudah, and the names of the cities and villages of the same. 23 The request of Asaph.

THIS then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Iudah by their families: even to the border of Edom and the wilderness of * Zin, Southward on the South coast.

2 And their South border was the salt Sea coast, from the point that looketh Southward.

3 And it went out on the South side toward Maaleh-akrabbim, and went along to Zin, and ascended vp on the South side vnto Kadesh-barnea, and went along to Hebron, and went vp to Adar, and set a compass to Karkaa.

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached vnto the riuer of Egypt, and the ende of that coast was on the West side: this shall be your South coast.

5 Also the East border shall be the salt Sea, vnto the end of Iordan: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, & from the end of Iordan.

6 And this border goeth vp to Beth-hogla, and goeth along by the North side of Beth-arabah: so the border from thence goeth vp to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

7 Again this border goeth vp to Debir from the valley of Achor, and Northward turning toward Gilgal, that lieth before the going vp to A-dummim, which is on the South side of the ri-uer.

uer where it runneth into the

1 The Hebrew word signifies meant either the arm of the Sea that commeth into the land, or a rock

at cape that goeth into the Sea.

17 And this border goeth vp to the waters of En-chemeth, and endeth at En-rogel.

18 Then this border goeth vp to the valley of the sonnes of Hinnom, on the Southside of the Iebusites: the same is Ierusalem. Also this border goeth vp to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of the giants Northward.

19 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountaine vnto the fountaine of the water of Nephtoa, & goeth out to the cities of mount Ephron: and this border draweth to Baalah which is Kiriathisairim.

20 Then this border compasseth from Baalah Westward vnto mount Seir, and goeth along vnto the side of mount Iearim, which is Chelalon on the Northside: so it commeth downe to Beth-chemeth, and goeth to Timnah.

21 Also this border goeth out vnto the side of Ekron Northward: and this border draweth to Shicron, and goeth along to mount Baalah, and stretcheth vnto Iabneel: and the endes of this coast are vnto the Sea.

22 And the West border is to the great Sea: so this border shall be the bounds of the children of Iudah round about, according to their families.

23 ¶ And vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh did Ioshua give a part among the children of Iudah, as the Lord commanded him, ^{even} Kiriath-arba of the father of Anak which is in Hebron.

24 And Caleb droue thence three sonnes of Anak, Shebhai, and Ahiman, & Talmai, the sonnes of Anak.

25 And he went vp thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir beforetime was Kiriathsepher.

26 Then Caleb sayd, He that smiteth Kiriathsepher, and taketh it, euē to him wil I giue Achsah my daughter to wife.

27 And Othniel, the sonne of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb tooke it: and he gaue him Achsah his daughter to wife.

28 And as she went in to him, she moued him, to aske of her father a field: and she lighted off her asse, and Caleb said vnto her, What wilt thou?

29 Then he answered, ¶ Giue me a blessing: for thou hast giuen me the South countrey: giue mee also springs of water. And hee gaue her the springs aboue, and the springs beneath.

30 This shall be the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Iudah according to their families.

31 And the vtmost cities of the tribe of the children of Iudah, toward the coastes of Edom Southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Lagur,

32 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,

33 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,

34 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,

Zorah, and Anab, and Zanoah, and Engannim, Tappuah, and Enam,

49 And Kabbon, and Lahmam, and Kirblith,

50 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteene cities with their villages.

51 Lebna, and Ether, and Ashan,

52 And Liptah, and Ashnah, and Nezi,

53 And Keilah, and Aczib, and Marethan: nine cities with their villages.

56 Ashdod with her towne and her villages: Azzah with her towne and her villages, vnto the river of Egypt, and the great Sea, was their coast.

57 ¶ And in the mountaines were Shamir, and Iattir, and Socoh,

58 And Danah, and Kiriath-sannath (which is Debir)

59 And Anab, and Ashtemoh, and Anim,

60 And Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages.

61 Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean,

62 And Ianum, and Beth-tappuah, & Aphekah,

63 And Humtah, and Kiriath-arba, (which is Hebron) and Zior: nine cities with their villages,

64 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Iuttah,

65 And Izreel, and Iokdeam, and Zanoah,

66 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages.

67 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor,

68 And Miarah, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages.

69 Kiriath-baal which is Kiriath-earim, and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.

70 ¶ In the wilderness were Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah,

71 And Nibshan, and the city of salt, and Engedi: six cities with their villages.

72 Neuertheless, the Iebusites that were the inhabitants of Ierusalem, could not the children of Iudah cast out, but the Iebusites dwell with the children of Iudah at Ierusalem vnto this day.

8 And this border goeth from Tappuah Westward vnto the riuer Kanah; and the endes thereof are at the Sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh: the cities with their villages.

10 And they cast not out the Canaanite that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanite dwelt among the Ephraimites vnto this day, and serued vnder tribute.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The portion of the half tribe of Manasse. 3 The daughters of Zelophehad. 13 The Canaanites are become tributaries.

14 Manasse and Ephraim require a greater portion of heritage.

This was also the lot of the tribe of Manasse: for he was the first borne of Ioseph, to wit, of Machir the first borne of Manasseh, and the father of Gilead: now because hee was a man of warre, he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 And also of the rest of the sonnes of Manasseh by their families, even of the sonnes of Abiezer, and of the sons of Helek, and of the sons of Azriel, and of the sonnes of Shechem, and of the sonnes of Hephher, and of the sonnes of Shemida: these were the males of Manasseh, the sonne of Ioseph according to their families.

3 ¶ But Zelophehad the sonne of Hephir, the sonne of Gilead, the son of Machir, the sonne of Manasseh, had no sonnes, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 Which came before Eleazar the Priest, and before Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commaunded Moses to giue vs an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandement of the Lord, he gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And therfell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of Iorden.

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh did inherit among his sonnes: and Manassehs other sonnes had the land of Gilead.

7 ¶ So the borders of Manasseh were from Asher to Michmethah that lieth before Shechem, and this border goeth on the right hande, even vnto the inhabitants of Entappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah beside the border of Manasseh belongeth to the sonnes of Ephraim.

9 Also this border goeth downe vnto the riuer Kanah Southward to the riuer: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh is on the Northside of the riuer, and the endes of it are at the Sea.

10 The South pertaineth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasseh, and the Sea is his border: and they met together in Asher Northward, and in Issachar Eastward.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-shean, and her townes, and Ibleam, and her townes, & the inhabitants of Dor with the towns thereof, and the inhabitants of En-dor, with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of Taanach with her townes, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with the townes of the same, even three countries.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not destroy these cities, but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

13 Neuerthelesse, when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites vnder tribute, but cast them not out wholly.

14 Then the children of Ioseph spake vnto Ioshua, saying, Why hast thou giuen me but one lot, and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, for as much as the Lord hath blessed me hitherto?

15 Ioshua then answered them, If thou bee much people, get the vp to the wood, and cut trees for thy selfe there in the land of the Perizzites, & of the gyants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 Then the children of Ioseph saide, The mountaine will not be enough for vs: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the lowe country haue charrets of yron, aswell they in Bethshean, and in townes of the same, as they in the valley of Izrael.

17 And Ioshua spake vnto the house of Ioseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power, and shalt not haue one lot.

18 Therefore the mountaine shall bee thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it downe: and the endes of it shall be thine, and thou shalt cast out the Canaanites, though they haue yron charrets, and though they be strong.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The Tabernacle set in Shiloh. 4 Certaine are sent to diuide the lands to the other seven tribes. 11 The lot of the children of Benjamin.

And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel came together at Shiloh: for they set vp the Tabernacle of the Congregation there, after the land was subiect vnto them.

2 Now there remained among the children of Israel seuen tribes, to whom they had not diuided their inheritance.

3 Therefore Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, How long are ye slacke to enter & possess the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath giuen you?

4 Giue him among you for euery tribe three men, that I may send them, & that they may rise, and walke through the land, and distribute it according to their inheritance, and returne to me.

5 And that they may diuide it vnto them into seuen parts, (Iudah shall abide in his coast at the South, and the house of Ioseph shall stande in their coastes at the North)

6 Ye shall describe the land therefore into seuen parts, and shall bring them hither to me, and I will cast lots for you here before me. ¶ Lord our God.

7 But the Leuites shall haue no part among you: for the Priesthood of the Lord is their inheritance: also Gad & Reuben, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh haue receiued their inheritance beyond Iorden Eastward, which Moses the seruante of the Lord gaue them.

the land, saying, Depart and go through the land, and describe it, and remaine to mee, that I may have cast lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh.

9 So the men departed, and passed through the land, & described it by cities into seven parts in a booke, & returned to Ioshua into the campe at Shiloh.

10 ¶ Then Ioshua^a cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Ioshua divided the land vnto the children of Israel, according to their portions.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came forth according to their families, and the coast of their lot lay between the children of Iudah, and the children of Joseph.

12 And their coast on the Northside was from Iorden, and the border went vp to the side of Iericho on the North part, and went vp through the mountaines Westward, and the ends thereof are in the wilderness of Beth-auen:

13 And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, ^{uen} to the Southside of Luz (the same is Beth-el) and this border descendeth to Atrochaddar, neare the mount, that lieth on the Southside of Beth-horon the nether.

14 So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the mount that lieth before Beth-horon Southward, and the ends thereof are at Kiriath baal (which is Kiriath-iearim) a citie of the children of Iudah: this is the West quarter.

15 And the South quarter is from the end of Kiriath-iearim, & this border goeth out Westward, and commeth to the fountaine of waters of Nephtoa.

16 And this border descendeth at the end of the mountaines, that lieth before the valley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the valley of the giants Northward, and descendeth into the valley of Hinnom by the side of Jebusi Southward, & goeth downe to En-rogel.

17 And compasseth from the North, and goeth forth to En-themesh, and stretcheth to Geli-loch, which is toward the going vp vnto Adummim, and goeth downe to the stone of Bohan the founte of Reuben.

18 So it goeth along to the side ouer against the plaine Northward, and goeth downe into the plaine.

19 After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth-hoglah Northward: and the ends thereof, that is, of the border, reach to the point of the salt Sea Northward, and to the end of Iorden Southward: this is the South coast.

20 Also Iorden is the border of it on the Eastside: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin by the coastes thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, are Iericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz,

22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemairam, and Beth-el,

23 And Auim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 And Chephar, Ammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba: twelue cities with their villages.

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

26 And Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 And Zela, Eleph, and Jebusi, (which is Jerusalem.) Gibeon, and Kiriath: fourteene cities with their villages: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to their families.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The portion of Simeon, 20 Of Zebulun, 19 Of Issachar, 20 Of Asher, 20 Of Naphtali, 20 Of Dan, 20 The portion of Iudah.

And the second lot came out to Simeon, ^{uen} for the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families: and their inheritance was in the middes of the inheritance of the children of Iudah.

2 Now they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And Hazar-ihsai, and Balah, and Azem,

4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

5 And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-ihsai,

6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhena: thirteene cities with their villages

7 Ain Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan: foure cities with their villages.

8 And al the villages that were round about these cities, vnto Baalath-beer, and Ramath Southward: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Iudah came the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Iudah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

10 ¶ Also the third lot arose for the children of Zebulun, according to their families: and the coastes of their inheritance came to Sarid,

11 And their border goeth vp Westward, ^{uen} to Maralah, and reacheth to Dabbatheth, and meeteth with the river that lieth before Iok-neam,

12 And turneth from Sarid Eastward toward the Sunne rising vnto the border of Chisloth-tabor, and goeth out to Daberah, and ascendeth to Iaphia, 13 And from thence goeth along Eastward toward the Sunne rising to Gittah-hepher to Ittahkazin, and goeth forth to Rimmon, and turneth to Neah.

14 And this border compasseth it on the North side to Hannathon, and the ends thereof are in the valley of Iiphtah-el.

15 And Kattah, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idolah, and Beth-lehem: twelue cities with their villages

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun, according to their families, that is, these cities and their villages.

17 ¶ The fourth lot came out to Issachar, ^{uen} for the children of Issachar, according to their families.

18 And their coast was Izreelah, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,

19 And Hapharaim, and Sihon, and Anaharah,

20 And Harabbith, and Kishion, and Abetz,

21 And Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez, 22 And this coast reacheth to Tabor, & Shazimath, and Beth-themesh, and the ends of their coast reach to Iorden: sixteene cities with their villages.

a According to Iacob's prophesie, that he should be scattered among the other tribes, Gen. 49. 7.

b Or, Ramath-mizpeh.

c But this large portion was given them by Gods providence to declare their increase in time to come.

d Meaning toward the great Sea.

e There was another Beth-lehem in the tribe of Iudah.

f There was another citie of this name in the tribe of Iudah: for vnder diuers tribes certaine cities had all one name, and were distinguished by the tribe onely.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ Also the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their coast was Helcath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,

26 And Alammelech, and Amadi, and Mithel, and came to Carmel Westward, and to Shihor Libnath,

27 And turneth toward the sunne rising to Beth-dagon, and cometh to Zebulun, and to the valley of Iiphtah-el, toward the North side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out on the left side of Cabul, 28 And to Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, vnto great Zidon.

29 Then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong citie of Zor, and this border turneth to Hoshah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea from Hebel to Achzib, 30 Vmmah also and Aphek, and Rehob: two and twenty cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher; according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even to the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Heleph, and from Allon in Zaanannim, and Adaminekeb, and Iabneel, even to Lakum, and the ends thereof are at Iorden.

34 So this coast turneth Westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the South side, and goeth to Asher on the West side, and to Iudah by Iorden toward the sunne rising.

35 And the strong cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Cinnereth, 36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor,

38 And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anah, and Beth-shechem: nineteene cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh,

42 And Shaalabbin, and Aijalon, and Ithlah,

43 And Elon, and Temnathah, and Ekron,

44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalah,

45 And Iehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon,

46 And Me-iarkon, and Rakkon, with the border that lieth before Iapho.

47 But the coastes of the children of Dan fell out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went vp to fight against Leshem, and tooke it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, that is, these cities and their villages.

49 ¶ When they had made an end of diuiding the land by the coastes thereof, then the children of Israel gaue an inheritance vnto Ioshua the sonne of Nun among them.

50 According to the worde of the Lord they gaue him the citie which hee asked, even Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim: and hee built the citie and dwelt therein.

51 ¶ These are the heritages which Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun, & the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel diuided by lot in Siloh before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: so they made an end of diuiding the country.

CHAP. XX.

a The Lord commandeth Ioshua to appoint cities of refuge, 3. The use thereof, 7. and their names.

¶ He Lord also spake vnto Ioshua, saying,

1 Speake to the children of Israel, and say, ¶ Appoint you cities of refuge, whereof I spake vnto you by the hand of Moyses,

2 That the slayer that killeth any person by ignorance, and vnwitting, may flee thither, and they shall bee your refuge from the auenger of blood.

3 And hee that doeth flee vnto one of those cities, shall stand at the entring of the gate of the citie, and shal shew his cause to the Elders of the citie: and they shal receiue him into the citie vnto them, and giue him a place, that hee may dwell with them.

4 And if the auenger of blood pursue after him, they shal not deliuer the slayer into his hand, because he smote his neighbour ignorantly, neither hated he him beforetime:

5 But he shall dwell in that citie vntil he stand before the Congregation in iudgement, or vntil the death of the hie Priest that shal be in those dayes: then shall the slayer returne, and come vnto his owne citie, and vnto his owne house, even vnto the citie from whence he fled.

6 ¶ Then they appointed Kedesh in Galil in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba, (which is Hebron) in the mountaine of Iudah.

7 And on the other side Iorden toward Iericho Eastward, they appoynted Bezer in the wilderness vpon the plaine, out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, out of the tribe of Manasseh.

8 These were the cities appoynted for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourned among them, that whosoever killed any person ignorantly, might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the auenger of blood, vntil hee stood before the Congregation.

man of the Lord these cities with their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot, out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteene cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 Also the children of Gerson had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, & out of the tribe of Asher, & out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, threene cities.

7 The children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelue cities.

8 So the children of Israel gave by lot vnto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, & out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here named.

10 And they were the children of Aaron being of the families of the Kohathites, and of the sonnes of Levi, (for theirs was the first lot)

11 So they gave them Kiriath-arba of the father of Anok (which is Hebron) in the mountain of Judah, with the suburbs of the same round about it.

12 (But the land of the citie, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh to be his possession.)

13 Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the Priest, a citie of refuge for the slayer, even Hebron with her suburbs, and Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And Iattir with her suburbs, and Eshtemoa with her suburbs,

15 And Holon with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs,

16 And Ain with her suburbs, & Juttah with her suburbs. Beth-shean with her suburbs: nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin they gave Gibeon with her suburbs, Geba with her suburbs, 18 Anathoth with her suburbs, and Almon with her suburbs: foure cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron Priests, were thirteene cities with their suburbs.

20 But to the families of the children of Kohath of the Levites, which were the rest of the children of Kohath (for the cities of their lot were out of the tribe of Ephraim.)

21 They gave them the citie of refuge for the slayer, Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, and Gezer with her suburbs, 22 And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs: foure cities.

24 Aialon with her suburbs, Gath-rimmon with her suburbs: foure cities.

25 And out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs: two cities.

26 All the cities for the other families of the children of Kohath were ten with their suburbs.

27 Also vnto the children of Gerson of the families of the Levites, they gave out of the half-tribe of Manasseh the citie of refuge for the slayer, Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, and Beeth-terah with her suburbs: two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Daberah with her suburbs, 29 Iarmuth with her suburbs, En-gannim with her suburbs: foure cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkiah with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs: foure cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, the citie of refuge for the slayer, Kedesh in Galil with her suburbs, mid Hammoth-dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs: three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gersonites according to their families, were thirteene cities with their suburbs.

34 Also vnto the families of the children of Merari the rest of the Levites, they gave out of the tribe of Zebulun, Tokneam with her suburbs, 35 Kartah with her suburbs, Nahalal with her suburbs: foure cities.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her suburbs, and Jahatrah with her suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephath with her suburbs: foure cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad they gave for a citie of refuge for the slayer, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, and Iazer with her suburbs: foure cities in all.

40 So all the cities of the children of Merari according to their families (which were the rest of the families of the Levites) were by their lot, twelue cities.

41 And all the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel, were eight and forty with their suburbs.

42 These cities lay every one severally with their suburbs round about them: so were all these cities.

43 So the Lord gave vnto Israel all the land, which he had sworn to give vnto their fathers: and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 Also the Lord gave them rest round about according to al that he had sworn vnto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them: for the Lord deliuered all their enemies into their hand.

45 There failed nothing of all the good things, which the Lord had sayd vnto the house of Israel, but all came to passe.

kept the commandment of the Lord your God.

4 And now the Lord hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now returne ye, and goe to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the seruant of the Lord hath^e given you beyond Iorden.

5 But take diligent heede, to doe the commandment and Law, which Moses the seruant of the Lord commanded you: that is, that ye^f loue the Lord your God, and walke in all his wayes, and keepe his commandments, and cleaue vnto him, and serue him with all your heart, and with all your soule.

6 So Ioshua^d blessed them, and sent them away, and they went vnto their tents.

7 ¶ Now vnto^g one halfe of the tribe of Manassih Moses had given a possession in Bashan: and vnto the other halfe thereof gaue Ioshua among their brethren on this side Iorden Westward: therefore when Ioshua sent them away vnto their tents, and blessed them,

8 Thus he spake vnto them, saying, Returne with much riches vnto your tents, & with a great multitude of cattell, with siluer and with gold, with brasse and with yron, and with great abundance of raiment: divide the spoile of your enemies with your brethren.

9 ¶ So the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manassih returned, and departed from the children of Israel from Shiloh (which is in the land of Canaan) to goe vnto the country of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

10 ¶ And when they came vnto the borders of Iorden (which are in the land of Canaan) then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manassih, build^e there an altar by Iorden, a great altar to see to.

11 ¶ When the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manassih haue built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan, vpon the borders of Iorden at the passage of the children of Israel.

12 When the children of Israel heard it, then the whole Congregation of the children of Israel gathered them together at Shiloh, to goe vpⁱ to warre against them.

13 Then the children of Israel sent vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manassih into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest.

14 And with him ten princes, of euery chiefe house a prince, according to all the tribes of Israel: for euery one was chiefe of their fathers household among the thousands of Israel.

15 ¶ So they went vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manassih, vnto the land of Gilead, and spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith^h the whole Congregation of the Lord, What transgression is this that ye haue transgressed against the God of Israel, to turne away this day from the Lord, in that ye haue built you an altar for to rebell this day against the Lord?

17 Hate we too little for the wickednesseⁱ of Peor, whereof we are not^j cleansed vnto this day, though a plague came vpon the Congregation of the Lord?

18 Yee also returned away this day from the Lord: and seeing ye rebel to day against the Lord, euen to morrow he will be wroth with all the Congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be^k vnleane, come ye ouer vnto the land of the possession of the Lord, wherein the Lords Tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among vs: but^l rebell not against the Lord, nor rebell not against vs in building you an altar, beside the altar of the Lord our God.

20 Did not Achan the sonne of Zerah trespass grievously in the execrable thing, and wrath fell on^m all the Congregation of Israel? and this man aloneⁿ perished not in his wickednes.

21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manassih answered, and said vnto the heads ouer the thousands of Israel,

22 The Lord God of gods, the Lord God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel himselfe shal know: if by rebellion, or by transgression against the Lord we haue done it, saue thou vs not this day.

23 If we haue built vs an altar to return away from the Lorde, either to offer thereon burnt offering, or meate offering, or to offer peace offerings thereon, let the Lord^o himselfe require it:

24 And if we haue not rather done it for feare of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might say vnto our children, What haue ye to doe with the Lord God of Israel?

25 For the Lord hath made Iorden a border betweene vs and you, yee children of Reuben and of Gad: therefore ye haue no part in the Lord: so shal your children make our children^p cease from fearing the Lord.

26 Therefore we said, We will now goe about to make vs an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice,

27 But it shall be a^q witness betweene vs and you, and betweene our generations after vs, to execute this seruice of the Lord before him, in our burnt offerings, and in our sacrifices, and in our peace offerings, and that your children should not say to our children in time to come, Yee haue no part in the Lord.

28 Therefore said we, If so be that they should so say to vs, or to our generations in time to come, then will we answer, Behold the fashion of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, but it is a witness betweene vs and you.

29 God forbid, that we should rebell against the Lord, and turne this day away from the Lord, to build an altar for burnt offering, or for meate offering, or for sacrifice, saue the altar of the Lord our God that is before his Tabernacle.

30 ¶ And when Phinehas the Priest, and the princes of the Congregation and heads ouer the thousands of Israel, which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manassih spake, they were well content.

31 And Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest said vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manassih, This day we perceiue, that the Lord is among vs, because yee haue not done this trespass against the Lord: now yee haue delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.

33 And the saying pleased the children of Israel: and the children of Israel blessed God, and minded not to goe against them in battell, for to destroy the land, wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 And Iosua gathered the people, that they might not themselves to the Gentiles: for they say, we have made a covenant with the Lord, & we will not forsake him, for he hath saved us from all our enemies.

2 And a long season after that the Lord had given rest vnto Israel from all their enemies round about, and Iosua was old, and stricken in age.

3 Then Iosua called all Israel, and their Elders and their Heads and their Iudges, and their officers, and said vnto them, I am old, and stricken in age.

4 Also ye haue seene all that the Lord your God hath done vnto all these nations before you, how the Lord your God himselfe hath fought for you.

5 Beholde, I haue diuided vnto you by lot these nations that remaine, to bee an inheritance according to your tribes, from Iorden, with all the nations that I haue destroyed, euen vnto the great Sea Westward.

6 And the Lord your God shall expell them before you, and call them out of your sight, and ye shall possesse their land, as the Lord your God hath said vnto you.

7 Be ye therefore of a valiant courage to obferue and doe all that is written in the booke of the Law of Moses, that ye turne not therefrom to the right hand nor to the left.

8 Neither companie with these nations: that is, with them that are left with you, neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serue them, nor bow vnto them.

9 But stick fast vnto the Lord your God, as ye haue done vnto this day.

10 For the Lord hath cast out before you great nations and mighty, and no man hath stood before your face hitherto.

11 One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lord your God he fighteth for you, as hee hath promised you.

12 Take good heed therefore vnto your selves, that ye loue the Lord your God.

13 Else, if yee goe backe, and cleaue vnto the rest of these nations: that is, of them that remaine with you, and shall make marriages with them, and goe vnto them, and they to you,

14 Know ye for certaine, that the Lord your God will cast out no more of these nations from before you: but they shall be a snare and destruction vnto you, and a whip on your sides, and thornes in your eyes, vntill yee perish out of this good land, which the Lord your God hath given you.

15 And beholde, this day doe I enter into the way of all the world, and ye know in all your hearts and in all your soules, that nothing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God promised you, but all are come to passe vnto you: nothing hath failed thereof.

16 Therefore all good things are come vpon you, which the Lord your God promised you, so that the Lord bring vpon you euery euill thing, vntill hee haue destroyed you out of this good land, which the Lord your God hath given you.

17 When yee shall transgresse the Covenant of the Lord your God, which hee commanded you, and shall goe and serue other gods, and bow your selues to them, then shall the wrath of the Lord waxe hote against you, and yee shall perish quickly out of the good land which hee hath giuen you.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Iosua rebuketh Gods people, 24 and rebuketh the people to feare God. 25 The league renewed betwene God and the people. 26 Iosua dieth. 27 The bones of Iosua are buried. 28 Eleazar dieth.

1 And Iosua assembled againe all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called the Elders of Israel, and their Heads, and their Iudges, and their officers, & they presented themselves before God.

2 Then Iosua said vnto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt beyond the flood in old time, euen Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor, and serued other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from beyond the flood, and brought him thorow all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gaue him Izhak.

4 And I gaue vnto Izhak, Iaakob and Esau: and I gaue vnto Esau mount Seir, to possesse it: but Iaakob and his children went downe into Egypt.

5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt: & when I had so done among them, I brought you out.

6 So I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and ye came vnto the Sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with charets and horsemen vnto the red Sea.

7 Then they cryed vnto the Lord, and hee put a darkenesse betweene you and the Egyptians, and brought hither the Sea vpon them, and couered them: so your eyes haue seene what I haue done in Egypt: also ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season.

8 After, I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond Iorden, and they fought with you: but I gaue them into your hand, and ye possessed their countrey, and I destroyed them out of your sight.

9 Also Balak the sonne of Zippor King of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent to Balaam the sonne of Beor for to curse you.

10 But I would not heare Balaam: therefore hee blessed you, and I deliuered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went ouer Iorden, and came vnto Iericho, and the men of Iericho fought against you the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, and I deliuered them into your hand.

did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them, and eat of the vineyards and olive trees, which ye planted not.

14 Now therefore, heare the Lord, and serue him in vprightness and in truth, and put away the gods, which your fathers serued beyond the flood, and in Egypt, and serue ye the Lord.

15 And it it seeme euill vnto you to serue to Lord, chuse you this day whom ye will serue, whether the gods which your fathers serued (that were beyond the flood) or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: I and mine house will serue the Lord.

16 Then the people answered and sayd, God forbid, that we should forsake the Lord, to serue other gods.

17 For the Lord our God, he brought vs and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and he did those great miracles in our fight, and preferred vs in all the way that wee went, and among all the people through whom we came.

18 And the Lord did cast out before vs all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serue the Lord, for he is our God.

19 And Ioshua sayd vnto the people, Ye cannot serue the Lord: for he is an holy God: he is a ielous God: he will not pardon your iniquity nor your finnes.

20 If yee forsake the Lord and serue strange gods, then he will returne and bring euill vpon you, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said vnto Ioshua, Nay, but we will serue the Lord.

22 And Ioshua sayd vnto the people, Yee are witnesses against your selues, that yee haue chosen you the Lord, to serue him: and they sayd,

We are witnesses.

23 Then put away now, sayd he, the strange gods which are among you, & bow your hearts vnto the Lord God of Israel.

24 And the people said vnto Ioshua, The Lord our God will we serue, & his voyce will we obey.

25 So Ioshua made a couenant with the people the same day, and gaue them an ordinance and law in Shechem.

26 And Ioshua wrote these words in the book of the Law of God, and tooke a great stone, and pitched it there vnder an oke that was in the Sanctuarie of the Lord.

27 And Ioshua said vnto al the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness vnto vs, for it hath heard all the words of the Lord which hee spake with vs: it shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you denie your God.

28 Then Ioshua let the people depart, every man vnto his inheritance.

29 And after these things, Ioshua the sonne of Nun, the seruant of the Lord died, being an hundred and ten yeeres olde.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Tinnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the Northside of mount Gaash.

31 And Israel serued the Lord all the daies of Ioshua, and all the dayes of the Elders that ouerliued Ioshua, and which had known all the workes of the Lord that he hath done for Israel.

32 And the bones of Ioseph, which the children of Israel brought out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem in a parcel of ground, which Iakob bought of the sonnes of Hamor, father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of siluer, & the children of Ioseph had them in their inheritance.

33 Also Eleazar the sonne of Aaron died, whom they buried in the hill of Phinehas his sonne, which was giuen him in moun Ephraim.

THE BOOKE OF IVDGES.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit there is nothing that more prouoketh Gods wrath, then mans ingratitude, yet is there nothing so displeasing and hainous, that can turne backe Gods loue from his Church. For now when the Israelites were entred into the land of Canaan, and saw the truth of Gods promise performed, in stead of acknowledging his great benefites and giuing thanks for the same, they fell to most horrible obliuion of Gods graces, contrary to their solemn promise made vnto Ioshua, and so prouoked his vengeance (as much as in them stood) to their utter destruction. Whereof as they had most euident signes by the mutabilitie of their state: (for he suffered them to be most cruelly vexed & tormented by tyrants: he pulled them from libertie, and cast them into slavery, to the intent they might feele their owne miseries, and so call vnto him and be deliuered.) So to shew that his mercies indure for euer, hee raysed vp from time to time such as should deliuer them, and assure them of his fauour and grace, if they would turne to him by true repentance. And these deliuerers the Scripture calleth Iudges, because they were executors of Gods iudgements, not chosen of the people nor by succession, but raised up as it seemed best to God, for the gouernance of his people. They were fourteene in number beside Ioshua, and gouerned from Ioshua vnto Saul the first King of Israel. Ioshua and these vnto the time of Saul, ruled 377 yeeres. In this booke are many notable poynts declared, but two especially: first, she battell that the Church of God hath for the maintenance of true Religion against idolatry and superstition: next what great danger that common wealth is in, when as God giueth not a Magistrats to reueine his people in the purenesse of Religion and his true seruice.

9 Afterward also the children of Iudah dwelt in the mountaine, and toward the South, and in the low country.

10 And Iudah were against the Canaanites

14 And when they came to him, hee moved him to take of her father a field: and he lighted thou?

15 And she answered him, Give me a blessing:
for thou hast giuen me a South country, giue me went and dwelt among the people.

them.

house go.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a citie, and called the name of the citie, which is the name thereof vnto
this day.

27 Neither did Manasse destroy Beth-she-an with her towne, nor Tachach with her towne, nor the inhabitants of Dor with her towne, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam with her towne, neither the inhabitants of Megiddo with her towne:
but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

28 Nevertheless when Israel was strong they put the Canaanites to tribute, and expelled them not wholly.

29 Likewise Ephraim expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 Neither did Zebulun expell the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalul, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 Neither did Acher cast out the inhabitants of Achish, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Achab, nor of Achish, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob.

32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Cananites the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shean, and of Bethanath became tributaries vnto them.

34 And the Amorites // drove the children of Dan into the mountaine: so that they sitted the not to come downe to the valley.

35 And the Amorites // dwelt still in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, and when the hand of Iosephs familie prevailed, they became tributaries.

CHAP. II.

The Angel rebuketh the people, because they had made peace with the Canaanites. 21 The Israelites sell to idolatry after Iosephs death. 24 They are deliuered into the enemies hands. 26
God deliuereth them by Iudges. 27 Why God suffered idolaters to remain among them.

And an Angel of the Lord came vp from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go vp out of Egypt, and haue brought you vnto the land which I had sworn vnto your fathers, and said, I will neuer breake my covenant with you.

Ye also shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land: but shall breake downe their altars: but yee haue not obeyed my voyce.
Why haue ye done this?

Wherefore, I said also, I will not cast them out before you, but they shall be as thornes vnto your sides, & their gods shall be your destruction.

these words vnto all the children of Israel, the people lift vp their voyces, and wept.

place, || Bochim, and offered sacrifices there vnto the Lord.
6 ¶ Now when Ioshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel went eury man into his inheritance, to possesse the land.
7 And the people had serued the Lord all the dayes of Ioshua, and all the dayes of the Elders that outliued Ioshua, which had seen al the great workes of the Lord that he did for Israel.
8 But Ioshua the sonne of Nun the seruante of the Lord died, when hee was an hundred and ten yeeres olde.
9 And they buried him in the coastes of his inheritance, in Timnath-heres in mount Ephraim, on the Northside of mount Gaash.
10 And so all that generation was gathered vnto their fathers, and another generation arose after them, which neither knew the Lord, nor yet the workes, which he had done for Israel.
11 ¶ Then the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and serued Baalim, 12 And forsooke the Lorde God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, even the gods of the people that were round about them, & bowed vnto them, and prouoked the Lord to anger.
13 So they forsooke the Lorde, and serued Baal, and Ashteroth.
14 And the wrath of the Lorde was kindled against Israel, & he deliuered them into the hands of spoylers, that spoyled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.
15 ¶ Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the Lorde was sore against them, as the Lorde had said, and as the Lorde had sworne vnto them: so he punished them sore.
16 ¶ Notwithstanding, the Lorde raysed vp Iudges, which deliuered them out of the hands of their oppressours.
17 But yet they would not obey their Iudges: for they went a whoring after other gods, and worshipped them, and turned quickly out of the way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandements of the Lord: they did not so.
18 And when the Lorde had raysted vp Iudges, the Lord was with the Iudge, and deliuered them out of the hand of their enemies all the dayes of the Iudge (for the Lord had compassion of their groynings, because of them that oppressed them and tormented them)
19 Yet when the Iudge was dead, they returned, and did worse then their fathers, in following other gods to serue them and worship them: they ceased not from their owne inuentions, nor from their rebellious way.
20 Wherefore the wrath of the Lorde was kindled against Israel, and he sayd, Because this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and hath not obeyed my voyce,
21 Therefore will I no more cast out before them any of the nations, which Ioshua left when he dyed, 22 That through them I may proue Israel, whether they will keepe the way of the Lord, to walke therein, as their fathers kept it, or not.
23 So the Lord left those nations, and droue them out immediately, neither deliuered them into the hand of Ioshua.

2 The Canaanites were left in the Iffrael. 3 Othniel deliuered Israel. 4 Hee killed King Eglon. 5 Shamgar killed the Philistines.
These now are the nations which the Lorde left, that he might proue Israel by them (even as many of Iffrael as had not knowen all the warres of Canaan,
2 Onely to make the generations of the children of Iffrael to know, and to teach them warre, which doubletse their predecessours knew not)
3 Five princes of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hiuities that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon vntill one come to Hamath.
4 And these remayned to proue Iffrael by them, to wit, whether they would obey the commandements of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.
5 And the children of Iffrael dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuities, and the Jebusites,
6 And they tooke their daughters to bee their wiues, and gaue their daughters to their sonnes, and serued their gods.
7 ¶ So the children of Iffrael did wickedly in the sight of the Lorde, and forgate the Lord their God, and serued Baalim, and Ashteroth.
8 Therefore the wrath of the Lorde was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim King of Aram-naharaim, and the children of Iffrael serued Chushan-rishathaim eight yeeres.
9 ¶ And when the children of Iffrael cried vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred vp a Sauour to the children of Iffrael, and he saued them, even Othniel the sonne of Kenaz, Calebs younger brother.
10 And the Spirit of the Lorde came vpon him, and he iudged Israel, and went out to warre: and the Lord deliuered Chushan-rishathaim king of Aram into his hand, and his hand preuailed against Chushan-rishathaim.
11 So the land had rest fourtie yeeres, and Othniel the sonne of Kenaz died.
12 ¶ Then the children of Iffrael againe committed wickednesse in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had committed wickednesse before the Lord.
13 And he gathered vnto him the children of Ammon, and Amalek, and went and smote Iffrael, and they possessed the citie of palme trees.
14 So the children of Iffrael serued Eglon king of Moab eightene yeeres.
15 But when the children of Iffrael cried vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred them vp a Sauour, Ehud the sonne of Gera the sonne of Iemini, a man lame of his right hand: and the children of Iffrael sent a present by him vnto Eglon king of Moab.
16 And Ehud made him a dagger with two edges of a cubite length, and he did gird it vnder his raiment vpon his right thigh,
17 And he presented the gift vnto Eglon king of Moab (and Eglon was a very fat man)
18 And when he had now presented the present, he sent away the people that bare the present, 19 But he turned againe from the quarties, that were by Gilgal, & said, I have a secret errand vnto thee, O King. Who said, Keepe silence: and

The song and thanks giving of Deborah and Barak, after the victory.

Then sang Deborah, and Barak the sonne of Abinoam the same day, saying,

Praise yee the Lord, for the auenging of Israel, and for the people that offered themselves willingly.

Hear, ye Kings, hearken ye princes: I will sing vnto the Lord: I will sing praise vnto the Lord God of Israel.

Lord, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou departedst out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heauens rained, the cloudes also dropped water.

The mountaines melted before the Lord, as did that Sinai before the Lord God of Israel.

In the dayes of Shamgar the sonne of Anath, in the dayes of Iael, the hie wayes were vnoccupied, and the traouellers walked through bywayes.

The townes were not inhabited: they decayed, I say, in Israel, vntill I Deborah came vp, which role vp a mother in Israel.

They chose new gods: then was warre in the gates. Was there a shield, or speare seene among fourtie thousand of Israel?

Mine heart is set on the gouernours of Israel, and on them that are winning among the people: praise ye the Lord.

Speake ye that ride on white asses, ye that dwell by Middin, and that walke by the way.

For the noyse of the archers appeased among the drawers of water: there shall they rehearse the righteousness of the Lord, his righteousness of his townes in Israel: then did the people of the Lord goe downe to the gates.

Vp Deborah, vp arise, and sing a song: arise Barak, and leade thy captiuitie captiue, thou sonne of Abinoam.

For they that remaine, haue dominion ouer the mightie of the people: the Lord hath giuen me dominion ouer the strong.

Of Ephraim their roote arose against Amalek: and after thee, Benjamin (ball fight) against thy people, O Amalek: of Machir came rulers, & of Zebulun, they handle the pen of the writer.

And the Princes of Issachar were with Deborah, and Issachar, and also Barak: he was set on his feet in the valley: for the diuisions of Reuben were great in thoughts of heart.

Why abodest thou among the sheepeholds, to heare the bleatings of the flockes? for the diuisions of Reuben were great thoughts of heart.

Gilead abode beyond Iordan: and why doeth Dan remaine in shippes? After fate on the sea shoare, and taried in his decayed places.

But the people of Zebulun and Naphtali haue icoparded their liues vnto the death in the hie places of the field.

The Kings came and fought: then fought the Kings of Canaan in Tanaach by the water of Megiddo: they received no gaine of money.

They fought from heauen, vnto the starres in their courtes fought against Sisera.

The Rauer Kishon swept them away, that ancient river the river Kishon. O my soule, thou hast marched valiantly.

Then were the horse-hooues broken with the oft beating together of their mightie men.

Curse ye Meroz: (said the Angel of the Lord) curse the inhabitants thereof, because they came not to helpe the Lord, to helpe the Lord against the mightie.

Iael the wife of Heber the Kenise shall be blessed above other women: blessed shall shee be above women dwelling in tents:

He asked water, and shee gaue him milke: shee brought forth butter in a lordly dish.

She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workmans hammer: with the hammer smote she Sisera: she smote off his head, after she had wounded and pearled his temples.

He bowed him downe at her feete, hee fell downe, and lay still: at her feete hee bowed him downe, and fell: and when he had sunke downe, he lay there dead.

The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cried thorow the lattesse, Why is his charret so long a coming? why tary the wheelles of his charres?

Her wife ladies answered her, Yea: Shee answered her selfe with her owne words, Haue they not gotten, and they diuide the spoyle? euery man hath a mayde or two. Sisera hath a pray of diuers coloured garments, a pray of sundry colours made of needle worke: of diuers colours of needle worke on both sides, for the chiefe of the spoyle.

So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: but they that loue him, shall be as the Sunne when he riseth in his might, and the land had rest fortie yeeres.

CHAP. VI.

Israel is oppressed of the Midianites for their wickedness. 24 Gideon is sent to bee their deliverer. 27 Hee maketh a signe.

Afterward the children of Israel committed wickedness in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord gaue them into the hands of Midian seven yeeres.

And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel, and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them dennes in the mountaines, and caues, and strong holdes.

When Israel had sowne, then came vp the Midianites, the Amalekites, and they of the East, and came vpon them.

And camped by them, and destroyed the fruite of the earth, euil thou come vnto Azazah, and left no foode for Israel, neither sheepe, nor oxe, nor asse.

For they went vp, and their cattel, and came with their tents as grasshoppers in multitude: so that they and their camels were without number: and they came into the land to destroy it.

So was Israel exceedingly impouerished by the Midianites: therefore the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord.

And when the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord because of the Midianites,

The Lord sent vnto the children of Israel a Prophet, who sayde vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, I haue brought you vp from Egypt, and haue brought you out of the house of bondage, their vaunt against me, and say, Mine hand hath saued me.

3 Now therefore proclaime in the audience of the people, and say, *Who so is so timorous or fearefull, let him returne, and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people which were at mount Gilead, two and twenty thousand: so ten thousand remained.

4 And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them downe vnto the water, and I will b try them for thee there: and of whom I say vnto thee, This man shall goe with thee, the same shall goe with thee: and of whomsoeuer I say vnto thee, This man shall not goe with thee, the same shall not goe.

5 So he brought downe the people vnto the water. And the Lord said vnto Gideon, As many as lap the water with their tongues, as a dog lappeth, them put by themselves, and euery one that shall bow downe his knees to drinke, c put apart.

6 And the number of them that lapped by putting their hands to their mouthes, were three hundred men: but all the remnant of the people kneeled down vpon their knees to drinke water.

7 ¶ Then the Lord sayde vnto Gideon, By these three hundred men that lapped, will I saue you, and deliuer the Midianites into thine hand:
and let all the other d people goe euery man vnto his place.

8 ¶ So the people tooke vitayles f with them, and their trumpets: & he sent all the rest of Israel, euery man vnto his tent, and ¶ retained the three hundred men: and the hoste of Midian was beneath him in a valley.

9 ¶ And the same night the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise, e get thee downe vnto the hoste: for I have deliuered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou feare to goe downe, then goe thou, and Phurah thy seruant down to the hoste.

11 And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shall thine hands be strong to go downe vnto the hoste. Then went he downe and Phurah his seruant vnto the outside of the souldiers that were in the hoste.

12 ¶ And the Midianites, and the Amalekites and all f they of the East, lay in the valley like grasshoppers in multitude, and their camels were without number, as the sand which is by the sea side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, beholde, a man told a dreame vnto his neighbour, and said, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame, and loe, a i cake of barley bread tumbled from aboue into the hoste of Midian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and ouerturned it, that the tent fell downe.

14 And his fellow answered, and said, This is nothing els saue the sworde of Gideon the sonne of Ioath a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God deliuered Midian and all the hoste.

15 ¶ When Gideon heard the dreame tolde, and the interpretation of the same, he e worshipped, and returned vnto the hoste of Israel, and said, Vp: for the Lord hath deliuered into your hand the hoste of Midian.

16 And hee diuided the three hundred men into three bandes, and gaue euery man a trumpet in his hand with emptie pitchers, and ¶ lampes h within the pitchers.

17 And he said vnto them, Looke on me, and doe likewise, when I come to the side of the hoste: euen as I doe, so doe you.

18 When I blow with a trumpet and all that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets also on eue-ry side of the hoste, and say, i For the Lord, and for Gideon.

19 ¶ So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him, came vnto the outside of the hoste, in the beginning of the middle watch, and they raised vp the watchmen, and they blew with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew with trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lampes in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right handes to blowe withall, and they cried, The k sworde of the Lord and of Gideon.

21 And they stood, euery man in his place round about the hoste: and all the hoste ¶ ranne, and cryed, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew with trumpets, and ¶ the Lord set euery mans sword vpon his i neighbour, & vpon all the hoste: so the hoste fled to Beth-hahtittah in Zererah, and to the border of Abel-meholah, vnto Tabbath.

23 Then the men of Israel being gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, pursued after the Midianites.

24 And Gideon sent messengers vnto al mount Ephraim, saying, Come downe against the Mi-dianites, and take before them the m waters vnto Beth-barah and Iorden. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and tooke the waters vnto Beth-barah, and Iorden.

25 And they tooke two *princes of the Mi-dianites, Oreb and Zeeb, and slew Oreb vpon the rocke Oreb, and slewe Zeeb at n the winepresse of Zeeb, and pursued the Midianites, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond Iorden.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hostes with them, about fiftene thousand, all that were left of all the hostes of them of the East: for there was slaine an hundred & twenty thousand men, that drew swords.

11 ¶ And Gideon went through them that dwelt in Tabernacles on the East side of Nobah, and Iogbehah, and smote the hoste: for the hoste was carelesse.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, hee followed after them, and tooke the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the hoste.

18 ¶ Then said he vnto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they, whom ye slew at Tabor? and they answered, As thou art, so were they: every one was like the children of a King,

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even my mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if yee had saved their liues, I would not slay you.

20 Then hee said vnto Iether his first borne sonne, Vp and slay them: but the boy drew not his sword, for he feared, because he was yet young.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall vpon vs: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and tooke away the i ornaments, that were on their camels neckes.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel sayd vnto Gideon, Reigne thou ouer vs, both thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne: for thou hast deliuered vs out of the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said vnto them, I will not reigne ouer you, neither shall my child reigne ouer you: but the Lord shall reigne ouer you.

24 Againe Gideon said vnto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would giue mee every man the earerings of his praye (for they had golden earerings because they were limacines).

25 And they answered, Wee will giue them. And they spred a garment, and did cast therein every man the earerings of his praye.

26 And the weight of the golden earerings that he required, was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold: beside collars andiewels, and purple rayment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chaines that were about their camels neckes.

27 And Gideon made an Ephod thereof, and put it in Ophrah his cite: and all Israel went a whoring there after it, which was the destruction of Gideon and his house.

28 Thus was Midian brought lowe before the children of Israel, so that they lift vp their heads no more: and the countrey was in quietnes fourty yeeres in the dayes of Gideon.

29 ¶ Then Ierubbaal the sonne of Ioash went, and dwelt in his owne house.

30 And Gideon had seventy sonnes, begotten of his body: for he had many wiues.

31 And his concubine which was in Shechem, bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 So Gideon the sonne of Ioash died in a good age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Ioash his father in Ophrah, of the father of the Ezrites.

33 But when Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned away, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel remembered not the Lord their God, which had deliuered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side.

35 Neither shewed they mercy on the house of Ierubbaal, or Gideon, according to all the goodnesse which he had shewed vnto Israel.

CHAP. IX.

Abimelech vsurpeth the kingdom, and putteth his brethren to death. 1. Iosham propheseth a parable. 2. Hatred betweene Abimelech and the shechemites. 3. Gail conspireth against him, and is overruled. 53. Abimelech is wounded to death by a woman.

¶ Then Abimelech the sonne of Ierubbaal went to Shechem vnto his mothers brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family, and house of his mothers father, saying,

2 Say, I pray you, in the audience of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, that all the sonnes of Ierubbaal, which are seuentie persons, reigne ouer you, either that one reigne ouer you? Remember also, that I am your bone, and your flesh.

3 Then his mothers brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Shechem, all these words: and their hearts were moued to follow Abimelech: for said they, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue him seventy pieces of silver, out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vaine and light fellows which followed him.

5 And hee went vnto his fathers house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren, the sonnes of Ierubbaal, about seuentie persons vpon one stone: yet Iotham the yongest sonne of Ierubbaal was left: for he hid himselfe.

6 ¶ And all the men of Shechem gathered together with all the house of Millo, and came and made Abimelech King in the plaine, where the stone was cast in Shechem.

7 And when they told it to Iotham, hee went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lift vp his voice, and cried, and said vnto them, Hearken vnto mee, you men of Shechem, that God may hearken vnto you.

8 The trees went foorth to anoint a King ouer them: and saide vnto the Oliuetree, Reigne thou ouer vs.

9 But the Oliue tree saide vnto them, Should I leeme my farnesse, wherewith by mee they honour God and man, and goe to aduance mee aboute the trees?

12 Then said the trees vnto the vine, Come thou, and be king ouer vs.

13 But the vine said vnto them, Should I leaue my wine, whereby I cheere God and man, and goe to aduance me aboue the trees?

14 Then said all the trees vnto the || bramble, Comethou, and reigne ouer vs.

15 And the bramble said vnto the trees, If ye will in deed anoint me king ouer you, come, and put your trust vnder my shadow: and if not, the fire shall come out of the bramble, and consume the Cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye doe truly and vncorruptly to make Abimelech king, and if yee haue dealt wel with Ierubbaal and with his house, and haue done vnto him according to the deserting of his hands,

18 And yee are risen vp against my fathers house this day, and haue slaine his children, about seuentie persons vpon one stone, and haue made Abimelech, the sonne of his maide seruant, king ouer the men of Shechem, because hee is your brother)

19 If ye then haue dealt truly and purely with Ierubbaal, and with his house this day, then † reioyce ye with Abimelech, and let him reioyce with you.

20 But if not, let a fire come out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Shechem and the house of Millo: also let a fire come forth from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Iotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 So Abimelech reigned three yeere ouer Israel.

23 But God ^b sent an euill spirit betweene Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem brake their promise to Abimelech,

24 That the cruelty toward the seuentie sonnes of Ierubbaal and their blood might come and be layed vpon Abimelech their brother, which had slaine them, and vpon the men of Shechem, which had ayded him to kill his brethren.

25 So the men of Shechem set men in wait for him in the tops of the mountaines: who robbed all that passed that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed came with his brethren, and they went to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 Therefore they ^c went out into the field, and gathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made mery, and went into the house of their gods, and did eate and drinke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech? and who is Shechem, that we should serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierubbaal? and Zebul is his officer? Serue rather the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should wee serue him?

29 Now would God this people were vnder mine hand: then would I put away Abimelech. And he said to ^k Abimelech, Increase thine armie, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the citie heard the words of Gaal the sonne of Ebed, his wrath was kindled.

31 Therefore hee sent messengers vnto Abimelech [†] priuily, saying, Beholde, Gaal the sonne of Ebed, and his brethren be come to Shechem, and behold, they fortifie the citie against thee.

32 Now therefore arise by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in waite in the field.

33 And rise early in the morning as soone as the sunne is vp, and assault the citie: and when he and the people that is with him, shall come out against thee, doe to him [†] what thou canst.

34 ¶ So Abimelech rose vp, and all the people that were with him by night: and they lay in wait against Shechem in foure bands.

35 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed went out, and stood in the entring of the gate of the citie: and Abimelech rose vp, and the folke that were with him from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, hee said to Zebul, Behold, there come people downe from the tops of the mountaines: and Zebul said vnto him, The [†] shadow of the mountaines seeme men vnto thee.

37 And Gaal spake againe, and said, See, there come folke downe [†] by the middle of the land, and another band commeth by the way of the plaine of || Mennenim.

38 Then said Zebul vnto him, Where is now thy mouth that said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Goe out now, I pray shee, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal ^m went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 But Abimelech pursued him, and hee fled before him, and many were overthrowen and wounded euen vnto the entring of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 ¶ And on the morow the people went out into the field: which was told Abimelech.

43 And hee tooke the ⁿ people, and diuided them into three bands, and laid wait in the fields, and looked, and beholde, the people were come out of the citie, and he rose vp against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the bands that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other bands ranne vpon all the people that were in the field, and slew them.

45 And when Abimelech had fought against the citie all that day, he tooke the citie, and slewe the people that was therein, and destroyed the citie, and sowed ^o salt in it.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard it, they entred into an holde of the house of the god ^p Berith.

47 And it was tolde Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

49 Then all the people also cut downe euery man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the holde, and set the holde on fire with them: so all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Tebez, and besieged Tebez, and tooke it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the citie, and thither fled all the men and women, and all the chiefe of the citie, and shut it to them, and went vp to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came vnto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard vnto the doore of the tower to set it on fire.

53 But a certaine woman * cast a piece of a millstone vpon Abimelechs head, and brake his braine pat.

54 Then Abimelech called hastily his page that bare his harness, and sayd vnto him, Draw thy sword and slay mee, that men say not of mee, A woman slew him. And his page thrust him thorow, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne place.

56 Thus God rendred the wickednesse of Abimelech, which he did vnto his father in slaying his seuentie brethren.

57 Also all the wickednesse of the men of Shechem did God bring vpon their heads. So vpon them came the curse of Iotham, the sonne of Jerubbash.

CHAP. X.

1 ¶ Tola dieb; 2 ¶ Jathr also dieb. 3 The Israelites are punished for their sinnes. 10 They cry vnto God, 16 and he hearkneth unto them.

¶ After Abimelech, there arose to defend Israel, A Tola the sonne of Puah, the sonne of I Dodo, a man of Issachar, which dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

2 And hee Iudged Israel three and twentie yeere, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

3 ¶ And after him arose Iair a Gileadite, and iudged Israel two and twentie yeere.

4 And hee had thirty sonnes that rode on thirty asse-colt, and they had thirty cities, which are called Hanoth Iair vnto this day, and are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Iair died, and was buried in Ramon.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel wrought wickednesse againe in the sight of the Lord, and serued Baalim and * Ashtaroth, and the gods of Aram, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistims, and forsooke the Lord and serued not him.

7 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and hee sold them into the hands of the Philistims and into the hands of the children of Ammon:

8 Whom from that yeere vexed and oppressed the children of Israel eightene yeeres, * euen all the children of Israel that were beyond Iordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 Moreover, the children of Ammon went ouer Iordan to fight against Iudah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israel was sore tormented.

10 Then the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord, saying, Wee haue sinned against thee, euen because wee haue forsaken our owne God, and haue serued Baalim.

11 And the Lord said vnto the children of Israel, Did not I deliuer you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistims?

12 The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Moabites did oppress you, and yee cried to me, and I saved you out of their hands.

13 Yet ye haue forsaken mee, and serued other gods: wherefore I will deliuer you no more.

14 Go, and cry vnto the gods which ye haue chosen: let them save you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel sayd vnto the Lord, We haue sinned: do thou vnto vs whatsoever please thee: onely wee pray thee to deliuer vs this day.

16 Then they put away the strange gods from among them, and serued the Lord: and his soule was grieved for the miserie of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon gathered themselves together, and pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israel assembled themselves, and pitched in Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, Whosoever will begin the battell against the children of Ammon, the same shall be head ouer all the inheritance of Gilead.

8 Then the Elders of Gilead said vnto Iphtah, Therefore we bring thee againe to thee now, that thou mayest go with vs, and fight against the children of Ammon, and bee our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

11 Then Iphtah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captaine ouer them: and Iphtah rehearfed all his wordes before the Lord in Mizpeh.

12 ¶ Then Iphtah sent messengers vnto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to doe with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered vnto the messengers of Iphtah, * Because Israel tooke my lande, when they came vp from Egypt, from Arnon vnto Iabbok, and vnto Iorden: now therefore restore those lands [†] quietly.

14 Yet Iphtah sent messengers againe vnto the king of the children of Ammon,

15 And said vnto him, Thus saith Iphtah, * Israel tooke not the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon.

16 But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness vnto the red sea, then they came to Kadesh.

17 * And Israel sent messengers vnto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, goe thorow thy land: but the king of Edom would not consent: and also they sent vnto the king of Moab, but he would not: therefore Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the Eastside of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, * and came not within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 Also Israel * sent messengers vnto Sihon, king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said vnto him, Let vs passe, we pray thee, by thy land vnto our place.

20 But Sihon * consented not to Israel, that he should goe through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Iahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lorde God of Israel gaue Sihon, and all his folke into the hands of Israel, & they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed * all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnon vnto Iabbok, and from the wilderness euen vnto Iorden.

23 Now therefore the Lorde God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possesse it?

24 Wouldest not thou possesse that which Chemosh thy god giueth thee to possesse? So whomsoever the [†] Lord our God driueth out before vs, them will we possesse.

26 When Israel dwelt in Heshbon and in her townes, and in Aroer and in her townes, and in all the cities that are by the coastes of Arnon, three hundred yeeres? why did yet not then recover them in that space?

27 Wherefore I haue not offended thee: but thou doest me wrong to warre against mee. The Lord the Iudge [†] be iudge this day betwene the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not vnto the words of Iphtah, which he had sent him.

29 ¶ Then the [†] Spirit of the Lord came vpon Iphtah, and hee passed ouer to Gilead, and to Manasseh, and came to Mizpeh in Gilead, and from Mizpeh in Gilead he went vnto the children of Ammon.

30 And Iphtah [†] vowed a vow vnto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31 Then that thing that commeth out of the doores of mine house to mee, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lords, and I will offer it for a burnt offering.

32 And so Iphtah went vnto the children of Ammon to fight against them, and the Lord deliuered them into his hands.

33 And hee smote them from Aroer euen till thou come to Minnith, twenty cities, and so forth to Abel of the vineyards, with an exceeding great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were humbled before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ Now when Iphtah came to Mizpeh vnto his house, beholde, his daughter came out to meet him with [†] timbrels and dances which was his onely childe: hee had none other sonne, nor daughter.

35 And when he saw her, he rent his clothes, and said, Alas my daughter, thou hast brought me lowe, and art of them that trouble me: for I haue opened my mouth vnto the Lord, and can not goe backe.

36 And she said vnto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth vnto the Lord, doe with mee as thou hast promised, seeing that the Lord hath auenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammon.

37 Also shee sayd vnto her father, Doe thus much for me: suffer me two moneths, that I may go to the mountaines, and bewaile my virginity, I and my fellowes.

38 And he said, Go: and he sent her away two moneths: so she went with her companions, and lamented her virginity vpon the mountaines.

39 And after the ende of two moneths, shee turned againe vnto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed, and she had knowen no man. And it was a custome in Israel:

40 The daughters of Israel went yere by yere to lament the daughter of Iphtah the Gileadite foure dayes in a yeere.

After him Ibzan of Beth-lehem iudged
Israel.

Who had thirtie sonnes and thirtie daughters, which he sent out, & took in thirtie daughters from abroad for his sonnes: and hee iudged Israel thien yeere.

Then Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

And after him iudged Israel Elon, a Ze-bulonite, and hee iudged Israel ten yeere.

Then Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aialon in the countrey of Zebulun.

And after him Abdon the sonne of Hillel
the Pirathonite iudged Israel.

And hee had fortie sonnes and thirtie nephewes that rode on sennety assecolts: and hee iudged Israel eight yeeres.

Then died Abdon the sonne of Hillel the Pirathonite, and was buried in Pirathon, in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amale-kites.

CHAP. XIII.

Israel for their wickednes is oppressed of the Philistines.
The Angel appeareth vnto Manoahs wife. The Angel com-mandeth her to abstaine from wine. The birth of Samson.

But the children of Israel continued to commit wickednes in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord deliued them into the handes of the Philistines fortie yeere.

Then there was a man in Zorah of the familie of the Danites named Manoah, whose wife was barren, and bare not.

And the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto
the woman, and said vnto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt con-ceiue, and beare a sonne.

And now therefore beware that thou drinke no wine, nor strong drinke, neither eate any vnclean thing.

For loe, thou shalt conceiue, and beare a sonne, and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite vnto God from his birth: and he shall begin to saue Israel out of the handes of the Philistines.

Then the wife came and tolde her husband, saying, A man of God came vnto mee, and the fashion of him was like the fashion of the Angel of God exceeding fearefull, but I asked him not whither he was, neither told he me his name, 7 But he said vnto mee, Beholde, thou shalt conceiue and beare a sonne, and now thou shalt drinke no wine, nor strong drinke, neither eate any vnclean thing: for the child shall bee a Nazarite to God from his birth to the day of his death.

Then Manoah prayed to the Lord, and said, I pray thee, my Lord, let the man of God, whom thou sentest, come againe now vnto vs, and reach vs what wee shall doe vnto the child when he is borne.

And God heard the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came againe vnto the wife, as she sat in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

And the wife made haste and ranne, and shewed her husband and said vnto him, Behold, the man hath appeared vnto mee, that came vnto me to day.

And Manoah arose & went after his wife, and came to the man, and sayde vnto him, Art thou the man that spakest vnto the woman? and he said, Yea.

Then Manoah said, Now let thy saying come to passe: but how shall we order the child, and doe vnto him?

And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Ma-noah, The woman must beware of all that I sayd vnto her.

She may eate of nothing that commeth of the vine tree: she shall not drinke wine nor strong drinke, nor eate any vnclean thing: let her ob-serue all that I haue commanded her.

Manoah then said vnto the Angel of the Lord, I pray thee, let vs retaine thee, vntill we haue made ready a kid for thee.

And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Ma-noah, Though thou make me abide, I will not eat of thy bread, and if thou wilt make a burnt offering, offer it vnto the Lord: for Manoah knew not that it was an Angel of the Lord.

Again Manoah said vnto the Angel of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy saying is come to passe, we may honour thee?

And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, which is secret?

Then Manoah tooke a kid with a meat offering, and offered it vpon a stone vnto the Lord:
and the Angel did wondrously, whilles Manoah and his wife looked on.

For when the flame came vp toward heauen from the altar, the Angel of the Lord ascended vp in the flame of the altar, and Manoah and his wife beheld it, and fell on their faces vnto the ground.

(So the Angel of the Lord did no more appeare vnto Manoah and his wife) Then Ma-noah knew that it was an Angel of the Lord.

And Manoah said vnto his wife, We shall surely die, because we haue seene God.

But his wife said vnto him, If the Lord would kill vs, hee would not haue receiued a burnt offering, & a meate offering of our hands, neither would he haue shewed vs al these things, nor would now haue told vs any such.

And the wife bare a sonne, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the Lord blessed him.

CHAP. XIII.

Samson desireth to have a wife of the Philistims. 6 Hee kisseth a Lion. 12 Hee propoundeth a riddle. 19 Hee kisseth his wife. 20 His wife forsaketh him, and taketh another.

Now Samson went downe to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims,

And he came vp and told his father and his mother, and said, I haue seene a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims: nowe therefore giue me her to wife.

Then his father and his mother sayd vnto him, Is there a nener a wife among the daughters of thy brechen, and among all my people, that thou must go to take a wife of the vncircumcised Philistims? And Samson said vnto his father, Giue me her, for she pleaseth me well.

But his father & his mother knew not that it came of the Lord, that he should seeke an occasion against the Philistims: for at that time the Philistims reigned ouer Israel.

¶ Then went Samson and his father and his mother downe to Timnath, and came to the vineyards at Timnath: and behold, a yong Lion roared vpon him,

And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he tare him, as one should haue rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, neither told he his father nor his mother what he had done.

And hee went downe, and talked with the woman which was beautifull in the eyes of Samson.

¶ And within a few dayes, when hee returned to receiue her, hee went aside to see the carkeis of the Lion: and behold, there was a swarme of bees, and hony in the body of the Lion.

And hee tooke thereof in his handes, and went eating, and came to his father & to his mother, and gaue vnto them, and they did eate: but he told not them, that he had taken the hony out of the body of the Lion.

So his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samson made there a feast: for so vsed the yong men to doe.

And when they saw him, they brought thirtie companions to be with him.

Then Samson sayd vnto them, I will now put forth a riddle vnto you: and if you can declare it mee within seven dayes of the feast, and finde it out, I will giue you thirtie sheetes, and thirtie change of garments.

But if you cannot declare it me, then shall yee giue mee thirtie sheetes, and thirtie change of garments. And they answered him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may heare it.

And hee sayd vnto them, Out of the eater came meate, and out of the strong came sweetnesse: and they could not in three dayes expound the riddle.

And when the seventh day was come, they sayd vnto Samsons wife, Entise thine husband that hee may declare vs the riddle, lest wee burne thee and thy fathers house with fire. Haue ye called vs to possesse vs? is it not so?

And Samsons wife wept before him, and said, Surely thou hatest me, and louest me not: for thou hast put forth a riddle vnto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he sayd vnto her, Behold, I haue not tolde it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

¶ Then Samsons wife wept before him, seven dayes, while their feast lasted: and when the seventh day came, hee tolde her, because she was importunate vpon him: so she tolde the riddle to the children of her people.

And the men of the city said vnto him the seventh day before the Sunne went downe, What is sweeter then hony? and what is stronger then a Lion? Then said he vnto them, If yee had not plowed with my heiffer, ye had not found out my riddle.

¶ And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe to Ashkelon, and slew thirtie men of them and spoyled them, and gaue change of garments vnto them, which expounded the riddle: and his wrath was kindled, and he went vp to his fathers house.

Then Samsons wife was giuen to his companion, whom he had vsed as his friend.

CHAP. XV.

Samson slayeth firebrands to be for a taile. 6 The Philistims burne his father in law and his wife. 15 With the combustion of an affe he killeth a thousand men. 19 Out of a great rooth in the iaw God gaue him water.

¶ Within a while after, in the time of wheate tharuest, Samson visited his wife with a kid, saying, I will goe in to my wife into the chamber: but her father would not suffer him to go in.

And her father sayd, I thought that thou hadst hated her: therefore gaue I her to thy companion. Is not her yonger sister fairer then shee? take her, I pray thee, in stead of the other.

¶ Then Samson sayde vnto them, Now am I more blamelesse then the Philistims: therefore will I doe them displeasure.

¶ And Samson went out, and tooke three hundred foxes, and tooke firebrands, and turned them taile to taile, and put a firebrand in the mids betweene two tailes.

And when he had set the brands on fire, hee sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistims, and burnt vp both the ricks and the standing corne with the vineyards and oliues.

¶ Then the Philistims sayd, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson the sonne in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and giuen her to his companion. Then the Philistims came vp and burnt her and her father with fire.

¶ And Samson sayd vnto them, Though yee haue done this, yet will I be auenged of you, and then I will cease.

So he smote them with a whippe and thigh with a mighty plague: then he went and dwelt in the top of the rocke Etam.

¶ Then the Philistims came vp, and pitched in Iudah, and were spread abroad in Lehi.

¶ And the men of Iudah said, Why are yee come vp vnto vs? And they answered, To binde Samson are we come vp, and to doe to him as hee hath done to vs.

¶ Then three thousand men of Iudah went to the toppe of the rocke Etam, and sayd to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistims are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? And he answered them, As they did vnto me, so haue I done vnto them.

13 And they answered him, saying, No, but we will bind thee and deliuer thee vnto their hand, but wee will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new coards, and brought him from the rocks.

14 When hee came to Lehi, the Philistims shouted against him, and the Spirit of the Lorde came vpon him, and the coards that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that was burnt with fire: for the bands loosed from his hands.

15 And he found an new iawbone of an asse, and put forth his hand, and caught it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

16 Then Samson said, With the iaw of an asse, heapes vpon heapes: with the iaw of an asse haue I slaine a thousand men.

17 And when he had left speaking, he cast away the iawbone out of his hand, and called that place, Ramath-Lehi.

18 And he was fore schirft, and called on the Lorde, and said, Thou hast giuen this great deliuerance into the hand of thy seruant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hands of the vncircumcised.

19 Then God brake the cheeke tooth, that was in the iaw, and water came therout: and when he had drunke, his spirit came againe, and hee was refreid: wherefore the name thereof is called, En-hakkore, which is in Lehi vnto this day.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Then went Samson to Azzah, and saw there an harlot, and went in vnto her.

2 And it was told to the Azzahites, Samson is come hither. And they went about, and layed wait for him all night in the gate of the cite, and were quiet all the night, saying, A shide till the morning early, and we shall kill him.

3 And Samson laye till midnight, and arose at midnight, and tooke the doores of the gates of the cite, and the two postes, and lifte them away with the barres, and put them vpon his shoulders, and carried them vp to the top of the mountaine that is before Hebron.

4 And after this hee loued a woman by the riuer of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 Vnto whom came the printes of the Philistims, and said vnto her, Entice him, & see where in his great strength lieth, and by what meane we may ouercome him, that we may binde him, and punish him, and every one of vs shall giue thee a hundred & 40 shekels of siluer.

6 ¶ And Delilah said to Samson, Tell mee, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest bee bound, to doe thee hurt.

7 Samson then answered vnto her, If they bind mee with seven green coards, that were neuer dried, then shall I be weake, and be as another man.

8 And the princes of the Philistims brought her seven Greene cords that were not dry, and the bound him therewith.

9 ¶ And she had 4 men lying in waite with her in the chamber. Then shee layd vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And he brake the coards, as a threede of tow is broken, when it is leecht fire: so his strength was not knowne.

10 ¶ After Delilah layde vnto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me, and tolde me lies, I pray thee now, tell mee wherewith thou mightest bee bound.

11 Then he answered her, If they binde mee with new ropes that were neuer occupied, then shall I be weake, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore tooke new ropes, and bound him therewith, and sayd vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson: (and men lay in wait in the chamber) and he brake them from his armes, as a threed.

13 ¶ Afterwardes Delilah sayde to Samson, Hitherto thou hast beguiled mee, and tole mee lies: tell mee how thou mightest bee bound. 14 And hee sayde vnto her, If thou platdest seven lockes of mine head with the threedes of the woole.

15 And she fastened it with a pinne, and sayd vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And hee awoke out of his sleepe, and went away with the pinne of the webbe, and the woole.

16 Againe she said vnto him, How canst thou say, I loue thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not tolde mee wherein thy great strength lieth.

17 And because she was importunate vpon him with her words continually, and vexed him, his soule was pained vnto the death.

18 Therefore hee tolde her all his heart, and sayd vnto her, There neuer came rasor vpon mine head: for I am a Nazarite vnto God from my mothers wombe: therefore if I bee shauen, my strength will goe from me, and I shall be weake, and be like all other men.

19 And when Delilah saw that hee had tolde her all his heart, she sent, and called for the Princes of the Philistims, saying, Come vp once againe: for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the Princes of the Philistims came vp vnto her, and brought the mony in their hands.

20 And shee made him sleepe vpon her knees, and she called a man, and made him to shoue off the seven lockes of his head, and shee beganne to vex him, and his strength was gone from him.

21 Then she said, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And hee awoke out of his sleepe, and thought, I wil goe out now as at other times, and shake my selfe, but hee knew not that the Lorde was departed from him.

22 Therefore the Philistims tooke him, and put out his eyes, and brought him downe to Azzah, and bound him with fetters: and hee did grind in the prison house.

23 And the haire of his head began to grow againe after that it was shauen.

24 Then the Princes of the Philistims gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice vnto Dagon their god, and to reioyce for they said, Our god hath deliuered Samson our enemy into our hands.

25 Also when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath deliuered into our hands our enemy and destroyer of our countrey, which hath slaine many of vs.

27 (Now the house was full of men and women, and there were all the princes of the Philistims: also vpon the rooffe were about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson played.)

28 Then Samson called vnto the Lorde, and said, O Lord God, I pray thee, thinke vpon mee: O God, I beseech thee, strengthen me at this time, onely, that I may be ^{at} once^a auenged of the Philistims for my two eyes.

29 And Samson layd hold on the two middle pillars whereupon the house stood, and on which it was borne vp: on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left.

30 Then sayd Samson, Let me lose my life with the Philistims: and hee bowed him with all his might, and the house fell vpon the princes, and vpon all the people that were therein: so the dead which he slew at his death were more then they which he had slaine in his life.

31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father came downe and tooke him, and brought him vp and buried him betwene Zorah and Eshtaol, in the sepulchre of Manoah his father: now he had iudged Israel twenty yeeres.

3 And when he had restored the money vnto his mother, his mother tooke two hundred shekels of siluer, and gaue them to the foundry, which made thereof a grauen and molten image, and it was in the house of Michah.

In those dayes there was no^a king in Israel, and at the same time the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for vnto that time all their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israel.

1 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their familie, five men out of their coastes, euen men expert in warre, out of Zorah and Eshtaol to view the land, and search it out, and sayd vnto them, ^b Goe, and search out the land. Then they came to mount Ephraim to the house of Michah, and lodged there.

4 Againe they sayd vnto him, Aske counsell now of God, that wee may know whether the way which we go, shall be prosperous.

5 And the priest sayd vnto them, ^d Goe in peace: for the Lord guideth your way which yee goe.

6 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and sawe the people that were therein, which dwelt carelesse, after the maner of the Zidonians, quiet and sure, because no man ^e made any trouble in the land, or vsurped any dominion: also they were farre from the Zidonians, and had no businesse with other men.

17 And when he had lift vp his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the streetes of the city: then this olde man sayde, Whither goest thou, and whence comest thou?

18 And hee answered him, Wee came from Beth-lehem Iudah, vnto the side of mount Ephraim: from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem Iudah, and go now to the house of the Lord: and no man receiue me to house,

19 Although wee haue strawe and prouender for our asses, and also bread and wine for me and thine handmayd, and for the boy that is with thy seruant: we lacke nothing.

20 And the old man said, ¶ Peace be with thee: as for all that thou lackest, I shall find with me: onely abide not in the streete all night.

21 ¶ So hee brought him into his house, and gaue fodder vnto the asses: and they washed their feete, and did eate and drinke.

22 And as they were making their hearts merrie, beholde, the men of the citie, wicked men beset the house round about, and smote at the doore, and spake to this olde man the master of the house, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house that we may know him.

23 And this man the master of the house went out vnto them, and sayd vnto them, Nay my brethren, doe not so wickedly, I pray you: seeing that this man is come into mine house, doe not this villenie.

24 Behold, here is my daughter, a virgine, and his concubine: them will I bring out now, and humble them, and doe with them what seemeth you good: but to this man doe not this villenie.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: therefore the man tooke his concubine, & brought her out vnto them: & they knew her and abused her all the night vnto the morning: & when the day began to spring, they let her goe.

26 So the woman came in the dawning of the day, and fell downe at the doore of the mans house where her lord was, till the light day.

27 And her lord arose in the morning, and opened the doores of the house, and went out to goe his way, and beholde, the woman his concubine was dead at the doore of the house, and her hands lay vpon the threshold.

28 And he said vnto her, Vp, and let vs goe: but she answered not. Then he tooke her vp vpon the asse, and the man rose vp, and went vnto his place.

29 And when he was come to his house, hee tooke a knife and laid hand on his concubine, & diuided her in pieces with her bones into twelue parts, and sent her through all quarters of Israel.

30 And all that saw it, said, There was no such thing done or seene since the time that the children of Israel came vp from the land of Egypt vnto this day: consider the matter, consult and giue sentence.

CHAP. XX.

1 The Israelites assemblie in Mizpeh, to whom the Leuite declared his wrong. 2 They sent for them that did the villenie. 3 The Israelites are twi: ouercome, 46 And as though she were a villenie.

¶ Then all the children of Israel went out, and the Congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, vnto the Lord in Mizpeh.

2 And the chief of all the people, and all the tribes of Israel assembled in the Congregation of the people of God foure hundred thousand footmen that drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone vp to Mizpeh) Then the children of Israel said, How is this wickednesse committed?

4 And the same Leuite, the womans husband that was slaine, answered and saide, I came vnto Gibeah that is in Benjamin with my concubine to lodge,

5 And the men of Gibeah arose against me, and beset the house round about vpon mee by night, thinking to haue slaine me, & haue forced my concubine that she is dead.

6 Then I tooke my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her thorowout all the countrey of the inheritance of Israel: for they haue committed abomination and villenie in Israel.

7 Behold, yee are all children of Israel: giue your aduise, and counsell herein.

8 Then all the people arose as one man saying, There shall not a man of vs go to his tent, neither any turne into his house.

9 But now this is that thing which we will doe to Gibeah: we will goe up by lot against it.

10 And we will take ten men of the hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of the thousand, & a thousand of ten thousand to bring a vitale for the people, that they may doe (when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin) according to all the villenie, that it hath done in Israel.

11 ¶ So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men thorow all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickednesse is this that is committed among you?

13 Now therefore deliuer vs those wicked men which are in Gibeah, that wee may put them to death, & put away euill from Israel: but the children of Benjamin would not obey the voyce of their brethren the children of Israel.

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities vnto Gibeah, to come out and fight against the children of Israel.

15 ¶ And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time, out of the cities, six & twentie thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Of all this people were seven hundred chosen men, being left handed: all these could sling stones at an haire breadth, and not faile.

17 ¶ Also the men of Israel beside Benjamin, were numbered foure hundred thousand men

18 And the children of Israel arose, and went vp to the house of God, and asked of God, saying, Which of vs shall go vp first to fight against the children of Benjamin? and the Lord said, Judah shall be first.

19 Then the children of Israel rose vp early and camped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battell against Benjamin, & the men of Israel put themselves in aray to fight against the Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and slew downe to the ground of the Israelites that day two and twenty thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel plucked vp their hearts, and set their battell againe in aray in the place where they put them in aray the first day.

23 (For the children of Israel had gone vp & wept before the Lord vnto the euening, and had asked of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe againe to battell against the children of Benjamin my brethren? and the Lord said, Goe vp against them.)

24 ¶ Then the children of Israel came neere against the childre of Benjamin the second day.

25 Also the second day Benjamin came forth to meete them out of Gibeah, and slew downe to the ground of the children of Israel againe eigh-teene thousand men: † all they could handle the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel went vp, and all the people came also vnto the house of God, and wept and faste there before the Lord, and fasted that day vnto the euening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord.

27 And the children of Israel asked the Lord (for there was the Arke of the Couenant of God in those dayes,

28 And Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron stood before it at that time) saying, Shall I yet go any more to battell against the childre of Benjamin my brethren, or shall I cease?
And the Lord sayd, Goe vp: for to morow I will deliuer them into your hand.

29 And Israel set men to lie in waye round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went vp against the children of Benjamin the third day, and put themselves in aray against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 Then the children of Benjamin comming out against the people, were drawn from the ci-tie: and they began to smite of the people and kill as at other times, even by the wayes in the fieldes (whereof one goeth vp to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah) vpon a thirtie men of Israel.

32 (For the children of Benjamin sayd, They are fallē before vs, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let vs flee and plucke them away from the citie vnto the hie wayes.)

33 And all the men of Israel rose vp out of their place, and put themselves in aray at Baal-ram: and the men that lay in wait of the Israelites came forth of their place, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And they came ouer against Gibeah, tenne thousand chosen men of all Israel, and the battell was sore: for they knew not that the euill was neere them.

35 ¶ And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel, and the children of Israel destroyed of the Beniamites the same day five and twentie thousand and an hundred men: all they could handle the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were stricken downe: for the men of Israel gaue place to the Beniamites, because they trusted to the men that lay in wait, which they had laid beside Gibeah.

37 And they that lay in wait halted, & brake forth toward Gibeah, and the ambushment drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Also the men of Israel had appointed a certaine time with the ambushments, that they should make a great flame and smoke rise vp out of the citie.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battell, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirtie persons: for they said, Surely they are stricken downe before vs, as in the first battell.

40 But when the flame began to rise out of the citie as a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and beheld, the flame of the citie began to ascend vp to heauen.

41 Then the men of Israel turned againe, and the men of Benjamin were stoned: for they saw that euill was neere vnto them.

42 Therefore they fled before the men of Israel vnto the way of the wildernes, but the battell ouertooke them: also they which came out of the cities slew them among them.

43 Thus they compassed the Beniamites about, and chased them at ease, and ouerran the them, euen ouer against Gibeah on the Eastside.

44 And there were slaine of Benjamin eigh-teene thousand men, which were all men of war.

45 And they turned and fled to the wildernes vnto the rocke of Rimmon: and the Israelites gained of them by the way five thousand men, and pursued after them vnto Gidom, & slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all that were slaine that day of Benjamin were 7 five and twenty thousand men that drew sword, which were all men of warre:

47 But sixe hundred men turned and fled to the wildernes vnto the rocke of Rimmon and abode in the rocke of Rimmon foure moneths.

48 Then the men of Israel turned vnto the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, from the men of the city vnto the beasts, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they could come by.

CHAP. XXI.

their voyces, and wept with great lamentation.

5 Then the children of Israel sayd, Who is he among all the tribes of Israel, that came not vp with the Congregation vnto the Lord? for they had made a great oath concerning him that came not vp to the Lord to Mizpeh, saying, Let him die the death.

6 And the children of Israel were sory for Benjamin their brother, and sayd, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall wee doe for wines to them that remaine seeing we haue sworne by the Lord, that we will not giue them of our daughters to wiues?

8 Also they sayd, Is there any of the tribes of Israel that came not vp to Mizpeh to the Lord? and beholde, there came none of Labesh Gilead vnto the hoste, and to the Congregation.

9 For when the people were viewed, behold, none of the inhabitants of Labesh Gilead were there.

10 Therefore the Congregation sent thither twelue thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Goe and smite the inhabitants of Labesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, both women and children.

11 And this is it that ye shall doe: ye shall vterly destroy all the males and all the women that haue lien by men.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Labesh Gilead foure hundred maidens, virgins that had knowe no man by lying with any male: and they brought them vnto the host to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 Then the whole Congregation sent and spake with the children of Benjamin that were in the rocke of Rimmon, and called peaceably vnto them.

14 And Benjamin came againe at that time, and they gaue them wines which they had saved aline of the women of Labesh Gilead: but they had not so ynow for them.

15 And the people were sory for Benjamin, because the Lord had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 Therefore the Elders of the Congregation said, How shal we doe for wines to the remnant? for the women of Benjamin are destroyed.

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not giue them wines of our daughters: for children of Israel had sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giueth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Therefore they said, Behold, there is a feast of the Lord every yere in Shiloh in a place, which is on the North side of Beth-el, and on the East side of the way that goeth vp from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the South of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Goe, and lye in waite in the vineyards.

21 And when ye see that the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you euery man a wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and goe into the land of Benjamin.

22 And when their fathers or their brethren come vnto vs to complaine, wee will say vnto them, Haue pity on them for our sakes, because we refused not to each man his wife in the war, and because ye haue not giuen vnto them hitherto, ye haue sinned.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and tooke wines of them that danced according to their number: which they tooke, and went away, and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities and dwelt in them.

24 So the children of Israel departed thence at that time, euery man to his tribe, and to his family, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritance.

25 In those dayes there was no king in Israel, but euery man did which was good in his eyes.

THE BOOKE OF RUTH.

THE ARGUMENT.

This booke is entituled after the name of Ruth: which is the principall person spoken of in this treatise. Wherein also figuratiuely is set forth the state of the Church which is subiect to manifold afflictions, and yet at length God giueth good and ierfull issue: teaching vs to abide with patience till God deliuer vs out of troubles. Herein also is described how Iesus Christ, who according to the flesh ought to come of David, proceeded of Ruth, of whom the Lord Iesus did vouchsafe to come, notwithstanding he was a descendant of base condition, and a stranger from the people of God: declaring vnto vs thereby that the Gentiles should be sanctified by him, and ioyned with his people, and that there should bee but one sheepefold, and one shepheard. And is somethings that this historie apperteineth to the time of the Judges.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the land of Moab. 2 He and his wif die. 3 Naomi and Ruth come to Beth-lehem.

IN the time that the Iudges ruled, there was a dearth in the land, and a man of Beth-lehem of Iudah went for to sojourne in the countrey of Moab, hee, and his wife, and his two sonnes.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi: and the names of his two sonnes, Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephraimites of Beth-lehem Iudah: and when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there.

3 Then Elimelech the husband of Naomi died, and she remained with her two sonnes,

4 Which tooke them wines of the Moabites: the oncs name was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about tweny yeres.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both twaine: so the woman was left desirous of her two sonnes, and of her husband.

6 Then shee arose with her daughters in law, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for shee had heard say in the countrey of Moab, that the Lord had visited his people, and giuen them bread.

7 Wherefore shee departed out of the place where shee was, and her two daughters in law with her, and they went on their way to returne vnto the land of Iudah.

8 Then Naomi sayd vnto her two daughters

2 The Lord graunt you, that you may finde e rest, which is in the house of her husband. And when shee kissed them, they lift vp their voice and went.

3 And they said vnto her, Surely we will re- turne with thee vnto thy people.

4 But Naomi said, Turne againe my daughters: for what cause will you goe with mee? are there any ayre houses in my wombe, that they may be your husbands?

5 And shee said againe my daughters: go your way: for I am too old to haue a husband. If I should say, I haue hope, and if I had an husband this night, yet I had home sonnes.

6 Would yet tary for them, till they were of age: would yee be deferred for them from taking of husbands? nay my daughters: for it grieveth mee, much for your sakes that the hand of the Lord is gone ouer against me.

7 I ben they lift vp their voice and wept againe, and Orpah kissed her mother in law, but Ruth abode still with her.

8 And Naomi said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone backe vnto her people & vnto her gods: I will re- turne thou after thy sister in law.

9 And Ruth answered, Intreatement I doe not leave thee, nor to depart from thee: for whither thou goest, I will goe: and where thou dwellest, I will dwell: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

10 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried. The Lord do so to me and more also, if ever bus death depart thee and me.

11 When the law that she was stedfastly minded to goe with her, she left speaking vnto her.

12 So they went both vntill they came to Beth-lehem: and when they were come to Beth-lehem, it was notified of them through all the cite, and they said, Is not this Naomi?

13 And shee answered them, Call me not Naomi, but call me Mara: for the Almighty hath giuen me much bitterness.

14 I went out full, and the Lord hath caused me to returne empty: why call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath humbled me, and the Almighty hath brought me vnto aduersitie?

15 So Naomi returned and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter in law with her, while she came out of the countrey of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAP. II.

1 And Boaz the Moabitess kinsman of Naomi the woman of Beth-lehem, that continueth part of March and part of April.

2 And Naomi her husband had a kinsman, one of great power of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz.

3 And Ruth the Moabitess said vnto Naomi, I pray thee, let me goe to the field, and gather eares of corne after him, in whose sight I find fauour. And shee said vnto her, Goe my daughter.

4 And shee went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers, and it came to passe, that shee met with the portion of the field of Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

5 And behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said vnto the reapers, The Lord be with you: and they answered him, The Lord blese thee.

6 Then said Boaz vnto his seruants that was appointed over the reapers, Whose maide is this?

7 And the seruants that was appointed ouer the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish maide that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab.

8 And shee said vnto vs, I pray you, let mee please and gather after the reapers. Among the sheaves, for shee came, and hath continued froth that time in the morning vnto now, lest that shee tarried a little in the house.

9 Then said Boaz vnto Ruth, Hearst thou my daughter? goe to none other field to gather, neither goe from hence: but abide here by my maides.

10 Let thine eyes be on the field that they doe reape, and go thou after the reapers. Hast I not charged the seruants, that they touch thee not? Moreover when thou art athirst, go vnto the vessels, and drinke of that which the seruants haue drawn.

11 Then shee fell on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and said vnto him, How haue I found fauour in thine eyes, that thou shouldst know me, seeing I am a stranger?

12 And Boaz answered and said vnto her, All is tolde and shewed me that thou hast done vnto thy mother in law, since the death of thine husband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land where thou wast borne, and art come vnto a people which thou knewest not in time past.

13 The Lord recompense thy worke: and a full reward be giuen thee of the Lord God of Israel, vnder whose wings thou art come to trust.

14 Then shee said, Let me finde fauour in thy sight, my lord: for thou hast comforted mee, and spoken comfortably vnto thy maide, though I be not like to one of thy maides.

15 And Boaz said vnto her, At the weale time come thou hither, and eate of the bread, and dip thy morsell in the vintger. And the face beside the reapers, and he reached her parched corne: and shee did eate and was sufficed, and left thereof.

16 And when shee arose to glean, Boaz commanded his seruants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaves, and doe not rebuke her.

17 Also let fall some of the sheaves for her, & let it lie that she may gather it vp, & rebuke her not.

18 So shee gleaned in the field vntill evening, and shee threshed that shee had gathered, and it was about an Ephah of barley.

19 And shee took it vp, & went into the city, & her mother in law saw what shee had gathered: Also shee tooke forth, and gaue to her that which shee had referred, when shee was sufficed.

20 Then her mother in law sayde vnto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he, that knew thee. And shee shewed her mother in law, with whom shee had wrought, and said, The mans name with whom I wrought to day, is Boaz.

21 And Naomi said vnto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the Lord: for hee hath not doe good to the liuing and to the dead. Againe Naomi said vnto her, The man is nexte vnto vs, and of our familie.

22 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He shal do certainly vnto me, Thou shalt be with my seruants, vntill they haue ended all mine harvest.

6 So shee went downe vnto the floore, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.

7 That is, had rested himselfe among his seruants. for turned himselfe from one side to another.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunken, and cheered his heart, he went to lie downe at the ende of the heape of corne, and she came softly, and vncouered the place of his feete, and lay downe.

8 And at midnight the man was afraid, and caught hold: and loe, a woman lay at his feete.

9 Then hee said, Who art thou? And shee answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore the wing of thy garment ouer thine handmaid: for thou art the kinsman.

10 Thou shewest thy selfe from time to time more virtuous.

10 Then said he, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my daughter: thou hast shewed more goodnes in the latter end, then at the beginning, in as much as thou followedst not young men, were they poore or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, feare not: I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the citie of my people doeth know that thou art a vertuous woman.

12 And now, it is true that I am thy kinsman, howbeit there is a kinsman nearer then I.

13 If he will take thee to be his wife by the title of affinity according to Gods law, Deut. 25.6.

13 Taria to night, & when morning is come, if hee will doe the duty of a kinsman vnto thee, well, let him doe the kinsmans dutie: but if hee will not doe the kinsmans part, then will I doe the dutie of a kinsman, as the Lord liueth: sleepe vntill the morning.

14 And shee lay at his feete vntill the morning: and she arose before one could know another: for he said, Let no man know that a woman came into the floore.

15 Also he said, Bring the sheet that thou hast vpon thee, and hold it. And when shee held it, hee measured fixe measures of barley, and laied them on her, and shee went into the citie.

16 And when she came to her mother in law, shee said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 Perceiuing by her coming home, that she had not taken her to his wife she was affraid.

17 And said, These fixe measures of barley gaue hee mee: for hee said to me, Thou shalt not come empty vnto thy mother in law.

18 Then said shee, My daughter, sit still, vntill thou know how the thing will fall: for the man will not be in rest, vntill he hath finished the matter this same day.

1 Boaz speaketh to Ruth next kinsman touching her marriage. 2 The ancient custome in Israel. 3 Boaz marrieth Ruth, of whom hee beggeth Obed. 4 The generation of Pheaz.

Then went Boaz vp to the gate, & fate there, and beholde, the kinsman, of whom Boaz had spoken, came by: and he said, Ho, such one, come, sit downe here. And hee turned, and fate downe.

a Which was the place of iudgement. b The Hebrewes here vse two words which haue no proper signification, but serue to note a certaine person, as we say, Ho sirah, or ho, such a one.

2 Then he tooke ten men of the Elders of the citie, and said, Sit ye downe here. And they fate downe.

for, inhabitants.

3 And he said to the kinsman, Naomi, that is come againe out of the country of Moab, will sell a parcell of land, which was our brother Elimelechs.

c For thou art the next of the kin.

4 And I thought to aduertise thee, saying, Buy it before the assistants, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but if thou wilt not redeeme it, tel me: for I know that there is none besides thee to redeeme it, and I am after thee. The he answered I will redeeme it.

d That his inheritance might beare his name that is dead.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must also buy it of Ruth the Moabite the wife of the dead, to stir vp the name of the dead, vpon his inheritance.

e That he had registered his right, Deut. 19.9.

6 And the kinsman answered, I cannot redeeme it, lest I destroy mine owne inheritance: redeeme my right to thee, for I cannot redeeme it.

7 Now this was the maner before time in Israel, concerning redeeming and changing for to stablish all things: a man did plucke off his shoe, and gaue it his neighbour: and this was a sure witness in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for thee: and he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said vnto the Elders and vnto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I haue bought all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilion and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi.

f Or, of the citie where he remained.

10 And moreover, Ruth the Moabite the wife of Mahlon, haue I bought to be my wife, to stir vp the name of the dead vpon his inheritance, & that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

g Ephrathah and Beth-lehem are both one. Gen. 38.29.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, & the Elders said, We are witnesses: the Lord make the wife that commeth into thine house, like Rachel & like Leah, which twain did build the house of Israel: and that thou maiest doe worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Beth-lehem.

12 And that thine house be like the house of Pharez (whom Thamar bare vnto Iudah) of the seede which the Lord shall giue thee of this yong woman.

13 So Boaz tooke Ruth: and shee was his wife: and when hee went in vnto her, the Lord gaue that shee conceived, and bare a sonne.

h He shall leaue a continual posteritie.

14 And the woman said vnto Naomi, Blessed be the Lord, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, and his name shall be continued in Israel.

15 And this shall bring thy life againe, and cherish thine old age: for thy daughter in lawe which loueth thee, hath borne vnto him, and she is better to thee then seven sonnes.

i Meaning, many sonnes.

16 And Naomi tooke the child, and laied it in her lap, and became nurse vnto it.

THE FIRST BOOKE OF SAMUEL.

THE ARGUMENT.

Considering that God had ordained, Deut. 17. 14. that when the Israelites should bee in the land of Canaan, they should choose themselves a king, so bee in this first booke of Samuel is declared the state of this people under their first king. David being not content with that ordinance which God had for a time appointed for the government of his Church, demanded a king, to the intent they might be as other nations, and in a greater assurance as they thought, not because they sought the better thereby serve God, as being under the safeguard of him which did preserve Iesus Christ the true deliverer, therefore he gave them a tyrant & an hypocrite to rule over them; that they might learn that the person of a king is not sufficient to defend them, except God by his power preserve and keep them. And therefore he punished the ingratitude of his people, and smother them continually withen both at home and abroad. And because Saul, whom if nothing God had preferred to the honour of a king, did not acknowledge Gods mercie toward him, but rather disobeyed the word of God, he was not zealous of his glory, he was by the voice of God put downe from his estate, and David the true figure of Iesus Christ placed in his stead, whose patience, modestie, confidence, persecution by open enemies, fained friends, and disguised blisse, were a life to the Church, and to every member of the same, as a pattern and example to behold their state and vocation.

CHAP. I.

The genealogy of Elkanah, father of Samuel. 1. His two wives. 2. His two sons. 3. His two daughters. 4. His two sons. 5. His two daughters.

1. There was a man of one of the two tribes of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the son of Ieroham, the son of Elihu, the sonne of Tohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

2. And he had two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3. And this man went up out of his citie every yeere, to worship, and to sacrifice unto the Lord of holies in Shiloh, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas, Priests of the Lord.

4. And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, hee gave to Peninnah his wife and to all her sonnes and daughters portions.

5. But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion, for hee loved Hannah, and the Lord had made her barren.

6. And her adversary vexed her sore, forasmuch as shee upbraided her, because the Lord had made her barren.

7. (And so did he yeere by yeere) and as oft as shee went up to the house of the Lord, thus shee vexed her, that she wept and did not eat.

8. Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee then ten sonnes?

9. So Hannah arose up after that they had eaten and drunke in Shiloh (and Eli the Priest sat by the door of the house of the Lord) and shee wept, and did not eat.

10. And she was troubled in her mind, and prayed unto the Lord, and wept sore.

11. And she vowed, saying, If thou wilt look on the trouble of thine handmaid, & remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but give unto thine handmaid a true childe, then I will give him unto the Lord all the daies of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head.

12. And as shee continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

13. For Hannah spake in her heart: her lips did move onely, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had beene drunken.

14. And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou bee drunken? Put away thy drunkennesse from thee.

15. Then Hannah answered, and said, Nay my lord, but I am a woman troubled in spirit: I have drunke neither wine nor strong drinke, but have powred out my soule before the Lord.

16. Count not thine handmaid for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my griefe have I spoken hitherto.

17. Then Eli answered, and said, Goe in peace, & the God of Israel grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18. She said againe, Let thine handmaid finde grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eat, and looked no more sad.

19. Then they rose up early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Now Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her.

20. For in proceesse of time Hannah conceived and bare a sonne, and she called his name Samuel, because, said she, I have asked him of the Lord.

21. So the man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer unto the Lord the yeerely sacrifice and his vow.

22. But Hannah went not up: for shee said unto her husband, I will tarry until the child be weaned, then I will bring him that hee may appeare before the Lord, and there abide for ever.

23. And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Doe

CHAP. II.

i The song of Hannah. 12 The sonnet of Eli, wicked. 13 The new custome of the Priests. 14 Samuel ministred before the Lord.
15 Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife. 16 Eli represseth his fauour. 17 God punisheth a Prophet to Eli. 18 Eli a meane for not chastising his children.

And Hannah prayed, and said, Mine heart reioyceth in the Lord, mine home is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged ouer mine enemies, because I reioyce in thy saluation.

2 There is none holy as the Lord: yea, there is none besides thee, & there is no god like our God.

3 Speake no more presumptuously: let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him enterprises are established.

4 The bow and the mighty men are broken, and the weak haue girded themselues with strength.

5 They that were full, are hired sooth for bread, and the hungry are no more hired, so that the barren hath borne seven: and shee that had many children is feeble.

6 The Lord killeth and maketh aliuie: bring-geth downe to the graue and raiseth vp.

7 The Lord maketh poore and maketh rich:
bringeth low, and exalteth.

8 He raiseth vp the poore out of the dust, and lifteth vp the begger fro the dunghill, so set them among princes, and to make them inherite the seate of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lords: and he hath set the world vpon them.

9 He will keepe the feet of his Saints, and the wicked shall keepe silence in darkenesse: for in his owne might shall no man be strong.

10 The Lords aduersaries shall bee destroyed, and out of heauen shall he thunder vpon them:
the Lord shall iudge the endes of the world: and shall giue power vnto his King, and exalte
the home of his Anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the child did minister vnto the Lord before Eli the Priest.

12 ¶ Now the sonnet of Eli were wicked men, and knew not the Lord.

13 For the Priests custome toward the people was this: when any man offered sacrifice, the Priests boy came, while the flesh was seething, and a fleshhook with three teeth in his hand,

14 And thrust it into the kettle, or into the caldron, or into the panne, or into the pot: all that the fleshhook brought vp, the Priest tooke for himselfe: thus they did vnto all the Israelites, that came thither to Shiloh.

15 Yea, before they burnt the fat, the priests boy came & said vnto the man that offered, Giue me flesh to roste for the Priest: for he wil not haue fodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man sayde vnto him, Let them burne the fat according to the custome, then take as much as thine heart desireth: then he would answere, No, but thou shalt giue it now: and if thou wilt not, I will take it by force.

17 Therefore the sinne of the yong men was very great before the Lord: for men abhorred the offering of the Lord.

18 ¶ Now Samuel being a yong childe ministred before the Lord, girded with a linnen Ephod.

19 And his mother made him a litle coat, and brought it to him from yeare to yeare, when he came vp with her husband, to offer the yeerely sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The Lord giue thee seed of this woman, for the petition that she asked of the Lord: and they departed vnto their place.

21 And the Lord visited Hannah, so that shee conceiued and bare three sonnes, and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the Lord.

22 ¶ So Eli was very olde, and heard all that his sonnes did vnto all Israel, and how they lay with the women that assembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

23 And he said vnto them, Why doe ye such things? for of all this people I heare euil reports of you.

24 Doe no more, my sonnes: for it is no report that I heare, which is, that yee make the Lords people to trespasse.

25 If one man sinne against another, the iudge shall iudge it: but if a man sinne against the Lord, who will pleade for him? Notwithstanding they obeyed not the voyce of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

26 ¶ (Now the childe Samuel profited, and grew, and was in fauour both with the Lord and also with men)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainly appeare vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs house?

28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my Priest, to offer vpon my altar, & to burne incense, and to weare an Ephod before me, and I gaue vnto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel.

29 Wherefore haue you kicked against my sacrifice and mine offering, which I commanded in my Tabernacle, and honourest thy children about me, to make your selues fat of the first fruits of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said, that thine house, and the house of thy father should walke before me for euer: but now the Lord saith, It shall not be so: for them that honour me, I will honour, and they that despise me, shall be despised.

31 Behold, the dayes come, that I will cut off thine arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

CHAP. III.

1. There was no sacrifice without in the time of Eli. 4. The Lord calleth Samuel three times. 11. Anna sheweth what shall come vpon Eli and his house. 18. The same declareth Samuel to Eli.

Now the child Samuel ministered vnto the Lord before Eli: and the word of the Lord was precious in those dayes: for there was no manifest vision.

2. And at that time, as Eli lay in his place, his eyes began to waxe dimme, that he could not see.

3. And yet the light of God went out, Samuel slept in the Temple of the Lord, where the Arke of God was.

4. Then the Lord called Samuel: and he said, Here I am.

5. And he ranne vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. But he said, I called thee not: goe againe and sleepe. And he went and slept.

6. And the Lord called once againe, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou diddest call me. And he answered, I called thee not my sonne: goe againe and sleepe.

7. Thus did Samuel, before hee knew the Lord, and before the word of the Lord was reueiled vnto him.

8. And the Lord called Samuel againe the third time: and he arose and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou hast called me. Then Eli perceived that the Lord had called the child.

9. Therefore Eli said vnto Samuel, Goe and sleepe: and if he call thee, then say, Speake Lord, for thy seruant heareth. So Samuel went, and slept in his place.

10. And the Lord came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth.

11. Then the Lord said vnto Samuel, Behold, I will doe a thing in Israel, whereof who soeuer shall heare, his two eares shall tingle.

12. In that day I will raise vp against Eli all things which I haue spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13. And I haue told him that I will iudge his house for ever, for the iniquitie which he knoweth, because his sonnes ran into a slander, and hee slayed them not.

14. Now therefore I haue sworne vnto the house of Eli, that the wickednes of Elis house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15. Afterward Samuel slept vntil the morning, and opened the doores of the house of the Lord, and Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

16. Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samumy sonne. And he answered, Here I am.

17. Then he said, What is it, that the Lord said vnto thee? I pray thee hide it not from mee. God doe so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me, of all that he said vnto thee.

18. So Samuel tolde him euery whit, and hid nothing from him. Then he said, It is the Lord: let him doe what seemeth him good.

19. And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, & let none of his words fall to the ground.

20. And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew, that faithfull Samuel was the Lords Prophet.

21. And the Lord appeared againe in Shiloh: for the Lord reuealed himselfe to Samuel in Shiloh by his word.

CHAP. IIII.

1. Israel was smitten by the Philistims. 4. They doe set the Arke, wherefore the Philistims doe sware. 10. The Arke of the Lord is taken. 11. Eli and his Elders die. 16. The death of the wife of Phinehas the sister of Eli.

And Samuel spake vnto all Israel: and Israel went out against the Philistims to battell, and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistims pitched in Aphek.

2. And the Philistims put themselves in aray against Israel: and when they ioyned the battell, Israel was smitten downe before the Philistims: who slewe of the armie in the fildes about foure thousand men.

3. So when the people were come into the campe, the Elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the Lord smitten vs this day before the Philistims? let vs bring the Arke of the couenant of the Lord out of Shiloh vnto vs, that when it cometh among vs, it may saue vs out of the hand of our enemies.

4. Then the people sent to Shiloh, & brought from thence the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of hostes, who dwelleth betwene the Cherubims: and there were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, with the Arke of the couenant of God.

5. And when the Arke of the couenant of the Lord came into the hoste, all Israel shouted a mightie shout, so that the earth rang againe.

6. And when the Philistims heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the sound of this mighty shout in the host of the Ebrewes? and they vnderstood, that the Arke of the Lord was come into the hoste.

7. And the Philistims were afraid, and sayd, Gods come into the hoste: therefore sayd they, Woe vnto vs: for it hath not bene so heretofore.

8. Wo vnto vs, who shall deliuer vs out of the hand of these mightie Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9. Be strong and play themen, O Philistims, that ye be not seruants vnto the Ebrewes, as they haue serued you: be valiant therefore, and fight.

10. And the Philistims fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fled euery man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter: for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11. And the Arke of God was taken, and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas died.

12. And there ranne a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head.

CHAP. V.

a The Philistims bring the Arke into the house of Dagon, which is set before it. b The men of Ashdod are plagued. c The Arke is carried into Gath, and after to Ekron.

Then the Philistims tooke the Arke of God, and carried it from Eben-ezer vnto Ashdod.

d Which was one of the five principall cities of the Philistims.

2 Euen the Philistims tooke the Arke of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

e Which was their chiefe idol, and as some write, from the assail downward was like a fish and vponward like a man.

3 And when they of Ashdod rose the next day in the morning, behold, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and they tooke vp Dagon, and set him in his place againe.

4 Also they rose vpon early in the morning the next day, and behold, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and the head of Dagon & the two palmes of his hands were cut off vpon the threshold: onely the stump of Dagon was left to him.

f Thus in stead of acknowledging the true God by this miracle, they fall to a further superstition.

5 Therefore the Priests of Dagon, and al that come into Dagon's house, tread not on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, vnto this day.

g 1. 28. 26.

6 But the hand of the Lord was heauie vpon them of Ashdod, and destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, both Ashdod, and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw this, they sayd, Let not the Arke of the God of Israel abide with vs: for his hand is fore vpon vs and vpon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore. and gathered all the princes of the Philistims vnto them, and sayde,

What shall wee doe with the Arke of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the Arke of the God of Israel bee caried about vnto Gath: and they caried the Arke of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had carried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the citie with a very great destruction, and hee smote the men of the citie, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 ¶ Therefore they sent the Arke of God to Ekron: and alsoone as the Arke of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, They haue brought the Arke of the God of Israel to vs to slay vs and our people.

11 Therefore they sent, and gathered together all the princes of the Philistims, and sayd, Send away the Arke of the God of Israel, and let it returne to his owne place, that it slay vs not and our people: for the e was a destruction and death thorowout all the citie, and the hand of God was very sore there.

12 And the men that died not, were smitten with the emerods: and the crie of the citie went vp to heauen.

CHAP. VI.

a The time that the Arke was with the Philistims, which they first came with a gift. b It commeth to Beth-shemesh. c The Philistims offer golden emerods. d The men of Beth-shemesh are sick for looking into the Arke.

So the Arke of the Lord was in the countrey of the Philistims seven moneths.

2 And the Philistims called the Priests and the Soothsayers, saying, What shall we doe with the Arke of the Lord? tell vs wherewith we will send it home againe.

3 And they sayd, If you send away the Arke of the God of Israel, send it not away empty, but giue vnto it a sinne offering: then shall yee bee healed, and it shall bee known to you, why his hand departeth not from you.

4 Then sayd they, What shall be the sinne offering, which wee shall giue vnto it? And they answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the princes of the Philistims: for one plague was on you all, and on your princes.

5 Wherefore ye shall make the similitudes of your Emerods, and the similitudes of your mice that destroy the land: so yee shall giue glory vnto the God of Israel, that hee may take his hand from you, and from your gods, and from your land.

6 Wherefore then should yee harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when hee wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let them goe, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on whom there hath come no yoke: and tie the kine to the cart, and bring the calves home from them.

8 Then take the Arke of the Lord, and set it vpon the cart, and put the jewels of gold which yee giue it for a sinne offering in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may goe.

9 And take heede, if it goe vp by the way of his owne coast to Beth-shemesh, it is e hee that did vs this great euill, but if not, we shall know then that it is not his hand that smote vs, but it was a chance that happened vs.

a Though they had felt Gods power, and were afraid thereof, yet they would further try him, which thing God turned to their destruction and his glory.

b The wicked when they see the hand of God grudge and reiect him, where the godly humble themselves, and cry for mercy.

c They thought by continuance of time the plague would haue ceased, and so would haue kept the Arke still.

d The idolaters confesse here a true God, but punisheth him unjustly.

e This is Gods iudgement vpon the idolaters, that knowing the true God, they worship him not aright.

h The God of Israel.

i The wicked attribute almost all things to fortune & chance, where as in deed there is nothing done without Gods providence and decree.

10. And the men did so: for they took two kine that gave milke, and tied them to the cart, and put the calves at home.

11. So they set the Arke of the Lord vpon the cart, and the coffer with the mize of golde, and with the similitudes of their emerods.

12. And the kine went the straight way to Beth-shemesh, and kept one path, and lowed as they went: & turned neither to the right hand nor to the left: also the princes of the Philistims went after them vnto the borders of Beth-shemesh.

13. Now they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, and they lift vp their eyes, and spied the Arke, and reioyced when they saw it.

14. And the cart came into the field of Tophua a Beth-shemite, and stood still there. There was also a great stone, and they claue the wood of the cart, and offered the kine for a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

15. And the Levites took downe the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewells of golde were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offering, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day vnto the Lord.

16. And when the five princes of the Philistims had seene it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17. ¶ So these are the golden emerods, which the Philistims gave for a sinne offering to the Lord: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, and for Ekron one.

18. And golden mize, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistims, belonging to the five princes, both of walled townes, and of townes vnwalled vnto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth vnto this day in the field of Tophua the Beth-shemite.

19. And he smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked in the Arke of the Lord: he slew euen among the people fiftie thousand men and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had slaine the people with so great a slaughter.

20. Wherefore the men of Beth-shemesh sayd, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he go from vs?

21. And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-earim, saying, The Philistims haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe, and take it vp to you.

CHAP. VII.

1. The Arke brought to Kiriath-earim. 2. Samuel rebursteth the people to forsake their sinnes, and turne to the Lord. 3. The Philistims take the Arke of the Lord, and are overcome. 16. Samuel judgeth Israel.

Then the men of Kiriath-earim came, and took vp the Arke of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill: and they sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to keepe the Arke of the Lord.

2. (For while the Arke abode in Kiriath-earim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeeres) and all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord.

3. ¶ Then Samuel spake vnto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your heart, put away the strange gods from among you, and Ashtaroth, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, and serue him only, and he shall deliuer you out of the hand of the Philistims.

4. Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim & Ashtaroth, and serued the Lord onely.

5. And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you vnto the Lord.

6. And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, and sayd there, We haue sinned against the Lord. And Samuel iudged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7. When the Philistims heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the Princes of the Philistims went vp against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that they were afraid of the Philistims.

8. And the children of Israel sayd to Samuel, Cease not to crie vnto the Lord our God for vs; that hee may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistims.

9. Then Samuel tooke a sucking lambe, and offered it all together for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, and Samuel cried vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

10. And as Samuel offered the burnt offering, the Philistims came to fight against Israel: but the Lord thundered with a great thunder that day vpon the Philistims, and it routed them: so they were slaine before Israel.

11. And the men of Israel went from Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistims, and smote them vntill they came vnder Beth-car.

12. Then Samuel tooke a stone, and pitched it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name thereof Eben-ezer, and he sayd, Hitherto hath the Lord holpen vs.

13. ¶ So the Philistims were brought vnder, and they came no more againe into the coasts of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistims all the dayes of Samuel.

14. Also the cities which the Philistims had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron euen to Gath: & Israel deliuered the coasts of the same out of the hands of the Philistims: and there was peace betwene Israel and the Amorites.

15. And Samuel iudged Israel all the dayes of his life.

16. And went about yeere by yeere to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and iudged Israel in all those places.

17. Afterward he returned to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he iudged Israel: also he built an altar there vnto the Lord.

and thy sonnes shall not in thy wayes: * make vs now a king to iudge vs like all nations.

6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they sayd, Giue vs a king to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lord.

7 And the Lord said vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in all that they shall say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I should not reigne ouer them.

8 As they haue euer done since I brought them out of Egypt vnto this day, (and haue forsaken me, and serued other gods) euen so doe they vnto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit, yet * testifie vnto them, and shewe them the maner of the king that shall reigne ouer them.

10 ¶ So Samuel told all the words of the Lord vnto the people that asked a king of him.

11 And he said, This shall bee the maner of the king that shall reigne ouer you: he will take your sonnes, and appoint them to his charets, and to be his horsemen, and some shall runne before his charet.

12 Also he will make them his captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer fifties, and to eare his ground, and to reape his haruest, and to make instruments of warre, and the things that serue for his charets.

13 Hee will also take your daughters & make them Apothecaries, and Cooks, and Bakers,

14 And he will take your fields, & your vineyards, and your best Oliue trees, and giue them to his seruants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your feede, and of your vineyards, and giue it to his Eunuchs, and to his seruants.

16 And hee will take your men seruants, and your maid seruants, and the chiefe of your yong men, and your asses, and put them to his worke.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheepe, and ye shall be his seruants.

18 And ye shall cry out at that day, because of your king, whom ye haue chosen you, & the Lord will not heare you at that day.

19 But the people would not heare the voyce of Samuel, but did say, Nay, but there shall bee a king ouer vs.

20 And we also will be like all other nations, and our king shall iudge vs, and go out before vs, and fight our battels.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard all the words of the people, hee rehearsed them in the eares of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, ¶ Harken vnto their voyce, and make them a king. And Samuel said vnto the men of Israel, Go euery man vnto his citie.

C H A P. IX.

3 Saul seeking his fathers asses, by the counsel of his seruants goeth to Samuel. 9 The Trapphens called Seers. 13 The Lord reuene-eth to Samuel Sauls committing, commanding him to anoint him king. 21 Samuel bringeth Saul to the feast.

¶ Here was now a man of Benjamin, * mightie in power, named * Kish, the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, the sonne of Bithorah, the sonne of Aphiah, the sonne of a man of Iemini.

2 And he had a sonne called Saul, a * goodly yong man and a faire: so that among the children of Israel there was not a goodlier then hee: from the shoulders vpward, he was higher then any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish, Sauls father, were lost: therefore Kish said to Saul his sonne, Take now one of the seruants with thee, and arise, goe and seeke the asses.

4 So he passed through mount Ephraim, and went thorow the lande of Shalishah, but they found them not. Then they went thorow the land of Shalim, and there they were not: hee went also thorow the land of Iemini, but they found them not.

5 When they came to the land of * Zuph, Saul sayd vnto his seruant that was with him, Come and let vs returne, lest my father leaue the care of asses, and take thought for vs.

6 And he said vnto him, Behold now, in this city is a man of God, & he is an honourable man: all that he saith commeth to passe: let vs now go thither, if so be that he can shew vs what way we may goe.

7 Then Saul saide to his seruant, Well then, let vs go: but what shall we bring vnto the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what haue wee?

8 And the seruant answered Saul againe, and said, Behold, I haue found about mee the fourth part of a shekell of silver: that will I giue the man of God, to tell vs our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel when a man went to seeke an answer of God, thus he spake, Come, & let vs goe to the Seer: for he that is called nowe a Prophet, was in the old time called a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his seruant, Well sayd, come, let vs go: so they went into the citie where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they were going vp the hill way to the citie, they found maids that came out to draw water, and saide vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And they answered them, and saide, Yea, loe, he is before you: make haste nowe, for hee came this day to the citie: for there is an offering of the people this day in the high place.

13 When ye shall come into the citie, ye shall find him straight way: yer he come vp to the high place to eate, for the people will not eate vntill he come, because hee will * blesse the sacrifice: and then eate they that be bidden to the feast: nowe therefore goe vp, for euen now shall ye find him.

14 Then they went vp into the citie, and when they were come into the middes of the citie, Samuel came out against them, to goe vp to the high place.

15 ¶ But the Lord had reuealed to Samuel secretly a day before Saul came) saying,

16 To morow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, him shalt thou anoint to be gouernour ouer my people Israel, that he may * laue my people out of the hands of the Philistines: for I haue looked vpon my people, and their cry is come vnto me.

17 When Samuel therefore saw Saul, the Lord answered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, he shall rule my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the middes of the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer: goe vp before me vnto the high place: for ye shall eate with me to day, and to morow I will let thee goe, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

CHAP. X.

Saul is anointed King by Samuel. 9 God changes Sauls heart, and he prophesies. 17 Samuel assembles the people, & sheweth them their sinnes. 21 Saul is chosen King by lot. 25 Samuel anoints the King of Israel.

Then Samuel tooke a vial of oile, and pow-red it vpon his head, and kissed him, and said, Hath not the Lord anointed thee to be gouernor ouer his inheritance?

2 When thou shalt depart from me this day, thou shalt find two men by Rahels sepulchre in the border of Benjamin, euen at Zelzah, and they will say vnto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seeke, are found, and loe, thy father hath left the care of the asses, & soroweth for you, saying,
What shall I doe for my sonne?

3 Then shalt thou go forth from thence, and shalt come to the plains of Tabor, and there shalt meet thee three men going vp to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kiddes, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bot-tel of wine.

4 And they will aske thee if all be well, and will giue thee the two loaves of bread, which thou shalt receiue of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where is the garisons of the Philistines: and when thou art come thither to the city, thou shalt meete a company of Prophets committing downe from the hill place with a vial, & a tymbrel, and a pipe, and in harpe before them, and they shall prophesie.

6 Then the spirit of the Lord will come vpon thee, and thou shalt prophesie with them, & shalt be turned into another man.

7 Therefore when these signes shall come vnto thee; doe as occasion shall serue for God with thee.

8 And thou shalt goe downe before mee to Gilgal: and I also will come downe vnto thee to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace. Take for me seven dayes, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt doe.

9 And when he had turned his backe to goe from Samuel, God gaue him another heart: and all those tokens came to passe that same day.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, the company of Prophets met him, and the spirit of God came vpon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 Therefore all the people that knew him before, when they saw that hee prophesied among the Prophets, said ech to other, What is come vnto the sonne of Kish? is Saul also among the Prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered, and sayde, But who is their father? Therefore it was a prouerbe, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophe-sying, he came to the high place.

14 And Sauls vncle said vnto him, and to his seruant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seeke the asses: and when we sawe that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Sauls vncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said vnto you.

16 Then Saul said vnto his vncle, He tolde vs plainly, that the asses were found: but concerning the kingdome, whereof Samuel spake, tolde he him not.

17 And Samuel gathered the people vnto the Lord in Mizpeh,

18 And he saide vnto the children of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue brought Israel out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the handes of all kingdomes that troubled you.

sities and tribulations: and ye said vnto him, No, ye before the Lord according to your tribes, and 20 And when Samuel had gathered together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 Afterward he assembled the tribe of Benjamin, according to their families, and the family of Matri was taken. So Saul the sonne of Kish was taken, and when they sought him, hee could not be found.

22 Therefore they asked the Lord againe, if that man should yet come thither. And the Lord answered, Beholde, he hath hid himselfe among the stuffe.

23 And they ranne, and brought him thence:
and when he stood among the people, hee was higher then any of the people from the shoulders vpward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See yee not him, whome the Lorde hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? and all the people shouted and saide, God saue the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the duetie of the kingdome, and wrote it in a booke, and

CHAP. XI.

1 Nahash the Ammonite warres against Iabesh-Gilead, who asketh helpe of the Israelites. 2 Saul promyseth helpe. 3 The Ammonites are slaine: 14 The kingdome is restored.

Then Nahash the Ammonite came vp, and besieged Iabesh Gilead: and all the men of Iabesh said vnto Nahash, Make a covenant with vs, and we will be thy seruants.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition I will make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and bring that shame vpon all Israel.

3 To whom the Elders of Iabesh said, Giue vs seven dayes respite, that wee may send messengers vnto all the coastes of Israel, and then if no man deliuer vs, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and tolde these tidings in the eares of the people: and all the people lift vp their voices and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came following the catel out of the field, and Saul said, What aileth this people that they weepe? And they tolde him the tidings of the men of Iabesh.

6 Then the Spirit of God came vpon Saul, when hee heard these tidings, and hee was exceedingly angry,

7 And tooke a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, & sent them thorowout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever commeth not forth after Saul, and after Samuel, so shal his oxen be serued. And the feare of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.

8 And when hee numbred them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand men, and the men of Iudah thirty thousand.

9 Then they sayd vnto the messengers that came, So say vnto the men of Iabesh Gilead, To morrow by then the Sunne be hote, yee shall haue helpe. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Iabesh, which were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Iabesh said, To morrow we will come out vnto you, and ye shall do with vs all that pleaseth you.

11 ¶ And when the morrow was come, Saul put the people in three bands, and they came in vpon the host in the morning watch, and slewe the Ammonites vntill the heate of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 Then the people said vnto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reigne ouer vs? bring those men that we may slay them.

13 But Saul sayde, There shall no man die this day: for to day the Lord hath saued Israel.

14 ¶ Then said Samuel vnto the people, Come that we may go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdome there.

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul king there before the Lord in Gilgal: & there they offered peace offerings before the Lord, and there Saul and all the men of Israel reioyced exceedingly.

CHAP. XII.

1 Samuel declaring to the people his integrity: & proueth their ingratitude. 19 God by hisacle canisith the people to confesse their sinne. 20 Samuels birth is the prophete to follow the Lord.

Samuel then said vnto all Israel, Behold, I haue hearkened vnto your voyce in all that yee sayd vnto mee, and haue appointed a King ouer you.

2 Now therefore behold, your King walketh before you, and I am olde and gray headed, and behold, my sonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my childehood vnto this day.

3 Behold, here I am: beare record of me before the Lord, and before his anoynted. Whose oxen haue I taken? or whose asse haue I taken? or whom haue I done wrong to? or whome haue I hurt? or of whose hand haue I receiued any bribe to blinde mine eyes therewith, and I will restore it you?

4 Then they sayde, Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hast hurt vs, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand.

5 And he sayd vnto them, The Lord is witnesse against you, and his Anoynted is witnesse this day, that ye haue found nought in mine handes. And they answered, He is witnesse.

6 Then Samuel said vnto the people, It is the Lord that made Moses & Aaron, & that brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lorde according to all the righteousnesse of the Lord, which he shewed to you and to your fathers.

8 After that Iakob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cryed vnto the Lorde, then the Lord sent Moses & Aaron which brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgate the Lord their God, he sold them into the hand of Sifera captain of the hoste of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistims, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried vnto the Lord and said, We haue sinned, because we haue forsaken the Lord, and haue serued Baalim and Ashtaroth. Now therefore deliuer vs out of the hands of our enemies, and we will serue thee.

11 Therefore the Lorde sent Ierubbaal and Bedan, and Iphtah, and Samuel, and deliuered you out of the hands of your enemies on euery side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 Notwithstanding when you saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said vnto me, No, but a King shall reigne ouer vs: when yet the Lord your God was your King.

13 Now therefore behold the King whom ye haue chosen, and whom ye haue desired: lo therefore, the Lord hath set a King ouer you.

14 If ye wil leaue the Lord and serue him, and heare his voyce, and not disobey the word of the Lord, both yee, and the King that reigneth ouer you, shall follow the Lord your God.

15 But if ye wil not obey the voyce of the Lord, but disobey the Lords mouth, then shal the hand of the Lord be vpon you, and on your fathers.

18 Then Samuel called vnto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and raine the same day: and all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly.

19 And all the people said vnto Samuel, Pray for thy seruants vnto the Lord thy God, that wee die not: for wee haue sinned in asking vs a King, beside all our other finnes.

CHAP. XLII.

¶ The Philistines are foemen of Saul and Jonathan: 23 Saul bringeth disphants to Gods commandments, a sheweth of Samuel that he shall not reigne. 29 The great floure gathered in the Philistines after the Israelites.

Saul now had bene King one yeere, and hee reigned two yeeres ouer Israel.

2 Then Saul chose him three thousand of Israel: and two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent euery one to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garison of the Philistines that was in the hill: and it came to the Philistines eares: and Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Heare, O yee Ebrewes.

4 And all Israel heard say, Saul hath destroyed a garison of the Philistines: wherefore Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines: and the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ The Philistines also gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirtie thousand chariots, and fixe thousand horsemen: for the people were like the sand which is by the sea side in multitude, and came vp, & pitched in Michmash Eastward from Beth-anen.

6 And when the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were in distresse) the people hid themselves in caves, and in holds, and in rocks, and in towers, and in pits.

7 And some of the Ebrewes went ouer Iordan vnto the land of Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, & all the people for feare followed him.

8 And he taried seven dayes, according vnto the tyme that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, therefore the people were scattered from him.

¶ And Saul sayde, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offerings: and he offered a burnt offering.

¶ And as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came: and Saul went forth to meet him, to salute him.

¶ And Samuel sayd, What hast thou done? Then Saul sayd, because I saw that the people was scattered from mee, and that thou camest not within the dayes appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together to Michmash,

¶ And he said, I, the Philistines will come downe now vpon mee to Gilgal, and I haue not made supplication vnto the Lords. I was bolde therefore and offered a burnt offering.

¶ And Samuel sayd to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which hee commanded thee: for the Lord had now stablished thy kingdom vpon Israel for ever.

¶ But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his owne heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be gouernour ouer his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee.

¶ And Samuel arose, and gate him vp from Gilgal in Gibeah of Benjamin: and Saul numbered the people that were found with him, about fixe hundred men.

¶ And Saul and Jonathan his sonne, and the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines pitched in Michmash.

¶ And there came out of the hoste of the Philistines three bands to destroy, one band turned vnto the way of Ophrah vnto the land of Shual,

¶ And another band turned toward the way to Beth-horon, and the third band turned toward the way of the coast that looketh toward the valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

¶ Then there was no smith found thorowout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Ebrewes make them swords or speares.

¶ Wherefore, all the Israelites went downe to the Philistines, to sharpen euery man his share, his mattocke, and his axe, and his weeding hooke.

¶ Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattocks, and for the pike-forks, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goads.

¶ So when the day of battell was come, there was neither sword nor speare found in the hands of any of the people that were with Saul and with Jonathan: but only with Saul and Jonathan his sonne were there found.

¶ And the garison of the Philistines came out to the passage of Michmash.

4 And Ahiah the sonne of Ahitub, *Icha-bods brother, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eli, was the Lords Priest in Shiloh, and ware an Ephod: and the people knewe not that Jonathan was gone.

5 ¶ Nowe in the way whereby Jonathan fought to go ouer to the Philistims garison, there was a sharpe rocke on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the name of the one was called Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

6 The one rocke stretched from the North toward Michmas, and the other was from the South toward Gibeath.

7 And Jonathan sayd to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs goe ouer vnto the garison of these ^b vncircumcised: it may bee that the Lord will worke with vs: for it is not hard to the Lord * to saue with many, or with few.

8 And he that bare his armour, said vnto him, Doe all that is in thine heart: goe where it please thee: behold, I am with thee as thine heart desireth.

9 Then said Jonathan, Behold, wee goe ouer vnto those men, and will shewe our selues vnto them.

10 ¶ If they say on this wise to vs, Tarie vntill wee come to you, then wee will stand still in our place, and not goe vp to them.

11 But if they say, Come vp vnto vs, then we wil go vp: for the Lord hath deliuered them into our hand: and this shalbe a signe vnto vs.

12 So they both shewed themselves vnto the garison of the Philistims: and the Philistims said, See, the Ebrewes come out of the holes wherein they had hid themselves.

13 And the men of the garison answered Jonathan and his armour bearer, and said, Come vp to vs: for we will shew you a thing. Then Jonathan said vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after mee: for the Lord hath deliuered them into the hand of Israel.

14 So Jonathan went vp vpon his hands and vpon his feete, and his armour bearer after him: and some fell before Jonathan, and his armour bearer slew others after him.

15 So the strife slaughter which Jonathan and his armour bearer made, was about twenty men, as it were within halfe an acre of land which two oxen plow.

16 And there was a feare in the hoste, and in the fildes, and among all the people: the garison also, and they that went out to spoile, were afraid themselves: and the earth trembled: for it was stricken with feare by God.

17 ¶ Then the watchmen of Saul in Gibeath of Benjamin saw: and behold, the multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they went.

18 Therefore sayd Saul vnto the people that were with him, Search now and see, who is gone from vs. And when they had numbred, behold, Jonathan and his armour bearer were not there.

19 And Saul said vnto Ahiah, Bring hither the Arke of God (for the Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israel)

20 ¶ And while Saul talked vnto the Priest, the noyse that was in the hoste of the Philistims, spread arther abroad, and increased: therefore Saul said vnto the Priest, Withdraw thine hand.

21 And Saul was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battell: and beholde, every mans sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

22 Moreover, the Ebrewes that were with the Philistims beforetime, and were come with them into all parts of the host, even they also turned to bee with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

23 Also all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistims were fled, they followed after them in the battell.

24 And so the Lord saued Israel that day: and the battell continued vnto Beth-aen.

25 And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an othe, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food till night, that I may bee auenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any sustenance.

26 And all they of the land came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground.

27 And the people came into the wood, and beheld the hony dropped, and no man moued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the othe.

28 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the othe: wherefore hee put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes receiued sight.

29 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were faint.

30 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see now how mine eyes are made cleare, because I haue tasted a little of this hony.

31 How much more, if the people had eaten to day of the spoile of their enemies which they found? for had there not bene now a greater slaughter among the Philistims?

32 ¶ And they smote the Philistims that day, from Michmas to Aialon: and the people were exceeding faint.

33 So the people turned to the spoile, and tooke sheepe, and oxen, and calues, and slew them on the ground, and the people did eat them with the blood.

34 Then men tolde Saul, saying, Behold, the people sime against the Lord, in that they eate with the blood. And he said, Ye haue trespassed: Proue a great stone vnto me this day.

35 Againe Saul said, Goe abroad among the people, & bid them bring me euery man his oxe, and euery man his sheepe, and slay them here, and eat, and sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And the people brought euery man his oxe in his hand that night, and slew them there.

36 Then Saul made an altar vnto the Lord, and that was the first altar that hee made vnto the Lord.

37 And Saul said, Let vs goe downe after the Philistims by night, and spoile them vntill the morning shine, and let vs not leaue a man of them. And they said, Doe whatsoeuer thou thinkest best. Then said the Priest, Let vs drawe

39 For as the Lord lieth, which saith Israel, though it be dew by Jonathan my sonne, he shall die the death. But none of all the people answered him.

40 Then he said vnto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my sonne will be on the other side. And the people said vnto Saul, Doe what thou thinkest best.

41 Then Saul said vnto the Lord God of Israel, Giue a perfect lot. And Jonathan and Saul were taken by the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Call for betweene mee and Jonathan my sonne. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I casted a little hony with the end of the rod, that was in mine hand, and loe I must die.

44 Againe Saul answered, God do so and more also, vntill thou die the death, Jonathan.

45 And the people said vnto Saul, * Shal Jonathan die, who hath so mightily deliuered Israel? God forbid. As the Lord lieth, there shall not one haire of his head fall to the ground: for hee hath wrought with God this day. So the people deliuered Jonathan that he died not.

46 Then Saul came vnto the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their owne place.

47 ¶ So Saul held the kingdome ouer Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the Kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he went, he handled them as wicked men.

48 Hee gathered also an hoste, and smote Amalek, and deliuered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Nowe the sonnes of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Malchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the younger was named Michal.

50 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of his chiefe captaine was Abner the sonne of Ner, Sauls vncle.

51 And Kish was Sauls father: and Ner the father of Abner was the sonne of Abiel.

52 And there was forewarre against the Philistines all the dayes of Saul: and whomsoever Saul saw to bee a strong man, and meete for the warre, heeooke him vnto him.

Saul & commanded Isay Amalek. 9 Hee sayeth Agag and the Israhelites. 10 Samuel reuerent to him. 11 Saul a vncle of the Lord and in the same place he was. 12 Saul was weake in places.

Afterward Samuel said vnto Saul, * The Lord sent me to anoint thee King ouer his people, ouer Israel: now therefore obey the voice of the words of the Lord.

Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, how they layd waite for them in the way, as they came vp from Egypt.

Now therefore goe, and smite Amalek, and destroy ye all that percereth vnto them, and haue no compassion on them, but slay both man and woman, both infant and suckling, both oxe, and sheepe, both camell, and asse.

¶ And Saul assembled the people, & numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Iudah.

And Saul came to a citie of Amalek, and let watch at the river.

¶ And Saul said vnto the Kenites, Goe, depart, and get you downe from among the Amalekites: lest I destroy you with them: for ye shewed mercie to all the children of Israel, when they came vp from Egypt: and the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

¶ So Saul smote the Amalekites from Hazulah, as thou comest to Shur, that is before Egypt.

¶ Andooke Agag the King of the Amalekites alive, and destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

¶ But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the better sheepe and the oxen, and the fat beasts, and the lambes, and all that was good, and they would not destroy them: but every thing that was vile and nought worth, that they destroyed.

¶ Then came the word of the Lord vnto Samuel, saying,

¶ I it repenteth mee that I haue made Saul king: for he is turned from me, and hath not performed my commandements. And Samuel was moued, and cried vnto the Lord all night.

¶ And when Samuel arose early to meet Saul in the morning, one told Samuel, saying, Saul is gone to Caymel: and behold, hee hath made him there a place, from whence hee returned, and departed, and is gone downe to Gilgal.

¶ Then Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said vnto him, Blessed be thou of the Lord, I haue fulfilled the commandement of the Lord.

¶ But Samuel said, What meaneth then the bleating of the sheepe in mine eares, and the lowing of the oxen which I heare?

¶ And Saul answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheepe and of the oxen, to sacrifice them vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we destroyed.

¶ Againe Samuel said to Saul, Let me tel thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said vnto him, Say on.

¶ Then Samuel said, When thou wast a little in thine owne sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? for the Lord anointed thee King ouer Israel.

¶ And the Lord sent thee on a journey, and said, Goe, and destroy those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, vntill thou destroy them.

¶ Now, wherefore hast thou not obeyed the voice of the Lord but hast turned to the pray, and hast done wickedly in the sight of the Lord?

¶ And Saul said vnto Samuel, Yea, I haue obeyed the voice of the Lord, and haue gone the way which the Lord sent mee, and haue brought Agag the king of Amalek, and haue destroyed the Amalekites.

Lord thy God in Oil.

22 And Samuel saide, Hath the Lord as great pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as when the voice of the Lord is obeyed? behold, *to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken is better than the fat of rammes.

23 For rebellion is as the sinne of witchcraft, and transgression is wickednesse & idolatry: Because thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, therefore hee hath cast away thee from being king.

24 Then Saul said vnto Samuel, I haue sinned: for I haue transgressed the Commandement of the Lord, & thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voyce.

25 Now therefore I pray thee, take away my sinne, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the Lord.

26 But Samuel said vnto Saul, I will not returne with thee: for thou hast cast away the worde of the Lord, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not be King ouer Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned himselfe to go away, he caught the lappe of his coate, and it rent.

28 Then Samuel said vnto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath giuen it to thy neighbor, that is better then thou.

29 For indeed the strength of Israel will not lye nor repent for he is not a man that he should repent.

30 Then hee said, I haue sinned: but honour mee, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

31 ¶ So Samuel turned againe, and followed Saul, and Saul worshipped the Lord.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to mee Agag the king of the Amalekites: & Agag came vnto him // pleasantly, and Agag sayd, Truly the bitterness of death is passed.

33 And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childlesse, so shal thy mother be childlesse among other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.

34 ¶ So Samuel departed to Ramah, and Saul went vp to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul vntill the day of his death: but Samuel mourned for Saul, and the Lord repented that hee made Saul King ouer Israel.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Samuel is reprov'd of God, and is sent to anoint David. 2 God regardeth the heart. 13 The Spirit of the Lord cometh upon David. 14 The wicked spirit is sent upon Saul. 19 Saul sendeth for David.

The Lord then said vnto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourne for Saul, a seeing I haue cast him away from reigning ouer Israel? fill thine horn with oyle, and come, I will send thee to Ithai the Bethlehemit: for I haue prouided me a King among his sonnes.

1 And Samuel said, How can I go for if Saul shall heare it, he wil kil me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to doe sacrifice to the Lord.

2 And cal Ithai to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt doe, and thou shalt annoynt vnto me him whom I name vnto thee.

3 And so Samuel did that the Lord bad him, and came to Beth-lehem, and the elders of the towne were * astonied at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he answered, Yea: I am come to doe sacrifice vnto the Lord: sanctifie your selues, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Ithai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And when they were come, he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the Lords Anointed is before him.

7 But the Lord said vnto Samuel, Looke not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature, because I haue refused him: for God seeth not as man seeth: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the heart.

8 Then Ithai called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel. And hee said, Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

9 Then Ithai made Shammah come. And he said, Neither yet hath the Lord chosen him.

10 Againe Ithai made his ten sonnes to come before Samuel, and Samuel said vnto Ithai, The Lord hath chosen none of these.

11 Finally, Samuel said vnto Ithai, Are there no more children here? And hee sayd, There remaineth yet a little one behinde, that keepeth the sheepe. Then Samuel sayd vnto Ithai, Send and see him: for we will not sit downe, till he be come hither.

12 And hee sent, and brought him in: and he was ruddy, and of a good countenance, and comely visage. And the Lord said, Arise and annoynt him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel tooke the horn of oyle, and annoynted him in the middes of his brethren. And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon David, from that day forward: then Samuel rose vp, and went to Ramah.

14 ¶ But the spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an euill spirit of the Lord vexed him.

15 And Sauls seruants sayd vnto him, Behold now, the euill spirit of God vexeth thee.

16 Let our lord therefore command thy seruants that are before thee, to seeke a man that is a cunning player vpon the harpe: that when the euill spirit of God cometh vpon thee, hee may play with his hand, and thou mayest be eased.

17 Saul then sayd vnto his seruants, Prouide me a man I pray you, that can play wel, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of his seruants, & said, Beholde, I haue scene a sonne of Ithai, a Bethlehemit, that can play, and is strong, valiant, and a man of warre, and wise in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Ithai, and sayd, Send me David thy sonne, which is with the sheepe.

20 And Ithai took an asse laden with bread, and a flagon of wine, and a kid, and sent them by the hand of David his sonne vnto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and hee loved him very well, and he was his armour bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Ithai, saying, Let David now remaine with me: for he hath found fauour in my sight.

23 And so when the euill spirit of God came vpon Saul, David tooke an harpe & played with his

CHAP. XVII

1. The Philistines were against Israel. 2. Goliath defied Israel. 3. David is put to his trial. 4. The strength and boldness of David. 5. The Lords favour was upon David. 6. David killed Goliath and the Philistines.

NOW the Philistines gathered their armies to battell, & came together to Shocchoh, which is in Judah, and pitched betweene Shocchoh and Azekah, in the coast of Dammim.

2. And Saul and the men of Israel assembled, and pitched in the valley of Elah, and put themselves in battell array to meete the Philistines.

3. And the Philistines stood on a mountaine on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountaine on the other side: so a valley was betweene them.

4. ¶ Then came a man betweene them: both out of the times of the Philistines, named Goliath of Gath: his height was six cubites and an hand breadth.

5. And had an helmet of brass vpon his head, and a brigandine vpon him: & the weight of his brigandine was five thousand shekels of brass.

6. And he had bootes of brass vpon his legs, and a shield of brass vpon his shoulders.

7. And the shaft of his speare was like a weavers beame: and his speare head weighed six hundred shekels of yron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8. And hee stood, & cried against the hoste of Israel, and said to them, Why are ye come to set your battell in array? am not I a Philistine? and you say to Saul? chuse you a man for you, and let him come downe to me.

9. If he be able to fight with me, and I kill him, then will we be your servants: but if I come to him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve vs.

10. Also the Philistine said, I defy the hoste of Israel this day: give me a man, that we may fight.

11. When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were discouraged, and greatly afraid.

12. ¶ Now this David was the sonne of an Ephraimite of Beth-lehem Judah, named Ishai, which had eight sonnes: and this man was taken for an old man in the daies of Saul.

13. And the three eldest sonnes of Ishai went and followed Saul to the battell: and the names of his three sonnes that went to battell were Eliab the eldest, and the next Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14. So David was the least, and the three eldest went after Saul.

15. David also went, but hee returned from Saul to feede his fathers sheepe in Beth-lehem.

16. And the Philistine drew neere in the morning, and enuening, and continued fortie daies.

17. And Ishai said vnto David his son, Take now thy brethren an Ephah of this parched corne, and then cakes, and run to the hoste to thy brethren.

18. Also carrie these ten fresh chaces vnto the captaine, and looke how thy brethren fare, and receive their pledge.

19. (Then Saul and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines)

20. ¶ So David rose vp early in the morning, and left the sheepe with a keeper, and tooke and went as Ishai had commanded him, & came within the compasse of the hoste: and the hoste went out in array, and stood in the battell.

21. For Israel and the Philistines had put themselves in array, armie against armie.

22. And David left the things which he bare, vnder the hands of the keeper of the carriage, & ranne into the host, and came, and asked his brethren how they did.

23. And as he talked with them, beheld the man that was betweene the two armies came vp, (whose name was Goliath the Philistine of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistines, & spake such words, and David heard them.

24. And all the men of Israel when they sawe the man, ranne away from him, and were fore a fraide.

25. For every man of Israel said, Saw ye not this man that cometh vp? to set to reuile Israel? is he come vp vnto him that killeth him, will the King give great riches, and will giue him his daughter, yea, and make his fathers house free in Israel.

26. ¶ Then David spake to the men that stood with him, and sayd, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the shame from Israel? for who is this vncircumcised Philistine, that hee should reuile the hoste of the living God?

27. And the people answered him after this manner saying, Thus shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28. And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake vnto the men, and Eliab was very angry with David, and sayd, Why camest thou downe hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheepe in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to see the battell.

29. ¶ Then David sayd, What haue I now done? Is there not a cause for this?

30. And hee departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner, and the people answered him according to the former words.

31. ¶ And they that heard the wordes which David spake, rehearsed them before Saul, which caused him to be brought.

32. So David sayd to Saul, Let no mans heart faile him, because of him: thy seruant wil go, and fight with this Philistine.

33. And Saul sayd to David, Thou art not able to goe against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art a boy, and he is a man of war from his youth.

34. And David answered vnto Saul, Thy seruant kept his fathers sheepe, & there came a lyon, and likewise a beare, and tooke a sheepe out of the flocke.

35. And I went out after him, and smote him, and tooke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36. So thy seruant slew both the lion, and the beare: therefore this vncircumcised Philistine shall bee as one of them, seeing he hath railled on the hoste of the living God.

This dishonour that he doeth to Israel.

For his fathers sending was a iust occasion, and also he felt himself inwardly moved by Gods Spirit.

Here Satan pro-ueth Davids faith by the insideltie of Saul.

David by the experience that he hath had in time past of Gods help, nothing doubted to ouercome this danger, seeing he was zealous for Gods honour.

37 ¶ Moreover David said, The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lyon, and out of the paw of the beere, he wil deliver me out of the hand of this Philistim. Then Saul said vnto David, ¶ Goe, and the Lord be with thee.

38 And Saul put his raiment vpon David, and put an helmet of brass vpon his head, and put a brigandine vpon him.

39 Then girded David his sword vpon his raiment, and began to goe: for he neuer proued it: and David sayde vnto Saul, I cannot goe with these: for I am not accustomed. Wherefore David put them off him.

40 Then tooke he his staffe in his hand, and chose him five smoothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in his shepherds bagge or scrippe, and his sling was in his hand, and hee drew neere to the Philistim.

41 ¶ And the Philistim came and drew neere vnto David, and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 Now when the Philistim looked about and saw David, hee disdained him: for hee was but yong, ruddie, and of a comely face.

43 And the Philistim sayd vnto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with stauers? And the Philistim ° cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistim said to David, Come to me, and I wil giue thy flesh vnto the fowles of the heauen, and to the beasts of the field.

45 ¶ Then said David to the Philistim, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield, but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of hostes, the God of the hostes of Israel, whom thou hast railed vpon.

46 This day shal the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I wil giue the carkeises of the host of the Philistims this day vnto the fowles of the heauen, and to the beasts of the earth, that all the world may know that Israel hath a God.

47 And that all this assembly may know, that the Lord saueh not with sword nor with spear, (for the battell is the Lords) and he wil giue you into our hands.

48 And when the Philistim arose to come and draw neere vnto David, David † hasted and ran to fight against the Philistim.

49 And David put his hand in his bagge, and tooke out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistim in his forehead, that the stone stuck in his forehead, and he fell groueling to the earth.

50 So David † ouercame the Philistim with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistim, and slew him; when David had no sword in his hand.

51 Then David ran, and stood vpon the Philistim, and tooke his sword and drew it out of his sheath, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. So when the Philistims saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Iudah arose, and shouted, and followed after the Philistims, vntill they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Ekron: and the Philistims fell down wounded by the way of Shaaraim, euen to Gath & to Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from pursuing the Philistims, and spoyled their tents.

54 And David tooke the head of the Philistim, and brought it to Ierusalem, and put his armour in his tent.

55 ¶ When Saul saw David goe forth against the Philistim, he said vnto Abner the captaine of his host, Abner, † whose sonne is this yong man? and Abner answered, As thy soule liueth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 Then the King sayd, Enquire thou whose sonne this yong man is.

57 And when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistim, then Abner tooke him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistim in his hand.

58 And Saul sayd to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou yong man? And David answered, I am the sonne of thy seruant Ishai the Bethlehenuite.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The amitie of Ionathen and David. 2 Saul enuierh David for the praye that the women gaue him. 3 Saul would haue slaine David. 4 He promisseth him Merab to wife, but giueth him Michal. 5 David deliuereth to Sauls wo hundredth foreskinsnes of the Philistims. 6 Saul sweareth David seeing that the Lord is with him.

And when hee had made an ende of speaking vnto Saul, the † soule of Ionathen was knit with the soule of David, & Ionathen loued him, as his owne soule.

2 And Saul tooke him that day, and would not let him returne to his fathers house.

3 Then Ionathen and David made a couenant: for hee loued him as his owne soule.

4 And Ionathen put off the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it David, and his garments, euen to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 And David went out whither soeuer Saul sent him, and behaued himselfe † wisely: so that Saul set him ouer the men of warre, and hee was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls seruants.

6 ¶ When they came againe, and David returned from the slaughter of the † Philistim, the women came out of al cities of Israel singing and dancing to meete king Saul, with timbrels, with instruments of ioy, and with rebeckes.

7 And the women † sang by course in their play, and said, * Saul hath slaine his thousand, and David his ten thousand.

8 Therefore Saul was exceeding wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he said, They haue ascribed vnto David ten thousand, and to me they haue ascribed but a thousand, and what can hee haue more saue the kingdome?

9 Wherefore Saul † had an eye on David from that day forward.

10 ¶ And on the morrow the euill spirit of God came vpon Saul, and hee † prophesied in the mids of the house: and David played with his hand like as at other times, and there was a spear in Sauls hand.

11 And Saul tooke the spear, and said, I will smite David through to the wall. But David auoided twise out of his presence.

12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the Lorde was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a captaine ouer a thousand, & he went out and in before the people.

14 And David behaued himselfe wisely in all his wayes: for the Lord was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he was very wise, he was afraid of him.

16 For all Israel and Iudah loued David, because he went out and in before them.

b That I may give thee warning what to doe.

17 ¶ Then Saul said to David, Behold mine eldest daughter Merab: her I will give thee to wife: only be a valiant sonne vnto me, and fight the Lords battels: for Saul thought, Mine hand shall not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philistines shall be vpon him.

18 And David answered Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or the family of my father in Israel, that I should be sonne in law to the King?

19 Howbeit when Merab, Sauls daughter should haue beene giuen to David, she was giuen vnto Adriel a Meholathite to wife.

20 ¶ Then Michal Sauls daughter loued David: and they shewed Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 Therefore Saul said, I will giue him her, that she may be a sinare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day bee my sonne in law in the one of the twaine.

22 And Saul commanded his seruants, Speake with David secretly, & say, Behold the king hath a fauour to thee, and all his seruants loue thee: he how therefore the Kings sonne in law.

23 And Sauls seruants spake these wordes in the eares of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a kings sonne in law, seeing that I am a poore man & of small reputation?

24 And then Sauls seruants brought him word againe, saying, Such words spake David.

25 And Saul said, This will shal ye say to David, The king desireth no dowrie, but an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistines, to bee auenged of the Kings enemies: for Saul thought to make David fall into the hands of the Philistines.

26 And when his seruants tolde David these wordes, it pleased David well, to bee the Kings sonne in law: and the dayes were not expired.

27 Afterward David arose with his men, and went and slew of the Philistines two hundred men: and David brought their foreskinnes, and they gaue them wholly to the King, that hee might be the Kings sonne in law: therefore Saul gaue him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 Then Saul saw, and vnderstood that the Lord was with David, & that Michal the daughter of Saul loued him.

29 Then Saul was more and more afraid of David, and Saul became alway Davids enemy.

30 And when the Princes of the Philistines went forth at their going forth, David behaued himselfe more wisely then all the seruants of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ Michal his wife sauerth him. 18 David compasseth to Samuel. 22 The spirit of prophesie cometh on Saul.

¶ Then Saul spake to Ionathan his sonne, and to all his seruants, that they should kill David: but Ionathan Sauls sonne had a great fauour to David.

2 And Ionathan told David, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed vnto thy selfe vnto the morning, and abide in a secret place, & hide thy selfe.

3 And I will goe out and stand by my father in the field where thou art, and will commune with my father of thee, and I will see what his sayeth, and will tell thee.

4 ¶ And Ionathan spake good of David vnto Saul his father, & said vnto him, Let not the king finne against his seruant, against David: for hee hath not sinned against thee, but his works haue bene to thee very good.

5 For hee did put his life in danger, and slew the Philistines, and the Lord wrought a great saluation for all Israel: thou sawest it, & thou reioycdest: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, and slay David without a cause?

6 Then Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of Ionathan, and Saul & swore, As the Lord liueth, he shall not die.

7 So Ionathan called David, and Ionathan shewed him all those words, & Ionathan brought David to Saul, and hee was in his presence as in times past.

8 ¶ Again the warre began, and David went out and fought with the Philistines, & slew them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him.

9 ¶ And the euil spirit of the Lord was vpon Saul, and he sate in his house hauing his speare in his hand, and David played with his hand.

10 And Saul intended to smite David to the wall with the speare: but hee turned aside out of Sauls presence, & he smote the speare against the wall: but David fled, and escaped the same night.

11 Saul also sent messengers vnto Davids house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal Davids wife told it him, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe this night, to morrow thou shalt be slaine.

12 So Michal let David downe through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 Then Michal tooke an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow stuffed with goats haire vnder the head of it, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sicke.

15 And Saul sent the messengers againe to see David, saying, Bring him to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, an image was in the bed with a pillow of goats haire vnder the head of it.

17 And Saul said vnto Michal, Why hast thou mocked mee so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said vnto me, Let me goe, or els I will kill thee.

18 ¶ So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 But one told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul sent messengers to take David, and when they saw a company of Prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing, as appointed o-uer them, the Spirit of God fell vpon the messengers of Saul, and they prophesied.

21 And when it was tolde Saul, hee sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise: againe Saul sent the third messengers, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he himselfe to Ramah, & came to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And hee went thither, vnto Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God came vpon him also, and hee went prophesying vntill hee came to Naioth in Ramah.

CHAP. XX.

1 Jonathan comforteth Dauid. 3 They renew their league. 33
Saul would have killed Jonathan. 38 Jonathan aduertiseth
Dauid by three arrowes, of his fathers fate.

And Dauid fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What haue
I done? what is mine iniquitie? and what sinne haue I committed before thy father, that hee seeketh my life?

2 And hee sayd vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: behold, my father will doe nothing great nor small, but he will shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? he will not doe it.

3 And Dauid sware againe, and said, Thy father knoweth that I haue found grace in thine eyes: therefore he thinketh, Jonathan shall not know it, lest he be forie: but indeede as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, there is but a step betwene me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan vnto Dauid, Whatsoeuer thy soule requireth, that will I doe vnto thee.

5 And Dauid said vnto Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is the first day of the moneth, and I should sit with the king at meate: but let me goe that I may hide my selfe in the fieldes vnto the third day at euen.

6 If thy father make mention of me, then say, Dauid asked leaue of mee, that he might goe to Beth-lehem to his own citie: for there is a yerely sacrifice for all that familie.

7 And if he say thus, It is wel, thy seruant shall haue peace: but if he be angrie, be sure that wickednesse is concluded of him.

8 So shalt thou shew mercie vnto thy seruant:
for thou hast ioyned thy seruant into a couenant of the Lord with thee, and if there be in me iniquitie, slay thou me: for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan answered, God keepe that from thee: for if I knewe that wickednesse were concluded of my father to come vpon thee, would I not tell it thee?

10 Then said Dauid to Jonathan, Who shall tell mee? how shall I know if thy father answer thee cruelly?

11 And Jonathan said to Dauid, Come and let vs goe out into the fieldes: and they twaine went out into the field.

12 Then Jonathan said to Dauid, O Lord God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers mind to morrow at this time, or within this three daies, & if it be well with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, and shew it thee,

13 The Lord do so and much more vnto Jonathan: but if my father haue minde to doe thee euil, I will shew thee also, and send thee away, that thou maiest goe in peace: and the Lord be with thee as he hath bene with my father.

14 Likewise I require not whiles I liue: for I doubt not but thou wilt shew mee the mercy of the Lord, that I did not.

15 But I require that thou cut not off thy mercie from mine house for euer: no, not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid, euery
one from the earth,

16 So Jonathan made a bond with the house of Dauid, saying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of Dauids enemies.

17 And againe Jonathan sware vnto Dauid, because hee loued him (for hee loued him as his owne soule)

18 Then said Jonathan to him, To morrow is the first day of the moneth: and thou shalt bee looked for, for thy place shall be emptye.

19 Therefore thou shalt hide thy selfe three daies, then thou shalt go downe quickly & come to the place where thou didst hide thy selfe, when this matter was in hand, and shalt remaine by the stone t Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrowes on the side thereof, as though I shot at a marke.

21 And after I will send a boy, saying, Goe seeke the arrowes. If I say vnto the boy, See, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them, & come thou: for it is well with thee, and no hurt, as the Lord liueth.

22 But if I say thus vnto the boy, Behold, the arrowes are beyond thee, goe thy way: for the Lord hath sent thee away.

23 As touching the thing which thou and I haue spoken of, behold, the Lord be between thee and me for euer.

24 So Dauid hid himselfe in the field: and when the first day of the moneth came, the king sate to eate meate.

25 And the king sate, as at other times, vpon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, but Dauids place was emptye.

26 And Saul said nothing that day: for hee thought, Something hath befallen him, though he were cleane, or else because hee was not purified.

27 But on the morrow, which was the second day of the moneth, Dauids place was emptye again: and Saul said vnto Jonathan his sonne, Wherefore commeth not the sonne of Ishai to meate, neither yesterday nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul, Dauid required of me, that he might goe to Beth-lehem.

29 For he said, Let me goe, I pray thee: for our familie offereth a sacrifice in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me: therefore now, if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me goe, I pray thee, & see my brethren: this is the cause that he commeth not vnto the kings table.

30 Then was Saul angry with Jonathan, and said vnto him, Thou sonne of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I know, that thou hast chosen the sonne of Ishai to thy confusion, and to the confusion and shame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the sonne of Ishai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor thy kingdome: wherefore now send and fet him vnto me, for he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul, his father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shal hee die?
what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a speare at him to hit him, whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay Dauid.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eate no meat the second day of the moneth: for he was sory for Dauid, and because his father had reuiled him.

35 On the next morning therefore Jonathan than went out into the field, at the time appointed with David, and a little boy with him.

36 And he said vnto his boy, Run now, seeke the arrowes which I shooce: and as the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrow was that Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

r By these words he admonished David what hee ought to doe.

38 And Jonathan cried after the boy, Make speede, haste and stand not still: and Jonathan's boy gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master.

39 But the boy knew nothing: onely Jonathan and David knew the matter.

s The instruments.

40 Then Jonathan gaue his bow & arrowes vnto the boy that was with him, and said vnto him, Goe carrie them into the cite.

t It seemeth that he had shot on the Northside of the flint, left the boy should haue espied David.

41 ¶ Assoone as the boy was gone, David arose out of a place that was toward the South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himselfe three times: and they kissed one another, and went both twaine, till David exceeded.

u Which othe he calleth in the right verse, the countenance of the Lord.

42 Therefore Jonathan said to David, Goe in peace: that which we haue sworn both of vs in the name of the Lord, saying, The Lord bee betwene me and thee, and betwene my seede and betwene thy seede, let it stand for euer.

43 And hee arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the cite.

CHAP. XXI.

1 David fleeth to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest. 6 He getteth of him the shew bread to satisfy his hunger. 7 Doeg the Edomite was present. 10 David fleeth to King Achish, 13 and there sheweth himselfe mad.

a Where the ark was, and the counsel of the Lord.

¶ Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was astonished at the meeting of David, and said vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

b These infirmities that were in the Saints of God, teach us that none hath his iustice in himselfe, but receiveth it of Gods mercie.

2 And David said to Ahimelech the Priest, The king hath commanded me a certaine thing, and hath said vnto me, Let no man know whereabout I send thee, and what I haue commanded thee: and I haue appointed my seruants to such and such places.

3 Now therefore, if thou hast ought vnder thine hand, giue mee five cakes of bread, or what commeth to hand.

c Exodus 16. 34. Iesus 14. 13. 34.

4 And the Priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread vnder mine hand, but here is hallowed bread, if the young men haue kept themselves, at least from women.

d If they haue not companied with their wines.

5 David then answered the Priest, and said vnto him, Certainly women haue bene separate from vs these two or three dayes since I came out: and the vessels of the young men were holy, though the way were prophane, and how much more then shall every one be sanctified this day in the vessel?

e That is, their bodies.

6 So the Priest gaue him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there, save the shewbread that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was the same day one of the seruants of Saul abiding before the Lord, named Doeg the Edomite, the chiefeft of Saul's herdmen.)

8 And David said vnto Ahimelech, Is there not here vnder thine hand a speare or a sword? for I haue neither brought my sword nor mine harness with mee, because the kings businesse required halfe.

9 And the Priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistin, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapt in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other save that here: and David said, There is none to that, giue it me.

l Is hee meete to bee in a kings house?

CHAP. XXII.

1 David hideth himselfe in a cave. 2 Many that were in trouble came vnto him. 3 Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 18 Saul commaundeth the Priests to be slaine. 20 Abiathar escapeth.

¶ David therefore departed thence, and saved himselfe in the cave of Adullam: and when his brethren & all his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him.

m Which was in the tribe of Iudah, and neere to Beth-lehem.

2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in trouble, and all men that were in debt, and all those that were vexed in minde, and hee was their prince, and there were with him about foure hundred men.

n Or, captaine.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizpeh in Moab, and said vnto the king of Moab, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, till I know what God will doe for mee.

o For there was another so called in Iudah.

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

p For he feared the rage of Saul against his house. q That is, in Mizpeh, which was a strong hold.

5 And the Prophet Gad said vnto David, Abide not in the hold, but depart and goe into the land of Iudah. Then David departed and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 ¶ And Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, and Saul remained in Gibeah vnder a tree in Ramah, hauing his speare in his hand, and all his seruants stood about him.

r That a great bruit went on him.

7 And Saul said vnto his seruants that stood about him, Heare now, ye sonnes of Beniamin, will the sonne of Ishai giue euery one of you fields & vineyards? will hee make you all captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds?

s Yee that are of my tribe and lineage.

8 That all ye haue conspired against me, and there is none that telleth me that my sonne hath made a couenant with the sonne of Ishai? and there is none of you that is forie for me, or sheweth mee, that my sonne hath stirred vp my seruants to lie in wait against mee, as appeareth this day?

t Hereby hee would persuade them that this conspiracie was most horrible, where the sonne conspired against the father, and the seruants against his master.

9 ¶ Then answered Doeg the Edomite, (who was was appointed over the servants of Saul) and said, How the sonne of Ishai, when hee came to Nob, to Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub,

10 Who asked counsell of the Lord for him, and gave him victuals, and he gave him also the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the King sent to call Ahimelech the Priest the sonne of Ahitub, and all his fathers house, to wit, the Priests that were in Nob: and they came all to the King.

12 And Saul sayd, Heare now thou sonne of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 Then Saul sayd vnto him, Why haue yee conspired against me, thou and the son of Ishai, in that thou hast given him victual, and a sword, and hast asked counsell of God for him, that he should rise against me, and lye in waite as appeareth this day?

14 And Ahimelech answered the King, and sayd, Who is so faithfull among all thy servants as David, being also the Kings sonne in law, and goeth at thy commandment, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Then this day first began to aske counsell of God for him? be it farre from me, let not the King impute any thing vnto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, lesse nor more.

16 Then the King sayd, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy fathers house.

17 And the King sayde vnto the 4 sergeants that stood about him, Turne, and slay the Priests of the Lord, because their hand also is with David, and because they know when hee fled, and shewed it not to me. But the servants of the King would not mooue their hands to fall vpon the Priests of the Lord.

18 Then the King sayd to Doeg, Turne thou and fall vpon the Priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ran vpon the Priests, and slew that same day foure score and fise persons, that did weare a linnen Ephod.

19 Also Nob the cite of the Priests smote he with the edge of the sword, both man & woman, both child and suckling, both ox and asse, and sheepe with the edge of the sword.

20 But one of the sonnes of Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub (whose name was Abiathar) escaped and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar shewed David, that Saul had slaine the Lords Priests.

22 And David sayd vnto Abiathar, I knew it the same day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would kill Saul. I am the cause of the death of all the persons of thy fathers house.

23 Abide thou with mee, and feare not: for I heere seeketh my life, shall seeke thy life also: for with me thou shalt be in safegard.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 David took the Philistines from Keilah. 2 David departed from Keilah, and remained in the wilderness of Ziph. 3 Jonathan comforted David. 4 Sauls enterprize is broken in pursuing David.

Then they told David, saying, Beholde, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and spoyle the barres.

2 Therefore David asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the Lord answered David, Go and smite the Philistines and save Keilah,

3 And David and his men said vnto him, See we are afraid here in Judah, how much more if we come to Keilah against the hoste of the Philistines?

4 Then David asked counsell of the Lord againe. And the Lord answered him, & said, Arise, goe downe to Keilah: for I will deliuer the Philistines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, & brought away their cattel, & smote them with a great slaughter: thus David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 (And when Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he brought an Ephod, with him)

7 And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah, and Saul said, God hath deliuered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, seeing hee is come into a cite that hath gates and barres.

8 Then Saul called all the people together to warre, for to goe downe to Keilah, and to besiege David and his men.

9 And David hauing knowledge that Saul imagined mischief against him, said to Abiathar the Priest, Bring the Ephod.

10 Then said David, O Lord God of Israel, thy servant hath heard, that Saul is about to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the lords of Keilah deliuer me vp into his hand? and wil Saul come downe as thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the Lord said, He will come downe.

12 Then said David, Wil the lords of Keilah deliuer me vp, and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliuer thee vp.

13 Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whither they could. And it was told Saul, that David was fled from Keilah, and he left off his journey.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in the holdes, and remained in a mountaine in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God deliuered him not into his hand.

15 And David sawe that Saul was come out for to seeke his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood.

16 And Jonathan Sauls sonne arose and went to David into the wood, and comforted him in God.

17 And said vnto him, Feare not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not finde thee, and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next vnto thee: and also Saul my father knoweth it.

18 So they twaine made a covenant before the Lord: & David did remaine in the wood: but Jonathan went to his house.

19 Then came vp the Ziphims to Saul to Gibeath, saying, Doe not David hide himselfe by vs in holdes, in the wood in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the right side of Ieshimon?

20 Now therefore, O King, come downe according to all that thine heart can desire, and our part shall be to deliuer him into the Kings hands.

21 Then Saul said, Be ye blessed of the Lord: for ye haue had compassion on me.

22 Now I pray you, and prepare yet better: know and see his place where he hath met with who

See then for to know all the secret places where he hideth himselfe, and come ye againe to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and if he be in the land, I will search him out throughout all the thousandes of Iudah.

24 Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul, but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plaine on the right hand of Ieshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seeke him, and they told David: wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wilderness off Maon. And when Saul heard that, he followed after David to the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul and his men were on the one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain: and David made habitation to get from the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men compassed David & his men round about to take them.

27 But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Hattithi: and he came for the Philistines haue invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place, Seja-hammahlecho.

CHAP. XXIII.

And David went thence, and dwelt in the holdes of En-gedi.

2 When Saul was returned from the Philistines, they told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.

3 Then Saul took three thousand choyse men out of Israel, and went to seeke David and his men vpon the rocks, among the wilde goates.

4 And hee came to the sheperdoes, by the way where there was a caue, and Saul went in to doe his reuerent: and David and his men steepe in the inward parts of the caue.

5 And the men of David sayd vnto him, See, the day is come whereof the Lord sayd vnto thee. Behold, I will deliuer thine enemy into thine hand, and thou shalt doe to him as it shall seeme good to thee. Then David arose and cut off the lap of Sauls garment priuily.

6 And afterward David was touched in his heart, because hee had cut off the lap which was on Sauls garment.

7 And he said vnto his men, The Lord keepe mee from doing that thing vnto my master, for the Lord hath anoynted to lay mine hand vpon him, for he is the Anointed of the Lord.

8 So David overcame his seruants with these words, & suffered them not to arise against Saul: for Saul rose vp out of the caue and went away.

9 David also rose after ward, and went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying, O my lord the King. And when Saul looked behinde him, David enclined his face to the earth, and bowed himselfe.

10 And David said to Saul, Wherefore grieuest thou an care to mens wordes, that say, Behold, David seeketh euill against thee?

11 Behold this day thine eyes haue seene that the Lord had deliuered thee this day into mine hand, in the caue, and some bad me kill thee, but

I had compassion on thee, and said, I will not lay mine hand on my master, for he is the Lord. And noynted.

12 Moreover my father, behold, behold, I say, the lap of thy garment in mine hand: for when I cut off the lap of thy garment, I killed thee not: Vnderstand and see, that there is neither euill nor wickednesse in me: neither haue I sinned against thee, yet thou huntest after my sonle to take it.

13 The Lord be iudge betweene thee and me, and the Lord avenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be vpon thee.

14 According as the folde proverbe sayeth, Wickednesse proceedeth from the wicked, but mine hand be not vpon thee.

15 After whom is the King of Israel come out, after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, and after a flea?

16 The Lord therefore be iudge, and iudge betweene thee and me, and let me plead my cause, and I deliue me out of thine hand.

17 When David had made an end of speaking, these wordes to Saul, Saul said, Is this thy voyce? my sonne David? and Saul lift vp his voice, and wept.

18 And he said vnto David, Thou art more righteous then I, for thou hast rendred me good, and I haue rendred thee euill.

19 And thou hast shewed this day, that thou hast dealt well with me: for as much as when the Lord hath closed me in thine hands, thou killedst me not.

20 For who shall doe his enemy, and let him depart free? wherefore the Lord render thee good for that thou hast done vnto me this day.

21 For now behold, I know that thou shalt be King, and that the Kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

22 Swear thou therefore vnto mee by the Lord, that thou wilt not destroy my seed after me, and that thou wilt not abolish my name out of my fathers house.

23 So David swore vnto Saul, and Saul went home: and David and his men went vp vnto the hold.

CHAP. XXV.

Then Samuel died, and all Israel assembled, and mourned for him, and buried him in his owne house at Ramah. And David arose and went downe to the wilderness of Paran.

2 Now in the Maon was a man, who had his habitation in Carmel, & the man was exceeding rich: and he had three thousand sheepe, & a thousand goats, and he was shearing his sheepe in Carmel.

3 The name also of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail, and she was a woman of singular wisdom, and beautifull, but the man was churlish, and euill conditioned; and was of the family of Caleb.

4 And David heard in the wilderness, that Nabal did sheare his sheepe.

5 Therefore David sent teinte yong men, and David said vnto the yong men, Goe vp to Carmel, and see to Nabal, and aske him in my name, how he doeth.

Behold, I have heard, that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds were with vs, and we did them no hurt, neither did they misse any thing all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Aske thy seruants, and they will shewe thee. Wherefore let these young men finde fauour in thine eyes: (for wee come in a good season) giue I pray thee, whatsoeuer commeth to thine hand vnto thy seruants, and to thy sonne Dauid.

9 And when Dauids yong men came, they told Nabal all those words in the name of Dauid, and held their peace.

10 Then Nabal answered Dauids seruants, and sayde, Who is Dauid? and who is the sonne of Ishai? there bee many seruants now a dayes, that breake away euery man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I haue killed for my shearers, and giue it vnto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 So Dauids seruants turned their way, and went againe, and came, and tolde him all those things.

13 And Dauid said vnto his men, Gird euery man his sword about him. And they girded euery man his sword. Dauid also girded his sword. And about foure hundred men went vp after Dauid, and two hundred abode by the cariage.

14 Now one of the seruants told Abigail Nabals wife, saying, Behold, Dauid sent messengers out of the wilderness, to salute our master, and he failed on them.

15 Notwithstanding, the men were very good vnto vs, and we had no displeasure, neither misse we any thing as long as wee were conuersant with them, when we were in the fields.

16 They were as a wall vnto vs both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping sheepe.

17 Now therefore take heed, & see what thou shalt doe: for euill will surely come vpon our master, and vpon all his family: for he is so wicked, that a man cannot speake to him.

18 Then Abigail made haste, and tooke two hundred cakes, and two bottels of wine, and fise sheepe ready dressed, and fise measures of parched corne, and an hundred frailes of raisins, and two hundred offigs, and laded them on asses.

19 Then she said vnto her seruants, Go ye before me: behold, I will come after you: yet see thou told not her husband Nabal.

20 And as she rode on her asse, she came downe by a secret place of the mountaine, and beheld, Dauid and his men came downe against her, and she met them.

21 And Dauid said, In deed I haue kept all in vaine that this fellow had in the wilderness, so that nothing was misse of all that pertained vnto him: for he hath requited me euill for good.

22 So and more also doe God vnto the enemies of Dauid: for surely I will not leaue of all that he hath, by the dawning of the day, any that pissech against a wall.

23 And when Abigail saw Dauid, shee hastened and lighted off her asse, and fell before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground.

24 And fell at his feete, and sayd, Oh, my lord, I haue committed the iniquitie, and I pray thee, let thine handmayd speake to thee, and heare thou the words of thine handmayd.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is, so is hee: Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmayd saw not the yong men of my lord whom thou sentest.

26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth (the Lord, I say, that hath withholden thee from comming to shed blood, and that thine hand should not staine thee) so now thine enemies shall be as Nabal, and they that intend to doe my lord euill.

27 And now, this blessing which thine handmayd hath brought vnto my lord, let it be giuen vnto the yong men that follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgieue the trespass of thine handmayd: for the Lord will make my lord a sure house, because my lord fighteth the battels of the Lord, and none euill hath bene found in thee in all thy life.

29 Yet a man hath risen vp to persecute thee, and to seeke thy soule, but the soule of my lord shall bee bound in the bundle of life with the Lord thy God: and the soule of thine enemies shall God cast out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And when the Lord shall haue done to my lord all the good that he hath promised thee, and shall haue made thee ruler ouer Israel,

31 Then shall it bee no griefe vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lord, that he hath not shed blood causelesse, nor that my lord hath preferred himselfe: and when the Lord shall haue dealt well with my lord, remember thine handmayd.

32 Then Dauid said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me.

33 And blessed be thy counsell, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from comming to shed blood, and that mine hand hath not stained me.

34 For indeede, as the Lord God of Israel liueth, I who hath kept mee backe from hurting thee, except thou haddest halted and met mee, surely there had not bene left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pissech against the wall.

35 Then Dauid receiued of her hand that which she had brought him, and sayd to her, Goe vp in peace to thine house: behold, I haue heard thy voice, and haue granted thy petition.

36 So Abigail came to Nabal, and behelde, hee made a feast in his house, like the feast of a king, and Nabals heart was merry within him, for hee was very drunken: wherefore she tolde him nothing, neither lesse nor more, vntill the morning arose.

37 Then in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabals, his wife told him those words, and his heart died within him, and he was like a stone.

38 And about ten dayes after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

39 Now when Dauid heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord, that hath iudged the cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his seruant from euill: for the Lord hath recompensed the wickednes of Nabal vpon his owne head. 4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: so he sought him more for him.

5 And David said vnto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give mee a place in some other cite of the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy seruant dwell in the head cite of the kingdom with thee?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag: that same day: therefore Ziklag pertaineth vnto the kings of Iudah vnto this day.

7 ¶ And at the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistims, was foure moneths and certaine daies.

8 Then David and his men went vp, and in-uaded the Gethiites, and the Giritites, and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the land from the beginning, from the way, as thou goest to Shur, euen vnto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman aloue, and took sheep, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparell, and returned and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, Where haue yee bene a rouing this day? And David answered, Against the south of Iudah, and against the South of the Ierahmeelites, and against the South of the Kerites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman aloue, to bring them to Gath, saying, Least they should tell on vs, and say, So did David, and so will be his maner all the while that hee dwelleth in the country of the Philistims.

12 And Achish beleued David, saying, Hee hath made his people of Israel vnterly to abhorre him: therefore he shall be my seruant for euer.

CHAP. XXVIII.

3 David hath the chiefe charge promised about Achish, 8 Saul consulteth with a witch, and she causeth him to speake with Samuel, 18 Who doth search his mine.

Now at that time the Philistims assembled their bands and armie to fight with Israel:
therefore Achish said to David, Be sure, thou shalt goe out with me to the battel, thou, and thy men.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy seruant can doe. And Achish said to David, Surely I will make thee keeper of mine head for euer.

3 ¶ Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah his own cite: and Saul had put away the forcerers, and the Soothsayers out of the land.

4 Then the Philistims assembled themselves, and came, and pitched in Shunem: and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the hoste of the Philistims, he was afraid, & his hart was foreastoned.

6 Therefore Saul asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, neither by dreames, nor by Vrim, nor yet by Prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul vnto his seruants, Seeke me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may goe to her, and aske of her. And his seruants said to him, Behold, there is a woman at Endor that hath a familiar spirit.

8 Then Saul changed himselfe, and put on other rayment, and hee went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night:
and he said, I pray thee, conieure vnto mee by the familiar spirit, and bring mee him vp whom

I shall name vnto thee.

9 And the woman said vnto him, Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done: how he hath destroyed the forcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land: wherefore then seekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to dye?

10 And Saul swore to her by the Lord, saying,
As the Lord liueth, no harme shall come to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring vp vnto thee? And he answered, Bring mee vp ¶ Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, shee cried with a loud voyce, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the King said vnto her, Be not afraid:
for what sawest thou? And the woman said vnto
Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

14 Then he said vnto her, What fashion is hee of? And she answered, An olde man cometh vp lapped in a mantel: and Saul knew that it was ¶ Samuel, and he inclined his face to the ground, and bowed himselfe.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted mee, to bring me vp? Then Saul answered, I am in great distresse: for the Philistims make warre against mee, and God is departed from mee, and answereth me no more, neither by Prophets, neither by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest tell me, what I shall doe.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou aske of mee, seeing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemy?

17 Euen the Lord hath done to s him, as hee spake by mine hand: for the Lord will rent the kingdom out of thine hand, & giue it thy neighbour David.

18 Because thou obeydest not the voyce of the Lord, nor executedst his fierce wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lord done this vnto thee this day.

19 Moreover the Lord wil deliuer Israel with thee into the hands of the Philistims: and tomorrow shalt thou and thy sonnes be with me, & the Lord shall giue the hoste of Israel into the hands of the Philistims.

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid because of the words of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.

21 Then the woman came vnto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said vnto him, See, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voyce, and I haue put my soule in mine hand, and haue obeyed thy words which thou saiddest vnto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee hearken thou also vnto the voyce of thine handmaid, and let mee get a morrell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eate and get thee strength, and go on thy journey.

23 But he refused and said, I will not eate: but his seruants and the woman together compelled him, and he obeyed their voyce: so he arose from the earth, and fate on the bed.

24 Now the woman had a fat calfe in the house, and shee hasted, and killed it, and rooke floure and kneaded it, and baked of it a valeauned bread.

1 The Philistines were gathered together with all their armies in Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by the fountaine which is in Isler.

2 And the princes of the Philistines went forth by hundreds and by thousands: but David and his men came behind with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines unto Achish, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who hath bene with me these daies, or these yeeres, and I haue found nothing in him, since he dwelt with mee vnto this day?

4 But the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistines said vnto him, Send this fellow backe that hee may go againe to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not goe downe with vs to battell, lest hee should be an aduersary vnto vs: for wherevise should hee obtaine the battell of his master? Should hee bee with the heads of these men?

5 Is not this David, of whom they sing in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousand, and Da-uid his ten thousand?

6 Then Achish called David, and said vnto him, As the Lord liueth, thou hast bene vp-right and good in my sight, when thou went-est out and in with me in the hoste, neither haue
I found euill with thee, since thou camest to mee vnto this day: but the princes doe not fauour
thee.

7 Wherefore now returne, and goe in peace, that thou displease not the princes of the Philistines.

8 And David said vnto Achish, But what haue I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant as long as I haue bene with thee vnto this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my Lord the King?

9 And Achish answered, and said to David, I know thou pleasest mee, as an Angel of God: but the princes of the Philistines haue said, Let him not goe vp with vs to battell.

10 Wherefore now rise vp early in the morning with thy masters servants that are come with thee: and when ye be vp early, as soone as ye haue light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose vp early to depart in the morning, and to returne into the land of the Philistines: and the Philistines went vp to Israel.

CHAP. XXX

1 The Amalekites burnt Ziklag. 2 David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon. 3 The Philistines came against David, and hee fought with them. 4 David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken: also David rescued his two wiues.

5 When David and his men were come to Ziklag the third day, the Amalekites had invaded vpon the South, even vnto Ziklag, and had smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire.

6 And had taken the women that were there in prisoners, both small and great, and slew not a man, but carried them away, and went their waies.

7 So David and his men came to the citie,
and beheld it was burnt with fire, & their wiues, and their sons and their daughters were taken prisoners.

8 Then David and the people that was with him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntill they could weepe no more.

9 Davids two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahimelech the Izzelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

10 And David was in great sorow for the people: he intended to stone him, because the people of all the people were vexed, every man for his sonnes and for his daughters: but David comforted himselfe in the Lord his God.

11 And David said vnto Abiathar the Priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to Da-uid.

12 Then David asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I follow after this company? Shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Follow:
for thou shalt surely overtake them, and recouer all.

13 So David and the sixe hundred men that were with him, went, & came to the river Besor, where a part of them abode:

14 But David and foure hundred men followed (for two hundred abode behind being to weary to goe ouer the river Besor).

15 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, & gaue him bread, and hee did eat, and they gaue him water to drinke.

16 Also they gaue him a few figges, and two clusters of raisins: and when hee had eaten, his spirit came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunke any water in three daies, and three nights.

17 And David said vnto him, To whome belongest thou? and whence art thou? And hee said, I am a yong man of Egypt, and servant to an Amalekite: and my master left mee three daies agoe because I fell sicke.

18 We turned vpon the South of Chereth, and vpon the coast belonging to Iudah, and vpon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

19 And David said vnto him, Canst thou bring me to this company? And he said, I sweare vnto thee by God, that thou wilt neither kil mee, nor deliuer mee into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee to this company.

20 And when he had brought him thither, behold, they lay scattered abroad vpon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dauncing, because of all the great pray that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Iudah.

21 And David smote them from the twilight even vnto the evening of the next morowe, so that there escaped not a man of them, save foure hundred yong men, which rode vpon camels, and fled.

22 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken: also David rescued his two wiues.

23 And they lacked nothing, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of all that they had taken away: David recovered them all.

20 David also took all the sheep, and the oxen, and they drew them before his cartell, and said, This is Dauid's pray.

21 ¶ And Dauid came to the two hundredth men that were too weary for to follow Da-uid: whom they had made also to abide at the river Besor, and they came to meete Dauid, and to meete the people that were with him: so when Dauid came neere to the people, hee saluted them.

22 Then answered all the euill and wicked of the men that went with Dauid, and saide, Because they went not with vs, therefore will wee giue them none of the praye that wee haue reco-uered, sine to every man his wife and his children: therefore let them cary them away and depart.

23 Then saide Dauid, Yee shall not doe so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath giuen vs, who hath preserved vs, and deliue-red the company that came against vs, into our hands.

24 For who will obey you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth downe to the battell, so shall his part be, that carieth by the stuffe: they shall part alike.

25 So from that day forward hee made it a statute and a law in Israel vntil this day.

26 ¶ When Dauid therefore came to Zik-lag, hee sent of the praye vnto the Elders of Lu-dah and to his friends, saying, See, there is a blessing for you of the spoile of the enemies of the Lord.

27 He sent to them of Beth-el, and to them of South Ramoth, and to them of Iattir,

28 And to them of Aroer, and to them of Siphmoth, and to them of Eshtemoa,

29 And to them of Rachal, and to them of the cities of the Ierahmeelites, and to them of the cities of the Kenites,

30 And to them of Hormah, and to them of Chor-ashan, and to them of Athach,

31 And to them of Hebron, and to all the places where Dauid and his men had haunted.

CHAP. XXXI.

¶ Saul and his army were slain in the battell, and the women of Israel made a wailing, which was called after the name of the day, saying, The day of the wailing.

Now the Philistims fought against Israel, & the men of Israel fled away from the Philistims, and they fell downe // wounded in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistims pressed sore vpon Saul and his sonnes, and slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua Sauls sonne.

3 And when the battell went fore against Saul, the archers and bow men // hit him, and he was fore // wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul vnto his armour bearer, Draw out thy sword, and thrust mee through therewith, lest the vncircumcised come and thrust me through and mocke me: but his armour bearer would not, for he was fore afraid. Therefore Saul tooke a sword and fell vpon it.

5 And when his armour bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise vpon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died and his three sonnes, and his armour bearer, and all his men that same day together.

7 ¶ And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they of the other side of Iordan saw that the men of Israel were put to flight, and that Saul and his sonnes were dead, then they left the cities, and ran away: and the Philistims came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And on the morrow when the Philistims were come to spoyle them that were slaine, they found Saul and his three sonnes lying in mount Gilboa,

9 And they cut off his head, & stripped him out of his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistims on euery side, that they should publish it in the temple of their idols, & among the people.

10 And they laid vp his armour in the house of Achish, but they hanged vp his body on the wall of Beth-shan.

11 ¶ When the inhabitants of Iubeth Gilead heard, what the Philistims had done to Saul,

12 Then they arose (as many as were strong men) and went all night, and tooke the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sonnes from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Iabesh, and burnt them there.

13 And tooke their bones, and buried them

THE SECOND BOOKE OF Samuel.

THE ARGVMENT.

His booke and the former beare the title of Samuel, because they containe the conception, naturitie and the whole course of his life, and also the liues and actes of two Kings, to wit, of Saul and Dauid whom the angieled and consecrated King by the ordinance of God. And as the first booke containeth those things which God brought to passe among this people vnder the gouernment of Samuel and Saul, so this second booke declareth the noble actes of Dauid, after the death of Saul, when he beganne to reigne, vnto the end of his kingdome: and how the same by him was wonderfully augmented: also his great troubles and dangers, which he sustained both within his house and without: what horrible and dangerous insurrections, uprores and treasons were wrought against him, partly by false counsellors, fained friends and flatterers, and partly by some of his owne children and people: and how by Gods assistance he ouercame all difficulties, and enioyed his kingdome in rest and peace. In the person of Dauid the Scripture setteth forth Christ Iesu the chiefe King, whom Dauid according to the Iesbo, and was persecuted on euery side with outward and inward enemies, as well in his owne person, as in his members, but at length hee overcame all his enemies, and giueth his Church victorie against all power both spirittual and temporall: and so reigneth with them, King for euer.

For the death of Saul, when David was told from the Amalekites, and had been two days in the wilderness.

Behold, a man came the third day out of the hills from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head, and when he came to David, he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

Then David said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the host of Israel I am escaped.

And David said unto him, What is done? I pray thee, tell me. Then he said, that the people is fled from the battell, and many of the people are overthrown, and dead, and also Saul and Jonathan his sonne are dead.

And David said unto the young man that told it him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his sonne be dead?

Then the young man told him, answered, As I came to mount Gilboa, beholde, still leaned upon his spear, and loe, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

And when he looked backe, he saw the sword called me. And I answered, Here am I.

And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

Then said he unto me, I pray thee, come upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me because my life is yet whole in me.

So I came upon him, and flew him: and because I was sure that he could not live, after that he had fallen, Iooke me downe that way upon his head, and the bridle that was on his arme, and brought them both unto my lord.

Then David took hold on his clothes, and cut them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

And they mourned & wept, and called vntill men for Saul and for Jonathan his sonne, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel, because they were slaine with the sword.

Afterward David said unto the young man that told it him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the sonne of a stranger an Amalekite.

And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid, to put forth thine hand to destroy the Anoynted of the Lord?

Then David called one of his yong men, and sayd, Goe nere, and fall vpon him. And he smote him that he died.

Then said David vnto him, Thy blood be vpon thine owne head: for thine owne mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slaine the Lord's Anoynted.

Then David mourned with this lamentation on Saul, and on Jonathan his sonne.

Also he had them teach the children of Iudah to choore, as it is written in the booke of I Iaher.

O noble Israel! He is slaine vpon thy hills: how are the mighty ones overthrown!

He is not in Gath, nor pabbin in the houses of Askelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines ioyce, lest the daughters of the other dew nor ruine, nor let the fieldes of offeringe for where the shield of the mighty is cast downe, the shield of Saul, as though he had not bene anoynted with oyle.

Saul and Jonathan were truly and pleasantly in their liues, and in their death they were not diuided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger then lions.

His daughters also shall weepe for Saul, which clothed you in skink, which pleades, & changed ornaments of gold vpon your apparel.

How wast thou the mightiest slaine in the mids of the battell! O Jonathan; thou wast slaine in thine high places.

Woe is me for thee, my brother Jonathan: very kinde hast thou bene vnto mee: thy love to mee was wonderful, passing the love of women: how art thou the mightiest overthrown, and the weapons of warre destroyed.

CHAP. II.

David is anoynted King in Hebron. Abner waileth for Saul, and the buriall of Jonathan.

After this David asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I go vnto any of the cities of Iudah? And the Lord said vnto him, Goe vp: And David say, Which still I goe? He then answered, Vnto Hebron.

So David went vp thither, and his two wives also, Abigail the Iezreelit, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelit.

And David brought vp the men that were with him, every man with his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

Then the men of Iudah came, and there they anoynted David King, over the house of Iudah: And they told David, saying, that the men of Iuben Ghed turned Saul.

And David sent messengers vnto the men of Iabesh Gilead, and sayde vnto them, Blessed are ye of the Lord: that ye haue shewed such kindeste vnto your lord Saul, that you haue buried him.

Therefore now the Lord shew mercie and truth vnto you: and I will recompense you this benefit, because ye haue done this thing.

Therefore now let your hands be strong, and be ye valiant: albeit your master Saul be dead, yet neuer thelesse the house of Iudah hath anoynted me King over them.

But Abner the sonne of Ner that was captain of Sauls host, tooketh Ithoboth the sonne of Saul, and brought him to Mahanaim.

And Ithoboth King ouer Gilead, and ouer the Asirites, and ouer Szed and ouer Ephraim, and ouer Benjamin, and ouer all Iudah: Ithoboth reigned in Israel: and his house was fourtie yeere, when he began to reigne ouer Israel, & reigned two yeere: but the house of Iudah followed David.

And the time which David reigned in Iubron ouer the house of Iudah, was seven yeere, and six moneths.

And Abner the sonne of Ner, and the seruants of Ithoboth the sonne of Saul went out of Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah, and the servants of Dauid went out and met one another by the poole of Gibeon: and they fate downe, the one on the one side of the poole, and the other on the other side of the poole.

14 Then Abner said to Ioab, Let the yong men now arise, and ^b play before vs. And Ioab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went ouer twelue of Benjamin by number, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul, and twelue of the servants of Dauid.

16 And euery one caught his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellowes side, so they fell downe together: wherefore the place was called ^{||} Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And the battell was exceeding fore that same day: for Abner and the men of Israel ^a fell before the seruants of Dauid.

18 And there were three sonnes of Zeruiah there, Ioab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was as light on foot as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel followed after Abner, and in going he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, Yea.

21 Then Abner said, Turne thee either to the right hand or to the left, and take one of the yong men, and take thee his weapons: but Asahel would not depart from him.

22 And Abner said to Asahel, Depart from mee: wherefore shoulde I smite thee to the ground? how then should I be able to hold vp my face to Ioab thy brother?

23 And when hee would not depart, Abner with the hinder ende of the speare smote him vnder the ^m fifth rib, that the speare came out behind him: and hee fell downe there, and died in his place. And as many as came to the place where Asahel fell downe and died, stood still.

24 Ioab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sunne went downe when they were come to the hill Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and were on an heape, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Ioab, and said, Shall the sword deuoure for euer? knowest thou not, that it will be bitternesse in the latter end? how long then shall it bee, or thou bid the people returne from following their brethren?

27 And Ioab said, As God liueth, if thou haddest not ^o spoken, surely euery in the morning the people had departed euery one backe from his brother.

28 ¶ So Ioab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plaine, and went ouer Iordan, and passed through all Bithon til they came ^{||} to Mahanaim.

30 Ioab also returned backe from Abner: and when hee had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Dauids seruants nineteene men, and Asahel.

31 But the seruants of Dauid had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abners men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they tooke vp Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem: and Ioab and his men went all night, and when they came to Hebron, the day arose.

CHAP. III.

1 Long warre betwene the houses of Saul and Dauid. 2 The children of Dauid in Hebron. 3 Abner turneth to Dauid. 4 Ioab killeth him.

There was then a long warre betwene the house of Saul and the house of Dauid: but Dauid waxed stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker.

2 ¶ And vnto Dauid were children borne in Hebron: and his eldest sonne was Amnon of Ahinoam the Izreelite.

3 And his second, was ^b Chileab of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third, Absalom the sonne of Maachah the daughter of Talmai the king of Geshur.

4 And the fourth, Adonijah the sonne of Haggith, and the fifth, Shephatiah the sonne of Abital.

5 And the sixth, Ithream by Eglah Dauids wife: these were borne to Dauid in ^c Hebron.

6 ¶ Now while there was war betwene the house of Saul & the house of Dauid, Abner made all his power for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And ^d Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in to my fathers concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I a dogs head, which against Iudah do shew mercy this day vnto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his neighbors, and haue not deliuered thee into the hand of Dauid, that thou chargest mee this day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 ¶ So doe God to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath sworn to Dauid, euen so I doe to him.

11 And hee durst no more answer to Abner: for hee feared him.

12 ¶ Then Abner sent messengers to Dauid ^{||} on this behalfe, saying, Whose is the land? who should also say, Make couenant with mee, and behold, mine hand shall be with thee, to bring all Israel vnto thee.

13 Who said, Well, I will make a couenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou see not my face except thou bring Michal Sauls daughter when thou comest to see me.

CHAP. V.

3 Dauid is made King ouer all Israel. 7 Hee taketh the fort of Zion. 19 He taketh counsel of the Lord, 23 And succeeth the Philistims twice.

Then came all the tribes of Israel to Dauid vnto Hebron, and said thus, Beholde, we are thy bones and thy flesh.

2 And in time past when Saul was our King, thou leddest Israel in and out: and the Lord hath said to thee, * Thou shalt feede my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain ouer Israel.

3 So all the Elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron: and King Dauid made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord, and they anoynted Dauid King ouer Israel.

4 ¶ Dauid was thirtie yeere olde when he began to reigne: and he reigned fortie yeere.

5 In Hebron he reigned ouer Iudah * seuen yeere, and fixe moneths: and in Ierusalem hee reigned thirtie and three yeeres ouer all Israel & Iudah.

6 ¶ The King also and his men went to Ierusalem vnto the Iebusites, the inhabitants of the land: who spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take away the * blinde and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking that Dauid coulde not comethither.

7 But Dauid tooke the fort of Zion: this is the citie of Dauid.

8 Now Dauid had said the same day, Whosoever smiteth the Iebusites, and getteth vp to the gutters and smiteth the lame and blinde which Dauids soule hateth, I will prefferre him: * therefore they sayd, The blinde and the lame shall not come into that house.

9 So Dauid dwelt in that fort, and called it the citie of Dauid, and Dauid built round about it, from * Millo, and inward.

10 And Dauid prospered and grewe: for the Lord God of hostes was with him.

11 ¶ Hiram also King of Tyrus sent messengers to Dauid and cedar trees, and carpenters, & masons for walles: and they built Dauid an house.

12 Then Dauid knewe that the Lord had stablished him King ouer Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdome for his people Israels sake.

13 And Dauid tooke him moe * concybins and wines out of Ierusalem, after hee was come from Hebron, and moe sonnes and daughters were borne to Dauid.

14 * And these be the names of the sonnes, that were borne vnto him in Ierusalem, Shammua, & Shobab, and Nathan, and Salomon, 15 And Ithar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Iaphia.

16 And Elifhama, and Eliada, and Eliphale.

17 ¶ But when the Philistims heard that they had annoynted Dauid King ouer Israel, all the Philistims came vp to seeke Dauid: and when Dauid heard, he went downe to a fort.

18 But the Philistims came, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

19 Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe vp to the Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into mine hands? And the Lord answered Dauid, Goe vp: for I will doubtlesse deliuer the Philistims into thine hands.

20 ¶ Then Dauid came to Baal-perazim, and smote them there, & said, The Lord hath diuided mine enemies asunder before me, as waters be diuided asunder: therefore he called the name of that place, || Baal-perazim.

21 And there they left their images, & Dauid and his men * burnt them.

22 Again the Philistims came vp, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, he answered, Thou shalt not goe vp, but turne about behinde them, and come upon them ouer against the mulberie trees.

24 And when thou hearest the noise of one going in the tops of the mulberie trees, then remove: for then shall the Lord goe out before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistims.

25 Then Dauid did so as the Lord had commanded him, & smote the Philistims from Geba, vntill thou come to * Gazer.

CHAP. VI.

3 The Arke is brought forth of the house of Abinadab. 7 Uzzah is stricken, and dieth. 14 Dauid danceth before it, 18 And is therefore despised of his wife Michah.

Gain Dauid gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, * thirtie thousand,

2 * And Dauid arose, and went with all the people that were with him from * Baale of Iudah, to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whose Name is called by the Name of the Lorde of hostes, that dwelleth vpon it betwene the Cherubims.

3 And they put the Arke of God vpon a new cart, & brought it out of the house of Abinadab, that was in * Gibeah. And Vzzah and Ahio the sonnes of Abinadab did driue the new cart.

4 And when they brought the Arke of God out of the house of * Abinadab, that was at Gibeah, Ahio went before the Arke,

5 And Dauid & all the house of Israel played before the Lord on all instruments made of firre, and on harpes, and on psalteries, and on timbrels and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 ¶ And when they came to Nachons threshing floore, Vzzah put his hand to the Arke of God, and held it: for the oxen did shake it.

7 And the Lord was very wroth with Vzzah, and God * smote him in the same place for his fault, and there he died by the Arke of God.

8 And Dauid was displeased because the Lord had * smitten Vzzah: and he called the name of the place, || Perez-Vzzah vntill this day.

9 Therefore Dauid that day feared the Lorde, and sayd, How shall the Arke of the Lord come to me?

10 So Dauid would not bring the Arke of the Lord vnto him into the citie of Dauid, but Dauid carried it into the house of Obed-edom * a Gittite.

therefore David went and brought the Arke of God from the house of Obad-edom, into the city of David with gladnesse.

13 And when they that bare the Arke of the Lord had gone sixe paces, he offered an ox, and a fat beaft.

14 And David danced before the Lord with all his might, & was girded with a linen Ephod.

15 So David & all the house of Israel brought the Arke of the Lord with shouting, and found of trumpet.

16 And as the Arke of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal Sauls daughter looked through a window, and sawe King David leape, and dance before the Lord, and she despised him in her heart.

17 And when they had brought in the Arke of the Lord, they set it in his place, in the mids of the Tabernacle: that David had pitched for it:
then David offered burnt offerings, and peace offerings before the Lord.

18 And also as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of the Lord of hostes,

19 And gave among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, aswell to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a bogell of wine: so all the people departed every one to his house.

20 ¶ Then David returned to bless his house,
& Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, O how glorious was the King of Israel this day, which was vnconquered to day in the eyes of the maidens of his seruants, as if foole vncouerech him selfe!

21 Then David sayd vnto Michal, It was before the Lord, which chose me rather then thy father, and alhis house, and commaunded me to be ruler over the people of the Lord, ouer Israel: and therefore will I play before the Lord.

22 And will yet be more vile then thus, and will be low in mine owne sight, and of the very same mayd seruance, which thou hast spoken of, shall I be had in honour.

23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no childe vnto the day of her death.

CHAP. VII.

David would builde God an house; but is for-bidden by the Prophet Nathan. 2. God punisheth David in mids of his house.
3. His glorious continuance of his kingdom and poster-ities.

¶ Forward when the King sat in his house,
& the Lord had given him rest round about from all his enemies.

2 The King saide vnto Nathan the Prophet, Behold, now I dwell in an house of cedar trees, and the Arke of God remaineth within the cur-taines.

3 Then Nathan said vnto the King, Goe, and doe all that is in thine heart: for the Lord is with thee.

4 And the same night the word of the Lord came vnto Nathan, saying,

5 Goe and tell my seruant David, Thus saith the Lord, Shalt thou build mee an house for my dwelling?

6 For I have dwelt in no house since the time that I brought the children of Israel out of Egypt vnto this day, but have walked in a tent and Tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Israel, spake I one word with any of the tribes of Israel when I comanded the Iudges, to fede my people Israel? or said I,
Why build ye not me an house of cedar trees?

8 Now therefore so say vnto my seruant Da-uid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I tooke thee from the sheepe-coate following the sheepe, that thou mightest bee ruler over my people, ouer Israel:

9 And I was with thee wherefoeuer thou hast walked, and haue destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a great name, like vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Also I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and moue no more, neither shall wicked people trouble them any more as be-foretime.

11 And since the time that I set Iudges ouer my people of Israel, and I wil giue thee rest from all thine enemies: also the Lord telleth thee, that he will make thee an house.

12 And when thy daies be fulfilled, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and I will set vp thy seede after thee, which shall procede out of thy body, and will stablish his kingdom.

13 Hee shall builde an house for my Name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for euer.

14 I will be his father, and he shall bee my sonne: and if he sin, I will chasten him with the rod of men, & with the plagues of the children of men.

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I tooke it from Saul whom I haue pur-away before thee.

16 And thine house shall be stablished, and thy kingdome for euer before thee, even thy throne shall be stablished for euer.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, Nathan spake thus vnto David.

18 ¶ Then King David went in, and sate before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord God, therefore thou hast spoken also of thy seruants house for a great while: but doeth this appertaine to man, O Lord God?

20 And what can David say more vnto thee?
for thou, Lord God, knowest thy seruant.

21 For thy words sake, and according to thine owne heart hast thou done all these great things, to make them knowne vnto thy seruant.

22 Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares.

23 And what one people in the earth is like thy people, like Israel? whose God went and redeemed them to himselfe, that they might be his people, and that he might make him a name, and do for you great things, & terrible for thy land, O Lord, even for thy people, whom thou rede-medst to thee out of Egypt, from the nations, & their gods?

24 For thou hast ordeined to thy selfe thy

25 Now therefore, O Lord God, confirme for ever the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and his house, and doe as thou hast said.

CHAP. VIII.

1 David ouercometh the Philistims, and other strange nations, and maketh them tributaries to Israel.

After this now, David smote the Philistims and subdued them, and David tooke the bridle of bondage out of the hand of the Philistims.

2 And hee smote Moab, and measured them with a cord, and cast them downe to the ground: he measured them with two cords to put them to death, and with one full cord to keepe them alive: so became the Moabites Davids seruants, and brought gifts.

3 David smote also Hadadezer the sonne of Rehob king of Zobah, as he went to recouer his border at the riuier Euphrates.

4 And David tooke of them a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen, and David destroyed all the charets, but hee reserued an hundred charets of them.

5 Then came the Aramites of Dammelek to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, but David slew of the Aramites two and twentie thousand men.

6 And David put a garison in Aram of Dammelek: and the Aramites became seruants to David, and brought gifts. And the Lord saued David wheresoeuer he went.

7 And David tooke the shields of golde that belonged to the seruantes of Hadadezer, and brought them to Ierusalem.

8 And out of Bethah, and Berothai (cities of Hadadezer) king David brought exceeding much brasse.

9 Then Toi king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the hoste of Hadadezer,

10 Therefore Toi sent Ioram his sonne vnto king David, to salute him, and to reioyce with him because hee had fought against Hadadezer, and beaten him (for Hadadezer had warre with Toi) who brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brasse.

11 And king David did dedicate them vnto the Lord with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all the nations, which he had subdued:

12 Of Aram, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistims, and of Amalek, and of the spoyle of Hadadezer the sonne of Rehob king of Zobah.

23 So David gave a name after that hee returned, and had slaine of the Aramites in the valley of salt eightene thousand men.

24 And he put a garison in Edom: throughout all Edom put he souldiers, and all they of Edom became Davids seruants: and the Lord kept David whithersoever he went.

25 Thus David reigned ouer all Israel, & executed iudgement and iustice vnto all his people.

26 And Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah was ouer the hoste, and Ioshaphat the sonne of Ahilud was Recorder.

27 And Zadok the sonne of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the sonne of Abiathar were the Priestes, and Seraiah the Scribe.

28 And Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and Davids sonnes were chiefe rulers.

CHAP. IX.

9 David restoreth all the lands of Saul to Mephibosheth the sonne of Jonathan. 10 He appointeth Ziba to see to the profit of his lands.

And David said, Is there yet any man left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him mercie for Jonathans sake?

2 And there was of the household of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, & when they had called him vnto David, the King said vnto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, I thy servant am he.

3 Then the king said, Remaineth there yet none of the house of Saul, on whom I may shew the mercie of God? Ziba then answered the King, Jonathan hath yet a sonne, I am of his seete.

4 Then the King sayde vnto him, Where is he? And Ziba said vnto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the sonne of Ammiel of Lo-debar.

5 Then king David sent, and tooke him out of the house of Machir the sonne of Ammiel of Lo-debar.

6 Now when Mephibosheth the sonne of Jonathan, the sonne of Saul was come vnto David, he fell on his face, and did reuerence. And David said, Mephibosheth? And hee answered, Behold thy servant.

7 Then David said vnto him, Feare not: for I will surely shew thee kindnes for Jonathan thy fathers sake, and will restore thee all the fieldes of Saul thy father, and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himselfe, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest looke vpon such a dead dogge as I am?

9 Then the king called Ziba Davids servant, and said vnto him, I haue giuen vnto thy masters sonne all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore and thy sonnes and thy seruants shall till the land for him, and bring in that thy masters sonne may haue foode to eate. And Mephibosheth thy masters sonne shall eate bread alway at my table (now Ziba had fifteene sonnes and twenty seruants.)

11 Then said Ziba vnto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant doe, that Mephibosheth may eat at my table as one of thy kings sons.

12 Mephibosheth also had a young sonne named Micha, and all that dwelled in the house of Ziba were seruants vnto Mephibosheth.

13 And Mephibosheth dwelt in Ierusalem: for he

CHAP. X.

The messengers of Dauid are continually entreated of the king of Ammon. 7. Ioab is sent against the Ammonites.

1. Chron. 19. 2.

After this the King of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his souse reigned in his stead.

a The children of God are not vniuersal of a bene- fice received.

Then sayde Dauid, I will shew kindeste vnto Hanun the sonne of Nahath, as his father shewed kindeste vnto me. And Dauid sent his seruants to comfort him for his father. So Dauids seruants came into the lande of the children of Ammon.

7. 2. Chron. 19. 2.

And the princes of the children of Ammon said vnto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that Dauid doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? hath not Dauid rather sent his seruants vnto thee, to search the city, and to spie it out, and to overthrow it?

b Their arrogant malice would not suffer them to see the simplicitie of Dauids heart: therefore their counsell turned to the destruction of their equiuitie.

Wherefore Hanun tooke Dauids seruants, and shaued off the halfe of their beard, and cut off their garments in the middle, euen to their buttocks, and sent them away.

When it was tolde vnto Dauid, he sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the king said, Tary at Iericho, vntill your beards be growen, then returne.

c That they had deferred Dauids displeasure, for the iniury done to his ambassadors, 10. 7. Syria.

And when the children of Ammon saw that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Aramites of the house of Rehob, and the Aramites of Zob, twentie thousand footemen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelue thousand men.

And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Ioab, and all the hoste of the strong men.

d These were diuers parts of the kingdom of Syria, whereby appeareth that the Syrians feared where they might have entertainment as now the Switzers doe.

And the children of Ammon came out and put their armie in aray at the entring in of the gate, and the Aramites of Zob, and of Rehob, and of Ish-tob, & of Maacah were by themselves in the field.

When Ioab saw that the front of the battell was against him before and behind, hee chose of all the choise of Israel, and put them in aray against the Aramites.

And the rest of the people, he deliuered into the hand of Abisai his brother, that hee might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.

And he sayd, If the Aramites bee stronger then I, thou shalt helpe me: and if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I wil come and succour thee.

e Here is declared wherefore warre ought to be undertaken for the defence of true religion and Gods people.

Be strong and let vs bee valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord doe that which is good in his eyes.

Then Ioab, and the people that was with him, joyned in battell with the Aramites, who fled before him.

And when the children of Ammon saw that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abisai, and entred into the cite. So Ioab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Ierusalem.

f Hee made more liberally then he was wont to doe, thinking hereby he would have slien by his wife.

And when the Aramites saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered them together.

And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Aramites that were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, and Shobach the captaine of the hoste of Hadarezer was before them.

When it was shewed Dauid, then he gathered all Israel together, and passed ouer Iorden, and came to Helam: and the Aramites set themselves in aray against Dauid, & fought with him.

f Meaning, the greatest part.

And the Aramites fled before Israel: and Dauid destroyed seven hundred chariets of the Aramites: and fortie thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captaine of his hoste, who died there.

g Which were the chiefest and most principal: for in all he destroyed 7000, as 1. Chron. 19. 18. or the soldiers which were in 7000 chariets.

And when all the kings that were seruants to Hadarezer, saw that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and serued them. And the Aramites feared to helpe the children of Ammon any more.

CHAP. XI.

The king of Rabba is besieged. 4. Dauid committeth adultery. 27. Uriah is slain. 27. Dauid marrieth Bathsheba.

And when the yeere was expired in the time when kings goe forth to battell, Dauid sent Ioab, and his seruants with him, and all Israel, who destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabba: but Dauid remained in Ierusalem.

a They were following about the spring time. 1. Chron. 10. 1.

And when it was evening tide, Dauid arose out of his bed, and walked vpon the rooffe of the kings palace: and from the rooffe hee saw a woman washing herselfe: and the woman was very beautifull to looke vpon.

b Whereupon hee vied to rest at alter noone, as was read of Ish-bosheth, Chap. 4. 7.

And Dauid sent and inquired what woman it was: and one said, Is not this Bath-sheba the daughter of Eliam, wife to Uriah the Hittite?

c Who was not an Israélite borne, but converted to the true religion. 2. Sam. 11. 19. and 18. 19.

Then Dauid sent messengers, and tooke her away: and shee came vnto him and he lay with her: (now shee was purified from her vncleanesse) and she returned vnto her house.

And the woman conceived: therefore shee sent and told Dauid, and said, I am with child.

d Fearing lest she should be stoned according to the Law.

Then Dauid sent to Ioab, saying, Send mee Uriah the Hittite. And Ioab sent Uriah to Dauid.

And when Uriah came vnto him, Dauid demanded him how Ioab did, and how the people fared, and how the warre prospered.

Afterward Dauid sayde to Uriah, Goe downe to thine house, and wash thy feete. So Uriah departed out of the kings palace, and the king sent a present after him.

e Dauid thought that if Uriah lay with his wife, his fault might be cloaked.

But Uriah slept at the doore of the kings palace with all the seruants of his lord, and went not downe to his house.

Then they told Dauid, saying, Uriah went not downe to his house: and Dauid sayd vnto Uriah, Commest thou not from thy iourney? why didst thou not goe downe to thine house?

Then Uriah answered Dauid, The Arke and Israel, and Iudah dwell in tents: and my lord Ioab & the seruants of my lord abide in the open fields: shal I then go into mine house to eate and drinke, and lie with my wife? by thy life, and by the life of thy soule, I will not doe this thing.

f Hereby God would touch Dauids conscience, that seeing the fidelitie & religion of his seruant, he would declare himselfe so farr from full of God, and iniurious to his seruant.

Then Dauid said vnto Uriah, Tary yet this day, and to morow I will send thee away. So Uriah abode in Ierusalem that day, and the morow,

Then Dauid called him, and hee did eate and drinke before him, & he made him a drunke: and at enen he went out to lie on his couch with the seruants of his lord, but went not downe to his house.

g Hee made him drinke more liberally then he was wont to doe, thinking hereby he would have slien by his wife.

And on the morow Dauid wrote a letter to Ioab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah, 27 So when the mourning was past, David sent and tooke her into his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a sonne: but the thing that David had done, † displeased the Lord.

5 Then † Dauid was exceeding wroth with the man, and said vnto Nathan, As the Lord liueth, 21 Then^m said his seruants vnto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weepe for the childe while it was aliue, but when the child was dead, thou didst rise vp. and eate meate.

in As they which many things to the sobs and tears of the faithfull.

32 And hee said, While the childe was yet alive, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will haue mercy on me, that the child may liue?

33 But now being dead, wherefore should I now fast? Can I bring him againe any more? I shall goe to him, but he shall not returne to mee.

34 ¶ And Dauid comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in vnto her, and lay with her, and she bare a sonne, and hee called his name Salomon: also the Lord loued him.

35 For the Lord had sent ¶ by Nathan the Prophet: therefore hee called his name Iedidiah, because the Lord loued him.

36 ¶ Then Ioab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and tooke the ¶ citie of the kingdome.

37 Therefore Ioab sent messengers to Dauid, saying, I haue fought against Rabbah, and haue taken the citie of waters.

38 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, & besiege the citie, that thou maiest take it, lest ¶ the victorie be attributed to me.

39 So Dauid gathered all the people together, and went against Rabbah, and besieged it, and tooke it.

40 ¶ And hee tooke their kings crowne from his head, (which weighed a talent of gold, with precious stones) and it was ¶ on Dauids head: and hee brought away the spoile of the citie in exceeding great abundance.

41 And hee caried away the people that was therein, and put them vnder ¶ lawes, and vnder yron harrowes, and vnder axes of yron, and cast them into the tile-kilne: euen thus did hee with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then Dauid and all the people returned vnto Ierusalem.

CHAP. XIII.

¶ Amnon Dauid's sonne defileth his sister Tamar. 20 Tamar is comforted by her brother Absalom. 29 Absalom therefore killith Amnon.

Now after this, so it was, that Absalom the sonne of Dauid hauing a faire sister, whose name was ¶ Tamar: Amnon the sonne of Dauid loued her.

2 And Amnon was so sore vexed, that he fell sicke for his sister Tamar: for shee was a virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to doe any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend called Ionadab, the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother: and Ionadab was a very subtil man.

4 Who said vnto him, Why art thou, the kings sonne, so leane from day to day? wilt thou not tel me? Then Amnon answered him, I loue Tamar my brother Abisaloms sister.

5 And Ionadab said vnto him, Lie downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: & when thy father shall come to see thee, say vnto him, I pray thee let my sister Tamar come, and giue me meat, and let her dresse meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat of her hand.

6 ¶ So Amnon lay down, and made himselfe sicke: and when the king came to see him, Amnon said vnto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make mee a couple of ¶ cakes in my sight, that I may receiue meat of her hand.

7 Then Dauid sent home to Tamar, saying, Goe now to thy brother Ammons house, and dresse him meate.

8 ¶ So Tamar went to her brother Ammons house, and he lay downe: and shee tooke ¶ flour, and knead it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And shee tooke a pan, and ¶ powred them out before him, but he would not eat. Then Amnon said, Cause yee euery man to goe out from ¶ me: so euery man went out from him.

10 Then Amnon said vnto Tamar, Bring the meate into the chamber, that I may eate of thine hand. And Tamar tooke the cakes which she had made, & brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had set them before him to eat, he tooke her, & said vnto her, Come, lie with me, my sister.

12 But she answered him, Nay, my brother, doe not force mee: for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: commit not this folly.

13 And I, ¶ whither shall I cause my shame to goe? and thou shalt be as one of the fooles in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee speake to the king, for he will not denie me vnto thee.

14 Howbeit he would not hearken vnto her voice, but being stronger than shee, forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherwith he hated her, was greater then the loue wherwith he had loued her: and Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.

16 And she answered him ¶ There is no cause: this euill (to put me away) is greater then the other that thou didst vnto me: but hee would not heare her.

17 But called his seruant that serued him, and said, Put this woman now out from me, and locke the doore after her.

18 (And shee had a garment of ¶ diuers colours vpon her: for with such garments were the kings daughters that were virgins, apparelled) Then his seruant brought her out, and locked the doore after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent the garment of diuers colours which was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went her way, crying.

20 And Absalom her brother sayd vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother bene with thee? Now yet be still, my sister: hee is thy brother: let not this thing grieue thine heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Abisaloms house.

21 ¶ But when King Dauid heard all these things, he was very wroth.

not my brother¹ Amnon goe with vs? And the king answered him, Why should he goe with thee?

17 But Absalom was instant vpon him, and he sent Amnon with him, and al the kings children.

18 ¶ Now had Absalom commanded his seruants, saying, Marke now when Ammons heart is merry with wine, and when I say vnto you, Smite Amnon, kill him, feare not, for haue not^m I commanded you? be bold therefore, and play the men.

19 And the seruants of Absalom did vnto Amnon, as Absalom had commanded: and al the Kings sonnes arose, and euery man gate him vp vpon his mule, and fled.

20 ¶ And while they were in the way, rydings came to Dauid, saying, Absalom hath slaine al the Kings sonnes, and there is not one of them left.

21 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the^a ground, & all his seruants stood by with their clothes rent.

22 And Ionadab the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they haue slaine all the young men the Kings sonnes: for Amnon onely is dead, t because Absalom had reported so, since hee forced his sister Tamar.

23 Now therefore let not my lord the King take the thing so grievously, to thinke that all the Kings sonnes are dead: for Amnon onely is dead.

24 ¶ Then Absalom fled: and the young man that kept the watch, lift vp his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him.

25 And Ionadab said vnto the king, Behold, the kings sonnes come: as thy seruant sayd, so it is.

26 And as soone as hee had left speaking, behold, the kings sonnes came, and lift vp their voyces, and wept: and the King also and all his seruants wept exceedingly sore.

27 But Absalom fled away, and went to Talmai the sonne of Ammihur king of Geshur: and David mourned for his sonne euery day.

28 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three yeeres.

29 And king Dauid desired to go forth vnto Absalom, because he was pacified concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Absalom is reconciled to his father by the subtiltie of Ioab. 24 Absalom may see the Kings face. 25 The beaustie of Absalom. 26 He causeth Ioabs cornes to be burnt, and a brought to his fathers presence.

Then Ioab the son of Zeruiah perceived, that the Kings heart wastoward Absalom,

2 And Ioab sent to Tekoah, and brought thence a all subtil woman, and said vnto her, I pray thee, faine thy selfe to mourne, and now put on mourning apparell, and anoynt not thy selfe with oyle: but be as a woman that had now long time mourned for the dead.

3 And come to the king, and speake on this maner vnto him, (for Ioab taught her what she should say)

4 ¶ Then the woman of Tekoah spake vnto the king, & fell down on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O King.

5 Then the King said vnto her, What ayleth thee? And shee answered, I am indeed a t widow, and mine husband is dead:

6 And thine handmaid had two^c sonnes, and they two stroue together in the fildes: (and there was none to part them) so the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And beholde, the whole family is risen against thine handmayd, and they sayde, Deliuer him that smote his brother, that we may kil him for the^d soule of his brother whome hee slew, that we may destroy the heire also: so they shall quench my sparkle which is left, and shall not leaue to mine husband neither name nor posteritie vpon the earth.

8 And the King said vnto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will giue a charge for thee.

9 Then the woman of Tekoah said vnto the King, My lord, O King, this^e trespass be on mee, and on my fathers house, and the King and his throne be guiltlesse.

10 And the king said, Bring him to me that speaketh against thee, and he shall touch thee no more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the King remember the Lord thy God, that thou wouldst not suffer many reuengers of blood to destroy, lest they slay my sonne. And he answered, As the Lord liueth, there shall not one haire of thy sonne fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, I pray thee, let thine handmaide speake a word to my lorde the King. And he said, Say on.

13 Then the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? or why doth the King, as one which is faulty, speake this thing, that he wil not bring againe his banished?

14 For we must needs die, and we are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered vp againe: neither doth God spare any person, yet doeth hee appoint^h meanes, nor to cast out from him, him that is expelled.

15 Now therefore, that I am come to speake of this thing vnto my lord the King, the cause is of God: for I haue made mee afraid: therefore thine handmaid said, Now will I speake vnto the King: it may be that the king will performe the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will heare to deliuer his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me, and also my sonne from the inheritance of God.

17 Therefore thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be t comfortable: for my lord the king is enen as anⁱ Angel of God in hearing of good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

18 Then the king answered, and said vnto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall aske thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speake.

19 And the king said, Is not^j the hand of Ioab with thee in all this? Then the woman answered, and said, As thy soule liueth, my lord the King, I will not turne to the right hand nor to the left, from ought that my lord the King hath spoken: for euen thy seruant Ioab bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid.

20 For to the intent that I should change the forme of speech, thy seruant Ioab hath done this thing, but my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an Angel of God to vnderstand al things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And the king said vnto Ioab, Beholde

26 But if he thus say, I haue no delight in thee, behold, here am I, let him doe to me as seemeth good in his eyes.

27 The king sayde againe vnto Zadok the Priest, Art not thou a *Seer? returne into the citie in peace, and your two sonnes with you: to wit, Ahimaaz thy sonne, and Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar.

28 Behold, I will tarie in the fields of the wilderness, vntill there come some word from you to be told me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar caried the Arke of God againe to Ierusalem, and they taried there.

30 And Dauid went vp the mount of oliues, and wept as he went vp, and had his head couered, and went barefooted: and all the people that was with him, had euery man his head couered, & as they went vp, they wept.

31 Then one tolde Dauid, saying, Ahithophel is one of them that haue conspired with Abfalom: and Dauid sayde, O Lord, I pray thee, turne the counsell of Ahithophel into foolishnesse.

32 ¶ Then Dauid came to the top of the mount where hee worshipped God: and behold Hushai the Archite came against him with his coat torn, and hauing earth vpon his head.

33 Vnto whom Dauid sayd, If thou goe with me, thou shalt be a burthen vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and say vnto Abfalom, I will be thy seruant, O king (as I haue bene in time past thy fathers seruant, so will I now be thy seruant) then thou maiest bring mee the counsell of Ahithophel to nought.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the Priests? therefore whatsoever thou shalt heare out of the kings house, thou shalt shew to Zadok and Abiathar the Priests.

36 Beholde, there are with them their two sonnes: Ahimaaz Zadoks sonne, and Jonathan Abiathars sonne: by them also shall ye send mee euery thing that ye can heare.

37 So Hushai Dauids friend went into the citie: and Abfalom came into Ierusalem.

1 The infidelitie of Ziba: 5 Shimei curseth Dauid. 16 Hushai commeth to Abfalom. 21 The counsell of Ahithophel for the concubines.

VHen Dauid was a litle past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the seruant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of asses saddled, and vpon them two hundred cakes of bread, & an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of dried figs, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king said vnto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba saide, They be asses for the kings household to ride on, and bread and dried figs for the young men to eate, and wine, that the faint may drinke in the wilderness.

3 And the king saide, But where is thy masters sonne? Then Ziba answered the king, Behold, he remaineth in Ierusalem: for he said, This day shall the house of Israel restore mee the kingdome of my father.

4 Then sayde the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained vnto Mephibosheth. And Ziba sayd, I beseech thee, let mee finde grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 ¶ And when king Dauid came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the familie of the house of Saul, named Shimei, the son of Gera: and he came out and cursed.

6 And hee cast stones at Dauid, and at all the seruants of king Dauid: and all the people, & all the men of warre were on his right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus sayd Shimei when he cursed, Come forth, come forth thou murderer, and wicked man.

8 The Lorde hath brought vpon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned: and the Lord hath deliuered thy kingdome into the hand of Abfalom thy sonne: and beholde, thou art taken in thy wickednesse, because thou art a murderer.

9 Then sayd Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah vnto the king, Why doeth this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me goe, I pray thee, and take away his head.

10 ¶ But the king sayde, What haue I to doe with you, yee sonnes of Zeruiah? for hee curseth euery man because the Lorde hath bidden him curse Dauid: who dare then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And Dauid sayd to Abishai, & to all his seruants, Behold, my sonne which came out of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: then howe much more now may this sonne of Iemini? Suffer him to curse: for the Lord hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lord will looke on mine affliction, and shall doe mee good for his cursing this day.

13 And as Dauid & his men went by the way, Shimei went by the side of the mountaine ouer against him, and cursed as he went, & threw stones against him, and cast dust.

14 Then came the king and all the people that were with him vncary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 And Abfalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Ierusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And when Hushai the Archite, Dauids friend, was come vnto Abfalom, Hushai said vnto Abfalom, God saue the King, God saue the King.

17 Then Abfalom sayd to Hushai, Is this thy kindeesse to thy friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 Hushai then answered vnto Abfalom, Nay, but whom the Lord, and this people, and all the men of Israel chuse, his will I bee, and with him will I dwell.

19 And moreover, vnto whom shall I doe seruice? not to his sonne? as I serued before thy father, so will I before thee.

20 ¶ Then spake Abfalom to Ahithophel, Giue counsell what we shall doe.

21 And Ahithophel sayd vnto Abfalom, Goe in to thy fathers concubines, which hee hath left to keepe the house: and when all Israel shall heare that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shall be strong.

22 So they spread Abfalom a tent vpon the top of the house, and Abfalom went in to his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsell of Ahithophel which he counselled in those dayes, was like as one had asked counsell at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

CHAP. XVII.

7 Ahithophels counsel is outbrained by Hushai. 14 The Lord had so ordered. 19 The Priests names are hidde in the well. 22 David goeth our Iorden. 23 Ahithophel hangeth himself. 27 They bring victuals to David.

Moreover, Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me chuse out now twelve thousand men, and I will vp and follow after David this night.

2 And I will come vpon him: for he is weary, and weake handed: so I will feare him, and all the people that are with him shall flee, and I will smite the king only.

3 And I will bring againe all the people vnto thee, and when all shall returne, the man whom thou seekest being slaine, all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the Elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let vs heare likewise what hee saith.

6 So when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spake vnto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken thus: shall we do after his saying, or not tell thou.

7 Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given, is not good at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father, & his men, that they be strong men, and are chased in minde as a beare robbed of her whelps in the field: also thy father is a valiant warriour, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, hee is hid now in some caue, or in some place: and though some of them be overthrowne at the first, yet the people shall heare, and say, The people that follow Absalom, be overthrowne.

10 Then he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall shrink and faint: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stout men.

11 Therefore my counsell is, that all Israel be gathered vnto thee, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba as the sand of the sea in number, and that thou go to battel in thine owne person.

12 So shall wee come vpon him in some place, while we shall find him, and we will vpon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, wee will not leaue him one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a citie, then shall all the men of Israel bring ropes to that citie, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite, is better then the counsel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had determined to destroy the good counsell of Ahithophel, that the Lord might bring euil vpon Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai vnto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that manner did Ahithophel and the Elders of Israel counsel Absalom: and thus and thus haue I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and shew

David, saying, Tarry not this night in the fields of the wilderness, but rather get thee ouer, lest the king be deuoured, and all the people that are with him.

17 Nowe Jonathan and Ahimaaz abode by Beth-rogel: (for they might not be seene to come into the citie) and a maid went, and told them, and they went and shewed king David.

18 Nevertheless, a young man saw them, and told it to Absalom. Therefore they both departed quickly, and came to a mans house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into the which they went downe.

19 And the wife tooke and spread a couering ouer the wells mouth, and spread ground corne thereon, that the thing should not be knowne.

20 And when Absaloms seruants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman answered them, They be gone ouer the brooke of water. And when they had sought them, and could not finde them, they returned to Ierusalem.

21 And as soone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and told king David, and said vnto him, Vp, and get you quickly ouer the water: for such counsell hath Ahithophel giuen against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went ouer Iorden until the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Iorden.

23 Nowe when Ahithophel saw that his counsell was not followed, hee saddled his asse, and arose, and hee went home vnto his citie, and put his household in order, and hanged himselfe, and died, and was buried in his fathers graue.

24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed ouer Iorden, hee, and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa capitaine of the hoste in the stead of Ioab: which Amasa was a mans sonne named Ithra, an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Iobabs mother.

26 So Absalom and Israel pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 And when David was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the sonne of Nahash out of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the sonne of Ammiel out of Lo-debar and Barzilai the Gileadite out of Rogel.

28 Brought beds, and balsens, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and floure, and parched corne, and beanes, and lentiles, and parched corne.

29 And they brought homie, and butter, and sheepe, and cheefe of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and wearie, and thirstie in the wilderness.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not regard vs, neither will they passe for vs, though halfe of vs were slaine: but thou art now worth ten thousand of vs: therefore now it is better that thou succour vs out of the cine.

4 Then the King said vnto them, What seemeth you best, that will I doe. So the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Ioaab and Abisshai, & Ittai, saying, Entreate the yong man Absalom gently for my sake. And all the people heard when the King gaue al the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field to meete Israel, and the battell was in the wood of Ephraim.

7 Where the people of Israel were slaine before the seruants of Dauid: so there was a great slaughter that day, men of twentie thousand.

8 For the battell was scattered ouer all the country: and the wood deuoured much more people that day then did the sword.

9 Now Absalom met the seruants of Dauid, and Absalom rode vpon a mule, and the mule came vnder a great thicke oke: and his head caught hold of the oke, and he was taken vp betweene the heauen and the earth: and the mule that was vnder him went away.

10 And one that sawe, told Ioaab, saying, Behold, I saw Absalom hangd in an oke.

11 Then Ioaab said vnto the man that tolde him, And hast thou indeed seene? why then diddest not thou there smite him to the ground, and I would haue giuen thee ten shekels of siluer, and a girdle?

12 Then the man said vnto Ioaab, Though I should receiue a thousand shekels of siluer in mine hand, yet would I not lay mine hand vpon the Kings sonne: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abisshai, and Ittai, laying, Beware lest any touch the yong man Absalom.

13 If I had done it, it had bene the danger of my life: for nothing can bee hid from the king: yea, thou thy selfe wouldst haue bene against me.

14 Then saide Ioaab, I will not thus tarie with thee. And he tooke three darts in his hand, and thrust them through Absalom, while he was yet aliue in the mids of the oke.

15 And ten seruants that bare Ioaabs armour, compassed about and smote Absalom, and slewe him.

16 Then Ioaab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Ioaab held backe the people.

17 And they tooke Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a mightie great heape of stones vpon him: and all Israel fled euery one to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared him vp a pillar, which is in the kings dale: for he said, I haue no sonne to keepe my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day, Absaloms place.

19 Then said Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok, I pray thee, let me runne and beare the king tidings that the Lord hath deliuered him out of the hand of his enemies.

20 And Ioaab said vnto him, Thou shalt not be the messenger to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou shalt beare none: for the kings sonne is dead.

21 Then said Ioaab to Cush, Go tell the king, what thou hast seene. And Cush bowed himselfe vnto Ioaab, and ranne.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok againe to Ioaab, What, I pray thee, if I also runne after Cush? and Ioaab said, Wherefore now wilt thou runne my sonne, seeing that thou hast no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I runne? Then hee said vnto him, Runne. So Ahimaaz ranne by the way of the plaine, and ouerwent Cush.

24 Now Dauid sate betweene the two gates. And the watchman went to the top of the gate vpon the wall, and lift vp his eyes, and sawe, and beheld, a man came running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, & told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, hee bringeth tidings. And he came apace, and drew neere.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called vnto the porter, and said, Behold, another man runneth alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok. Then the king said, Hee is a good man, and commeth with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said vnto the king, Peace be with thee: and he fell downe to the earth vpon his face before the King, and saide, Blessed be the Lord thy God, who hath shut vp the men that lift vp their hands against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is the yong man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Ioaab sent the Kings seruant, and me thy seruant, I saw a great tumult; but I knew not what.

30 And the king said vnto him, Turne aside, and stand here: so he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And behold, Cush came, and Cush saide, Tidings my lord the king: for the Lord hath deliuered thee this day out of the hand of all that rose against thee.

32 Then the king said vnto Cush, Is the yong man Absalom safe? And Cush answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to doe thee hurt, bee as that yong man is.

33 And the king was moued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my sonne Absalom, my sonne, my sonne Absalom: would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my sonne, my sonne.

7 Ioaab encourageth the king. 8 Dauid is restored. 13 Shimei is pardoned. 24 Mephiboseth meeteth the king. 39 Barzillai departeth. 41 Iffra Iffraimeth with Iudah.

As it was told Ioaab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 Therefore the victory of that day was turned into mourning to all the people: for the people heard say that day, The king soroweth for his sonne.

16 Where the most part of the people haunted.

17 Every one blamed another and sought who should first bring him home.

18 That they should suppose the night spent of the Elders, seeing the people were so forward.

19 By this policie David thought that by winning of the captain he should have the hearts of all the people.

20 Who had before recalled him, Chap. 16. 19.

21 Chap. 16. 22.

22 Chap. 16. 19. A For in his adulterie he was his most cruel enemy, and now in this prosperitie, seeketh by flattery to creep into dauid.

And the people went that day into the city // secretely: the people confounded hide themselves when they see in battell.

So the King hid his face, and the king cried with a loud voyce; My sonne Absalom, Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

Then Iobab came into the house to the King and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day haue saved thy life, and the liues of thy sonnes, and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wives, & the liues of thy concubines;

In that thou hast thine enemies, and hast thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither thy // princes, nor servants: therefore this day I perceiue that if Absalom had liued, and we all had died this day, that then it would haue pleased thee well.

Now therefore vs. come out, and speake comfortably vnto thy seruants: for I sweare by the Lord, except thou come out, there will not stay one man with thee this night: and that will be worse vnto thee, then all the euill that fell on thee from thy youth hitherto.

Then the king arose, and sat in the gate: and they told vnto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doeth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the king: for Israel had fled every man to his tent.

Then all the people were at strife: they sought out all the tribes of Israel, saying, The King sided vs out of the hand of our enemies, and hee deliuered vs out of the hands of the Philistines, and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

And Absalom whom we anointed ouer vs, is dead in battell: therefore why are ye slow to bring the king againe?

But King Dauid said to Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, saying, Speake vnto the Elders of Iudah, & say, Why are ye hindred to bring the king againe to his house (for the saying of all Israel is come vnto the king, to returne to his house)?

Ye are my brethren, my bones and my flesh: are ye wherefore then are ye the last that bring the king againe?

Also say yet to Amasai, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host to me for ever in the rooms of Iobab.

So he bowed the hearts of all the men of Iudah, as of one man: therefore they sent to the king, saying, Returne thou with all thy seruants.

So the king returned, and came to Iordan. And Iudah came to Gilgal, for to goe to meete the king, and to conduct him ouer Iordan.

And Shimei the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Iemini, which was of Bahurim, hastened and came downe with the men of Iudah to meete King Dauid.

And a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the seruant of the house of Saul, and his fifteene sonnes, and twenty seruants with him: and they went ouer Iordan before the king.

And there went ouer a boate to carie ouer the kings household, and to do him pleasure. Then Shimei the sonne of Gera fell before the king, when he was come ouer Iordan.

And said vnto the king, Let not my lord impute wickednesse vnto me, nor remember the thing that thy seruant did wickedly when my lord the king departed out of Ierusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

For thy seruant doeth know, that I haue done amisse: therefore behold, I am the first this day of all the house of Ioseph that am come to goe downe to meete my lord the king.

But Abiathar the sonne of Neriah answered, and said, Shall not Shimei die for this, because he cursed the Lords anointed?

And Dauid said, What haue I to doe with you, ye sons of Neriah, that this day ye should be adversaries vnto me? Shall there any man die this day in Israel? for I doe not knowe that I am this day king ouer Israel?

Therefore the king said vnto Shimei, Thou shalt not die, and the king swore vnto him.

And Mephiboseth the sonne of Saul came downe to meete the king, and had neither washed his feet, nor dressed his beard, nor washed his clothes from the time the king departed, until he returned in peace.

And when he was come to Ierusalem, and met the king, the king said vnto him, Wherefore weuest thou with me, Mephiboseth?

And he answered, My lord the king, my seruant deceived me: for thy seruant said, I would haue mine ass saddled to ride thereon, for to goe with the king, because thy seruant is lame.

And he hath accused thy seruant vnto my lord the king: but my lord the king was an angel of God: doe therefore thy pleasure.

For all my fathers house were dead men before my lord the king, yet diddest thou set thy seruant among them that did eate at thine owne table: what right therefore haue I yet to cry any more vnto the king?

And the king said vnto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I haue said, Thou, and Ziba diuide the lands.

And Mephiboseth said vnto the King, Yea, let him take all, seeing my lord the King is come home in peace.

Then Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went ouer Iordan with the king to conduct him ouer Iordan.

Now Barzillai was a very aged man, fourscore yeere olde, and hee had prouided the king of sustenance while hee lay at Mahanaim: for he was a man of a very great substance.

And the king said vnto Barzillai, Come ouer with me, and I will feede thee with mee in Ierusalem.

And Barzillai said vnto the king, How long haue I to liue, that I should goe vp with the king to Ierusalem?

I am this day fourscore yeere olde: and can I discern betweene good or euill? Hath thy seruant any taste in that I eat, or in that I drinke? Can I heare any more the voyce of singing men and women? wherefore then should thy seruant bee any more a burthen vnto my lord the king?

Thy seruant will goe a little way ouer Iordan with the king, and why will the king recompense it me with such a reward?

I pray thee, let thy seruant turne backe againe, that I may die in mine owne citie, and be buried in the graue of my father and of my mother: but behold thy seruant Chimham, let him goe with my lord the king, and doe to him what shall please thee.

And the king answered, Chimham shall go with 39 So all the people went ouer Iorden: and the king passed ouer: and the king kissed Barzilai, and blessed him, and hee returned vnto his owne place.

40 ¶ Then the king went to Gilgal, & Chimham went with him, and all the people of Iudah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and sayd vnto the king, Why haue our brethren the men of Iudah stollen thee away, and haue brought the king and his household, and all Dauids men with him ouer Iorden?

42 And all the men of Iudah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is nere of kinne to vs: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? haue we eaten of the kings cost, or haue we taken any bribes?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Iudah, and sayd, Wee haue ten parts in the King, and haue also more right to Dauid then ye: why then did ye despise vs, that our aduise should not be first had in restoring our King? And the words of the men of Iudah were fiercer then the words of the men of Israel.

CHAP. XX.

¶ Sheba reijeth Ierusalem against Dauid. 10 Ioab killeth Amasa traitorously. 21 The head of Sheba is deliuered to Ioab. 23 Dauid's chief officers.

Then there was come a rather a wicked man (named Sheba the sonne of Bichri, a man of Iemini) and he blew the trumpet, and sayd, We haue no part in Dauid, neither haue wee inheritance in the sonne of Ishai: euery man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So euery man of Israel went from Dauid, and followed Sheba the sonne of Bichri: but the men of Iudah claue fast vnto their King, from Iorden quen to Ierusalem.

3 When Dauid then came to his house to Ierusalem, the King tooke the ten women his concubines, that he had left behind him to keepe the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but say no more with them: but they were enclosed vnto the day of their death liuing in widowhood.

4 ¶ Then sayd the King to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Iudah within three dayes, and bee thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble Iudah, but hee tarried longer then the time which hee had appointed him.

6 Then Dauid sayd to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the sonne of Bichri do vs more harme then did Absalom: take thou therefore thy lords seruants and follow after him, lest hee get him walled cities and escape vs.

7 And there went out after him Iobabs men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they departed out of Ierusalem, to follow after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone, which is in Gibbon, Amasa went before them, and Iobabs garment that he had put on, was girded vnto him, and vpon it was a sword girded, which hanged on his loynes in the sheath, and as he went, it vsed to fall out.

9 And Ioab sayde to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? and Ioab tooke Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kisse him.

10 But Amasa tooke no heed to the sword that was in Iobabs hand: for therewith hee smote him in the fift rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and smote him not the second time: so he died: then Ioab and Abishai his brother followed after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

11 And one of Iobabs men stood by him, and sayd, Hee that fauoureth Ioab, and he that is of Dauids part, let him goe after Ioab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the mids of the way: and when the man saw that all the people stood still, he remoued Amasa out of the way into the field, and cast a cloth vpon him, because hee saw that euery one that came by him, stood still.

13 ¶ When he was remoued out of the way, euery man went after Ioab, to follow after Sheba the sonne of Bichri.

14 And hee went through all the tribes of Israel vnto Abel, and Bethmachah and all places of Berim: and they gathered together, and went also after him.

15 So they came, and besieged him in Abel, nere to Bethmachah, and they cast vp a mount against the citie, and the people thereof stood on the ramper, & all the people that was with Ioab, destroyed and cast downe the wall.

16 Then cryed a wife woman out of the citie, Heare, heare, I pray you, say vnto Ioab, Come thou hither, that I may speake with thee.

17 And when he came nere vnto her, the woman said, Art thou Ioab? And he answered, Yea. And she sayd to him, Heare the wordes of thine handmayd. And he answered, I doe heare.

18 Then she spake thus, They spake in the old time, saying, They should aske of Abel: and so they haue continued.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable, and faithful in Israel: and thou goest about to destroy a city, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou deuoure the inheritance of the Lord?

20 And Ioab answered, and sayd, God forbid, God forbid it me, that I should deuoure or destroy it.

21 The matter is not so, but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the son of Bichri by name) hath lift vp his hand against the King, euen against Dauid: deliuer vs him onely, & I will depart from the city. And the woman said vnto Ioab, Behold, his head shall be throwen to thee ouer the wall.

22 Then the woman went vnto all the people with her wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it to Ioab: then he blew the trumpet, and they retyred from the city, euery man to his tent: and Ioab returned to Ierusalem vnto the King.

23 ¶ Then Ioab was ouer all the hoste of Israel, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada ouer the Cherethites, and ouer the Pelethites.

24 And Adoram ouer the tribute, and Ioshaphat the sonne of Ahilud the Recorder,

25 And Sheia was Scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar the Priests.

26 And also Ira the Iairite was a chiefe about Dauid.

Then there was a famine in the dayes of Dauid three yeres together and Dauid asked counsell of the Lord and the Lord answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because hee slew the Gibeonites.

Then the king called the Gibeonites, and sayd vnto them, (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but a remnant of the Amorites, vnto whom the children of Israel had sworne: but Saul sought to slay them for his zeale toward the children of Israel and Iudah)

And Dauid said vnto the Gibeonites, What shall I doe for you, and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bleesse the inheritance of the Lord?

The Gibeonites then answered him, Wee will haue no silver nor golde of Saul nor of his house, neither for vs shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I doe for you.

Then they answered the King, The man that consumed vs, and that imagined euill against vs, so that we are destroyed from remayning in any coast of Israel,

Let seven men of his sonnes be deliuered vnto vs, & we will hang them vp vnto the Lord in Gibeath of Saul the Lords chosen. And the king said, I will giue them.

But the King had compassion on Mephibosheth the sonne of Ionathan the son of Saul, because of the Lords oath, that was betweene them, euen betweene Dauid and Ionathan the sonne of Saul.

But the King tooke the two sonnes of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom shee bare vnto Saul, euen Armoni and Mephibosheth, & the five sonnes of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom shee bare to Adriel the sonne of Barzillai the Meholathite.

And he deliuered them vnto the handes of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the mountaine before the Lord: so they died all seven together: & they were slaine in the time of harvest in the first dayes, and in the beginning of barley sheaf.

Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah tooke sackcloth and hanged it vp for her vpon the rocks, from the beginning of harvest vntill water dropped vpon them from the heauen, and suffered neither the birdes of the ayre to light on them by day, nor beasts of the field by night.

And it was tolde Dauid, what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.

And Dauid went and tooke the bones of Saul and the bones of Ionathan his sonne from the citizens of Beth Gilead, which had stollen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slaine Saul in Gilboa.

So hee brought thence the bones of Saul, and the bones of Ionathan his sonne, and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

And the bones of Saul and of Ionathan his sonne he buried they in the country of Bethsamin in Zelah, in the graue of Kith his father: and when they had performed all that the King had commanded, God was then appeased with the land.

Again the Philistines had warre with Israel: and Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, and they fought against the Philistines, and Dauid fainted.

Then Ishi-benob which was of the sonnes of Haraphah (the head of whose speare weighed three hundred shekels of brasie) euen hee being girded with a new sword, thought to haue slaine Dauid.

But Abishai the sonne of Neruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then Dauids men swore vnto him, saying, Thou shalt goe no more out with vs to battell, lest thou quench the light of Israel.

And after this also there was a battell with the Philistines at Gobchen Sibbechai the Hushathite slewe Saph, which was one of the sonnes of Haraphah.

And there was yet another battell in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the sonne of Jaare-oregim, a Bethlemite slewe Goliath the Gittite: the staffe of whose speare was like a weavers beame.

Afterward there was also a battell in Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and had on euery hand sixe fingers, and on euery foote sixe toes, foure and twentie in number: who was also the sonne of Haraphah.

And when hee reuiled Israel, Ionathan the sonne of Shima the brother of Dauid slew him.

These foure were borne to Haraphah in Gath, and dyed by the hand of Dauid, and by the hands of his seruants.

CHAP. XXII

Dauid after his victories professeth God. The anger of God toward the wicked. His prophesies of the session of the Iewes, and vocation of the Gentiles.

And Dauid pake the words of this song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the handes of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

And he said, The Lord is my rocke and my fortresse, and hee that deliuereth me.

God is my strength, in him will I trust: my shield, & the horne of my saluation, my hiezower and my refuge: my Sauour, thou hast saved mee from violence.

I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

For the pangis of death haue compassed me: the floods of vngodlinesse haue made mee afraid.

The sorowes of the grame compassed me about: the snarres of death ouertooke me.

But in my tribulation did I call vpon the Lord, and cry to my God, and hee did heare my voice out of his Temple, and my cry did enter in to his eares.

Then the earth trembled and quaked, the foundations of the heauens mooued and shooke, because hee was angry.

Smoke went out at his nostrils, and consuming fire out of his mouth: coles were kindled thereat.

Hee bowed the heauens also, and came downe, and darkenede was vnder his feete.

And hee rode vpon Cherub and did flie, and he was seene vpon the wings of the winde.

And he made darknes a Tabernacle round about him, euen the gatherings of waters, and the cloudes of the ayre.

h. To flie in a moment thorow the world.

By this description of a tempest he declarerh the power of God against his enemies.

He alludeth to the miracle of the red Sea.

I was so beset, that all means seemed to faile.

I toward Saal & mine enemies.

I attempted nothing without his commandment.

Their wickedness is cause that thou seemest to forget thy wonted mercy.

The manner that God vseth to succour his, neuer faileth.

He vseth extraordinary means to make me win most strong holds.

He acknowledged that God was the author of his victories, who gave him strength

13 At the brightness of his presence the colles of fire were kindled.

14 The Lord thundred from heauen, and the most High gaue his voyce.

15 He shot arrowes also, and scattered them: to wit, lightning, and destroyed them.

16 The channells also of the sea appeared, even the foundations of the world were discovered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 Hee sent from aboue, and tooke mee: hee drew me out of many waters.

18 Hee deliuered mee from my strong enemy, and from them that hated mee: for they were too strong for mee.

19 They ^apreuented mee in the day of my calamitie, but the Lord was my stay,

20 And brought me forth into a large place: he deliuered me, because he fauoured me.

21 The Lord rewarded mee according to my righteousness: according to the purenesse of mine hands he recompensed me.

22 For I kept the wayes of the Lord, and did not ^mwickedly against my God.

23 For all his Lawes were before mee, and his statutes: I did not depart therefrom.

24 I was vpriight also toward him, and haue kept me from my wickednes.

25 Therefore the Lord did reward mee according to my righteousness, according to my purenesse before his eyes.

26 With the godly thou wilt shewe thy selfe godly: with the vpriight man thou wilt shew thy selfe vpriight.

27 With the pure thou wilt shew thy selfe pure, and with the ^afroward thou wilt shew thy selfe froward.

28 Thus thou wilt saue the poore people: but thine eyes are vpon the hautie, to humble them.

29 Surely thou art my light, O Lord: and the Lord wilt lighten my darknesse.

30 For by thee haue I broken thorow an host, and by my God haue I leaped ouer a wall.

31 The way of God is ^avncorrupt: the word of the Lord is tried in the fire: hee is a shield to all that trust in him.

32 For who is God besides the Lord? and who is mighty, saue our God?

33 God is my strength in battell, and maketh my way vpriight.

34 Hee maketh my feet like ^phindes feet, and hath set me vpon mine high places.

35 He teacheth mine hands to fight, so that a bowe of brasse is broken with mine armes.

36 Thou hast also giuen me the shield of thy saluation, and thy louing kindnesse hath caused me to increase.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps vnder me, and mine heeles haue not slid.

38 I haue pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them, and haue not turned againe vntill I had consumed them.

39 Yea, I haue consumed them and thrust them thorow, and they shall not arise, but shall fall vnder my feet.

40 For thou hast ^qgirded mee with power to battell, and them that rose against mee, hast thou subdued vnder me.

41 And thou hast giuen me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked about, but there was none to saue them, euen vnto the Lord, but hee answered them not.

43 Then did I beate them as small as the dust of the earth: I did tread them flat as the clay of the fire, and did spread them abroad.

44 Thou hast also deliuered me from the contentions of my ^fpeople: thou hast preferred mee to bee the head ouer nations: the people which I knew not, doe serue me.

45 Strangers ^tshall be in subiection to me: as soone as they heare, they shall obey me.

46 Strangers shall shrink away, and feare in their priue chambers.

47 Let the Lorde liue, ^uand blessed bee my strength: and God, ^ueuen the force of my saluation be exalted.

48 It is God that giueth mee power to reuenge me, and subdue the people vnder me, 49 And rescueth me from mine enemies: (thou hast lift mee vp from them that rose against me, thou hast deliuered me from the cruell man.

50 Therefore I wil praise thee, O Lord, among the ^snations, and will sing vnto thy Name)

51 Hee is the tower of saluation for his King, and sheweth mercy to his anoynted, euen to Dauid, and to his seed ^vfor euer.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The last words of Dauid. 2 The wicked shall bee pluckt vp as thornes. 3 The names and facts of his mighty men. 15 Hee desired water, and would not drinke it.

THESE also are the ^alast words of Dauid, Dauid the sonne of Ishai saith, euen the man who was set vp on high, the Anoynted of the God of Iaakob, and the sweet singer of Israel saith,

2 The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my ^btongue.

3 The God of Israel spake by me, the strength of Israel said, Thou shalt beare rule ouer men, being iust, and ruling in the feare of God.

4 Euen as the morning light when the sunne riseth, the morning, I say, without clouds, so shall mine house be, and not as the ^cgrass on the earth is by the bright raine.

5 For so shall not mine house be with God: for hee hath made with mee an euerlasting covenant, perfect in all points, and sure: therefore all mine health and whole desire is, that hee will not make it ^dgrow so.

6 But the wicked shall be euery one as thornes thrust away, because they cannot bee taken with hands.

7 But the man that shall touch them, must bee defended with yron, or with the shaft of a speare: and they shall bee burnt with fire in the same place.

8 These bee the names of the mighty men whom Dauid had. Hee that sate in the seate of ^ewisdom, being chiefe of the princes, was Adino of Esni, he slew eight hundred at one time.

9 And after him was ^fElezar the sonne of Dodo, the sonne of Ahohi, one of the three worthies with Dauid, when they ^gdefied the Philistims gathered there to battell, when the men of Israel were ^hgone vp.

10 He arose and smote the Philistims, vntill his hand was wearie, and his ⁱhand claue vnto the sword: and the Lord gaue great victorie the same day, and the people returned after him.

11 After him was Shammoth the sonne of Agai the Hararite: for the Philistims assembled at a towne, where was a piece of a field full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistims.

12 But he stood in the middes of the field, and defended it, and slew the Philistims: so the Lord gave him great victory.

13 Afterward three of the thirtie captaines went downe, and came to David in the harvest time vnto the caue of Adullam, and the hoste of the Philistims pitched in the valley of Rephaim.

14 And David was then in an holde, and the garison of the Philistims was then in Beth-lehem.

15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would giue me to drinke of the water of the well of Beth-lehem which is by the gate.

16 Then the three mighty brake into the host of the Philistims, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem that was by the gate, & tooke and brought it to David, who would not drinke thereof, but powred it for an offering vnto the Lord.

17 And said, O Lord, be it farre from mee, that I should do this: for not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their liues: therefore he would not drinke it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 And Abishai the brother of Ioab, the sonne of Zeruiah, was chief among the three, and hee lifted vp his speare against three hundred, and slew them, and hee had the name among the three.

19 For he was most excellent of the three, and was their captaine, but hee attained not vnto the first three.

21 And he slew an Egyptian a giant of great stature, & the Egyptian had a speare in his hand: but he went downe to him with a staffe, and plucked the speare out of the Egyptians hande, and slew him with his owne speare.

CHAP. XXIIII.

David causeth the people to be numbered. 1. He repenteth, and sheweth to fall into Gods hande. 15. Spent his thousand perill with the pestilence.

And the wrath of the Lord was againe kindled against Israel, and hee moued David against them, in that he said, Go, number Israel and Iudah.

2 For the king sayd to Ioab the captaine of the hoste, which was with him, Goe speedily now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Ioab sayd vnto the King, The Lord thy God increaseth the people an hundred fold more then they be, & that the eyes of my lord the King may see it: but why doth my lord the King desire this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the Kings word preuailed against Ioab, and against the captaines of the hoste: therefore Ioab and the captaines of the hoste went out from the presence of the King to number the people of Israel.

5 And they passed ouer Iorden, and pitched in Arzer at the right side of the citie that is in the mids of the valley of Gad, and toward Lazer.

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to Tah-tim-hodshi, so they came to Dan Iaan, and so about to Zidon,

7 And came to the fortresse of Tyrus, and to all the cities of the Hittites and of the Canaanites, and went toward the South of Iudah, euen to Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone about all the land, they returned to Ierusalem at the end of nine moneths and twenty dayes.

9 And Ioab deliuered the number & summe of the people vnto the King: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand strong men that drew swords, and the men of Iudah were five hundred thousand men.

10 Then Davids heart smote him, after that he had numbered the people: and David said vnto the Lord, I haue sinned exceedingly, in that I haue done: therefore now, Lord, I beseech thee, take away the trespass of thy seruant: for I haue done very foolishly.

11 And when David was vp in the morning, the word of the Lord came vnto the Prophet Gad Davids seer, saying,

12 Goe, and say vnto David, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things, chuse thee which of them I shall doe vnto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and shewed him, and said vnto him, Wilt thou that seven yeeres famine come vpon thee in thy lande, or wilt thou thou flee three moneths before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be three daies pestilence in thy land: now aduise thee, and see, what answer I shall giue to him that sent me.

14 ¶ And Dauid said vnto Gad I am in a wonderfull strait: let vs fall now into the hand of the Lord (for his mercies are great) and let mee not fall into the hand of man.

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel from the morning euen to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan euen to Beer-sheba fientie thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand vpon Ierusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented of the euill, and said to the Angel, that destroyed the people, It is sufficient, holde now thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing place of Araunah the Iebusite.

17 And Dauid spake vnto the Lord (when hee saw the Angel that smote the people) & said, Behold: I haue sinned, yea, I haue done wickedly, but these sheepe, what haue they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against mee and against my fathers house.

18 ¶ So Gad came the same day to Dauid, and said vnto him, Go vp, reare an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Araunah the Iebusite.

19 And Dauid (according to the saying of Gad) went vp, as the Lord had commanded.

20 Araunah looked, and saw the king and his seruants comming towards him, and Araunah went out, and bowed himselfe before the king on his face to the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his seruant? Then Dauid answered, To buy the threshing floore of thee for to build an altar vnto the Lord, that the plague may cease from the people.

22 Then Araunah sayd vnto Dauid, Let my lord the King take and offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: behold the oxen for the burnt offering, and chariots, and the instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 (All these things did Araunah as a king giue vnto the king: and Araunah sayd vnto the King, The Lord thy God be fauorable vnto thee)

24 Then the King said vnto Araunah, Not so, but I will buy it of thee at a price, and will not offer burnt offering vnto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So Dauid bought the threshing floore, and the oxen for fiftie shekels of silver.

25 And Dauid built there an altar vnto the Lord, & offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and the Lord was appeased toward the land, and the plague ceased from Israel.

THE FIRST BOOKE OF THE KINGS.

THE ARGVMENT.

Because the children of God should looke for no continuall rest and quietesse in this world, the holy Ghost setteth before our eyes in this booke the varietie and change of things, which came to the people of Israel from the death of Dauid, Salomon, and the rest of the Kings, vnto the death of Ahab, declaring how that flourishing kingdomes, except they be preserved by Gods protection, (who then fauoureth them when his word is truly set forth, vertue esteemed, vice punished, and concord maintained) shall to decay and come to nought: as appeareth by the diuiding of the kingdome under Roboam, and Ieroboam, which before were but all one people, & now by the iust punishment of God were made two, whereof Iudah and Benjamin came to Roboam, & and this was called the kingdome of Iudah: and the other ten tribes held with Ieroboam, and this was called the kingdome of Israel, The King of Iudah had his thron in Ierusalem, and the king of Israel in Samaria, after it was built by Amri Ahab's father. And because our Saviour Christ according, should to the flesh come of the stocke of Dauid, the genealogie of the Kings of Iudah is here described, from Salomon to Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat, who reigned ouer Iudah in Ierusalem, as Ahab did ouer Israel in Samaria.

CHAP. I.

Abisag keepeth Dauid in his extreme age. 3. Adoniah vsurpeth the kingdome. 30. Salomon is anointed king. 50. Adoniah fleeth to the altar.

Now when King David was old and stricken in yeeres, they covered him with clothes, but no heate came vnto him.

2 Wherefore his seruants sayd vnto him, Let there bee sought for my lord the king a yong virgin, and let her stand before the king, and cherish him: and let her lie in thy bosome, that my lord the king may get heate.

3 So they sought for a faire yong mayd throughout all the coasts of Israel, & found one Abisag a Shunammite, & brought her to the king.

4 And the maid was exceeding faire, and cherished the king, and ministred to him, but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then Adoniah the sonne of Haggith, exalted himselfe, saying, I will be king. And he gate him chariots and horsemen, and fiftie men to run before him.

6 And his father would not displease him from his childhood, to say, Why hast thou done so? And hee was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him next after Absalom.

7 And he tooke counsell of Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah, and of Abiathar the Priest: and they helped forward Adoniah.

8 But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the son of Iehoiada, & Nathan the Prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the men of might, which were with Dauid, were not with Adoniah.

9 Then Adoniah sacrificed sheepe and oxen, and fat cattell, by the stone Zoheleth, which is by En-rogel, & called all his brethren the kings sonnes, and all the men of Iudah the kings seruants.

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Salomon his brother hee called not.

g For Adoniah will destroy thee and thy house, if he reigns.

i The King being worn with age, could not attend to the affairs of the realme, and also Adoniah had many flatterers which kept it from the King.

k And so pure as wicked transgressors.

l Adoniah being able to be the true and worthy King appointed of God, as the figure of his Christ.

m For he is the King Adoniah him.

n Meaning that he ought in such affairs enterprise nothing except hee had consulted with the Lord.

o Moved by the Spirit of God so to doe, because hee foresaw that Salomon should be the figure of Christ.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake vnto Bath-sheba the mother of Salomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adoniah the sonne of Haggith doth reigne, and Dauid our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, and I will now giue thee counsell, how to saue thine owne life, and the life of thy sonne Salomon.

13 Goe, and get thee in vnto King Dauid, and say vnto him, Diddest not thou my lord, O King, swear vnto thine handmayde, saying, Assuredly, Salomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and hee shall sit vpon my throne? why is then Adoniah King?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the King, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

15 ¶ So Bath-sheba went in vnto the King into the chamber, and the king was very olde, and Abisag the Shunammite ministred vnto the King.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed and made obeysance vnto the king. And the king sayd, What is the matter?

17 And she answered him, My Lord, thou swearst by the Lord thy God vnto thine handmayde, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne.

18 And behold, now is Adoniah King, and now my Lord, O King, thou knowest it not.

19 And he hath offered many oxen, and fat cattell, and sheepe, & hath called all the sonnes of the King, and Abiathar the Priest, and Ioab the Captain of the hoste: but Salomon thy seruant hath hee nor bidden.

20 And thou, my lord, O King, knowest that the eyes of all Israel are on thee, that thou shouldest tell them, who should sit on the throne of my lord the King after him.

21 For els when my lord the King shall sleepe with his fathers, I and my sonne Salomon shall be reputed vile.

22 And so, while they yet talked with the king, Nathan also the Prophet came in.

23 And they told the King, saying, Beholde, Nathan the Prophet. And when he was come in to the King, hee made obeysance before the king vpon his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan sayd, My lord, O King, hast thou said, Adoniah shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne?

25 For hee is gone downe this day, and hath slaine many oxen, and fat cattell, and sheepe, and hath called all the Kings sonnes, and the captaines of the hoste, and Abiathar the Priest: and behold, they eate and drinke before him, and say, God saue king Adoniah.

26 But mee thy seruant, and Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and thy seruant Salomon hath hee not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the King, and thou hast not shewed it vnto thy seruant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the King after him?

28 ¶ Then King Dauid answered, and said, Cal the Bath-sheba. And she came into the Kings presence, and stood before the King.

29 And the King swore, saying, As the Lord liueth, who hath redeemed my soule out of all aduersities.

30 That as I swore vnto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne in my place, so will I certainly doe this day.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed her face to the earth, and did reuerence vnto the King, and said, God saue my lord king Dauid for euer.

32 ¶ And king Dauid said, Cal me Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada. And they came before the King.

33 Then the King said vnto them, Take with you the seruants of your lord, and cause Salomon my sonne to ride vpon mine owne mule, and cary him downe to Gihon.

34 And let Zadok the Priest and Nathan the Prophet anoynt him there King ouer Israel, and blow ye the trumpet, and say, God saue King Salomon.

35 Then come vp after him, that he may come and sit vpon my throne: and he shall be King in my stead: for I haue appointed him to be prince ouer Israel, and ouer Iudah.

36 Then Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada answered the king, and said, So be it, and the Lord God of my lord the King ratifie it.

37 As the Lord hath bene with my lord the king, so be he with Salomon, and exalt his throne about the throne of my lord king Dauid.

38 So Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went downe and caused Salomon to ride vpon king Dauids mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the Priest tooke an horne of Oyle out of the Tabernacle, and anoynted Salomon: and he blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God saue king Salomon.

40 And all the people came vp after him, and the people piped with pipes, and reioyced with great ioy, so that the earth rang with the sound of them.

41 ¶ And Adoniah and all the ghosts that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an end of eating) and when Ioab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, What meaneth this noise and vprore in the citie?

42 And as he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar the Priest came: and Adoniah sayd, Come in: for thou art a worthy man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered, and sayd to Adoniah, Verely our lord king Dauid hath made Salomon king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they haue caused him to ride vpon the kings mule.

45 And Zadok the Priest, & Nathan the Prophet haue anoynted him king in Gihon, and they are gone vp from thence with ioy, and the city is moued: this is the noyse that ye haue heard.

46 And Salomon also sitteth on the throne of the king dome.

47 And moreover the kings seruants came to blesse our lord king Dauid, saying, God make the name of Salomon more famous then thy Name, and exalt his throne about thy throne: therefore the king worshipped vpon the bed.

48 And thus sayd the king also, Blessed bee the Lord God of Israel, who hath made one to sit 49 Then all the ghesies that were with Adonijah, were afraid, and rose vp, and went euery man his way.

50 ¶ And Adonijah fearing the presence of Salomon, arose and went, and tooke hold on the homes of the altar.

51 And one tolde Salomon, crying, Behold, Adonijah doeth feare King Salomon: for loe, he hath caught hold on the homes of the altar, saying, Let King Salomon sweare vnto me this day, that he will not slay his seruants with the sword.

52 Then Salomon said, If he will shew himselfe a worthy man, there shall not an haire of him fall to the earth, but if wickednesse be found in him, he shall die.

53 Then king Salomon sent, and they brought him from the altar, and hee came and did obedience vnto King Salomon: And Salomon sayde vnto him, Go to thine house.

CHAP. II.

1 David exhorted Salomon, and gaue charge concerning Iobab, Barzilai, and Shimei. 2 The death of David. 3 Adonijah attempteth to slay Salomon. 4 He is slain. 5 Zadok was placed in Abiathars room.

¶ Then the dayes of David drew neere that hee should die, and hee charged Salomon his sonne saying,

1 I geoe the way of all the earth: be strong therefore, and shew thy selfe a man.

2 And take heede to the charge of the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, and keepe his statutes, and his commandements, and his iudgements, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and in euery thing whereunto thou turnest thee.

3 That the Lorde may confirme his worde which he spake vnto mee, saying, If thy sonnes take heed to their way, that they walke before mee in truth, with all their hearts, and with all their soules, if thou shalt not (said he) want one of thy posteritie vpon the throne of Israel.

4 Thou knowest also what Iobab the sonne of Zeruiah did to mee, and what hee did to the two captaines of the hostes of Israel, vnto Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto Amasa the sonne of Iether: whom he slew, and shed blood of battell in peace, and put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, & in his shooes that were on his feete.

5 Doe therefore according to thy wisdom, and let thou nor his home head go downe to the graue in peace.

6 But shew kindness vnto the sonnes of Barzilai the Gileadite, and let them be among them that eate at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom thy brother.

7 ¶ And beholde, with thee Shimei the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Issachar, of Bahurim, which cursed mee with an horrible curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but hee came downe to meete me at Iordan, and I swore to him by the Lord, saying, I will not slay thee with the sword.

8 But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to doe vnto him: therefore thou shalt cause his home head to goe downe to the graue with blood.

10 So David slepe with his fathers, and was buried in the cite of David.

11 And the dayes which David reigned vpon Israel, were fortie yeeres: seuen yeeres reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three yeeres reigned he in Ierusalem.

12 ¶ Then came Salomon vpon the throne of David his father, and his kingdome was established mightily.

13 And Adonijah the sonne of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Salomon: and shee sayd, Commett thou peaceably? and hee sayd, Yea.

14 He said moreover, I haue a suite vnto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 Then he said, Thou knowest that the kingdome was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on mee, that I should reigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, and is my brothers: for it came to him by the Lord.

16 Now therefore I aske thee one request, trouble me not. And she sayd vnto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speake, I pray thee, vnto Salomon the King (for he will not say thee nay) that he giue me Abisag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bath-sheba sayd, Well, I will speake for thee vnto the King.

19 ¶ Bath-sheba therefore went vnto King Salomon, to speake vnto him for Adonijah: and the king rose to meete her, and bowed himselfe vnto her, and late downe on his throne: and hee caused a seate to bee set for the kings mother, and she sat at his right hand.

20 Then shee sayd, I desire a small request of thee, say mee not nay. Then the king sayd vnto her, Aske on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 She said then, Let Abisag the Shunammite be giuen to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 But king Salomon answered and said vnto his mother, And why doest thou aske Abisag the Shunammite for Adonijah? aske for him the kingdome also: for he is mine elder brother, and hath for him both Abiathar the Priest, and Iobab the sonne of Zeruiah.

23 Then King Salomon swore by the Lorde, saying, God doe so to me and more also, if Adonijah hath not spoken this worde against his owne life.

24 Now therefore as the Lorde liueth, who hath established mee, and set me on the throne of David my father, who hath also made mee an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall surely die this day.

25 And King Salomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and hee smote him that he died.

26 ¶ Then the King sayd vnto Abiathar the Priest, Go to Anathoth vnto thine owne fields: for thou art f worthy of death: but I will not this day kill thee, because thou barest the Arke of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast suffered in all, wherein my father hath bene afflicted.

27 So Salomon cast out Abiathar from being Priest vnto the Lord, that hee might fulfill the wordes of the Lord, which hee spake against the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Iobab: (for Iobab had turned after Adonijah, but hee turned not after Absalom) and Iobab fled vnto the Taberna-

15 And when Salomon awoke, behold it was a dreme, and he came to Ierusalem, and stood before the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings, and made peace offerings, and made a feast to all his seruants.

16 ¶ Then came two harlots vnto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was de-liuered of a childe with her in the house.

18 And the third day after that I was deliue-red, this woman was deliuered also, and we were in the house together: no stranger was with vs in the house, save we twaine.

19 And this womans sonne died in the night:
for three ouer lay him.

20 And she arose at midnight, and tooke my sonne from my side, while thine handmaide slept, and layed him in her bosome, and layed her dead
sonne in my bosome.

21 And when I rose in the morning to giue my sonne sucke, behold, he was dead: and when I had well considered him in the morning, behold, it was not my sonne, whom I had borne.

22 Then the other woman said, Nay, but my sonne liueth, and thy sonne is dead. Againe shee said, No, but thy sonne is dead, and mine aliue:
thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, Shee saith, This that li-ueth is my sonne, and the dead is thy sonne: and the other saith, Nay, but the dead is thy sonne, and the liuing is my sonne.

24 Then the king said, Bring me a sword:
and they brought out a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Diuide yee the liuing childe in twaine, and giue thine one halfe to the one, and the other halfe to the other.

26 Then spake the woman, whose the liuing childe was, vnto the king, for her compassion was kindled toward her sonne, and shee said, Oh my lord, giue her the liuing child, and slay him not:
but the other said, Let it bee neither mine nor thine, but diuide it.

27 Then the king answered, and saide, Giue her the liuing child, and slay him not: this is his mothers will, and he shall liue.

the king had iudged, and they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to doe iustice.

And Solomon's wisdom was made known to all the children of the East, and all the children of the West.

For he was wiser than any man in his time. And he was famous throughout all nations round about.

And Solomon took three thousand wives.

And he made as many as seven hundred chariots, and as many as four thousand horsemen, and he was ready to go forth to fight.

And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER V

And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon, for he had heard that he had appointed him king in the room of his father, because Hiram had ever loved David.

And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, I have prepared thee to be king, and I have given thee wisdom, and power, and riches, and have given thee whatsoever thou hast desired.

Now I have given thee all these things, and thou hast not asked for me a house, as the Lord thy God hath said, I will build thee a house, and I will dwell therein.

And thou shalt say, I have asked for thee a house, that thou shalt dwell therein, and thou shalt say, I have asked for thee a house, that thou shalt dwell therein.

And thou shalt say, I have asked for thee a house, that thou shalt dwell therein, and thou shalt say, I have asked for thee a house, that thou shalt dwell therein.

Now therefore command, that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon, and my servants shall be with thy servants, and unto thee will I give the hire for thy servants, according to all that thou shalt appoint.

And when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the Lord this day, which hath given unto David a wise son, over this mighty people.

And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, Thus saith Hiram thy servant, I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee.

And I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee, and I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee.

And I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee, and I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee.

And I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee, and I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee.

And I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee, and I have heard that thou hast appointed me king in the room of thy father, because I have loved thee.

And king Solomon raised a summe out of all Israel, and the summe was thirte thousand men.

Whom he sent to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by course: they were a month in Lebanon, and two months at home. And Adiram was over the summe.

And Solomon had thirte thousand char-burenders, and thirte thousand masons in the mountain.

Besides the princes, whom Solomon appointed over the worke, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled the people that wrought in the worke.

And the king commanded them, and they brought great stones, and costly stones, to make the foundation of the house, seven furlongs.

And Solomon's workmen, and the workmen of Hiram, and the masons hewed and prepared timber and stones for the building of the house.

CHAPTER VI

And in the fourth hundred and thirtieth yeere (after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt) and in the fourth yeere of the reigne of Solomon over Israel, in the month Zethi, (which is the second month) he built the house of the Lord.

And the house which king Solomon built for the Lord, was thre score cubits long, and thre score broad, and thre score high.

And the porch before the temple of the house was thre score cubits long, according to the breadth of the house, & ten cubits broad before the house.

And in the house he made windows of thre score and narrow, and he made galleries round about even by the walls of the house, and above the temple and the oracle, and the chambers round about the temple and the oracle.

And by the wall of the house he made galleries round about even by the walls of the house, and above the temple and the oracle, and the chambers round about the temple and the oracle.

Then the uppermost gallery was five cubits broad, and the middle of the cubites broad, and the chere seven cubits broad: for he made it round about without the house, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

And when the house was built, it was built of stone perfite, before it was brought, so that there was neither hammer nor axe, nor any tool of yron heard in the house, while it was in building.

The doore of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house, & men went up with winding staires into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the chere.

So he built the house and finished it, and filled the house being warked with sitting of cedar trees.

And he built the galleries upon all the wall of the house of five cubites height, and they were ioyned to the house with beams of cedar.

And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying, I have heard thy prayer, and I have heard thy supplication, and I have heard thy request.

Concerning this house which thou buildest, if thou wilt walke in mine ordinances, & execute my judgments, & keep all my commandments,

13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house & finished it.

15 And built the walles of the house within, with boards of Cedar tree from the pavement of the house vnto the walles of the ceiling, and within he covered them with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of firre.

16 And he built twentie cubits in the sides of the house with boards of Cedar, from the floor to the walles, and hee prepared a place within in for the oracle even the most holy place.

17 But the house, that is, the Temple before it, was fourie cubits long.

18 And the Cedar of the house within was carued with knops, and graven with floures: all was Cedar, so that no stone was seene.

19 Also he prepared the place of the oracle in the midst of the house within to set the Arke of the covenant of the Lord there.

20 And the place of the oracle within was twentie cubits long, and twentie cubits broad, and twentie cubits high: and he covered it with pure gold, and covered the altar with Cedar.

21 So Solomon covered the house within with pure gold: and hee shut the place of the oracle with chaines of golde, and covered it with gold.

22 And hee querlayd all the house with gold, vntill all the house was made perfit. Also he covered the whole altar, that was before the oracle, with gold.

23 And within the oracle he made two Cherubims of Olive tree, ten cubits high.

24 The wing also of the one Cherub was five cubits, and the wing of the other Cherub was five Cubits: from the vttermost part of one of his wings vnto the vttermost part of the other of his wings, were ten cubits.

CHAP. VII.

1 The building of the house of Salomon. 15 The excellent workmanship of them in the pieces which he made for the Temple.

16 Salomon was building his owne house thirtie yeeres, and finished all his house.

2 Hee built also an house called the forest of Lebanon, an hundred cubites long, and thirtie cubites broad, and thirtie cubites high, and three rowes of Cedar pillars: and Cedar beams were layd vpon the pillars.

3 And it was covered about with Cedar vpon the in Syria: this house hee used in summer for pleasure and recreation, the the beames, that lay on the fortie and five pillars, fiftene in a row.

4 And the windows were in three rows, and window was against window in three ranks.

5 And all the doores, and the side posts with the windows were square, and window was over against window in three ranks.

6 And he made a porch of pillars fiftie cubits long, and thirtie cubits broad, and the porch was before them, even before them were thirtie pillars.

7 Then he made a porch for the throne, where he judged, even a porch of judgement, and it was filed with cedar from pavement to pavement.

8 And in his house where he dwelt was another hall more inward then the porch which was of the same worke. Also Salomon made an house for Pharaohs daughter (whom he had taken to wife) like vnto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, hewed by measure, and fitted with sawes within and without, from the foundation vnto the top of an handbreadth, and on the outside to the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, and great stones, even of stones of ten cubites, and stones of eight cubits.

11 About also were costly stones squared by rule, and boards of cedar.

12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beames: so was it to the inner court of the house of the Lord, and to the porch of the house.

13 Then King Salomon sent, and set one Hiram out of Tyrus.

14 Hee was a widowers sonne of the tribe of Naphtali, his father being a man of Tyrus, and wrought in brasse: he was full of wisdom, and understanding, and knowledge to worke all manner of worke in brasse: who came to King Salomon, and wrought all his worke.

15 For hee cast two pillars of brasse: the height of a pillar was eightene cubites, and a third of twelue cubites did compass it either of the pillars.

THE FORME OF THE PILLAR.

A B The height of a pillar: eightene cubites: the compass of a pillar was thirtie cubits.
C D The height of the chapters or round ball upon the pillar of five cubites height.
E F In the middle were two rows of pomegranates: the rest in the networke and handworkes, or rings.

16 And hee made two chapters of molten brasse to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of one of the chapters was five cubits, and the height of the other chapters was five cubits.

17 He made grates like networke and wrought like chaines for the chapters that were on the top of the pillars, even seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.

18 So hee made the pillars and two rows of pomegranates round about in the one grate to cover the chapters that were vpon the top. And thus did he for the other chapter.

19 And the chapters that were on the top of the pillars were after like worke in the porch, foure cubits.

20 And the chapters vpon the two pillars had also above, over against the belly within the networke pomegranates: for two hundred pomegranates were in the two ranks about vpon either of the chapters.

21 And he set vpon the pillars in the porch of the Temple. And when he had set vpon the right pillar, he called the name thereof Iachin: and when he had set vpon the left pillar, hee called the name thereof Boaz.

22 And vpon the top of the pillars was worke of lilies: so was the workmanship of the pillars finished.

23 And hee made a molten sea ten cubits wide from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits high, and a line of thirtie cubits did compass it about.

cup with flowers of lilies: it contained two thou-

27 And he made ten bales of brasie, one bale was foure cubites long, & foure cubites broad, and three cubites high.

28 And the worke of the bales was on this manner. They had borders, and the borders were betwene the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were betwene the ledges were lions, bulles and Cherubims: and vpon the ledges there was a bale aboue: and beneath the lions and bulles, were additions made of thinne worke.

30 And every bale had foure brasen wheels, and plates of brasie: and the foure corners had under setters: vnder the caldron were under setters inelosed at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it was within the chapter, and aboue to measure by the cubite: for the mouth thereof was round, made like a bale, and it was a cubit and halfe a cubit: and also vpon the mouth thereof were grauen works, whose borders were foure square, and not round.

32 And vnder the borders were foure wheels, and the axletrees of the wheels layed to the bale: and the height of a wheele was a cubit, and halfe a cubit.

33 And the fashion of the wheels was like the fashion of a charer wheele, their axletrees, and their naues, and their fellows, and their spokes were all molten.

34 And four vnder setters were vpon the foure corners of one bale: and the vnder setters therof were of the bale it selfe.

35 And in the toppes of the bales was a round compasse of halfe a cubit high round about: & vpon the toppes of the bales the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 And vpon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof hee did graue Cherubims, lions and palm trees, on the side of every one, and additions round about.

37 Thus made hee the ten bales, they had all one casting, one measure, and one stile.

38 Then made hee ten caldrons of brasie, one caldron contained fourtie baths, and euery caldron was foure cubites, one caldron was vpon one bafethroughout the ten bales.

39 And he set the bales, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house.
And he set the sea on the right side of the house
Riward toward the South.

40 And Hiram made caldrons, and basins, and balens, and Hiram finished all the worke that he made to king Salomon for the house of the Lord:

41 To wit, two pillars, and two bowles of the chapters that were on the top of the two pillars, and two grates to couer the two bowles of the chapters that were vpon the top of the pillars,

42 And foure hundred pomegranates for the two grates, euen two rowes of pomegranates for euery grate to couer the two bowles of the chapters that were vpon the pillars,

43 And the ten bales, and ten caldrons vpon
the bales,

44 And the sea, and twelve bolls vnder that sea,

45 And pots, and basins, and balens: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Salomon for the house of the Lord, were of beating brasie.

46 In the plaine of Torden did the King cast them in clay betwene Succoth and Zarchan.

47 And Salomon left to weigh all the vessels, because of the exceeding abundance, neither could the weight of the brasie be counted.

48 So Salomon made all the vessels that perteined vnto the house of the Lord, the golden altar, and the golden table, whereon the shewbread was.

49 And the candlesticks, five at the right side, and five at the left, before the oracle of pure gold,

the house within, euen for the most holy place, and for the doores of the house, to wit, of the 51 So was finished all the worke that king Salomon made for the house of the Lord, and Salomon brought in the things which Dauid his father had dedicated: the siluer and the golde and the vessels, and layed them among the treasures of the house of the Lord.

4. They bare the Arke of the Lord, and they bare the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle: those did the Priests and Leuites bring vp.

5 And King Salomon and all the Congregation of Israel that were assembled vnto him, were with him before the Arke, offering sleepe and beenes, which could not be told, nor numbred for multitude.

6 So the Priests brought the Arke of the Couenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the oracle of the house into the most holy place, euen vnder the wings of the Cherubims.

7 For the Cherubims stretched out their wings ouer the place of the Arke, & the Cherubims covered the Arke, and the barres thereof aboue.

8 And they drew out the barres, that the endes of the barres might appeare out of the Sanctuary before the oracle, but they were not seene without: and there they are vnto this day.

9 Nothing was in the Arke save the two tables of stone which Moses had put there, at Horeb, where the Lord made a couenant with the children of Israel, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the Priestes were come out of the Sanctuary, the cloud filled the house of the Lord.

11 So that the Priests could not stand to minister, because of the cloude: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

12 Then spake Salomon, The Lord said, that he would dwell in the darke cloud.

13 I haue built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to abide in for euer.

14 And the King turned his face and blessed all the Congregation of Israel: for all the Congregation of Israel stood there.

15 And hee saide, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no citie of all the tribes of Israel, to build an house that my Name might be there: but I haue chosen Dauid to be ouer my people Israel.

17 And it was in the heart of Dauid my father, to build an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

18 And the Lord said vnto Dauid my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house vnto my Name, thou diddest well, that thou wast so minded:

19 Neuertheless thou shalt not build the house, but thy sonne that shall come out of thy loynes, he shall build the house vnto my Name.

20 And the Lord hath made good his word that he spake: and I am risen vp in the roume of Dauid my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and haue built the house for the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

21 And I haue prepared therein a place for the Arke, wherein is the couenant of the Lord which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 Then Salomon stode before the altar of the Lord in the sight of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands toward heaven,

23 And said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath, thou that keepst couenant and mercie with thy seruants that walke before thee, with all their heart, 24 Thou that hast kept with thy seruant Dauid my father, that thou hast promised him: for thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as appeareth this day.

25 Therefore now Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant Dauid my father that thou hast promised him, saying, Thou shalt not want a man in my sight to sit vpon the throne of Israel: so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walke before me, as thou hast walked in my sight.

26 And now, O God of Israel, I pray thee, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid my father.

27 Is it true indeede that God will dwell on the earth? beholde, the heauens, and the heauens of heauens are not able to containe thee: how much more unable is this house that I haue built?

28 But haue thou respect vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to heare the cry & praier which thy seruant prayeth before thee this day:

29 That thine eyes may bee open toward this house, night & day, euen toward the place whereof thou hast said, My Name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer which thy seruant prayeth in this place.

30 Heare thou therefore the supplication of thy seruant, and of thy people Israel which pray in this place, and heare thou in the place of thine habitation, euen in heauen, and when thou hearest, haue mercie.

31 When a man shall trespass against his neighbor, and he lay vpon him an oth to cause him to sweare, and the swearer shall come before thine altar in this house,

32 Then heare thou in heauen, and I doe and iudge thy seruants, that thou condemne the wicked to bring his way vpon his head, and iustifie the righteous, to giue him according to his righteousness.

33 When thy people Israel shall bee overthrown before the enemy, because they haue sinned against thee, and turne againe to thee, and confesse thy Name, and pray and make supplication vnto thee in this house,

34 Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the sinne of thy people Israel, and bring them againe vnto the lande, which thou gauest vnto their fathers.

35 When heauen shall be shut vp, and there shall be no raine because they haue sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place, and confesse thy Name, and turne from their sinne, when thou dost afflict them,

36 Then heare thou in heauen, & pardon the sin of thy seruants and of thy people Israel (when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they may walke) and giue raine vpon the land that thou hast giuen thy people to inherite.

37 When there shall be famine in the land, when there shall be pestilence, when there shall be blasting, mildew, grasshopper or caterpillar, when their enemies shall beseege them in the cities of their land, or any plague, or any sicknesse,

38 Then what prayer, and supplication soeuer shall be

48 If they turne againe vnto thee with al their heart, and with al their soule in the land of their enemies, which led them away captiues, and pray vnto thee toward the way of their land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, & toward the city which thou hast chosen, and the house, which I haue built for thy Name,

49 Then heare thou their prayer & their supplication in heauen thy dwelling place, & iudge their cause.

50 And be merciful vnto thy people that haue sinned against thee, and vnto all their iniquities (wherein they haue transgressed against thee) and cause that they which led them away captiues, may haue pitie and compassion on them.

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out of Egypt from the middes of the yron furnace.

52 Let thine eyes bee open vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and vnto the prayer of thy people Israel, to hearken vnto them, in al that they call for vnto thee.

53 For thou diddest separate them to thee, from among al people of the earth for an inheritance, as thou saidest by the hand of Moses thy seruant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And when Salomon had made an ende of praying all this prayer and supplication vnto the Lord, hee rose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees, and stretching of his hands to heauen,

55 And stood and blessed all the Congregation of Israel, with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed be the Lord that hath giuen rest vnto his people Israel, according to al that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise which he promised by the hand of Moses his seruant.

57 The Lord our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, that he forsake vs not, neither leaue vs,

58 That he may bow our hearts vnto him, that we may walke in all his wayes, and keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his lawes, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And these my words, which I haue prayed before the Lord, bee neere vnto the Lord our God day and night, that hee defend the cause of his seruant, and the cause of his people Israel: al wayes as the matter requireth, 60 That al the people of the earth may know, that the Lord is God, and none other.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God to walke in his statutes, and to keepe his commandments, as this day.

62 ¶ Then the king and al Israel with him offered sacrifice before the Lord.

63 And Salomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings which he offered vnto the Lord, ¹⁰ two and twentie thousand beemes, and an hundred, and twentie thousand, and theepe: so the king and al the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.

64 The same day did the King halowe the middle of the court, that was before the house of the Lord: for there hee made burnt offerings, and the meate offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings because the brazen altar that was before the Lord, was too little to receiue the burnt offerings, and the meate offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And Salomon made at that time a feast and al Israel with him, a very great Congregation, euen from the entring in of Hamath vnto the riuier of Egypt, before the Lord our God, a seven dayes and seven dayes, euen fourteene dayes.

66 And the eight day he sent the people away: and they thanked the King and went vnto their tents ioyous, and with glad heart, because of all the goodnesse that the Lord had done for Dauid his seruant, and for Israel his people.

10 * And at the end of twentie yeeres, when Salomon had builded the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the Kings palace,

11 (For the which Hiram the king of Tyrus had brought to Salomon timber of cedar, and firre trees, and golde, and whatsoever he desired) then king Salomon gaue to Hiram twentie cities in the land of Galil.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyrus to see the cities which Salomon had giuen him, and they pleased him not.

13 Therefore hee sayd, ' What cities are these which thou hast giuen me, my brother? And hee called them the land of Cabul vnto this day.

14 And Hiram had sent the King, ^d fixe score talents of gold.

15 ¶ And this is the cause of the tribute, why King Salomon raised tribute, ^e to wit, to build the house of the Lord, and his owne house, and Millo, and the wall of Ierusalem, and Hazer, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 Pharaoh king of Egypt had come vp, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slew the Canaanites that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter Salomons wife.

17 (Therefore Salomon built Gezer & Beth-horon the nether, 19 And all the cities of store, that Salomon had, euen cities for charrets, and cities for horsemen, and ^h all that Salomon desired & would build in Ierusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion)

21 To wit, their children that were left after them in the lande whom the children of Israel were not able to destroy, those did Salomon make tributaries vnto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Salomon

* make no bondmen: but they were men of war and his seruants, & his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his charrets and his horsemen.

23 These were the princes of the officers, that were ouer Salomons worke: ⁱ euen ⁱ fixe hundredth and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought in the worke.

24 ¶ And Pharaohs daughter came vp from the city of Dauid vnto the house which Salomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

25 And thirsea yeeres did Salomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings vpon the altar which he built vnto the Lord: and he burnt incense vpon the altar, that was before the Lord, when hee had finished the house.

26 ¶ Also king Salomon made a nauy of ships in Ezeon-geber, which is beside Eloth, and the brinke of the red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent with the nauie, his seruants, that were mariners, and had knowledge of the sea, with the seruants of Salomon.

28 And they came to Ophir, & it from thence ^k foure hundredth and twentie talents of gold, and brought it to king Salomon.

* 2. Chron. 9. 10.

g Because the tribes of Judah and Benjamin had their possessions mixed, they are here taken as one tribe.

Dauid my seruant, & because of Ierusalem which I haue chosen.

14 ¶ Then the Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Salomon, even Hadad the Edomite, of the kings seed, which was in Edom.

15 ¶ For when Dauid was in Edom, and Ioab the captaine of the host had smitten all the males in Edom, and was gone vp to bury the slaine,

16 (For fixe moneths did Ioab remaine there, and all Israel, till hee had destroyed all the males in Edom)

17 Then this Hadad fled, and certaine other Edomites of his Ethers seruants with him, to goe into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt vnto Pharaoh king of Egypt which gaue him an house, and appointed him vnto vntailles, and gaue him land.

19 So Hadad found great fauour in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, even the sister of Tahpenes the Queene.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaohs house: and Genubath was in Pharaohs house among the sonnes of Pharah.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that Dauid slept with his fathers, and that Ioab the captaine of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may goe to mine owne countrey.

22 But Pharaoh said vnto him, What hast thou lacked with mee, that thou wouldest thus goe to thine owne countrey? And he answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me goe.

23 ¶ And God stirred him vp another aduersarie, Bezon the son of Eliada, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24 And he gathered men vnto him, and had bin captaine ouer the company, when Dauid slew them. And they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and they made him king in Damascus.

25 Therefore was he an aduersary to Israel all the dayes of Salomon: besides the euill that Hadad did, he also abhorred Israel, and reigned ouer Aram.

26 ¶ And Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat an Ephraimite of Zereda Salomons seruant (whose mother was called Zeruah a widowe) lift vp his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that hee lift vp his hand against the king, when Salomon built Millo, hee repaired the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

28 And this man Ieroboam was a man of strength and courage, and Salomon seeing that the yong man was meete for the worke, hee made him ouerseer of all the labour of the house of Ioseph.

29 And at that time, when Ieroboam went out of Ierusalem, the Prophet Ahiah the Shilonite found him in the way, hauing a new garment on him, and they two were alone in the field.

30 Then Ahiah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelue pieces,

31 And said to Ieroboam, Take vnto thee ten picces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Because I will rent the kingdome out of the hands of Salomon, and will giue ten tribes to thee.

32 But hee shall haue one tribe for my seruant

Dauids sake, and for Ierusalem the citie, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, 33 Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue worshipped Ashtaroth the god of the Zidonians, and Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and haue not walked in my wayes (to do right in mine eyes, & my statutes, & my lawes) as did Dauid his father.

34 But I will not take the whole kingdome out of his hand: for I will make him prince all his life long for Dauid my seruants sake, whom I haue chosen, and who kept my commandements and my statutes.

35 ¶ But I will take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and will giue it vnto thee, even the ten tribes.

36 And vnto his sonne will I giue one tribe, that Dauid my seruant may haue a light alway before mee in Ierusalem the citie, which I haue chosen mee, to put my Name there.

37 And I wil take thee, and thou shalt reigne † even as thine heart desireth, and shalt bee king ouer Israel.

38 And if thou hearken vnto all that I command thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and doe right in my sight, to keepe my statutes and my commandements as Dauid my seruant did, then will I be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built vnto Dauid, and wil giue Israel vnto thee.

39 And I will for this afflicke the seed of Dauid, but not for euer.

40 ¶ Salomon sought therefore to kill Ieroboam, and Ieroboam arose, and fled into Egypt vnto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt vntill the death of Salomon.

41 And the rest of the words of Salomon, and all that he did, & his wisdom, are they not written in the booke of the acts of Salomon?

42 The time that Salomon reigned in Ierusalem ouerall Israel, was fourtie yeere.

43 And Salomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the cite of Dauid his father: and Rehoboam his sonne reigned in his stead.

ANd Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem, to make him king.

2 And when Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat heard of it (who was yet in Egypt, whither Ieroboam had fled from king Salomon, and dwelt in Egypt.)

3 Then they sent and called him: and Ieroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came and spake vnto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous seruitude of thy father, and his sore yoke which hee put vpon vs, lighter, and we will seruethee.

5 And he said vnto them, Depart yet for three dayes, then come againe to mee. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam tooke counsell with the old men that had stood before Salomon his father, while hee yet liued, and saide, What counsell giue ye, that I may make an answer to this people?

7 And they spake vnto him, saying, If thou be a seruant vnto this people this day, and serue them,

Or so doe they, shal please me.

8 But hee forooke the counsell that the olde man had giuen him, and asked counsell of the young men that had bene brought vp with him, and waited on him.

9 And hee said vnto them, What counsell giue yee, that we may answer this people, which haue spoken to me saying, Make the yoke, which thy father hath put vpon vs, lighter?

10 Then the yong men that were brought vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto this people, that haue spoken vnto thee, and said, Thy father hath made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: euen thus shalt thou say vnto them, My || least part shall be bigger then my fathers loynes.

11 Nowe whereas my father did burden you with a grieuous yoke, I will yet make your yoke heauier: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

12 ¶ Then Ieroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people sharply, and left the olde mens counsell that they gaue him.

14 And spake to them after the counsell of the yong men saying, My father made your yoke grieuous, and I will make your yoke more grieuous: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

15 And the king hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of the Lord, that he might performe his saying, which the Lord had spoken by Ahiah the Shilonite vnto Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel sawe that the king regarded them not, the people answered the king thus, saying, What portion haue wee in David? wee haue none inheritance in the sonne of Israhel. To your tents, O Israel: now see to thine owne house, David. So Israel departed vnto their tents.

17 Howbeit ouer the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Iudah, did Rehoboam reign still.

18 ¶ Now the king Rehoboam sent Adoram the receiuer of the tribute, and all Israel stoned him to death: then king Rehoboam made speede to get him vp ro his charer, to flee to Ierusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David vnto this day.

20 ¶ And when all Israel had heard that Ieroboam was come againe, they sent and called him to the assembly, and made him king ouer all Israel: none followed the house of David, but the tribe of Iudah onely.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, he gathered all the house of Iudah with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourescore thousand of chosen men (which were good warriours) to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon.

22 ¶ But the word of God came vnto Shemiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon king of Iudah, and vnto all the house of Iudah and Benjamin, and the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not goe vp, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: returne every man to his house: for this thing is done by mee. They obeyed therefore the word of the Lord, and returned, and departed according to the word of the Lord.

25 ¶ Then Ieroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, & went from thence, and built Peniel.

26 And Ieroboam thought in his heart, Now shall the kingdome returne to the house of David.

27 If this people goe vp and doe sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Ierusalem, then shall the hearts of this people turne againe vnto their lord, euen to Rehoboam king of Iudah: so shall they kill mee, and goe againe to Rehoboam king of Iudah.

28 Whereupon the king tooke counsell, and made two calves of golde, and said vnto them, It is too much for you to goe vnto Ierusalem: Behold, O Israel, thy gods which brought thee vp out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other set he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to finne: for the people went because of the one euen to Dan.

31 Also he made an house of hie places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Levi.

32 And Ieroboam made a feast the fifteenth day of the eighth moneth, like vnto the feast that is in Iudah, and offered on the altar. So did he in Beth-el, and offered vnto the calves that hee had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the hie places, which he had made.

33 And hee offered vpon the altar, which hee had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eighth moneth, (euen in the moneth which he had forged of his owne heart) and made a solemne feast vnto the children of Israel: and hee went vp to the altar to burne incense.

And behold, there came a man of God out of Iudah (by the commandement of the Lord) vnto Beth-el, and Ieroboam stood by the altar to offer incense.

2 And he cried against the altar by the commandement of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord, Behold, a child shall be borne vnto the house of David, Iosiah by name, and vpon thee shall he sacrifice the priests of the high places that burne incense vpon thee, and they shall burne mens bones vpon thee.

3 And hee gaue a signe the same time, saying, This is the signe that the Lord hath spoken, Behold, the altar shall rent, and the ashes that are vpon it shall || fall out.

4 And when the king had heard the saying of the man of God, which hee had cried against the altar in Beth-el, Ieroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, Lay holde on him: but his hand which hee put forth against him, dried vp, and hee could not pull it in againe to him.

sell out from the altar, according to the signe, which the man of God had giuen by the t commandment of the Lord.

6 Then the king answered and sayde vnto the man of God, e I beseech thee, pray vnto the Lord thy God, and make intercession for mee, that mine hand may be restored vnto mee. And the man of God belought the Lorde, and the Kings hand was restored, and became as it was afore.

7 Then the King sayde vnto the man of God, Come home with me, that thou mayest dine, and I will giue thee a reward.

8 But the man of God sayd vnto the King, If thou wouldest giue me halfe thine house, I would not goe in with thee, neither would I eate bread nor drinke water in this place.

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the Lorde, saying, I Eate no bread nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 And an olde Prophet dwelt in Beth-el, and his sonnes came and told him all the works, that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el, and the worlds which he had spoken vnto the king, told they their father.

12 And their father sayde vnto them, What way went he? and his sonnes shewed him what way the man of God went, which came from Iudah.

13 And he sayde vnto his sonnes, Saddle me the asse. Who saddled him the asse, and hee rode thereon.

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting vnder an oke: and he sayd vnto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Iudah? And he sayd, Yea.

15 Then he sayd vnto him, Come home with me, and eate bread.

16 But he answered, I may not returne with thee, nor goe in with thee, neither wil I eat bread nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was charged me by the word of the Lord, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to goe by the way that thou wentest.

18 And he said vnto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, and an Angel spake vnto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that he may eate bread and drinke water: but he lied vnto him.

19 So he went againe with him, and did eate bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the word of the Lord came vnto the Prophet, that brought him againe.

21 And hee cried vnto the man of God that came from Iudah, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, & hast not kept the Commandment which the Lord thy God commanded thee,

22 But camest backe againe, and hast eaten bread and drunke water in the place whereof he did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eate no bread nor drinke any water) thy caries shall not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 And when he had eaten bread & drunke, he saddled him the asse, to wit, to the Prophet whom he had brought againe.

24 And when he was gone, a Lyon met him by the way, and slew him, and his body was cast in the way, and the asse stood thereby: the Lyon stood by the corps also.

25 And behold, men that passed by, saw the carkeis cast in the way, and the Lyon standing by the corps: and they came and told it in the towne where the old Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet that brought him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, hee said, It is the man of God, who hath bene disobedient vnto the Commandment of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath deliuered him vnto the Lyon, which hath rent him and slaine him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake vnto him.

27 And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the asse. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found this body cast in the way, and the asse and the Lyon stood by the corps: and the Lyon had not eaten the body, nor torne the asse.

29 And the Prophet tooke vp the body of the man of God, and laid it vpon the asse, and brought it againe, and the olde Prophet came to the city, to lament and bury him.

30 And he layd his body in his owne graue, and they lamented ouer him, saying, Alas, my brother.

31 And when he had buried him, he spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, bury yee me also in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buried: lay my bones beside his bones.

32 For that thing which he cried by the word of the Lorde against the altar that is in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the hie places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to passe.

33 Howbeit after this Ieroboam conuerted not from his wicked way, but turned againe, and made of the lowest of the people priests of the hie places. Who would, might consecrate himselfe and be of the priests of the hie places.

34 And this thing turned to sinne vnto the house of Ieroboam, euen to roote it out, and destroy it from the face of the earth.

4 And Ieroboams wife did so and arose, and went to Shiloh and came to the house of Abiah: but Abiah could not see, for his sight was decayed for his age.

6 Therefore when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the doore, he said, Come in thou wife of Ieroboam: why seimest thou thus thy selfe to bee another? I am sent to thee with heauie tidings.

7 Goe tell Ieroboam, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Forasmuch as I haue exalted thee from among the people, and haue made thee prince ouer my people Israel,

8 And haue rent the kingdome away from the house of Dauid, and haue given it thee, and thou hast not bene as my seruant Dauid which kept my Commandements, and followed mee with all his heart, and did onely that which was right in mine eyes,

12 Vp therefore and get thee to thine house: for when thy feet enter into the citie, the child shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourne for him, and burie him: for he onely of Ieroboam shall come to the graue, because in him there is found some goodnesse toward the Lord God of Israel in the house of Ieroboam.

14 Moreover, the Lord shall stirre him vp a King ouer Israel, which shall destroy the house of Ieroboam in that day: what? yea, even now.

15 For the Lord shall smite Israel, as when a reede is shaken in the water, and he shall weed Israel out of this good land, which he gaue to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the River, because they haue made them groues, prouoking the Lord to anger.

16 And he shall giue Israel vp, because of the finnes of Ieroboam, who did sinne, and made Israel to sinne.

17 And Ieroboams wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah, and when she came to the threshold of the house, the yong man died.

18 And they buried him, and all Israel lamented him, according to the word of the Lord which he spake by the hand of his seruant Ahijah the Prophet.

19 And the rest of Ieroboams actes, how hee warred, and how hee reigned, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20 And the dayes which Ieroboam reigned, weretwo and twentie yeere: and hee slept with his fathers, and Nadab his sonne reigned in his steade.

21 Also Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon reigned in Iudah. Rehoboam was one and fourtie yeere old, when hee began to reigne, and reigned seientene yere in Ierusalem, the citie which the Lord did chuse out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his Name there: and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonite.

22 And Iudah wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lord: and they prouoked him thore with their finnes, which they had committed, then all that which their fathers had done.

23 For they also made them hie places, and images, and grones on euerie hie hill, and vnder euery greene tree.

24 There were also Sodomites in the land, they did according to al the abominations of the nations, which the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

25 And in the fift yeere of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem, 26 And took the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house, and tooke away al: also he caried away al the shields of gold which Salomon had made.

27 And King Rehoboam made for them brasen shields, and committed them vnto the handes of the chiefe of the garde, which waited at the doore of the Kings house.

28 And when the King went into the house of the Lord the gard bare them, and brought them againe into the gard chamber.

29 And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

30 And there was warre between Rehoboam and Ieroboam continually.

yeere, and his ^e mothers name was Maachah, the daughter of Abisalom.

11 And Asa did right in the eyes of the Lord, as did David his father.

12 And he tooke away the Sodomites out of the land, and put away all the idoles that his fathers had made.

13 And he ^d put downe ^e Maachah his mother also from her estate, because she had made an idole in a groue: and Asa destroyed her idoles, and burnt them by the brooke Kidron.

14 But they put not down the hie places. Nevertheless Asas heart was ^e vp-right with the Lord all his dayes.

15 Also he brought in the holy vessels of his father, and the things that he had dedicated vnto the house of the Lorde, siluer and golde, and vessels.

16 ¶ And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their dayes.

17 Then Baasha king of Israel went vp against Iudah, and built ^f Ramah, so that hee would let none goe out or in to Asah king of Iudah.

18 Then Asa tooke all the siluer and the gold that was left in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the kings house, and deliuered them into the hands of his seruants, and king Asa sent them to ^g Benhadad the sonne of Tabrimon, the sonne of Hezion king of ^h Aram that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a conenant betweene me and thee, and betweene my father and thy father: behold, I haue sent vnto thee a present of siluer and gold: come, breake thy conenant with Baasha king of Israel, that he may ⁱ depart from me.

20 So Ben-hadad hearkened vnto king Asa, and sent the captaines of the hosts, which he had, against the cities of Israel, and smote Lion, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And when Baasha heard thereof, hee left building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa assembled all Iudah ^j none excepted, and they tooke the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had built, and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

23 And the rest of all the actes of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which hee built, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? but in his old age he was diseased in his ^k feete.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the cite of David his father. And Ichobazaphat his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 And Nadab the sonne of Ieroboam began to reigne ouer Israel the second yeere of Asa king of Iudah, and reigned ouer Israel two yeere.

26 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, and in his sinne wherewith he made Israel to sinne.

27 And Baasha the sonne of Ahiah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha slew him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistims: for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.

28 Euen in the third yeere of Asa king of Iudah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And when he was king, hee ^l smote all the house of Ieroboam, he left none aliuie to Ieroboam, vntil he had destroyed him, according to the ^m word of the Lord which he spake by his seruant ⁿ Ahiah the Shilonite, 30 Because of the finnes of Ieroboam which he committed, and wherewith he made Israel to sinne by his ^o prouocation, wherewith he prouoked the Lord God of Israel.

31 And the residue of the actes of Nadab, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasha king of Israel, all their dayes.

33 In the third yeere of Asa king of Iudah, began Baasha the sonne of Ahiah to reigne ouer al Israel in ^p Tirzah, and reigned fouete and twenty yeeres.

34 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lorde, walking in the way of Ieroboam, and in his sin, wherewith he made Israel to sinne.

1 Of Baasha. 6 Elah. 9 Zimri. 16 Omri. 31 Ahab married Jezebel. 34 Jericho is built againe.

Then the word of the Lord came to Iehu the sonne of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

1 ^a Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust and made thee captaine ouer my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Ieroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sinne, to prouoke me with their finnes,

2 Behold, I will take away the posteritie of Baasha, and the posteritie of his house, and will make ^b thine house like the house of Ieroboam, the sonne of Nebat.

3 ^c Hee that dieth of Baashas ^d stocke in the cite, him shall the dogges eate: and that man of him which dieth in the fieldes, shall the foules of the ayre eate.

4 And the rest of the actes of Baasha, and what hee did, & his ^e power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

5 So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his sonne reigned in his stead.

6 And also by the hand of Iehu the sonne of Hanani the Prophet, came the word of the Lorde to Baasha, and to his house, that he should be like the house of Ieroboam, euen for all the wickednesse that hee did in the sight of the Lord, in prouoking him with the worke of his hands, and because hee killed ^f him.

7 ¶ In the fixe and twentie yeere of Asa king of Iudah, began Elah the sonne of Baasha to reigne ouer Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two yeeres.

8 And his seruant Zimri, captaine of halfe his charrets, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah ^g drinking, till he was drunken in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah.

9 And Zimri came and smote him, and killed him in the seuen and twenty yeere of Asa king of Iudah, and reigned in his stead.

10 ¶ And when he was king, and sate on his throne, he slew al the house of Baasha, not leauing thereof one to pisse against a wall, neither of his kinsfolkes, nor of his friends.

11 So did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the Lord which he spake against Baasha by the hand of Iehu the ^h Prophet.

14 And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 ¶ In the seven, and twentie yeere of Aking of Iudah did Zimri reigne: seue daies he reigned, and the people was then in campe against Gibbethon, which belongeth to the Philistims.

16 And the people of the hoste heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slaine the King. Wherefore all Israel made Omri the capitaine of the hoste, king ouer Israel that same day, even in the hoste.

17 Then Omri went vp from Gibbethon and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And when Zimri saw that the citie was taken, he went into the palace of the kings house, and burnt himselfe, and the kings house with fire, and so died.

19 For his finnes which hee sinned, in doing that which is euill in the sight of the Lord, in walking in the way of Ieroboam, and in his finnes which he did, causing Israel to sinne.

20 And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel diuided into two parts: for halfe the people followed Tibni the sonne of Ginath to make him king, & the other halfe followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri, prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the one and thirty yeere of Aking of Iudah began Omri to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned twelue yeere. Six yeere reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And hee bought the mountaine of Samaria of one Shemer for two talents of siluer, and built in the mountaine, and called the name of the citie, which he built, after the name of Shemer lord of the mountaine, Samaria.

25 But Omri did euill in the eyes of the Lord, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For hee walked in all the way of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and in his sinnes wherewith he made Israel to sinne in prouoking the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 And the rest of the acts of Omri, that hee did, and the strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

28 And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his sonne reigned in his stead.

29 Now Ahab the sonne of Omri began to reigne ouer Israel, in the eight and thirty yeere of Aking of Iudah, and Ahab the sonne of Omri reigned ouer Israel in Samaria two and twenty yeere.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did worke in the sight of the Lord then all that were before him.

31 For was it a light thing for him to walke in the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, except he tooke Iezebel also the daughter of Ehibaal king of the Zidonians to wife, and went and serued Baal, and worshipped him?

32 Also hee reared vp an altar to Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grime, and Ahab proceeded, and did prouoke the Lord God of Israel more then all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his daies did Hiel the Bethelite build Iericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his eldest sonne, and set vp the gates thereof in his youngest sonne Segub, according to the word of the Lord which he spake by Iosua the sonne of Nun.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Eliiah forewarneth of the famine to come. 4. He is fed of Ravens. 5. He is sent to Zarephath, where hee restoreth his hostess Isums life.

And Eliiah the Tishbite one of the inhabitants of Gilead sayde vnto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israel lieth, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rainethese yeeres, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

3 Gee hence, and turne thee Eastward, and hide thy selfe in the || river Cherith, that is ouer against Iordan,

4 And thou shalt drinke of the riuer: and I haue commanded the || rauen to feed thee there.

5 So hee went, and did according vnto the word of the Lord: for he went, and remained by the riuer Cherith that is ouer against Iordan.

6 And the rauen brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening, and he dranke of the riuer.

7 And after awhile the riuer dried vp, because there fell no raie vpon the earth.

8 ¶ And the word of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

9 ¶ Vp, and get thee to Zarephath, which is in Zidon, and remain there: behold, I haue commanded a widow there to sustaine thee.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the citie, behold the widow was there: gathering sticks, and he called her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drinke.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsell of bread in thine hand.

12 And she sayd, As the Lord thy God lieth, I haue not a cake, but I haue an handful of meale in a barrell, and a little oyle in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering a few stickes for to go in, and dreffe it for me and my son, that we may eat, it, and die.

13 And Eliiah sayd vnto her, Feare not, come, doe as thou hast said, but make me thereof a little cake first of all, and bring it vnto me, and afterward make for thee and thy sonne.

14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The meale in the barrell shall not be wasted, neither shall the oyle in the cruse be diminished, vnto the time that the Lord send raine vpon the earth.

15 So she went, and did as Eliiah said, and she did eate: so did hee and her house: for a certaine time.

16 The barrell of the meale wasted not, nor the oyle in the cruse, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of Eliiah.

17 ¶ And after these things, the sonne of the wife of the house fell sicke, and his sicknesse was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Elijah is sent to Ahab. 13 Obadiah hideth an hundred Prophets. 40 Ahab killeth all Baals prophets. 45 He obtaineth raine.

After many daies, the word of the Lord came to Eliiah, in the ^a third yeere, saying, Goe, shew thy selfe vnto Ahab, and I will send raine vpon the earth.

2 And Eliiah went to shew himselfe vnto Ahab, and ^b there was a great famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah the gouernour of his house: (and Obadiah ^b feared the God greatly:)

4 For when Iezabel destroyed the Prophets of the Lord, Obadiah tooke an hundred Prophets, and hid them by fiftie in a caue, and hee fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said vnto Obadiah, Go into the land, vnto all the fountaines of water, and vnto all the riuers, ifso be that we may finde grasse to saue the horses, and the mules aloue, lest wee deperish the land of the beasts.

6 And so they diuided the land betweene them to walke thorow it. Ahab went one way by himselfe, and Obadiah went another way by himselfe.

7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Eliiah ^c met him: and hee knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art not thou my lord Eliiah?

8 And he answered him, Yea, go tel thy lord, Behold, Eliiah ^c is here.

9 And he said, What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest deliuer thy seruant into the land of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the Lord thy God liueth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seeke thee: and when they said, He is not here, he tooke an oath of the kingdome and nation, if they had not found thee.

11 And now thou saiest, Goe, tel thy lord, Behold, Eliiah ^c is here.

12 And when I am gone from thee, the Spirit of the Lord shall carie thee into some place that I do not know: so when I come and tell Ahab, if he cannot finde thee, then will he kill me:

But I thy seruant ^d feare the Lord from my youth.

13 Was it not tolde my lord, what I did when Iezabel slew the Prophets of the Lord, how I hid an hundred men of the Lords Prophets by fifties in a caue, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Goe, tel thy lord, Behold, Eliiah ^c is here, that he may slay me.

15 And Eliiah said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, before whom I stand, I will surely shewe ^e my selfe vnto him this day.

16 ¶ So Obadiah went to meete Ahab, and told him. And Ahab went to meete Eliiah.

17 And when Ahab saw Eliiah, Ahab said vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18 And hee answered, I haue not troubled Israel, but ^f thou and thy fathers house, in that yee haue forsaken the commandements of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to mee all Israel vnto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal foure hundred and fiftie, and the prophets of the groues foure hundred, which eat at Iezabels table.

20 ¶ So Ahab sent vnto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel.

21 And Eliiah came vnto all the people, and said, How long ^g shall ye betwene two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal bee he, then goe after him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Eliiah vnto the people, I onely remaine a Prophet of the Lord: but Baals prophets are foure hundred and fiftie men.

23 Let them therefore giue vs two bullockes, and let them chuse the one, and cut him in pieces, and lay him on the wood, but put no fire vnder, and I wil prepare the other bullocke, and lay him on the wood, and will put no fire vnder.

24 Then call ye on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the Lord: and then the God that answereth ^h by fire, let him bee God. And all the people answered, and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Eliiah said vnto the prophets of Baal, Chuse you a bullocke, and prepare him first, (for ye are many) and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire vnder.

26 So they tooke the one bullocke that was giuen them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning to noone, saying, O Baal, heare vs: but there was no voice, nor any to answer: and they ⁱ leapt vpon the altar that was made.

27 And at noone Eliiah mocked them, and said, Crie lowde: for hee is a ^k god: either hee talketh or pursueth ^l his enemies, or is in his journey, or it may bee that hee sleepeth, and must bee ^l awaked.

28 And they cried lowd, and cut themselves as their maner was, with kniues, and lancets, til the blood gushed out vpon them.

29 And when midday was passed, and they had prophesied vntill the offering of the ^m evening sacrifice, there was neither voice, nor one to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Eliiah said vnto all the people, Come to me. And all the people came to him. And hee repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken downe.

31 And Eliiah tooke twelue stones, according

CHAP. XX.

2 Samaria is besieged. 13 The Lord punisheth the villaine to Ahab by a Prophet. 32 The King of Israel made peace with Ben-hadad, and is reproued therefore by the Prophet.

Then Ben-hadad the King of || Aram assembled all his army, and two and thirtie Kings with him, with horses, and charrets, and went vp and besieged || Samaria, and fought against it.

2 And hee sent messengers to Ahab King of Israel, into the citie,

3 And said vnto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad, Thy silver and thy gold is mine: also thy women, and thy faire children are mine.

4 And the King of Israel answered, and said, My lord King, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And when the messengers came againe, they said, Thus commaundeth Ben-hadad, and saith, When I shall send vnto thee, and command, thou shalt deliuer me thy silver and thy gold, and thy women, and thy children,

6 Or else I will send my seruants vnto thee by to spowr this time, & they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy seruants: and whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall take it in their hands, and bring it away.

7 Then the King of Israel sent for all the Elders of the land, and said, Take heede, I pray you, and see how he seeketh mischief: for he sent vnto me for my wiues, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold, and I denyed him not.

8 And all the Elders, and all the people said to him, Hearken thou vnto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore hee sayde vnto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the King, All that thou diddest sende for to thy seruant at the first time, that I will doe, but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him an answer.

10 And Ben-hadad sent vnto him, and said, The gods do so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria be yrought to all the people that follow me, for every man an handfull.

11 And the King of Israel answered, and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth his harneis, boast himselfe, as he that putteth it off.

12 And when he heard that tydings, as he was with the Kings drinking in the pavilions, he said vnto the seruants, Bring forth your engines. And they fed them against the citie.

13 ¶ And beholde, there came a Prophet vnto Ahab King of Israel, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, Hast thou seene all his great multitude? beholde, I will deliuer it into thine hand this day, that thou mayest know, that I am the Lord.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And hee said, Thus sayeth the Lord, By the seruants of the princes of the prouinces. He said againe, Who shall order the battell? And he said, Thou.

15 ¶ Then hee numbred the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and they were two hundred, two and thirtie: and after them hee numbred the whole people of all the children of Israel, seven seuen thousand.

16 And they went out at noone: but Ben-hadad did drinke till hee was drunken in the tents, both he and the Kings: for two and thirtie Kings helped him.

17 So the seruants of the princes of the prouinces went out first: and Ben-hadad sent out and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he sayd, Whether they bee come out for peace, take them aliae: or whether they bee come out to fight, take them yet aliae.

19 So they came out of the citie, to wit, the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and the hoste which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his enemy: and the || Aramites fled, and Israel pursued them: but Ben-hadad the king of Aram escaped on an horse with his horsemen.

21 And the King of Israel went out and smote the horses and charrets, and with a great slaughter slew he the Aramites.

22 (For there had come a Prophet to the king of Israel, and had said vnto him, Goe, be of good courage, and consider, and take heede what thou doest: for when the yeere is gone about, the king of Aram will come vp against thee)

23 ¶ Then the seruants of the King of Aram said vnto him, Their gods are gods of the mountaines, and therefore they ouercame vs: but let vs fight against them in the plaine, and doubtlesse we shall ouercome them.

24 And this doe, Take the kings away, every one out of his place, and place captaines for them.

25 And number thy selfe an armie, like the armie that thou hast lost, with such horses, and such charrets, and wee will fight against them in the plaine, and doubtlesse wee shall ouercome them: and hee hearkened vnto their voyce, and did so.

26 And after the yeere was gone about, Ben-hadad numbred the Aramites, and went vp to Aphek to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbred, and were all assembled and went against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two little flockes of kiddes: but the Aramites filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, and spake vnto the King of Israel, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, Because the Aramites haue said, The Lord is the God of the mountaines, and not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliuer al this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes, and in the seuenth day the battell was ioyned: and the children of Israel slew of the Aramites an hundred thousand footemen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek into the citie, and there fell a wal vpon seuen and twenty thousand men that were left: and Ben-hadad fled into the citie, and came into a secret chamber.

Chap. 32.

10. 35. 36.

My husbande. Though Ahab tyrannic be condemned by the Holy Spirit, yet he was not forgo. rous that he would take from another mans right without full recompence.

¶ And his servants said vnto him, Behold now, wee have heard say that the Kings of the house of Israel are merciful Kings: we pray thee, let vs put sackcloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heads, & goe out to the King of Israel: it may be that he will saue thy life.

32 Then they girded sackcloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heads, and came to the King of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me liue: and hee said, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.

33 Now the men tooke diligent heed, lest they could catch any thing of him, and made haste, and said, Thy brother Ben-hadad: And he said, Goe, bring him. So Ben-hadad came out vnto him, and he caused him to come vp vnto the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said vnto him, The cities which my father tooke from thy father, I will restore, and thou shalt make streetes for thee in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will let thee go with this covenant. So hee made a coucnant with him, and let him goe.

35 ¶ Then a certaine man of the children of the Prophets saide vnto his neighbour by the commandement of the Lord, Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused to smite him.

36 Then sayd he vnto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, behold, as soone as thou art departed from me, a lyon shall slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lyon found him and slew him.

37 Then hee found another man, and sayd, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smiting wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, and waited for the King by the way, and disguised himselfe with ashes vpon his face.

39 And when the King came by, he cryed vnto the King, and said, Thy servant went into the middes of the battell, and behold, there went away a man, whome another man brought vnto me, and said, Keepe this man if he be lost, & wane, thy life shall goe for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of siluer.

40 And as thy servant had here and there to do, he was gone: And the king of Israel said vnto him, So shall thy iudgement be: thou hast given sentence.

41 And hee halted, and smoke the ashes away from his face: and the King of Israel knewe him that he was of the Prophets.

42 And he said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast let goe out of thine handes a man whom I appointed to die, thy life shall goe for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the King of Israel went to his house braue and in displeasure, and came to Samaria.

CHAP. XXII

¶ Jezebel commended to him Naboth for the vineyard, and thus hee refused to sell it. Ahab, vs. a high reputation. Ahab, and his reputation.

¶ After these things Naboth the Izzelite had a vineyard in Izzel, hard by the palace of Ahab King of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake vnto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may make mee a garden of herbes thereof, because it is neere by mine house: and I will giue thee for it a better vineyard then it is: or if it please thee, I will giue thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The Lord keepe me from giuing the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

4 Then Ahab came into his house heate and in displeasure, because of the word which Naboth the Izzelite had spoken vnto him. For hee had sayde, I will not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers, and he lay vpon his bed, and turned his face and would eate no bread.

5 Then Jezebel his wife came vnto him, and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said vnto her, Because I spake vnto Naboth the Izzelite, and sayd vnto him, Give me thy vineyard for money, or if it please thee, I will giue thee another vineyard for it: but he answered, I will not giue thee my vineyard.

7 Then Jezebel his wife sayde vnto him, Doe thou now gouerne the kingdome of Israel? Vp, eate bread, and be of good cheere, I will giue thee the vineyard of Naboth the Izzelite.

8 ¶ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seale, and sent the letters vnto the Elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaime a fast, and set Naboth among the chiefe of the people.

10 And set two wicked men before him, and let them witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the King: then carry him out, and stone him that he may die.

11 And the men of his citie, even the Elders and gouernours, which dwell in his citie, did as Jezebel had sent vnto them: as it was written in the letters, which he had sent vnto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth among the chiefe of the people.

13 And there came two wicked men, and sate before him: & the wicked men witnessed against Naboth in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the King. Then they carried him away out of the citie, and stoned him with stones, till hee died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel saying, Naboth is stoned and is dead.

15 ¶ And when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, Vp, and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Izzelite, which he refused to giue thee for money: for Naboth is not aliue, but is dead.

16 And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he rose to go downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Izzelite, to take possession of it.

17 ¶ And the word of the Lord came vnto Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 Arise, goe downe to meete Ahab King of Israel, which is in Samaria: loe, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whether he is gone downe to take possession of it.

19 Therefore shalt thou say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Thou hast killed, and also gotten possession? And thou shalt speake vnto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogs lick thy blood also.

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I haue found thee: for thou hast sold thy selfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lord.

b Thus the wicked consider not what is iust and lawfull, but fret inwardly, when they cannot haue their inordinate appetites satisfied.

c As though she said, Thou knowest not what it is to reigne. Command and intreat not. I for Iezebel.

d For then they vied to enquire of mens faults: for none could fast truly that were notorious sinners.

e Thus the worldlings contrary to Gods commandment, who walke not to consent to the shedding of innocent blood, obey rather the wicked commandments of princes, then the iust lawes of God.

king of Iudah come down to the king of Iſrael.

3 (Then the King of Iſrael ſaid vnto his ſer-uants, Know yee not that Ramoth Gilead was ours? and we ſtay, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Aram?)

4 And hee ſaid vnto Iehoshaphat, Wilt thou goe with me to battell againſt Ramoth Gilead?
And Iehoshaphat ſaid vnto the King of Iſrael, I am as thou art, my people is thy people, and mine horſes as thine horſes.

5 Then Iehoshaphat ſaid vnto the King of Iſrael, * Alke counſel, I pray thee, of the Lord to day.

6 Then the king of Iſrael gathered the f prophets, vpon a foure hundred men, and ſaid vnto them, Shall I goe againſt Ramoth Gilead to battell, or ſhall I leet alone? And they ſaid, Goe vp, for the Lord ſhall deliuer it into the hands of the King.

7 And Iehoshaphat ſaid, Is there here neuer a Prophet of the Lord more, that we might enquire of him?

8 And the king of Iſrael ſaid vnto Iehoſaphat,
There is yet one man (Michaiah the ſonne of Imiah) by whom we may alke counſell of the Lord, but I hate him: for he doth not prophesie good vnto mee, but euil. And Iehoshaphat ſaid, Let not the king ſay ſo.

9 Then the king of Iſrael called an Eunuch, and ſayde, Call quickly Michaiah the ſonne of Iudah.

10 And the king of Iſrael and Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah ſate either of them on his throne in their apparell in the void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zidkiah the ſonne of Chenaanah made him hornes of yron, and ſayde, Thus ſayeth the Lord, With theſe ſhalt thou puſh the Aramites, vntill thou haſt conſumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied ſo, ſaying, Goe vp to Ramoth Gilead, and proſper: for the Lord ſhall deliuer it into the kings hand.

13 ¶ And the meſſenger that was gone to call Michaiah, ſpake vnto him, ſaying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good vnto the king with one accord: let thy word therefore,
I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and ſpeake thou good.

14 And Michaiah ſayd, As the Lord liueth, whatſoeuer the Lord ſayeth vnto me, that will I ſpeake.

15 ¶ So hee came to the king, and the king ſayde vnto him, Michaiah, ſhall wee goe a-gainſt Ramoth Gilead to battell, or ſhall wee leauie off? And hee answered him, ¶ Goe vp, and proſper: and the Lord ſhall deliuer it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king ſaid vnto him, How oft ſhal
I charge thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the Name of the Lord?

17 Then he ſayd, I ſaw all Iſrael ſcattered vp-on the mountaines, as ſheepe that had no ſheep-herd. And the Lorde ſayde, ¶ Theſe haue no maſter, let euery man returne vnto his houſe in peace.

18 (And the king of Iſrael ſayd vnto Iehoſaphat, Did I not tell thee that hee would prophesie no good vnto me, but euill?)

19 Againe he ſayd, Heare thou therefore the word of the Lorde. I ſawe the Lorde ſit on his throne, and all the hoſt of heauen ſtood about him on his right hand and on his left hand.

20 And the Lord ſayd, Who ſhall I entife Ahab that hee may goe and fall at Ramoth Gilead?
And one ſayd on this maner, and another ſayd on that maner.

21 Then there came forth a ſpirit, and ſtood before the Lord, and ſayd, I will entife him. And the Lord ſayd vnto him, Wherewith?

22 And he ſayd, I will goe out, and be a falſe ſpirit in the mouth of all his prophets. Then hee ſayd, Thou ſhalt entife him, and ſhalt alſo preuile: goe forth, and doe ſo.

23 Now therefore behod, the Lord hath put a lying ſpirit in the mouth of all theſe thy prophets, and the Lord hath appointed euill againſt
thee.

24 Then Zidkiah the ſonne of Chenaanah came neere, and ſmote Michaiah on the cheek, and ſayd, ¶ When went the ſpirit of the Lorde from me, to ſpeake vnto thee?

25 And Michaiah ſaid, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſee in that day, when thou ſhalt goe from chamber to chamber to hidethee.

29 So the king of Israel and Iehoshaphat the king of Iudah went vp to Ramoth Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Iehoshaphat, I will change mine apparel, and wil enter into the battell, but put thou on thine apparell. And the king of Israel changed himselfe, and went into the battell.

31 And the king of Aram commanded his two and thirtie captaines ouer his charets, saying, Fighte neither with small nor great, saue onely a gainst the king of Israel.

32 And when the captaines of the charets saw Iehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the king of Is rael: and they turned to fight against him: and Iehoshaphat cried.

33 And when the captaines of the charets saw that hee was not the king of Israel, they turned backe from him.

34 Then a certaine man drew a bow might ily, and smote the king of Israel betweene the ioints of his brigandine. Wherefore hee sayd vnto his charet-man, Turne thine hand, and carry me out of the hoste: for I am hurt.

35 And the battell increased that day, and the king stood still in his charet against the Ara mites, and died at euert: and the blood ran out of the wound into the mids of the charet.

36 And there went a proclamation thorow out the hoste about the going downe of the Sunne, saying, Every man to his citie, and every man to his owne countrey.

37 So the king died, and was brought to Sa maria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the charet in the pooles of Samaria, and the dogs licked vp his blood: and they washed his armour according vnto the word of the Lord which he spake.

twenty yere in Ierusalem. And his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the wayes of Aza his father, and declined not therfrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. Neuer thelesse, the hie places were not taken away: for the people offered still, and burnt incense in the hie places.

the ships were broken at Ezion Gaber.

49 Then sayde Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab vnto Iehoshaphat, Let my seruants goe with thy seruants in the ships. But Iehoshaphat would not.

50 And Iehoshaphat did sleepe with his fa

THE SECOND BOOKE OF THE KINGS.

THE ARGUMENT.

This second booke containeth the actes of the Kings of Iudah and Israel: to wit, of Israel, from the death of Ahab vnto the last king Hoshea, who was imprisoned by the king of Assyria, and his citie Sa maria taken; and the reuery by the iust plague of God, for their idolatrie and disobedience to God, led into captiuitie. And also of Iudah, from the reign of Iehoshaphat vnto Zedekiah, who for con tempting the Lords commandment by his Prophets, and neglecting his sundry admonitions by famine and other means, was taken by his enemies, saw his sonnes most cruelly slain before his face, and his owne eyes put out, as the Lord had declared to him before by his Prophet Ieremiah, and also by the iust vengeance of God, for con tempt of his word, Ierusalem was destroyed, the Temple burnt, and he and all his people were led away captiues into Babylon. In this booke are notable examples of Gods fauour towards those rulers and people which obey his Prophet, and vnderstand his Word: and contrariwise, of his plagues towards those common weales which neg lect his Ministers, and doe not obey his commandments.

CHAP.

2. Ahaziah by a fall fell sick, and consulted with Baalzebub. 3. He is repayed by Eliah. 10. The captaine ouer fiftie were sent to Eliah, whereof two were hurst with fire from heauen by his prayer. 17. Ahaziah dieth, and Iehoram his sonne succeeded him.

Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab :

2 And Ahaziah fell thorow the lattise window in his vpper chamber which was in Samaria : so he was sick : then he sent messengers to whom hee sayd, Goe, and inquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron, if I shall recover of this my disease.

3 Then the Angel of the Lord sayd to Eliah the Tishbite, Arise, and goe vp to meete the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say vnto them, Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that yee goe to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron ?

4 Wherefore thus sayeth the Lord, Thou shalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die the death. So Eliah departed.

5 And the messengers returned vnto him, to whom hee said, Why are ye now returned ?

6 And they answered him, There came a man and met vs, and said vnto vs, Goe, and returne vnto the king which sent you, and say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Is it not because there is no God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron ? Therefore thou shalt not come downe from the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die the death.

7 And he said vnto them, What manner of man was hee which came and met you, and told you these words ?

8 And they sayd vnto him, Hee was an haire man, and girded with a girdle of leather about his loines. Then sayd hee, It is Eliah the Tishbite.

9 Therefore the King sent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftie with his fiftie men, who went vp vnto him : for behold, hee sate on the top of a mountaine, and hee sayd vnto him, O man of God, the king hath commanded that thou come downe.

10 But Eliah answered, and sayd to the captaine ouer the fiftie, If that I be a man of God, let fire come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fire came downe from the heauen, and deuoured him and his fiftie.

11 Againe also he sent vnto him another captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie. Who spake, and sayd vnto him, O man of God, thus the king commandeth, Come downe quickly.

12 But Eliah answered, and sayd vnto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fire came downe from the heauen, and deuoured him and his fiftie.

13 Yet againe hee sent the third captaine ouer fiftie with his fiftie. And the third captaine ouer fiftie went vp, and came and fell on his knees before Eliah, and besought him, and sayd vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life and the life of these thy fiftie be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire downe from the heauen, and deuoured the two former captaines ouer fiftie with their fifties : therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the Angel of the Lord sayd vnto Eliah, Goe downe with him, be not afraid of his presence. So he arose, and went downe with him vnto the king.

16 And he said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron, (was it not because there was no God in Israel to enquire of his word ?) therefore thou shalt not come downe off the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt die the death.

17 So hee dyed according to the word of the Lord which Eliah had spoken. And Iehoram began to reigne in his stead in the second yere of Iehoram the sonne of Iehoshaphat king of Iudah, because he had no sonne.

18 Concerning the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel ?

CHAP. II.

8. Eliah diuideth the waters with his cloke. 12. He is taken vp into heauen. 13. Elisha taketh his cloke and diuideth Iordan. 20. The bitter and venomous waters are healed. 23. The child, when thus mocked by Elisha, is sent in pieces with beares.

And when the Lord would take vp Eliah into heauen by a whirlwind, Eliah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

2 Then Eliah sayd to Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee : for the Lord hath sent me to Beth-el. But Elisha said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they came downe to Beth-el.

3 And the children of the Prophets that were at Beth-el, came out to Eliah, and sayd vnto him, Knowest thou that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day ? And he sayd, Yea, I know it : hold ye your peace.

4 Againe Eliah sayd vnto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee : for the Lord hath sent mee to Iericho. But he sayd, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they came to Iericho.

5 And the children of the Prophets that were at Iericho, came to Elisha, and sayd vnto him, Knowest thou, that the Lord will take thy master from thine head this day ? And hee sayd, Yea, I know it : hold ye your peace.

6 Moreover Eliah sayd vnto him, Tarry, I pray thee here : for the Lord hath sent me to Iordan. But he sayd, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. So they went both together.

7 And fifty men of the sonnes of the Prophets went and stood on the other side a farr off, and they two stood by Iordan.

8 Then Eliah tooke his cloke, and wrapt it together, and smote the waters, and they were diuided hither and thither, and they twaine went ouer on the drie land.

9 Now when they were passed ouer, Eliah sayd vnto Elisha, Aske, what I shall doe for thee before I be taken from thee. And Elisha sayd, I pray thee, let thy Spirit be double vpon me.

10 And hee sayd, Thou hast asked an hard thing : yet if thou see mee when I am taken from thee, thou shalt haue it so : & if not, it shall not be.

11 And as they went walking and talking, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire. Thus the Lord greeth boldnes to him, that they feare not the threateninges of tyrants, which otherwise of themselves are afraid to do Gods message. n Iehoshaphat going to battell against the Syrians, made his sonne Iehoram king in the 17 yere of his reigne : and in the 18. yere which was the second yere of his sonnes, Iehoram the sonne of Ahab reigned in Israel : and in the fift yere of this Iehoram Iehoshaphat died, and the kingdom of Iuda was confirmed to his sonne.

a Which was the place where the children of Israel were circumcised after they came ouer Iordan, and had bene fortie yeeres in the wilderness, as Iosh. 5. 2. b So called, because they are begotten as it were anew by the heauenly doctrine. c That is, from being any more thus head : for so be the head, is to be the matter, as to be at the fecte, as to be a scholler. d For the Lord had reueiled it vnto him. e Not onely at Bethel, but at Iericho and other places were there Prophets, which had schollers, whom they instructed and brought vp in the true feare of God.

g Let thy Spirit haue double force in me because of these dangerous times : or let me haue twice so much as the rest of the Prophets : or thy spirit being diuided into three parts, let mee haue two.

a So that he was punished for his idolatry after two sorts : for the Moabites which were wont to pay him tribute, rebelled, and he fell downe at a grate which was vpon his house to giue light beneath.

b The Philistines which dwelt at Ekron, worshipped this idole, which signifieth the god of flies, thinking that he could preserue them from the biting of flies : or els he was so called, because flies were ingendered in great abundance of the blood of the sacrifices that were offered to that idole.

c He sheweth that idolaters haue not the true God, for elsthey would seeke to none but to him alone. d Ignorance is the mother of error and idolatrie. e Somethinke that this is meant of his garments, which were rough and made of haire.

23 And they sayd, ° This is blood: the Kings are surely slaine, and one hath smitten another: now therefore Moab, to the spoile.

24 And when they came to the host of Israel, the Israelites arose vp, and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them, but they pursued them, and smote Moab.

25 And they destroyed the cities, and on all the good fields euery man cast his stone, & filled them, and they stoppt all the fountaines of water, and felled all the good trees: onely in Kir-harasheth left they the stones thereof: howbeit they went about it with slings, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battell was too sore for him, hee tooke with him seuen hundred men that drew the sword, to breake thorow vnto the king of Edom: but they could not.

And one of the wiues ° of the sonnes of the Prophet cryed vnto Elisha, saying, Thy seruant mine husband is dead, and thou knowest, that thy seruant did feare the Lord: and the creditor is come to take my two lonnes to bee his bondmen.

2 Then Elisha said vnto her, What shal I doe for thee? tell me, what hast thou at home? And she said, Thine handmaid hath nothing at home, save a ° pitcher of oyle.

3 And he said, Goe, and borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, emptie vessels, and spare not.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the doore vpon thee and vpon thy sonnes, and powre out into ° all those vessels, and set aside those that are full.

5 So she departed from him, and shut the doore vpon her, and vpon her sonnes. And they brought to her, and she powred out.

6 And when the vessels were full, she said vnto her sonne, e, Bring me yet a vessell. And he sayd vnto her, There is no more vessels. And the oyle ceased.

7 Then she came and tolde the man of God. And he said, Goe, and sell the oyle, and pay them that thou art in debt vnto, and liue thou and thy children of the rest.

8 ¶ And on a time Elisha came to Shunem, and there a woman of great estimation constrainned him to eat bread: and as he passed by, he turned in thither to eate bread.

9 And she said vnto her husband, Behold, I know now, that this is an holy man of God that passeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make him a little chamber, I pray thee, with wallies, & let vs set him there a bed and a table, and a stoole, and a candlestick, that hee may turne in thither when he cometh to vs:

11 ¶ And on a day, he came thither and turned into the chamber, and lay therein,

12 And said to Gehazi his seruant, Call this Shunammite: and when he called her, she stood before him.

13 Then he said vnto him, Say vnto her now, Behold, thou hast had all this great care for vs, what shal we do for thee? Is there anything to be spoken for thee to the King or to the captaine of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine owne people.

14 Again hee said, What is then to bee done for her? Then Gehazi answered, Indeede the hath no sonne, and her husband is old.

15 Then sayd he, Call her. And he called her, and she stood in the doore.

16 And he said, At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a sonne. And she sayd, Oh my lord, thou man of God, doe not lye vnto thine handmaid.

17 So the woman conceived, and bare a sonne at that same season, according to the time of life that Elisha had sayd vnto her.

18 ¶ And when the child was growen, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father, and to the reapers.

19 And he said vnto his father, ° Mine head, mine head. Who said to his seruant, Beare him to his mother.

20 And he tooke him and brought him to his mother, and he sate on her knees till noone, and died.

21 Then she went vp, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the doore vpon him, and went out.

22 ¶ Then she called to her husband, and said, Send with me, I pray thee, one of the yong men and one of the ailes: for I wil haste to the man of God, and come againe.

23 And hee sayd, Wherefore wilt thou goe to him to day? it is neither ° new moone nor Sabbath day. And she answered, † All shall be well.

24 Then she saddled an asse, and said to her seruant, Drive, and goe forward: stay not for me to get vp, except I bid thee.

25 ¶ So she went, and came vnto the man of God to mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw her, hee said to Gehazi his seruant, Behold, the Shunammite.

26 Runne now, I say, to meete her, and say vnto her, Art thou in health? is thine husband in health? and is the childe in health? And she answered, We are in health.

27 And when she came to the man of God vnto the mountaine, she ° caught him by his feet: and Gehazi went to her, to thrust her away: but the man of God sayd, Let her alone: for her soule is vexed within her, & the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told it me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a sonne of my lord? did I not say, Deceiue me not?

29 Then he sayd to Gehazi, Gird thy loynes, and take my staffe in thine hand, and go thy way: p if thou meete any, salute him not: and if any salute thee, answer him not: and lay my staffe vpon the face of the childe.

31 But Gehazi was gone before them, and had layd the staffe vpon the face of the child, but he neither spake nor heard: wherefore hee returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The child is now waken.

32 ¶ Then came Elisha into the house, and behold, the child was dead, and layd vpon his bed.

33 Hee went in therefore, and shut the doore vpon them twaine, and prayed vnto the Lord.

34 After he went vp, and lay vpon the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his hands vpon his hands, and stretched himselfe vpon him, and the flesh of the child waxed warme.

35 And he went from him, and walked vp and downe in the house, and went vp and spread himselfe vpon him: then the child needed seuen times and opened his eyes.

36 Then he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her, which came in vnto him. And he said vnto her, Take thy sonne.

37 And she came, and fel at his feet, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and tooke vp her sonne, and went out.

38 Afterward Elisha returned to Gilgal, and a famine was in the land, and the children of the Prophets dwelt with him. And he said vnto his seruants, Set on the great pot, and set the pottage for the children of the Prophets.

39 And one went out into the field, to gather herbes, and found as it were a wilde vine, and gathered thereof wilde gourdes his garment full, and came and thred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew it not.

40 So they powred out for the men to eate: and when they did eate of the pottage, they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, death is in the pot: and they could not eate thereof.

41 Then he said, Bring meale. And he cast it into the pot, and said, Powre but for the people, that they may eate: and there was none euill in the pot.

42 ¶ Then came a man from Baal-shalish, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twentie loaves of barley, and sultures of come in the tucker. And he said, Giue vnto the people that they may eate.

43 And his seruants answered, How should I set this before an hundred men? He said againe, Giue it vnto the people, that they may eate: for thus saith the Lord, They shall eate, & there shall remaine.

44 So hee set it before them, and they did eate, and left ouer, according to the word of the Lord.

CHAPTER V

1 Naaman the Syrian was healed of his leprosie. 2. Elisha refused to take any reward of him.

NOW was there one Naaman captaine of the hoste of the King of Aram, a great man, and honourable in the sight of his lord, because that by him the Lord had delivered the Aramites. He also was a mighty man and valiant, but a leper.

2 And the Aramites had gone out by bands, and had taken a litle mayd of the land of Israel, and she serued Naamans wife.

3 And she said vnto her mistresse, Would God my lord were with the Prophet that is in Samaria, he would soone deliuer him of his leprosie.

4 And he went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus saith the maide that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the King of Aram sayd, Goethy way thither, and I will send a letter vnto the King of Israel. And he departed, and tooke with him ten talents of siluer, and six thousand pieces of golde, and ten change of rayments.

6 And brought the letter to the king of Israel to this effect. Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderstand, that I haue sent thee Naaman my seruant, that thou mayst heale him of his leprosie.

7 And when the king of Israel had read the letter, hee rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to giue life that he doth send to me, that I should heale a man from his leprosie? wherefore confidet, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarell against me.

8 But when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, hee sent vnto the King, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a Prophet in Israel.

9 ¶ Then Naaman came with his horses, and with his charrets, and stood at the doore of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Goe and wash thee in Iordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naaman was wroth and went away, and said, Behold, I thought with my selfe, He will surely come out, and stand, and call on the Name of the Lord his God, and put his hand on the place and heale the leprosie.

12 Are not Achan and Pharpar, rulers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel? may I not wash me in them, and be cleansed? so he turned, and departed in displeasure.

13 But his seruants came, and spake vnto him, and said, Father, if the Prophet had commanded thee a great thing, wouldst thou not haue done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be cleane?

14 Then went he downe, and washed himselfe seven times in Iordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came againe, like vnto the flesh of a litle child, and he was cleane.

15 ¶ And hee turned againe to the man of God, hee, and all his companie, and came and stood before him, and said, Behold now, I know that there is no God in al the world but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a reward of thy seruants.

16 But hee saide, As the Lord liueth (before whom I stand) I will not receive it. And he would haue constrained him to receive it, but hee refused.

17 Moreover Naaman said, Shall there not be giue to thy seruants two mules load of this earth? for thy seruants wil henceforth offer neither burnt sacrifice nor offering vnto any other god, save vnto the Lord.

18 Herein the Lord bee mercifull vnto thy seruants, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon, to worship there, and leaneth on mine hande, and I bow myselfe in the house of Rimmon: when I doe bow downe, I say, in the 21 So Gehazi folowed speedily after Naaman. And when Naaman sawe him running after him, hee light downe from the charet to meete him, and said, Is all well?

22 And hee answered, All is well: my master hath sent mee, saying, Behold, there be come to mee, euen now from mount Ephraim two young men of the children of the Prophets: giue them, I pray thee, a talent of filuer, and two change of garments.

23 And Naaman said, Yea, take two talents: and hee compelled him, and bound two talents of filuer in two bags, with two change of garments, and gaue them vnto two of his seruants, that they might beare them before him.

24 And when hee came to the towne, hee tooke them out of their hands, and layed them in the house, and sent away the men: and they departed.

25 ¶ Then hee went in, and stood before his master. And Elifha said vnto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy seruant went no whither.

26 But hee said vnto him, ^a Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned againe from his charet to meete thee? Is this a time to take money, and to receiue garments, and oliues, and vineyards, and sheep and oxen, and men seruants, and maid seruants?

CHAP. VI.

⁶ Elifha maketh yron to swimme above the water. ⁸ Hee dislo-saith the king of Syria counsell to the king of Israel. ¹³ Who sending ceruies to take him, were kept fast in Samaria. ²⁴ Samaria was besieged, and endured extreme famine.

And the children of the Prophets said vnto Elifha, Behold, we pray thee, the place where we dwell with thee, is to little for vs.

2 Let vs now go to Iorden, that we may take thence euery man a beame, and make vs a place to dwell in. And he answered, Goe.

3 And one said, Vouchsafe, I pray thee, to goe with thy seruants. And he answered, I will goe.

4 So he went with them, and when he came to Iorden, they cut downe wood.

5 And as one was felling of a tree, the yron fell into the water: then hee cried, and said, Alas master, it was but borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. Then he cut downe a piece of wood, and cast in thither, and he caused the yron to swimme.

7 Then hee said, Take it vp to thee. And hee stretched out his hand, and tooke it.

8 ¶ Then the king of Aram warred against Israel, and took counsell with his seruants, and said, In such and such a place shall be my campe.

9 Therefore the man of God sent vnto the king of Israel, saying, Beware thou goe not ouer to such a place: for there the Aramites are come downe.

10 So the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him, and warned him of, and ^d saved himselfe from thence, not once, nor twice.

11 And the heart of the king of Aram was troubled for this thing: therefore hee called his seruants, and said vnto them, Will yee not shewe me, which of vs bewrayeth our counsell to the king of Israel?

12 Then one of his seruants said, None, my lord, O king, but Elifha the Prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel, ^e euen the wordes that thou speakest in thy priue chamber.

13 And he said, Goe and espie where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And one told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 ¶ So he sent thither horses, and charets, and a mightie hoste: and they came by night, and compassed the citie.

15 And when the seruant of the man of God arose early to goe out, beholde, an hoste compassed the citie with horses and charets. Then his seruant said vnto him, Alas master, how shall we doe?

16 And hee answered, ^g Feare not: for they that bee with vs, are moe then they that bee with them.

17 Then Elifha prayed, and said, Lord, I beseech thee open his eyes, ^h that hee may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the seruant, and hee looked, and beholde, the mountaine was full of horses and charets of fire round about Elifha.

18 So they came downe to him, but Elifha prayed vnto the Lord, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness, according to the word of Elifha.

19 And Elifha said vnto them, This is not the way, neither is this the citie: follow me, and I will leade you to the man whom yee seeke. But he led them to Samaria.

20 And when they were come to Samaria, Elifha said, Lord open their eyes that they may see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they sawe, and beholde, they were in the middes of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said vnto Elifha when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them, shall I smite them?

22 And hee answered, Thou shalt not smite them: doest thou not smite them that thou hast taken with thy sword, and with thy bowe? but set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drinke and goe to their master.

23 And he made great preparation for them: and when they had eaten and drunken, hee sent them away: and they went to their master. So the bands of Aram came no more into the land of Israel.

24 But afterward Ben-hadad king of Aram gathered all his hoste, and went vp and besieged Samaria.

25 So there was a great famine in Samaria: for loe, they besieged it vntill an asses head was at fourescore pieces of filuer, and the fourth part of a kab of doutes ^a dung at five pieces of filuer.

CHAP. VII.

1 Elifha prophesieth plenty of vittales and other things to Samaria. 6 The Syrians run away, and leave no man following them.

12 The prince that would not believe the word of Elifha, is pre- sented to death.

Then Elifha saide, Heare ye the word of the Lord: thus saith the Lord, a To morowe this time a measure of fine floure shall be sold for a she- kel, and two measures of barley for a shekel in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a prince, on whose hande the king leaned, answered the man of God, and saide, Though the Lord would make windowes in the heaven, could this thing come to passe? And hee said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof.

3 Now there were foure leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to ano- ther, Why sit we here vntill we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the citie, the famine is in the citie, and we shall diethere: and if we sit heere, we die also. Now therefore come, and let vs fall into the campe of the Aramites: if they saue our liues, wee shall liue: and if they kill vs, we are but dead.

5 So they rose vp in the twilight, to goe to the campe of the Aramites: and when they were come to the ymost part of the campe of the Ara- mites, loe, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had caused the campe of the Aramites to heare a noise of charres, and a noise of horses, and a noise of a great armie, so that they said one to another, Beholde, the King of Is- rael hath hired against vs the kings of the Hiti- tites, and the kings of the Egyptians to come vpon vs.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twi- light, and left their tents and their horses, and their asses, in the campe as it was, and fled for their liues.

8 And when these lepers came to the ymost part of the campe, they entred into one tent, and did eate and drinke, and caried thence siluer and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it: after, they turned, and entred into another tent, and caried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then said one to another, Wee doe not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and wee hold our peace. If wee tarie till day light, some mischief will come vpon vs. Now therefore, come, let vs goe and tell the kings household.

10 So they came and called vnto the porters of the citie, and told them, saying, We came to the campe of the Aramites, and loe, there was no man there, neither voyce of man, but horses tyed and asses tyed: and the tents are as they were.

11 And the porters cried and declared to the kings house within.

12 Then the king arose in the night, and said vnto his seruants, I will shew you now, what the Aramites haue done vnto vs. They know that we are affamished, therefore they are gone out of the campe to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the citie, we shall catch them a- liue, and get into the citie.

13 And one of his seruants answered, and said, Let vs take now five of the horses that remain, and sit left in the citie, (behold, they are euen as all the multitude of Israel that are left therein: behold, I say, they are as the multitude of the Is- raelites that are consumed) and we will send to see.

14 So they tooke two charres of horses, and the king sent after the hoste of the Aramites, say- ing, Goe and see.

15 And they went after them vnto Iordan, and lo, all the way was full of clothes & vessels which the Aramites had cast from them in their halts: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 Then the people went out and spoiled the campe of the Aramites, so a measure of fine floure was at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel according to the word of the Lord.

17 And the king gaue the prince (on whose hand he leaned) the charge of the gate, and the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, which spake it, when the king came downe to him.

18 And it came to passe, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley at a shekel, & a measure of fine floure shall be at a shekel, to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 But the prince had answered the man of God, & said, Though the Lord would make win- dows in the heaven, could it come so to passe? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eate thereof.

20 And so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he died.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Elifha prophesieth vnto the Shunammite the dearth of steeu- yeres. 12 Hee prophesieth to Hazael, that hee shall bee king of Syria. 15 Hee reigneth after Ben- hadad. 16 Jehoash reig- neth ouer Iudah. 20 Edom fulleneth from Iudah. 23 Ahaziah succedeth Jehoash.

Then spake Elifha vnto the woman, * whose sonne hee had restored to life, saying, Vp, and goe, thou and thine house, and sojourn where thou canst sojourn: for the Lord hath called for a famine, and it commeth also vpon the land se- uen yeres.

a Where thou canst find a commodious place to dwell where as is plenty.

3 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, and went both she & her household and sojourned in the land of the Philistims seven yeeres.

3 ¶ And at the seven yeeres ende, the woman returned out of the land of the Philistims, and went out to call vpon the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the King talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great acts that Elisha hath done.

5 And as he told the King, how he had restored one dead to life, behold, the woman, whose sonne hee had raised to life, called vpon the King for her house and for her land. Then Gehazi said, My Lord, O King, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the King asked the woman, she told him: so the King appointed her an Eunuch, saying, Restore thou all that are hers, and all the fruites of her landes since the day shee left the land, euen vntill this time.

7 ¶ Then Elisha came to Damascus, and Ben-hadad the King of Aram was sicke: and one told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the King said vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go meete the man of God, that thou mayest inquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 ¶ So Hazael went to meete him, and tooke the present in his hand, and of every good thing of Damascus, euen the burden of fourtie camels, and came and stood before him, and sayde, Thy sonne Ben-hadad King of Aram hath sent mee to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha layd to him, Goe, and say vnto him, Thou shalt recover: howbeit the Lord hath shewed me that he shall surely die.

11 And hee looked vpon him stedfastly, till Hazael was ashamed, and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the euill that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fire, and their yong men shalt thou slay with the sword, & shalt dash their infants against the stones, and rent in pieces their women with child.

13 Then Hazael said, What is thy servant? a dogge, that I should doe this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hath shewed mee, that thou shalt be King of Aram.

14 ¶ So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, Hee tolde me that thou shouldst recover.

15 And on the morrow hee tooke a thicke cloth and dip it in water, and spread it on his face, and he died: and Hazael reigned in his steade.

16 ¶ Now in the first yeere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel, and of Jehoahaphat King of Iudah, Jehoram the sonne of Jehoahaphat king of Iudah began to reigne.

17 He was two and thirtie yeere old, when hee began to reigne: and he reigned eight yeere in Ierusalem.

18 And hee walked in the waies of the Kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did euill in the sight of the Lord.

19 Yet the Lord would not destroy Iudah for David his seruants sake, as he had promised him to giue him a light, and to his children for euer.

20 ¶ In thole dayes Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah, and made a king ouer themselves.

21 Therefore Ioram went to Zair, and all his chariats with him, & he arose by night, and smote the Edomites which were about him, with the captaines of the chariats, and the people fled into their tents.

22 So Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah vnto this day: then Libnah rebelled at that same time.

23 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioram and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

24 And Ioram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of David. And Abaziah his sonne reigned in his steade.

25 ¶ In the twelfth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel did Abaziah the sonne of Jehoram king of Iudah begin to reigne.

26 ¶ Two and twentie yeere old was Abaziah when he began to reigne, & he reigned one yeere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri King of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, & did euill in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for he was the sonne in law of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Ioram the sonne of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram in Ramoth Gilead, and the Aramites smote Ioram.

29 And king Ioram returned to bee healed in Izreel of the wounds which the Aramites had giuen him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Abaziah the sonne of Jehoram king of Iudah went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Ahab in Izreel, because he was sicke.

THE Elisha the Prophet called one of the children of the Prophets, and sayde vnto him, Gird thy loynes, and take this boxe of oyle in thine hand, and get thee to Ramoth Gilead.

2 And when thou comest thither, looke where is Jehu the sonne of Jehoahaphat, the sonne of Nimshi, and goe, and make him arise vp from among his brethren, and leade him to a secret chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of oyle and powre it on his head and say, Thus saith the Lord, I haue anointed thee for king ouer Israel: then open the doore, and flee without any tarrying.

4 So the servant of the Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead.

5 And when he came in, behold, the captaines of the armie were sitting. And hee sayd, I haue a message to thee, O captaine. And Jehu sayd, Vnto which of all vs? And he answered, To thee, O captaine.

6 And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head & sayd vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue anointed thee for king ouer the people of the Lord, euen ouer Israel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall be destroyed: and * I will cut off from Ahab him that maketh water against the wall, as well him that is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel.

9 And I will make the house of Ahab, like the house * of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and like the house * of Baasha the sonne of Abihah.

10 And the dogges shall eate Iezabel in the field of Iezel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the doore, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Iehu came out to the * servants of his lord. And he said vnto him, Is all well? wherefore came this * middle fellow to thee? And hee said vnto them, Yee know the man, and what his talke was.

12 And they said, It is false, tel vs it now. Then he said, Thus and thus spake he to mee, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I have annointed thee for King over Israel.

13 Then they made haste, and tooke euery man his garment, & put it vnder him on the top of the staires, and blew the trumpet, saying, Iehu is King.

14 So Iehu the sonne of Iehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Ioram: (Now Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael King of Aram.)

15 And * King Ioram returned to be healed in Iezel of the wounds, which the Aramites had giuen him, when he fought with Hazael King of Aram: and Iehu said, If it be your minds, let no man depart and escape out of the citie, to goe and tell in Iezel.

16 So Iehu gate vp into a charet, and went to Iezel: for Ioram lay there, and * Ahaziah King of Iudah was come downe to see Ioram.

17 And the watchman that stood in the tower in Iezel spied the company of Iehu as hee came, and said, I see a company. And Iehoram said, Take a horseman and send to meet them, that he may say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horsebacke to meete him, & said, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Iehu saide, What hast thou to doe with peace? ¶ Turne behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but hee cometh not againe.

19 Then hee sent out another on horsebacke, which came to them, & said, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Iehu answered, What hast thou to doe with peace? turne behind me.

20 And the watchman tolde, saying, Hee came to them also, but cometh not againe, and the marching is like the marching of Iehu the sonne of Nimshi: for hee marcheth furiously.

21 ¶ Then Iehoram said, Make ready: and his charet was made ready. And Iehoram King of Israel, and Ahaziah King of Iudah went out either of them in his charet against Iehu, and met him in the field of Naboth the Iezreelite.

22 And when Iehoram saw Iehu, he said, Is it peace, Iehu? And hee answered, What? peace, whilst the whoredomes of thy mother Iezabel, and her witchcrafts are yet in great number?

23 Then Iehoram turned his hand, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, O Ahaziah, there is treason.

24 But Iehu tooke a bow in his hand, and smote Iehoram between the shoulder, that the arrow went through his heart: and he fell down in his charet.

25 Then said Iehu to Bidkar a captaine, Take, and cast him in some place of the field of Naboth the Iezreelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord ¶ laid this burden vpon him.

26 * Surely I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his * sonnes, said the Lord, and I will render it thee in this field, saith the Lord: now therefore take and cast him in the field according to the word of the Lord.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Iudah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house: And Iehu pursued after him, and said, Smite him also in the charet: and they smote him in the going vp to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and there fled.

28 And his servants carried him in a charet to Ierusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of David.

29 ¶ And in the * eleventh yeere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reigne ouer Iudah.

30 And when Iehu was come to Iezel, Iezabel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Iehu entered at the gate, ¶ she says, Had * Zimri peace, which slew his master?

32 And hee lift vp his eyes to the window, and said, Who is on my side, vnu? Then two or three of her ¶ Eunuchs looked vnto him.

33 And hee said, Call her downe: and they cast her downe, and he sprinkled of her blood vpon the wall, and vpon the horses, and hee trode her vnder foot.

34 And when hee was come in hee did eate and drinke, & said, Vnto now yonder carried woman, and bury her: for she is * Kings daughter.

35 And they went to bury her, but they found no more of her, then the skull and the feet, and the palmes of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came againe and told him. And hee said, This is the word of the Lord which he spake ¶ by his seruant Elisha the Tishbite, saying, * In the field of Iezel shall the dogges eate the flesh of Iezabel.

37 And the carkeles of Iezabel shall be as dogges vpon the ground in the field of Iezel: so that none shall say, ¶ This is Iezabel.

CHAP. X
¶ Iehoram the sonne of Ahab, and Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram, and Iezabel the wife of Iehoram, and Iehu the sonne of Nimshi, conspired against Ioram, and hee slew him in the field of Naboth the Iezreelite.

Ahab had now twenty sonnes in Samaria. And Iehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Iezel, and to the Elders, and to the bringers vp of Ahab's children, to this effect, ¶ Now when this letter cometh to you, (for ye haue with you your masters sonnes, yee haue with you both chariots and horses, and a defended citie and armour.)

3 Consider therefore which of your masters sonnes is best and most meete, to set him on his fathers throne, and fight for your masters house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Beholde, two kings could not stand before him, how shall we then stand?

5 And

¶ Or spake this prophesie against him.

h By this place it is euident, that Iezabel caused both Naboth and his sonnes to be put to death, that Ahab might enjoy his vineyard more quietly: for els his children might haue claimed possession.

i After that he was wounded in Samaria, he fled to Megiddo, which was a citie of Iudah. k That is, eleues whole yeeres: for chap. 23. before, when hee said that he began to reigne the twelfth yeere of Ioram, hee taketh part of the yeere for the whole.

s And

t He wrote this, to proue them whether they would take his part or no.

5 And he that was gouernour of Ahab's house, and he that ruled the city, and the Elders, and the bringers vp of the children sent to Iehu, saying, We are thy seruants, & will do all that thou shalt bid vs: we will make no king: doe what seemeth good to thee.

6 ¶ Then hee wrote another letter to them, saying, If yee be mine, and will obey my voyce, take the heads of the men that are your masters sonnes, and come to mee to Izreel by to morow this time. (Now the Kings sonnes, even seuentie persons were with the great men of the citie, which brought them vp).

7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the Kings sonnes, and slewe the seuentie persons, and layd their heads in baskets, and sent them vnto him to Izreel.

8 ¶ Then there came a messenger and tolde him, saying, They haue brought the heads of the Kings sonnes. And he said, Let them lay them on two heapes at the entring in of the gate vntil the morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, & stood and said to all the people, Ye be ^d righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slewe him: but who slew all these?

10 Knowe now that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the word of the Lorde, which the Lorde spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the Lorde hath brought to passe the things that he spake [†] by his seruant * Elijah.

11 So Iehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Izreel, and all that were great with him, and his familiars, and his ^c priests, so that he let none of his remaine.

12 ¶ And he arose, and departed, and came to Samaria. And as Iehu was in the way by an house where the shepherds did stand,

13 He met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Iudah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, Wee are the brethren of Ahaziah, and goe downe to salute the children of the King and the children of the Queene.

14 And he said, Take them aliuie. And they tooke them aliuie, and slew them at the wel beside the house where the sheepe are shorne, even two and fourtie men, and he [†] left not one of them.

15 ¶ And when hee was departed thence, hee met with Iehonadab the sonne of Rechab coming to meeke him, and hee [†] blessed him, and said to him, Is thine heart vp right, as mine heart is toward thine? And Iehonadab answered, Yea, doubtlesse. Then giue me thine hand. And when he had given him his hand, hee tooke him vp to him into the charet.

16 And he said, Come with mee, and see the zeale that I haue for the Lord: so they made him ride in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained vnto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the word of [†] Lord, which he spake to Elijah.

18 Then Iehu assembled all the people, and said vnto them, Ahab serued ^b Baal a little, but Iehu shall serue him much more.

19 Now therefore call vnto mee all the prophets of Baal, all his seruants, and all his priests, and let not a man bee lacking: for I haue a great sacrifice for Baal: whosoener is lacking, hee shall not liue. But Iehu did it by a subtiltie to destroy the seruants of Baal.

20 And Iehu said, [†] Proclaime a solemne assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 So Iehu sent vnto all Israel, and all the seruants of Baal came, and there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from ende to ende.

22 Then hee sayde vnto him that had the charge of the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the seruants of Baal. And hee brought them out vestments.

23 And when Iehu went, and Iehonadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, hee said vnto the seruants of Baal, Search diligently, and looke, lest there be here with you any of the [†] seruants of the Lord, but the seruants of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to make sacrifice and burnt offering, Iehu appointed fourescore men without, and sayd, If any of the men whom I haue brought into your handes, escape, [†] his soule shall be for his soule.

25 And when hee had made an ende of the burnt offering, Iehu sayd to the gard, and to the captaines, Goe in, slay them, let not a man come out. And they smote them with the edge of the sword. And the gard, and the captaines cast them out, and went into the ^k city, where was the temple of Baal.

26 And they brought out the images of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they destroyed the image of Baal, and threw downe the house of Baal, and made a iakes of it vnto this day.

28 So Iehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 But from the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat which made Israel to sinne, Iehu departed not from them, neither from the golden calves that were in Beth-el and that were in Dan.

30 ¶ And the Lord sayd vnto Iehu, Because thou hast diligently executed that which was right in mine eyes, and hast done vnto the house of Ahab according to all things that were in mine heart, therefore shall thy [†] sonnes vnto the fourth generation sit on the throne of Israel.

31 But Iehu regarded not to walke in the law of the Lord God of Israel with all his heart: for hee departed not from the finnes of Ieroboam, which made Israel to sinne.

32 In those dayes the Lord began to [†] lothe Israel, and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel, 33 From Iorden Eastward, even all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and them that were of Manasseh, from Aroer (which is by the riuer Arnon) and Gilead and Bashan.

34 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehu, and all that he did, and all his valiant deedes, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Iehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Jehoahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

2 But Iehosheba the daughter of king Ioram, and sister to Ahaziah, tooke Iosiah the sonne of Ahaziah, and stalle him from among the Kings sonnes that should bee slaine, both him and his nourse, keeping them in the bed chamber, and they hid him from Athaliah, so that hee was not slaine.

3 And hee was with her hid in the house of the Lord sixe yeere, and Athaliah did reigne ouer the land.

4 ¶ And the seventh yeere Iehoiada sent and tooke the captaines ouer hundreths, with other captaines and them of the garde, and caused them to come vnto him into the house of the Lord, and made a couenent with them, and tooke an othe of them in the house of the Lorde, and shewed them the Kings sonne.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is it that yee must doe. The third part of you that commeth on the Sabbath, shall ward toward the Kings house:

6 And another third part in the gate of the Sun: and another third part in the gate behind them of the garde: and ye shall keepe watch in the house of Massiah.

7 And two parts of you, that is, all that goe out on the Sabbath day, shall keepe the watch of the house of the Lord about the King.

8 And yee shall compass the King round about, euery man with his weapon in his hand, and whosoever commeth within the ranges, let him bee slaine: be you with the King, as hee goeth out and in.

9 ¶ And the captaines of the hundreths did according to all that Iehoiada the Priest commanded: and they tooke euery man his men that entred in to their charge on the Sabbath, with them that went out of it on the Sabbath, & came to Iehoiada the Priest.

10 And the Priest gaue to the captaines of hundreths the speeres and the shields that were king Davids, and were in the house of the Lord.

11 And the garde stood, euery man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side, about the altar and about the house round about the king.

12 Then he brought out the kings sonne, and put the crowne vpon him, and gaue him the Testimony, & they made him king: also they anointed him, and clapt their hands, and said, God saue the King.

13 ¶ And when Athaliah heard the noyse of the running of the people, she came in to the people in the house of the Lord.

14 And when shee looked, behold, the King stood by a pillar, as the manner was, & the princes and the trumpeters by the King, and all the people of the land reioyced, and blew with trumpets. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and cryed, Treason, treason.

15 But Iehoiada the Priest commanded the captaines of the hundreths that had the rule of the hosts, and said vnto them, Hime her forth of the ranges, and he that followeth her, let him die by the sword: for the Priest had said, Let her not bee slaine in the house of the Lord.

16 Then they layd hands on her, and she went by the way, by the which the horses goe to the house of the King, and there was she slaine.

17 And Iehoiada made a couenent betweene

the Lord, and the king and the people, that they should bee the Lords people: likewise betweene the King and the people.

18 Then all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, & destroyed it with his altars, and his images brake they downe courageously, and slewe Mattan the Priest of Baal before the altars: and the Priest set a gard ouer the house of the Lord.

19 Then he tooke the captaines of hundreths, and the other captaines, and the garde, and all the people of the land: and they brought the King from the house of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of the garde to the Kings house: and hee set him downe on the throne of the Kings.

20 And all the people of the land reioyced, and the city was in quiet: for they had slaine Athaliah with the sword before the kings house.

21 Seuen yeere old was Iehoshaf when he began to reigne.

CHAP. XII.

Iehoshaf maketh provision for the repairing of the Temple. 18 He slayeth the king of Seir by a present from counselling against Jerusalem. 20 He is killed by one of his seruants.

1 N the seventh yeere of Iehu Iehoshaf began to reigne, and reigned fourie yeeres in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Zabiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Iehoshaf did that which was good in the sight of the Lord all his time: that Iehoiada the Priest taught him.

3 But the hie places were not taken away: for the people offered yet and burnt incense in the hie places.

4 ¶ And Iehoshaf said to the Priests, All the filuer of dedicate things that bee brought to the house of the Lord, that is, the money of them that are vnder the count, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money that one offereth willingly, and bringeth into the house of the Lord,

5 Let the Priests take it to them, euery man of his acquaintance: and they shall repaire the broken places of the house, wheresoever any decay is found.

6 ¶ Yet in the three and twentieth yeere of king Iehoshaf the Priests had not mended that which was decayed in the Temple.

7 Then king Iehoshaf called for Iehoiada the Priest, and the other Priests, and said vnto them, Why repaire yee not the ruines of the Temple? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, except yee deliuer it to repaire the ruines of the Temple.

8 So the Priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repaire the decayed places of the Temple.

9 Then Iehoiada the Priest tooke a chest and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side, as euery man cometh into the Temple of the Lord, and the Priests that kept the doore, put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

10 And when they saw there was much money in the chest, the kings secretary came vp and the hie Priest, and put it vp after that they had tolde the money that was found in the house of the Lord,

11 And they gaue the money made ready into the handes of them, that vnderooke the worke,

13 Add to the masons and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone, to repaire that was decayed in the house of the Lord, & for all that which was laid out for the reparation of the Temple.

14 For these men had only charge of the reparation of the Temple, and the rest of the money was brought to the king, who caused these afterward to be made, 2 Chron. 24. 14.

15 Moreover, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hands they deliuered that money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

16 The money of the trespass offering, and the money of the sinne offerings was not brought into the house of the Lord: for it was the Priests.

17 Then came vp Hazael king of Aram, and fought against Gath, and tooke it, and Hazael set his face to goe vp to Ierusalem.

18 And Iehoa. king of Iudah tooke all the hallowed things that Iehoshaphat, & Iehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers, kings of Iudah, had dedicated, and that he himselfe had dedicated; and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and in the kings house, & sent it to Hazael king of Aram, and he departed from Ierusalem.

IN the three and twentieth yeere of Ioa. the sonne of Ahaziah king of Iudah, Iehoa. the sonne of Iehu began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seuentene yeere.

2 And hee did euill in the fight of the Lord, & followed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael king of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the sonne of Hazael, all his dayes.

4 And Iehoa. besought the Lord, and the Lord heard him: for he saw the trouble of Israel, wherewith the king of Aram troubled them.

5 (And the Lord gaue Israel a deliuerer, so that they came out from vnder the subiection of the Aramites. And the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as beforetime.)

6 Nevertheless, they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Ieroboam which made Israel sinne, but walked in them, euen the groue also remained still in Samaria.)

7 For he had left of the people to Iehoa. but fiftie horsemen, and ten charres, and ten thousand footmen, because the king of Aram had destroyed them, and made them like dust beaten to powder.

8 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoa. and all that he did, and his valiant deeds, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Iehoa. slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Ioa. his sonne reigned in his stead.

10 In the seuen and thirtieth yeere of Ioa. king of Iudah began Iehoa. the sonne of Iehoa. to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, & reigned sixtene yeere.

11 And did euill in the fight of the Lord: for hee departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat that made Israel to sinne, but he walked therein.

12 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioa. and all that he did, & his valiant deeds, and how hee fought against Amaziah king of Iudah, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Ioa. slept with his fathers, and Ieroboam sat vpon his seat: and Ioa. was buried in Samaria among the kings of Israel.

14 When Elisha fell sicke of his sicknesse whereof he died, Ioa. the king of Israel came downe vnto him, & wept vpon his face, and said, Oh my father, my father, the char of Israel, and the horsemen of the same.

15 Then Elisha said vnto him, Take a bowe and arrowes. And hee tooke vnto him bowe and arrowes.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bow. And he put his hand vpon it. And Elisha put his hands vpon the kings hands.

17 And said, Open the window Eastward. And when he had opened it, Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, Beholde the arrow of the Lords deliuerance, and the arrowe of deliuerance against Aram: for thou shalt smite the Aramites in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them.

18 Again he said, Take the arrowes. And hee tooke them. And hee said vnto the king of Israel, Smite the ground. And he smote thrise, and ceased.

19 Then the man of God was angry with him, and said, Thou shouldest haue smitten fise or sixtimes, so thou shouldest haue smitten Aram, till thou hadst consumed it, where now thou shalt smite Aram but thrise.

20 So Elisha died, and they buried him. And certaine bands of the Moabites came into the land that yeere.

21 And as they were burying a man, behold, they saw the souldiers: therefore they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha. And when the man was downe, and touched the bones of Elisha, he reuiued, and stood vpon his feete.

22 But Hazael king of Aram vexed Israel all the dayes of Iehoa.

g His chiefe purpose is to describe the kingdome of Iudah and how God performed his promise made to the house of David: but by the way he sheweth how Israel was afflicted and punished for their great idolatrie, who though they had now degenerate, yet God both by sending them sundry Prophets and diuers punishments did call them vnto him againe.

k Because he seemed content to haue victorie against the enemies of God for twise or thrise, and had not a zeale to overcome them continually, and to destroy them vnto the last.

l By this miracle God confirmed the authoritie of Elisha, whose doctrine in his life they contemned, that at this fight they might retorne and embrace the same doctrine.

in That is, until their sinnes were come to full measure, and there was no more hope of amendment.

14 So Hazeel the king of Aram died, and Ben-hadad his sonne reigned in his stead.
15 Therefore Jehoash the sonne of Jehoahaz reigned, & tooke out of the hand of Ben-hadad the sonne of Hazeel the cities which he had taken away by warre out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father: for three times did Jehoash beate him, & restored the cities vnto Israel.

1 Amariah the king of Iudah putteth to death them that slew his father, 7 and after him Ieroboam. 15 Ioshu dieth, and Ieroboam his sonne succedeth him. 29 And after him reigneth Zachariah.

* 2. Chron. 25. 1.

The second yeere of Ioshu sonne of Jehoahaz king of Israel, reigned Amariah the sonne of Ioshu king of Iudah.

2 He was five and twentie yeere old when he began to reigne, and reigned nine and twentie yeere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Ierobadan of Ierusalem.

3 And he did ^a uprightly in the sight of the Lord, yet not like Dauid his father, but did according to all that Ioshu his father had done.

4 Notwithstanding the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people did sacrifice, and burnt incense in the high places.

5 And when the kingdome was confirmed in his hand, he slew his seruants which had killed the king his father.

6 But the children of those that did slay him, he slew not, according vnto that that is written in the booke of the Law of Moses, wherein the Lord commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children put to death for the fathers: but every man shall be put to death for his owne sinne.

7 Hee slew also of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and tooke the cite of Sela by warre, and called the name thereof Joktheel vnto this day.

8 Then Amariah sent messengers to Jehoash the sonne of Jehoahaz, sonne of Ieroboam king of Israel, saying, Come, let vs see one another in the face.

9 Then Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amariah king of Iudah, saying, The thistle that is in Lebanon, sent to the Cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, Giue thy daughter to my sonne to wife: and the wilde beast that was in Lebanon, went and trode downe the thistle.

10 Because thou hast smitten Edom, thine heart hath made thee proud: bragge of glorie, and tarie at home. Why dost thou prouoke to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, and Iudah with thee?

11 But Amariah would not heare: therefore Jehoash king of Israel went vp: and he and Amariah king of Iudah saw one another in the face at Beth shemesh which is in Iudah.

12 And Iudah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled euery man to their tents.

13 But Jehoash king of Israel tooke Amariah king of Iudah, the sonne of Jehoash the sonne of Ahaziah at Beth shemesh, and came to Ierusalem, and brake downe the wall of Ierusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, foure hundred cubits.

14 And he tooke all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kings house, and the children that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria.

15 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his valiant deeds, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Iudah, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria among the kings of Israel: and Ieroboam his sonne reigned in his stead.

17 And Amariah the sonne of Ioshu king of Iudah, liued after the death of Jehoash sonne of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteene yeere.

18 Concerning the rest of the acts of Amaziah are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

19 But they wrought treason against him in Ierusalem, and he fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him on horses, and hee was buried at Ierusalem with his fathers in the cite of Dauid.

21 Then all the people of Iudah tooke Amariah which was sixteene yeere old, and made him king for his father Amariah.

22 Hee built Elath, and restored it to Iudah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth yeere of Amariah the sonne of Ioshu king of Iudah, was Ieroboam the sonne of Ioshu made king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned one and fortie yeere.

24 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, for hee departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which he made Israel to sinne.

25 Hee restored the coast of Israel from the entring of Hamath, vnto the sea of the wilderness, according to the word of the Lord God of Israel, which he spake by his seruant Iona the sonne of Amittai the Prophet, which was of Gath Hepher.

26 For the Lord saw the exceeding bitter affliction of Israel, so that there was none that vp, nor any left, neither yet any that could helpe Israel.

27 Yet the Lord had not decreed to put out the name of Israel from vnder the heauen: therefore hee preserved them by the hand of Ieroboam the sonne of Ioshu.

28 Concerning the rest of the acts of Ieroboam, and all that hee did, and his valiant deeds, and how he fought, and how he restored Damascus, & Hamath to Iudah in Israel, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 So Ieroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel, and Zachariah his sonne reigned in his stead.

12 This was the word of the Lord, which he spake vnto Iehu, saying, Thy sonnes shall sit on the throne of Israel vnto the fourth generation after thee. And it came so to passe.

13 ¶ Shallum the sonne of Iabesh began to reigne in the nine and thirtieth yeere of Vzziah King of Iudah: and he reigned the space of a moneth in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the sonne of Gadi went vp from Tirzah, & came to Samaria, & smote Shallum the son of Iabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 Concerning the rest of the actes of Shallum, and the treason which he wrought, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

16 ¶ Then Menahem destroyed Tiphshah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah, because they opened not to him, and hee smote it, and ripe vp all their women with child.

17 The nine and thirtieth yeere of Azariah king of Iudah, beganne Menahem the sonne of Gadi to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned ten yeeres in Samaria.

18 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, and departed not all his dayes from the sinne of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

19 ¶ Then Pul the king of Ashtur came against the land: and Menahem gaue Pul a thousand talents of siluer, that his hand might bee with him, and establish the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem exacted the money in Israel, that all men of substance should giue the king of Ashtur fiftie shekels of siluer a peece: so the king of Ashtur returned and taried not there in the land.

21 Concerning the rest of the actes of Menahem, & all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his sonne did reigne in his stead.

23 ¶ In the fiftieth yeere of Azariah king of Iudah, began Pekahiah the sonne of Menahem to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, & reigned two yeere.

24 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

25 And Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, his captaine conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria in the place of the kings palace with Argob & Arieah, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: so he killed him, and reigned in his stead.

26 Concerning the rest of the actes of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel:

27 ¶ In the two and fiftieth yeere of Azariah King of Iudah, began Pekah the sonne of Remaliah to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and reigned twentie yeere.

28 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from the finnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, that made Israel to sinne.

29 In the dayes of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath Pileser king of Ashtur, & took Lion, and Abel, Beth-maachah, and Ianoah, & Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilah, and all the land of Naphtali, and caried them away to Ashtur.

30 And Hoshea the sonne of Elah wrought treason against Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead in the twentieth yeere of Iotham the sonne of Vzziah.

31 Concerning the rest of the actes of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 ¶ In the second yeere of Pekah the sonne of Remaliah King of Israel, began Iotham sonne of Vzziah King of Iudah to reigne.

33 Five and twentie yeere old was hee, when he began to reigne, and he reigned sixteen yeere in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Ierusha the daughter of Zadok.

34 And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lord: he did according to all that his father Vzziah had done.

35 But the hie places were not put away: for the people yet offered and burnt incense in the hie places: he built the highest gate of the house of the Lord.

36 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iotham, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

37 In those daies the Lord began to send against Iudah, Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah the sonne of Remaliah.

38 And Iotham slept with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father, and Ahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

The seconteenth yeere of Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, Ahaz the sonne of Iotham king of Iudah began to reigne.

2 Twentie yeere old was Ahaz, when hee began to reigne, and he reigned sixteen yeere in Ierusalem, and did not vprightly in the sight of the Lord his God, like Dauid his father:

3 But walked in the way of the kings of Israel, &c. Thus we see how vncertaine it is to depend on the dignity of our fathers.

yea, and made his sonne to go through the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 Also he offered and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and vnder every greene tree.

5 Then Rezin King of Aram and Pekah sonne of Remaliah king of Israel came vp to Ierusalem, to fight: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.

6 At the same time Rezin king of Aram restored Elath to Aram, and droue the Iewes from Elath: so the Aramites came to Elath, and dwelt there vnto this day.

7 Then Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser king of Asshur, saying, I am thy seruant and thy sonne: come vp, and deliuer mee out of the hand of the King of Aram, and out of the hand of the King of Israel which rise vp against me.

8 And Ahaz tooke the silver and the golde which was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent a present vnto the King of Asshur.

9 And the King of Asshur consented vnto him: and the King of Asshur went vp against Damascus. And when he had taken it, he caried the people away to Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 And King Ahaz went vnto Damascus to meete Tiglath Pileser king of Asshur: and when King Ahaz saw the altar that was at Damascus, he sent to Uriah the Priest the paterne of the altar, and the fashion of it, and all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Uriah the Priest made an altar in all points like to that which King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did Uriah the Priest against King Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 So when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the Altar: and the King drew nere to the Altar, and offered thereon.

13 And hee burnt his burnt offering, and his meate offering, and poured his drinke offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings besides the altar.

14 And set it by the brazen altar which was before the Lord, and brought it in farther before the house betweene the altar and the house of the Lord, and set it on the Northside of the altar.

15 And King Ahaz commanded Uriah the Priest, and said, Vpon the great altar set on fire in the morning the burnt offering, and in the euening the meate offering, and the kings burnt offering and his meate offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meate offering, and their drinke offerings: and poure thereby all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice, and the brazen altar shall be for me to enquire of God.

16 And Uriah the Priest did according to all that King Ahaz had commanded.

17 And King Ahaz brake the borders of the bases, & tooke the caldrons from off them, & tooke downe the sea from the brazen oven that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pavement of stones.

18 And the waile for the Sabbath (that they had made in the house) and the kings entry without turned he to the house of the Lord, because of the King of Asshur.

19 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ahaz, which he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the cite of David, and Hezekiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XVII.

3 Hoshea King of Israel taken, 4 And hee and all his reather brought to the Assyrians, 18 for their idolatrie, 25 Lions destroy the Assyrians that dwell in Samaria, 29 Every one worshippeth the god of his nation, 35 Contrary to the commandement of God.

In the twelfth yeere of Ahaz king of Iudah began Hoshea the sonne of Elah to reigne in Samaria ouer Israel, and reigned nine yeeres.

2 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, but not as the Kings of Israel, that were before him.

3 And Shalmaneser king of Asshur came vp against him, and Hoshea became his seruant, and gaue him presents.

4 And the King of Asshur found treason in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the king of Asshur, as he had done yeerely: therefore the king of Asshur shut him vp, and put him in prison.

5 Then the King of Asshur came vp throughout all the land, and went against Samaria, and besieged it three yeere.

6 In the ninth yeere of Hoshea, the king of Asshur tooke Samaria, and caried Israel away vnto Asshur, and put them in Halah, and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For when the children of Israel sinned against the Lord their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from vnder the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and feared other gods,

8 And walked according to the fashions of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel, and after the manner of the kings of Israel, which they vied,

9 And the children of Israel had done secretly things that were not vpriight before the Lord their God, & throughout all their cities had built high places, after from the towre of the watch, to the defended cite,

10 And had made them images & grones vpon euery high hill, and vnder euery greene tree,

11 And there burnt incense in all the high places, as the heathen, whom the Lord had taken away before them, and wrought wicked things to anger the Lord.

12 And serued idoles: whereof the Lord had said vnto them, Ye shall do no such thing,

13 Notwithstanding the Lord testified to Israel, and to Iudah by all the Prophets, and by all the Seers, saying, Turne from your euill wayes, and keepe my commandements, and my statutes, according to all the Lawe, which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the Prophets.

14 Neuerthelesse they would not obey, but hardened their necks, like to the necker of their fathers, that did not beleue in the Lord their God.

15 And they refused his statutes and his commandment, that he made with their fathers, & his testimonies (wherewith he witnessed vnto them) and they followed vauitie, and became vaine, & followed the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they should not doe like them.

p That is, they serued him nor: therefore, lest they should blaspheme him, as though there were no God, because he chastised the Israelites, he sheweth his mightie power among them by this strange punishment.

q That is, how to worship him: thus the wicked rather then to lose their commodities, will change to all religion.

r Meaning that every country serued that idol, which was most esteemed in that place whence they came.

16 Finally they left all the commandements of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, ^{* even} two calves, and made a groue, and worshipped all the gods holte of heauen, and serued Baal.

17 And they made their sonnes and their daughters ^h passe thorowe the fire, and vsed witchcraft and inchantments, yea, ⁱ sold themselves to doe euill in the sight of the Lord, to anger him.

18 Therefore the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and put them out of his sight, and none was left but the tribe of Iudah ^k onely.

19 Yet Iudah kept not the commandements of the Lord their God, but walked according to the fashion of Israel, which they vsed.

20 Therefore the Lord cast off all the seede of Israel, and afflicted them, and deliuered them into the hands of spoylers, vntill he had cast them out of his sight.

21 ^m For hee cut off Israel from the house of Dauid, and they made Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat king: and Ieroboam drewe Israel away from following the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the finnes of Ieroboam, which he did, and departed not therefrom.

23 Vntill the Lord put Israel away out of his sight, as he had said ^l by all his seruants the Prophets, and caried Israel away out of their land to Asshur vnto this day.

24 And the king of Asshur brought folke from Babel, and from ⁿ Cuthah, and from Aua, and from Hamath: and from Sepharuaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in stead of the children of Israel: so they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 ¶ And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they ^o feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord sent Lions among them, which slewe them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Asshur, saying, The nations which thou hast remooued, & placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent Lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Asshur commanded, saying, Carre thither one of the Priests whom yee brought thence, and let him goe and dwell there, and teach them the manner of the God ^p of the country.

28 So one of the Priests which they had caried from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should feare the Lord.

29 Howbeit, euery nation made their gods, and put them in the houses of the hie places, which the Samaritans had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 For the men of Babel made ^q Succoth Benoth: and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 And the Auims made Nibhaz, and Tartak: and the Sepharuims burnt their children in the fire to Adramelech, and Anammelech the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 Thus they feared the Lord, and appointed out Priests out of themselves for the hie places, who prepared for them sacrifices in the houses of the hie places.

33 They feared the Lord, but serued their gods after the manner of the nations whom they caried thence.

34 Vnto this day they do after the old maner: they neither feare God, neither do after their ordinances, nor after their customes, nor after the Law, nor after the commandement, which the Lord commanded the children of Iakob, ^r whom he named Israel,

35 And with whom the Lord had made a couenant, and charged them, saying, ^s Feare none other gods, nor bowe your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lord which brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power, & a stretched out arme: him feare yee, and worship him, and sacrifice to him.

37 Also keepe yee diligently the statutes and the ordinances and the lawe, and the commandement, which he wrote for you, that yee doe them continually, and feare not other gods.

38 And forget not the couenant that I haue made with you, neither feare ye other gods.

39 But feare the Lord your God, and hee will deliuer you out of the hands of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they obeyed not, but diid after their old custome.

41 So these nations feared the Lord, and serued their images also: so did their children, and their childrens children: as did their fathers, so doe they vnto this day.

sonne of Eliah king of Israel) Shalmaneser king of Ashtur came vp against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And after three yeeres they tooke it, even in the sixt yeere of Hezekiah: that is, * the ninth yeere of Hoshea king of Israel was Samaria taken.

11 Then the king of Ashtur did carie away Israel vnto Ashtur, and put them in Halah and in Habor, by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, 12 Because they would not obey the voyce of the Lord their God, but transgressed his covenant: that is, all that Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded, and would neither obey nor doe them.

13 ¶ Moreover, in the foureteenth yeere of king Hezekiah, Saneherib king of Ashtur came vp against all the strong cities of Iudah, & tooke them.

14 Then Hezekiah king of Iudah sent vnto the king of Ashtur to Lachish, saying, ¶ I haue offended: depart from me, and what thou layest vpon me, I will beare it. And the king of Ashtur appointed vnto Hezekiah king of Iudah three hundred talents of siluer, and thirtie talents of golde.

15 Therefore Hezekiah gaue all the siluer that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kings house.

16 At the same season did Hezekiah pull off the plates of the doores of the Temple of the Lord, and the pillars (which the sayd Hezekiah king of Iudah had couered ouer) and gaue them to the king of Ashtur.

17 ¶ And the king of Ashtur sent Tartan, and Rab-laris, and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great hoste against Ierusalem. And they went vp, and came to Ierusalem, and when they were come vp, they stood by the conduit of the vpper pooie, which is by the path of the fullers field.

18 And called to the king. Then came out to them Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, which was steward of the house, and Shebnah the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rabshakeh sayd vnto them, Tell yee Hezekiah, I pray you, Thus saith the great king, even the great king of Ashtur, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou thinkest, Surely I haue eloquence, and counsell and strength are for the warre. On whom then dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Lo, thou trustest now in this broken staffe of reede, to wit, on Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pierce it: so a Pharoah king of Egypt vnto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say vnto me, We trust in the Lord our God, is not that hee whose hie places, and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath sayd to Iudah and Ierusalem, Yee shall worship before this altar in Ierusalem?

23 Now therefore giue hostages to my lord the king of Ashtur, and I wil giue thee two thousand horses, if thou bee able to set riders vpon them.

24 For how canst thou despise any capitaine of the least of my masters seruants, and put thy trust on Egypt for charrets and horsemen?

25 ¶ Am I now come vp without the Lord to this place, to destroy it? the Lord said to me, Goe vp against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, and Shebnah, and Ioah said vnto Rabshakeh, Speake I pray thee, to thy seruants in the Aramites language, for we vnderstand it, and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rabshakeh sayd vnto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master & to thee to speake these words, and not to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eate their owne dounge, and drinke their owne pisse with you?

28 So Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, saying, Heare the words of the great king, of the king of Ashtur.

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceiue you: for he shall not be able to deliuer you out of mine hand.

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you to trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord will surely deliuer vs, and this cite shall not be given ouer into the hand of the king of Ashtur.

31 Hearken not vnto Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Ashtur, Make appointment with me, and come out to me, that euery man may eat of his owne vine, and euery man of his owne fig tree, and drinke euery man of the water of his owne well.

32 Till I come and bring you to a land like your owne land, even a land of wheat and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oliues, oyle, and hony, that ye may liue and not die: and obey not Hezekiah, for he deceiueth you, saying, The Lord will deliuer vs.

33 Had any of the gods of the nations deliuered his land out of the hand of the king of Ashtur?

34 Where is the god of Hamath, and of Arpad? where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena and Iuah? howe haue they deliuered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the nations, that haue deliuered their land out of mine hand, that the Lord should deliuer Ierusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace and answered him not a word: for the kings commandement was, saying, Answer ye him not.

37 Then Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah which was steward of the house, and Shebnah the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

4 If so be the Lord thy God hath heard all the wordes of Rabshakeh, whome the king of Asshur his master hath sent to raile on the living God, and to reproch him with wordes which the Lord thy God hath heard, then lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 ¶ So the seruants of king Hezekiah came to Iſaiah.

6 And Iſaiah said vnto them, So shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the Lord, Bee not afraid of the wordes which thou hast heard, wherewith the seruants of the king of Asshur haue blasphemed me:

7 Behold, I will send a blast vpon him, and he shal heare a noise, and returne to his owne land: and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his owne land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Asshur fighting against Libnah: for hee had heard that he was departed from Iachish.

9 ¶ He heard also men say of Tirhakah King of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he therefore departed and sent other messengers vnto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speake to Hezekiah king of Iudah, and say, Let not thy God deceiue thee in whom thou trustest, saying, Ierusalem shall not be deliuered into the hand of the king of Asshur.

11 Beholde, thou hast heard what the kings of Asshur haue done to all lands, how they haue destroyed them: and shalt thou be deliuered?

12 Haue the gods of the heathen deliuered them which my fathers haue destroyed? as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezech, and the children of Eden, which were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the citie of Sepharuaim, Hena and Iuah?

14 ¶ So Hezekiah receiued the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah spred it before the Lord.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord, and said, O Lord God of Israel which dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art very God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth: thou hast made the heauen and the earth.

16 Lord, bow downe thine eare, and heare: Lord open thine eyes and beholde, and heare the wordes of Saneherib, who hath sent to blaspheme the living God.

17 Truth it is, Lord, that the kings of Asshur haue destroyed the nations and their lands,

18 And haue set fire on their gods: for they were no gods, but the worke of mans handes, euen wood and stone: therefore they destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, saue thou vs out of his hand, that all the kingdomes of the earth may knowe, that thou O Lord, art onely God.

20 ¶ Then Iſaiah the sonne of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue heard that which thou hast prayed me, concerning Saneherib king of Asshur.

21 This is the word that the Lord hath spoken against him, O Virgin daughter of Zion, he hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne:

O daughter of Ierusalem, he hath shaken his head at thee.

22 Whom hast thou railled on? & whom hast thou blasphemed? and against whome hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes on him? euen against the holy One of Israel.

23 By thy messengers thou hast railled on the Lord, and said, By the multitude of my charets I am come vp to the top of the mountaines, by the sides of Lebanon, and will cut downe the hie cedars thereof, and the faire firre trees thereof, and I will goe into the lodging of his borders, and into the forest of his Carmel.

24 I haue digged and drunke the waters of others, and with the plant of my feet haue I dried all the floods closed in.

25 Hast thou not heard, how I haue of olde time made it, and haue formed it long ago? and should I now bring it, that it should be destroyed, and laid on ruinous heaps, as cities defended?

26 Whole inhabitants haue small power, and are afraid, and confounded: they are like the grasse of the field, and greene herbe, or grasse on the house tops, or as corne blasted before it bee growen.

27 I know thy dwelling, yea, thy going out and thy comming in, and thy fury against me.

28 And because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I will put mine hooke in thy nostrils, and my bridle in thy lips, & will bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest.

29 And this shall be a signe vnto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eate this yeere such things as grow of themselves, and the next yeere such as grow without sowing, and the third yeere fow ye and reape, and plant vineyards, and eate the fruits thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shall againe take a roote downward, and beare fruit vpward.

31 For out of Ierusalem shall goe a remnant, & some that shall escape out of mount Zion: the zeale of the Lord of hosts shall doe this.

32 Wherefore thus saith the Lord, concerning the king of Asshur, Hee shall not enter into this citie, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it:

33 But he shall returne the way he came, and shall not come into this citie, saith the Lord.

34 For I will defend this citie to saue it for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

35 ¶ And the same night the Angel of the Lord went out and smote in the campe of Asshur an hundred and fourescore & fife thousand: so when they rose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Saneherib king of Asshur departed, and went his way, and returned and dwelt in Nineueh.

37 And as he was in the Temple worshipping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sonnes slew him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat, and Efarhaddon his sonne reigned in his stead.

Amor came to him, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Put thine house in an order: for thou shalt die, and not liue.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the Lord, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now, how I haue walked before thee in truth & with a perfect heart, & haue done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.

4 And afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the Lord came to him, saying,

5 Turne againe, and tell Hezekiah the captaine of my people, Thus saith the Lord God of Dauid thy father, I haue heard thy prayer, and seene thy teares: behold, I haue healed thee, and the third day thou shalt goe vp to the house of the Lord,

6 And I wil adde vnto thy dayes fiftene yere, and wil deliuer thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Asshur, and will defend this citie for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

7 Then Isaiah saide, Take a lump of drie figs. And they tooke it, and laid it on the boile, and he recovered.

8 For Hezekiah had said vnto Isaiah, What shall be the signe that the Lord will heale mee, and that I shall goe vp into the house of the Lord the third day?

9 And Isaiah answered, This signe shalt thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord will doe that hee hath spoken, Will thou that the shadow goe forward ten degrees, or goe backward ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to passe forward ten degrees: not so thou, but let the shadow go back ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the Prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought againe the shadow ten degrees backe by the degrees whereby it had gone downe in the diall of Ahaz.

12 ¶ The same season Berodach Baladan the sonne of Baladan king of Babel sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard how that Hezekiah was sicke.

13 And Hezekiah heard them, and shewed them all his treasure house, to wit, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oymment, and al the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his realme, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 Then Isaiah the Prophet came vnto King Hezekiah, and said vnto him, What saide these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah saide, They be come from a faire country, out of Babel.

15 Then said hee, What haue they seene in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said vnto Hezekiah, Heare the word of the Lord.

17 Behold, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and whatsoever thy fathers haue layed vp in store vnto this day, shall be caried into Babel: Nothing shall be left, saith the Lord.

18 And of thy sonnes, that shall procede out of thee, & which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shall be eunuches in the palace of the king of Babel.

19 Then Hezekiah said vnto Isaiah, The word of the Lord, which thou hast spoken, is good: for said he, Shall it not be good if peace & truth be in my dayes?

20 Concerning the rest of the actes of Hezekiah, and all his valiant deeds, and how he made a poole and a conduit, & brought water into the citie, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasse his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXI.

King Manasse restoreth idolatrie, 16 And what good reuel-killed of his owne sinners, 26 After him reigneth Iotham.

Manasse was twelue yeres olde when hee began to reigne, and reigned fiftie and five yeres in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Hephzi-bah.

2 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord after the abomination of the heathen, whome the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he went backe and builded the hie places, which Hezekiah his father had destroyed: and he erected vp altars for Baal, and made a groue, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshipped all the host of heaven and serued them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the Lord, of the which the Lord said, In Ierusalem will I put my Name.

5 And hee built altars for al the host of the heauen in the two courts of the house of the Lord.

6 And hee caused his sonnes to passe through the fire, and gaue himselfe to witchcraft and forgerie, and hee vsed them that had familiar spirits and were soothsayers, and did much euill in the sight of the Lord to anger him.

7 And he set the image of the groue, that he had made in the house, whereof the Lord had said to Dauid & to Salomon his sonne, In this house and in Ierusalem, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for ever.

8 Neither will I make the feet of Israel moue any more out of the land, which I gaue their fathers: so that they will obserue and doe all that I haue commanded them, and according to al the Law that my seruant Moyses commanded them.

9 Yet they obeyed not, but Manasse ledde them out of the way, to doe more wickedly then did the heathen people, whom the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 Therefore the Lord spake by his seruants the Prophets, saying,

11 Because that Manasse king of Iudah hath done such abominations, & hath wrought more wickedly then all that the Amorites (which were before him) did, and hath made Iudah sinne also with his idoles,

12 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I wil bring an euil vpon Ierusalem and Iudah, that who so heareth of it, both his eares shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch ouer Ierusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Ierusalem, as a man wipeth a dish, which he wipeth, and turneth it upside downe.

20 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, as his father Manasseh did.

21 For he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and serued the idoles that his father serued, and worshipped them.

22 And hee forsooke the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord.

23 And the seruants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the King in his owne house.

24 And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against King Amon, and the people made Iosiah his sonne king in his stead.

26 And ¶ they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Vzza: and Iosiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXII.

¶ Josiah repaired the Temple. 8. Hilkiah findeth the booke of the Law, and causeth it to be presented to Josiah. 12. He sendeth to Huldah the prophetesse to inquire the Lords will.

Iosiah was eight yeere olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned one and thirtie yeere in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozath.

2 And hee did uprightly in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed heither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ And in the eighteenth yeere of King Iosiah, the King sent Shaphan the sonne of Azaliah the sonne of Meshullam the chauncellor, to the house of the Lord, saying,

4 Go vp to Hilkiah the hie Priest, that hee may summe the siluer which is brought into the house of the Lord, which the keepers of the doore haue gathered of the people.

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of them that doe the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord, let them giue it to them that worke in the house of the Lord, to repaire the decayed places of the house.

6 To wit, vnto the artificers and carpenters, and masons, and to buy timber, and hewed stone to repaire the house.

7 Howbeit, let no reckoning be made with them of the money, that is delivered into their hand: for they deale faithfully.

8 And Hilkiah the high Priest said vnto Shaphan the chauncellor, I haue found the booke of the Law in the house of the Lord: and Hilkiah gaue the booke to Shaphan, and hee read it.

9 So Shaphan the chauncellor came to the King, and brought him word againe, and said, Thy seruants haue gathered the money that was found in the house, and haue delivered it vnto the hands of them that doe the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord.

10 Also Shaphan the chauncellor shewed the King, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath delivered me a booke. And Shaphan read it before the King.

11 And when the King had heard the wordes of the booke of the Law, he rent his clothes.

12 Therefore the King commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaiah, and Shaphan the chauncellor, & Asahiah the Kings seruant, saying,

13 Go ye and inquire of the Lord for me & for the people, and for all Iudah concerning the words of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not obeyed the wordes of this booke, to doe according vnto all that which is written therein for vs.

14 ¶ So Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah went vnto Huldah the Prophetesse the wife of Shallum, the sonne of Tikvah, the sonne of Harhas keeper of the wardrobe: (and she dwelt in Ierusalem in the colledge) and they communed with her.

15 And shee answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring euil vpon this place, and on the inhabitants thereof, ~~even~~ all the words of the booke which the King of Iudah hath read.

17 Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger me with all the workes of their hands: my wrath also shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Iudah, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, so shal ye say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The words that thou hast heard, shall come to passe.

19 But because thine heart did meele, and thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lord when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants of the same, to wit, that it should be destroyed and accursed, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before mee, I haue also heard it, saith the Lord.

20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt bee put in thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the euill which I will bring vpon this place. Thus they brought the king word againe.

Then the king and all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. And the king went up into the house of the Lord, with all the men of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the Priests and Prophets, and all the people both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the booke of the covenant, which was found in the house of the Lord. And the king stood by the pillar, & made a covenant before the Lord, that they should walke after the Lord, and keepe his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all their heart, and with all their soule, that they might accomplish the wordes of this covenant written in this booke. And all the people stood to the covenant. Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high Priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the doore, to bring out of the temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the hoste of heaven, and hee burnt them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kedron, and caried the powder of them into Beth-el. And he put downe the Chemarims, whom the Kings of Iudah had founded to burne incense in the high places, and in the cities of Iudah and about Jerusalem, and also chemarims burne incense unto Baal, to the sunne and to the moone, and to the planets, and to all the hoste of heaven. And he brought out the grove from the Temple of the Lord without Jerusalem vnto the valley Kedron, and burnt it in the valley Kedron, and stamp it to powder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the graves of the children of the people. And hee brake downe the houses of the Sodomites that were in the house of the Lord, where the women were hanging up for the grove. Also hee brought all the priests out of the cities of Iudah, and defiled the high places where the Priests had burnt incense, westward Geba to Beer-sheba, and destroyed the high places of the gates, that were in the entering in of the gate of Iohiah the gouernour of the cite, which was at the left hand of the gate of the cite. Neither came the Priests of the high places came not vpon the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, but only they did eate of the vntuned bread among their brethren. Hee defiled also Topheth, which was in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man should make his sonne or his daughter passe thorow the fire to Moloch. Hee put downe also the houses that the Kings of Iudah had giuen to the sunne at the entering in of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the eunuch, which was ruler of the suburbs, and burnt the chambers of the sunne with fire. And the Altars that were on the top of the chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Iudah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord did the king brake downe, and hasted thence, and cast the dust of them in the brooke Kedron. Moreover the king defiled the high places that were before Jerusalem and on the right hand of the mount of corruption (which Salomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the idol of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the idoll of the Moabites, and for Milchom the abomination of the children of Ammon.) And he brake the images in pietes, and cut downe the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men. Furthermore the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place made by Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, both this altar, and also the high place, brake he downe, and burnt the high place, and stamp it to powder, and burnt the grove. And as Iohiah turned himselfe, hee spied the graues that were in the mount, and sent and tooke the bones out of the graues, and burnt them vpon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the Lord, that the man of God proclaimed, which cried the same wordes. Then he said, What title is that which I see? And the men of the city sayd vnto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iudah, and told these things that thou hast done at the altar of Beth-el. Then sayd he, Let him alone: let none remoue his bones. So his bones were laid with the bones of the Prophet that came from Samaria. Iohiah also tooke away all the houses of the high places, which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to anger the Lord, and did to them according to all the facts that he had done in Beth-el. And hee sacrificed all the Priests of the high places that were there, vpon the altars, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Jerusalem. Then the king commanded all the people, saying, Keepe the Passouer vnto the Lord your God, as it is written in the booke of this covenant. And there was no Passouer holden since that from the dayes of the Iudges that Iudged Israel, nor in all the dayes of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Iudah. And in the eighteenth yeere of King Iohiah was this Passouer celebrated vnto the Lord in Jerusalem. Iohiah also tooke away them that had familiar spirits, and the soothsayers, and the images, and the idoles, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Iudah and in Jerusalem, to performe the wordes of the Lawe, which were written in the booke that Hilkiah the Priest found in the house of the Lord. Like vnto him was there no king before him, that turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soule, and with all his might according to all the Lawe of Moyses, neither after him arose there any like him. Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith he was angry against Iudah, because of all the proud actions wherewith Manasseh had prouoked him. Therefore the Lord sayd, I will put Iudah also out of my sight, as I haue put away Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem, which I haue chosen, and the house wherof I sayd, My name shall be there. Concerning the rest of the actes of Iohiah, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

29 ¶ In his dayes Pharaoh Nechoh king of Egypt went vp againſt the king of Aſſhur to the riuier Perath. And king Ioſiah went againſt him, whom when Pharaoh ſawe, hee ſlew him at Megiddo.

30 Then his ſeruants caried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Ieruſalem, and buried him in his owne ſepulchre. And the people of the land tooke Iehoahaz the ſonne of Ioſiah, and anoynted him, and made him king in his fathers ſtead.

31 ¶ Iehoahaz was three and twenty yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned three moneths in Ieruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Hamutal the daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah.

32 And hee did euill in the fight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh Nechoh put him in bondes at Riblah in the land of Hamath, while he reigned in Ieruſalem, and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of ſilver, and a talent of gold.

34 ¶ And Pharaoh Nechoh made Eliakim the ſonne of Ioſiah king in ſtead of Ioſiah his father, and turned his name to Iehoiakim, and tooke Iehoahaz away, which when he came to Egypt, died there.

35 And Iehoiakim gaue the ſilver and the golde to Pharaoh, and taxed the land to giue the money, according to the commandement of Pharaoh: hee tauled of euery man of the people of the land according to his value, ſilver and gold, to giue vnto Pharaoh Nechoh.

36 Iehoiakim was five and twenty yeeres olde, when hee began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeeres in Ieruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Zebudah the daughter of Pedajah of Rumbah.

37 And hee did euill in the fight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Ieremias made ſubiect to Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel, 3 The ſonne of Ieremias and all Iudahs. 6 Ieremias reigned. 15 Hee, and his people are caried vnto Babylon. 17 Zedekiah made king.

IN his dayes came Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel vp, and Iehoiakim became his ſeruant three yeere: afterward hee turned, and rebelled againſt him.

2 And the Lord ſent againſt him bands of the Caldees, and bands of the Aramites, and bands of the Moabites, & bands of the Ammonites, and he ſent them againſt Iudah to deſtroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he ſpake by his ſeruants the Prophets.

3 Surely by the commandement of the Lord came this vpon Iudah, that hee might put them out of his fight for the finnes of Manafich, according to all that hee did.

4 And for the innocent blood that hee ſhed, (for hee filled Ieruſalem with innocent blood) therefore the Lord would not pardon it.

5 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Iehoiakim, & all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

6 So Iehoiakim ſlept with his fathers, and Iehoiachin his ſonne reigned in his ſtead.

7 ¶ And the king of Egypt came no more out of his land: for the king of Babel had taken from the riuier of Egypt vnto the riuier [Perath], all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 ¶ Iehoiachin was eightene yeere olde, when he began to reigne, & reigned in Ieruſalem three moneths. His mothers name alſo was Nehuſhta, the daughter of Elnathan of Ieruſalem.

9 And hee did euill in the fight of the Lord, according to all that his father had done.

10 ¶ In that time came the ſeruants of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel vp againſt Ieruſalem: ſo the citie was beſieged.

11 And Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel came againſt the citie, and his ſeruants did beſiege it.

12 Then Iehoiachin the king of Iudah came out againſt the king of Babel, he, and his mother and his ſeruants, and his princes, and his eunuchs: and the king of Babel tooke him in the eight yeere of his reigne.

13 ¶ And hee caried out thence all the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord, and the treaſures of the kings houſe, and brake all the veſſels of gold, which Salomon king of Iſrael had made in the Temple of the Lord, as the Lord had ſaid.

14 And hee caried away all Ieruſalem, and all the princes, and all the ſtrong men of warre, ſeven ten thouſand into captiuitie, and all the workmen, and cunning men: ſo none remained ſaving the poore people of the land.

15 ¶ And hee caried away Iehoiachin into Babel, and the kings mother, and the kings wiues, and his eunuchs, and the mighty of the lande, caried hee away into captiuitie from Ieruſalem to Babel.

16 And all the men of warre, ſeven thouſand, and carpenters, and lockſmiths a thouſand: all that were ſtrong and apt for war, did the king of Babel bring to Babel captiues.

17 ¶ And the king of Babel made Mitrani-ah his vnder king in his ſtead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was one and twentie yeere olde, when hee began to reigne, and hee reigned eleuen yeeres in Ieruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Hamutal the daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah.

19 And hee did euill in the fight of the Lord, according to all that Iehoiakim had done.

20 Therefore certainly the wrath of the Lord was againſt Ieruſalem and Iudah, vntill hee caſt them out of his fight: And Zedekiah rebelled againſt the king of Babel.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Ieruſalem is beſieged of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel. 7 The ſonne of Zedekiah are ſlaine before the eyes: and after are ſlaine eyes put out. 21 Iudah is brought to Babylon. 25 Gedaliah is ſlaine. 27 Iehoiachin is exiled.

AND in the ninth yeere of his reigne, the tenth moneth, and tenth day of the moneth, Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel came, he, and all his hoſt againſt Ieruſalem, and pitched againſt it, and they built forts againſt it round about it.

2 So the citie was beſieged vnto the eleventh yeere of king Zedekiah.

3 And the ninth day of the moneth the famine was fore in the citie, ſo that there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 Then the citie was broken vp, and all the men of war fled by night, by the way of the gate which is betweene two walles that was by the kings garden: now the Chaldees were by the citie round about: and the king went by the way of the wildernes.

5 But the armie of the Caldees pursued after the king, and tooke him in the defense of Iericho, and all his host was scattered from him.

6 Then they tooke the king, and carried him vp to the king of Babel to Riblah, where they gaue iudgement vpon him.

7 And they slew the sonnes of Zedekiah before his eyes, & put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in chaines, and carried him to Babel.

8 And in the fifth month, and the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth yere of king Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel, came Nebuzar-adan, chiefe steward and seruant of the king of Babel to Ierusalem.

9 And burnt the house of the Lord, and the kings house, and all the houses of Ierusalem, and all the great houses burnt he with fire.

10 And all the armie of the Caldees that were with the chiefe steward, brake downe the walles of Ierusalem round about.

11 And the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and those that were fled and fallen to the king of Babel, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan chiefe steward carry away captiue.

12 But the chiefe steward left of the people of the land to dresse the vines, and to till the land.

13 Also the pillars of brasie that were in the house of the Lord, and the bales, and the brasen Sea that was in the house of the Lord, did the Caldees breake, and carried the brasie of them to Babel.

14 The pots also and the besoms, and the instruments of musick, and the incense dishes, and all the vessels of brasie that they ministered in, tooke they away.

15 And the shoppes, and the balins, and all that was of gold, and that was of siluer, tooke the chiefe steward away.

16 With the two pillars, one Sea and the bales, which Salomon had made for the house of the Lord: the brasie of all these vessels was without weight.

17 The height of the one pillar was eigheteene cubites, and the chapter thereon was brasie, and the height of the chapter was with network three cubites, and pomegranates vpon the chapter round about all of brasie: and likewise was the second pillar with the network.

18 And the chiefe steward tooke Seraiah the chiefe Priest, and Zephaniah the second Priest, and the three keepers of the doore.

19 And out of the citie hee tooke an Eunuich that had the oversight of the men of warre, and five men of them that were in the kings presence, which were found in the citie, and Sopher captaine of the hoste, who mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the citie.

20 And Nebuzar-adan the chiefe steward took them, and brought them to the king of Babel to Riblah.

21 And the king of Babel smote them, and slewethem at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Iudah was carried away captiue out of his owne land.

22 Howbeit, there remained people in the land of Iudah, whom Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel left, and made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan ruler ouer them.

23 Then when all the captaines of the hoste and their men heard, that the king of Babel had made Gedaliah gouernour, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, to wit, Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah, and Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and Seraiah the sonne of Tathumeth the Netophathite, and Iazaniah the sonne of Maachathi, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said vnto them, Feare not to be the seruants of the Caldees: dwell in the land, and serue the king of Babel, and ye shall be well.

25 But in the seventh month Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah the sonne of Eliashama, of the kings seed, came, & ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, and hee died, and so did hee the Iewes, and the Caldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 Then all the people both small and great, and the captaines of the armie arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Caldees.

27 Notwithstanding in the seuen and thirtieth yere after Iehoiachin king of Iudah was carried away, in the twelfth moneth, and the seuen and twentieth day of the moneth, Evil-merodach king of Babel in the yere that he began to reigne, did lift vp the head of Iehoiachin king of Iudah out of the prison,

28 And spake kindly to him, and set his throne about the throne of the kings that were with him in Babel.

29 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eate bread before him, all the daies of his life.

30 And his portion was a continual portion giuen him by the king, euery day a certaine, all the dayes of his life.

Jeremie maketh mention of Ienen, but here he speaketh of them that were the chiefe.

THE FIRST BOOKE OF the Chronicles, or Paralipomenon.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Iewes comprehend both these booke in one, which the Grecians because of the length, diuide into two: and they are called Chronicles, because they note briefly the histories from Adam to the returne from their captiuitie in Babylon. But these are not those booke of Chronicles, which are so oft mentioed in the booke of the kings of Iudah and Israel, which did at large set forth the storie of both the kingdomes, and afterward persisted in the captiuitie: but an abridgement of the same, and were gathered by Ezra, as the Iewes write, after their returne from Babylon. This first booke containeth a briefe rehearsal of the children of Adam vnto Abraham, Isaac, Iacob, and the twelue Patriarkes, chiefly of Iudah, and of the reigne of David, because Christ came of him according to the flesh. And therefore it setteth forth more amply his actes both concerning the ciuill gouernment, and also the administration and care of things concerning religion, for the good successe whereof he reioyseth and giueth thanks to the Lord.

32 And their towne were Eram, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ahan, five cities:

33 And all their towne that were round about these cities vnto Baa, these are their habitations and the declaration of their genealogie,

34 And Meshobab, and Eusech, and Iosiah the sonne of Amishai,

35 And Ioel and Iehu the sonne of Ioshibiah, the sonne of Semaiah, the sonne of Asiel,

36 And Elionai, and Iakobab, & Ieshobai, and Afsiah, and Adiel, and Iesimiel, and Benai, 37 And Ziza the sonne of Shipbei, the sonne of Allon, the sonne of Iedaiah, the sonne of Shimri, the sonne of Shemaiah.

38 These were famous princes in their families, and increased greatly their fathers houses.

39 And they went to the entering in of Gedor, even vnto the East side of the valley, to seeke pasture for their sheepe.

40 And they found fat pasture and good, and a wide land both quiet and fruitfull: for they of Ham had dwelt there before.

41 And these described by name, came in the dayes of Hezekiah king of Iudah, and smote their tents, and the inhabitants that were found there, and destroyed them utterly vnto this day, and dwell in their rooms, because there was pasture there for their sheepe.

42 And beside these, five hundred men of the sonnes of Simeon went to mount Seir, and Pelatiah, and Nemiah, and Rophajah, and Vzziel the sonnes of Ishi were their captaines.

43 And they smote the rest of Amalek that had escaped, and they dwell there vnto this day.

1 The birthright of Reuben was given to the sonnes of Joseph, 2 The genealogie of Reuben, 11 And Gad, 12 And of the half tribe of Manasse.

The sonnes also of Reuben the eldest sonne of Israel (for he was the eldest, but had defiled his fathers bed, therefore his birthright was given vnto the sonnes of Joseph the sonne of Israel, so that the genealogie is not reckoned after his birthright.

For Iudah promised above his brethren, and of him came the prince, but the birthright was Josephs.)

The sonnes of Reuben the eldest sonne of Israel, were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

4 The sonnes of Ioel, Shemaiah his sonne, Gog his sonne, and Shimei his sonne,

5 Michah his sonne, Reaiah his sonne, and Baal his sonne.

6 Beerah his sonne: whom Tilgath Pilneef king of Asshur carried away: he was a prince of the Reubenites.

7 And when his brethren in their families reckoned the genealogie of their generations, Ieiel and Zechariah were the chiefe,

8 And Bela the sonne of Azaz, the sonne of Shema, the sonne of Ioel, which dwell in Aroer even vnto Nebo and Baalmeon.

9 Also Eastward he inhabited vnto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Perath: for they had much cattell in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the dayes of Saul they warred with the Hagarims, which fell by their hands: and they dwell in their tents in all the East partes of Gilead.

11 And the children of Gad dwell over against them in the land of Bashan, vnto Salchah, 12 Ioel was the chieft, and Shapham the second, but Iaani and Shaphat were in Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Sorai, and Iacan, and Zia, and Eber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail, the sonne of Huri, the sonne of Iareah, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Michael, the sonne of Ieshihai, the sonne of Lahdo, the sonne of Buz.

15 Ahi the sonne of Abdiel, the sonne of Guni was chieft of the household of their fathers.

16 And they dwell in Gilead in Bashan, and in the townes thereof, and in all the suburbs of Sharon by their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the dayes of Iotham king of Iudah, and in the dayes of Ieroboam king of Israel.

18 The sonnes of Reuben and of Gad, and of half the tribe of Manasse of those that were valiant men, able to beare shield and sword, and to draw a bow exercised in warre, were foure and fortie thousand, seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the warre.

19 And they made warre with the Hagarims, with Ietur, and Naphish, and Nodab.

20 And they were holpen against them, and the Hagarims were deliuered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battell, and hee heard them, because they trusted in him.

21 And they led away their cattell, even their camels fiftie thousand, and two hundred & fiftie thousand sheepe, and two thousand asses, and of persons an hundred thousand.

22 For many fell downe wounded, because the warre was of God. And they dwell in their steads vntill the captiuitie.

23 And the children of the half tribe of Manasse dwell in the land, from Bashan vnto Baal Hermon, and Senir, and vnto mount Hermon: for they increased.

24 And these were the heads of the households of their fathers, even Ephraim and Ishi, and Eliel and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaiah, and Lahdiel, strong men, valiant and famous, heads of the households of their fathers.

25 But they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Israel stirred vp the spirit of Pul king of Asshur, and the spirit of Tilgath Pilneef king of Asshur, and hee caried them away: even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasse, and brought them vnto Halah and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, vnto this day.

38 These were famous princes in their families, and increased greatly their fathers houses.

39 And they went to the entering in of Gedor, euen vnto the East side of the valley, to seeke pasture for their sheepe.

40 And they found fat pasture and good, and a wide land both quiet and fruitfull: for they of Ham had dwelt there before.

41 And these described by name, came in the dayes of Hezekiah king of Iudah, and smote their tents, and the inhabitants that were found there, and destroyed them vnto this day, and dwelt in their roome, because there was pasture there for their sheepe.

42 And beside these, five hundred men of the sonnes of Simeon went to mount Seir, and Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rophaiah, and Vzziel the sonnes of Ishi were their captaines.

1 The birthright taken from Reuben and given to the sonnes of Joseph, 2 The genealogie of Reuben, 11 And Gad, 22 And of the half tribe of Manasseh.

The sonnes also of Reuben the eldest sonne of Israel (for he was the eldest, but had defiled his fathers bed, therefore his birthright was giuen vnto the sonnes of Ioseph the sonne of Israel, so that the genealogie is not reckoned after his birthright.

2 For Iudah preailed aboue his brethren, and of him came the prince, but the birthright was Iosephs.)

3 The sonnes of Reuben the eldest sonne of Israel, were Hanoah and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

4 The sonnes of Ioel, Shemaiah his sonne, Gog his sonne, and Shimai his sonne,

5 Michah his sonne, Reaiah his sonne, and Baal his sonne.

6 Beerah his sonne: whom Tilgath Pilnefer king of Asshur carried away: he was a prince of the Reubenites.

7 And when his brethren in their families reckoned the genealogie of their generations, Ieiel and Zechariah were the chiefe,

8 And Bela the sonne of Azaz, the sonne of Shema, the sonne of Ioel, which dwelt in Aroer euen vnto Nebo and Baalmeon.

9 Also Eastward he inhabited vnto the entering in of the wilderness from the riuer Perath: for they had much cattell in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the dayes of Saul they warred with the Hagarims, which fell by their hands: and they dwelt in their tents in all the East partes of Gilead.

11 And the children of Gad dwelt ouer against them in the land of Bashan, vnto Salchah.

12 Ioel was the chieftest, and Shapham the second, but Iaani and Shaphat were in Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Sorai, and Iacan, and Zia, and Eber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail, the sonne of Huri, the sonne of Iarvah, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Michael, the sonne of Ieshihai, the sonne of Lahdo, the sonne of Buz.

15 Ahi the sonne of Abdiel, the sonne of Guni was chieft of the household of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in the townes thereof, and in all the suburbs of Sharon by their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the dayes of Iotham king of Iudah, and in the dayes of Ieroboam king of Israel.

18 The sonnes of Reuben and of Gad, and of the half tribe of Manasseh of those that were valiant men, able to beare shield and sword, and to draw a bow exercised in warre, were foure and fortie thousand, seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the warre.

19 And they made warre with the Hagarims, with Ietur, and Naphith, and Nodab.

20 And they were holpen against them, and the Hagarims were deliuered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battell, and hee heard them, because they trusted in him.

21 And they led away their cattell, euen their camels fiftie thousand, and two hundred & fiftie thousand sheepe, and two thousand asses, and of persons an hundred thousand.

22 For many fell downe wounded, because the warre was of God. And they dwelt in their steads vntill the captiuitie.

23 And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land, from Bashan vnto Baal Hermon, and Seir, and vnto mount Hermon: for they increased.

24 And these were the heads of the households of their fathers, euen Ephraim and Ishi, and Eliel and Azriel, and Ieremiah, and Hodanah, and Iahdiel, strong men, valiant and famous, heads of the households of their fathers.

25 But they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Israel stirred vp the spirit of Pul king of Asshur, and the spirit of Tilgath Pilnefer king of Asshur, and hee caried them away: euen the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them vnto Halah and Habor, and Hara, and to the riuer Gozan, vnto this day.

13 So Saul died for his transgression that hee committed against the Lord, * men against the word of the Lord which he kept not, and in that he sought and asked counsel of a † familiar spirit,

14 And asked not of the Lord: therefore hee slew him, and turned the kingdome vnto Dauid the sonne of Ishai.

CHAP. XL

3 After the death of Saul Dauid is anoynted in Hebron. 5 The Iebusites rebel against Dauid, from whom he taketh the tower of Zion. 6 Ioab is made capitaine. 10 His valiant men.

Then * all Israel gathered themselves to Dauid vnto Hebron, laying, Behold, we are thy bones and thy flesh.

2 And in time past, euen when Saul was king, thou leddest Israel out and in: and the Lord thy God sayd vnto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be capitaine ouer my people Israel.

3 So came all the Elders of Israel to the king to Hebron, and Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron before the Lord. And they anoynted Dauid king ouer Israel, * according to the word of the Lord, by the hand of Samuel.

4 ¶ And Dauid and all Israel went to Ierusalem, which is Iebus, where were the Iebusites, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Iebus sayd to Dauid, Thou shalt not come in hither. Neuerthelesse Dauid tooke the tower of Zion, which is the city of Dauid,

6 And Dauid sayd, * Whosoever smiteth the Iebusites first, shall be the chiefe and capitaine. So Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah went first vp, and was capitaine.

7 And Dauid dwelt in the tower: therefore they called it the citie of Dauid.

8 ¶ And he built the citie on euery side, from Millo euen round about: and Ioab repaired the rest of the citie.

9 And Dauid prospered, and grew: for the Lord of hostes was with him.

10 ¶ * These also are the chiefe of the valiant men that were with Dauid, and ioyned their force with him in his kingdom with all Israel, to make him King ouer Israel, according to the word of the Lord.

11 And this is the number of the valiant men whom Dauid had, Ishobeam the sonne of Hachmoni, the b chiefe among thirtie: hee list vp his speare against three hundred, whom hee slew at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the sonne of † Dodo the Ahohite, which was one of the three valiant men.

13 He was with Dauid at Pas-dammim, and there the Philistims were gathered together to battell: and there was a parcell of ground full of barley, and the people fled before the Philistims.

14 And they stood in the mids of the field, and fained it, and slew the Philistims: so the Lord gaue a great victorie.

15 ¶ And three of the d thirtie captaines went to a rocketo Dauid, into the caue of Adullam. And the armie of the Philistims camped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And when Dauid was in the hold, the Philistims garison was at Beth-lehem.

17 And Dauid longed, and said, * Oh, that one would giue me to drinke of the water of the well of Beth-lehem that is at the gate.

18 Then these three brake thorow the host of the Philistims, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem that was by the gate, and tooke it, and brought it to Dauid: but Dauid would not drinke of it, but powred it for an oblation to the Lord,

19 And sayd, Let not my God suffer me to do this: should I drinke the e blood of these mens liues? for they haue brought it with the ieopardie of their liues: therefore he would not drinke it: these things did these three mighty men.

20 ¶ And Abishai the brother of Ioab, he was chiefe of the three, & he list vp his speare against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among the three.

21 Among the three he was more honourable then the two, and he was their capitaine: * but hee attained not vnto the first three.

22 Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada (the sonne of a valiant man) which had done many acts, and was of Kabzeel, he slew two † strong men of Moab, hee went downe also and slew a Lion in the mids of a pit in time of snow.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, euen siue cubits long, and in the Egyptians hand was a speare like a weauers beame: and he went downe to him with a staffe, and plucked the speare out of the Egyptians hand, and slew him with his owne speare.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Iehoiada, and had the name among the three worthies.

CHAP. XII.

2 ¶ Who they were that went with David when he fled from Saul.
24 Their valiantnesse. 25 They that came vnto him vnto Hebron out of euery tribe to make him king.

a To take his part against Saul, who persecuted him.

b That is, of the tribe of Benjamin, whereof Saul was, and wherein were excellent throwers with stings, Iudg. 20. 46.

These also are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he was yet kept close, because of Saul the sonne of Kish: and they were among the valiant and helpers of the battell.

2 They were weaponed with bowes, and could vse either right, and the left hand with stones and with arrowes and with bowes, and were of Sauls brethren, even of Benjamin.

3 The chiefe were Abiezer, and Ioash the sonnes of Shemaah a Gibeathite, and Ieziel, and Peter the sonnes of Asmaueh, Berachah and Iehu the Antiochite,

4 And Ishmaiah the Obedomite, a valiant man among thirtie, and above the thirtie, & Jeremiah, and Ichaziel, and Iohanan, and Ioshabab the Oederathite,

5 Eluzai, and Terimoth, and Bealiah, and Sheariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, and Ishiah, and Azariel, and Ioezer, Iathobeam of Hakorehim,

7 And Ioelah, and Zebadiah the sonnes of Ieroham of Cedar.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves, some vnto David into the hold of the wilderness, valiant men of warre, and men of armes, and apt for battell, which could handle speare and shield, and their faces were like the faces of lions, and were like the roes in the mountaines in swiftnesse.

9 Ezer the chiefe, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 ¶ Mishmanah the fourth, Jeremias the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Iohanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremias the tenth, Macbannai the eleuenth.

14 These were the sonnes of Gad: captaines of the hoste: one of the least could resist an hundred, and the greatest a thousand.

15 These are they that went ouer Iorden in the 4th moneth, when he had filled ouer all his banks, and put to flight all them of the valley, toward the East and the West.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Iudah to the hold vnto David,

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and sayd vnto them, If yee bee come peaceably vnto me to helpe me, mine heart shall be knit vnto you: but if you come to betray me to mine aduersaries, seeing there is no wickednes in mine hands, the God of our fathers behold it, and reburke it.

18 And the spirit came vpon Amasai, which was the chiefe of thirtie, and he sayd, Thine are wee, David, and with thee, O sonne of Ishai, Peace, peace bee vnto thee, and peace bee vnto thine helpers: for thy God helpeth thee. Then David receiued them, and made them captaines of the garison.

19 ¶ And of Manasse, some fell to David, when hee came with the Philistines against Saul to battell, but they helped them not: for the Princes of the Philistines by aduise ment sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul for our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasse, Adnah, and Iozabad, and Iediel, and Michael, and Iozabad, and Elihu, and Ziltai, heads of the thousands that were of Manasse.

21 And they helped David against s that band: for they were all valiant men, and were captaines in the hoste.

22 For at that time day by day, there came to David to helpe him, vntill it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the captaines that were armed to battell, and came to David to Hebron to turne the kingdome of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord.

24 The children of Iudah that bare shield and speare, were sixe thousand and eight hundred armed to the warre.

benites, and of the Gadites, and of the halfe tribe of Manasseh with all instruments of war to fight with, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of warre that could lead an armie, came with vp right heart to Hebron to make Dauid king, ouer all Israel: and all the rest of Israel was of one accord to make Dauid King.

39 And there they were with Dauid three daies, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were neere them vntill Issachar, and Zebulun, and Naphtali brought bread vpon asses, and on camels, and on mules and on oxen, even meat, floure, figges, and raisins, and wine and oyle, and beecus and sheepe abundantly: for there was ioy in Israel.

CHAP. XIIII.

7 The Arke is brought againe from Kirjath-earim to Ierusalem.
9 Vzza dieth because he toucheth it.

AND Dauid counsell'd with the captaines of thousand and of hundred, and with all the gouernours.

2 And Dauid said to al the Congregation of Israel, If it seeme good to you, and that it proce-deth of the Lord our God, wee will send to and fro vnto our brethren, that are left in all the land of Israel (for with them are the Priests and the Leuites in the cities and their suburbs) that they may assemble themselves vnto vs.

3 And we will bring againe the Arke of our God to vs: for we fought not vnto it in the daies of Saul.

4 And all the Congregation answered, Let vs doe so: for the thing seemed good in the eyes of all the people.

5 So Dauid gathered all Israel together from Shihor in Egypt, euen into the entring of Hamath, to bring the Arke of God from Kir-jath-earim.

6 And Dauid went vp and all Israel to Baal-lath in Kirjath-earim, that was in Iudah, to bring vp from thence the Arke of God the Lord that dwelleth betwene the Cherubims, where his Name is called on.

7 And they caried the Arke of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Vzza and Ahio guided the cart.

8 And Dauid and all Israel played before God with all their might, both with songs and with harps, and with viols, and with tymbrels, & with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came vnto the threshing floore of Chidon, Vzza put forth his hand to hold the Arke, for the oxen did shake it.

10 But the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Vzza, and he smote him, because he layed his hand vpon the Arke: so he died there before God.

11 And Dauid was angry, because the Lord had made a breach in Vzza, and he called the name of that place Perez-vzza vnto this day.

12 And Dauid feared God that day, saying,
How shall I bring in to me the Arke of God?

13 Therefore Dauid brought not the Arke to him into the citie of Dauid, but caused it to turne into the house of Obed Edom the Gittite.

14 So the Arke of God remained in the house of Obed Edom, euen in his house three moneths:
and the Lord blessed the house of Obed Edom, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hiram sendeth wood and workmen to Dauid. 4 The names of his children. 8 14 By the counsell of God he goeth against the Philistines, and ouercometh them. 15 God fighteth for him.

Then sent Hiram the king of Tyrus messengers to Dauid, and Cedar trees, with masons and carpenters to build him an house.

2 Therefore Dauid knewe that the Lord had confirmed him king ouer Israel, and that his kingdome was lift vp on hie, because of his people Israel.

3 Also Dauid tooke moe wiues at Ierusalem, and Dauid begate moe sonnes and daughters.

4 And these are the names of the children which he had at Ierusalem, Shammua, and Sho-bab, Nathan and Salomon,

5 And Ithar, and Elishua, and Elphaler,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Iaphia,

7 And Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphaler.

8 But when the Philistims heard that Dauid was anointed King ouer Israel, all the Philistims came vp to seeke Dauid, and when Dauid heard, he went out against them.

9 And the Philistims came, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

10 Then Dauid asked counsell at God, saying, shal I go vp against the Philistims, and wilt thou deliuer them into mine hand? and the Lord said vnto him, Goe vp: for I will deliuer them into thine hand.

11 So they came vp to Baal perazim, and Da-uid smote them there: and Dauid said, God hath

CHAP. XV.

1 David prepareth an house for the Arke. 4 The number and order of the Levites. 16 The fingers are chosen out among them. 25 They bring againe the Arke with ioy. 29 David dancing before it, as directed of his wife Michal.

And David made him houses in the citie of David, and prepared a place for the Arke of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the Arke of God, but the Levites: for the Lord hath chosen them to beare the Arke of the Lord, and to minister vnto him for euer.

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Ierusalem to bring vp the Arke of the Lord vnto his place, which he had ordained for it.

4 And David assembled the sonnes of Aaton, and the Levites.

5 Of the Sonnes of Kohath, Vziel the chiefe, and his brethren sixe score.

6 Of the sonnes of Merari, Asai the chiefe, and his brethren two hundred and twenty.

7 Of the sonnes of Gershon, Joel the chiefe, and his brethren an hundred and thirty.

8 Of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chiefe, and his brethren two hundred.

9 Of the sonnes of Hebron, Eliel the chiefe, and his brethren fourscore.

10 Of the sonnes of Uzziel, Aminadab the chiefe, and his brethren an hundred and twelue.

11 And David called Zadok and Abiathar the Priests, and of the Levites, Vziel, Asai and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab.

12 And he said vnto them, Ye are the chiefe fathers of the Levites: sanctifie your selues, and your brethren, and bring vp the Arke of the Lord God of Israel vnto the place that I haue prepared for it.

13 For because ye were not there at the first, the Lord our God made a breach among vs: for we sought him not after due order.

14 So the Priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring vp the Arke of the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the sonnes of the Levites bare the Arke of God vpon their shoulders with the bars as Moses had commanded, according to the word of the Lord.

16 And David spake to the chiefe of the Levites, that they should appoint certaine of their brethren to sing with instruments of musick, with viols and harpes, and cymbals, that they might make a sound, and lift vp their voice with ioy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the sonne of Joel, and of his brethren Asaph the sonne of Berechiah, and of the sonnes of Merari their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Kushiiah,

18 And with them their brethren in the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Izziel, & Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Vnni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maasiah, and Mattithiah, & Elipheleh, and Mikueah, and Obed Edom, and Ieiel the porters.

19 So Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were fingers to make a sound with cymbals of brasie.

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Vnni, and Eliab, and Maasiah and Benaiah with viols on Alamoth.

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikueah, and Obed Edom, and Ieiel, and Azariah, with harpes vpon Sheminith Tenazzeah.

22 But Chenaniah the chiefe of the Levites had the charge bearing the burden in the charge, for he was able to instruct.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were porters for the Arke.

24 And Shecaniah, and Iehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer the Priests did blowe with trumpets before the Arke of God, and Obed Edom and Ieiah were porters for the Arke.

25 So David and the Elders of Israel and the captains of thousands went to bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lord from the house of Obed Edom with ioy.

26 And because that God helped the Levites that bare the Arke of the Couenant of the Lord, they offered seven bullockes and seven rammes.

27 And David had on him a linnen garment, as all the Levites that bare the Arke, and the fingers, & Chenaniah that had the chiefe charge of the fingers: and vpon David was a linnen Ephod.

28 Thus all Israel brought vp the Arke of the Lords couenant with shouting, and sound of cornet, and with trumpets, & with cymbals, making a sound with viols and with harpes.

29 And when the Arke of the couenant of the Lord came into the citie of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at a window, & saw king David dancing and playing, and she despised him in her heart.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Arke being placed, they offer sacrifices. 4 David ordaineth Asaph and his brethren to minister before the Lord. 8 He appointeth a notable Psalm to be sung in praise of the Lord.

So they brought the Arke of God, & set it in the midst of the Tabernacle: that David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of the Lord.

These instruments and other ceremonies, which they observed, were instructions of their infancie, which continued to the coming of Christ.

2 Sam. 13. 19.

3 And hee dealt to every one of Israel both man & woman, to every one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a bottell of wine.

Towit, Gods benefits toward his people.

4 And hee appointed certaine of the Levites to minister before the Arke of the Lorde, and to rehearse and to thanke and praise the Lord God of Israel :

5 Asaph the chiefe, and next to him Zechariah, Ieiel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benajah, and Obed Edom, euen Ieiel with instruments, viols, and harpes, and Asaph to make a sound with cymbals,

6 And Benaiah and Iahaziel Priestes, with trumpets continually before the Arke of the Couenant of God.

7 Then at that time Dauid did appoint at the beginning to giue thanks to the Lord by the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 * Praise the Lord, and call vpon his Name : declare his works among the people.

9 Sing vnto him, sing praise vnto him, and talke of all his wonderfull works.

10 Reioyce in his holy Name : let the hearts of them that seeke the Lord, reioyce.

11 Seeke the Lord and his strength : seeke his face continually.

12 Remember his marueilous works that hee hath done, his wonders, and the iudgements of his mouth, 13 O seed of Israel his seruant, O the children of Iakob his chosen.

14 Hee is the Lord our God : his iudgements are throughout all the earth.

15 Remember his Couenant for euer, and the word, which he commanded to a thousand generations :

16 * Which hee made with Abraham, and his othe to Izhak :

17 And hath confirmed it to Iakob for a law, and to Israel for an euerlasting Couenant, 18 Saying, To thee will I giue the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance.

19 When ye were few in number, yea, a very few, and strangers therein,

20 And walked about from nation to nation, and from one kingdome to another people.

21 He suffered no man to doe them wrong, but rebuked Kings for their sakes, saying,

22 Touch not mine anoynted, and doe my Prophets no harme.

23 * Sing vnto the Lord all the earth : declare his saluation from day to day.

24 Declare his glory among the nations, and his wonderfull works among all people.

25 For the Lord is great and much to be praised, and he is to be feared about all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols, but the Lord made the heauens.

27 Praise and glory are before him : power and beauty are in his place.

28 Giue vnto the Lord, ye families of the people : giue vnto the Lord glory and power.

29 Giue vnto the Lord the glory of his Name : bring an offering, and come before him, and worship the Lord in the glorious Sanctuary.

30 Tremble yee before him all the earth, surely the world shal be stable, and not moue.

31 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad, and let them say among the nations, The Lord reigneth.

32 Let the sea roare, and all that therein is : let the field be ioyfull and all that is in it.

33 Let the trees of the wood then reioyce at the presence of the Lord : for hee commeth to iudge the earth.

34 Praise the Lord for he is good, for his mercie endureth for euer.

35 And say ye, Saue vs, O God, our saluation, and gather vs, and deliuer vs from the heathen, that we may praise thine holy Name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for euer and euer : and let all people say, So be it, and praise the Lord.

37 ¶ Then he left there before the Arke of the Lords Couenant Asaph and his brethren to minister continually before the Arke, that which was to be done euery day :

38 And Obed Edom and his brethren, threescore and eight : and Obed Edom the sonne of Ieduthun, and Hosah were porters.

39 And Zadok the Priest and his brethren the Priestes were before the Tabernacle of the Lord, in the hie place that was at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt offrings vnto the Lord vpon the burnt offering altar continually, in the morning and in the euening, euen according vnto all that is written in the Law of the Lord, which he commanded Israel.

41 And with them were Heman, and Ieduthun, and therest that were chosen (which were appointed by names) to praise the Lord, because his mercie endureth for euer.

42 Euen with them were Heman & Ieduthun, to make a sound with the cornets and with the cymbals, with excellent instruments of musick : and the sonnes of Ieduthun were at the gate.

43 And all the people departed, euery man to his house : and Dauid returned to blesse his house.

CHAP. XVII.

3 Dauid is forbidden to build an house vnto the Lord. 12 Christ is promised vnder the figure of Salomon. 18 Dauid giueth thanks, 23 and prayeth vnto God.

Now after ward when Dauid dwelt in his house, hee sayd to Nathan the Prophet, Behold, I dwell in an house of cedar trees, but the Arke of the Lordes Couenant remaineth vnder burlines.

3 Then Nathan sayd to Dauid, Doe all that is in thine heart : for God is with thee.

4 And the same night euen the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

5 Goe, and tell Dauid my seruant, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build mee an house to dwell in :

6 For I haue dwelt in no house since the day that I brought out the children of Israel vnto this day, but I haue bene from tent to tent, and from habitation to habitation.

7 Wherefoerer I haue walked with all Israel, spake I one word to any of the Iudges of Israel (whom I commanded to feede my people) saying, Why haue ye not built mee an house of cedar trees ?

8 Now therefore thus shalt thou say vnto my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I tooke thee from the sheepecoate, and from following the sheepe, that thou shouldst be a prince ouer my people Israel.

Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in their place, and mooue no more: neither shall the wicked people vex them any more, as at the beginning.

And since the time that I commaunded
Iudges ouer my people Israel, And I will subdue all thine enemies: therefore I say vnto thee, that the Lord will build thee an house.

And when thy dayes shall be fulfilled to go with thy fathers, then will I raise vp thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sonnes, and will establish his kingdome.

He shall build mee an house, and I will stablish his throne for euer.

I will be his father, and hee shall be my sonne, and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I tooke it from him that was before
thee.

But I will establish him in mine house, and in my kingdome for euer, and his throne shall be established for euer.

According to all these words, and according to all this vision. So Nathan spake to Dauid.

And Dauid the King went in and said before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God;
and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

Yet thou esteeming this a small thing, O God, hast also spoken concerning the house of thy seruant for a great while, and hast regarded mee according to the estate of a man of high degree, O Lord God.

What can Dauid desire more of thee for the honour of thy seruants? for thou knowest thy seruant.

O Lord, for thy seruants sake, euen according to thine heart hast thou done all this great thing to declare all magnificence.

Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee: according to all that wee haue heard with our eares.

Moreover what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whose God went to re-deeme them, to be his people, and to make thy selfe a Name, and so doe great and terrible things by calling out Nations from before thy people, whom thou hast deliuered out of Egypt?

For thou hast ordeined thy people Israel to be thine owne people for euer, and thou Lord art become their God.

Then fore now Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruants, and concerning his house, be confirmed for euer, and doe as thou hast said.

And let thy Name be stable and magnified for euer, that it may be said, The Lord of hostes God of Israel, is the God of Israel, and let the house of Dauid thy seruants be established before thee.

For thou, O my God, hast reuiled vnto the eare of thy seruants, that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy seruants hath bene bold to pray before thee.

Therefore now Lord (for thou art God, and hast spoken this goodnesse vnto thy seruants)

Now therefore it hath pleased thee to blesse the house of thy seruants, that it may bee before thee for euer: for thou, O Lord, hast blessed it, and it shall be blessed for euer.

CHAP. XVIII.

The battle of Dauid against the Philistines, 2. And against Moab, 3. Zobah, 3. Aram, 12. And Edom.

And after this, Dauid smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and tooke Gath, and the villages thereof out of the hand of the Philistines.

And he smote Moab, and the Moabites became Dauids seruants, and brought gifts.

And Dauid smote Hadarezer King of Zobah vnto Hamath, as hee went to stablish his border by the river Perath.

And Dauid tooke from him a thousand charets, and ten thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footemen, and destroyed all the charets, but hee reserued of them an hundred charets.

Then came the Aramites of Damascus to succour Hadarezer King of Zobah, but Dauid slew of the Aramites two and twenty thousand.

And Dauid put a garison in Aram of Damascus, & the Aramites became Dauids seruants and brought gifts: and the Lord preferred Da-uid wheresoever he went.

And Dauid tooke the shields of gold that were of the seruants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Ierusalem.

And from Tibhath, and from Chun (cities of Hadarezer) brought Dauid exceeding much brasse, wherewith Salomon made the brazen Sea, and the pillars and the vessels of brasse.

Then Tou King of Hamath heard how Dauid had smitten al the hosts of Hadarezer King of Zobah:

Therefore he sent Hadoram his sonne to king Dauid, to salute him, and to reioyce with him, because hee had fought against Hadarezer, and beaten him: for Tou had warre with Hadarezer, who brought all vessels of gold and silver and brasse.

And king Dauid did dedicate them vnto the Lord, with the silver and golde that hee brought from all the nations, from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

And Abisai the sonne of Zeruiah smote of Edom in the salt valley eightene thousand.

And he put a garison in Edom, and all the Edomites became Dauids seruants: and the Lord preferred Dauid wheresoever he went.

So Dauid reigned ouer all Israel, and executed iudgement and iustice to all his people.

And Iobab the sonne of Zeruiah was ouer
the hosts, and Iehoshaphat the sonne of Ahilud Recorder;

And Zadok the sonne of Ahitub, and Abimelech the sonne of Abiathar were the Priestes, and Shausa the Scribe;

And Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada was ouer the Cherethites and the Pelishites: and the sonnes of Dauid were chiefe about the King.

2 And Dauid said, I will shew kindeesse vnto Hanun the sonne of Nahash, because his father shewed kindeesse vnto mee. And Dauid sent messengers to comfort him for his father. So the seruants of Dauid came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that Dauid doeth honour thy father, that hee hath sent comforters vnto thee? Are not his seruants come to thee to search, to seeke and to spie out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun tooke Dauids seruants, and shaued them, and cut off their garments by the halfe vnto the buttocks, and sent them away.

5 And there went certaine and tolde Dauid concerning the men: and hee sent to meet them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the King said, Tarry at Iericho, vntill your beards be grown: then returne.

6 ¶ When the children of Ammon saw that they stank in the sight of Dauid, then sent Hanun and the children of Ammon a thousand talents of siluer, to hire them charets and horsemen out of Aram Naharaim, and out of Aram Maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 And they hired them two and thirty thousand charets, and the king of Maachah and his people, which came and pitched before Medeba: and the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to the battell.

8 ¶ And when Dauid heard, he sent Ioab and all the hoste of the valiant men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and set their battell in aray at the gate of the citie. And the kings that were come, were by themselves in the field.

10 When Ioab sawe that the front of the battell was against him before and behinde, then he chose out of all the choise of Israel, and set himselfe in aray to meet the Aramites.

11 And the rest of the people hee deliuered vnto the hand of Abishai his brother, and they put themselves in aray against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If Aram be too strong for me, then thou shalt succour me: and if the children of Ammon preuaile against thee, then I wil succour thee.

13 Bee strong, and let vs shew our selues valiant for our people, & for the cities of our God, and let the Lord doe that which is good in his owne sight.

14 So Ioab and the people that was with him, came neere before the Aramites vnto the battell, and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon sawe that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city: so Ioab came to Ierusalem.

16 ¶ And when the Aramites sawe that they were discomfited before Israel, they sent messengers, and caused the Aramites to come forth that were beyond the riuer: and Shophach the captaine of the hoste of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was shewed Dauid, he gathered all Israel, and went ouer Iorden, and came vnto them, and put himselfe in aray against them: And when Dauid had put himselfe in battell aray to meet the Aramites, they fought with him.

18 But the Aramites fled before Israel, and Dauid destroyed of the Aramites seven thousand charets, and fourty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captaine of the hoste.

19 And when the seruants of Hadarezer saw that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Dauid, and serued him. And the Aramites would no more succour the children of Ammon.

CHAP. XX.

1 Rabbah destroyed. 2 The Ammonites furnished. 3 The Philistines are stricken ouercome with their giants.

And when the yeere was expired, in the time that kings goe out a warfare, Ioab carried out the strength of the army, and destroyed the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah (but Dauid taried at Ierusalem) and Ioab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 ¶ Then Dauid tooke the crowne of their king from off his head, and found it the weight of a talent of gold with precious stones in it: and it was set on Dauids head, and hee brought away the spoile of the citie exceeding much.

3 And hee caried away the people that were in it, and cut them with sawes, and with harrowes of yron, and with axes: euen thus did Dauid with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then Dauid & all the people came againe to Ierusalem.

4 ¶ And after this also there arose warre at Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Sippai of the children of Haraphah, and they were subdued.

5 And there was yet another battell with the Philistines: and Elhanan the sonne of Iair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose speare staffe was like a weauers beame.

6 And yet againe there was a battell at Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and his fingers were by fixes, euen foure and twenty, and was also the sonne of Haraphah.

7 And when hee reuiled Israel, Ichonathan the sonne of Shimea Dauids brother did slay him.

8 These were borne vnto Haraphah at Gath, and fell by the hands of Dauid, and by the hands of his seruants.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be numbered. 2 And there die Ieremie thousand men of the pestilence.

And Satan stood vp against Israel, and prouoked Dauid to number Israel.

2 Therefore Dauid sayd to Ioab, and to the rulers of the people, Goe, and number Israel from Beer sheba euē to Dan, and bring it to me, that I may know the number of them.

3 And Ioab answered, The Lord increase his people an hundred times to many as they bee, O my lord the king: are they not all my lords seruants? wherefore doth my lord require this thing? why should he be a cause of trepasse to Israel?

4 Neuerthelesse, the kings word preuailed against Ioab. And Ioab departed and went thorow all Israel, and returned to Ierusalem.

5 And Ioab gaue the number and summe of the people vnto Dauid: and all Israel were eleuen hundred thousand men that drew sword, and Iudah was foure hundred and seuentie

9 And the Lord spake vnto Gad Davids Seer, saying,

13 And David said vnto Gad, I am in a wonderfull strait, let me now fall into the hand of the Lord: for his mercies are exceeding great, and let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, and there fell of Israel seuentie thousand men.

3 When God draweth backe his plagues, he seemeth to repent, reade Gen. 6. 6.

Or, Aruauah,

15 ¶ And God sent the Angel into Ierusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, the Lord behelde, and repented of the euill, and said to the Angel that destroyed, It is now enough, let thine hand cease. Then the Angel of the Lord stood by the threshing floore of || Ornan the Iebusite.

16 And David lift vp his eyes, and sawe the Angel of the Lord stand betweene the earth and the heauen, with his sword drawn in his hande and stretched out toward Ierusalem. Then David and the Elders of Israel which were clothed in sacke, fell vpon their faces.

17 And David said vnto God, Is it not I that commanded to number the people? It is euen I that haue sinned and haue committed euill, but these sheepe, what haue they done? O Lord my God, I beseech thee, let thine hand be on me and on my fathers house, and not on thy people for their destruction.

h Thus he both sheweth a true repentance and a fatherly care toward his people, which directeth God to spare the, and to punish him and his.

i If man hide himselfe at the sight of an Angel which is a creature, how much lesse is a sinner able to appeare before the face of God?

18 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to David, that David should goe vp, and set vp an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite.

19 So David went vp according to the saying of Gad, which hee had spoken in the Name of the Lord.

20 And Ornan turned about and saw the Angel, and his foure sonnes that were with him, hid themselves, and Ornan threshed wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floore, and bowed himselfe to David with his face to the ground.

k Thus he did by the commandment of God, as verse 18. for else it had bene abominable, except he had either Gods word, or reuelation.

22 And David said to Ornan, Giue mee the place of thy threshing floore, that I may builde an altar therein vnto the Lord: giue it mee for sufficient money, that the plague may bee stayed from the people.

23 Then Ornan said vnto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king doe that which seemeth him good: for I giue thee bullockes for burnt offerings, and threshing instruments for wood, and wheate for meate offering, I giue it all.

24 And King David said to Ornan, Not so: but I will buy it for sufficient money: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lord, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So David gaue to Ornan for that place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar vnto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings, and peace offerings, and called vpon the Lord, and hee answered him by fire from heauen vpon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And when the Lord had spoken to the Angel, hee put vp his sword againe into his sheath.

28 At that time when David saw that the Lord had heard him in the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 (But the Tabernacle of the Lord which Moyses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that season in the high place at Gibeon.)

30 And David could not goe before it to aske counsell at God: for hee was afraid of the sword of the Angel of the Lord.)

3 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and hee set malons to hew and polish stones to build the house of God.

4 David also prepared much yron for the nailes of the doores and of the gates, and for the ioyning, and abundance of brasse passing weight,

5 And cedar trees without number: for the Zidonians and they of Tyrus brought much cedar wood to David.

6 And David said, Salomon my sonne is yong and tender, and wee must build an house for the Lord, magnificall, excellent & of great fame and dignitie throughout all countreys: I wil therefore now prepare for him. So David prepared very much before his death.

7 Then hee called Salomon his sonne, and charged him to build an house for the Lord God of Israel.

8 And David said to Salomon, My sonne, I purposed with my selfe to build an house to the Name of the Lord my God.

2. Sam. 7. 13.

d This declareth how greatly God detesteth the shedding of blood,

9 But the word of the Lord came to mee, saying, Thou hast shed much blood, & hast made great battels: thou shalt not build an house vnto my Name: for thou hast shed much blood vpon the earth in my sight.

e Seeing David for this cause is stayed to build the Temple of the Lord, albeit hee enterprised no warre but by Gods commandement and against his enemies.

10 Behold, a sonne is borne to thee, which shall be a man of rest, for I will giue him rest from all his enemies round about: therefore his name is Salomon: and I will send peace and quietnesse vpon Israel in his dayes.

6 So David diuided offices vnto them, to wit, counted but as one.

12 The sonnes of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Vzziel, foure.

13 The sonnes of Amram, Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was separated to sanctifie the most bless in his Name for euer.

14 Moses also the man of God and his chil-
